Supposed Murder of a Man Who has

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 13.—What looks like a Birchall case has just come to light here. He wrote several times, detailing places he had visited, and then, the letters

THE ELECTION TRIALS

ed by the Judges—Further Treatment in the South Ontario Trial—A Witness Swears That He Received $10.

WHY, Nov. 14.—Interest is unabated in the trial of the petition to unseat James Ironside Davidson, M.P. for South Ontario, before Justices Falconbridge and Slater, at the Ontario Court House, Toronto, today. The ladies has been fully occupied by fair listeners to the interesting evidence adduced.

W. T. R. Preston, secretary of the G.T.R. for the Ontario division, was the first witness in the box yesterday. He said that from good many constituencies lists of outstanding voters were received by him. He said that the G.T.R. office had been supplied with regard to free passes for voters.

Mr. Ryan saw Mr. Whyte, who came to Preston's office and said they couldn't do anything for him. He said that he had orders on Mr. Slater for tickets were honored. He had no special knowledge of special trains run election day to carry voters. He said that he had no special trains, but that tickets or passes.

The next charge taken up was one alleged in amendment to the bill to be paid to the contractor for reference to alleged payment of $2 to John Donnelly, a laborer on the Grand Trunk Railroad, living formerly at Myrtle in South Carolina.

Donnelly testified: Malcolm McTaggart is a farmer at Myrtle, whom I knew through the railroad. He was a very good man, and he called to see me one evening shortly after the passage of the bill. He was a little drunk. He wanted to know if I would come down and vote for Davidson. I would not be able to go down at my own expense. He said that he would take me to the train at York, the conductor saying the ticket was no good. At York Mr. D. Murray gave me a ticket, which carried me down to Myrtle. I did not know where it came along. From there I had to pay my fare, 35 cents, to Myrtle. After I had voted I told Mr. McTaggart the ticket was no good. He said that he would give me a fare. He handed me a bill, and said there was $2 he would lend me.

McTaggart in his evidence admitted that dent Donnelly the $2 when he found on enquiry that he had very little money with which to return home, which was done over the C. P. R. from Myrtle.

Counsel thereupon argued from the evidence upon this charge and court rose, judgment on this branch of the case being reserved.

Another charge that R. H. Huriburt of Orillia had been paid his traveling exgense ($3.46) to Myrtle and return was gone into, but Hurlburt and McGartney, who was the alleged payer, both emphatically denied the charge and the court dismissed it.

Much time during the afternoon was occupied with hearing the evidence of Manning Brothers and others regarding alleged bribery by Secretary Dickie of the Reform Club. John Manning, former federal circuit judge, testified that he had been approached by Dickie in 1906, and that he had refused the offer.

Ontario at Brooklyn, Whitty and Oshawa, and in business at election time at the corner of King and Niagara-streets, Toronto. He said he got a note from Mr. Dickle requesting him to come to the Reform Club that evening. He went on and returning a second time with three others, his brothers John, one Gowdy and Robert Mitchell, they were furnished tickets and got $10, which he divided up with his companions.

Further satirical evidence followed, showing that he was a Conservative and never intended to vote for Davidson. The witness continued: John G. Smith, a cousin of William Smith, the defeated candidate, hunted me up at a hotel in Niagara-street. I reported to Jack Lawder that same night that I got the tickets what had occurred at Reform Club. I sold the ticket for $2 to Alexander Henderson of the Inland Revenue office, Toronto. I'll take money from any

The railway feature of the case was further taken up by examining C. W. Smith, a friend of Manning's, who said that he got it. Dickie told me it was through Dr. Rae of Oshawa and he wrote me. Michael P. Warren, who had gathered the Oshawa voters in Toronto, said that John Manning spoke very bitterly to him about the treatment his (Manning's) sister had received from Wm. Smith, the defeated candidate.

Taylor, business manager, Toronto Globe, as to having arranged for the running of special trains for voters on election day. He explained there had been a confusion of accounts between The Globe and Reform organization through changing one of the specials run west from Toronto, election day, in place of one they had to carry The Globes through to Windsor the morning after the election.

The Leake case will also be taken up with the examination of Mrs. Leake, who denied having been paid any money by Seibert on the occasion of Seibert and young Campbell calling on her husband in Toronto before election, nor did she hear any promise made to pay her husband anything, but on his return he told her Seibert had put a bill in his vest pocket and when he got to the station on pulling out the bill found it was only $1.

John G. Campbell and Louis Seibert denied having paid or promised to pay anything to Leslie, who they said was only too anxious to get down to Whithy to vote and would have walked if they had not given him a ticket.

At the evening session, which commenced at 8 p.m., argument was begun on the evidence already in.

Making or Brewing Tea.

In the Preparation of most Articles of Food, it is necessary to have some knowledge of the Best Method of Cooking before a dish can be produced in any Degree of Perfection. And although it is a Simple Theory to Brew Tea, the knowledge of "how to do it" is necessary in one case as the other. It may seem strange to be talking thus about a subject which each and all think they understand; but there is no doubt that almost as much dissatisfaction is caused from Tea being carelessly brewed, as from the use of inferior Tea. First, the water used should be as soft and pure as can be obtained; second, that the water should be boiled as quickly as possible and used as boiling point. It must be allowed to simmer even for a few minutes it will not extract the full strength and flavor from the leaves. Never use water that has been boiled the second time. Third, all that portion of the Tea that can be dissolved is extracted before the expiration of ten minutes, five or six minutes is generally sufficient. The infusion is then at its best, for that time it is gradually less part of flavor, until if allowed to stew for half an hour or an hour, it becomes dull and mawkish.

Is Life Worth Living?

This subject was ably discussed last evening at the regular meeting of the Epworth League of Christian Endeavor of the Church of the Methodist church. The meeting was opened with devotional exercises, after which the chairman called on Miss Sherlock to introduce the subject of the evening, "Is life worth living?" The essayist had certainly given great thought in the preparation of the subject. The language used was exceedingly eloquent and beautiful, appropriate selections of choice poetry being neatly interwoven had the tendency to give to it splendid effect. The drift of the essay went to show that life lived in the right way was worth living, and that if we wished to make the best of life we were to work and toil and do all the good we can in this world to bear one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ. Considerable interest was taken in the paper given by Miss Sherlock, which elicited remarks from Rev. Mr. Edwards, Mr. Bacon, late of Toronto, Mr. Clouston, Mr. Price, Mr. Moore, Mr. Hamilton, and others. Miss Robinson presided at the piano, the music of the evening being lively and spirited. Next Monday evening the subject of the essay will be a literary character, as the executive decided that every fourth meeting should be of an entertaining character.

How to save money is a problem that interests everybody. One way to do it is to invigorate the system with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Being a highly concentrated blood medicine, it is the most powerful and economical. It is sold for a dollar a bottle, but worth five.

Antislated Wherever They Go.

The Kingston News of yesterday has the following to say of the McGibney Family who are to give a musical performance in Bradburn's Opera House here to-morrow evening:—"The average 'musical family' must be admitted, is a 'realism' to the flesh," but the McGibney family, which appeared in the opera house on Saturday afternoon and evening, is a notable exception. They presented a programme of extraordinary musical merit, and aimed at a high, amounting perhaps to genius. The opera house was crowded at the matinee principally with ladies and children, who fully appreciated the fine programme which was presented. Splendid selections were given by the family orchestra, Master Jamie, a perfect Lord Fauntleroy, acting as conductor. Glee, duets, kinder songs, string quartettes, readings, trombone solos, violin solos, etc., comprised the rest of the programme. Each one did so well that it is hard to particularize, but Miss Florence gave evidence of a beautifully modulated voice, and of phenomenal instrumental talent. Her younger sister, Miss Grace, is both beautiful and accomplished and was a general favorite with the audience. A cold prevented her from taking a more prominent part in the programme. The evening concert was not as well attended as it should have been, but those who were present were delighted with the entertainment."

Oh woman, lovely woman, why wilt thou suffer so,
Why bear such pain and anguish and agony of woe?

Why don't you seek the remedy—the one that's all the go?
"All the go," because it makes the pains go. As an invigorating, restorative tonic, soothing cordial and bracing nerve, for a debilitated and feeble woman generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has no equal. It improves digestion, invigorates the system, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, produces refreshing sleep, drives out melancholy and nervousness, and builds up both the flesh and strength of the system. Reduced by any disease, don't be put off with some worthless compound, costly, but dishonestly recommended by "quacks," as good as that the dealer may make more profit. "Favorite Prescription" is incomparable.

HERE'S A JOOLY GAME.

Fun and instructive and in Every Way suitable for a Parlor Entertainment.
When one wishes to entertain a few friends in an informal way some sort of progressive game is almost sure to suggest itself, because it is such an easy way to do away with stiffness and formality. But there are many people who are conscientiously opposed to games, and, indeed, to playing for a prize, in any game which contains any elements of chance. Yet the prize feature is a pleasant one, and has become so popular that people almost expect it, so for the benefit of hostesses who wish to entertain such people as have mentioned I will suggest an evening's entertainment which has been delightfully carried out, in which success depends entirely upon skill, for there is not the slightest element of chance in the game. This is the progressive dictionary game, or progressive vocabulary.

Each guest is furnished with a small pad of paper, to which a well sharpened pencil is attached. The outside of these pads might be decorated, if the hostess possesses artistic skill. At the head of each page the word selected for the evening's game is either printed or written. The pads for the ladies made be distinguished from those for the gentlemen by ribbons of different colors. They must also be numbered with the numbers of the table and couple. For instance the gentleman holding the pad numbered table 1, couple 1, finds the lady with the corresponding numbers, and of course, a second couple plays at the same table.

Suppose the word "horsemanship" has been selected. The object of the game is to see how many words can be made from the letters in that word. No letter can be repeated in any word except the letter L, which is selected word, and no proper nouns or plurals are allowed. The guests take their places at the table, and when the leader (some one who is not playing) gives the word, each guest writes down as many words as possible, beginning with the letter H. Three or four minutes are usually allowed for each letter, after which the bell is rung and each player passes his pad to his left hand neighbor, who corrects and crosses out any mispelled words and counts the number of words, writing the number on the bottom of the page. The pads are then returned to their owners, and the lady and gentleman having the greatest number of words progress to the next table, each receiving a star, which is pasted to the cover of the pad. The next time the bell is rung all the letters must be O, and this is continued until all the letters in the word horsemanship are used, which makes ten letters in all. The guests leave their tables in the order in which they are seated, and are repeated, so they need to be used only once. At the end of the game, before the guests leave the table, the hostess is given, during which each guest is expected to write a poem of four lines containing the selected word.

Refreshments are served at the tables, after which some one who reads well reads all the excellent words that the guests have for the most clever one. Lastly, prizes are given to the lady and gentleman having the most stars, and all of the guests who prizes may also be given if the hostess desires so.

It is well to select a word of some temporary significance and appropriateness. At an entertainment of this kind a certain city where a very exciting senatorial contest was in progress the word taken was senatorship, and all of the guests knew the would-be United States Senators, the names of which were expressed decided party feeling, were received with great applause, and some of them were really very good.

If it were near the holiday season Christmaside would be a very good word, but, no doubt, any number of appropriate words, containing several vowels, will suggest themselves to the hostess. If this plan is carried out a delightful evening will be the result.—Chicago Herald.

A NARROW ESCAPE!

The Circumstances Create a Profound Impression—A Country Official's Story!
"Every word of it is true," said Mr. ... a county official, living not one hundred miles from the flourishing town of Peterborough, Ont. "I know that many have heard of the circumstance, and have naturally been deeply impressed with the facts. It is not worth repeating, but I can assure you the call was a close one. As you have heard something of my case, you are surely convinced of the truth of it; if you are not, let me refer you to my physician and several friends who visited me regularly."

"Did your physician thoroughly understand your condition?" "Yes, quite well. He was aware that extreme nervousness and muscular rheumatism were wearing my life away. He tried many forms of treatment, without any good results. He declared my case hopeless; he told me to prepare for the worst. Like a drowning man grasping at straws, I determined to make another bid for life, and decided to try Faline's Celery Compound, and you see the result. You can tell your readers that a man of 55 years of age, once at the gates of death, has been rescued, and is now hale, strong, energetic, and sleeps and eats as naturally as a healthy child. Faline's Celery Compound was my life preserver and savior, and God speed the day when all the suffering and diseased can be brought to recognize its great value."

TRAGEDY ON BOARD THE OCEAN
LINER MONGOLIAN.

The Callous Murderer: Wise Glories in the Killing of His Shipmate-Salter—The Queen's Consequential Trip—Eugene Buys a Residence.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—An exciting incident, which occurred on board the steamer Mona, Nov. 17, at Liverpool, has been made public. While the steamer was passing Londonderry on Friday, bound up the Irish Sea, Mrs. Mason, a passenger, was armed with a revolver in hand, and fired at Purser Stewart, who was on the forenoon deck. The purser tried to disarm the woman, but being unsuccessful in getting the weapon from her she discharged the pistol three times. Two of the bullets struck the purser, and he was mortally wounded.

At the time and great excitement prevailed. No reason is given for Mrs. Mason's act and she was permitted to return to her cabin at Liverpool. Stewart's wounds are serious.

Wise Glories in the Killing of His Shipmate-Salter.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Wise, the boat murderer, was present yesterday at the coroner's inquest upon the body of the victim, Salter, and he was the only one who testified. To the belief of those who have watched the case, that he is a moral monstrosity. He testified that he had no quarrel with Salter, and he was sure as the witnesses told the circumstances of the murder; how he had pushed young Salter over the cliff; how he had laughed at Salter's mother's grief; how he had afterwards threatened to kill his other companion, the boy Groon.

Lieutenant Mills testified that Wise, after relating the facts of the Salter murder, had confessed that he had strangled a boy in the Catholic school at Guildford last July and buried his body in the sea.

Wise was wonderfully calm while telling of his crimes, but when witnesses visited him again three hours afterwards a different man appeared. He had a morose appearance, and he looked like a ferocious maniac, with glittering eyes and sinister expression of countenance.

Lady Westminster seceded from the Liberals during Mr. Gladstone's first Administration, and at the last four general elections her great influence in Dorsetshire was exercised on behalf of the Conservative candidates. She considerably resented the continued adherence of her sons to Mr Gladstone in 1889; but their secession in 1898 appeared her wrath. She was a woman of wide reading, bright intelligence and much force of character.

Making or Brewing Tea.

In the Preparation of most articles of Food, it is necessary to have some knowledge of the Best Method of Cooking before a dish can be produced in any degree of Perfection. And although it is a simple thing to Brew Tea, the knowledge of "how to do it" is as necessary in one case as in the other. It may seem strange to be talking thus about a subject which every one and all think they understand; but there is no doubt that almost as much dissatisfaction is caused from Tea being carelessly brewed, as from the use of inferior Tea.

First, the water used should be as soft and pure as can be obtained; second, that the water should be boiled as quickly as possible and used as boiling point. It must boil but it must not overboil, for should it be allowed to simmer even for a few minutes it will not extract the full strength and flavor from the leaves. Never use water that has been boiled the second time. Third, all that portion of the Tea that can be dissolved is extracted before the expiration of ten minutes, five or six minutes is generally sufficient. The infusion is then at its best, from that time it gradually loses part of its flavor, until it is allowed to stand for half an hour or an hour, it becomes dull and markish.

A Banquet.

The people of St. Thomas' church, Belleville, were well pleased with the stereoscopic entertainment given them by Mr. E. M. Roy that already they wish him to return and give another. By the way, would it not be a good idea for Mr. Roy to give an occasional entertainment with his fine instrument on Saturday afternoons in the Opera House? He has such a large variety of fine views that it would be instructive and amusing for children.

Inspection of Armouries.

Col. Stranahan, D.A.G., and Capt. Stranahan, District Paymaster, were in town yesterday and inspected the armouries, clothing and accoutrements of the 5th Battalion. Things were very satisfactory, although a complaint was made to the commanding officer, among the men. In the afternoon the district officers were driven around town and in the evening they were entertained at the Battalion dinner.

The McGibney Family.

The Opera House was very well filled on Wednesday evening to hear the McGibney family. This versatile and talented organization gave a very satisfactory and delightful concert, the programme being varied and ample. In the theatrical pieces the playing was strong and effective, with attention to the shading and nuances of execution. The several members appeared in solos on their special instruments and added to the pleasing character of the programme. The crowded state of our columns forbids an extended notice, but it may be said that they combine all the features that so largely help to make up a thoroughly taking company and one that will always prove popular.

If your little ones suffer with "anemia" Kemp's Balsam will give them relief. It is a certain cure for all forms of cold in the head or catarrh. Sold by all dealers. Try it.

A GALLANT GATHERING.

ANNUAL DINNER OF THE OFFICERS OF THE 5TH BATTALION.

The Officers of the 5th Battalion have a very interesting and enjoyable dinner at the Hotel de Ville, on Wednesday evening, November 18th.

Never did a more gallant or jolly gathering of officers meet around a festive board than that which filled the beautifully spread tables in the dining room of the Snowden house last night. It was the annual dinner of the officers of the 5th Battalion and right royally did the evening wear into the early morning with speech, song, recitation and merriment.

The dining room of the Snowden House was the picture of decoration. Flags floated in the air and canopied the tables. Across the south wall was the motto "God Save the Queen" appearing in the folds of an immense Union Jack. The table, a long one up the centre of the room, was faultlessly laid and the lights were shedding their full radiance. It was a resplendent scene. The gaily decorated room, the spotless white of the linen, the shining of the silver and the two long rows of brightly uniformed officers made up an attractive scene of brilliant colors.

Capt. Donistoun presided as President of the mess, with Lieut. Schofield in the Vice-President's chair. Lt.-Col. Stranahan was the distinguished guest of the officers and occupied a seat on the right of Capt. J. Z. Rogers. On the right of the President of the mess was seated Major Ward, of the 4th, while the seat to his left was occupied by Capt. Stranahan, District Paymaster, of Kingston. The number around the board numbered thirty, the other guests present being Lieut. Col. H. O. Rogers, of the 3rd Cavalry; Quartermaster Chas. Stapleton, of the 3rd Cavalry; Capt. Birdall, of the 4th Battalion; Lieut. Snyder, of the Durham Field Battery; Lieut. Geo. Bennett, of the 5th Battalion; Col. Poole, and Messrs. Jas. Stevenson, M.P., and J. R. Stratton, M.P.

While the officers were discussing the excellent menu the Battalion band were filling the air with the sweetest strains. Bandmaster Miller and his musicians were charming in the sitting room and the charming music floated in to the banqueters through the open doors of the dining hall. The programme rendered by the band was as follows:

March.....Royal Leves.....E. J. Elliott
Serenade.....Elysiac.....Glick
Valse.....Summer Rites, Jasper Vale Lane
Coronet.....The Golden Crown, W. J. Allen
Fantasia.....Pride of Scotland.....H. Bond Selection.....Marianne.....Wallace
Valse.....Perryman John, C. W. Bewley
When the knife and fork discussion had ceased, the musical programme concluded, the "flow of soul" began. The first toast was proposed by the President, Capt. Donistoun. It was the patriotic toast of "The Queen," and was followed by a more loyal one by Lieut. Ward, who wore Her Majesty's uniform who rose and with loyal enthusiasm toasted their Queen.

The second toast was "The Governor-General, Dominion House and Local Legislature," and was proposed by the Vice-President, Lieut. Schofield. This called forth speeches from Mr. Stevenson, M.P., and Mr. Stratton, M.P.

Col. J. Z. Rogers happily proposed the next toast, "The District and the 5th Battalion," which was warmly honored by the officers. Col. Stranahan, D.A.G., and Capt. Stranahan, District Paymaster, acknowledged the toast. In doing so Col. Stranahan spoke many warm words of praise of the corps, the officers of which he saw around him. He said that the 5th was rapidly asserting itself and was coming to a foremost place among the battalions of the country, and if they made the same progress another year as they have in the past, they would be second to no battalion in the Dominion. He congratulated the officers and thanked them for the reception of the toast.

"Our Sister Corps" was proposed by Capt. Birdall and drank with great zest. The responses were happy and varied, coming from Lieut. Col. H. O. Rogers, Major Stapleton, Major Ward, Capt. Birdall, Lieut. Bennett and Lieut. Snyder.

Col. Poole made reply to the toast of "Our Sister Corps," which was proposed by Major Edwards.

Col. M. C. Rogers presented "Our Host," which was acknowledged by Capt. Donistoun on behalf of the good man of the house. Lieut. Stevenson had the pleasant duty devolved upon him of proposing the health of "the Ladies." His words in submitting a toast so popular at such a gathering were happily seconded by Lieut. Hayes who championed the fair sex and acknowledged the toast.

"The Baby" was proposed by Surgeon Halliday and responded to by the "battalion infant," Lieut. Tubb.

The host, Mr. Wm. Snowden, is entitled to great credit for the menu which he placed before his guests and the excellent manner in which it was served.

It has been a carload of (October) brewing Label and Dominion Ale and White Porter has just arrived at Stapleton & Simcoe's. Order a sample case and satisfy yourselves that it is in prime condition.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there follows a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes

That Tired Feeling
creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

Fagged Out
"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BODOL, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out
"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully it saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. F. R. MORGAN, 100 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

HENRY WARD BEECHER.

MRS. BEECHER TELLS OF "MR. BEECHER AS I KNEW HIM."

Her first meeting with the Great Preacher—His boyish spiritiveness—His habits as a young man—His first sermon—His first Diablot in the pulpit.

Mrs. Henry Beecher, of whom the accompanying cut is from a recent portrait, is now writing a series of papers for the Ladies Home Journal on "Mr. Beecher as I knew him." The first is before us, and we make known to you the loving recollections of Mrs. Beecher.

My first meeting with Henry Ward Beecher was in the early part of May 1830. He was a classmate of a brother of mine, in Amherst College, and very close friends.

The two were just out of their freshman year when, together with another college classmate, they walked from Amherst to my father's house at West Newton for their spring vacation.

At that time young Beecher was not quite seventeen years of age, but he was as old as you and I, and he was as full of life and energy as you and I.

He was a young man of a very unusual height, and he was as full of life and energy as you and I. He was a young man of a very unusual height, and he was as full of life and energy as you and I.

the first visit to us, scarlet fever had swept through the town where we lived. Our "help" had been taken home very sick, and no one could be found, at this crisis, to take her place. So, with a very large family, mother and myself did the work together. Leaving brother to entertain his friends, we were obliged to be most of the day busy in daily or kitchen. But these young colleagues appeared to find these places the most attractive, and mother's smiling way of meeting all their pranks was a source of perpetual delight, especially to young Beecher. He became very fond of mother.

MR. BEECHER AT 17.

He always insisted he fell in love with mother, and took me because he couldn't get her. "I don't know what he was thinking," he was accustomed to say.

One day, in taking bread and pies from the old-fashioned brick oven, with the long-handled "fire stick," as the shovel was called, mother called me to the dairy to remove some ashes which had fallen on a pie; but Henry sprang forward with boyish agility, saying:

"No, no, no, don't do that, please," and taking it from her hand, without her dreaming of the intended mischief, the three inseparable went to the garden, and seating themselves under an old apple tree, quietly ate up the whole pie.

This labor of love accomplished, two of the "helpers" were not quite equal to performing the service they had rendered. But young Beecher demurely walked in, and handing mother the empty plate, said, with a quiet smile:

"See how nicely we have cleaned the plate!"

His habits as a young man.

Young and impulsive, ever ready to respond to the wishes of those who took pleasure in his society, and "thinking up" all of those around him, it was singular that he was never tempted to participate in any of the indulgences of the day, no common among all classes at that time the same as it is to-day.

But, as young man he was unusually free from any bad habits. He never smoked, nor drank tobacco in any form, either as a boy, youth or full grown man. He never indulged in any of the pleasures of the day, no common among all classes at that time the same as it is to-day.

He was a young man of a very unusual height, and he was as full of life and energy as you and I. He was a young man of a very unusual height, and he was as full of life and energy as you and I.

the look of surprise—almost scorn—on some faces, when he—this lad of seventeen—came to address them. Some thought it a farce, until he began to speak. Then, attention came levelled at him, and for nearly an hour scarcely one in that audience moved in his seat. The sermon was an earnest one, simple yet eloquent. Not once did he hesitate for a single word. Sentences followed sentences as smoothly as if they were uttered by a minister of long experience. Never did he let his Plymouth pulpit, or on any other platform, hold an audience more fully under his control, so thoroughly spell-bound—than in this, his first effort. I do not mean that he never preached better or more eloquently in later years—that would be a foolish assertion. But this was a simple, quiet country village, where, doubtless, good, sound doctrine was given to the people, but with little of the earnestness, or eloquence, which so quickly touches people who have never been accustomed to that mode of preaching. He preached in the little old school-house until his school closed, and I think the people who heard him then, and some of whom still remain, have never forgotten or ceased to love the young man who came to them under his control, so thoroughly spell-bound—than in this, his first effort.

While he taught school during those two winters he saved every penny of his small earnings, and with his father's help, he went to Amherst, to his father's in Boston, and from there to the country town where he taught, thus saving traveling expenses.

His first disbelief in dogmas.

The long years of our engagement were happy ones, but since they were of more importance to ourselves than to others, little need be said of them here.

When through college, Mr. Beecher began at once his theological studies in Lane Seminary, of which his father was president. That far western State being too far from Massachusetts for any more vacation studies, we did not meet again for four years. It was not long after entering upon these studies, and in constant association with people more or less interested in theological study, that his mind became greatly troubled over the disputes which then ran high between the old and new schools of the Presbyterian Church. Slowly, but steadily, he began to question many points in the doctrines so authoritatively held, and walking, as he did not meet again for four years, he showed that even in those early days he was dissatisfied and uncertain how far he could accept many of the old Calvinistic dogmas. And this uncertainty increased as his judgment became clearer and more mature.

THE PETER DEMONSTRATION.

THE strength and cohesiveness of the Dominion Ministry, says the Montreal Gazette, was well illustrated at the reception given at Perth to Hon. Mr. Macgill, at which seven Ontario Ministers attended to do honor to their colleague who has been so vigorously persecuted. The speeches all vibrated with the most glowing sentiments respecting the present and future of the country, with the spirit of internal harmony existing, and the conviction of inevitable strength and vigor in every branch of the Administration. Mr. John Thompson, speaking of the position of the Government, said that it still had the support of Parliament and of the country, and would meet Parliament at the next session with ranks closed up to the hilt. He stressed men from Ontario and the other Provinces. We believe that the Conservative party can rest upon it as a definite assurance that the majority of the Commons which can be safely predicted on November 28, at least thirty, and this will be increased in the by-election to forty. There is no shadow of doubt that the Ministry of the Hon. Mr. Abbott will be able to stand up to the assaults that can be made against it during the present Parliament. The Premier is sustained not alone by the patriotic sentiment that lingers around the tomb of the great leader who is gone, but by the cohesive force of the financial, commercial and industrial interest of Canada. All these interests are best served by maintenance of the status quo. It is not a time for commercial and political experiment, just when the country has gone through with its heavy outlays and is entering upon the fruition of its highest hopes. As Hon. Mr. Foster pointed out, there is nothing wrong in Canada. Its credit has not declined, but stands higher than that of any other British colony. The debt, if large, has not been increased for two years and a half. Last year the taxation was less by $1,000,000 than the previous year. The Government at one swoop struck off taxation equivalent to $3.50 for every family in the land. The Liberals, said the Finance Minister, talked about taxation, and yet their policy as defined by themselves almost a fatal blow at more than half of the industries of the country, thereby striking a blow at the labor of the country. More than that, it would slash away at over $100,000,000 of revenue, which could only be made up by going to each individual elector, and gathering a share from him. In his remarks upon the scandalous policy of the Opposition, Sir John Thompson spoke of the way the facts had been distorted and exaggerated out of all semblance to truth. The record showed that not a single question had been ruled out from start to finish, notwithstanding the fact that political rancor and prejudice had been introduced at nearly every one of the meetings. Passing to speak of other matters, Sir John Thompson pointed out that the Opposition had gone into the fight in an arm, well provided with booby traps for the purpose of putting down Tory corruption. The address of the Hon. J. A. Chapple rang with patriotic fervor. Upon the walls he saw the ever memorable words which every true Conservative had graven on his heart: "A British subject was born, a British subject I will die." It was the same sentiment that actuated the Conservative party in Quebec. They would all remember the notable words of Sir Kenehan Topley, that the goal to be fired in Canada in defense of the British flag would be fired by a Frenchman, and he would add to that sentiment the expression of his own conviction, that the last man to cross the boundary with a proposition to sell our commercial independence and barter our freedom would be a Frenchman. Referring to the occasion of the meeting which he was addressing, Mr. Chapple said that those before him were right to be proud of their representative in South Lanark, not only because of his worth, but on account of the persecutions he had been subjected to during the last session of Parliament, which only enhanced the value to the party and the country. For himself, he was present simply to add them in their welcome, and on the score of policy would content himself with subscribing fully to every particular of the policy laid down by the previous speakers as that of the great Conservative party. When the time came for them to decide again between the two parties let those consider which was the more worthy of support, those whose aim was to lower the credit of the country and degrade its institutions in the eyes of the world, or the party whose endeavor it was to raise it and give it a name.

BACK TO THE BEGINNING

A RARE COLLECTION OF FIRST EDITIONS OF DICKENS' WORKS.

Remarkable Library Belonging to a Chicago Bibliophile containing the Earliest Publications of the Stories of the Great Novelist—Many Volumes Absolutely Unknown to Pseudo-Orleans Sketches and Explanations.

There are few collections of books so small that they cannot boast of a set of Dickens' works. Sets of the companionable stories may be had at prices ranging from $5 to as many thousands. It is perhaps unnecessary to say that there are a few of the latter class. Ordinarily very few people are so interested in a favorite author that they are willing to pay several thousand dollars for the most perfect edition of his works that they may be procured. Still there are cases of all sorts in bibliomania, and not the rarest is a case for Dickens. There are three complete sets of the first editions of Dickens in Chicago, and there are perhaps as many more in New York. One particularly perfect is owned by a book collector residing on the West Side, who claims to have paid nearly $5,000 for his enthusiasm for the novelist.

WHILE "PICKWICK" WAS BEING WRITTEN.

The fact is that a set of the first editions of Dickens comprises a goodly number of which the average reader of the novels by "Dickens" has never heard. We all know "Pickwick" and "Copperfield"; but some of the most expensive of the items in the collection alluded to are works that are trilling and unimportant save to the bibliomaniac.

"For example," says the collector, "there is 'Sunday Under Three Heads,' a pamphlet of forty-nine pages, published in 1836. Dickens wrote it under the nom de plume of Timothy Sparks, and addressed it to the Bishop of London, calling that potentate's attention to the mistakes in London observations of the first edition of the work, and getting reforms. For this little book 'Phiz,' otherwise H. K. Brown, who illustrated most of Dickens' works, made some woodcuts that are probably the worst he ever did. The book is worthless as literature. I have never read it through, but a copy sells for $100 in the paper covers in which it was printed.

"But if it is worthless as literature, why buy it at such a figure?"

"It is plain you are not a book collector," was the reply, a trifle contemptuous. "I intend to complete my set; besides it's a curiosity."

Other items of Dickensiana that are rarely heard of are "The Village Coquette," a novel in three volumes, published in 1836, and "The Strange Gentleman," a burlesque, and "The Lamplighter," a farce. These are all very rare. The first edition of "The Village Coquette" brings $100 readily and cannot now be bought even at that figure. "The Strange Gentleman" is almost

As rare, or rarer, in fact, than a fac-simile has made of it and readily deceives the inexperienced buyer. As for "The Strange Gentleman," it is absolutely not to be found in the first edition. Most of the copies were destroyed by the burning of Osgood's old Boston publishing house. A very curious item of these rarities is called "The Loving Ballad of Lord Bateman." This little book has been a theme for dispute among book collectors. For years it was maintained that the humorous notes which furnish a running accompaniment to the cockney version of the old ballad were by Thackeray.

All the evidence, however, goes to show that the writing was Dickens'. George Cruikshank, who made the humorous illustrations of the pamphlet, is authority for the statement that the book was written by and as the novelist. Dickens hated it, and as the novelists were at words points for many years, the latter was unlikely to credit Dickens with anything that was not his due. A good copy of this with the original green covers is worth $50 to $75. It is not only scarce among book collectors. For years it was highly diverting. The story runs that Cruikshank was the habit of signing the story to children. Dickens hated it, took down the words, made notes on them, and the artist contributed pictures.

"Sketches of Young Ladies," "Sketches of Young Gentlemen," and "Sketches of Young Couples" are three items that a complete set of first editions of Dickens

A DICKENS PORTRAIT BY CORTY D'ORNEY. must not be without. The first is not by Dickens but probably by the Mayhew brothers. Dickens regarded it as a slander among youthful femuraries and wrote a reply, "Sketches of Young Gentlemen." First editions of these are worth almost as much as Dickens' novels. For years it was much in the style of his "Sketches by Boz." They are little vest-pocket books that were published in board covers with some clever etchings by "Phiz."

"I will not weary you by showing you other items of this class. They are not interesting," declared the collector, putting a small volume in its place with the reverence of a book lover. "There are 100 volumes in this collection, and I have probably you never heard of a third of them. The Dickens collector must buy everything that the novelist is known to have written. For example, he edited the first volume of 'Beetle's Miscellany,' and wrote a few articles for these numbers, which are therefore, precious to the collector. Did you ever hear of 'Frauds on the Fairies,' 'Proposals for a New Just Book,' 'Waste Heat,' or 'Public Economy'?

These are only a few of the articles by

Dickens scattered through the extensive magazine literature of the period. The collector must buy all these magazines if he is properly enthusiastic bibliophile. There are also a goodly number of books for which Dickens wrote prefaces. These must be had. For instance, here is a preface written in 'Infelicitia,' a novel by the famous Adah Isaac Menken, the dashing and beautiful Masappa."

"And what are these five little books?"

"These are five puns, the Christmas stories, 'A Christmas Carol,' 'The Cricket on the Hearth,' 'The Battle of Life,' 'The Chimes,' and 'The Hunchback of Notre Dame.' Each of these was issued with red cloth covers which you see are bound in at the back of the book, which I have had handsomely rebound by the best London binder. This is a custom in the original covers of a publication are always bound with it. In the case of periodical publications like the Dickens' novels the advertisements are always bound in also. Hence collectors do likewise."

"To return to the Christmas books. They are most charming specimens of book making. The illustrations are by some of the best English artists—(Jackson Stanfield, John Tenniel, Doyle, Leach, and others. Look at the colored plates in 'A Christmas Carol,' by John Leach. Nothing could be better in the way of color illustration. They make no such books in these days, when all illustrations are done by some photo process."

"Your collection of Dickensiana comprises other works besides the writings of the novelist?"

"Several of a biographical nature. For instance, here is Foster's 'Life of Dickens,' the first edition extended from three volumes to nine by the insertion of portraits, autograph letters, play-bills, and other interesting things. 'The Life of Grimaldi,' which was edited by Dickens, has been similarly extended from two volumes to four by the insertion of portraits, autographs, etc."

"Isn't the collection something that you get weary of?"

"Not a bit of it. To me the Dickens books represent an epoch in the history of the English people. Nowhere else will you find such power of description in humor or pathos, such character drawing. They are a better chronicle of the people of England in this century than any dry and dusty historian could write. And the pictures are a panorama of life and character, which is a source of never-ending delight to me."

Remains Here for Interment.

The remains of the late Miss Harriet Bolton, daughter of the late Geo. Bolton, a member of the Old Legislative Council and a former resident of Peterborough, arrived here today on the noon express of the C.P.R. The funeral service was held at St. John's church and the remains were interred in the Little Lake cemetery. The deceased is well known in Peterborough.

Well Prepared.

Mr. James McComb has made ample preparations for the holiday trade. He has made a lucky purchase of 4,000 pairs of ladies and gentlemen's gloves at 50 cents on the dollar, and in addition has a complete stock of underwear, hosiery, blouses and flannels, yarn, and ladies and gentlemen's furnishings, just what is required for the season. His store is at 121 Hunter-st., near the post office.

The Body Found.

Mr. Wm. Langford has received a telegram from Winnipeg conveying the intelligence that the body of Harold Walton, son of Mr. E. Walton, who with a companion it was supposed had perished in a blizzard while looking for cattle on the prairie, as reported in our telegraphic columns yesterday, had been found, rescued and returned to his home. Mr. Walton is a brother-in-law of Mr. Langford and also of Mr. W. J. Green, and will be remembered as a former resident of Peterborough.

Abolition School Board.

The Abolition School Board held a special meeting on Tuesday evening. All the members of the board, namely, Walter Peck (chairman), Galt, Adams, Ingram, Glover and Wright, were present. The principal business transacted was the appointment of two teachers for the public school of the school, referred to by the resignation of Miss Bennett and Miss Stevenson. Five applications were received, and after discussion the Board appointed Miss Emily McComb and Miss Lillian Clark to the vacant positions. The small accounts were ordered to be paid, and Messrs. Wright and Adams were appointed a committee to arrange for the necessary repair of some of the desks, after which the Board adjourned.

A YOUTHFUL GROUP

Appears in the Prisoners' Box at the Police Court—Four Boys Charged with Stealing. The four boys were George Curtis, aged twelve, Percy Brundrette, aged fifteen, Mason Comstock, aged thirteen, and John Comstock, aged fifteen. The boys are all the sons of highly respectable parents and have been brought up under the most careful training, but the influence of older boys have led them to commit a crime for the sake of procuring candies for themselves.

George Curtis, who was charged with stealing two deer skins Friday and three more on Saturday from Mr. W. L. Wright on had pleaded guilty to the charges. Percy Brundrette was charged with two similar offences, while the Comstock lads were only charged with the theft of the three skins on Saturday.

The evidence of Mr. Wright, Mr. James Patterson, Mr. John Mervin, Ed. Weiss and George Curtis and Percy Brundrette brought out, when called down, the following story of the boys' crime. On Friday evening about five o'clock George Curtis with Percy Brundrette went to the shed in rear of Mr. Wright's store and carried away two green deer skins, which had been placed in the shed with George Curtis had noticed. Having secured the skins the two went to Patterson's tannery and Brundrette waited outside while Curtis went in and sold the two skins for $1.00, giving the name as Mitchell. Mr. Wright missed the skins on Saturday, and telephoning to the tannery found that the boy had sold his hides. Chief Beasly took the skins and obtained a description of the lad who had sold them. On Saturday night after six o'clock Curtis and John Comstock went to Mr. Patterson's with three more skins. These had been taken from Mr. Wright's shed and been carried down by George Curtis, Percy Brundrette and John Comstock. Mason Comstock was also along and waited outside with Brundrette, while the other two went in to sell the skins. Mr. Patterson telephoned to Mr. Wright that the boys were there again with skins and Mr. Wright and the chief went down. John Comstock made his escape when he saw Mr. Wright, but Curtis was arrested.

When the evidence had been given Mr. Brundrette addressed the Court. He spoke of the good character of the boys and boys, always attentive and well behaved at Sunday school and at home and asked the clemency of the Court on account of their youth, their future and their parents and friends. Mr. Brundrette referred to the necessity he felt there was for a truant officer to keep boys from scheming school. The Magistrate said it was hard for him to give judgment in the case. He had to administer the law, and put the committing of such young lads to goal was a serious matter. As to the truant officer he felt that something should be done. He reserved judgment for one week to consider what course would be the wisest for him to pursue.

Mr. Curtis, it is understood, is making an effort to have his son received into the Industrial School.

A FAREWELL TESTIMONIAL.

Mr. Arthur Jolley presented with an Address—Services Recognized and a Tribute Paid to a Distinguished Young Man.

The residence of Mr. E. J. O'Connell was last night the scene of a bright and hearty social gathering. About forty of the most active workers in the Peterborough Y.M.C.A. gathered there to spend an evening in company with their co-worker, Mr. Arthur Jolley, previous to his departure for Hamilton, where he has been called to fill the important office of Assistant Secretary to the large and flourishing association there. In the course of the evening Mr. Geo. E. E. J. O'Connell, President of the Peterborough Association, presented Mr. Jolley with the following address:—

Peterborough Y.M.C.A. to Mr. Arthur Jolley:—

DEAR FRIEND AND BROTHER:—We cannot permit the occasion of your removal from amongst us to pass without giving expression to our regard for you, our regret at losing you and our appreciation of the valuable services rendered by you in connection with the work of this Association. Your humble, consistent Christian walk and your diligent and self-sacrificing efforts in the Master's cause have been an example to all of us, and though you will be missed and your place be hard to fill we rejoice for your sake that it has been filled by one so true and so devoted. We congratulate the Hamilton Association on the gain and the Peterborough Association on the loss of such a worker. We pray that your service amongst them may be blessed.

We now in farewell commend you to God and to the Word of His grace. The Lord bless and keep thee, the Lord make His face to shine upon thee, the Lord lift up His countenance upon thee and give thee peace.

S. J. O'CONNELL, President.

COMMITTEES.

J. W. BERRY, Isaac Richardson, Finance.

ONE CHAIRMAN, ALBERT HAMILTON, Reception.

Peterborough, Nov. 1st, 1891.

In presenting the address Mr. E. J. O'Connell testified to the influence for good that Mr. Jolley's life and work had exerted amongst the Association members, to the ability of his labors as a short-handled teacher, organizer and liberator of the Peterborough Association in again selecting a laborer for his field from amongst its members.

Mr. Jolley briefly replied thanking the members for the kind expressions of good will and good wishes for the future. He would never forget the Peterborough Y.M.C.A., as it was here he had learned to know the Lord. The slight services he had been able to render, had been a delight and a privilege to him. His first time came to the town he had been indifferent to the Association, but had enjoyed it more and more as he grew to know more of it. He cordially commended it to all young men. The Secretary and several others followed with short addresses, referring to the members of the Association who had already gone into the work. F. J. Batters in the Oshawa Mission Field and Willie Batters in New York presenting for mission work. The evening concluded with prayer and singing.

SALVATIONISTS IN INDIA.

A SALVATION MISSIONARY AT THE SIMCOE-ST. BARRACKS.

A Big Time for the Army Soldiers—Hindoo Temples and Appropriate Surroundings—The War in Hindoostan—Hindu Special Meetings.

The clashing of the devil in Peterborough is to receive a storm of red hot shot this week. The storming party will be Salvationists.

The special attractions of the Army seem to be a never-ending row that come and go the whole year round. The fighting is maintained with a steady stubbornness all along the line, and ever and anon salient parties, in the shape of special attractions, make an unusually warm attack upon the common enemy of human souls, sin and vice in all its forms.

Last night one of these special times was held at the Simcoe-st. barracks and a good audience almost filled the barracks. The occasion was the visit of Missionary Jahangir, Capt. Handiotti, who has been engaged in the salvation war in Hindoostan. Jahangir saw many souls won to the Christian faith and he was very glad to leave the field. He was here to tell of the Army's work in India. The surroundings at the barracks were made as appropriate as possible. Evergreens and palms were used on the platform and clustered around a tree of rough bark which had been built to give the audience an idea of the house of the Hindoostani. The Hindoostani soldiers appeared with the Missionary in native costume, while the male soldiers wore white and colored turbans and the ladies had their heads and shoulders shrouded in white, after the style of the Salvationists of India. Instead of being seated in the gallery as usual the Indian customers were seated on the platform, and the soldiers sat without their original and picturesque aspect.

The unusual character of their costumes only lent additional fuel to the salvation fire which almost burned furiously, and Hindoostani soldiers threw more than usual vim into the meeting. Jahangir sang several hymns to the native language of the people of the Hindoostan. He conducted the opening portion of the meeting, which consisted as usual of Salvation songs and short prayers. Mrs. Steele read a portion of Scripture supplementing the lesson with an earnest appeal to the people to be loyal to God so that they might be numbered with the throng who had "come through great tribulation."

Jahangir took charge of the meeting, and the order. Mark Spence, who bobbed up with a spotless white turban twisted around his head, was as usual the feature of these testimonies. Mark announced that that was his birthday, and being just the even half hundred. Of these years he had only given five to God and had been "a thing of the devil" the rest of his years except when too young to do any wrong.

Leander, of Newwood, gave a short, earnest address, and after the band had rendered a selection and some more testimonies had been given the missionary gave his address.

Capt. Handiotti, this is Jahangir's English name, is a well formed young man and his Indian costume was not unbecoming. He told of his labors among the benighted people of Hindoostan, and said that of those benighted who had been in the custom of throwing the temple and bowing down to gods of wood and stone had been won for the true God and were in the ranks of the Salvation Army. The people seemed willing to hear, and when convinced were willing to serve the God of the Christians. He attributed the success of the Salvationists to the fact that they made themselves one of the people, went among them as they were, and lived as they lived. He had begged from door to door and by lifting his native hand with it in his hand, set them wondering what had animated a white man to make such sacrifices and been thus exposed to their scorn and derision. He told of several instances of conversion he had witnessed, one of a native priest and another of a high-caste young lady. He spoke of the persecutions suffered by the women. During those months that he had labored in the jungle he saw fifteen men and women find their way to the true religion. In closing he urged his hearers who had been excited and brought up in sound of the Gospel to see that their lives were not lost and that they had God as a friend and counselor.

The meeting was one of interest and was overflowing with Salvation enthusiasm. Adjutant Miller and his son-in-law troop were to arrive here to-day and to-morrow evening a grand service of blood and fire and halcyon services will be commenced. All are invited to attend.

On Sunday next, Lieut. Grew, who has received orders to leave, will farewell. His will be farewell burial.

Easy to use, pleasant and agreeable to the taste of all who have used it. It is a sure cure for all the ailments of the head and throat, and it will not cure.

Is the League Dead?

This was the significant heading to an article in yesterday's Review. It had reference of course to the Irish League and not to the Epworth League of Christian Endeavor in connection with Charlotte-st. Methodist church. On Monday evening a splendid meeting was held in the school room of the church. Miss Clarke opened the programme by reading in her usual excellent manner an instrumental selection. Mrs. Clyde Green, late of Waterford, sang "Out in the cold street." In fine voice; Miss E. Sherlock gave an admirable reading entitled "Make way for Liberty." The programme which was carried out very efficiently was brought to a close by a recitation from Mr. Lawrence on Monday evening next. Mr. Lawrence on Monday evening next. SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a fact that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, introduce the subject. Are we as Christians Endeavorers doing the best that we can? Representatives from other Christian Endeavor societies are invited to be present and take part in the discussion of this very important and practical question. EDISON'S INVENTIONS.

I have asked Mr. Edison as to the photograph and he told me that a large number of them were in use. He told me that he believed they would be eventually used everywhere. He took me out into his laboratory and showed me his last invention in connection with the phonograph, which he calls by the name of kinetograph, and which is almost as wonderful as the phonograph itself. With the kinetograph you can take a song of Patti's from the lips of the diva and reproduce it before an audience in all its intensity and beauty a year later and thousands miles away. By the kinetograph with the aid of a stereoscope you can throw upon a screen a picture of Patti just as she looked and acted at the time she was singing the song and one of the great pleasures of the present time is to see the reproduction of great speeches and songs in this way. You can reproduce a pantomime with the kinetograph and you can make Chauncey Dwyer deliver the most after-dinner speech a thousand times with the same gesture and with the same smile if you can once get him before it. It is made by instantaneous photography of the man who is to be reproduced. The machine takes him in motion and it works so that it takes 2,700 photographs every minute that he is speaking, or 44 pictures of him every second. These photographs are taken on a long strip of gelatine film and in reproduction the film is placed in a machine before the eye as when they were taken. The result is that the eye does not see the photographs but sees only the one with the motions and gestures of the man who spoke. It is almost as if you were presenting one of Mr. Edison's employees taking a smoke and you can see the man raise the cigarette to his lips, turn his head, and blow out the smoke just as naturally as though he were living.

Butternut was well known and appreciated by our grand parents for its medicinal qualities. In fact the nuts in an unripe condition are largely used for habitual constipation, liver and foot ailments. The medicinal strength was not lost from the Butternut seed in combination with other valuable and purely vegetable ingredients, as the uniform strength is retained for any time in any climate. They are the best liver and stomach pills in the world.

CASE AGAINST ARNOLD.

THE BRASS DOG MAN IN THE POLICE COURT.

Extra Calls a Few Witnesses and ably handed the money to Arnold. In cross-examination Mr. Chrysler brought out the fact that many of the accounts for the Joe had been certified to by Mr. Perley, then chief engineer of the Public Works department.

Mr. Z. Wilson, collector of customs, pro-

Mr. Osler then said he had no further evidence to offer. Three counts stood against the accused. He was charged with obtaining money by false pretences, conspiracy and breach of duty as a public officer. He pointed out that the law provided that no payment could be made by the Government to a civil servant, beyond his regular salary, without the consent and authority of the Governor-General in Council. Here was a man put in a position of trust, certifying to the expenditure of money for the purpose of putting it into his

Mr. Osler: It makes no difference. There was no contract, and Arnoldi secretly certified money into his own pocket. It would shake the confidence entirely in the administration of public affairs if this practice were allowed. Proceeding Mr. Osler claimed that money had been obtained by false pretences and conspiracy made out by

Mr. Chrysler contended that no case had been made out. Supposing an order in council had not been obtained for the payments of these moneys, as the Civil Service Act provided, did it make it a crime when the service had been properly performed?

The Magistrate said he did not think the Civil Service Act applied either to the steamer Joe or plots of land.

Mr. Chrysler, proceeding, said that Mr. Arnoldi was clearly outside the pale of the Audit Act, under the provisions of which he was partially being indicted with regard to both services. The money was clearly

The hearing of a criminal nature had been shown, and the fact that the man was a member of the Government, and the services of the Joe had been utilized, to their full extent for the purpose of obtaining money, had been honestly earned, and it would have been disastrious for the Government to have withdrawn the money from the man, if they had been deceived. Where then was the false pretence?

Mr. McKeown said it seemed that this case had arisen because there had been an irregularity in the department, but it did not seem to him that the man, who had a crown had suffered no loss and crime had not been proven. The prosecution, had uttered a warning, and the man had been told that he had better be on his guard. It had been shown that Arnold had conspired with anyone and, as far as the charge of false pretence was concerned, it had been shown to be defunct, and clearly no fraud had taken place, and the Government had got good value for its money.

The case was then adjourned for a week when the magistrate will deliver judgment.

"Having been subject, for years, to constipation, without being able to find much relief, I at last tried Ayer's Pills to see if I had derived great benefit from their use. Agas, Agas, and Agas.

If you have a wife and a half-dozen children, you had better keep them all well by using Dr. Cassell's Food and Health Pills. It is good for women of all ages. You will not need to spend all your wages for it. Those ancient herbs, the roots of a century ago, did not hold out but did and bleed their patients. We do better to day. We use Dr. Cassell's Food and Health Pills. Dr. Cassell's Food and Health Pills is simply indispensable. The young girl needs its strengthening help at that critical period when she is blossoming into womanhood. The mother and the father find it invigorating and relief from the numerous ills which beset their children. The ladies well advised in years universally acknowledge its invigorating and restorative effects of this favorite and standard remedy.

INTO A FORGE

An Intoxicated Farmer Fatally Burned in a Blacksmith Shop.

GLENCOE, Ont., Nov. 27.—Mr. Moses, blacksmith, left his wagon shop for a few minutes. While he was away an elderly man, Archibald Leitch of Kilmartin entered and sat on the forge. Being under the influence of liquor he fell into the fire, which was smouldering, and being unable to extricate himself was badly burned on the right arm and shoulder. Mr. William Munro, happening to enter the shop, pulled the unfortunate Leitch out of the fire. Dr. MacIntyre was summoned, but the flesh being half consumed it is doubtful if the injured man can recover.

Struck in the Windpipe.

SPRINGFIELD, Wash., Nov. 27.—A sad and peculiar accident occurred at the Franklin public school yesterday, by which Eugene Bollock, a five-year-old son of Max Bollock, lost his life. Several boys were engaged in the game called "zipsticks," a game popular in the town here. The game is played with two sticks. One about five inches long, sharpened at each end, and placed in a hole made in the ground and one end of it is struck by the longer stick, causing it to fly in the air and the trick is struck before it reaches the ground. This game was being played as usual to-day by some of the larger boys. Little Eugene was just returning from his home when the stick was struck by one of the boys, and in flying it struck him in the windpipe. The little fellow fell to the steps and fell. When picked up there was a small blue spot on the throat and he was unable to speak. Within 30 minutes he was dead.

There seems to be a belief that he would not be in the race before such an announcement appeared, and a prominent politician undertook to predict that Blaine, while urging the 1912 to recognize the excellent administration of the President by a re-nomination, would add that it was not the wish of the party he would accept the nomination if it came to him as the unanimous expression of all the delegates.

Blaine and the Presidency.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Blaine's boom is on the increase, and it is the general impression that he is in the field. His friends let him know their mistake in assuming his position. There seems to be a belief that he would not be in the race before such an announcement appeared, and a prominent politician undertook to predict that Blaine, while urging the 1912 to recognize the excellent administration of the President by a re-nomination, would add that it was not the wish of the party he would accept the nomination if it came to him as the unanimous expression of all the delegates.

King of Medicines

A Case "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered and got on my feet, a year later, another attack of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 10 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well."

"Early in 1911 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Cure', in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon disappeared, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the First & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then has not lost a single day on account of sickness. I believe the disease was expelled from my system, I always feel as good as new and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that my limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines."

THE APPOINTMENT OF JUDGES.

THERE has been a discussion in the Canada Law Journal regarding the appointment of county judges and a correspondent introduced the same subject in these columns a few days ago. In a question like this one the presentation of opinions, in moderate language, is quite proper, but even if the theorizing of those who oppose the present system of making appointments were correct, the use of such a term as "iniquitous" would not be appropriate, for their contentions are based on the fact that judges are human and not infallible, and so long as it is unquestioned that the powers appointing those who preside at the courts choose from among the local members of the profession men of high standing as lawyers and men of integrity such a strong term as "iniquitous" being appropriate. Canada has been, as have also British countries generally, proud of its judiciary, and with reason, for while it is not claimed that even able men will not make mistakes, it has been recognized that the judges, the local judges as well as those in the higher courts, have been appointed because of their qualifications for the position, and their integrity has been unquestioned. Canadian law is justly so, that this is one particular at least in which their system of government has been more satisfactory than that of their neighbors.

The objection to the appointments to the local courts from among the local professional men are more theoretical or speculative than practical—drawn more from what might be than from what has taken place. It is a well known fact that our judges have been scrupulously careful in not allowing any personal feelings or prejudices to influence them. This is known in regard to the courts in this country as well as in other countries and in the higher courts, and it is one of the reasons why confidence is felt in the administration of justice. And if the authorities were to appoint men from outside to preside at the local courts—county or magisterial—there would soon be an outcry against it that would not be confined to an occasional letter of a theoretical character in the Law Journal. The point raised by our correspondent in regard to Police Magistrates remaining in practice would appear to have more weight, but there is the difficulty that, except in the larger cities, leading practitioners would not forego their practice for the emoluments of the office. And besides, so long as those who preside endeavor to fairly and impartially administer justice they retain public confidence, and that they do is the general opinion.

There is nothing in the government of the country that the authorities should be more careful about than the administration of justice, and the confidence which the people of this country feel in the courts is evidence that they have fulfilled their duties in this respect with great care.

Mr. MERRICK's attempt to muzzle the press is not meeting with success. He has had Mr. Richard White, of the Montreal Gazette, arrested and taken to Quebec, and threatens more arrests, but the papers are not frightened and go on speaking of him and his Government as they think they deserve.

QUEBEC, Manitoba, is just across the boundary line from Quebec, Dakota. A few days ago the Winnipeg correspondent of the Toronto Mail telegraphed to his paper that the price of wheat was 20 cents a bushel lower at Gravelton than at Neche. The Winnipeg Free Press, a staunch Reform paper, sent a reporter to investigate the matter, and it was found that, since the market opened this season, the price at Gravelton had been from 5 to 8 cents more than on the Dakota side.

REVIEWS.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for December is a brilliant Christmas Number, unrivalled in the history of the publication.

It opens with a superbly illustrated article on the Annunciation, by Henry Van Dyke, including among its pictures reproductions from famous paintings of the Old Masters. William McLennan, the new Canadian writer, contributes a Christmas legend, 'Le Meurtre de Minuit,' which is appropriately and beautifully illustrated by C. E. B. Whistler. Another striking and attractive feature of the Number is a special feature, 'The Maid's Choice,' composed and written by W. W. Gilchrist, and comprised in a series of eleven quaint drawings by Howard Pyle. An article which will receive much attention is contributed by Mark Twain, and is entitled 'Mental Telegraphy—A Manuscript with a History.' Shakespeare's comedy, 'Measure for Measure,' is beautifully illustrated from drawings by Edwin A. Abbey, and appropriately described and commented upon by Andrew Lang, the famous antiquary. Julian R. High contributes another sketch of 'person's' observation and adventure in 'the far Northwest,' entitled 'Charting a Nation.' The fiction of the Number includes the following complete stories: 'My Cousin the Clown' by Thomas Bailey Aldrich, illustrated by Melburn; 'Her First Appearance,' by Katharine, and 'In the Land of the Living,' by Gibson; 'A Padded Sock,' by D. Miller; and 'At La Graciosa,' by M. E. Davis, illustrated by Smokey. The poems, all illustrated, are by James Russell Lowell, John G. Saxe, and Harriet Prescott Spofford. The distinctive holiday character of this number pervades also the Editorial Department. George William Curtis calls attention to Poor Richard's Christmas sermon, and the lessons it conveyed to its readers more than a century ago. William Dan Howells relates another Christmas dream of Altruism; and Charles Dudley Warner offers some pertinent suggestions to those who are anxious about the fate of the dearest holiday of all the year.

"Butterfat" was well known and appreciated by our grand parents for its medicinal qualities. In fact the nut in an unripe condition is largely used by the Indians for its purgative, liver and food stomach. The great difficulty was the necessity of preparing from the fresh green nut which could only be done in small quantities, as the medicinal strength weakened from keeping, and the Butterfat Pills are prepared with a concentrated extract made from the Butterfat held in combination with other valuable and purely vegetable ingredients, as the uniform strength is retained for any time in any climate. They are the best liver and stomach pills in the world.

ALLEGED LEPROSY.

John Powers, a Laborer, Afflicted With a Malignant Type of It.

CLARK, Mich., Nov. 27.—John Powers, a laboring man of Sheridan township, is afflicted with a malignant type of genuine leprosy.

Powers is a most disgusting object to behold. His flesh seems to have been already invested with the putrescence of the grave, and is dropping off in great masses. A foul odor emanates from the decayed tissues so powerful that it is said to be impossible to enter the room where the unfortunate man lies without experiencing a feeling of nausea.

After 37 Years.

OWEN SOUND, Nov. 28.—A few weeks ago an advertisement appeared in one of the Toronto dailies asking as to the whereabouts of John Middlebro, the attention of Mr. W. Middlebro, law student of this city, being directed to his communications. The advertiser, Mr. Edward Middlebro of Sawyer City, Pa., resulting in the establishment of the fact that the late John Middlebro of Owen Sound was the person referred to in the advertisement and that it was his brother who had made the enquiry. In this way communication between the families, interrupted in 1855, nearly 37 years, has been restored. When the brothers last track of each other it was concluded that Edward was killed in the American war. It now transpires that he is a wealthy citizen of Sawyer City and the owner of ten oil mills.

THE GREAT BOON

To the Citizens of Peterborough.

Knowing the necessity for an office in Peterborough where parties having accounts to collect would have some place to go to, it was decided to establish such an office, where I make account collecting a specialty. Parties having accounts to collect will do well to place them in my hands, when they will be promptly attended to. As a rule, all business men are poor collectors, therefore they let their accounts run from year to year when they should have the money. Now all the Dry Goods Men, Grocers, Druggists, Doctors, Furniture Dealers, Harness Makers, Barbers, Real Estate Brokers, Bankers, Bakers, Milliners and other business men not mentioned here, having accounts to collect will do well to call on me. The reason I can collect better than other men is that I go and see them personally; therefore I must get some reply from them.

I also do a Real Estate business, Buying, Selling and Renting Town and Country Property, Money Lending, Discounting Notes and Fire, Life, and Accident Insurance.

Constipation,

It is not remedied in season, is liable to become habitual and chronic. Dr. J. C. Ayer's Pills, by cleansing the bowels, confirm, rather than cure, the evil. Ayer's Pills, being mild, effective, and strengthening in their action, are generally recommended by the faculty as the best of aperients.

"Having been subject, for years, to constipation, without being able to find relief, I at last tried Ayer's Pills. I soon found that I had a duty and a pleasure to perform. For over two years I have taken one of these pills every night before retiring. I would not willingly be without them."—G. W. Bowman, 25 East Main st., Carleton Place, Ont.

"I have been taking Ayer's Pills and using them in my family since 1877, and cheerfully recommend them to all in need of a safe but effective cathartic."—John M. Rogers, Louisville, Ky.

"For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon they began to restore my natural and regular action, so that I am in excellent health."—S. L. Longbridge, Bryan, Texas.

"Having used Ayer's Pills, with good results, I fully endorse them for the purpose for which they are recommended."—T. Coombs, M. D., Centre Bridge, Pa.

Could's Make Ends Meet.

MIRABEL, Nov. 30.—The separation of the day in the sudden and unexpected death of a man named Seldin, who was a son-in-law of Dan White, recently sentenced to penitentiary for life for murdering his wife and former co-conspirator in the American Hotel in Toronto. Seldin had for a week or two been badly harangued by creditors in person, through agents and creditors by judgment. The thing seemed to have him until he became overwhelmed and decided to take a quiet departure. Thursday he got some of his effects away from the baggage of the commercial travelers and in the afternoon he took the train himself, as he claimed, for Toronto. It was soon learned that on reaching Detroit he turned his face westward and made for Detroit. The following day the thing was all out and the sheriff came up and took possession of the hotel in the interests of the creditors. Yesterday Mrs. Seldin and family left to join Seldin in Chicago. The local creditors are numerous, among the largest of them being Mr. James Dougherty, with a most account of nearly $100; Messrs. Kyle & Barnett, coal, $100; Fred Davis, groceries, nearly $100; William Canning, wages, $100, and other employees greater or less sums. Among the most shamefully treated creditors in the town is Miss Howe, who during the whole trouble served almost night and day to accommodate Mrs. Seldin and the family. Miss Howe's claim is over $25. The sheriff is still in possession of the premises, and the effects, business and lease are to be offered for sale Friday.

They Met by Chance.
WEATHERHEAD, Tex., Nov. 30.—A double killing occurred here yesterday. The victims are two well-known citizens of Parker County, A. R. Freeman and William Haver. A quarrel between them and their families. They met yesterday on a river farm. An altercation occurred and both were fatally injured. Freeman was killed on the spot and Haver only lived a few hours.

Another Victim Dead.
HALIFAX, Nov. 29.—E. C. Bowers, M.P. for Digby, has acknowledged receiving agents in the election and vacated his seat. The charges of personal bribery will not be pressed by the petitioners.

It is probable that the action taken by coal mine owners in South Wales and Monmouthshire will tend to precipitate a strike of the miners in those regions. The miners' union will announce that next month they will be striking. This announcement affects 70,000 men in the coal districts mentioned.

There was a fair demand for discount in London last week. The condition of the money market is now considered the best that it has been for a year past, and a reduction in the Bank of England rate is looked for. On the stock exchange business showed signs of improvement. On the bourse business was quiet during the week but the outlook is brighter.

TALE OF THE TICKETS.

VOTERS WHO ACCEPTED ASSISTED PASSAGES.

The Examination of Witnesses in the Wynne Election Petition at London Continued—The case to be enlarged for eight weeks.

LONDON, (The Times), Nov. 30.—P. J. Slater, third trunk passenger agent, Toronto, was the first witness called Saturday and examined in regard to his understanding of the tickets furnished for election purposes were to be settled for. He simply furnished the tickets on presentation of certain requisitions, which he forwarded to the company's audit department in Montreal, and the tickets so furnished had not yet been paid for. He could not say how many of the tickets had been used, nor whether any rebate had been allowed for these not used.

Those Reid, barrister, Toronto, and brother of Geo. J. Reid, said that he had received a list of London voters residing in Toronto from his brother, with a request to see them and try and trace them to London to vote for Hyman, which he did. All the letters, telegrams and lists which he had received were destroyed immediately after the election, but there were no suggestions in any of them. He reported the tickets from the committee to him in the Reform committee building, Toronto, on presentation of certain requisitions, and that the tickets were given by the Grand Trunk free, otherwise he would not have taken them. He was not asked to see them and did not see them, as he had also been offered one of the Conservative to go via C.P.R., and it was simply a change of route. He had received no money.

John H. Cheater, an envelope a few days before the election containing two tickets, but without instructions. He supposed they were intended for himself and one of his men named Kestis to come to London and travel through Stratford for the purpose. There was also a memorandum of a special train running from Toronto to London but Mr. Cheater has been charged with the tickets.

Alexander J. Boyd, the registrar of North Perth election trial, produced three tickets and a requisition for tickets filed as exhibits in that trial.

After a long examination the court announced that after today they would adjourn till the 18th of January.

Light Hair and Good Looks.
In these days of mystery men now known to the learned doctors who people with light hair should become sensible quickly than those who have dark hair. Charles Young, clerk of the steamer City of Chicago, says this is "one tall tale." Clark Young and yesterday, "see soon as they come on the boat whether they are going to be a success or not. When I see a girl with light hair and good looks, as if she had been with a kind of uncertain, as if she did not know exactly where she was stepping, I say to myself, 'Young lady, you'll be back before we are here out.' But when the black-eyed woman comes, who walks on board the boat just as if she had business there, I know that any ordinary sea will not affect her in the least.

Three-quarters of the people who become sensible on this subject are decided blondes. You may laugh at this, but I have made quite a study of it, and I will tell you I am right. If we had a long run it would be a study of it. My observation has been confirmed, of course, to the day's run across to St. Joe, where the sea in the summer time ought, according to my opinion, to make anybody sick. But these light-haired people did not and want to do quicker than anybody.

The Manitoba Crops.
WINNIPEG, Dec. 1.—Bulletin No. 11 on crops and live stock in Manitoba during the past season issued by Manitoba Department of Agriculture and Immigration, is a gratifying one, showing that in Manitoba the wheat yield is over 23,000,000 bushels. Counting in the territories, the aggregate will not be much below 26,000,000 bushels of wheat for the Canadian Northwest. The estimated yield of wheat for Manitoba is 23, 191,800 bu., against 14,645,709 last year, an estimated average per acre 25.3 bushels, as compared with 21.1 bushels last year. The bulletin says the wheat crop has undoubtedly suffered from frost to a considerable extent, but just how much it is impossible at present to determine. Some correspond-

Purify Your Blood

The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is hereditary and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poisons and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more common than the positively lower of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. Thousands testify to the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. Full information and statements of cures sent free.

A TRAIN HELD UP

$15,000 stolen from an Express Train

Near St. Louis.

Mr. Louis, Dec. 2.—A train No. 3 on the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad was passing Old Orchard last night three men knelt over the water tank and coal, and covered the fireman and engineer with revolvers. When the train had been brought to a standstill near Glendale the engineer and fireman were ordered down from the cab, and after two of the band had been selected to keep guard over them other four started back for the express car, in which was the safe of the Adams Express Company, containing $15,000. Messenger

Muller, who was in charge of the car, suspecting something was wrong, hurriedly closed and secured the door just as the men reached it. The men placed a charge of dynamite under the door and blew it open.

As soon as the door was blown open two men leaped into the opening. The messenger was taken into the condition of unconsciousness with the bullet of their revolvers. The safe was then opened and rifled and the desperados took to the woods. The men were all masked.

It is a Canadian Work.

Chief in interest to Canadians among all the Christmas publications of the year will be the Christmas Number of the Dominion

Illustrated, a triumph of Canadian skill; for in design, literary and artistic contents and workmanship it will be candidly throughout. The four magnificent supplements, the general illustrations, the poems, stories and sketches are Canadian, specially prepared for this issue, for which the most elaborate preparations have been long in progress and regardless of expense. As a souvenir to send to absent friends, or as a delightful companion at the home fire, this work will have no equal in the estimation of Canadians, as evidenced by the fact that orders are already booked for almost the whole of the very large edition to be issued. As an example of what Canada can produce in the line of literary and artistic work this issue is also of great value and source of pride to every citizen.

Nothing to equal it has ever been produced in this country.

FALL DAYS.

How the Trees, the Flowers and the Birds

Look During this Month.

Fields as green as when the summer birds caroled above them, woods more gorgeous with innumerable hues and tints of ripening leaves than a blooming pasture, are spread beneath the azure sky, whose deepest color is reflected with intense blue in lake and stream. In them against this color are set the scarlet and gold of every tree upon their banks, the painted hills, the clear-cut mountain peaks, all downward pointing to the depths of the azure sky.

Overhead, shuttledown and the silken balloon of the milkweed float on their sophy-wafts, come, and the water notes against the blue, and above them are the black cohorts of crows in their struggling retreat to softer climes. Now the dark column moves steadily onward,

now veers in confusion from some suspected or discovered danger, or swoons to assail with a harsh clangor some sworn enemy of the sable brotherhood.

Their gray-clad smaller cousins, the jays,

are for the most part silently industrious

among the gold and bronze of the beeches, flitting too and fro with flashes of blue as they gather nuts, but now and then finding time to scold an intruder with an endless variety of discordant outcry.

How sharp the dark shadows are cut against the sunlit fields, and in their gloom how brilliantly shine the first fallen leaves and the starry bloom of the asters. In cloudy days and even when rain is falling, the depths of the woods are not dark, for the bright foliage seems to give forth light and casts no shadow beneath the lowering sky.

The scarlet maples glow, the golden leaves of poplar and birch shine through the misty veil, and the deep purple of the maple and the blue of the sky are as when they bear their standard green in the declaration of winter, and only the broad

THE CHAIRMAN—Order! Order, gentlemen!

Mr. STEVENSON: You think you can run this Board. Every resolution that is moved you must move it, but I'll not submit.

This is only an indication of the words which passed between the two members.

The members quite animated. The audience only lasted a moment when the demand of the Chairman for order was listened to and he usual harmony was restored.

Mr. DUMBLE asked the Board to re-consider the matter and treat the music teacher with fairness.

Mr. STEVENSON said the matter of teaching music in the schools was presented upon the Board by Mr. Dumble and only becoming ten or fifteen per cent. of the pupils.

The expenses of the schools had been going on increasing until now it was one-third of the taxation. It was a little thing, but they all costed. The taxes were getting high enough and he would not vote for anything that would increase them. The least they could do was to stop expense which was not necessary or required by the department.

He was going to set his face against anything not absolutely necessary.

Mr. DUMBLE said Mr. STEVENSON was not correct when he said only fourteen or fifteen per cent. received instruction. They all did. Mr. Dumble referred to the benefit of training children to sing by note. He suggested that the Board appoint a committee to go to the schools and see the children in training.

The CHAIRMAN said the matter had been disposed of at last meeting of the Board and the Board re-opened by a majority vote of the Board.

Mr. DUMBLE moved that Messrs. Stevenson, Bradburn and Hamilton be a committee to visit the schools and see the music teacher at work.

Mr. STEVENSON thought it would be better spent money and time if instead of a half hour being spent in music that it be given to writing and a writing master engaged instead of a music master.

Mr. DUMBLE said he with others had while visiting the school inspected the writing of the pupils and found it remarkably good. In proof of this he asked Mr.

Smith who was present to bring in some of the copy books.

Mr. Smith left to produce the copy books and the question of music teaching dropped and was not brought up again. A number of the copy books were produced and the speaking of the copy books.

The CHAIRMAN moved, seconded by Dr.

Boucher, the elections for school trustees take place at the same time and places as required by statute and the Secretary be requested to publish the necessary notice.—Carried.

EVERYONE HAS CONTRIBUTED.

Mr. DUMBLE suggested that members of the Board or citizens send geological specimens to the school and a cabinet of specimens might be placed in one of the rooms.

The Edison Co. Apologues.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—I see by your report of the Council meeting on Monday evening that Councilor Kennedy charges that either the committee or the Town Solicitor is to blame for the difficulty connected with the Edison siding. The members of the committee were present and answered for themselves.

Their answer will, I think, satisfy most people that the committee are deserving of praise for their successful efforts in securing the location here of a manufacturing establishment that promises to be the greatest in all Canada rather than of blame, because at a time when prompt action was necessary they acted promptly and vigorously and because the railway companies or one of them, took an unfair advantage of the situation. For the Town Solicitor, who was not present, and who does not like to have his professional reputation attacked in this way, I have more to say than he had nothing to do with the making of the agreements with the railway companies and is deserving of neither praise nor blame.

Yours truly,

Did you know that shopping requires expe-

This week and for the coming month you

SUPPLEMENT Peterborough Daily and Weekly Review

PETERBOROUGH, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1891.

TOWN OF PETERBOROUGH.

Interesting Sketch of a Thriving Municipality.

ITS ORIGINAL SETTLEMENT.

Contrast Between Its Past and Present.

GLIMPSES OF LEADING BUSINESS MEN AND ESTABLISHMENTS—A LIVE TOWN WITH A BRIGHT FUTURE.

THE County of Peterborough is one of the largest, and, as between the Eastern and Western Counties, the most central in Ontario. Generally speaking its surface is undulating, with a tendency toward the south to hills of a more or less pronounced character. The county is one of the best watered inland sections of the Dominion. Near the centre of its western limit a chain of lakes, the principal of which are Pigeon, Buckhorn, Chemung and Stoney Lakes, enters it from the County of Victoria and extends across to within twelve miles of the eastern boundary of the county. From near the western extremity of Stoney Lake a vast area of this body of water extends likewise, in a z-like south westerly direction through Clear Lake and Katchewanooka Lake, and thence by the Otonabee River past Lakefield and Peterborough into Rice Lake, whence, under the name of the Trent River, it flows into the eastern shore of Stoney Lake and of Clear Lake, Bay of Quinte. This scenery, especially along the picturesque island dotted south at its junction with the former, is wonderfully beautiful, and the fishing—of bass, muskallonge, etc.—all that can be desired. In this archipelago it was that the Ameri-

the performance of "settlement dues" and the erection of a house at least 18 x 20 feet on the lot, a title deed in fee simple was granted. The affidavit last referred to, had, however, to be presented in person at the land office in Little York, and one can easily imagine what, in the absence of passable roads, not to speak of railways, such a journey meant to the poor applicant. Nor was this the only or most serious drawback spring. The story has long since passed into history and will constitute the perpetuated theme of unappreciative posterity as long as an English heart continues to beat or an Anglo-Saxon tongue wags. But we must proceed.

In due time Sir Peregrine Maitland, in response to a petition to that effect, built a government mill at Peterborough, and settlers continued to pour into the county.

Montreal, passing through the four southern townships of the county and crossing the River Otonabee at the Town of Peterborough, was opened for traffic, reducing the time occupied between that town and To-

ing periods of abnormal destitution they were wont to feed out to each of their children at the breakfast hour an intensely salted herring and an empty clam shell, with the injunction that the fiery morsel first mentioned having been disposed of they should huddle to the "burn" and abide anticipated results until the shades of evening sent for eighteen months, and what with the venison, fish and berries which the country furnished in easily procurable abundance the settlers had on the whole rather a good time of it. In addition to the food allowance above specified each family, upon its settlement, was supplied with a cow, an augur, an axe, a hand saw, a hammer, 100

the Canoe Association held its annual meeting in the summer of 1883, and a locality better adapted for such an occasion it would be difficult to find anywhere. These, with more than a hundred other lakes of greater or less area, distributed principally throughout the northern part of the county, contribute, with their connections, a heritage of loveliness and easily available utility of which the inhabitants are not a little boastful, and pardonably so, since it would puzzle even nature herself to bonus a locality more effectively than by bestowing upon it the unmistakable mark of her favor. Of this, however, more anon.

Until 1818 the County of Peterborough was practically a wilderness, unknown excepting to the roving Indian or some occasional dare-devil "pale-face" whose love of adventure outweighed every other consideration. During the year 1818, however, a small colony of "Lumberland" (England)

to a fair start in the struggle for subsistence. Pending the anxiously looked-for first season's limited returns from the necessarily small plot, supplies had to be obtained from a long distance by ox team through trackless swamps and by canoe across Rice Lake to the settlement. Few could accomplish such a feat, however, and settlers and dalemen obtained grants in the then Township of Smith, and erected the first log hut just outside the limits of the present Town of Peterborough. The names of these pioneers were:—William Dixon and his five sons, Joseph Lee and his sons John and George, Robert Millburn, Robert Walton, John Walton, Walton Wilson, James W. Millburn, John Smith and Joseph Smith his son. To these were added, later on the same season, a number of others, and during the following two or three years the colony was increased by further arrivals, and at length it assumed imposing proportions. The initiatory to permanent occupation was, in these days, the "oath of allegiance," and if, through sheer caprice or otherwise, the Family Compact official refused to administer the oath, the applicant was no redress whatever. Next followed the granting of a "location ticket," the fee for which was $25; and on the subsequent presentation of an affidavit certifying to

The site of what is now the thriving Town of Peterborough was 70 years ago an absolute wilderness. The first house built was a residence for himself by Adam Scott on Water street, and about the same time "Scott's Mill," a one-run grain and saw-mill combined, was erected on what is now the site of "Deane's Mills." In 1825 415 families arrived from Ireland in charge of Hon. Peter Robinson, and from the date of this important influx of population may be traced the gradual expansion of the settlement and the development of the surrounding country. The ocean passage from Cork to Quebec was made in 21 days, and thence the immigrants (2,024 souls all told) were forwarded to Kingston, where they tarried for two weeks, and subsequently embarked for Cobourg in detachments of 500, the pass, and after ten days of hard labor the baggage, provisions and three large boats were safely conveyed to Rice Lake. Here, owing to the low water in the Otonabee River, eight days were occupied in the construction of a flat-bottomed boat, 60 feet long and eight wide, and in this unique craft the entire company and their effects were conveyed to their destination. Pending their settlement on the allotted grants of land the company lived in huts constructed of slabs, bark, branches of trees, etc., and were provided with rations daily served out as follows:—To each immigrant over the age of fourteen a pound of pork and a pound of flour; to each child between the age of five and fourteen, half that quantity; and them waddling home to dream of Lot's wife and the dropsey. True, herrings were not on the Peterborough bill of fare during the period referred to, but their equivalent in salt pork and flour, with whiskey at fifteen cents a gallon to wash it down, left little to be desired in the way of either necessities or luxuries. It was not in their case of potatoes and point, or as Goldsmith admirably puts it:— "In some Irish houses, where things are so-so, a gammon of bacon hangs up for a show, but as for their eating the thing they take pride in."

MR. RICHARD HALL.

They'd as soon think of eating the pan it was fried in. Verily so. These rations were continued nails, two gimlets, three hoes, one kettle, one frying pan, an iron pot, three bushels of seed potatoes and eight quarts of Indian corn.

From the very first the unlimited command of water-power furnished by the Otonabee River attracted the attention of the enterprising possessed of any capital, and the town accordingly grew and prospered. In 1825 the name "Peterborough" was substituted for "Scott's Plains," in honor of the Hon. Peter Robinson, and the Government mill (already referred to) was erected on the property of the late John Hall, and the deceased Samuel H. H. H. Hence the origin of "Dickson's" mills and "Dickson's" dam. The following year a building "boom" resulted in the erection of twenty new frame houses and a school house, the latter on the site of the present collegiate institute. A weekly mail commenced now to be distributed by James B. Ferguson, the first postmaster, from a 10 x 16 foot office on Water street; and in 1834 St. John's (Anglican) and St. Andrew's (Presbyterian) Churches were put in course of construction—Rev. S. Armour and Rev. J. M. Roger being the first pastor and minister respectively. The following year the small frame church previously used by the Roman Catholic denomination on Lower Hunter street having been burned the occupying the present site was commenced, under the pastorate of the Rev. Father Butler. In 1837 The Backwoodsman and Peterborough Sentinel newspaper was established by Mr. John Darcas. The population of the village in 1838 was about 850. In 1841 the district courthouse and gaol were completed, and in 1841 the Bank of Montreal established an agency in charge of the late Robert Nicholls.

THE TOWN OF PETERBOROUGH. The incorporation of Peterborough to the dignity of a town took place in 1850, and the late Thomas Benson was elected its first mayor.

The year 1851 witnessed the erection of the R. C. separate school; in 1853 the Bible Christian Church was built; in 1855 the Commercial Bank established an agency in charge of Mr. W. Cluxon, and in 1856 Mr. James Hall assumed the management of a branch of the Bank of Toronto. Several handsome business structures, including those of P. Ryan, W. Cluxon, James Stevenson, T. Bradburn, etc., were erected about this time, and the town began to assume an aspect of importance.

In 1858 the extension of the Port Hope & Lindsay Railway to the town was hailed with the liveliest satisfaction, and inaugurated the successive lines which now constitute the seven spokes radiating from the "Hub" of which more anon. The same year, the name "Scotch" Village (in the immediate suburbs) gave place to that of "Ashburnham," by which it is still designated.

A disastrous fire which in 1860 destroyed 29 business establishments in the town proved a trying experience, but the inhabitants of Peterboro' are not made of the stuff which melts at a scorching, and the outcome has been the erection in their stead of a class of buildings far more stylish and substantial than before.

Having briefly sketched the progress of the settlement, as village and town, to a period only 30 years back, a brief statistical retrospect, inclusive of the period since 1860, will be found interesting. Quoting from a publication (for 1888-9) issued by J. R. Stratton, M.P., of The Examiner, the record is:—"In 1832 the population barely reached 500; ten years later it was

Consequent upon the expense incurred in the general substitution for and the combination of the electric light with gas throughout the town and other causes the rate of taxation (for all purposes) for 1891 has been abnormally high, but this is merely temporary. The following statistics for the current year will be found interesting:—

Total assessment	$4,135,963
Personal property	$2,100,000
Income	$219,556
Land value	$3,977,000
Assets	$44,022
Liabilities	$289,010
Taxes	$6,879
Rate of taxation	15 mills
Number of ratepayers	2,788

immense, never-failing and easily-controlled supply of water from the numerous lakes to the north, and the exceptional shipping facilities involved in the existence of a line of railway along the entire length, constituting a combination of exceptional inducements which cannot fail to arrest the attention of the most casual observer. The fall of the river between Peterboro' and Lakefield (nine miles) is 145 feet; the number of dams in existence is five (four of which are within the corporation) representing 9,000 horse power, with sites for four additional, from which it is estimated that 11,600 horse power could be developed with all ease. Nor is it in the matter of water power only that the town enjoys such enviable facilities for manufacturing and the transaction of business. In addition to the

MR. D. BELLEFLEUR.

main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway (Ontario division), passing through the town and furnishing special lines to several of the largest mills and factories, the Grand Trunk unites several of its branches here, viz., the Grand Junction Railway to Belleville, the Midland Railway to Port Hope, the branch to Lakefield, and the Chemung branch—the combined system representing the seven spokes of the "Hub" previously referred to, thus:—

The Grand Trunk Railway likewise supplies a large mileage of sidings to various manufacturing establishments, and the station buildings and freight sheds of these two great roads are, those in the large cities only excepted, the handsomest and best appointed in Canada.

ON IT STRIKES ONE.

On approaching the town by river rail or water, what strikes one most is the number and magnitude of its manufacturing industries, and yet it is only after an inspection of such as the Edison's, Peter Hamilton Co.'s, Wm. Hamilton Co.'s, Agburn Co.'s,

MR. ARTHUR RUTHERFORD.

etc., establishments, employing each from 100 to 700 hands, that any one can form an estimate of what in aggregate the manufacturing interests of Peterboro' really mean. In a word, they are simply immense, and, in comparison with the preconceived idea of many (the writer included), far beyond what they had ever the slightest conception of. Nor on entering the town is the visitor any the less agreeably surprised at the compactly built-up, city-like appearance of the principal streets and the magnificent fronts—fit but exclusively plate glass—of its block after block of uniformly elegant and massive brick business buildings. This particular feature of George street and several other of the principal thoroughfares it is, that, taken in combination with the magnificent churches and palatial residences dotting the elevated background, constitutes a picture the duplicate of which it were difficult to find in any town in Canada. Little wonder that living amid surroundings such as these the inhabitants cherish a spirit of wholesome aesthetic rivalry which manifests itself in the cultivation of neatly-kept lawns, trim boulevards and beautiful shade-trees, that, taken all together, would do credit to almost any locality in America.

THE FINANCIAL ASPECT.

As regards the financial condition of the Town of Peterboro' the best and the most unique remark in such a connection that can be made is, that the town is practically out of debt, in other words that its available assets largely outbalance its liabilities. Not only so, but the rate of taxation has always been low (averaging but twelve and four-tenth mills for 14 years), a fact which speaks volumes for the municipal management, and furnishes the best possible argument in favor of the town as a desirable place to live in. Nor—note ye this, gentlemen of Toronto—has the town a dollar of floating debt, but on the contrary continues to carry over a credit balance of greater or less amount year after year. True, there are bonded liabilities, but what with the cash on hand and accruing profits on investments, etc., every dollar of these will be paid (and that without a cent of increase) taxes) promptly on maturity. The town is, in brief, in the position of a merchant possessed of a fine, well-stocked store, his liabilities provided for and a handsome credit at the bank to meet current emergencies.

ITS EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

In the apportionment of its tax income the Town of Peterboro' contributes annually about one-third of the whole (over $15,000) to the maintenance of its schools; and in the buildings, etc., occupied for educational purposes fully $75,000 are invested. These schools, consisting of (1) the collegiate institute, (2) one central and two ward schools, (3) a R. C. Separate school, employing uniting an aggregate of 30 teach-completely restored at a cost of $35,000, and the work of adding and improving still goes on.

The Baptist Church, erected in 1845, although subsequently enlarged, was vacated on the occasion of the Methodist union in favor of the Bible Christian Church, of larger capacity, on Murray street, and the latter repaired throughout in 1888.

St. Paul's (Presbyterian), erected in 1859, was rebuilt on an enlarged scale in 1885. George Street (Methodist), originally built in 1834, was rebuilt in 1864, enlarged in 1884, a new organ added in 1864 (in continuity of the thing), and in 1874 was erected the present magnificent edifice at a cost of $50,000.

ers. Number of pupils 1,750. There are also several private schools, a flourishing business college, and an excellent Mechanics' Institute of 350 members.

THE CHURCHES.

It is worthy of remark, as indicative of the determination of the inhabitants of Peterboro' to keep abreast of the times, that with the single exception of the George Street Methodist Church, which was erected new in 1875, all the church edifices of the town have been built anew, or renovated equal to new, within the last few years.

St. John's (Anglican), erected in 1834, was restored in 1862 at a cost of $15,000.

St. Andrew's (Presbyterian) of 1835, was replaced in 1896 by the St. Andrew's of to-day.

St. Peter's (Roman Catholic), built in 1837-8, was in 1882 constituted the cathedral church of the new diocese of Peterboro', and in the fourth year of the episcopacy of the first bishop (the Right Rev. John Francis James, D.D.) the church was

Charlotte Street (Methodist) was erected in 1874, enlarged in 1883, and a new manse and grounds purchased in 1898 at a cost of $3,600.

The Salvation Army Barracks is a neat structure, of red brick, finished without and within in the characteristic style at a cost of $10,000.

The Young Men's Christian Association occupies spacious apartments in Morrow's Block, corner of George and Brock streets.

PETERBORO'S NEWSPAPERS.

The most reliable criterion of the civilization and intelligence of any community is, after all, best furnished by the calibre and tone of its newspapers; and in this respect the Town of Peterboro' has certainly nothing to fear in the comparison with any city or town of its size in the Dominion.

The Peterboro' Daily and Weekly Examiner is ably conducted in the interests of sound, Liberal (alias Mowat) government, by Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P., for the West Riding of Peterborough. Established in 1847—hence the oldest journal in town.

sent population of the Town of Peterboro', including that of the Village of Ashburnham, is estimated at 13,000. The subject of incorporation has been suggestively discussed, but the general feeling is that of hastening gently. Incorporation as a city is a step which will be taken in due time. The town is doing so admirably as a town, that there is a feeling that incorporation would not add largely to its prosperity,

The natural increase in population this year to date has been 504, and, if to this be added the influx of Edison employees numbering at least 700 more, the total increase will have been about 1,200.

During the year the value of lands has increased by $70,640.

ITS ADMIRABLE SURROUNDINGS.

The Town of Peterboro' is situated on the Otonabee River, about 30 miles north

In 1864 the paper came into possession of Mr. James Stratton, late Collector of Customs, and father of the gentleman who now so successfully conducts it. In 1882 the weekly edition was enlarged and the daily edition made its debut in 1885. The latter has repeatedly since been enlarged, and is now a four-page eight-column daily—the largest town daily in Ontario. The Examiner has also a large job department, with five steam presses and steam paper cutters, and a well equipped book bindery.

is conducted in connection with the establishment. Mr. Stratton, the proprietor, is a gentleman of large attainments, extremely popular with his confidants of the press and in Parliament, and is a staunch supporter of the principles of that party. In addition to the publication of these papers

The Peterborough Review was established in 1853 by the late Hon. Thomas White and Mr. Robert Romaine and is the oldest established weekly in the county, and the first daily paper published in Peterborough. The Weekly Review is one of the largest Ontario weekly papers, and it gives each week a rich supply of local, district, general and market news, as well as general reading of interest. The Daily Review is also a neatly-printed paper, and the office has a thoroughly-equipped job office for the execution of all classes of printing, book, commercial or general work. It also has a bindery equipped with the best and most improved machinery, and in charge of thoroughly competent workmen. The whole office is furnished with modern plant and machinery, and is in an excellent position to turn out the best of work expeditiously. The Review is published by The Review Printing and Publishing Co., (Limited), Mr. H. Dobbin is the managing director and Mr. S. R. Arm strong the editor.

HOSPITALS AND CHARITIES.
In 1885 Mrs. Robert Nicholls offered to the town, as a memorial of her deceased husband, the premises, known as "Moira Hall," for a Protestant hospital, together with an endowment of $15,000, and subsequently, upon the building proving too small for the purposes intended, the same lady generously donated $100,000 additional for the erection and endowment of the elegant building elsewhere illustrated in these columns. Nor did the munificence of Mrs. Nicholls exhaust itself on behalf of the hospital, as the following endowments show:—Public Parks, $60,000; Y. M. C. A. (local branch), $20,000; Protestant Home, $20,000; Collegiate Institute (scholarships), $2,000; and Mechanics' Institute, $10,000.

St. Joseph's Hospital—likewise illustrated in this issue—was established as a non-denominational institution in 1888, under the control of the Bishop of Peterborough and the Sisterhood of St. Joseph, the latter assuming the duty of nursing. The building located in St. Leonard's Park, Ashburnham, is 60 x 90 feet in dimensions, fitted with 62 beds, and equipped with every modern appliance requisite to the success of such an institution.

Hazel Bine, the headquarters in Canada of Dr. Barnardo's system of homes for the neglected "wee-folks" of London, in another expression of voluntary and God-like benevolence on the part of a lady, the beautiful residence and grounds being the gift of Mrs. George Cox, formerly of Peterborough and now of Toronto. The home is the distributing centre for boys and girls sent out from the training headquarters in London, but is open for the admission of destitute Canadian children as well.

The Peterborough Protestant Home was established in 1865, and five years later took possession of the present quarters on Stewart street purchased for the purpose by the late Judge Hall.

The local St. Andrew's Society was organized in 1858; the St. Vincent de Paul Society in 1873. Both organizations are in a flourishing condition and each accomplishing its mission in an eminent degree.

The Hall Poor Trust is a board constituted under the will of the late Wm. Hall, who left a legacy of $30,000 the proceeds of the investments (about $1,500 annually) to be applied to the relief of the Protestant poor of Peterborough.

BANKS AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS.
In the matter of bank accommodation the citizens of Peterborough have nothing to complain of, no fewer than four of these important monetary institutions having branches here.

The Bank of Montreal (now a branch) occupies its own buildings, erected in 1858, on the corner of Water and Simcoe streets. The resident manager is Mr. F. J. Lewis. The Bank of Toronto commenced operations in 1859 in charge of the late Sheriff Hall, at 431 George street. Mr. Peter Campbell is the present resident manager.

The Ontario Bank was established at 121 Simcoe street, in 1866. Manager—Mr. Charles McNeill.

The Canadian Bank of Commerce, established in 1870, occupies commodious and central premises in the Cox Block, 439 George street. Manager Wm. Mansour.

All of these have, in connection, a savings bank department, and are prepared to accommodate all classes of depositors.

The Central Canada Loan and Savings Co. of Ontario, occupy handsome and commodious premises (see illustration) in Cox block, corner George and Brock street. The company receive deposits on current account and for periods of one year or longer, interest being allowed at 4 and 4 1/2 per cent. respectively. The five per cent. deposits offered by the company afford a safe and convenient mode of investment, and borrowers of money can be accommodated on exceptionally favorable terms.

The subscribed capital of the company is $2,000,000 paid-up capital $800,000; reserve fund $150,000, and assets $3,000,000. The president of the company is Mr. Geo. A. Cox (president Canadian Bank of Commerce) and the inspector, Mr. A. A. Cox. Toronto office, 10 King street west.

METALLANODE.
The beauties of Stony Lake and kindred outing resorts having been already referred to, it only remains to indicate how these localities are reached. And first of all there is the run of nine miles by rail along the Ontario River bank to Lakeside, and thence, in summer, by five swift and comfortable steamers to and among the beautiful wooded and outlying islets of Stony

Coughing

Is Nature's effort to expel foreign substances from the bronchial passages. Frequently, this cough is due to inflammation and the need of an anodyne. No other expectorant or anodyne is equal to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It soothes Nature in ejecting the mucus, allays irritation, induces repose, and is the most popular of all cough cures.

"Of the many preparations before the public for the cure of colds, coughs, bronchitis, and kindred diseases, there is none, within the range of my experience, so reliable as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For years I was subject to colds, followed by terrible coughs. About four years ago, when no illness, I was advised to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and to lay all other remedies aside. I did so, and within a week was well of my cold and cough. Since then I have always kept this preparation in the house, and feel comparatively secure."

—Mrs. L. L. Brown, Denmark, Wis.

"A few years ago I took a severe cold which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. This cough gave me up. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continual use of the Pectoral, my permanent cure was effected." —Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

EIGHTY MINERS KILLED.

FRIGHTFUL DISASTER IN A FRENCH COLLIERY.

Another Devastating Sift in England—The costs which the mine owners of France will have to pay—A Murder Like the famous Eynon Case.

Paris, Dec. 7.—An explosion occurred at noon yesterday in the mine of the Manufacture, belonging to the Societe Industrielle Colliery. Immediately after the explosion dense volumes of smothering smoke issued from the mouth of the mine, connecting pit, and in a short time crowds of relatives and friends of the imprisoned workmen gathered about the entrance to the pit and prepared for the work of rescue.

Fortunately to-day was being observed as a fast day, and a comparatively small number of men was at work in the mine. If the accident had occurred on an ordinary working day the loss of life would have been appalling.

The Work of Rescue Impeded.

When the first attempt was made to rescue the imprisoned men, the rescuers were driven back by the foul fumes that poured from the shaft, and for nearly an hour nothing could be done to aid the unfortunate miners in the pit.

At length, the shaft was sufficiently cleared to enable the rescuers to descend in the cage and begin the work of exploration, but at the very outset the rescuers encountered a serious obstacle, for the main gallery was found to have collapsed, and the rescuers had to make their way through a narrow passage, and a few minutes later they came across the bodies of four miners.

The men, although unconscious, were still alive, and were quickly sent to the surface, where they soon revived.

While the rescuers were at work several doctors and a number of ambulances had been summoned from St. Etienne.

A short time afterwards another rescuing party which had been sent to the surface, sent to the surface four more of the victims, all of whom were quickly restored to consciousness.

73 Lives Lost.

All the other imprisoned men perished, however, 73 in all. The wives, children and relatives of the entombed miners still surround the mouth of the pit. At midnight heart-rending scenes were witnessed as the bodies of the victims were brought to the surface.

A PARISIAN MYSTERY.

The Archibald McNeill Murder Mystery.

At last cleared up.

London, Dec. 7.—The body of Archibald McNeill, a well-known and popular journalist, was found on the sands at Boulogne in Jan., 1888. All the evidence pointed to foul play, but long and patient investigation led to nothing. The case caused a sensation, but the police were finally compelled to acknowledge themselves beaten.

To-day a tailor living in Boulogne went to the office of the Procureur and declared the crime was committed by his brother and his sister in law, who desired to obtain McNeill's valuable. The woman enticed him to the shore, where he was poisoned upon by her husband, and together they murdered and robbed him. The accused are both of evil repute. The Procureur has caused their arrest.

McNeill went to France to report the South African prize fight in Jan. 1890. He was known to have had in the possession coin, bank of England notes, and a watch, all of which were missing when his body was found. Several fragments of bone of his sister's were found at the bank of England.

The most well-known and there were several wounds on the head. In the pockets were found pencils, scissors, and a telegraph. With an account of the case.

"At last, I can eat a good square meal without its distressing me!" was the grateful exclamation of one whose appetite had been restored by the use of Ayer's Mergatril, after years of dyspeptic misery. A teaspoonful of this extract before each meal sharpens the appetite.

THE DEAD EX-EMPEROR

Dom Pedro's lying in state to his daughter and heir, Countess d'Eu. PARIS, Dec. 7.—Dom Pedro was eulogized to the end. At almost the last moment he showed the influence of his daughter and her husband to bear up against sorrow and to pray with him for the greatness and prosperity of Brazil. Immediately after the ex-Emperor had breathed his last, all the persons present in the room knelt and kissed the hand of the Countess d'Eu, who, upon her father's death, instantly became invested with all his rights to the throne of Brazil. The Countess has no present intention to protest to the Brazilian Government against her exile from the country, but she maintains all her rights in relation to the crown. She says she is ready to return to Brazil at the first summons sent her.

Cable despatches from Rio Janeiro say that the news of the death of Dom Pedro met with no official recognition in the Brazilian capital. A number of merchants and shopkeepers in Rio Janeiro closed their places of business for the day out of respect for the ex-Emperor, but otherwise the death of the former ruler of Brazil was marked by no demonstrations of any kind.

Dom Pedro left no will. The little property he had will be divided between the Countess d'Eu and children of the deceased's daughter, Princess Leopoldine of Saxa-Coburg.

The King of Portugal has offered the use of the vault of the Braganca family for the burial of the ex-Emperor.

Dom Pedro was fully possessed of his mental faculties till the end. The funeral has been fixed for Thursday.

Army service in France.

PARIS, Dec. 7.—The members of the Superior Council of War have had a conference with the commander of the various army corps, to consider the proposal to reduce the term of army service. They decided against applying the system of two years' service in the French army.

A French Baroness Murdered.

PARIS, Dec. 7.—Baroness Bellard, the mother of a high official in the Ministry of War, was shot yesterday with her third bullet in the room at her home. The official investigation has revealed the fact that the maid, who then was in the room, came upon the murderess while she was doing his bloody work. The man who committed the crime was presently in search of plunder. Everything in the room was out of place. He has not yet been arrested.

Wounds of the Revolution.

PARIS, Dec. 7.—Revelations made before the Labor Commission about the hours of work and the terms on which they are employed have obliged the commission to appoint two women sub-commissioners to take evidence privately. Specific cases were referred to where girls were obliged to choose between immediate loss of place and submission to improper work.

A hot instance of the working hours amounted to over 100 weeks. The whole truth of the evidence is against the employment of women except under strict legislative control.

Fall Into a Well.

CHATELAIN, Dec. 7.—The 3-year-old grandson of John Thibault, a farmer near here, fell into a well and was drowned yesterday.

Where Silence is Golden.

CHATELAIN, Dec. 7.—Juan Paredo, an editor of the newspaper, the capital of the state of Jalisco, who has been attacking the state authorities in his journal, was yesterday taken into a state of incommunicability by men wearing police uniforms.

The Editor of the Newspaper El Tiempo and the editor of the newspaper published in this city have arranged to fight a duel on Monday. Swords are the weapons chosen.

The Proof of the Pudding.

Have you humors, causing blotches? Does your blood run thick and sluggish? Are you drowsy, dull and languid? Is a bad taste in your mouth, and is your sleep with bad dreams broken? Do you feel downhearted, dismal—breeding something that you know not? Then be very sure you're bilious.

That you have a torpid liver, and what you need something to rouse it and make it active enough to throw off the impurities that clog it, something to invigorate the debilitated system, and help the organs to perform the duties expected of them promptly and energetically.

"Something" is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great Blood Purifier, which its proprietors have such faith in that they guarantee it to cure. If it does not, your money will be refunded. But it will. Buy it, try it and be convinced of its wonderful power. If the proof of the pudding is in the eating, the proof of this remedy is in the taking.

SHOT BY HER LOVER.

Herbert Ford, a Detroit Muskrat, then shot her in the heart. DETROIT, Dec. 7.—Herbert Ford, colored, aged 23, met his sweetheart, Clara Miller, 14 years of age, in Clinton street last night and fired three shots at her, two of which took effect, one lodging under the left shoulder blade. Ford then killed himself. The act was premeditated. He charged the girl, whose reputation was good, with being unfaithful to him. There is a charge of her recovery.

OPPOSED TO UNION-EATING.

A Chicago School "Mama" Who Can't Stand the Odds.

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Miss M. D. Merrill, a demure teacher in the Oakley School, has raised a storm by sending home pupils whose breaths are scented with the succulent onion. K. H. Grinnell, a taxpayer, takes issue with Miss Merrill. He has two boys, and after devouring several onions Thursday morning they appeared in school and were promptly sent home with a note, which read: "It is too good in my room most of the time to have the windows open, and the breath of your children, after eating onions, makes the air very offensive."

Friday morning Papa Grinnell felt his youngsters several large juicy onions and sent them to school. As the children's onion-laden breaths began to float around and intermingle with other odorous breaths, Miss Merrill began to sniff about in a suspicious manner with her pretty nose tipped in the air at the proper angle to locate the offensive smell, with the aid of her able olfactory system. She had the two culprits before her and sent them home. The matter has been taken to the Board of Education.

Salvation Army. The Salvation Army will have special services this week. Staff-Capt. Southall, D.O., will arrive here on Saturday evening and Sunday the special "big gun" will be held.

An Action for $500. Councillor Wm. Langford has entered, through Mr. John Burham, C. C., an action for $500 for libel against Mr. Wm. Leach on account of a letter which appeared in the Examiner last evening over his signature in regard to municipal matters and more especially in regard to the Edison works sliding.

At the Opera House. The Ontario Dramatic company opened a three nights engagement at the Opera House last evening. "The Queen of Hearts" was presented to a fair audience. Miss Townsend is a charming actress. She combines beauty and grace of form with versatile dramatic talent and last evening her costume was superb. In the leading role of "The Queen of Hearts" she established herself with the audience. Her support was good. To-night the company will put on "Easy Lyones."

The Life of Moses. The regular meeting of the Charlotte-st. Epworth League was held last night. In the absence of the President Mrs. Price filled the chair. The usual devotional exercises having been conducted, the subject of the evening, "The Life of Moses," was ably handled by Mr. Isaac Richardson, who was followed by the Rev. Mr. Edwards, Mr. L. Chantre and Mr. S. Stanton. After the meeting quite a number of young people were enrolled as members of the League, which is good evidence of the progress that the Epworth in all its branches is making.

Officers of the Club. The annual meeting of the Young Men's Catholic Club was held in the club rooms last evening. The year has been a successful and happy one for the club, which is in a most flourishing condition. At the annual meeting the reports presented were highly satisfactory. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

PRESIDENT.—W. A. Hopkins.

FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT.—A. Gough.

SECOND VICE-PRESIDENT.—J. McGrath.

SECRETARY.—A. Hancock.

TREASURER.—R. Sheehy.

DIACON.—J. O'Leary, C. J. Leonard, Dr. McGrath, J. Sheehy, A. Keeler and Dr. Dunn.

The Matter Discussed and Calls Forth Many Resolutions.—The Eighteenth Clause Again the Bone of Contention and is Finally Wiped Out—Several Votes—The Reports of Committees—The Shooting Galleries and Bell and Case "Faker" in Danger—General Resolutions.

The audience gallery in the Council Chamber is beginning to be better patronized of late at the meetings of our city fathers. At the regular meeting held last night there was plenty of discussion to keep them interested. Mayor Stevenson presided and present were Councillors Cahill, Davidson, Kelly, Hall, Bradburn, Dawson, Meldrum, Langford, Kendry and Dennistoun.

Mr. Dover, Clerk pro tem, read the minutes of the last meeting and after they had been approved read the following COMMUNICATIONS:

From John O'Brien, Mary Brown, Bernardo Home, E. M. O. A. and for remission of taxes.—The taxes of the Bernardo Home and E. M. O. A. were remitted less the school taxes and the others were referred to the Court of Revision.

From Mr. E. A. Peck advising the Council that he had received instructions from Mr. Zimrie Blodgett to take action against the corporation for damages for a wrongful seizure made upon his property by Mr. Peck, Farrington, acting by his wife, and a cow and other property and refused to release until taxes were paid. The seizure, it was claimed, had an injurious effect upon a member of Mr. Blodgett's family who was delicate.—Finance Committee.

From Mr. Charles Kitzay offering the town a suitable dumping ground for $50 per year.—Finance Committee.

From Wm. Leach complaining of his assessment.—Court of Revision.

From Mr. F. R. Yokome that the employees of the Light and Power Co. had cut down a tree on Gilmour-st. in erecting their line. Councillor Cahill said there was a law against any person cutting down trees on public streets. After a little discussion the matter was referred to the Chief of survey.

From L. M. Hayes asking that the income tax of the late J. L. Gower be remitted from the time of his death.—Referred to the Town Solicitor to deal with it summarily.

From Robt. Deman asking remission of dog tax, the dog having been shot by the police last evening.—Court of Revision.

Removing Remains.—

From Mr. A. Armstrong asking permission to operate a gallery of dolls and cases in the store on George-st. until the expiration of Mr. Henderson's lease.

The Mayor stated that he had found out that some of the boys who were in the Police Court recently had been spending their money in these places. He had said the man he would not get a license, but the request was withdrawn. He did not think houses should be granted such places or to shooting galleries.

Councillor MELDRUM agreed with the Mayor.

Councillor HALL also thought shooting galleries should be closed, as he had noticed the principal frequents at the places were boys. He would also say that he had asked Mr. Edwards to prepare a by-law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes or tobacco to boys.

The Mayor thought such a by-law should be passed if it was legal.

On suggestion of Councillor Dennistoun the matter was referred to the License Committee.

Councillor KENDRY presented the following report of the Committee on Appointments and Supervision of Police:—

To the Mayor and Town Council:—

GENTLEMEN,—Your Committee on Appointments and Supervision of Police beg leave to report that the Committee have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the report of the Police for the year ending on the 31st day of December last, and that the committee have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the same.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Jas. KENDRY, Chairman.

Councillor KENDRY added that the appointment of a Town Clerk had come before the Committee, but as the members stood six to six the matter was laid over for another week.

The report then carried.

THE STREET RAILWAY FRANCHISE.

Councillor HALL presented the report of the Street Railway Committee as follows:—

To the Mayor and Council of the Town of Peterborough:—

The committee to which was referred the petition of the two companies asking for the right to construct a street railway over the streets of the town having brought a report at the last regular meeting of this Council recommending that the franchise be granted to the Edison Syndicate, such report having been referred back to the Committee for further consideration.

The matter was considered by the whole Council in Committee (Councillor Moore, the Chairman of the Committee being absent); when it was decided that the Committee should be authorized to call for a report at the next regular meeting of this Council recommending that the franchise be granted to the Edison Syndicate, and that such vote should be taken by ballot.

The Committee therefore recommended that the following questions be submitted:—

1. Should the franchise be granted to the Edison Syndicate or to the Peterborough and Ashburham Street Railway Company?

2. Should the 18th clause in the report of the Committee dated the 3rd of August last be struck out?

Four Committees further recommended that the above questions be submitted to the vote of the said Council on the 3rd of December, 1891, and that the deputy returning officers appointed to take the votes on the by-law to be submitted on that day be appointed to take such vote.

That such vote shall be taken by ballot.

That all persons whose names appear on the revised assessment roll for this year shall be entitled to vote, but no person shall have more than one vote and shall not have a vote in each ward in which he is assessed.

That the clerk be instructed to have the proper ballot papers printed for this purpose.

That the said deputy returning officers shall sum up the votes cast and certify the same to the clerk, who shall receive the vote and declare the result at the first meeting of the Council held after the said 3rd of December.

E. H. D. HALL, Acting Chairman.

THE DISBURSING REPORT.

Councillor HALL said the report did not carry out his desire. He would rather see the question decided by the Council instead of having any one else do it. He was willing to assume his responsibility in the matter.

Councillor KENDRY asked if the committee did not decide to eliminate the 18th clause and why were the rate payers asked to vote on the question?

Councillor HALL thought the resolution of the committee was "that the whole matter" be submitted to the ratepayers.

Councillor Dennistoun, Kendry, Cahill and Bradburn thought that the motion in the committee wiped out the 18th clause and that the only question to be decided by the ratepayers was as to which company should get the franchise.

Councillor DAVIDSON said the resolution wiped out the 18th clause, but he thought the opinion of the committee was that the whole matter" should be submitted to the ratepayers.

Councillor DENNISTOUN thought the Council being in possession of all the information was the proper body to deal with the question of the franchise.

Councillor BRADBURN pointed out that if the 18th clause was left in and the franchise was offered to the local company they would not accept it.

Councillor KENDRY was not shirking responsibility, but he wanted a vote on the matter if it was to be settled. The report of the Committee was not correct.

LET THE CLAUSE GO.

Councillor DENNISTOUN said there was a division in the Council and the object in submitting it to the ratepayers was to get their opinion as to which company should have the franchise. He moved seconded by Councillor KENDRY, that the report be amended by striking out that portion thereof which provides for referring the 18th clause of the former report to the ratepayers for consideration and that the report be amended accordingly.

Councillor HALL asked if the decision of the ratepayers would be binding on the Council.

Councillor MELDRUM inquired what was to be gained in submitting the by-law. He was willing to allow the ratepayers to decide who should control their streets and abide by their decision.

Councillor CAHILL wanted the whole matter submitted to the people if any of it was submitted. He was willing to see a local company get the franchise with the 18th clause in, but he thought it would be unfair, after encouraging the Edison Company to come here, to allow another company to come here and take it away. They could limit the clause to the first two miles and a half of the road and allow the company to build the remainder as they liked. He thought the ratepayers could decide the whole question intelligently.

Councillor KENDRY was ready to vote on the matter, but he opposed that eighteenth clause.

LET THE CLAUSE GO.

Councillor CAHILL moved in amendment to the amendment, seconded by Councillor DAVIDSON.—That the street railway franchise be awarded to the Peterborough and Ashburham Street Railway Company with the operation of the 18th clause limited to the period in which the first two and a half miles shall be completed and equipped according to the contract; also that the words "fair and reasonable" be struck out and the following inserted "at as low a price as any other first-class company will furnish the motive power."

Councillor CAHILL said in moving the resolution he assumed that the Council were willing that one company should have the franchise on the basis of the report submitted by Councillor Moore.

Councillor DENNISTOUN said that as far as his amendment was concerned he would have much pleasure in supporting Mr. Cahill's.

Councillor MELDRUM moved in amendment to the amendment, seconded by Councillor DAVIDSON.—That the 18th clause be struck out and that the franchise be granted to the Edison Syndicate.

Councillor BRADBURN said the Edison people did not object to the 18th clause and why strike it out when moving the franchise? They are given the franchise! A discussion arose as to rule of proceeding.

VOTE TAKEN.

Councillor MELDRUM's amendment was put first and resulted in a tie, Councillors Kelly, Hall, Dawson, Meldrum and Langford voting for it, and Councillors Cahill, Davidson, Bradburn, Kendry and Dennistoun voting against it. The Mayor was called upon for the casting vote and declared the motion lost.

Councillor Cahill's amendment was next put and lost, only Councillors Cahill, Davidson and Dennistoun voting for it.

Councillor Dennistoun's resolution was then put and also lost, only Councillors Bradburn, Kendry and Dennistoun voting for it.

Councillor DAVIDSON moved the adoption of the report.

Councillor MELDRUM said if the verdict of the people would be binding he would favor the submission of the whole matter.

The Mayor said the verdict would be binding, that he had not understood Mr. Meldrum's question earlier in the evening.

IT WILL GO TO THE PEOPLE.

Councillor DENNISTOUN again went over the question pointing out that if the 18th clause were struck out the Edison company would vote with their eyes open knowing that if the Peterborough company got the franchise the Edison company would have to compete with outside companies. He asked permission to remove his former resolution.

This was allowed and the motion carried. Councillors Bradburn, Meldrum, Langford, Kendry and Dennistoun voting for it and the Mayor gave his casting vote.

THE POLICE COURT RECORDS.

Councillor DAVIDSON moved, seconded by Councillor LANGFORD.—That the Treasurer and Chief of Police be appointed to investigate the books of the late clerk of the Police Court.—Carried.

REPLACING DEFENDERS.

Councillor DAVIDSON moved, seconded by Councillor CAHILL.—That the Commissioners of the Town Trust be requested to leave the defendants to replace those matured in October and shall be taken by ballot.

That all persons whose names appear on the revised assessment roll for this year shall be entitled to vote, but no person shall have more than one vote and shall not have a vote in each ward in which he is assessed.

That the clerk be instructed to have the proper ballot papers printed for this purpose.

That the said deputy returning officers shall sum up the votes cast and certify the same to the clerk, who shall receive the vote and declare the result at the first meeting of the Council held after the said 3rd of December.

18 Nature's effort to expel foreign substances from the bronchial passages. Frequently, this causes inflammation and the need of an anodyne. No other expectorant or anodyne is equal to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It soothes Nature in ejecting the mucus, allays irritation, induces repose, and is the most popular of all cough cures.

"Of the many preparations before the public for the cure of colds, coughs, bronchitis, and kindred diseases, there is none within the range of my experience, so reliable as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For years I was subject to colds, followed by terrible coughs. About four years ago, when so afflicted, I was advised to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and to lay all other remedies aside. I did so, and within a week was well of my cold and cough. Since then I have always kept this preparation in the house, and feel comparatively secure."

—Mrs. L. L. Brown, Denmark, Minn.

"A few years ago I took a severe cold which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded the most refreshing recovery of my strength. By the continual use of the Pectoral, a permanent cure was effected."—Jesse Fairbrother, Rockingham, Vt.

THE LATE DON PEDRO.

His Daughter Will Not Let Her Rights to the Throne.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—The report that it is the intention of the Countess D'Alb, the daughter and heiress of Don Pedro, to take action to assert her rights to the throne of Brazil, is authoritative.

The monarchists at Rio Janeiro are disheartened by the death of the child. The supporters of the republican cause will hold a public meeting in Rio Janeiro Wednesday to publicly express their grief at Don Pedro's death.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—A serious accident occurred on the cable tramway. A car was ascending the hill at Belleville, when the grip refused to hold the cable, and the car began to descend the hill, gaining velocity every moment. The descending car crashed into another one ascending the hill with a terrible violence and all the passengers in both cars were injured, 12 of them seriously.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—Henri Rosset, a youth 19 years of age, has confessed to a crime not dissimilar to that for which Krayns, the stranger, suffered death. Rosset says that he was the lover of a waitress at Brasserie who had an elderly admirer, a tradesman, who supplied her with money. The girl, according to Rosset, concluded to get rid of her aged friend and get his money at the same time. So she induced him to accompany her to a secluded spot at Bourdon, St. Clair, and while they rested beneath a tree the young stranger drew a revolver, and around the old man's neck and choked him to death. After robbing the body of 15,000 francs they threw the body into the Seine. Rosset refused to give his accomplice's name.

BERLIN, Dec. 8.—A nursemaid named Wilhelmine Tolk was arrested for poisoning the child of her employer, a daughter named Therese. She has confessed that she administered arsenic to the child as an experiment, with the intention of committing suicide by swallowing some of the same drug if it killed the child. Since the publication of the particulars of this case in the daily papers a baby farmer has deposed that an illegitimate child of Wilhelmine's died suddenly last Thursday after a visit from its mother.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—The exit of Florence St. John, Mrs. Dupuy, against her husband, M. Marius Dupuy, was continued today. Mrs. St. John denied killing her husband.

"A French pauper," but admitted that she had killed him a cat. When asked if she had not said to her husband, "Ocher, my man, you are a thief," she replied: "No, sir; I said no such thing." She told of her marriage to St. John, her first husband, since dead, when she was 14 years 6 months old; her subsequent marriage to a Mr. Smith, who procured a divorce because of her infidelity with Marius and of her marriage afterward with the latter, whose wife had also secured a divorce. The couple soon quarrelled. Marius seduced her and she was compelled to accept an engagement at the Strand Theatre in order to support herself and child. Counsel also said that M. PLOT AGAINST THE SULTAN.

His Son-in-Law and Aid-de-Camp Said to Be Involved in It.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 8.—A rumor is current here that a fresh plot has been discovered among the officers of the army to depose the Sultan. A number of arrests are said to have been made, among them being His Majesty's aide-de-camp, General Mohamed Daud, and the Sultan's son-in-law and first aid-de-camp, who will now be sent into exile.

CYRUS FIELD IMPROVING.
The Daily Shamrock.

New York, Dec. 8.—Cyrus W. Field is gradually improving. Many persons are asking from day to day if Edward M. Field is really insane. The suspicion seems to be growing that he is not.

The condition of Edward M. Field at Vernon House yesterday was practically unchanged. He slept fairly well Sunday night and rested rather comfortably yesterday. He had no desire for food, however, and would eat but little. He continued depressed and emotional. He slept none during the day.

One point in the incarceration of Edward M. Field seems to have been overlooked, and that is the fact that he may be removed at a moment's notice, without any formal trial.

The law on this point is such that in the case of a private asylum, like Dr. Granger's, the patient may be removed at a moment's notice.

Wall street men are beginning to criticize EDWARD M. FIELD. Assignee Charles W. Gould, who has charge of the affairs of Field, Lindsey, Wischer & Co. Ten days have passed since Mr. Gould was called in to wind up the business of the wrecked firm, but he has not yet given even an approximate estimate of the liabilities and assets of the concern. Meanwhile the feeling of repugnance as to Edward M. Field's insanity is growing more and more general.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—The hope that some of the miners imprisoned by the falling walls of the chambers in the Puits de la Manufacture mine at St. Etienne, where the explosion occurred last night, are still alive, has been abandoned. The work of removing the bodies is necessarily slow. Since midnight 15 bodies have been taken from the pit. The scenes when they were lifted to the surface were most heartrending. There are yet 12 bodies in the lower gallery.

The disaster was due to the action of the manager of the mine who ordered that the ventilating apparatus be stopped.

President Carot has sent a message to the prefect of St. Etienne expressing his deep regret for the disaster. The President has also sent one of his aide-de-camps to convey his condolences to the wives and relatives of the victims who were killed and to distribute relief where needed. The families of many of the dead miners are miserably poor.

Rosset says that he was the lover of a waitress at Brasserie who had an elderly admirer, a tradesman, who supplied her with money. The girl, according to Rosset, concluded to get rid of her aged friend and get his money at the same time. Coughing

Is Nature's effort to expel foreign substances from the bronchial passages. Frequently, this causes inflammation and the need of an anodyne. No other expectorant or anodyne is equal to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It soothes the inflamed membrane, allays irritation, induces repose, and is the most popular of all cough cures.

Of the many preparations before the public for the cure of colds, coughs, bronchitis, and kindred diseases, there is none within the range of my experience so reliable as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For years I was subject to colds, followed by terrible coughs. About four years ago, when so afflicted, I was advised to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and lay all other remedies aside. I did so, and within a week was well of my cold and cough. Since then I have always kept this preparation in the house, and feel comparatively secure.

A few years ago I took a severe cold which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. The continual use of the Pectoral, a permanent cure was effected. —J. J. Fairbrother, Hockley, N.Y.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1901.

THE FRENCH UNSELY.

Jealous of Germany's Alliance and English Influence.

New York, Dec. 9.—The Herald's Paris dispatch says: The news of the signature of a commercial convention between Germany and the United States has made a deep impression. People here are asking each other whether Germany, who has already signed treaties of commerce with Austria and Italy and who is on the point of contracting others with Belgium and Switzerland, intends to cut out France, who has been the champion of free trade, and who has been the champion of free trade.

The prevailing optimism on certain points has been succeeded by a widespread feeling of disquietude. In political circles peace is not thought nearly as probable as it was lately. According to the reports which the French Government has received from its agents, England is taking a lively interest in the movement of the radicals in favor of an abolition of the concordat. On making inquiries regarding the reasons of this curious fact, the Government has ascertained that England is equally interested in the attacks of Italy on the Vatican. It would seem that England still expects to derive profit from a conflict between the Pope and the King of Italy. While avoiding all direct interference in the matter, she is working by secret and indirect means to bring about this crisis. But she is waiting time; the departure of Pope Leo XIII. is not within measurable distance, and it did not occur who would do good to England.

RUSSELL SAGE'S INJURIES.

Dead in Eight Days and His Hands and Feet Paralyzed.

New York, Dec. 9.—It is feared Russell Sage received a permanent injury to his right ear from the explosion in his office on Friday. When he was first brought home, he could hear very little with either ear, and until yesterday he was unable to hear the ticking of a watch on the left side. Yesterday, however, the hearing of the left ear showed considerable improvement, but the right ear remained practically deaf, and Dr. Mann is inclined to believe the drum has been fractured. In all other respects Mr. Sage's condition is practically unchanged. The nervous reaction which was very apparent Sunday has disappeared. Mr. Sage received a severe injury to the right hand and right leg. The right hand, besides being cut in several places, appears also to have been badly burned. It is kept completely wrapped in bandages, with the exception of the finger tips. The left hand also had ugly-looking cuts on the back, but it has already nearly healed and requires only a plaster.

TO PRESERVE GAME.

Meeting of the International Fish and Game Commission.

HAMILTON, Dec. 9.—The final meeting of the International Fish and Game Commission is now being held in the city.

One resolution under consideration is to the effect that provisions should be introduced into the laws of all the States represented in the conference, forbidding the taking and having in possession of salmon trout and whitefish of less weight of less than two pounds each, less of the weight of less than one pound and blue pike of less weight than three-quarters of a pound.

This resolution is the one of most interest here. "That we ask of the Canada Fish Commissioners a prohibitory law that will prohibit the use of all kinds of nets in the Canadian waters of the St. Lawrence River, the same as the New York State codification bill now recommended; we also ask of them to include the same time for their close season on the St. Lawrence River, for all kinds of game fish, that the above-named codification bill recommends."

"Little drops of water,
Little grains of sand,
Make the mighty ocean,
And the pleasant land."

And dropping into prose, we would say that Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are mild, but prompt in relieving constipation, and headache, bilious attacks, pain in the region of the kidneys, torpid liver, and restoring a healthy, natural action to the stomach and bowels. 25 cents a box. One Pellet a dose. Little but lively. The use of the old style, drastic pills is an outrage on the human system.

A CURIOUS YARN.

Hubbard and Wife Share a Pig for a Bed.

BRANTFORD, Dec. 9.—Mr. Charles Pelton of Brantford is author of the statement that a certain couple, man and woman, living on the third concession of that town line, have a pig sleeping in the same bed as themselves. The woman, when spoken to about the subject, seemed to think such companionship quite proper, but complained that the pigker bit her feet.

John L. Fighting Drunk.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 9.—John L. Sullivan left for Southern California yesterday in a state of helplessness. He was lugged on board the ferry boat like a sack of wheat. Sullivan bore evidence of having been in a fight, and it is said he and Ashton had one in San Salito on Sunday. Ashton and Sullivan got into an altercation over their cups. Ashton was, comparatively speaking, sober, John L. was drunk. Words led to blows and the "big fellow" was knocked down. A rough and tumble fight ensued, in which Ashton got far the better of Sullivan. The "big fellow" separated the pair and John was persuaded to go home. His cheek was marked and he was bleeding from the nose. Sullivan was drunk nearly all last week, but managed to sober up every night for the performance. He seems to have completely lost his grip, since his failure to get on a match with Blavin.

SUPPLEMENT Peterborough Daily and Weekly Review

PETERBOROUGH, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1891.

TOWN OF PETERBOROUGH.

Interesting Sketch of a Thriving Municipality.

ITS ORIGINAL SETTLEMENT.

Contrast Between Its Past and Present.

GLIMPSES OF LEADING BUSINESS MEN AND PARLIAMENTARY MEN—A LIVE TOWN WITH A BRIGHT FUTURE.

THE County of Peterborough is one of the largest, and, as between the Eastern and Western Counties, the most central in Ontario. Generally speaking its surface is undulating, with a tendency toward the south to hilliness of a more or less pronounced character. The county is one of the best watered inland sections of the Dominion. Near the centre of its western limit a chain of lakes, the principal of which are Pigeon, Buckhorn, Chemung and Stoney Lakes, enters it from the County of Victoria and extends across to within twelve miles of the eastern boundary of the county. From near the western extremity of Stoney Lake a vast area of this body of water extends like-wise in a e-like south westerly direction through Clear Lake and Katchewanooka Lake, and thence by the Otonabee River past Lakefield and Peterborough into Rice Lake, whence, under the name of the Trent River, it flows into the eastern shore of Stoney Lake and of Clear Lake. By of Quinte. The scenery, especially along the picturesque island dotted south at its junction with the former, is wonder fully beautiful, and the fishing—of bass, muskellunge, etc.—all that can be desired. In this archipelago it was that the Ameri-

the performance of "settlement dues" and the erection of a house at least 18 x 20 feet on the lot, a title deed in fee simple was granted. The affidavit last referred to, had, however, to be presented in person at the land office in Little York, and one can easily imagine what, in the absence of passable roads, not to speak of railways, such a journey meant to the poor applicant. Nor was this the only or most serious drawback.

spring. The story has long since passed into history and will constitute the perpetuated theme of an appreciative posterity as long as an English heart continues to beat or an Anglo-Saxon tongue wags. But we must proceed.

In due time Sir Percival Maitland, in response to a petition to that effect, built a "settlement mill" at Peterborough, and settlers continued to pour into the county.

Montreal, passing through the four southern townships of the county and crossing the River Otonabee at the Town of Peterborough, was opened for traffic, reducing the time occupied between that town and

and the road from Lake Ontario to Rice Lake was barely passable. The Otonabee River was, moreover, in many places very rapid and the water much lower than usual at that season of the year. Nothing daunted, however, Mr. Robinson and his able assistant Mr. McDunnell (afterwards Col. McDunnell, nephew of the late Bishop McDunnell of Kingston) set about repairing the road so that loaded wagons might can Canoe Association held its annual meet in the summer of 1883, and a lovely better adapted for such an occasion it would be difficult to find anywhere. There, with more than a hundred other lakes of greater or less area, distributed principally throughout the northern part of the county, constitute, with their connections, a heritage of loveliness and easily available utility of which the inhabitants are not a little boastful, and paradoxically so, since it would puzzle even nature herself to bonus a locality more effectively than by bestowing upon it so unmistakable a mark of her favor. Of this, however, more anon.

Until 1818 the County of Peterborough was practically a wilderness, unknown excepting to the roving Indian or some occasional dare-devil "pale face" whose love of adventure outweighed every other consideration. During the year 1818, however, a small colony of Cumberland (England)

to a fair start in the struggle for subsistence. Pending the anxiously looked-for first season's limited returns from the necessarily small plot, supplies had to be obtained from a long distance by team through trackless swamps and by canoe across Rice Lake to the settlement. Few could accomplish such a feat, however, and

About the same time two steamers were put on the route between Rice Lake and the "Hub" of Central Ontario. In 1833 the Trent Valley Canal was projected; and in 1839 the townships adjacent to Peterborough were formed into a municipality, to which, in 1841, was given the name of the "Colborne District." A new Council

The site of what is now the thriving Town of Peterborough was 70 years ago an absolute wilderness. The first house built was a residence for himself by Adam Scott on Water street, and about the same time "Scott's Mill," a one-run grain and saw-mill combined, was erected on what is now the site of "Deane's Mills." In 1825 415 families arrived from Ireland in charge of Hon. Peter Robinson, and from the date of this important influx of population may be traced the gradual expansion of the settlement and the development of the surrounding country. The ocean passage from Cork

pass, and after ten days of hard labor the baggage, provisions and three large boats were safely conveyed to Rice Lake. Here, owing to the low water in the Otonabee River, eight days were occupied in the construction of a flat-bottomed boat, 60 feet long and eight wide, and in this unique craft the entire company and their effects

True, herrings were not on the Peterborough bill of fare during the period referred to, but their equivalent in solid pack and flour, with whiskey at fifteen cents a gallon to wash it down, left little to be desired in the way of either necessities or luxuries. It was not in their

nails, two gimlets, three hoes, one kettle, one frying pan, an iron pot, three bushels of seed potatoes and eight quarts of Indian corn.

From the very first the unlimited command of water power furnished by the Otonabee River attracted the attention of the enterprising possessed of any capital, and the town accordingly grew and prospered. In 1825 the name "Peterborough" was substituted for "Scott's Plains," in honor of the Hon. Peter Robinson, and the Government mill (already referred to) was erected on the property of the late John Hall, and subsequently of the late Judge Hall and the deceased Samuel Dickson. Hence the origin of "Dickson's" mills and "Dickson's" dam. The following year a building "boom" resulted in the erection of twenty new frame houses and a school house, the latter on the site of the present collegiate institute. A weekly mail commenced now to be distributed by James B. Ferguson, the first postmaster, from a 10 x 16 foot office on Water street; and in 1834 St. John's (Anglican) and St. Andrew's (Presbyterian) Churches were put in course of

Pending their settlement on the allotted grants of land the company lived in huts constructed of alabs, bark, branches of trees, etc., and were provided with rations daily served out as follows:—To each immigrant over the age of fourteen a pound of pork and a pound of flour; to each child between the age of five and fourteen, half that quantity; and countainers and dalmen obtained grants to the then Township of Smith, and erected the first log hut just outside the limits of the present Town of Peterborough. The names of these pioneers were:—William Dixon and his five sons, Joseph Lee and his sons John and George, Robert Milburn, Robert Walton, John Walton, Walter Wilson, Thos. W. Milburn, John Smith and Joseph Smith his son. To these were added, later on in the same season, a number of others, and during the following two or three years the colony was increased by further arrivals, until at length it assumed imposing proportions. The initiatory to permanent occupation was, in these days, the "oath of allegiance," and if, through sheer caprice or otherwise, the Family Compact official refused to administer the oath, the applicant and no redress whatever. Next followed the granting of a "location ticket," the fee for which was $25; and on the subsequent presentation of an affidavit certifying to

The following year the small frame church previously used by the Roman Catholic denomination on Lower Hunter street having been burned the occupying the present site was commenced, under the pastorate of the Rev. Father Butler. In 1837 The Bookwoodman and Peterborough Sentinel newspaper was established by Mr. John Baraga. The population of the village in 1838 was about 850. In 1841 the district courthouse and gaol were completed, and in 1841 the Bank of Montreal established an agency in charge of the late Robert Nicolls.

The year 1851 witnessed the erection of the H. C. separate school; in 1853 the Bible Christian Church was built; in 1855 the Commercial Bank established an agency in charge of Mr. W. Cluxon, and in 1856 Mr. James Hall assumed the management of a branch of the Bank of Toronto. Several handsome business structures, including those of P. Ryan, W. Cluxon, James Stevenson, T. Bradburn, etc., were erected about this time, and the town began to assume an aspect of importance.

In 1858 the extension of the Port Hope & Lindsay Railway to the town was hailed with the liveliest satisfaction, and inaugurated the successive lines which now constitute the seven spokes radiating from the "Hub"—of which more anon. The same immense, never-failing and easily-controlled supply of water from the numerous lakes to the north, and the exceptional shipping facilities involved in the existence of a line of railway along the entire bank, constituting a combination of exceptional inducements which cannot fail to arrest the attention of the most casual observer. The fall of the river between Peterboro' and Lakefield (nine miles) is 145 feet; the number of dams in existence is five (four of which are within the corporation) representing 9,000 horse power, with sites for four additional, from which it is estimated that 11,600 horse power could be developed with all ease. Nor is it the matter of water power only that the town enjoys such enviable facilities for manufacturing and the transaction of business. In addition to the

A disastrous fire which in 1860 destroyed 29 business establishments in the town proved a trying experience, but the inhabitants of Peterboro' are not made of the stuff which melts at a scorching, and the outcome has been the erection in their stead of a class of buildings far more stylish and substantial than before.

Having briefly sketched the progress of the settlement, as village and town, to a period only 30 years back, a brief statistical retrospect, inclusive of the period since 1860, will be found interesting. Quoting from a publication (for 1888) issued by H. Straton, M.P., of The Examiner, the record is:—"In 1832 the population barely reached 500; ten years later it was

main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway (Ontario division), passing through the town and furnishing special lines to several of the largest mills and factories, the Grand Trunk unites several of its branches here, viz., the Grand Junction Railway to Belleville, the Midland Railway to Port Hope, the branch to Lakefield and the Chemung branch—the combined system representing the seven spokes of the "Hub" previously referred to, thus:—

The Grand Trunk Railway likewise supplies a large mileage of sidings to various manufacturing establishments, and the station buildings and freight sheds of these two great roads are, those in the large cities only excepted, the handsomest and best appointed in Canada.

ON IT STRIKES ONE. On approaching the town by either rail or water, what strikes one most is the number and magnitude of its manufacturing industries, and yet it is only after an inspection of such as the Edison's, Peter Hamilton Co.'s, Wm. Hamilton Co.'s, Auburn Co.'s, etc., establishments, employing each from 100 to 700 hands, that any one can form an estimate of what in aggregate the manufacturing interests of Peterboro' really mean. In a word, they are simply immense, and, in comparison with the preconceived idea of many (the writer included), far beyond what they had ever the slightest conception of. Nor, on entering the town is the visitor any the less agreeably surprised by the compactly built-up, city-like appearance of the principal streets and the magnificent fronts—all but exclusively plate glass—of its block after block of uniformly elegant and massive brick business buildings. This particular feature of George street and several other of the principal thoroughfares it is, that, taken in combination with the magnificent churches and palatial residences dotting the elevated background, constitutes a picture the duplicate of which it were difficult to find in any town in Canada. Little wonder that living amid surroundings such as these the inhabitants cherish a spirit of wholesome aesthetic rivalry which manifests itself in the cultivation of neatly-kept lawns, trim boulevards and beautiful shade-trees, that,

THE FINANCIAL ASPECT. As regards the financial condition of the Town of Peterboro' the best and the most unique remark is such a connection that can be made is, that the town is practically out of debt, in other words that its available assets largely outbalance its liabilities. Not only so, but the rate of taxation has always been low (averaging but twelve and four-tenth mills for 14 years), a fact which speaks volumes for the municipal management, and furnishes the best possible argument in favor of the town as a desirable place to live in. Nor—note ye this, adherents of Toronto!—has the town a dollar of floating debt, but on the contrary continues to carry over a credit balance of greater or less amount year after year. True, there are bonded liabilities, but, what with the cash on hand and accruing profits on investments, etc., every dollar of those will be paid (and that without a cent of increase taxes) promptly on maturity. The town is, in brief, in the position of a merchant possessed of a fine, well-stocked store, his liabilities provided for, and a handsome credit at the bank to meet current emergencies.

ITS EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

In the apportionment of its tax income the Town of Peterboro' contributes annually about one-third of the whole (over $15,000) to the maintenance of its schools; and in the buildings, etc., occupied for educational purposes fully $75,000 are invested. These schools, consisting of (1) the collegiate institute, (2) one central and two ward schools, (3) a R. C. Separate school, employing unitedly an aggregate of 30 teachers, completely restored at a cost of $35,000, and the work of adding and improving still goes on.

The Baptist Church, erected in 1845, although subsequently enlarged, was vacated on the occasion of the Methodist union in favor of the Bible Christian Church, of larger capacity, on Murray street, and the latter repaired throughout in 1888.

St. Paul's (Presbyterian), erected in 1850, was rebuilt on an enlarged scale in 1885.

George Street (Methodist), originally built in 1834, was rebuilt in 1844, enlarged in 1854, a new organ added in 1864 (in continuity of the thing), and in 1874 was erected the present magnificent edifice at a cost of $50,000.

ers. Number of pupils 1,750. There are also several private schools, a flourishing business college, and an excellent Mechanical Institute of 350 members.

THE CHURCHES.

It is worthy of remark, as indicative of the determination of the inhabitants of Peterboro' to keep abreast of the times, that with the single exception of the George Street Methodist Church, which was erected new in 1875, all the church edifices of the town have been built anew, or renovated equal to new, within the last few years.

St. John's (Anglican), erected in 1834, was restored in 1862 at a cost of $15,000.

St. Andrew's (Presbyterian) of 1855, was replaced in 1885 by the St. Andrew's of today.

St. Peter's (Roman Catholic), built in 1878, was in 1882 constituted the cathedral church of the new diocese of Peterboro', and in the fourth year of the episcopacy of the first bishop (the Right Rev. John Francis Jamot, D.D.) the church was

Charlotte Street (Methodist) was erected in 1874, enlarged in 1883, and a new manse and grounds purchased in 1888 at a cost of $3,600.

The Salvation Army Barracks is a neat structure, of red brick, finished without and within in the characteristic style at a cost of $10,000.

The Young Men's Christian Association occupies spacious apartments in Morrow's Block, corner of George and Hock streets.

PETERBORO'S NEWSPAPERS.

The most reliable criterion of the civilization and intelligence of any community is, after all, best furnished by the caliber and tone of its newspapers; and in this respect the Town of Peterboro' has certainly nothing to fear in the comparison with any city or town of its size in the Dominion.

fully 1,000; upon the incorporation of the town in 1849, the population was 1,700; and years later, when the census was taken, the result was 2,191; in 1862 the population totalled 3,840. The year 1868 found the town with a population of 4,858, and ten years later—in 1878—there was an advance to 6,992, and in 1883 to 8,048. This is a population sufficient to entitle the town to take the position of a city. In this connection it may be stated that the pre-

The natural increase in population this year to date has been 504, and, if to this be added the influx of Edison employees numbering at least 700 more, the total increase will have been about 1,200.

During the year the value of lands has increased by $70,640.

cent population of the Town of Peterboro', including that of the Village of Ashburnham, is estimated at 13,000. The subject of incorporation has been suggestively discussed, but the general feeling is that of hastening gently. Incorporation as a city is a step which will be taken in due time. The town is doing so admirably as a town, that there is a feeling that incorporation would not add largely to its prosperity, of Port Hope, 80 east of Toronto and 300 miles west of Montreal. From the town to Keely's Falls, the river is navigable for large steamers a distance of 50 miles. Above the town, for seven miles, the river is a succession of rapids, several of which are dammed, affording immense water-power, but the larger portion of this power remains yet to be utilized. In fact the entire distance to Lakefield offers a continuous site for manufacturing purposes, the

In 1864 the paper came into possession of Mr. James Stratton, late Collector of Customs, and father of the gentleman who is now successfully conducting it. In 1882 the weekly edition was enlarged and the daily edition made its debut in 1885. The latter has repeatedly since been enlarged, and is now a four-page eight-column daily—the largest town daily in Ontario. The Examiner has also a large job department, with five steam presses and steam paper cutter, and a well equipped book-binding

The Peterborough Review was established in 1853 by the late Hon. Thomas White and Mr. Robert Romaine and is the oldest established weekly in the county, and the Daily Review, established in 1876, was the first daily paper published in Peterborough. The Weekly Review is one of the largest Ontario weekly papers, and it gives each week a rich supply of local, district, general and market news, as well as general reading of interest. The Daily Review is also a neatly-printed paper, and the office has a thoroughly-equipped job office for the execution of all classes of post-er, book, commercial or general work. It also has a laundry equipped with the best and most improved machinery, and in charge of thoroughly competent workmen. The whole office is furnished with modern plant and machinery, and in an excellent position to turn out the best of work expeditiously. The Review is published by The Review Printing and Publishing Co., (Limited). Mr. F. H. Dobbin is the managing director and Mr. S. R. Armstrong the editor.

HOSPITALS AND CHARITIES.
In 1885 Mrs. Robert Nicholls offered to the town, as a memorial of her deceased husband, the premises known as "Moria Hall," for a Protestant hospital, together with an endowment of $15,000, and subsequently, upon the building proving too small for the purposes intended, the same lady generously donated $100,000 additional for the erection and endowment of the elegant building elsewhere illustrated in these columns. Nor did the munificence of Mrs. Nicholls exhaust itself on behalf of the hospital, as the following endowments show:—Public Parks, $60,000; Y. M. C. A. (local branch), $20,000; Protestant Home, $20,000; Collegiate Institute (scholarships), $2,000; and Mechanics' Institute, $10,000.

St. Joseph's Hospital—likewise illustrated in this issue—was established as a non-denominational institution in 1888, under the control of the Bishop of Peterborough and the Sisterhood of St. Joseph, the latter assuming the duty of nursing. The building located in St. Leonard's Park, Ashburnham, is 60 x 90 feet in dimensions, fitted with 52 beds, and equipped with every modern appliance requisite to the success of such an institution.

Hazel Brae, the headquarters in Canada of Dr. Barnardo's system of homes for the neglected "new folks" of London, is another expression of voluntary and God-like benevolence on the part of a lady, the beautiful residence and grounds being the gift of Mrs. George Cox, formerly of Peterborough and now of Toronto. The home is the distributing centre for boys and girls sent out from the training headquarters in London, but is open for the admission of destitute Canadian children as well.

The Peterborough Protestant Home was established in 1865, and five years later took possession of the present quarters on Stewart street, purchased for the purpose by the late Judge Hall. The local St. Andrew's Society was organized in 1868, the St. Vincent de Paul Society in 1873. Both organizations are in a flourishing condition and each accomplishing its mission in an eminent degree. The Hall Poor Trust is a board constituted under the will of the late Wm. Hall, who left a legacy of $30,000 the proceeds of the investments (about $1,500 annually) to be applied to the relief of the Protestant poor of Peterborough.

BANKS AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS.
In the matter of bank accommodation the citizens of Peterborough have nothing to complain of, no fewer than four of these important monetary institutions having branches here.

The Bank of Montreal (now a branch) occupies its own buildings, erected in 1868, on the corner of Water and Simcoe streets. The resident manager is Mr. F. J. L. L. L. The Bank of Toronto commenced operations in 1868 in charge of the late Sheriff Hall, at 431 George street. Mr. Peter Campbell is the present resident manager.

The Ontario Bank was established at 121 Simcoe street, in 1866. Manager—Mr. Charles McGill.

The Canadian Bank of Commerce, established in 1870, occupies commodious and central premises in the Cox Block, 439 George street. Manager Wm. Manson. All of these have, in connection, a savings bank department.

The Central Canada Loan and Savings Co. of Ontario, occupy handsome and commodious premises (see illustration) in Cox block, corner George and Brock streets. The company receive deposits on current account and for periods of one year or longer, interest being allowed at 4 and 4 1/2 per cent, respectively. The five per cent. debentures offered by the company afford a safe and convenient mode of investment, and borrowers of money can be accommodated on exceptionally favorable terms. The subscribed capital of the company is $2,000,000 paid-up capital $300,000; reserve fund $192,000, and assets $3,003,960. The president of the company is Mr. Geo. A. Cox (president Canadian Bank of Commerce) and the inspector, Mr. A. A. Cox. Toronto office, 10 King street west.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The beauties of Stony Lake and kindred outing resorts having been already referred to, it only remains to indicate how these localities are reached. And first of all there is the run of nine miles by rail along the Ontario River bank to Lakeland, and thence, in summer, by five swift and comfortable steamers to and among the beautiful tented and outgated islets of Stony

Lake. From Stony Lake the progressive pleasure seeker enters, through Burleigh locks, Lovesick Lake, Deer Bay and Pigeon Lake—the whole route a scene of panoramic loveliness difficult to parallel anywhere on this continent. Thence by the Trent Valley Navigation system and via Bobcaygeon he arrives at Sturgeon Point, and through Sturgeon Lake to Balsam Lake, a continuous 150-mile stretch of so grand water scenery and fishing grounds as can be found anywhere in Canada.

Or, taking the Chemung Lake branch of the Midland Railway, Chemung Lake and Chemung Park are reached, the latter with its numerous summer cottages, excellent bathing grounds, and other attractions which go to constitute it so favorable a locality with pleasure seekers from all parts of the country—not to speak of the abundance of fish and game which in their season this particular locality affords, and which constitutes it a very paradise of the fisherman and hunter.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Spelling Their New Mail.
The formal opening of the new mail room will take place this evening. All friends are invited and an enjoyable evening is assured to all who attend.

Madagascar, diamond, partial deafness, hearing and speaking invariably result from colds in the head, cured by the use of Nasal Balm. It has cured others, why not you?

His Weekly Visit.
Matthew Wynne was in Police Court again this morning. Walter Kerr was prosecuting favorably so that it was expected that he would have been able to give evidence this morning, but he sustained a chill which retarded his recovery. Wynne was remanded for another week.

Personal.
Dr. D. J. Gibb, specialist, of Toronto, was unable to reach town Wednesday last, as announced, through illness. Mr. J. J. Turner was the artist who had charge of the handsome decorations at the Carnival of Nations. They are creditable to him.

How nicely Hood's Sarsaparilla hits the needs of people who feel "all fired out" or "run down," from any cause. It seems to oil up the whole mechanism of the body so that all moves smoothly and work becomes a positive delight. Be sure to get Hood's.

Hood's Pills act especially upon the liver, routing it from torpidity to its natural duties, cure constipation and assist digestion.

Accident with a Pistol.
Joseph Graham, a boy who lives near the South Ward school, was taken to the Nicholas Hospital on Wednesday with an injured hand, the result of trifling with a firearm. He had loaded a pistol and was examining it when it accidentally went off, the bullet striking his hand and passing through it.

Burglars at Lakeside.
Lakeside has had four attempted burglaries this week. One correspondent reported two of these in yesterday's Evening and last night the midnight visitors were at work again. They attempted to force the door of Mr. B. Nelson's storehouse but did not succeed in their attempt. The Grand Trunk station was also visited and the door forced with a chisel. Nothing was taken. There is no clue to the burglars.

That new stock of dry goods at M. Carter's is going off with a rush. Auction sale every night. Catch some of the bargains to-night as they go.

A Missing Mail Bag.
Some nine months ago, one of the mail bags, the Hobbsygon one, was lost after being delivered at the Lindsay post-office, says the Watchman. An investigation was held by the Department, at which the clerks of the office bore declared that the bag was amongst those given to the Lindsay mail carrier for the east bound train. The latter, however, as at that time maintained that he had not received the bag in question. On Tuesday last the carrier, that had been put away in spring at the Workman livery stable, was taken out for the present sleighing, when the lost bag was found intact underneath the seat of one of the rigs. The rig had evidently been put away before the loss of the bag had been discovered, without the presence of the latter underneath the seat being noticed. The bag was promptly returned safe and sound. It is scarcely necessary to state that Postmaster Chidman and a were pleased to be vindicated from responsibility for the loss. The bag as placed upon them by the department. The Lindsay staff is a careful and obliging one, and we are pleased that this mix-up has resulted so satisfactorily.

Are you suffering from cold in the head? Do not neglect it, delays are dangerous. Death is easily cured. Nasal Balm is an unfailing cure in all cases of colds and cold in the head.

A CARNIVAL OF NATIONS

A GATHERING OF CHARMING REPRESENTATIVES

The New Market Building Arrayed in Pictorial Decorations—These were the Representatives of the Nations—An Evening of Entertainment and Interest.

The new market building was arrayed in the decorations of many nations last evening and presented a bright, resplendent scene, in which anything monotonous was completely banished. It was the opening night of the Carnival of Nations and on every hand evidence of hard labor and ingenuity of the ladies were so striking as to allow a person to be in a perpetual state of wonderment while he remained at the carnival.

The hall presents a scene of picturesque beauty which cannot be given to the reader. There are eight booths, each one with its peculiar striking pictorialness of decoration and each making a complete picture in itself. These booths are arranged along the north end and west side of the spacious hall. Commencing at the north-east corner is "Jacob's Well" where in a booth is found the well of the ancient patriarch, with the old well and the old Isaac (Mr. George Morrow) "at the well." This is pretty spot and the costumes of Esau and Jacob were true to the Biblical characters. At this booth fruits and confectionery were offered for sale while "Jacob's Well" gave an exhaustive supply of lemonade.

A camp of "Northwest Indians" is directly next to "Jacob's Well." This booth was suggestive of Indian life and the fair young ladies in charge were suitably adorned. This was a picturesque booth. Its occupants were Miss Parnell, Miss Green, Miss Eva Thompson and Miss Sherry. A tent was pitched in the back ground while the birch bark canoe, Indian paddles and canoes were plentifully displayed. Fancy articles in the Indian line were offered for sale here.

Next to the "Indian" booth came "Canada" and as becoming in Canadian life this was perhaps the brightest spot at the carnival. The front of this booth was a gable formed by two toboggans, while in the centre was the emblem of Canada, a beaver, standing out resplendent in a transparent. Down each side were snow-shoes, and lacrosse sticks, while two beautiful deer's heads also adorned the front and ice-cream cones and the decorations, emblematic of Canadian winter. The Union Jack was abundantly displayed by Canada and behind the counter the seasons of our young country were represented in costumes. Mrs. L. Davis was "Miss Canada," "Miss Ontario" was "Spring," Miss Emma Morrow was "Summer," Miss Alice Davis was "Autumn" and Miss M. Neil was "Winter." Mrs. Bobb Neil was also in this booth as also was Miss Madeline Davis who presented a pretty and out-of-the-ordinary shoe selling dolls. It was a doll representation of Mother Goose's old woman who lived in a shoe. At "Canada" a very handsome and unusually large array of fancy goods were offered for sale. There was fancy work in all forms and the rich, var-colored silk, satin and plush goods in combination with the artistic decorations to make a decidedly bright and attractive picture.

In proper geographical position next came the "United States" where the Stars and Stripes predominated and an immense eagle occupied the highest perch on the front. A large portrait of Franklin D. Roosevelt, of W. C. T. U. fame, occupied a conspicuous place in this booth where a check-nacks, paintings, American rattle furniture and many other articles were offered for sale. With their usual enterprise the "Americans" were embarked in the coal trade and great lumps of black coal were sold from scuttles and when opened were the delight of the children, being filled with sweetmeats. In this booth were Mrs. Brown, "The British Lion," Mrs. Aaron Cox, "Martha Washington," Mrs. Ketchum, "George Washington," Mrs. E. H. Hamilton and Miss Laura Lane "Quakeresses," and Miss Kate H. Anderson "Patriots."

Bordering on the United States is Scotland, a pretty booth, well decorated. The Scotch tartan, the straw which is used for the Scotch-dresses, the St. Andrew's cross and other Scottish emblems were utilized in the decorations. In the booth were Mrs. Jory, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. McCrory, Miss Ferguson, Miss Browncombe and Miss O'Neil, "Scotch Lassies." For sale in Scotland were woolen goods, mits, yarn, etc., porridge sets and numerous other articles appropriate to Auld Scotia.

"Ireland" was beside "Scotland." This booth was a picture of decorative art and represented the "land of the prairies" in suitable style. From the front was hung a sharp adom with green while above it waved the St. Patrick's flag. The shamrock was also noticeably displayed here, while potato cake and buttermilk were among the articles displayed from behind the counter. Here were also sold linen goods, aprons, fancy dillies, splashes, a spinning wheel and the blarney stone were also in their place. The ladies in this booth were Mrs. J. J. McKeen, "Maid of Erin," Mrs. W. J. Green, "Lady of the 19th Century," Mrs. Clyde Green, "Kelly Bawn," Miss Davis, "Pasant Girl," and Miss Ketchum, "Maid of Kildare."

England occupied the most prominent position among the nations of the hall, just as she does among the nations of the earth. Old Albion was presented in a drawing room scene. A platform was raised and furnished as a reception room—with piano, way chair, piano lamp and all the elder down comforts which make up "the alken lap of luxury." The emblems of England had been given place in the decorations. The Queen was presented in photograph. The motto "God Save the Queen" stretched across the front, while on the curtains was English holly. In England no articles were offered for sale. In it were Mrs. J. B. Stratton, Mrs. M. Ostrom, "Britannia," Miss M. Clarke, Miss Annie Fawcett and Mrs. F. Winsor.

Last, but by no means least in attractiveness and novelty, was "Japan." Here the unique Japanese decorations made the booth a bright scene. Japanese goods were for sale here while tea were served in Japanese tea cups. The young ladies in charge of this booth were suitably adorned in a life size picture of the Mikado filled in the back ground of the picture. The ladies in "Japan" were Mrs. Dr. Stephenson, Miss Mark, of Lindsay and Miss Rose Clarke.

Thus the reader will see that seven of the nations were represented in picturesque suggestiveness and it may be added that the costumes were decidedly good, and in some cases exceedingly handsome and becoming.

The attention was large, between five and six hundred people were present and who visited the Carnival had plenty to entertain them. The 8th Battalion band was present, twenty five strong, and rendered an excellent programme during the evening. Then there was the grand march by the ladies representing the nations. This was a pretty spectacle performed with remarkable precision and steadiness. Sergt-Major Bunde had given the ladies four drills and they acquitted themselves well under the circumstances. They assembled in the centre of the hall with the nations in column, formed into line, advanced, retired and formed column again when they marched past. They formed in line, went through some fancy movements, marched in slow time and disappeared. Mrs. A. L. Davis led the march. By request the march was given the second time much to the enjoyment of the spectators. Sergt-Major Bunde has formed a class for ladies and a large number of the ladies will continue their lessons under him. Others may unite with the class which will begin after the holidays.

During the evening a programme was rendered from the platform, the singer of each of the character songs being accompanied by the representatives of his nation. This programme was as follows:—

Quartette "In a Lighthouse by the Sea" Mrs. Stratton, Miss Fawcett, and Misses Drove and Loeck.

Song "The Fairies" Mrs. Stratton

England's Song "The British Lion" Mrs. Stratton

Ireland's Song "Give the Irish Boy a Chance" (Mr. Drove)

Reading "The Fairies" Mrs. C. H. Brown

FOR THE YOUNG WOMEN

AN ASSOCIATION FOR THE ELEVATION OF YOUNG WOMEN.

The Y.W.C.A. to be Organized in Peterborough—The Aims and Objects of the Association—The Organization Taken in Hand by Many Ladies of all Denominations.

Peterborough is to have a Young Women's Christian Association, an organization which will have for its aim the elevation of the same work among the young women of the town as the Young Men's Christian Association. It is so successfully carrying on among our young men. And why should this not be the case? The young women will find an Association providing a home for evening, associations and facilities for the elevating and improving of their spiritual, intellectual and physical life just as much a source of benefit, encouragement and pleasure as do the young men.

Catarrh

It is a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having felt I had no faith that anything would cure me, I became skeptical from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and I returned to me to persons whom I had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."—Charles H. Maloney, 115 Essex St., Lowell, Mass.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

NOTICE: The Daily Review, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1891.

HON. JAS. McSHANE, M.P.P.

Mayor of Montreal, Recognized Beauty and Merit—Candidate Next Command.

The Hon. Jas. McShane, Mayor of Montreal, is a man who possesses many characteristics which help to make the successful ruler, politician and business man.

Some of these characteristics are strongly developed in Mayor McShane's every-day life and are worthy of our admiration.

When the worthy mayor knows he is following the great path of duty, honesty and truth, no human power can cause him to swerve from it. He is always opposed to charity and deception, but ever ready and willing to hold tenaciously to that which bears the royal stamp of worth and merit.

Last spring Mayor McShane, owing to over-work, was completely run down and prostrated. He was confined to his house for a time and was truly a sick man. At this critical period it was natural that the worthy mayor should seek for the best means of recovery—the most effective restorative—so as to once more fit him to carry on his manifold duties. He acted as many other wise men have done; he decided without hesitation to try the efficacy of Paine's Ointment, having heard so much of its wonderful results. Was he mistaken or disappointed? No! His experience with this great remedy was so satisfactory and gratifying that a few weeks ago he sent the proprietors a strong testimonial which speaks volumes, and proves conclusively that of all the remedies now before the people of Canada, Paine's Ointment stands elevated far above all others in honesty and great results.

Mayor McShane says that Paine's Ointment has given him great strength and a good appetite—two requisites which every man should possess. He writes as follows:

Mayor's Office, City Hall, Montreal, 17th Oct. 1891.

Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal:

Gentlemen:—It is with extreme pleasure that I give you a testimonial in favor of your great remedy, popularly known as Paine's Ointment.

I used it at a time when I was overworked and run-down. The use of this Compound has given me a good appetite, and made me much stronger than I was before I used it.

I fully recommend it to all in need of a tonic and strengthener.

Yours truly,

J. McSHANE

Mayor of Montreal.

Mr. Keane, a nephew of the late Bishop of Quebec, will contest Waterford against John Richmond, the Parliamt candidate.

The Permanent Building Investment Society of Melbourne, Australia, had been defrauded of $30,000 by one of its officers.

The United States hop crop of 1891 is computed at 23,000,000 bushels, compared with 20,000,000 last year. The ruling price is 10½¢, compared with 9¢ for the last crop and 10¢ for the production of 1889.

Mrs. Grant is much annoyed over the re-introduction of Senator Plumb's bill in the United States Senate for the removal of Gen. Grant's remains to Washington. She wants her husband back.

"Little drops of water, Little grains of sand, Make the mighty ocean, And the pleasant land."

And dropping into prose, we would say that Dr. Paine's Pleasant Pills are mild, but prompt in relieving constipation, sick headache, bilious attacks, pain in the regions of the stomach, torpid liver, and in restoring a healthy, natural action to the stomach and bowels. It is a pleasant, safe, and reliable remedy. One dose. Little but lively. The use of the old style, drastic pills is an outrage on the human system.

STATE OF TRADE.

Collectors Are Not so Satisfactory Now as in the Old Weather.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Special telegrams from Bradstreet's report the customary falling off in jobbing and other wholesale lines due at this season of the year, in practically all directions, though it is a little intensified by unexpectedly mild weather, which tends to check sales of seasonable staples. Country merchants quite generally are buying stocks as they need them, and there is a widely manifested disposition to go ahead slowly. Dealers have begun stock-taking in many instances and the only noteworthy exception aside from the grain trade is in Christmas holiday specialties.

General trade is quiet in the Dominion with the volume about equal to and in some instances in excess of that of one year ago. Mercantile collections are not satisfactory. Exports of wheat, flour, etc., from Montreal have practically ceased for the winter. Canadian business failures this week equal 43 against 33 last week and 40 in the like week last year.

CUT HIS HEAD OFF.

Frightful Accident to a Grand Trunk Fireman at Parkdale.

TORONTO, Dec. 12.—James Spring, a G. T. R. fireman, fell off a train as it slowed up at Parkdale Station yesterday morning and rolled in front of the engine, which passed over his body, and to the intense horror of the spectators a few minutes later completely severed his head from his body.

The Headless Murder.

BRANTFORD, Dec. 12.—At the County Court here to-day John Bartram was charged with stealing a steer from John A. McNeill and a steer from William Blaney in October, 1889. He was found guilty and sentenced to 23 months in the Central Prison, Toronto.

Bartram and Lottridge were given over to Detective Greer by the county authorities. That officer will proceed at once with them to the Westworth county jail at Hamilton, where the trial will be held. The evidence has been completed. The opinion is gaining ground here that the officers of the law have a very hard task before them in their attempt to convict the prisoners now under arrest on suspicion of having murdered John Heslop.

Although Detective Greer has obtained possession of suspicious circumstances tending to implicate the accused, the feeling among the people who have come into the city from Middleport and other parts of the Indian reserve is that the officers working up the case will never be able to convict Jack Bartram.

There are no new developments in the case, most of what has been telegraphed being surmises, conjectures and fabrications.

Bartram, Lottridge and Douglas, it is believed, will undertake to prove an alibi. Bartram's relatives at Middleport state that he started from Middleport at 4 o'clock in the morning on the night of the tragedy for Hamilton with a load of wood for his use. If he had done this he would have passed through Ancaster, as that was the shortest and best road. He would have reached Ancaster, which is 11 miles from Middleport, about 7 o'clock in the morning, and at that time he would have been seen by some of the people who were in the neighborhood. A matter of fact no person remembered having seen him pass through with a load of wood. The number who tell this story are strongly in favor of the theory that he was seen to take a single one-horse wagon. This seems highly improbable, when it is considered that he had 20 miles to travel with his vehicle loaded down with wood. Bartram's uncle at Middleport states that he is prepared to swear that Jack was playing cards all night at that place on the night of the Heslop murder. It has been discovered that when Bartram and Douglas disappeared mysteriously after they were seen in Hamilton the day after the tragedy the former went over the Great Western division to Detroit and from that place he went to Windsor, Michigan, where he remained two weeks and three days, while Douglas went east to the Falls, crossed over to the American side and joined Goosey where he was working down near Lewiston.

The Cause of Rheumatism.

An acid which exists in sour milk and other acid foods, is believed by physicians to be the cause of rheumatism. Accumulating in the blood, it attacks the blood vessels in the joints, and causes agonizing pains. What is needed is a remedy to neutralize the acid and to so invigorate the kidneys and liver that all waste will be carried off. Hood's Sarsaparilla is heartily recommended to many whom it has cured of rheumatism. It possesses just the desired quantities of the ingredients that cleanse the blood and so prevent occurrences of rheumatic attacks. We suggest a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla by all who suffer from rheumatism.

At this critical period it was natural that the worthy mayor should seek for the best means of recovery—the most effective restorative—so as to once more fit him to carry on his manifold duties. He acted as many other wise men have done; he decided without hesitation to try the efficacy of Paine's Ointment, having heard so much of its wonderful results. Was he mistaken or disappointed? No! His experience with this great remedy was so satisfactory and gratifying that a few weeks ago he sent the proprietors a strong testimonial which speaks volumes, and proves conclusively that of all the remedies now before the people of Canada, Paine's Ointment stands elevated far above all others in honesty and great results.

Mayor McShane says that Paine's Ointment has given him great strength and a good appetite—two requisites which every man should possess. He writes as follows:

Mayor's Office, City Hall, Montreal, 17th Oct. 1891.

Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal:

Gentlemen:—It is with extreme pleasure that I give you a testimonial in favor of your great remedy, popularly known as Paine's Ointment.

I used it at a time when I was overworked and run-down. The use of this Compound has given me a good appetite, and made me much stronger than I was before I used it.

I fully recommend it to all in need of a tonic and strengthener.

Yours truly,

J. McSHANE

Mayor of Montreal.

Mr. Keane, a nephew of the late Bishop of Quebec, will contest Waterford against John Richmond, the Parliamt candidate.

The Permanent Building Investment Society of Melbourne, Australia, had been defrauded of $30,000 by one of its officers.

The United States hop crop of 1891 is computed at 23,000,000 bushels, compared with 20,000,000 last year. The ruling price is 10½¢, compared with 9¢ for the last crop and 10¢ for the production of 1889.

Mrs. Grant is much annoyed over the re-introduction of Senator Plumb's bill in the United States Senate for the removal of Gen. Grant's remains to Washington. She wants her husband back.

"Little drops of water, Little grains of sand, Make the mighty ocean, And the pleasant land."

And dropping into prose, we would say that Dr. Paine's Pleasant Pills are mild, but prompt in relieving constipation, sick headache, bilious attacks, pain in the regions of the stomach, torpid liver, and in restoring a healthy, natural action to the stomach and bowels. It is a pleasant, safe, and reliable remedy. One dose. Little but lively. The use of the old style, drastic pills is an outrage on the human system.

Are you sure you know a "RELIANCE" Good Cigar?

If you do, You are the Man we want to talk to.

Can there be any earthly reason why as good a Cigar cannot be made in Canada as in Havana, supposing the same tobacco and the same skilled labour be employed? Certainly not. Then why do you pay the duty on imported goods? Simply because of your prejudice? And what has created that prejudice? Undoubtedly it has come from the misrepresentation resorted to by unreliable Canadian manufacturers.

Now, when we tell you that nothing but the HIGHEST GRADE OF HAVANA TOBACCO and the most skillful labor are employed in the manufacture of the "Reliance" 10 cent Cigar, you may be sure of its truth, and you can verify it yourself. All that is ask of you is to compare this Cigar with the best Havana you can procure; let the comparison be honest, and we will abide by the result.

IN SAN GABRIEL VALLEY.

A Destructive Wind Storm Causes Immense Damage in California.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 14.—A destructive wind storm, which swept across the country yesterday night and early this morning, has caused immense damage in the San Gabriel Valley. So far as reported by two persons were killed. At Pasadena several persons were killed and many others injured. The Haywood Hotel suffered serious loss.

The storm was terrific up in San Francisco Valley. The old mission at San Francisco was almost as it never was before. Great chunks of the walls were blown off and the roof was blown off. ITALIAN STEAMER LOST.

BLOWN UP BY A BOILER EXPLOSION NEAR GENOA.

Of a Total Complement of 33 Passengers and Crew More Than a Score are Missing—Rescuing Their Lives For Gladstone.

GENOA, Dec. 14.—The Italian steamer Calabria left Genoa yesterday morning for Naples. She proceeded but a short distance when her boiler exploded, so damaging the steamer that she sank.

The light was started by the explosion of the boiler, and for an hour they fought at close quarters despite the presence of 900 police in the city.

During the night Mr. Davitt received a message from the steamer that the Calabria was sinking.

At a subsequent meeting O'Brien announced that Davitt's answer to the Calabria was that she was a candidate for Waterford. O'Brien also announced the police of using their batons more in favor of the attacking Parallels than the McCarthy.

The respective lands of musicians received much ill usage. Their brass bands were ordered to play in the streets.

While Mr. O'Brien was making his speech Dr. Tanager was busy in dressing the wound on Mr. Davitt's head.

Mr. Redmond upon hearing of the affair immediately drove to Mr. Davitt's hotel and left a note expressive of his regret for what had occurred.

A MARQUIS' POVERTY.

Severance Forest to be Sold to Pay the Debts of His Administration.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 14.—In August last Marquis of Ailsbury applied to Justice Sterling of the Lord Chancellor's Court for an order to sell the Marquis's Forest.

He gave his reason for desiring to sell the property that he wanted the money to pay the debts of his administration.

The Marquis owned 47,000 acres, the price asked for the property, and this sum Lord Justice Sterling ordered to be paid.

The application was opposed by the other heirs on the ground that the Marquis had no right to sell the property.

From this decision the Marquis appealed and the case was carried to the Court of Appeals.

The court has just handed down its opinion, overruling the decision of the Lord Chancellor's Court.

The Marquis's Forest, and it is expected Lord Justice will soon be in possession of the property.

Catarrrh

A blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint, and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became impatient from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, to my surprise, after taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obnoxious disease is through the blood."—Charles H. Maloney, 113 River st., Lowell, Mass.

Catarrh

Is a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, but received no benefit. I was then told to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint, and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. G.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became afflicted from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and I was about to give up. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I was cured. The only way of treating this obnoxious disease is through the blood."—Charles H. Maloney, 135 River St., Lowell, Mass.

Qualley claims that the most significant incident of Mr. Gladstone's trip to Northampton was his homages to Mr. Lalouchere. This public homage was a man who plays politics as he would play lacrosse, and shows the steps of the grade down which Mr. Gladstone is descending.

The Duke of Devonshire is slowly sinking, the bulletin growing daily less hopeful. His loss will be a political event of the first order, for it will exile Lord Harrington from the House of Commons. Lord Harrington is the pivot of the Unionist alliance and the political consequences of the Duke of Devonshire's death are immeasurable.

Late reports confirm the belief that the Duke of Clarence has always been in love with his cousin of Teck and never with the Princess Hilda of Orleans. It is a curious fact that this is the first English-born princess since the Norman conquest to marry an English king or an English heir to the throne.

An Immense Fossil Elephant.
LAVANCA, Kan., Dec. 13.—Kansas has always been noted for the large number of fossil remains found within its borders of the state. Prof. Williston now has received notice that an immense fossil elephant has been found in the arid region along the map hills in the western part of the state. The measurements show that the animal in life was a monster indeed, and that it was larger than any mammoth remains which have ever been discovered. It is 16 feet from the sole of the foot to the point of the shoulder, and its length is proportionate with the height.

READABLE GOSSIP FROM LONDON AND PARIS.

Mrs. Parnell insists Upon Writing Her Husband's Life Himself, and Proposes to Use It in Documents that Will Be the Equipment for Gladstone, Chamberlain, &c.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—Mrs. Parnell has declined the proposals made to her that the work of writing the biography of Mr. Parnell should be undertaken by some of his colleagues. The names of O'Kelly and Tim Harrington were specially urged. Her intention is to write the biography herself. It is said she has already begun to read Mr. Parnell's papers with the assistance of Mr. Harrington, M.P., who is staying at Mr. Parnell's former house in Brighton, next door to the house occupied by Mrs. Parnell. The object of Parnell's colleagues in trying to secure the work of writing his life and dealing with his papers was to ensure that the work should be done by those who were best acquainted with him, who could furnish a reliable opinion as to the disposition of his highly important letters and papers in the interests of the Irish cause, and Mr. Parnell's own reputation. It is understood that Mrs. Parnell's object is to make a ruthless exposure of her late husband's enemies among the anti-Parnellites and Liberals.

The revengeful feeling in the mind of the afflicted widow seems natural enough, but it is very doubtful whether it is the way in which Parnell's reputation can best be served. There are Mrs. Parnell's possession a mass of letters between Mr. Gladstone and Capt. O'Shea, as well as between Capt. O'Shea and Joe Chamberlain, dating back to the days when O'Shea was the regular intermediary between Parnell and the Liberal ministers. These letters can now be used with damaging effect. They include communications both direct and through O'Shea, showing that Chamberlain was in the Cabinet concerning Ireland; that he gave Parnell full and explicit warning through O'Shea, that he was to be arrested under the act. The object of giving Parnell this information was to enable him to baffle the plans of the ministry, which Chamberlain was at the time a member. If Parnell's life is written in this spirit there is no doubt it will create a sensation, but it is hoped that as time wears away it may be found possible to wash Mrs. Parnell from conception of her duty to the memory of her dead husband.

Lord Dufferin's Promotions.
It seems to give general satisfaction that Lord Dufferin won the Ambassadorship to Paris. For once Lord Salisbury has not disappointed the prophets who, almost to a man, claimed for Lord Dufferin when the news arrived of Lord Lytton's death. Lord Dufferin spends the last days of his diplomatic life in possession of the blue ribbon of British diplomatic service. He was sent to Rome on returning from India more than a year ago, and he has been in constant attendance, but does not deny that the Duke's condition creates the gravest anxiety.

A Noble Gambler sent to Prison.
The Baron de Saeville, a young Belgian nobleman, who has been staying at Aix les Bains since September, entered a gambling room in the Casino des Fleurs one evening some time ago, and began to stake at bacarat. After losing a couple of small stakes he threw a 1000-franc note on the table, which was won by the bank, whereupon the Baron picked up the note and declared that he only intended to stake 100 francs. The excitement among the croupiers and players and the reprimand of the police, where the judge delivered a sentence almost as long as a sermon, the gift of a cat, cutting and wounding and carrying convulsion to the Baron, who was imprisoned for a week and a half, and was released on the following day.

Prof. Williston now has received notice that an immense fossil elephant has been found in the arid region along the map hills in the western part of the state. The measurements show that the animal in life was a monster indeed, and that it was larger than any mammoth remains which have ever been discovered. It is 16 feet from the sole of the foot to the point of the shoulder, and its length is proportionate with the height.

was what a witty woman called that period of life which all middle-aged people through and during which so many seem to think they must suffer—that Nature intended it so. The same lady added: "If you don't believe in 'woman's sorrow,' there is one ballad which will effectively defeat it—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This is true, not only as to the period of middle life, but at all ages when women suffer from nervous disease, painful irregularities, inflammation, ulceration or prostatics. The 'Favorite Prescription' so strengthens the weak or diseased organs, and purifies the blood that years of health and enjoyment are added to life."

The Duke of Devonshire is slowly sinking, the bulletin growing daily less hopeful. His loss will be a political event of the first order, for it will exile Lord Harrington from the House of Commons. Lord Harrington is the pivot of the Unionist alliance and the political consequences of the Duke of Devonshire's death are immeasurable.

Late reports confirm the belief that the Duke of Clarence has always been in love with his cousin of Teck and never with the Princess Hilda of Orleans. It is a curious fact that this is the first English-born princess since the Norman conquest to marry an English king or an English heir to the throne.

Warfare to British Blood.
There was trouble in the Italian colony again last night when it is said that an Italian named Nicholas announced a desire to drink the blood of another native of sunny Italy. The trouble arose over a separation. Several of the Italians had been living together on the joint stock plan and when Nicholas wanted to leave there was some furniture he wanted to take.
The man interfered and then the trouble was made and the spilling of blood was imminent. The threatened man sought justice at the Police Court, but when he found that it cost $5 to have his bloodphobia brother bound over to keep the peace he left.

Prevention is Better

Than cure, and those who are subject to rheumatism can prevent attacks by keeping the blood pure and free from the acid which causes the disease. For this purpose Hood's Sarsaparilla is used by those suffering with great success. It is the best blood purifier.

Constipation is caused by loss of the peristaltic action of the bowels. Hood's Pills restore this action and invigorate the liver.

FRASER MISSION BAND.

The Annual Report of the Band—Its Officers for the Coming Year.
The following is the first annual report of the Fraser Mission Band of St. Paul's Church:
The Fraser Mission Band, in presenting its annual report are quite pleased with the result of their first year. The attendance and also the interest at our meetings has been good, and we hope to add to our numbers and also our funds next year.
Our membership this year is fifty-six and the average attendance was twenty-five.
Our Band was represented at the semi-annual meeting by our Secretary, Lillian E. Hall, who brought back a very full report.
We had a special thanksgiving service,
when Mr. Wallace, of the Island China Mission, gave us a bright and very instructive address. At this service we considered we were taking a step forward, as our collection was a self-denial one.
This year we had no entertainment or sale, so all our contributions are voluntary.
Just here we wish to thank our kind friend, Miss Wallace, for her interest in the work of our Band and the help she gave each a talent to increase during the year.
Let us consider the great privilege it is to work for the Master and we will receive the "Well done, good and faithful servant."
Our collections for the year amounted to $7.75.
LILLIAN E. HALL,
Secretary.

THE OFFICERS.

The officers of the Band for 1892 are:—
PRESIDENT—Miss Tucker.
1ST VICE-PRESIDENT—Lillian E. Hall.
2ND VICE-PRESIDENT—Miss Best.
SECRETARY—Lillian E. Hall.
TREASURER—Miss Ferguson.

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF PARENTS.

The Mission Work in the Home—St. Paul's Missionary Meeting—Address by Rev.
Dr. Smith and Rev. Dr. May.
There was a very good attendance at the annual congregational missionary meeting of St. Paul's church which was held last evening. The speakers of the evening were Rev. Dr. Smith, of Kingston, and Rev. Dr. May, of Ottawa.

ST. PAUL'S SCHOOLS.

After the opening exercises conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. F. Torrance, and a missionary hymn by the Sunday school children, Rev. Dr. Torrance made a brief statement of the missionary work of St. Paul's.
He said there was $832.52 cash on hand, with estimated collections before the end of the year of $117, which would make a total of $1,000. There had been a special collection for the French Evangelization fund of $119, thus bringing the total up to about $1,119. This was a considerable increase over last year when the total was $891.
The Sunday school was also taken into account as raising $500, while the Auxiliary of the W. F. M. S. and Mission Band raised about $400, which with the other sources would probably bring the amount up to about $2,000.
This was considerably more than was ever raised before.

THE HOME MISSIONS.

Rev. Dr. Smith was then introduced. He said he was to talk to them on home missions. He first dwelt earnestly upon the responsibility of the parent to the child and the mission work of the home. He said he had attended a Sunday school convention during the past week and had heard reports and addresses that addressed him to the home. He said that for these grand old days when parents were careful to instruct and teach their children at home, a training which necessitated a church in every home. In childhood they might have thought it a mistake and a task to have such training, but they now recollect that those old times and familiar lessons with greatest pleasure and profound gratitude.
He did not know what they would have been without those lessons. He was addressed then to the home mission work. He said that the home mission work is the most important and the most neglected. He said that the home mission work is the most important and the most neglected. He said that the home mission work is the most important and the most neglected.

A NEW LOCAL COMPANY.

Will Put increased capital into the Calcutt Brewery—The Free Press Management.
The Calcutt brewery has changed hands or at least the management has undergone a material transformation. A joint stock company, composed of local gentlemen, has purchased the brewery with its increasing local demand, felt the need of increased facilities for manufacture. The new company with the large capital was therefore formed and the necessary legal steps for the establishment of the new company have been taken and notice of its incorporation will appear in Saturday's issue of the Canada Gazette.

The concern will have a capital of $100,000 of which $30,000 have already been subscribed. Mr. M. Calcutt will be the first president of the company and as such will retain a substantial interest in the business.

The Calcutt brewery is one of the oldest business concerns in the district, having been in operation for about forty years.

CONSUMPTION.

IN its first stages, can be successfully checked by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Even in the later periods of that disease, the cough is wonderfully relieved by this medicine.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral with the best effect in my practice. This wonderful preparation once saved my life. I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and given up by my physicians. One bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured me."—A. J. Eldon, M. D., Middleboro, Mass.

"Several years ago I was severely ill. The doctors said I was in consumption, and that they could do nothing for me, but advised me, as a last resort, to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking this medicine two or three months I was cured, and my health remained good to the present day."—James Richardson, Danvers, Conn.

"Several years ago, on a passage home from California, by water, I contracted so severe a cold that for some days I was confined to my state-room, and a physician on board considered my life in danger. Happening to have a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I used it freely, and my lungs were soon restored to a healthy condition. Since then I have invariably recommended this preparation."—J. B. Chandler, Junction, Va.

BETRAYED BY A WOMAN.

How Balmaceda's Hiding Place Was Discovered.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 17.—A special to The Post-Intelligencer from Port Townsend, Wash., says that J. Perkins Shanks, an American engineer, who for the past 22 years has resided in Chile, and who arrived here a few days ago, tells the story how Balmaceda was betrayed. He said:

"Balmaceda was betrayed by the Argentine Minister, Senor Uribe, in Santiago, in the manner I will now relate. Balmaceda sent his minister to request Senor Uribe to shelter him against the attack of insurgents. It was agreed that Balmaceda should arrive at the Argentine legation at 4 o'clock in the morning.

"When he arrived he was met by the senator, and on entering he met, face to face, the wife of his most bitter enemy, Mrs. Carlos Walker Martinez, who had taken refuge in the same legation, fearing an attempt on her life on the part of the Balmacedas.

"Great confusion followed the meeting, and the lady was compelled to take a solemn oath not to divulge the whereabouts of Balmaceda. But she entered into intrigue with the Argentine minister to betray Balmaceda to Jorge Montt.

"Word was sent notifying Montt of Balmaceda's hiding place. Montt immediately took steps to induce the ex-dictator to surrender himself peacefully to the newly constituted authorities, promising every guarantee of a fair and just trial. Balmaceda agreed to surrender at the holidays.

"From the day Balmaceda received the first word from Montt he commenced preparing for death and began writing instructions disposing of all his personal effects, and when the time arrived for him to surrender he killed himself, knowing that he could not receive justice."

THEY KILLED THE FIEND.

A colored Family Avenged a Wrong to the White.

TOBACCO, Conn., Dec. 17.—Dennis Dwyer, a farm hand, sent to the residence of Floyd Crowley, an influential man, on Saturday and in the absence of Crowley assaulted Mrs. Crowley and another woman, Crowley and a friend named Whitford came in and attacked Dwyer. Dwyer was knocked down. When he regained his feet he was able to escape from the house and was almost severed and he also suffered from a number of severe cuts.

Dwyer was so weak from loss of blood that he died from exhaustion on reaching home. Dr. Park said that the man had undoubtedly been assaulted with an ax.

The Crowley family were arrested. They deny that an ax was used in their attack on Dwyer.

ANGERS TAKES ACTION.

THE MERCIER GOVERNMENT DISMISSED FROM OFFICE.

Judges Bayly and Davidson Declare the Whole House Des Chaleurs Railway Transaction to Have Been Illegal and Unjust—Judge sets Disagrees With Their Finding—Election Trials.

QUEBEC, Dec. 16.—Late yesterday afternoon Lieutenant-Governor Angers sent a message to the local 'Abolition' from the office of Mr. DeLoachville is called upon to form a new Cabinet. It is generally believed that the House will shortly be called and that general elections are near at hand.

Commissioners Bayly and Davidson gave the Lieutenant-Governor an interim report which did not bear Judge Jette's signature and in which he did not concur. The report condemned the whole Bala des Chaleurs Railway transaction as illegal and corrupt. The report covers about 12 pages of loose-leaf type-written matter. It recalls different parts of the evidence given before the commission and strikes directly at a stunning blow at Messrs. Mercier, Garmen, Robitoux and Langier. It declares the whole transaction spurious, illegal and corrupt, and ends by a solemn condemnation of Mr. Mercier's Government as a subversion to the interest of the province.

The two commissioners were bearers of a letter from Judge Jette addressed to the Lieutenant-Governor. The contents of the letter are unknown to the members of the Cabinet. It is claimed, however, that it contained a declaration of the hon. judge to the effect that he did not concur in an interim report. It is said Mr. DeLoachville is called upon to take Public Works portfolio himself, will have the following as his colleagues: Messrs. Beauchamp, Agriculture; (Sagrin, Attorney-General; Hall, Crown Land; Robertson, Treasurer; Nantel, Provincial Secretary, and La Bruere, President of Council. It is expected that the Legislature will be immediately dissolved and that the general elections will take place in January.

The Liberal leaders pronounce Lieutenant Angers' action as having been a success.

Most of the Conservatives to whom this political occurrence was told refused to believe that Hon. Mr. Angers would have taken upon himself to dismiss a Government on a report of an interim report of the president of the commission.

The dismissed members of the Cabinet feel very indignant at what they term an extreme indecision on the part of Hon. Mr. DeLoachville in coming down with the two commissioners.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—The Times publishes a despatch from Singapore which contains the following description of the origin of the Choo Yung troubles: A party of cavalry destroyed a hill robber's village in the absence of the chief and killed all the members of the chief's household except the concubine, who was delivered to the magistrate. Afterwards, while the cavalry men were being inspected outside the gate, the boys in revenge captured Choo Yung, killed the magistrate, liberated the women and held the town. The affair was purely local. The same advice also contains the following: The so-called "massacre" of Choo Yung.

THE CANADIAN BUDGET

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION OF CANADIAN BANKERS

Proposed Tax of Ten Per Cent. on U.S. Currency—A London Feature Which Was Born to Its Own Death—Death of the Dollar.

MONTREAL, Dec. 28.—A private meeting of all the bank managers in Canada was held in Montreal yesterday to complete the arrangements for an association for mutual protection to collect which has attracted the attention of the association was that of the circulation of American currency in Canada.

With regard to the American silver currency, whether represented by coin or paper, as equivalent to our own, it was a question of intrinsic or exchange value. They accepted these tokens at their face value for the purpose of exchange, but not for value for commercial purposes far below that of Canada, and those who accept it are the only ones who are not to be taken for bankers for that unless something is done to check this influx of American currency into the evil Egyptian economy. The United States has for some years imposed a tax of 10 per cent upon Canadian currency and bankers here continue to urge the "tariffmen" to increase this. The matter of concern to the bankers to rid the country of this currency, as there is no doubt that it is the example, as it is in circulation, of the "black money" which, by circulating their own notes, adds to the inflation. It is the example, as it is in circulation, of the "black money" which, by circulating their own notes, adds to the inflation. It is the example, as it is in circulation, of the "black money" which, by circulating their own notes, adds to the inflation.

The tunnel works like a charm. Two tunnel engines are kept with steam up at all times, ready to pull the train through the station on this side and then bring a train back; then the other engine takes a train through and brings one back, and they continue to do this until they have handled a train of 24 loaded cars easily. Each tunnel train has its own conductor, engineer and brakemen, and the same men run on each side. It took the first regular passenger train that went through the tunnel just 10 seconds and 58 seconds to go from portal to portal.

The latest railway rumor is that the Canadian Pacific has made the Grand Trunk and the Montreal and Ottawa lines, including yards and right of way on both sides.

Returned From Overseas.
Mr. E. R. Adams arrived home to-day from Otago where he has been in connection with the examination of witnesses under a commission in the case of The Standard Agency Co. vs. The Dominion Co.
Mr. A. F. Fossell, Q. C. and Mr. T. G.
Hendall, who are in Otago for the Dickson Co. will return to-night. Several witnesses were examined.

The Ladies Auxiliary will meet in the parlor on Monday afternoon, at 2.30, to announce for New Year's "At Home." All ladies interested invited.
Miss Becket has kindly donated several valuable and practical volumes for our library for which we thank her very much.
We trust the good example will be followed by others, for we are in need of standard books, travel, etc., which will add much to the efficiency of our library for the young men.

10 Pounds of Blood.
Is about the quantity nature allows to an adult person. It is the utmost importance that the blood should be kept as pure as possible. By its remarkable cures of rheumatism, salt rheum, etc., Hood's Sarsaparilla has proven its claim to be the best blood purifier.

For a general family cathartic we consistently recommend Hood's Pills. They should be in every home medicine chest.

Who May Vote.
The question has been asked who are entitled to vote next Wednesday, on the several by-laws submitted and on the Street Railway franchise question. All freeholders and leaseholders of 30 years or over may vote on the by-laws. Every rate-payer entitled to vote for Mayor and Aldermen can vote, and is urged to do so, in the matter of whether the Street Railway Franchise shall be given to the Edison Syndicate or to the Peterborough and Ashburton Railway Co. The by-law ballot one white and blue, the Street Railway Franchise ballot yellow. It is desirable that there should be a full expression of opinion. In this matter and every other where it is in the power of the elector to be decided.

A cure for Constipation and Headache.
Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other roots, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves. It will cure all constipation and is the best Spring Medicine. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing the complexion it does more than Druggists sell it at 50c. and 51c.

A MUSICAL EVENING.

At the Pupils' Concert of the Peterborough Academy of Music—The Programme.

A small gathering of friends enjoyed a delightful musical evening at the Peterborough Academy of Music, 18 Murray-st., last night when the courteous director, Mr.
J. Churchill Arlidge, gave a pupils' concert.
The programme was composed of thirteen numbers, all of which with the exception of four were by pupils of the Academy.
Each and every number was rendered in a manner which reflected profuse credit alike upon the pupils themselves and upon the talented director under whose training they have been developing their musical gifts.

The four numbers, as will be seen by the programme below, that were not contributed by pupils were the two flute solos by Mr. Arlidge and the two guitar renditions by Mr. Johnson Bane. Mr. Arlidge's exquisite taste, his remarkable execution and complete mastery as a flutist is already established in a provincial reputation and the two solos he gave last evening were full of soft yet thrilling expression which en-raptured the listeners. Mr. Bane is an enlisted of charming talent on the guitar and his two solos were sweet and delicate for those who were fortunate enough to hear him. Of the pupils Miss Vair as a vocalist is an established favorite with those who appreciate good vocalism.
She rendered her two beautiful solos in exceptionally happy voice and delighted the company. Miss Edith Hall and Mrs.
Hunter are possessors of pure, sweet voices, and in their solos also acquitted themselves happily, while Master Gustav Arlidge, the boy vocalist, was heard under very favorable circumstances and, of course, captivated the ladies and gentlemen present, being especially pleasing in his last solo. A trio by Misses N. Patterson, Morgan and R. Patterson, young ladies who are only one-term pupils, was highly creditable. Mr. B.
Thompson in his solo also evidence of the excellent training which he received and of the ability he possesses.
Miss Katie Hall, in her pianoforte solo, which was well rendered, made patent that she is an instructor in instrumental music.
Mr. Arlidge possesses the happy gift of bringing out the talent as completely as was unmistakably shown he does in vocalism.
The concert was one of which any musical director might justly feel elated and the pupils and their friends felt proud.

Here is the programme that was rendered,
during the intermission in which refreshments were served by the ladies:

AN OFFDOWELL PRESENTATION.

The Services and Good Qualities of Bro. R.

Peterborough Lodge No. 111, L.O.F., has the pleasure of announcing the substantial recognition of services last evening. There is perhaps an individual in Peterborough who does not know Bro.
Pierce, P.G., of Harmony Lodge, Brantford, who has during the past few months been so energetically and so successfully conducting degree teams in the two local lodges.

Bro. Pierce came here and with no other motive or incentive than an enthusiastic love of the Order and the desire to improve himself, he willingly undertook the instruction of the teams in the new drama-tized form of work. The result has been the awakening of a marvelous interest in Oddfellow circles and now both local lodges have teams of which they can feel proud.
In the happy Christmas time when Bro.
Pierce was about to leave for Brantford for the holidays the members of Peterborough Lodge took advantage of the occasion to express to Bro. Pierce their appreciation of his valuable and self-sacrificing services in an address, accompanying which was a purse of one hundred dollars in gold as a substantial token of their gratitude.
There was a large attendance at the lodge and after the degree work had been concluded Bro. Mulligan, N.O., called Bro.
Pierce to his feet when to his surprise he was confronted by Bro. A. MacFarlane, P.G., who read the address and Bro. T. Kemmerson, P.G., who made the presentation. The address was as follows:—

Bro. Mulligan, N.O., the members of Peterborough Lodge No. 111, L.O.F., have learned with great pleasure for your own sake that you are soon to visit your home in Brantford to spend the holiday season, thus depriving us of the presence of the pleasant associations we have enjoyed both personally and fraternally with you during the past few months. We therefore wish to take this the earliest opportunity that has presented, of cordially recognizing the valuable services which you have shown in the interests of the Oddfellow society in Peterborough and of the Oddfellow lodge in Brantford.

Though your stay with us has been brief, your interest in our society was shown by your discovery to us how much the fragi-lence of our beautiful ritual was lost, through lack of organization and systematized presentation, and we have to express our hearty thanks for the pains you took, with no other motive than the promotion of the interests you have so much at heart, to bring about the results which we all so warmly rejoice that the ornaments of our order are being performed in our lodge in such a thorough, systematic and effective manner, which gives the highest satisfaction to those who have enjoyed the benefit of the experience. And though we feel that to a generous and unselfish heart like yours, the consciousness of promoting the pleasure and profit of your brethren and the interests of Oddfellowship is a sufficient reward, yet we feel that it would be ungracious on our own part if we failed to express our feelings of gratitude.
We therefore, as at request of our appreciation of your services and fraternal aspirations, coupled with the wish that this season suggest to you that you may enjoy a merry Christmas and a happy New Year—
the hope that the contemplated return visitation with your family amidst the joys of the season some memories of the warm fellowship you have in Peterborough may linger and that recollections of and your kind regards to your family may be given as the memories we treasure of your kindness, gentleness and genuine spirit of Odd-fellowship.

BIBLE STORY IN SONG.

THE CANTATA "JOSEPH'S BOND-AGE" FINELY RENDERED.

A Brilliant Spectacular Pageant—Comment on the Performance and of the Performers—Singers and Their Part—A Large Audience Enjoys a Delightful Evening.

Last night, as the result of some eight week's practice, the Peterborough cantata,
"Joseph's Bondage" was given in the Opera House. That delight of a manager's heart, a crowded house, was the order of the evening, attentive, appreciative and not notably demonstrative. Mr. J. H.
Ketcham, under whose direction the cantata was given, deserves much credit for the success achieved. The difficult task of directing so many people, and of much palpable tuition can only be understood by actual experience, and where so much is to be done a large measure of success is difficult, while results so good as those that last evening's audience witnessed. A most liberal expenditure has provided costumes appropriate and of exceeding richness; the grouping of the bright figures on the stage presented a series of brilliant tableaux, the admirable accompaniment of the Peterborough Amateur Orchestra, under Mr. J. H.
Ketcham, steadied the choruses and helped the soloists, and was an essential feature of the performance. The biblical story of Joseph is a familiar one and when done in verse and song, framed in a score the music of which is pleasing, smooth and bright in the voice and vigorous and well balanced in the chorus, the whole forms one of the most interesting cantatas that can be selected for performance. The cantata covered the time from the boyhood of the son of Jacob and his captivity to that of his death. The first noble of Egypt, in all his seventy years, soloists and chorus were required to successfully render the cantata and this evidence the growing taste for music in our town that is a factor in instrumental music. Mr.
Arlidge possesses the happy gift of bringing out the talent as completely as was unmistakably shown he does in vocalism.
The concert was one of which any musical director might justly feel elated and the pupils and their friends felt proud.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral with the best effect in my practice. This wonderful preparation once saved my life. I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and given up by my physicians. One bottle and a half of the Pectoral cured me."—A. J. Elison, M. D., Middleton, Tennessee.

"Several years ago I was severely ill. The doctors said I was in consumption, and that they could do nothing for me, but advised me, as a last resort, to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking this medicine two or three months I was cured, and my health remains good to the present day."—James Birchard, Darien, Conn.

"Several years ago, on a passage home from California by water, I contracted a severe cold that for some days I was confined to my state-room, and a physician on board considered my life in danger. Since then I have invariably recommended its use in all cases of colds, coughs, and bronchitis."—J. B. Chandler, Junction, Va.

PREVALENCE OF GRIP.

The Provincial Board of Health Issues
Some Excellent Advice.

TORONTO, Dec. 18.—In view of the reappearance of the grippe in epidemic form, Dr. Bryn, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, has issued a circular to the public explaining the cause, origin, pathology, general symptoms and measures for the limitation of the disease. The three forms of the disease are:

- (a) Nervous—characterized by great depression and severe pain in head, spine and muscles;
- (b) Catarrhal—worked by congestion of mucous membrane of nose, throat and chest;
- (c) Gastric—especially seen in children and worked by vomiting, diarrhea, etc.

The report points out that the disease is wholly or mainly propagated from person to person or by human agency, and may be conveyed by clothing, etc., and one attack is not preventive against another as in smallpox.

As regards preventive measures the report suggests that for certain classes of persons, e.g., those in whom their age or infirmity or attack would be especially dangerous, as well as for the first case in a locality or household (where there are known and their isolation is practicable), the isolation of the sick is the most efficacious means of preventing the spread of the disease.

The ventilation and clean keeping of the buildings in which many persons are collected together should also receive special attention when influenza threatens.

Since the development of an attack of influenza in persons exposed to infection seems to depend very largely upon the reciprocity of the subject, it is important that at the time of the epidemic all persons should, as far as possible, be able to resist such measures of individual hygiene as may best maintain their general state of health, avoiding exposure to cold and fatigue, unwholesome food and excessive use of alcoholic liquors. Medical opinion, divided in other points relating to the effect of exertion or fatigue upon those suffering from influenza, or exposed to the influence of the epidemic, it has proved the most prudent to advise rest.

Unfortunately, however, during the strain to place of business caused by the dissemination of so many of the staff, and in the case of medical men, nurses and others, advice as to avoiding undue fatigue is more easily given than followed.

On the assumption that the disease is communicable by the breath inhaled, carrying the dried particles of mucus from the nostrils, and of the saliva from the lips, a very natural preventive measure may, I believe, with some reasonable expectation of success, be tried by the infected person keeping the mucous covering of the lips and nostrils constantly moistened with a solution of glycerine diluted one-half with rose-water; since the glycerine will greatly serve to prevent the drying of the particles, which is necessary before they can be carried into the air.

The greatest care in the use of separate handkerchiefs and towels by those affected and the keeping themselves, as far as possible, from close contact with other persons, are precautions which will naturally occur to everyone.

"Woman's sufferer"— was what a witty woman called that period of life which all middle-aged pass through and during which a woman seems to think that she must suffer—that Nature intended it so. The same lady added: "If you don't believe in 'woman's sufferer' there is one ailment which will effectively defeat it—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Remedy." This is true, not only at the period of middle life, but at all ages when women suffer from uterine disease, painful irregularities, inflammation, ulceration or prolapse. The "Favorite Remedy" cures all these troubles, weakens or disordered organs and enriches the blood that years of health and enjoyment are added to life.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

THE GRIP SAID TO BE MILD TYPHOID FEVER.

A Heavy Fall of Snow Fata a Termination to Fighting on the Pamir—A Judge Who Objected to Being Sketched—General Foreign News.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Physicians are beginning to regard the epidemic called influenza as a mysterious disease which they as yet do not fully understand. In France a new and startling theory is being advanced to the effect that the popular diagnosis of the disease is entirely wrong and that the epidemic is not really influenza, but a mild form of typhoid fever. In support of this theory some very strong evidence is adduced. The real influenza of a most malignant form has appeared among the horses in the southeast of London. The disease is much more severe than when the animals were last attacked and is accompanied by congestion of the lungs. Fifty per cent. of the whole number of the district are affected and the epidemic is spreading.

STOPPED BY SNOW.
The Tribesmen Around Gilgit Are Safe Until the Spring.

CALCUTTA, Dec. 18.—The question of further operations on the part of the British troops against the Hunza-Nagar tribesmen in the vicinity of Gilgit and Fort Nilt, near the Pamir frontier, has been settled for the time being by the weather. Snow has fallen at those places and in the surrounding country to such an extent that military operations are impossible. The troops are making good progress toward recovery. The troops are well supplied with food, ammunition, etc., in quantities sufficient to last them until the snow disappears.

THE PAMIR PLATEAU.
The Collision Between British Soldiers and Tribesmen Not an Accident.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Official admissions are now being made that the recent encounter between the British forces at Gilgit under Colonel Durand and hostile tribesmen supposed to be acting in the Russian interest, was not in any sense an accidental collision. The time had arrived for open action, which had been led up to by diplomatic and military preparations which have been going on for at least two years with this eventuality constantly in view.

Attention has already been called in these despatches to the visit of Col. Durand in the summer of 1890 to the Viceroy of India at Simla, for the purpose of discussing the attitude to be observed by the British forces near the Pamir frontier, and to his being accompanied by British agents at Gilgit. The Viceroy's visit to Kashmir, undertaken about the same time, and which was the result of respect and had consequently been well received by the British, was a remarkable event. The British have shown very little consideration for their claims recently and their has for generations been a feeling of hatred entertained by these tribesmen toward England and her representatives. The Russians, on the other hand, have always treated the proud potentates of the frontier with great respect and have consequently been well received.

When the Russian Captain Gronchewsky and the Viceroy of India met at Simla in the summer of 1890 they made no many friends that they had no difficulty in repeating the visit in 1890 and again this year. Every appearance of an armed English force, however small, has on the other hand been greeted with unhesitating and with open opposition. This summer the visiting party of Russians was larger than, ever before and included the Viceroy's division under the famous Colonel Yanch. It penetrated to the passes leading from the Pamir plateau into Hunza, and the result of the excursion was soon observed in the increasing insolence of the tribesmen.

force of the tribesmen toward the British. It was evident that the descendants of Alexander believed that they now had an ally which would protect them from the hated British and even back them up in any predatory raids they might make against the red coats.

Meanwhile British diplomats have been insisting that the sphere of influence of the Indian Government must be recognized as paramount up to the southern slopes of the Hindu-Koosh, and that whether it be so recognized or not, it was necessary, for the proper protection of the northern Indian frontier, that England be allowed to check the lawlessness of the tribesmen, who are wont to harass the loyal people of that district.

The tribes complained of are notorious brigands, cattle thieves and slave dealers. The number of Kashmiri slaves in Central Asia is said by travelers to be astonishing. Not in spite of their claim to distinguished ancestry, can the rulers themselves be considered respectable. The king of Hunza, like many a better known prince, is a constant redoubt to be crumpled between the forces of England and Russia. The final struggle was to decide the future mastery of the region probably not far distant. Russia denies the right of England to any influence, much less any actual military possession, beyond Kashmir, while Lord Salisbury encourages the pretensions of the viceroy's government to supremacy in that region, hence it would seem that continuance of the present status must be impracticable for any great length of time.

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." R. C. BACOLA, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Fagged Out
"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BACOLA, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out
"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Instead, I might say truthfully I saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. FRANK MCKEE, 50 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.

CANADA IS ALL RIGHT.

Mr. Mowat has presented, not new arguments, but convincing arguments, to show that as regards constitution and methods of government Canada is in a much better position than the United States, and would lose greatly by changing them for the institutions of the Republic.

But he does not stop there, for he does not believe the people of the United States are any more prosperous than those of Canada. He says:

"But unrestricted reciprocity at the price of annexation would not be a price for. Many of us were not prepared to affirm that unrestricted reciprocity at that price would be even for the material advantage of Canada. It is quite certain that the farms of the United States are better mortgaged as well as Canadian farms and we have no solid ground for assuming that they are less heavily mortgaged than our own farms. So, our farmers as a class, or our mechanics as a class, or our laborers as a class, whatever the reasons may be, are not less comfortable on the whole than the farmers, mechanics and laborers of the United States appear to be."

Mr. Mowat might have made this statement even stronger, for what he has said is a concession coming from a Liberal who supports Mr. Olanly's Cartwright.

Mr. Mowat also says: "Loyalty as I am, I am willing to run the risk of a fair measure of unrestricted reciprocity." Just what he means by a fair measure of unrestricted reciprocity he does not tell us, but if he had said a fair measure of reciprocity he would have been intelligible. And, further, he would then have taken his seat in the House of Commons.

The Scientific American.

The House and Senate, prominent at Toronto, Canada, said in one of its issues that "After the moral and religious instruction of the family is secured, we know of nothing more interesting and instructive than a record of the progress of modern science and its marvelous achievements. And we know no medium which presents such a record in so full and readable a manner as that which we know weekly, the Scientific American, established over forty years. It will promote industry, progress, thrift, and intelligence wherever it is read. It is of special value to every machinist, mechanic, or engineer, but is also of use to the farming and mercantile community, a source of its illustrated notes on farming, fencing, farm buildings, implements," etc., to all of which we say amen. Parties wishing to see a copy of the paper, or to subscribe for it, can do so at this office. Price $3 a year.

How nicely Hood's Sarsaparilla hits the cords of people who feel "all tired out" or "run down" from any cause. It seems to set up the whole machinery of the body so that all moves smoothly and work becomes a positive delight.

Ask Your Friends About It.
Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam is a household name. Few years have passed so many coughs and colds in this community. Its remarkable sale has been won solely by its genuine merit. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so pure, so safe, so effective as large bottles 50c. and $1 at all druggists.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. Willows' Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It leaves the little sufferer at once, produces natural quiet sleep by bringing down pain, and the little sleeper awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, soothes the gums, allays pain, relieves teething troubles, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

The Scientific American.
The House and Senate, prominent at Toronto, Canada, said in one of its issues that "After the moral and religious instruction of the family is secured, we know of nothing more interesting and instructive than a record of the progress of modern science and its marvelous achievements. And we know no medium which presents such a record in so full and readable a manner as that which we know weekly, the Scientific American, established over forty years. It will promote industry, progress, thrift, and intelligence wherever it is read. It is of special value to every machinist, mechanic, or engineer, but is also of use to the farming and mercantile community, a source of its illustrated notes on farming, fencing, farm buildings, implements," etc., to all of which we say amen. Parties wishing to see a copy of the paper, or to subscribe for it, can do so at this office. Price $3 a year.

How nicely Hood's Sarsaparilla hits the cords of people who feel "all tired out" or "run down" from any cause. It seems to set up the whole machinery of the body so that all moves smoothly and work becomes a positive delight.

CONSUMPTION,

IN its first stages, can be successfully checked by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Even in the later periods of this disease, the cough is wonderfully relieved by this medicine.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral with the best effect in my practice. This wonderful preparation once saved my life. I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and given up by my physician. One bottle and a half of the pectoral cured me."—A. J. Eison, M. D., Middleton, Tennessee.

"Several years ago I was severely ill. The doctors said I was in consumption, and that they could do nothing for me, but advised me, as a last resort, to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking this medicine two or three months I was cured, and my health remains good to the present day."—James Birchard, Darien, Conn.

"Several years ago, on a passage home from California, by water, I contracted so severe a cold that for some days I was confined to my state-room, and a physician on board considered my life in danger. Happening to have a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I used it freely, and my lungs were soon restored to a healthy condition. Since then I have invariably recommended this preparation."—J. B. THOSE G. T. R. TICKETS.

IMPORTANT RULING IN THE NORTH PERTH ELECTION CASE.

The Election of Mr. James Griegs Considered—Costs on Petitioner—Personal Charges Against Dr. Nolin (Lia) Dismissed Mr. German Unsuccessful.

TORONTO, Dec. 21.—In the court of Common Pleas Saturday Justice Ross and Ma-Mahon gave judgment on one of the two reserved charges in connection with the North Perth election trial. The charge was to the effect that the candidate was liable for the procurement of the conveyance of voters by the Grand Trunk Railway.

Their Lordships held that while W. T. R.
Preston was proved an agent of Mr. Griegs, the Liberal member for the division, he distributed tickets for such conveyance without knowing them to be other than free passes. The principal ground for the decision was that Mr. W. T. R. Preston, manager of the G. T. R., led Peter Ryan to believe that there was to be no charge for the tickets in question. The charge was, therefore, dismissed.

Judgment was also given on the personal charges against Dr. Nolin. Liberal member elected for East Simcoe, and unsuccessful.
Their Lordships said they had received letters from petitioner's solicitors asking that the charge be dropped, which, however, they had themselves decided to do.
The charge was therefore dismissed.

The personal charges against Mr. German,
the member elected for Welland and unsuccessful, were taken up. Mr. German being disqualified and disfranchised for seven years.

MEN BOUND IN MOROCCO.

A blockade of the Sultan's Coast Very Probable.

New York, Dec. 21.—The Herald's Paris correspondent says: A blockade of the coast of Morocco is the probability of the near future. That fact has been secured the desired effect, an expedition to the interior of Muley Hassan's dominion may follow. Negotiations have been begun, with one or other of these objects in view, by the powers which signed the anti-slavery protocol on the Brussels congress.
According to the reports of the French and Danish ministers at Tangiers Muley Hassan has repudiated his own endorsement of the Brussels agreement by authorizing the sale of negroes in his empire. Morocco, it has been discovered, has been a market for negroes since the foundation of the imperial residence in Marrakech, one of the imperial residences in which the male slaves brought from the interior are compelled to marry, in order that the children born of these unions may be sold for the Sultan's harem. In fact slaves are being bought in Morocco in much the same fashion as heretofore. Europe cannot tolerate so gross a violation of its decisions, and all the signatory powers seem virtually in accord as to the necessity of the expedition. Although the Sultan in fact is loath to let Morocco be, stronger than Europe, he knows well enough that barbarism must always and everywhere give place in the long run to civilization. Should the contemplated expedition be ordered France will take advantage of the opportunity of settling the issues relating to Tangiers with Muley Hassan. At present the Sultan occupies the Tunis territory illegally. It is on the direct route of the slave caravan. France has now an excellent pretext afforded her for settling the frontier question, and we may be sure she will make the most of it.

"Life is an ocean,
Each one has his share."
Some have a mark they would gladly be rid of, a careless, overcast, drowsy rough, present by day and not absent by night. If you take the wings of the morning and fly away to the uttermost parts of the earth it will go with you. There is just one thing to do, begin a thorough treatment with Dr. J. C. Ayer's Medical Life-covery and the problem is solved. You will soon wonder where it is gone and what it was. The picture is not overdrawn; colds, coughs, and other ailments, and even consumption, in its early stages, yield to this potent vegetable compound. Large bottles one dollar, six for five dollars. It is sent to be used or cure in every case. No money returned by the makers.

BOMBS FOR THE POLICE.

SENSATIONAL DISCOVERY IN A FRENCH SUBURB.

May Day Riots Again Terrible Means to Secure Revenge. Thirteen Bombs Found. Accidentally Discovered and Frustrated—Fugitive to Abolish the Royal Bachelors.

PARIS, Dec. 21.—Clichy, a northern suburb of Paris, was thrown into a state of great excitement by the discovery of four bombs in the police station. The bombs attached to the walls of the station were found by the police on May Day.
The bombs had been placed there by the police on May Day, and the fact of the finding of these bombs has caused great alarm in police and other circles, as it is believed it shows that the persons who came in contact with the police on May Day are determined to seek revenge and that some of them placed the bombs where they were found, in the hope of demolishing the station.

FRANCE'S CAUSE CELEBRE.

M. Lemaire on Trial for Attempting the Murder of His Wife and Her Lover.

PARIS, Dec. 21.—The trial opened at Angoulême of M. Lemaire for attempting to murder his wife and her lover in a railway carriage. The leading witness, Mme. de Rute, daughter of the Duke of Orleans, testified that M. Lemaire was accustomed to visit her in the carriage, and that she was in ill-health and was sojourning in Spain.

Mme. Lemaire deposed that her husband was an agent of an insurance company and traveled in the country, visiting her only at intervals. She testified that she worked with Madame de Rute and was thrown constantly into the society of M.
Lemaire, a member of the staff of the Bureau, who succeeded in gaining her affection. When Lemaire was dismissed from his position on the staff she resolved to abandon her husband in order to share the fortune of her lover. She wrote her husband her decision, saying that she wanted a divorce, as it was impossible to live happily with him.

While traveling towards Paris with Delbosch her husband suddenly appeared at the door of the railway carriage at the Hendaye station. After kissing her and saying, "I know all, yet I love you," he drew a revolver and fired, wounding Delbosch. She denied that her husband had found her in the arms of her lover.

A physician who was on the train at the time of the shooting testified that Mme. Lemaire said: "My husband has surprised me and my lover, and has avenged himself. He has done well."

Donna de Rute, nee Bonaparte-Wise, is the wife of Don Luis C. de Rute, a deputy in the Spanish Cortes and a political director of La Iberia. One of her residences is in the Alcazar Palace, Madrid, whether Donna de Rute has probably gone.

How the Persians Put an End to a Government Monopoly.

TEHRAN, Dec. 21.—The agitation against the tobacco monopoly in Persia which the priests of the country have been for some time carrying on, during which they have forbidden the people to smoke, has finally compelled the government to abolish the monopoly. The company which held the complete control of the trade will be indemnified by the government and will also be allowed a monopoly of the export trade.

The Mystery of the Lost Jewels.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—In the action for slander brought by Mrs. Osborne against Mrs.
Hargreaves, before Justice Hannan and a special jury in the High Court of Justice, the case for the plaintiff was closed to-day. There were no new developments in the investigation being made into the mystery of the jewels lost by Mrs. Har-greaves while at Torquay.

Sir Richard Clarke, in his opening address for the defence, intimated that the plaintiff doubtfully stole the jewels, and that he would call evidence to prove the charge.

BEHIND SEA ARBITRATION.

Arbitrators Nominated and Their Appointment Expected in a Day or Two.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The President and the Secretary of State have had several consultations recently in regard to the seal fisheries. An agreement having been reached with the British Government as to the basis of arbitration all that now remains to complete the convention is an agreement as to the arbitrators. This, too, has practically been done so far as the number and powers of the arbitrators are concerned, and it is confidently expected that their appointment and the terms of arbitration will be officially announced in a few days. The nominations have been made and await only the concurrence of the governments interested.

It's a Way They Have in the West.

Denver, Col. Dec. 21.—A young man named Pillings, hailing from Chicago, who came west some weeks ago for his health, secured a pass from Denver to El Paso, Texas, thinking that the climate would be more beneficial to him. Pillings started on the same train with several Western Union operators who were en route to El Paso to take the places of Southern Pacific strikers. The trainmen, whose sympathy was with the striking operators, spotted Pillings as a "scab." When the train reached the snow-blockade at Trinidad, he in company with a young lady en route to California went out on the platform to watch the snowplows on an adjoining track. While Pillings and the young lady were standing there some wretch threw carbide gas in their faces. Both Pillings and the lady are disfigured for life.

CONSUMPTION,

IN its first stages, can be successfully checked by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Even in the later periods of this disease, the cough is wonderfully relieved by this medicine.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral with the best effect in my practice. This wonderful preparation once saved my life. I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and given up by my physician. One bottle and a half of the Pectoral cured me."—A. J. Eldon, M. D., Middleton, Tennessee.

"Several years ago I was severely ill. The doctor said I was in consumption, and that they could do nothing for me, not advised me, as a last resort, to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking this medicine two or three months I was cured, and my health remains good to the present day."—James Birchard, Danbury, Conn.

"Several years ago, on a passage home from California, by water, I contracted an acute cold which soon developed into a chronic cough, and a physician on board considered my life in danger. Happening to have a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I used it freely, and my lungs were soon restored to a healthy condition. Since then I have invariably recommended this preparation."—J. B. BRITISH AND FOREIGN.
DEATH OF THE DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE.

The Marquis of Huntingdon succeeds to the title and will take his seat in the House of Lords. A historic Italian House blows up by dynamite.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—The Duke of Devonshire, who has for a long time been ill and near to death's door at his residence, Bolker Hall, Minton, died last evening.

The Duke of Devonshire (Sir William Cavendish, Bt., K.G., C.B.) was born April 27, 1803. His title as Marquis of Huntingdon (used by his eldest son), Earl of Devonshire, Earl of Burlington, Baron Cavendish of Burlington, Baron Cavendish of Fleton, and Baron Cavendish of Overton, was created in 1791.

By the Duke's death his eldest son, the Marquis of Huntingdon, born July 23, 1838, and unmarried, succeeds to the dukedom. He is a member of the House of Commons for the North-East division of Lancashire.

The late Duke had never fully recovered from the shock caused by the tragic death of his son, Lord Frederick Cavendish, who was killed on May 6, 1892, shortly after being appointed Chief Secretary for Ireland, was assassinated in Phoenix Park, Dublin, by under-secretary Thomas H. Burke.

ITALIAN DYNAMITE.
Attempt to Blow Up a Historic House in the City of Paris.

Rome, Dec. 22.—An attempt was made to-day to blow up with dynamite a building in Paris, a city of historic interest. The scene of the explosion was the house in that city which King Charles Albert of Sardinia resided in 1848. Although the dynamite was exploded in the building it was only slightly damaged. In the confusion which ensued the culprits succeeded in making their escape.

Newfoundland May Enter Canada.
PARIS, Dec. 22.—The Canadian commissioner in this country, M. Fabre, said he felt certain that the colony of Newfoundland, would join the Dominion of Canada, as in view of the embarrassment which the Government of the colony had created in the relations between Canada, Great Britain and France, the Imperial Government would insist upon the incorporation of the colony with the Dominion.

Another English Divorce Suit.
LONDON, Dec. 22.—Lord Howard de Walden has begun proceedings for a divorce from his wife Lady de Walden has instituted a counter suit.

Travellers Indured.
HAMILTON, Dec. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of Burton, upwards of 70 years of age, were thrown from their vehicle while driving home from an early and received serious injuries.

A Bigger Combination. of the most potent and active properties of the whole vegetable kingdom is that which makes Dr. Fiebig's Favorite Prescription so pre-eminent above every other so-called woman's restorative in the market. Don't stop short of the best. Don't expect anything with worthless imitations when the world acknowledges no superior to the original, reliable and only guaranteed remedy for the happy restoration of suffering and debilitated women. GEORGE JAYNES' ODD OCCUPATION.

He Has a Forty Acres Farm on Which He Cultivates Rattlesnakes for a Living.

GREENVILLE, Mo., Dec. 22.—Probably the oddest occupation ever followed by man is that of an odd Tennesseean, who lives about three miles north of here in the Ozark Mountains. It is George Jaynes, or, as he is known in this neighborhood, "Snakey George." Jaynes came here from the mountains of Tennessee several years ago and followed the occupation of hunting for a living. He never got very much ahead, but managed to eke out a good living for himself by the sale of game and skins. He brought with him from his old home the art of making rattlesnake oil and sold several pints during each season to the various druggists in this part of the state and always got a good price for it, as it was of an excellent quality. The rocks of the Ozark Mountains abound with rattlesnakes, and it was not long before Jaynes saw that if he went at it right he had a bonanza in the business. He looked about and found a piece of rocky land on the south side of the mountain which was utterly worthless as far as agriculture was concerned.

He entered this land as a homestead and began improving it in a most peculiar way. Instead of clearing off the rocks he tried to get more there, and soon he had built a veritable snake retreat. The hillside was honeycombed with holes, and everything that a snake could desire to make life a pleasure was added to the spot. While he had entered 100 acres he utilized only about 40 of them. He built a house of stone, but cemented it thoroughly inside and out, and while he made a living off of snakes he did not want to have too close companionship with them. Having arranged his farm to his satisfaction he set about getting inhabitants for the place. In this he experienced little trouble, for the hills abounded with the reptiles, and he knew how to catch and handle them without danger. His daily excursions were taken with the view of bringing home a new resident for his farm, and his live stock increased with wonderful speed.

About four years ago he completed his work of stocking his place, and now he is reaping the benefit of his acumen. Snakes are everywhere on the place and on a warm day they will be seen on the hill back of the house. He has a drinking man the impression that "he had 'em again." Rattlesnakes of all sizes and varieties are to be seen lying around in profusion or crawling over the rocks, squirming and twisting in heaps, while the deadly whirr of the rattles makes a music which strikes terror to the heart of one unaccustomed to the situation. Above all it is a terribly nauseating odor which fills the whole air and drives away any one not accustomed to such an offensive scent.

"Snakey George" estimates that there are 10,000 full grown rattlesnakes on the place, and says that he kills them during the months of September and October, for then they are the fattest and are full of oil. They are getting ready to go into winter quarters and are in prime condition. His method of catching them is simple. He has fed them in a certain cleared spot ever since they have been on the place and they now come there regularly. When he is ready to begin work he stands on an elevated rock near the place and with a slip noose of wire catches as many as he can, and then they are taken to the hill back of the house, where he throws them into a caldron and renders out the oil. This he puts in heavy bottles and ships it to various wholesale druggists over the country. It is used in the preparations of various liniments. One of his best customers will make a pint of oil, and this brings $1.50 a pint, or nets Jaynes about $1 after all expenses of rendering, bottling and shipping are paid.

WHITMAN IS WEAKER.
Fears that the "Good Gray Poet's" Days are Numbered.

CAMDEN, N.J., Dec. 22.—Walt Whitman's physicians last night announced that the condition of the poet was unchanged. It is said, however, that the patient is gradually growing weaker.

A Child With Two Fathers.
JACKSONVILLE, Wis., Dec. 22.—Judge Bennett awarded Andrew Ingle custody of a child, heir to $40,000. Ingle was the father of it, but the child was not born until seven months after his wife had been divorced from him and married to Alexander Sherman. The woman died and Sherman claimed the child and fortune.

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 Years—Restored to Perfect Health.

Five people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. R. A. McLeod, a well known grocer of Hamilton, Va. He says: "Before 1870 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In 1871 an ailment developed into intense dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 100 pounds, suffering from burning sensations in the stomach, palpitations of the heart, nervousness, and indigestion. I could not sleep, but all night long I would have to get up and lie down. I became morose, irritable and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains which I had been subjected to, ceased, the palpitations of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my appetite began to come up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before long the fifth bottle was taken. I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today as well as I can be. I attribute it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

MR. MERRICK AND THE LIBERAL PARTY.

For a time, after the publication of the Globe's editorial, the Liberal party, the Globe, as voting Ontario Liberal opinion, condemned the transaction and spoke strong words to Mr. Merrick and his colleagues. For this it was pointed out by Liberals that the Globe deserved credit for that the party's aim in Dominion politics should be disassociated in the public mind from Mr. Merrick and his particular friends. At that time, however, Mr. Laurier had not broken his silence, Mr. Merrick, he had made a bargain with the then Premier of Quebec for his support in the Dominion elections and the two had acted together as firm allies and no word came from Mr. Laurier or any of his intimates to show that they disapproved of his revealed methods. The alliance remained unbroken. Now, however, Mr. Merrick is in serious danger. He is out of office and will have to face the people at the polls, and it did not take the Globe long to come to his aid. It is echoing his cries about the constitution and the action of the Lieutenant-Governor, it is leading to draw attention from the hoodlums, and calling upon the people of Quebec to remember the struggles to secure responsible government. This is just as we expected it would be. Responsible government has not been interfered with in the Globe's matter was largely for the purpose of the party in Dominion politics and for the benefit of Mr. Laurier and his followers, and now the whole party—or its organs and leaders—are standing by Mr. Merrick. The professed disapproval of his acts was a sham; now that the test has come this is made clear, for the whole force of the whole machine is at the back of Mr. Merrick and his disgraced colleagues.

WHERE DOES THE GLOBE STAND?

The Montreal Witness, which is as Ottawa as any paper need be, says: "The Liberal organ also finds questionable faults with Mr. Merrick's sentiment and argument in favor of the British connection, which, it would appear, that it regards as exaggerated and as likely to result in Canadian disaffection, to result in Canada's material interests being sacrificed to those of Great Britain. All through the Globe's article there is a tone of impatient scorn of Mr. Merrick's opinion and argument in favor of the British connection, which is as very offensive to true Canadians and very much out of place in the hitherto loyal organ of the great party. If the Globe continues in this fashion it is not regrettable that it will have to be taken for granted that the number of those who are prepared to go the length of political union in order to obtain responsible government in Canada, have generally been supposed. The Globe is apparently not unwilling to jeopardize success in the approaching by-elections by quarrelling with Mr. Merrick over a mere question, to say nothing of more than over alienating the element which turned the last elections against the Liberals. It is right that the Liberal party should know just where its organ stands."

By using Ayer's Hair Vigor, the hair is kept clean, cool, and healthy, and preserves the color, fullness, and beauty of the hair.

"I was rapidly becoming bald and grey; but after using two or three bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor my hair grew thick and glossy and the original color was restored."—Malvin Aldrich, Coatesville, N. H.

"Some time ago I lost all my hair in consequence of a severe attack of dandruff, no new growth appeared. I then used Ayer's Hair Vigor and my hair grew."

Thick and Strong.

It has apparently come to stay. The Vigor is evidently a great aid to nature. — J. B. Williams, Florenceville, Texas.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the past four or five years and find it a most efficacious dressing for the hair. It is all I could desire, being harmless, coming the hair to retain its natural color, and keeping both a small quantity to render the hair easy to arrange." — Mrs. M. A. Bailey, 9 Charles street, Newbury, Mass.

CRAWLED OUT OF THE GRAVE.

A Count in Fine Uniform, Who Was Left for Dead.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 24.—Count Franz Schenk, a lieutenant in the Russian Navy, is stranded in this city. The story of his trouble is a strange one. He was attached to the Russian consulate in London, and was engaged in a quarrel with a woman who was a friend of his. He was shot and killed, and his body was found in a ditch. He was buried in a coffin, and the coffin was placed in a vault. The vault was opened, and the body was found. The body was taken to the city, and the count was buried in a new vault.

The vessel steamed for Halifax, where the injured man was conveyed to the hospital in that city. There the attending physician stated that he could not live over 48 hours. Money was left with the hospital authorities to bury him, together with papers for three years back pay.

Contrary to expectations the Count recovered and after 14 days was discharged. He started to find a legal representative of his country who could furnish him with money for expenses with which to return home. He visited all the important Canadian cities, but found no Russian representative of any of them.

He then started for Boston. C. E. Wynne, the Russian vice-consul, was obliged to read the papers to the Russian minister at Washington before any aid could be made. At present the Count is an object of charity.

Two Philadelphia police lieutenants secured accommodations for him at the Sherman House. When Count Franz Schenk arrived in Boston he was welcomed by the city hungry and without money, but clothed in all the splendor of a lieutenant of the Russian navy. He wore a helmet hat of glittering beauty and high-legged boots, while his uniform was a perfect military specimen. He was escorted by a strong guard of police to his quarters.

The Count is entitled to nearly $1000, which he will obtain as soon as the necessary formalities are gone through with. He belongs in St. Petersburg, to which city he will return as soon as his funds reach him. He expects on his arrival in his native city to be promoted to a commander's position.

See Her Husband's Executioner.
COLUMBIA, O., Dec. 24.—Mrs. Carrie E. Fitzgerald, widow of the executed murderer, to-day brought two suits for damages against Warden Dyer of the State Prison, each for $5000. One was for malicious prosecution and the other for false imprisonment. The actions grow out of her arrest, together with a Youngstown newspaper man, for taking manuscript out of the prison without the warden's consent.

Fatal Accident.
FULTON, Ont., Dec. 24.—John Spio, youngest son of George Spio of Colton, was killed by a tree in a lumber yard in Colton. The boy was brought home late last Friday, Dec. 18, and died on Monday morning following at the Colton hospital. The cause of the accident was the boy's sympathy for a friend who was in the yard.

If you take the wings of the morning and fly away to the uttermost parts of the earth it will go with you. There is just one thing to do, begin a thorough treatment with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and the problem is solved. You will soon wonder where the evil came from. The picture is not overdrawn; colds, lingering and obstinate coughs, and even consumption, in the early stages, yield to this potent vegetable compound. Large bottles on hand, at every drug store, and sent to be sent to every case or money returned by its makers.

CHINESE REBELS VICTORIOUS.

Said to Have Defeated the Imperial Army in the Foo Chow Battle.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—The particulars of the recent battle reported near Foo Chow, in which it was stated, that the rebels had been routed, have just been received here, and show that the Imperial army suffered a crushing defeat.

The people had risen en masse in this district of Fuk Fa, three days' journey from Foo Chow, in the northeast direction, and had slaughtered several of the officials. Five thousand Imperial troops were sent against the rebels by Victory Pin, and a bloody engagement ensued in which over 2000 of the soldiers were killed, the remainder being panic-stricken, and great anxiety prevailed at Foo Chow and throughout the province.

In consequence of this the winter patrol in Foo Chow is carried on with great diligence. The Provincial Judge makes his nightly inspection in person and this causes the deputies to be very careful.

The commandant of the troops at Hang Chow has received the sanction of the Governor to purchase certain lands near the foreign missionary churches, chapels and dwellings, and he proposes to erect upon the lands temporary for the use of his soldiers during the winter season. These soldiers have up to the present been lodged in tents and doing guard duty in the section of foreigners and mission property.

The commandant has now resolved that the soldiers are to be drilled morning and evening with rifles and at other hours in the day they are to be taught the use of swords and spears.

A new subject for discussion and excitement in Foo Chow is just now detracting some attention from the rebellion, and the authorities hope it will help them in the suppression of the rioters. It is a talk about a possible war between Russia and China. Doubtless this has been caused by despatches from London reporting the advance of a Russian expedition over the Chinese frontier, but the authorities are fanning the flame and making the most out of it.

Twenty Men Blown Up.
Terrible Dynamite Explosion on Board a French Lumber.

ANTWERP, Dec. 24.—A French lumber laden with dynamite, sailed with 20 men on board the harbor here to-day and 20 men were blown up on board the vessel were instantly killed. The explosion occurred from some unknown cause, while the cargo was being discharged into a lighter. The explosion was tremendous and shook the whole city.

G. T. R. Safe Blown.
LIMOWITZ, Ont., Dec. 24.—The safe in the G. T. R. station here was blown open last night and $111 taken. The postoffice was also entered, but only a little change was taken from the till. It was doubtless the work of experts. There is no clue as yet.

Wanted for Murder.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 24.—The Halton Liberal convention held yesterday for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the coming by-election, was largely attended. Mr. John Wadsworth was the unanimous choice of the meeting.

A Legislator's Integrity Comes High.
DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 24.—The jury in the celebrated libel suit of James A. Randall against the Detroit Evening News brought in a verdict for the plaintiff and fixed the damages at $11,000. Randall, when a member of the Legislature, secured the passage of a bill bonding the city heavily for the speaking of a boulevard along which he had a lot. The News fought it bitterly and virtually charged Randall with having bribed members of the Legislature. Randall asked for $100,000.

Probable Wreck on Lake Huron.
DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 24.—There are indications that a wreck has taken place off Lake Huron, on the Canadian side of Lake Huron, as large quantities of wreckage, including a yawl of a vessel named the Oswegatchie of Detroit, have come ashore at that place. A life preserver stamped, "Passenger Steamer Austin of Detroit," was also found.

Eloped With a Forger.
ALLIANCE, Ont., Dec. 24.—Ephraim Kelly, of North Georgetown, sold forged notes for over $500 and disappeared in company with beautiful adopted daughter of a Salem family.

At the New York tug-of-war last night (Canada was defeated by Sweden in 13 minutes, the Scots lost the English in 20 minutes, Germany beat Denmark in 1 hour and 32 minutes and the Norwegian defeated Ireland in 32 minutes. Norway and Germany have not yet suffered defeat.

CONFESSED HIS CRIME.

The French Officer Tells How He Killed Sergeant Bellard.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—Louis Anatole, the retired French officer, has confessed that he murdered the sergeant Bellard. He gives as his motive for the crime that he was driven almost mad by the necessity of paying his debts to save himself from dishonor.

He says he left home on Sunday, with the settled resolution to get money, even at the price of crime. Before leaving he purchased a knife, with which he committed the murder.

On reaching the house of the Baroness she opened the door for him, recognized him, and led the way to her room. Anatole asked her if she was alone. On replying in the affirmative he threw himself upon her and cut her throat. Hearing the servant approaching, while looking for money, he waited for her, knife in hand, determined to kill her also. In the struggle the knife fell from his hand, whereupon he fled without having secured any booty.

MANY ORDEALS OF FIRE.

PARTIAL DESTRUCTION OF A MICHIGAN STATE INSANE ASYLUM.

Five hundred Female Maniacs—Terrifying Scenes—Large Conflagration in Chatham County. The "Lovers' Leap" a Million and a Half Believed to Have Perished.

PORTLAND, Me., Dec. 28.—Fire, which originated in an attic of the woman's department of the Eastern Michigan Insane Asylum, occasioned $450,000 damage Saturday, the female wing being totally destroyed. Fifteen minutes after the first alarm was sounded the occupants of the wing (500 women) were turned loose. Screaming frantically with terror, the maniacs surged through the corridors, where the air was already filled with smoke. Tongues of flame were visible through all, and the night filled the denuded creatures with terror. Some ran like wild animals, trampling their slower companions in their mad effort to escape. Others were paralyzed with fright and stood rooted to the spot, with eyes staring horribly into the roaring fire. The attendants performed deeds of heroism in the endeavor to rescue the helpless. Rushing hither and thither, dragging the least-taken ones from their rooms, they drove the insane women into the open air.

Few if any lives were lost, although it is reported that several women were seen at the windows after the patients were supposed to be all out. They had torn every article of clothing from their persons and were laughing in hideous glee at the approach of the flames. When last seen they were standing in the midst of sheets of fire, gasping wildly and with their long hair flying disheveled about their faces.

The fear was that the fire would make its way across to the south wing, where nearly 700 men were confined. Preparations were immediately made to remove the men if it was necessary. Inside the south wing from the moment the flames came in sight the wildest excitement prevailed. The 700 crazy men were about the narrow confines of their rooms yelling like demons, not from fear, as it seemed, but rather with exultation. The fire filled them with a terrible ecstasy. A few appreciated the danger and their terror was pitiful.

The south wing, however, was saved and by 1 o'clock the fire was under control.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

COMMITTEE ROOMS OPEN.

A preliminary meeting was held last evening in Mr. Kennedy's committee room and a commencement made in the necessary work of organization.

To-night a large attendance of those favorable to his candidature is again requested, when the work will be carried further and preparations made for the work of the next few days.

The committee rooms are at No. 325 George-st. in the store opposite the market building formerly occupied by Mr. George Ball. They will be open each evening. Daily to-night at the committee room. The time is short.

An Evening of Music. The Sunday school room of the Charlotte-st. Methodist was well filled last evening to listen to the singing of the Canadian Jubilee Singers. The programme was a good one and those present enjoyed a delightful evening's entertainment.

Mr. J. J. McNeil withdrew. Mr. J. J. McNeil desires to state that while he appreciates the interest of ratepayers who offered him a liberal support at the coming election, he has decided to decline to stand. His duties on the school board take up such spare time as is at his disposal and he feels that in a public way it is better to attend to school matters as thoroughly as possible than to have a divided interest, as would be the case if he were elected councillor.

The Programme for To-night.

Following is the programme for Dr. Davis organ recital at St. John's this evening:

1. Organ Solo. Cool fan talle. Mozart
2. The Song of the Lark. Mendelssohn
3. Psalm in D. Handel
4. Aria-Cello. Schumann
5. Marche des Phantomes. Spohrer
6. Overture, Henry IV. Meyerbeer
7. Andante and Allegro Vivace, 4th Symphony (Mendelssohn)
8. Andante in A. Schumann
9. Grand March. Tannhauser. Wagner

Nearly all colds are slight at first, but their tendency is to go lower the system that the sufferer becomes a ready victim to any prevalent disease. The use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, in the beginning of a cold would guard against the danger.

Salvation Army Notes. On New Year's night a grand banquet will be held at the Simcoe-st. barracks. The arrangements will be complete and a sumptuous spread will be served. There should be a large attendance, for these banquets are always a success.

The local corps are looking forward with interest and pleasant anticipations to an expected visit about the 25th of January of Col. McKie, International Travelling Commissioner, who has been making a tour of the different countries where the Army flag floats visiting the principal corps.

The Army expected to have the pleasure of seeing and hearing a few words from Le Marchant B. with daughter of Gen. Booth, as she passed through to her mother's evening, but owing to the lady being in poor health other arrangements have been made and she will not pass through Peterborough.

THE MASONIC LODGES.

Installation of the Officers Elect for the Christmas and New Year Festivals—Presentation to R. W. Bro. Geo. Shortly—The Address and Reply.

St. John's Day, Dec. 27th, is a red letter day in the Masonic calendar for on the evening of that day Masonic lodges all over the world install in office the brethren elected to preside over affairs for the ensuing year. A large gathering of the brethren met at the Masonic Hall, Water-st., and after routine business had been transacted the following officers elect were installed by R. W. Bro. Geo. Shortly, assisted by R. W. Bro. E. H. D. Hall, V. W. Bro. J. J. Lundy, V. W. Bro. Chas. Cameron, W. Bro. E. H. Wood, W. Bro. H. C. Winch, W. Bro. E. A. Morrow, W. Bro. W. Thompson, W. Bro. W. Brundrett, W. Bro. H. Ruesh, W. Bro. W. J. Martin and W. Bro. E. A. Peck. The lodges are to be congratulated on having selected well skilled and experienced brethren to officiate and under whose direction the craft will make good progress during the year.

COMMITTEE LODGE B. R. W. Bro. E. H. D. Hall, V. W. Bro. J. J. Lundy, V. W. Bro. Chas. Cameron, W. Bro. E. H. Wood, W. Bro. H. C. Winch, W. Bro. E. A. Morrow, W. Bro. W. Thompson, W. Bro. W. Brundrett, W. Bro. H. Ruesh, W. Bro. W. J. Martin and W. Bro. E. A. Peck. The lodges are to be congratulated on having selected well skilled and experienced brethren to officiate and under whose direction the craft will make good progress during the year.

The usual standing committees for both lodges were named and the duties of office assigned them.

At the close of the installation ceremony V. W. Bro. Chas. Cameron stepped forward bearing in his hand a handsomely framed address, and the opportunity was taken advantage of to recognize in a tangible way the services to and interest shown in the craft by R. W. Bro. Geo. Shortly, who identified with Masonic work in town. Bro. Cameron read the following address:

Bro. Shortly, Past Master Peterborough Lodge, No. 135, P. D. G. M., Ontario District No. 12.

DEAR SIR AND BRO.—Your Masonic Betrotal in Peterborough, to mark their appreciation of your long and faithful labors in promoting the interests of the Craft by every means in your power, have had in contemplation their desire of giving to you in some substantial manner their recognition of such valuable services.

It is not too much to say that since you were first received into the order you have steadily persevered in not only perfecting yourself in the various degrees through which you have passed but at the same time have been always ready and willing to extend light and knowledge to your uninitiated brethren.

In addition to your having filled the highest office in the order of your lodge in Peterborough you were unanimously elected to that of Master of the Ontario District, No. 12, two successive years, during which you have shown the most judicious and sagacious judgment in your said district which we doubt not were greatly benefited by your efforts on their behalf.

In recognition of such valuable services we have great pleasure in asking you to accept this token of our appreciation and to be assured that we are all united in our desire to see you prosper in every way and to see you continue to be a blessing to the Craft.

R. W. Bro. Shortly in feeling terms acknowledged the gratification and pleasure experienced in receiving so handsome a gift from the Masonic brethren. What little he had been able to do to advance Masonry had been done for love of the Order. His heart was in the work and he owed his advancement to the kindness and generosity of the members who were over generous and appreciative. He thanked them kindly for the beautiful present and said he would present it with due and contemplation it with pleasure as a reminder of pleasant hours spent in the hall hallowed by the associations of past years. He earnestly urged the younger members to make the Craft a study and in perfecting themselves they would elevate themselves above the cares of life. The jewel would stimulate him to renewed exertion in the work of the Craft.

After the lodges closed down some time was pleasantly spent in the refreshment room where speeches were made and songs sung in honor of the Craft.

Practice To-night. There will be a practice of the Philharmonic Society this evening at the Y.M.C.A. rooms at 6 o'clock.

A Handsome Testimonial. The Wm. English Organ Co. have received a handsome diploma, beautifully illustrated in colors, for their exhibition of organs at the Quebec Provincial Exhibition. The fame of our manufacture is always recognized.

They are coming. The original Pink Pills singers will give one concert in Peterborough on the evening of January 13th. There is no mistake about being the original company. London, the famous basso, being the manager. Further particulars will be announced.

The complainant had failed to lay the complaint within thirty days of the day he stopped work and the case had to be thrown out. It can be taken to the Division Court.

Walter Kerr, whose condition has been the cause of the many remands, is now able to give his evidence and the Court will take his sworn statement at the hospital this afternoon.

Mr. E. E. Wood, County Crown Attorney, appeared for the prosecution and Mr. E. B. Stone defended the prisoner.

Mr. Timothy Cavanagh was the first witness. He testified that on the 15th of September last he saw Wynn at his hotel where he had dinner. He also saw him at four and five o'clock. He was then sick and vomiting over himself, and the witness told Walter Kerr and Tom Tremont to take him down to the washroom as he wanted to go away on the five o'clock train.

Tom Tremont took him out in one of the box stalls Wynn had a bag with something in it. To Mr. Stone he said that Walter Kerr was a barman, drunken fellow, who did not appear to be drunk on that day. The stall fastened from the outside and a man inside could not get out unless someone let him out or he broke the door. Wynn spent a little money at the house that day.

James Cavanagh knew very little about this matter. He saw prisoner in the hotel on the 15th of September and knew that he was put out in the box stall.

Wm. Whelan, taxi driver, was called out to give no information.

Thos. Norton, hostler at the hotel, said he saw Wynn in the stable that afternoon. He saw nothing more of the prisoner.

Timothy Patient, book keeper at Mr. Cavanagh's, remembered the night that Kerr was stabbed. On that night witness went to lock the back door about half past twelve and as he opened the door he saw a man run out of the yard into the street. The man turned south and as he went he was carrying something like a bag over his shoulder.

The witness stepped out and met Walter Kerr and witness asked "What do you want here?" Kerr replied "that" — has stabbed me." Kerr then went out on the sidewalk and apparently found the first man. Witness went back into the house for he never thought Kerr was stabbed. Afterwards he saw Kerr when he was lying on the street near the new cotton building. This was a few minutes after he had seen Kerr in the back yard.

Jas. Curtin saw the prisoner the night of his arrest and he had told him that two men had attacked him in the yard. He said one had kicked him in the side and taken money from him.

Jas. G. Macdonald recognized prisoner as the man he had seen in the cells. He had gone to get information as to draw up the information against him. Wynn told witness that he had stabbed a man, saying two men had attacked him and he drew a knife and struck one of them.

F. D. Mackay, a railway reporter, had been with Wynn the evening the morning after his arrest. Wynn had said that two men, a stout man and another, had attacked him and robbed him, and that he had stabbed one of them.

Rt. Hon. J. Dawson, a printer at that time working on the Times, had heard and found Kerr, when he was lying wounded on the street and called the police. Kerr was lying on Charlotte-st. eight or ten feet from George-st.

Thos. Pratt and Beatrice Loford, who were also among those who found Kerr lying in the street, told of his condition when found. Chief Russell gave evidence as to the searching of the prisoner when arrested. An ordinary jack-knife was produced which had been found on the prisoner. The blade was covered with blood. A purse was found on him containing two five cent pieces. The bag produced was also found with the prisoner. It contained a new suit of clothes and an odd vest. Wynn bought the clothes at Gough's, he had found by inquiry, and they had cost $10.

The Court then adjourned until 3 o'clock at the Nicholas Hotel when Kerr's evidence will be taken.

THE CHEESE BOARD.

The Annual Sunday school festival of the Murray, Baptist church held last evening was a joyful success, and the children will remember with pleasure their Christmas festival of 1891. Tea was served in the basement and was followed by an evening of the school. Miss Whitehead, of Lindsay, gave the recitative part in the cantata in a very acceptable manner, and the whole rendition was a pleasing success, reflecting credit on those who trained the children.

A. F. Howett, the organist of the church, presided at the organ. At the conclusion of the cantata Mr. By gave a beautiful miscellaneous collection of views, and the evening closed with "God Save the Queen."

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 Years—Restored to Perfect Health.

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. R. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Hamilton, Va. He says: "Before 1895 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 125 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion."

Intense Suffering

I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became nervous, irritable and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to "wake up." With continued use, my strength came, activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken, I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

REVIEWS.

SCIENCE'S MAGAZINE for January begins with a 27 and eleven volume of this periodical, with some announcements of circulation of more than one hundred and forty thousand copies monthly (which is constantly increasing). The plan for the new year includes, besides the more purely literary contents, remarkable series on the Poor in the World's Great Cities; Important Historical Movements, by eminent men who took part in them; Out-of-Door Papers; occasional Railway strikes on Rapid Transit, Australian Railways, Speed's Locomotives; on important Waterways, like the Nicaragua Canal, and the water route from the United States to the Orient; also travel, exploration, and abundant illustrations, including the notable series, The West and the East, by Louis Stevenson, and Lloyd O. Jones. This first number of the year, which promises so much interesting material is particularly beautiful in its illustrations, containing a number of the beautiful ones which that artist's best work is doing, examples of the work of Low, Vedder and Cox in the group of papers on American Illustrations; pictures by Eugene Moran, a French artist new to our American audience, and reproductions of pictures in chalk by Washington Allston. Of particular interest to lovers of art and literature are the articles on Paris Libraries and Concerts, by William F. Apdony; by French Artists by H. E. Krehbiel; American Illustrations, by W. A. Coffin, and Some Unpublished Correspondence of Washington Allston. In line with the studies of the significance of the poor is a remarkable article by H. Order Smyth, of the city of New York, who is probably the most famous criminal judge in this country. His paper, entitled Crime and the Law, is a clear statement of the safeguards which the present practice of New York State law protect the innocent and bring the guilty to justice.

A CAPE BRETON MIRACLE

A CASE THAT FAIRLY OUTRIVALS THE WONDERFUL HAMILTON CURE.

Reverend, Halifax, and given up as "One Who Must Needs Go."—An interesting story as investigated by a Reporter.

Halifax Herald, December 16th.

A few months ago all Canada was astounded by a remarkable cure reported from the city of Hamilton, Ont., and re-echoed by the press and many of the leading residents of that city. In the Hamilton case the man (Mr. Marshall) had been pronounced incurable, and after right examination by half a score of physicians, the Royal Templars of Temperance paid him the $1,000 members of that order are entitled to when pronounced totally incapacitated from labor. The remarkable narrative of Mr. Marshall's cure and the remedy to which he owed his recovery were given wide publicity by the press throughout the Dominion, and naturally it brought a ray of hope to others who were similarly suffering. Among the homes to which this brought hope was that of Mr. Joseph Jerritt, of 111 West Arm, O. S., and Mr. Jerritt's recovery may be regarded as even more marvellous than that of Mr. Marshall, and many others whose cures have recently been recorded. One thing, however, is certain, and that is that never before in the history of Cape Breton has medicine brought such an almost miraculous cure.

In the year 1879 Mr. Jerritt received a fall from a truck wagon, the wheel of which passed over the small of his back. Those who have succeeded in restoring him to consciousness and took him to his home which was near by. For six months he was unable to perform any work and even after a lapse of a year was trouble with severe pains and weakness of his limbs. He was able, however, to do light work about the farm, and about a year later shipped on a vessel bound for Charlottetown, N. S. While on this trip Mr. Jerritt was engaged in fishing and, when he returned, he found that he was overworked himself, and felt something start, as though something had burst in his left side. He became almost helpless, and on the arrival of the vessel at Charlottetown, was taken to the hospital for medical treatment. Here he remained for over two months under the most skillful physicians. His side became stronger again, but his limbs grew weak and frequently the pains were intense. Mr. Jerritt then returned home, he continued to grow worse and the pains never left him. After his return home he made an attempt to work but was unable to do so, and gradually became worse and worse until at last he was entirely helpless, and was looked upon by his friends as one who not only could not recover, but whose time on earth was short. It was in this condition, depressed in mind, helpless, and continually suffering intense pain, that at last a ray of hope came to him. One day he read in the Halifax Herald of Mr. Marshall's remarkable cure. Symptoms in this case were those of his own, and despite the fact that he had already expended hundreds of dollars in patent medicines and medical treatment, without receiving any benefit, he determined to try the remedy that had restored Mr. Marshall to health. The result is that he is again restored to health and strength. Hearing of various recoveries of Mr. Jerritt's remarkable recovery the local reporter determined to investigate the matter, and gives his story as told to him. In my early days," said Mr. Jerritt, "I was one of the strongest young men in my village. Until I received the fall in 1879 I did not know anything about sickness, and after that time I did not know a perfectly well day. I tried to fight the trouble off and to work, and partially succeeded up to the time I received the strain on board the ship while bound for Charlottetown. Since then my limbs have continued to grow worse until I was compelled to give up work altogether, and send for a doctor. I may add that all kinds of medicine was tried but none did me any permanent good. The physicians of my place said my disease was locomotor ataxia, and although several of them treated me, none gave much hope of recovery. In fact the impression became general that 'poor Joe must soon go.' After the failure of doctor's treatment I again resorted to patent medicines, of which I believe I have taken $500 worth. 'Till my disease grew worse and finally I was unable to even move from my bed. I was advised to get up to the hospital in Halifax, and after spending two months there I returned home only to find myself even worse than before. My legs became so weak that I could not stand alone, having to use two chairs to steady myself with. I could not bear my weight on them. For five weeks I was between life and death. My left leg ended to an enormous size and the doctor pronounced it dropsy. My feet and legs have been cold for over five years until the last three months. It was impossible for me to sleep with the pain which would occasionally be in my legs and body. Mustard drafts were applied, but no sooner would they be taken off than the pain would return. About one year ago I lost all feeling from my legs; they would feel like ice and to move them caused the greatest agony. I prayed that God would take me from this world and give me relief from the torment which I was hourly in. Thus I lived; not lived, but existed, a suffering being without one day's relief from the most excruciating pains from the disease." How the face of the sufferer brightened as he began to tell of the release, as it were,—from death, and continuing, he said:—"But from the blackest day of my sickness a glimmer of hope shone when my little girl who brought home my paper read the advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I got her to read to me the cure effected in the case of John Marshall, of Hamilton. As soon as she read the statements contained therein, I saw at once that his case was similar to mine and I told my wife that I believed I would be a well man again if I only could succeed in obtaining some of these medicines. I sent to our drug store but found none there. I then decided to send to Brockville, Ont., for the pills, but my neighbors only laughed at me saying that they were just like all other patent medicines, no good. This was in August, I forwarded the money, and in a few days received two boxes of pills, deciding to give them a fair trial. After taking them a short time the pains left me, and by day I am not troubled with any ache or pain. True, my limbs have not yet entirely recovered their former strength, but it makes me happy to know that if five boxes will enable me to stand with just a little assistance, more will continue and complete the cure. Dead legs for a year are not so easily made perfectly strong again but," here Mr. Jerritt threw both legs high into the air, "this is something myself or my friends never hoped to see. All my neighbors gave me up for dead, but thank God my strength is returning and after three months I feel like a new man. You need not go to state my case plainly, as I am well known in Cape Breton, and all the people hereabout know how far gone I was. Scores of the neighbors call to see me and are surprised to find that I am improving daily. My appetite has returned, my strength is renewed and when my limbs become a little stronger I shall be a healthier man than ever. No doubt exists in my mind of complete cure as the worst symptoms are entirely disappearing and I seem invigorated by the medicine. You see, he said to the reporter, "I am to work mending nets, and I feel too well to remain idle. Every person who saw me last July and sees me now can bear testimony to the truth of the story I am telling you. My weight since I began taking the Pills has increased from 125 pounds to 166 pounds and I am heavier now than I have been for five years. I hope what I have told you will induce other sufferers to try this wonderful medicine, and I am sure they will have as good reason to feel grateful for it as I do."

After the interview with Mr. Jerritt, the reporter called on a number of his neighbors, all of whom endorsed his statements and said they considered his cure one of the most wonderful things that had come within their observation. They one and all gave the credit to the treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and are naturally enthusiastic in speaking of them.

The proprietors of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills state that they are not a patent medicine, but a scientific preparation, the result of years of careful study on the part of an eminent graduate of McGill and Edinburgh universities, and they had for many years been offered in his private practice before being offered for sale throughout the country. They are offered to the public as a never-failing blood builder and nerve restorer, curing all diseases such as paralysis, rheumatism, neuralgia, palpitation of the heart, headache, pale and sallow complexion, muscular weakness, etc. These Pills are also a specific for the troubles peculiar to females, such as suppurations, bearing-down pains, chronic constipation and all forms of weakness, building up the blood and restoring the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excess of any nature.

The proprietors deem it their duty to caution the public against imitations. These Pills are never sold in any form except in boxes, the wrapper around which bears the trade mark "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." They are sold by all druggists or will be sent post paid upon receipt of fifty cents a box by addressing The Dr. Williams' Medical Co., Brockville, Ont., or Montreal, N.Y.

GOUGH BROS.

Send Greeting.

We won't bother you with a sermon on buying just at this season. It's enough for us to know that you know where you can get the values.

Fair dealing makes fast friends. We have had ample proof of this, and we hold a trade that few city houses can boast of. To meet the demands of such a trade we must, of necessity, carry an immense stock, one that will fully meet all the requirements of taste, person and purse. Such a stock here awaits your coming. A stock of proper garments at proper prices.

At this season of good cheer Canadians have much to be thankful for—the peace that has prevailed in our Dominion for years as well as during the past twelve months, the plentiful harvest that has been reaped, and the many blessings that have fallen to the share of this country. These will be remembered, along with the especial reasons for rejoicing on Christmas day.

While the Christmas season is on it is well to remember a judicious economy. This cannot be better practiced than in your buying. A point is to get value. This you can positively secure, in say OVERCOATS at our great clothing sale now on. Make a Christmas present of an Overcoat to husband, brother or lover.

AN EARLY SESSION OF PARLIAMENT PROBABLE.

It is Thought That All the Bye-Elections Will Take Place in January—Another Alleged Scandal in the Province of Quebec.

OTTAWA, Dec. 31.—The writ for Richmond, N. B., election was issued yesterday, nominating Jan. 14, polling 21. The sheriff is returning order. All the other bye-elections will take place about the same time.

It was said in official circles yesterday that Parliament would be opened early in February, and that notices to officials have been Another Quebec scandal.

Quebec, Dec. 31.—After the Valliere discovery the Langlais scandal! A correspondent of the Montreal Star writes that Mr. Mercer, acting in his official capacity of Premier, but without being authorized to do so, has actually ordered the arrest of a citizen without the sanction of the Crown, had passed a contract with Mr. Langlais, the stationer, for the purchase of stationery for four years, and could prove being extracted. Two letters of credit for $30,000 were given to Langlais and are now under seal at the stationer's office.
But where the fun for Langlais comes in is at the end of the story.
After a thorough investigation $20,000 of the people's money he has only furnished to the people a little more than $10,000 worth of stationery.
Rumor has it that an ex-minister, or the son of an ex-minister, is deeply interested in this or some other stationery contract.

WHERE IS HEIRICK ?

The Report That the Brukenman Was Intentionally Drowned.

New York, Dec. 28.—Nation Agents Daily and Morning News have published the accident which occurred on the New York Central road on Christmas, to the superintendent yesterday. In it he says that the station agent, Al. Niagara express, had phoned A. M. Herrick, one of the brakemen on the express, came into his office and made a few casual remarks.

He gave Herrick a cigar and leaving him with the operator in his office, went across the street to the hotel to deliver a few urgent packages. He had been gone about 10 minutes when the St. Louis express, which leaves New York at 8 o'clock, thundered by without slackening its speed.

Then Herrick came out of the office and asked the station agent if the train had passed. Then Herrick said he hoped his train had proceeded.

The station agent says the statement that Herrick went into the barroom is absolutely

AN OPERATOR'S LUCK
Arrested For Burglary on Eve of His Wedding.

REARFOOT, Dec. 31. — W. A. Davis came to Bradford this evening and was to have been married to a young lady of excellent family in Madison, Wis. Late last night he was arrested by C. P. R. Detective John J. Hargrave, a burglar of a C. P. R. station at which he had been operator. He was taken to jail for trial.

The prisoner was much cut up. When he was taken to jail he was wearing a new suit and a new pair of shoes. The wedding gifts were on display. Prisoner asked the police to let him get married.

GOOSEY'S CONFESSION.

The Prisoner's Lottridge Continues Cheerful and Light Hearted.

HAMILTON, Dec. 17.—The preliminary examination of Lottridge, who, with the murder of old man Henlop, to-day promises to be highly sensational. The crown will likely call Mrs. Henlop and Miss Henlop to tell the story of the brutal murder, and Goosey will be put into the box to tell all he knows of the crime. The prisoner's counsel will make a strong effort to shake the testimony of the Indian. The crown won't call any more evidence

There are those who have seen Lottridge say that if he is a guilty man he is a clever actor, and does not betray any evidence of guilt. When he was told about (Joosey's) confession he laughed and said there was nothing to be afraid of. He said that if he were true Lottridge has a good chance of saving his skin by turning Joosey's evidence. Even though he remained outside he would be equally guilty with the man who fired the fatal shot.

Frederick C. C. will defend Bartram.

J. W. Nesbitt, Q. C., who has less retained as counsel for Lottridge, had an interview with the prisoner yesterday. Mr. Nesbitt told to-day that from what Lottridge told him he believes the man had no laugh at the charge," said Mr. Nesbitt; "and is able to account for all his actions during the night of the murder, and to prove that he was not near the Hemlock house. He took no stock whatever in that 'confession' of George's, and he is not surprised if the Indian Douglas made a similar 'confession.' Why, you could buy up half the Indian reserve for the amount of the reward offered."

The Nagsbarth freight which was running into this station at a speed of 30 miles an hour. So far as was known no person was injured, but the engine and two persons, who were crossing the bridges at the time, and some of the trainmen had very narrow escapes.

MARRIED FOR KEEPS

A Warning to Young People Who Wed on a "Helter."

Mr. Louis, Dec. 31.—Judge Withrow gave his decision in the divorce case of Sarah G. Darrow against Constantine C. Darrow, the young couple from New York who were married on a helter and who now wish to be separated. Judge Withrow ruled that the marriage cannot be dissolved and that the parties must remain married.

Mrs. Darrow is a handsome young lady, 17 years old, and is the daughter of Judge Withrow of Lockport, N.Y. The circumstances of the marriage brought out at the hearing of the case were that the young lady, while not yet 16 years old, had served in the army of the United States.

C. Darrow, a young law student, was jealous of the other young men who sought Miss Withrow's favor, and it was stated that he challenged his sweetheart to prove that she was not married to some of the other young men by going to a church and marrying him. Upon this she accompanied him to an Episcopal Church and they were married. The young lady returned to her parents and young Darrow resumed his law study and nothing was said about the marriage.

Reflection seemed to have cured the young people of their fancy for each other. Darrow came west about a year ago and began the practice of law in Buchanan county, Missouri. After his departure the minister who performed the ceremony informed Miss Withrow, the young lady's mother, and she was then taken to secure a legal separation.

BRACKENBERRY CONFESSES

His Sentiments in Faint, But Not by Any Means Frivolous.

THURSDAY, Dec. 31.—General Secretary of the Railroad Y.M.C.A. here, this morning received a letter from Oliver C. Perry, the railroad brakeman, accused of robbing the express car on the Central Hudson Railroad, near Utica, three months ago. The letter bore a Canadian stamp, which covered a United States Stamp. The postmark is not very plain, but it is evidently the cancelling mark used by a railroad postal agent. The name of the railroad is, as nearly as can be determined, the "W. G. & E. R." It is not doubted that the letter is genuine. It contains Perry's confession, which reads as follows:

CANADA.—To whom it may concern: I hear Messenger Moore and another man are suspected of being implicated in the robbery that occurred Oct. 1, 1891. I want to state that they are innocent. I alone am guilty.

As I am a Christian, I know that I am not guilty of all I am accused of. When I professed to serve God I was honest in all I said and did. Through some influence I became atypical and neglected prayer, and then it was that I was overcome by the power of my past life.

When I heard that I was accused of so many things I was not guilty of my quick temper made me do things that I would not do if I could. I would gladly give up the money, but it's all gone. Much of it was lost.

I will never give myself up to be imprisoned, for the laws of a land will not forgive a man, but God may. This is my only hope now. Sincerely,

OLIVER C. PERRY.

The storm which has raged for 24 hours on the Pacific coast is the severest in years. It is a south-easter, and has brought floods of rain in low lands and very heavy snow in the mountains. The snow in Shasta and Siskiyou counties is 12 feet deep on the forest from the Siskiyou Mountains, near the Oregon line, down to near Mount Shasta.

The Southern Pacific is forced to keep snow-plows going night and day. The Carson Opera Company was delayed 18 hours by a snow slide in Cow Creek Canyon. At Yreka several buildings were crushed in by the weight of snow.

The steamer Whitehall went ashore last night at Little River, but her hull was saved. The wind has been blowing a gale inshore for 24 hours.

Save Your Hair

By a timely use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation has no equal as a dressing. It keeps the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, and preserves the color, fallness, and beauty of the hair.

"I was rapidly becoming bald and gray, but after using two or three bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor my hair grew thick and glossy and the original color was restored."—Walter A. Allen, Omaha, Neb., U.S.A.

"Some time ago I lost all my hair in consequence of illness. After stopping, no new growth appeared. I then used Ayer's Hair Vigor and my hair grew."

Thick and Strong.

It has apparently come to stay. The Vigor is evidently a great aid to nature."—J. B. Williams, Florence, Texas.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the past four or five years and find it a most satisfactory dressing for the hair. It is all I could desire, being harmless, causing the hair to retain its natural color, and requiring but a small quantity to render the hair easy to arrange."—Mrs. M. A. Bailey, 9 Charles Street, Haverhill, Mass.

"I have been using Ayer's Hair Vigor for several years, and believe that it has caused my hair to retain its natural color."—Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., Sold by Druggists and Purveyors.

TO ARREST MRS. OSBORNE

SHE IS NOW CHARGED WITH CRIME

Believed to have fled for the United States. Where her Mother would have been arrested. A Description of the Fugitive.

New York Dec. 31.—A London dispatch says that when the British reached Queens town yesterday, Scotland Yard detectives searched for Mrs. Osborne but failed to find her.

It is thought probable that Mrs. Osborne caught the City of Paris at Queens town last Thursday and is now on her way to the United States. As the report out for her is for obtaining money under false pretences, she would be safe as the charge is not extraditable.

The Liverpool authorities are keeping a sharp lookout at all railway stations and outgoing steamers.

There has been word all over the United Kingdom a description of Mrs. Osborne as follows:

"Mrs. Edith Florence Osborne, wanted on a charge of obtaining a check for £2500 on false pretences; aged 30; height, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches; complexion, fair; hair, dark and thick; shows teeth very much when talking; rather Jewish in appearance; dark eyes; intelligent; is in delicate health; may be accompanied by a lady or gentleman; took with her when she left her lodging, Dec. 22, several lady's trunks, baskets, and very large, covered with black American leather. Cases of clothing and shoes, and a large trunk containing a large quantity of money, should any trace be obtained wire at once to Superintendent McWilliams, city police."

Despite the issuing of this order, the police believe Mrs. Osborne to be in Spain. There is good authority for stating that she left Paris Monday, last, and is now in the hands of the Spanish authorities.

The authorities are trying to get him to withdraw it, his superior fully endorsing his action.

KILLED BY A PATIENT.

SUPT. REEVES, OF THE TEXAS INSANE ASYLUM THE VICTIM.

Every Person Had Frequently Been an Inmate of the Institution and Had Been Discharged a Month Previously as "Cured"—The Killing Was Deliberate and Planned.

ACTON, Texas, Dec. 31.—Dr. W. W. Reeves, Superintendent of the State Asylum for Insane, was shot and instantly killed by Henry Purnell, son of ex-United States Marshal Thomas Purnell. The circumstances surrounding the killing are as follows: Purnell was confined in the asylum for a few months ago.

The murderer has for ten years shown signs of insanity, and more than once during that time he has been confined in the asylum. He was sent there about a year ago, and remained until about a month ago, when he was discharged, "cured." He has conducted himself quietly since, but it is known that he has been making threats to kill certain prominent men who are now in Washington.

This Purnell obtained a double-barrelled shotgun and carefully loaded both barrels with buckshot. He then took an electric car for the insane asylum, reaching there about 10 o'clock. Some photographs were being taken in the yard, getting ready to take a picture of the building and Purnell, knowing that he had a chance to kill, stepped for a moment and chatted pleasantly. He then proceeded to the main entrance of the building, where he met Dr. Reeves coming out. The doctor spoke kindly to him, and was descending the steps when Purnell raised his gun and emptied both barrels into the doctor's body.

Dr. Reeves never spoke, but sank quietly to the ground and expired in a few moments. Purnell took a cab and came back down town and surrendered to the officers.

NIPPED IN THE BUD

Attempts of Wormwood for the Prisoners to Escape.

LONDON, Dec. 31.—It was reported yesterday that a number of prisoners at Wormwood Scrabble had determined to make a break for liberty, and on Saturday last they attempted to put their plans into effect. The moment chosen was during the religious service held daily in the prison. Everything was proceeding as quietly as usual when 20 of the convicts sprang from the benches and made a rush for the main door of the prison. The wardens were not napping, however, and the convicts had hardly started for the door before they were checked with drawn revolvers. They were immediately locked in their cells.

Wormwood Scrabble is a prison for the reception of male criminals, which was established in 1840. It is situated in the fashionable district of Whitechapel, and is one of the largest prisons in the world.

About a couple of years ago the Government began the erection of a prison for the reception of male criminals, which was completed almost entirely by convicts. When it was ready the male occupants of Millbank Penitentiary were removed to it, Millbank being now used exclusively for female prisoners, in lieu of Tothill Fields Prison, recently abolished.

SOMEWHAT INCONSISTENT.

Business Men to Lynch a Thief and Then Execute His Crime.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 30.—Despatches from Baku, on the Caspian Sea, state that a riot occurred there owing to an attempt of the populace to lynch a thief who had been caught in the act of robbing a shop.

The rioters, however, were dispersed by the police.

"Lynchings" are common in the Caucasus, and the city, when Cosaks were called out, who made short work of the rioters, severely punishing several of the rioters.

THE CHICAGO GRAIN BLOCKADE IS AN END.

The Franco-Bulgarian dispute has been settled.

Three trainmen were fatally injured by a wreck on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad near Salem, Ohio, yesterday.

A broken rail on the E.T. V. and G. R.R. near Bristol, Tenn., wrecked a passenger train and 10 passengers were severely wounded.

The leaders of the striking printers in Berlin and Leipzig have intimated to the masters that the men are willing to resume work unconditionally.

Archdeacon J. Pilkington Norris, B.D., who was only appointed on Monday as Dean of Chichester, is dead. He had held the archdeaconry of Bristol since 1881.

Prince Alfred Monte Nuovo, grandson of the Archduchess Marie Louise, once the wife of Napoleon I., died at Vienna yesterday from influenza.

Fifty nihilists suspected of being connected with a conspiracy fanned in Moscow, are on trial in the Warsaw circuit. Among the prisoners are four women.

At the meeting of the American Historical Association at Washington yesterday J. G. Bourne of Ottawa read a paper on "Memorials of the French Regime in Cape Breton."

In the city of Canterbury, England, so many people are ill with influenza that many business establishments have been compelled to close on account of lack of hands.

An epidemic resembling influenza is causing ravages among horses at Normanton, England. In three pits there, 20 horses have died. Work has been stopped in the pits and thousands of men are idle.

DYNAMITE IN DUBLIN.

ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP THE IRISH PRIVATE COUNCIL

Comments of the Dublin Newspapers.

Signs of Gun Cotton Having Been Used Maid to Have Been Discovered.—The Privy Council Discusses the Outrage and a Large Reward Will Be Offered

DUBLIN, Jan. 2.—There is now little doubt that the explosion which wrecked the Finance Office in Dublin Castle yesterday was the deliberate work of some person or persons who desired to do as much damage as possible. Chief Secretary

All the public buildings are guarded by extra watchmen and by extra police. A feeling of increased tension is noticeable in all quarters. No doubt is to be satisfied that the explosion of yesterday is merely the work of a crank or of some isolated member of the Fenian Brotherhood. The entire detective force of this city is searching about Dublin for its subversive elements according to report the force of Scotland Yard detectives who did duty in this country at the time of the London dynamite scare has been sent for. Secret instructions have been telegraphed to the other country, especially to the Belgians. All the rail stations are carefully watched and the troops are held in readiness to turn out at

The first signal of further trouble came on the morning of May 10. Mr. Frederick J. Cullinan, whose personal danger was the greatest, is popular and friendly to the police, and he is not a person capable of personal hostility of any one. Therefore it is not supposed that the "gunpowder plot," as the police call it, was directed against him.

The room is a small one, 5 by 20, is on the ground line, in the centre of the range, and the stout walls, five feet thick, protect the interior wall against any danger from the street. Beneath the office is a vault filled with rubbish, and it is believed that it could be had through a square ventilator.

It is believed that persons who laid the train understood the locality well, and there are signs of the use of gunpowder in several places. It is possible that the plot was not a dynamite one, as the fact that it wrought destruction upward, instead of downward, which is the rule with dynamite.

It is a fact that the constables' office is near the aperture to the vault where the explosion occurred may, it is thought, suggest a motive for the outrage. The scene of the explosion has been visited by all the high Government officials, and by the members of the Privy Council, and the police, however, stand guard only, and refuse to allow the general public.

The Privy Council for Ireland held a meeting to-night. There was an earnest discussion as to the explosion and the necessity of bringing the guilty to justice, but no decision was come to pending the examination by an expert as to the cause. A large reward will probably be offered for the perpetrators.

Fort workmen had left the offices of the Finance Department just 35 minutes before the explosion occurred.

IT DON'T PAY.

Consequently the Dynamic Style of Warfare Has Been Abandoned.

DUBLIN, Jan. 2.—The Express (Independent Conservative), commenting upon yesterday's explosion at Dublin Castle, admits that it is impossible to attribute political motives to the affair. Not long ago, the Express said the explosion would have been a good investment and would have brought dollars from America, but since that time that style of political warfare has

The National Press, the organ of the McCarthyites, says it does not think the explosion can be attributed to an accident. It was undoubtedly the disgraceful and cowardly act of a few traitors, and it would be unjust to hold the Irish people responsible. There is no doubt, the paper says, that the Tories will try to make political capital out of the explosion. "They would be very wise to do so," it adds, "because from the castle windows for the sake of being furnished with an argument against the dynamics of Home Rule to Ireland."

LONDON, Jan. 2.—The Globe, which for more than sixty years supported the Liberal party, but which since 1868 has been a party of the right. It is not surprising that the explosion yesterday at Dublin Castle was undoubtedly of malicious origin. Possibly Ford, Sullivan and company deem it necessary to stimulate the generosity of the American Irish in behalf of the cause. The explosion was the only one of its class, who would not think twice of blowing up Dublin Castle if that appeared to be the most likely means of filling their pockets with dollars.

There is one other point that the authorities should take into all these facts into consideration and should not be in a hurry to attribute the outrage to a lunatic. There are many professional dynamiters in the United States, it says, who

The St. James Gazette, which is an independent supporter of the Conservative party, also has an article this evening on the Dublin explosion. It says that, although there is no doubt that O'Donoghue Rossa will assume the credit of instigating the explosion, it seems unlikely that the affair was the result of a political plot.

A Cure "Almost Miraculous"

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered and to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 4 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well."

"Early in 1881 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Cure,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then have not lost a single day."

on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system. I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines."

they bring to bear upon others events of life; and they think that a party which will practice, countenance and seek to perpetuate robbery at Quebec, will, if it shall ever have the power, practice robbery at Ottawa. And, so far as North Lanark is concerned, it is a pity that the party which is earnestly striving to suppress corruption is better worthy of support than the party which is engaged in a desperate effort to restore corruption to power.

Nor can we doubt that the traitorous course of the Reformers in looking to Washington and in trying to guide their party in that direction has had its effect in swelling Mr. Rosemond's majority. The Canadian people are loyal to their flag and loyal to their country. Thousands continue to support the Reformers because they were born into it, who will leave it just when they become convinced of the real designs of the party leaders. And the Reformers have already begun to make their way among the masses of that people.

A single avowal does not make a sum of $100,000. The North Lanark election is full of encouragement to Conservatives. Hamilton Spectator.

A STOLEN WATCH.

Joseph Hagan, an intelligent, respectable young man, was brought here this morning from Havelock on a charge of stealing a gold watch from Joseph Henshall. The two young men were friends and Henshall, who is a fireman on the C.P.R., boards at the boarding house at Havelock. Hagan had been employed as a "wiper" at Havelock and was a friend of Henshall's. On New Year's night Hagan went to bed and in the morning his watch was gone. Hagan had slept with Henshall a few nights before and suspected him of having returned and taken the watch. Constable Whitton, of Havelock, followed Hagan to Aiton and arrested him. The prisoner admitted taking the timepiece and took the constable to Orangeville where he had traded it. The watch was recovered and the prisoner taken to Havelock, where Mr. Wm. Matheson, J.P., remained him for trial before County Magistrate Edmiston.

This morning Mr. R. E. Wood, County Crown Attorney, appeared for the prosecution and Mr. E. B. Stone for the defence. The evidence of Henshall and the constable was heard and the Magistrate enlarged the case until to-morrow, the prisoner in the meantime to settle all costs of the court and arrest so that this might be taken into consideration when giving sentence. The prisoner's family are highly respected and his conduct has been such as to tend towards a light sentence. He said he was drunk when he took the watch.

Indigestion

It is not only a distressing complaint, but, by causing the blood to become depraved and the system enfeebled, is the parent of innumerable maladies. That Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best cure for Indigestion, even when complicated with Liver Complaint, is proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brooklyn, Conn., U.S.A.:

"Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came on so suddenly that I was unable to do any of my usual work. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food disagreed with me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could get an improvement in my condition. My appetite began to return and with each dose I felt a new strength. I found myself a well man, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."

IN FAMINE—TRICKIN KOURSK.

The terrible trick that the People have to do.

Dr. PETERSON, Jan. 5.—In an interview the proprietor of a small house in the famine-stricken province of Koursk, who is now visiting the capital, told of the misery that prevails in his home. He expressed his grief at the poverty and luxury to be seen here, as being in such violent contrast with the suffering in his own district. He says the people there are reduced to the necessity of burning their door and window frames for fuel and pulling the thatch from the roofs of cottages to use for fuel.

He said that the famine is so severe that the people are reduced to the necessity of burning their door and window frames for fuel and pulling the thatch from the roofs of cottages to use for fuel.

BURIED THE MAN ALIVE

AWFUL AFFAIR REPORTED FROM RUSSIAN POLAND.

A Physician Returns to Consciousness in His Cells and Practically Endeavors to Bury the Coffin Alive, Subsequently Dying of Suffocation.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 5.—Intelligence reached here yesterday of a fearful accident that occurred at Prochivitska, a village in Russian Poland. It appears that a physician who had been practicing at that place, recently became ill, and to all appearance died. The body was prepared for burial and conveyed to the village cemetery, where it was interred.

A few hours after the mourners had departed from the cemetery, some men who were engaged about the ground were startled by hearing a succession of the most unearthly shrieks, which to all appearance came from the newly filled grave. They decided to investigate the matter.

The earth was hastily removed from the grave and the coffin lifted out. Upon opening the coffin it was found that the doctor had been alive when he was buried, but that he had subsequently died from suffocation.

The body gave evidence of the terrible agony endured by the physician when he was buried alive. He had made almost superhuman efforts to burst off the coffin lid, but the weight of earth prevented this, and the police investigators and gendarmes, who were present, were unable to remove the body until his head was terribly bruised. The affair has caused great horror.

KILLED HIS RIVAL.

Editor Flores Picks a Quarrel With Young Raach and Kills Him.

BOGOTA, Colombia, via Panama, Jan. 5.—Bogota society is shocked by the assassination of a national capital's social star. Raach and a friend named Paes were at the Cafe Grandquiere when Flores appeared. After some conversation Flores appeared to be in a bad temper. He then drew a revolver and shot Raach dead, then walked to the police headquarters and gave himself up. An investigation of the case promises to develop several sensational features.

Death of Illness of Many Noted Men.

Buenos Aires, Jan. 4.—The great political economist and writer, Emilio de Lavergne, died to-day at a friend's house at Doyon, near Lago, suddenly from an attack of influenza.

He was well known throughout the civilized world before being called to the chair of political economy at the University of Lago. Cay D. Manzanera, the well-known journalist, attempted to commit suicide at Cannes. He fired six revolver shots in his head during an attack of delirium; but as his servant had taken precaution to draw the balls, M. de Manzanera was not injured. Then with a razor he cut his own throat, inflicting a wound which was not fatal. He is reported to be now much calmer.

ATOBACCO RIOT.

Many Killed by Troops in an Attempt to Suppress a Mob.

TEHERAN, Jan. 4.—A riotous mob assembled at the Shah's palace to demand the satisfaction for the tobacco monopoly. The Shah's son, who is Minister of War, failed to pacify the mob and a detachment of troops was ordered to disperse the rioters. Several persons were killed in the encounter. The feeling of alarm has not yet subsided.

Agricultural Hall Burned.

Almon, Jan. 5.—Fire broke out in the north end of the agricultural hall, which was completely destroyed. The building had been in use as a skating rink. Loss, $2000; insured for $1000.

Indigestion

It is not only a distressing complaint, but, by causing the blood to become depraved and the system acidified, is the parent of innumerable maladies. The Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best cure for indigestion, even when complicated with Liver Complaint, as proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway Centre, Mich.

"Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. With the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Noting that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to my household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

CONTROVERSY REGARDING GLADSTONE'S LEFT FINGER.

Small It appears in this Presentation Port-trait—Canada and England—that the Chronicle Says Regarding discrepancy.

General foreign news.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The controversy is revived regarding Mr. Gladstone's left finger in the portrait of him by Mr. John C.

Forbes, the Canadian artist, shortly to be presented to the National Liberal Club.

Mr. James Keith writes to The Pall

Mail (Glasgow):

"Not one person in a hundred who knows

Mr. Gladstone by sight, not one person in a hundred thousand of the general public knows that when quite a young man Mr.

Gladstone lost the fore-finger of his left hand by an accident. Mr. Forbes, by advice, no doubt, has painted this finger in the original portrait intended for the National Liberal Club, because this picture is to be reproduced for photogravers.

Before presentation, however, Mr. Forbes is quite willing to paint out the said finger and substitute the little black left finger glove, should it be shown to him that the majority of the members of the club desired that he do so, but only on this condition.

Mr. Forbes has only followed the example set him by all the other artists and sculptors who have already created representa-

The Famine in Russia.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—A correspondent making a tour of the famine districts of Toula, writes: The wretched landowners keep away from their estates leaving the entire burden of helping the starving peasantry upon the paper gentry who are little better off than the starving.

Less than 100,000 have been prepared of the stores of each family show many instances where a peasant with six children has only 180
poods of grain to last through the winter.
There is a general fear that the famine will recur, leaving Russia in a state of national bankruptcy.

In the meantime aid from the Zemstvo is visionary. The chief reliance is placed in the Red Cross Society. At the first meeting of the local branch of the society it was disclosed that only the sum of £110 had been subscribed for a district having 83,000 population verging on starvation.
Many million roubles have gone into the coffers of the central committee of the society in St. Petersburg and Moscow and nobody knows how the money has been expended.

The Queen's Pipe Cure.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Another one of the relics of the past—the custom of years—has been done away with, and the last week of the old year saw it fall into innocent destitude. This was the Queen's pipe, a system of fumigation which went by that name, and which have been used for many years to burn up all the tobacco seized by the Custom House authorities which was not subsequently released by the payment of the necessary duties within six months after the seizure. It will now go to the inmates of almshouses and prisons.

Caught on the Fly.

BERLIN, Jan. 6.—Dr. Pfeiffer, son-in-law of Prof. Koch, has discovered the influenza bacillus and has transplanted it in six cases with complete success. He has also discovered the original cause of infection. The bacillus of influenza is the smallest bacillus yet discovered.

Another doctor of Berlin an assistant in the city hospital discovered the microbe of influenza almost simultaneously with Dr.
Pfeiffer. The latter discovered the germ in the sputum while the former found it in the blood. This micro-organism strongly resembles the common inflammatory virus with atrophic progress. Both doctors have reached it artificially and have inoculated animals with the pure culture.

France Will Come to Terms.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The statement that the Hungarian Government has politely declined to rescind the decree excluding the French journalist, Chadoine, from Bulgaria is confirmed. The Standard's Paris correspondent says: "It is officially declared that M. Ribot, the French foreign minister, has sent a note informing Bulgaria. There is reason to believe the matter will be arranged amicably."

Surviving Germanes.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The Berlin correspondent of The News says: The pastors of a number of German churches in Russia have appealed direct to the German consulates in St. Petersburg for assistance to prevent thousands of Germans from starving. Several Germans have been killed and their houses burned.

Arrested for Manslaughter.

TORONTO, Jan. 6.—Barbara Melborough was last night found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to a year in prison by a coroner's jury. Her child was suffering from diphtheria. The health officers called to remove it to the hospital. The sister of the prison told the inspector that Mrs. Melborough and child had left the house. About a week afterwards the child died and the mother is now under arrest charged with being the cause of its death through criminal negligence. Her brother, Colman Mc-Donough, in giving his evidence before the jury swore that the child's name was Greek, that he was his father and that his name was John Grek. He, too, was promptly placed under arrest on a charge of perjury.

Shot in a Lumber Camp.

TORONTO, Jan. 6.—Alexander Beatty, aged 20, whilst working in the Frank's Bay lumber camp for J. R. Smith & Sons of Strachan-avenue, Toronto, was accidentally shot in the calf of the leg by a companion. The bullet went through the leg. The sufferer had to go 20 miles over water and 15 by land before a doctor could be reached and his leg dressed. He was yesterday brought to the Toronto General Hospital.

Fool Play Suspected.

TORONTO, Jan. 6.—William Hickerson was admitted last month to the Toronto General Hospital, suffering from what was thought to be pleurisy. On close examination a fracture of a rib was discovered. He had been carrying with some companions and could not explain the circumstances of his injury. He died last night. Coroner Johnson will hold an inquest.

TORONTO, Jan. 6.—Thomas Holland, a youth employed by Mr. Wood of Prospect Park, suicided yesterday by taking a quantity of Paris green. After it was discovered that he had taken the poison a physician was summoned but too late to do any good and the young fellow died in terrible agony. Deceased was weak minded.

Distressing Itching Skin Disease
Cured in One Month by the

When our boy was six weeks old he had a tried it. I used them fully, and to our great Pat's Great Wonder.

We are surrounded by the great all the way from the cradle to the grave. "The great wonder is," as Pat says, "that after getting out of the cradle, we live long enough to reach our grave." Thousands are out of health—morose, morbid and miserable, because they do not avail themselves of the remedy within easy reach of them. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery would cure them.

For all chronic or lingering Coughs, Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Shortness of Breath, Asthma and Astoroid ailments, it is the most potent remedy. It cleanses the blood, restores the liver, improves digestion, and builds up both flesh and strength. Dose small and pleasant. Large bottles, one dollar. Of all druggists.

THE BEARING SEA.

Lord Salisbury has been playing a waiting game.
New York, Jan. 7.—A Washington despatch to The Tribune says: When on Oct. 10 Attorney-General Miller made the announcement before the Supreme Court of the United States that a basis for arbitrating the Bearing Sea difficulty had been reached, he was saying what, of course, was at the time strictly true. An agreement that the dispute should be referred to the arbitration of the United States and Great Britain, which the arbitrators were to be selected and their number. This, it was confidently believed, would present no serious difficulty. In both sides of the Atlantic gratification was expressed at the prospect of a speedy termination of the present difficulty, but that Attorney-General Miller's announcement in the course of his argument in the Bearing case no longer holds good. The agreement he spoke of was not a formal one, it was not in the nature of a regularly signed treaty. It was simply a series of propositions agreed upon by Secretary Blaine and Sir Julian Pauncefote, reduced to writing, which had received the sanction on the one hand of President Harrison and on the other of Lord Salisbury.

All this has now been upset by demands on the part of Lord Salisbury for a further modification of the agreement reached in November. Precisely what the nature of these demands is it is impossible to ascertain. That they are touching minor points, however, not heretofore raised by him, seems pretty certain. To that extent they appear trifling and inessential, rather than based upon sound premises. Indeed they suggest in an unpleasant manner the policy of delay which has characterized Lord Salisbury's conduct throughout these negotiations, and that if it was not intended as such must undoubtedly result in serious loss, financially and otherwise, to the United States. But for the reasons in the person at which the medley rived was agreed upon, it would have been impossible for the Canadian plenipotentiary to make the treaty which he did last year. In this respect Lord Salisbury was playing distinctly into the hands of the expense, of course, of the United States. His present attitude seems to have no object in view. The sealing season opens in May next. By that time the outlay of the year will have been completed and they will be ready to sail for Lord Salisbury with his frivolous manner, in able to delay until then the formal signing of a treaty and its ratification by the Senate. He will have gone far toward inflicting a telling blow upon what was once a prosperous American industry and a source of no inconsiderable revenue to the Government. There is much complaint, and complaints well founded, because of the limited number of seals conferred by Lord Salisbury upon Sir Julian Pauncefote in the negotiations in these matters. Lord Salisbury insists upon having every detail submitted to him. This, in itself, is a cause of delay. It furnishes at least a pretext for postponement. It has done so in the past; it will continue to do so in the future. There is good reason, however, for believing that the patience of this Government is exhausted. It would be remiss, perhaps, to say anything definite at the present time, but meanwhile nothing will be wanting when required to compel a more prompt consideration of the question at issue on the part of Lord Salisbury.

HAMILTON'S BIG BLAZE.

THE MAMMOTH WANNER FACTORY REDUCED TO ASHES.

One of the Finest and Most Destructive Conflagrations the Ambitious City Has Witnessed for Years—The Total Loss Will Exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

HAMILTON, Jan. 7.—The fiercest and most destructive conflagration which has visited this city for a number of years broke out about 3.15 this evening in the Wanner Sewing Machine Company's premises in Barton street. The building was a two-story brick structure, and extended along Barton street for a full block, between Mary and Elgin streets, with two-story addition facing on Elgin street. In the building was a quantity of valuable machinery, also oils, unfinished machines and a large quantity of lumber. The premises have been unoccupied for some months since. Mr. Wanner became financially embarrassed and the property passed into possession of the Toronto Permanent Loan and Mortgage Company, which held a mortgage for $140,000. The fire originated in the adjoining room, at the second story of the southeast corner of the building. The fire spread rapidly, and when the firemen arrived the whole top of the building facing on Barton street and extending for over 300 feet was in flames.

The entire department was soon at work. It was the rest of the Wanner factory and facing on Mary street is the Hamilton Cotton Co.'s mills and in the immediate vicinity are the F. W. How & Son's hub and spoke manufactory, Jacob Zingheim's cabinet factory and the county jail. These were all saved, but the Wanner building, with its valuable machinery, etc., was destroyed. In the county jail, which is directly opposite the Wanner building, the anxious faces of the prisoners within could be seen peering through the barred windows. The fire burned with terrible fury among the old woodwork and machinery of the Wanner premises until it had exhausted its resources, and it was nearly 8 o'clock in the evening before it was within the control of the fire department.

All the upper story of the main building facing on Barton street, as well as a portion of the ground flat, was destroyed. A portion of that part of the factory fronting on Elgin street, in which was stored a quantity of lumber and other material was saved. The building plant is insured for a large amount. The total loss will probably reach $100,000.

REGINA, Assn., Jan. 7.—The Leader (Mr. Dewey's paper) is out with a hot shot at Dewey. It commences the publication of a history of the selection of the Regina town site and Dewey's specialism in connection therewith, and says it has further particulars and letters, which will be published. The Leader says: "While the line of the C.P.R. was under the control of Mr. Rose, and there was some chance of it passing through Fort Qu'Appelle, Mr. Dewey hovered around there, and in the name of the Indian Department set up a notice that certain property which really belonged to a private person was an Indian reserve. The moment, however, he saw how the line would go, the course of himself and his brotherhooders was plain. The line was laid out past Regina on the present route early in the summer of 1882 and Dewey came up here accompanied by his groom, Robert Green, and fired on the site for the capital, a mile west from the present station, and centering on section 26. The pile of bones, as it was called, now the Wascana, ran through it. He got Robert Green to squat on a half section which would border the town, but which proved to be actually within the town as laid out. Dewey's face itself better reads as follows: It is addressed to his groom at his own house."

What is Reflex?

The Melissa Manufacturing Co. have received many letters from all parts of the Dominion, asking if they intend manufacturing MELISSA CLOAKS for LADIES, or if Melissa Cloth can be procured for that purpose.

In answer to these inquiries, they desire to say that, although not ready to manufacture Ladies' Garments, they have decided to sell the Melissa Goods by the piece and are now preparing a choice range of patterns, which will be offered to the trade in January, 1892.

Melissa Cloth is admirably adapted for women's wear, as it can be made in any weight desired, and in an infinite variety of patterns and shades. Women will no longer have to put up with the disagreeable odors, discomfort and danger of wearing the old, air-tight, rubber waterproof.

The TRADE MARK which will be stamped upon every piece of Melissa Goods is an absolute guarantee not only that the Cloth is Rain-proof, Porous and Odorless, but that it is PERFECTLY PURE and FREE FROM ALL DELETERIOUS SUBSTANCES, neither SUGAR or LEAD nor any other poisonous ingredient is used in its manufacture, and ladies can wear garments made of the cloth with a sense of perfect security that both health and comfort will be assured.

LAKEFIELD LOCALS.

An interesting Budget From Our Northern Suburb.

Correspondence of the Review.
SCHOOLS.—The schools re-opened for the term on Monday. There are two new teachers this year, Miss Kerr in the primary department of the high school and Miss Madden as teacher in the ward school.

COUNCIL.—Our village council meets next Monday night.

R. T. or F.—The Royal Templars will meet in their hall on Monday evening for the installation of officers.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.—A meeting of the Farmers' Institute will be held here next Monday in the town hall at which several interesting speakers will address the meeting. Commencing at 10 o'clock.

MASONIC COUNCIL.—Some persons in last week's Chronicle drew the attention of the public to the fact that the members of our Village Council are all members of the Masonic body and that they will be run very much on Masonic lines. On the strength of that letter it is rumored that several young men are about to ask the council for a grant to permit them to join the Masonic body, that the society is about to ask for a house to erect a Masonic temple, that no person will receive an appointment as collector, assessor, roadmaster, auditor, treasurer, etc., unless he is a Mason or about to become one.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Horace and children, of Medicine Hat, are here on a visit.

REMODELING SCHOOL.—The Sheldrake school will reopen for the second term Monday.

SKATING RINK.—The skating rink is now open with first class ice for both skaters and curlers. It will be run under the management of the Curling Club, with Mr. Geo. Frohman as caretaker. If the frost holds out George will keep the ice in 1st order.

FOREMANS.—The Foresters will meet on Thursday evening 14th.

E. CHAMBERLAIN & SON are selling 27 lbs. good brown sugar for $1.00, other groceries equally cheap. Have you tried their tea? Do you know Messrs. Stone and Brown, who were shot at doing as well as could be expected.

A YACHT.—A vacant spot the last two nights in the police cells.

R. O. K.—A number of Peterborough friends paid a visit to Rector Lodge, R. O. K., on Tuesday night.

L. O. L.—Mr. L. O. L., District Lodge Manager, and Mr. Edward Sanderson, of North, paid a fraternal visit to Rectorford L. O. L. on Monday night.

YACHTING.—Mr. John Myers, of Dakota, is over making a visit.

ICE.—The skating and curling rink was flooded on Monday evening by the fire engine, permission being given by the Revere.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.
Dr. Elias Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache and is the best Spring Medicine. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50¢ and $1 a package.

YOUNG'S POINT.

Alleged Illegal Beer Drinking.—A New Bee Hunter.

Correspondence of the Review.
DEER HUNTING.—Your correspondent was informed last Saturday that four or five parties belonging to the township of Harvey, near Burleigh, are out deer hunting. They ought to be nabbed and made an example of to deter others from doing likewise. There has been a good deal of this kind of work done since the season ended for hunting deer.

NEW SCHOOL MASTER.—The scholars of this school section will be taught their lessons by a Mr. Connolly, for this year, 1891. He comes recommended as a good teacher. PARTRIDGE HURDING.—The season for hunting partridge is at an end. They were very plentiful but the prices were low owing to the mild weather.

Burr foundation cannot be laid than the real merit which is the solid base for the monumental success of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

SEALERS GETTING READY.
The fishermen will take more fish this season.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—There is considerable activity among the sealers and many of them are preparing for the season's work. Most of the fleet is out at Victoria, B.C., and fully 20 vessels will leave that place at once. Besides the fleet now on the coast it is learned that 15 others will be brought out from the east to engage in the catching of seals; in fact, some of them are on the way now. It is said the men will take far greater care this season than they did before and the war ships will have their work cut out to prevent the landing of the seal islands.

Killed by a Tree.
Bismarck, Oct. 1, Jan. 8.—A boy of West Winchester was struck by a tree which he was chopping near Rosseau and instantly killed.

At this season of the year the effects of catarrh and cold in the head most likely to be felt, and danger to life and health will result, if not promptly treated. For this purpose there is no remedy equal Nasal Balm. It is prompt in giving relief and never fails to cure. Beware of imitations and substitutes. Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a bottle.

DONNELLY'S TART TONGUE.

The Bismarck Advocate Scores the Newspapers Before the Alliance.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 8.—The convention of the Farmers' Alliance of Minnesota opened in Minneapolis yesterday. The only feature of interest in the forenoon session was the annual report of Ignatius Donnelly, president, in which he made an unmerciful attack upon the newspapers.

Among other things he said: The lying capacity of the newspapers of America is the most colossal exhibition of mendacity known in the world since the Almighty tumbled Lucifer over the battlements of heaven. It is stupendous; it is limitless; it takes away the breath of simple virtue and bewilders honest truth into a paralysis; it threatens all our conceptions of criminal right and forbids the destruction of civilization. It is a new and terrible force in society of which antiquity knew nothing. Whatever is necessary to be done to insure the prosperity of the people, the government must do it, as the government and the people are convertible terms, we can state the proposition thus: Whatever the people are convinced is essential to their prosperity that the people must have. If it be not true that the converse of the proposition must be true—to wit: that whatever the hostile influences which prey upon the people find to be necessary for their continuance of plunder that the government (to wit: the people) must concede their robbers.

At the afternoon session, the election of president took place. In the proceedings the latent hostility to Donnelly in the organization cropped out. Donnelly was finally re-elected, receiving 472 votes, against 49 for C. W. Brandenburg of Ferguson Falls and 29 votes divided among four other candidates. The Sage made a speech of thanks and promised not to seek this office again.

We won't bother you with a sermon on buying just at this season. It's enough for us to know that you know where you can get the values.

Fair dealing makes fast friends. We have had ample proof of this, and we hold a trade that few city houses can boast of. A stock of proper garments at proper prices.

At this season of good cheer Canadians have much to be thankful for—the peace that has prevailed in our Dominion for years as well as during the past twelve months, the plentiful harvest that has been reaped, and the many blessings that have fallen to the share of this country. These will be remembered, along with the especial reasons for rejoicing on Christmas day.

While the Christmas season is on it is well to remember a judicious economy. This cannot be better practiced than in your buying. A point is to get value. LOWEN, Jan. 9.—Mr. Gladstone has written from Biarritz a letter in modest criticism of the Bible. He states that he is not an expert in Biblical criticism and he does not wish to give his own subjective judgment on what is termed historic criticism. Looking at the time and method of the destructive side of this controversy he writes:

"I am certainly inspired with mingled feelings regarding the critics, though I may easily be observed that minglings are less rare than they are credited to be. I am inclined to advise bias from protected observations of the controversial parallel on the poems of Homer. At that instance, after long hesitations, I have decided to write a poem to entertain a mean opinion of negative scepticism. My life has also embraced for periods a history of able and destructive criticism and I am inclined to write a history. Many now consider that the work of Sir George Lewis has, in turn, destroyed the criticism."

We should reserve our judgment, even if yielding provisional assent, until we know the spiritualists have exhausted all their arguments. We have the opportunity to compare their results with the wider considerations belonging to the fields of history, philosophy and science at large."

BOND ROBBERY CLEARED UP.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The $20,000 bond robbery which finally cleared up the mysterious delay when Frederick Pemberton Peach, a financial agent, was arranged

Yard, was put on the case. He went to Reuland and spotted four men.¹

One of them, a man named Powell, who afterward was found crawling about in the streets, confessed to having been employed to dispose of the bodies. It was found that he had been trying to swallow a cloak-rosette of the Victoria Station in London.

The second man was a Chinese called Charming Cross street; another of the men had a pass key, which opened all the entrances to the Channel street packets. These frequent visits to the Channel street packets were by which the Channel packets had frequently been robbed of large amounts.

All the bonds were recovered in Vietnam and the two men were arrested. The first man, Capt Peach, who attempted to sell a portion of the bonds in the city.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." ED. J. JONES, Mt. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out
"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BROOKS, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

A Pleasant Herb Drink—Aspergine Medicine
The druggists tell us that the people call daily for the new cure for colds, coughs and croup. It is said to be a great remedy in the far west for those complaints combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It sells at 50c and 5c a package and is called Lane's Family Medicine.

THE MARKET FOR HORSES.

ITS FLUCTUATIONS AND THE INFLUENCE THAT AFFECTED IT.

The Cause of Horses to Raise—These Subject Discussed by Prof. Grosvenor—Small Leagues on the Farm—To Make Farming Pay—Corn and Easting—Fragrant that Druggists.

The second meeting under the auspices of the East Riding Farmers' Institute was held at Keene on Thursday. The attendance in the morning was fair. President Birdall occupied the chair.

MR. LINFIELD was the first speaker and dealt with "Small Leagues on the Farm." He pointed out that in farming, as in other businesses, it was with small things that the most profit was made. As he called the minutes, several small things were used in plant growth and especially by trees and should be used on the farm as a fertilizer and not sold. It was well to throw bones in the ash barrel, putting ash over each layer of bones and keeping it damp. This fertilizer was made of bones and was a compost. Referring to barnyard manure he pointed out the value of the liquid manure which could be preserved and used. The manure should be neatly piled under the drainage was towards it and not from it. In order to prevent a waste of the manure value he would draw it out on the field as soon as it was made, especially on level fields. By drawing it out in the winter they got better results, and besides, they had more time to do it. It was a mistake made in clearing off the wood and not replacing it. This was having an effect on the climate and the growth of trees augmented the spring frosts and caused a rapid loss of moisture, and on almost every farm there were places where trees could be planted with advantage. Vegetable gardens were often neglected, yet they could be easily attended to and were profitable.

In answer to a question Mr. Birdall said in applying ashes to fruit trees it should be spread on the ground around the tree as far as the roots extended. There was no better fertilizer for all fruit trees than ashes, yet sometimes to keep up the strength of the tree, a more nutritious fertilizer, such as farm yard manure, might be used.

Referring to an enquiry, Mr. Linfield said the Norway spruce was a wind break. The maple was a valuable tree. The trees that made good timber and grew fast were the proper trees to plant. Mr. Birdall said the Norway spruce was an imported tree, although there was a native white spruce very much like it. The Norway spruce was a rapid grower, and he thought preferable for planting to the native spruce. An evergreen tree should not be planted where it would receive the drip of a deciduous tree.

The President said that, although trees took up a small part of the ground, he was certain that he got much better crops by having the trees.

Mr. Birdall said that much depended on circumstances. He found trees of use and had to cut down many, which were scattered over the farm.

Mr. Birdall said he was glad to hear the President's remarks. He thought farmers often made a great mistake by cutting down trees, but of course they must exercise common sense in this as in other matters.

Mr. Birdall said that a row of trees around a small field might be injurious, but large trees around a large field were a valuable protection.

Mr. Birdall said that evergreens should not be planted too close to each other. He thought the spring would be the best time to plant here.

Mr. J. M. Dumas pointed out that the spruce would meet to be well rooted and carefully protected, as they were very sensitive to sunlight and exposure.

Dr. HARRIS said that the evergreen trees were of great value and gave off more moisture, and the air made by their presence more wholesome. Maple, according to the observation, was short lived, and was better.

After further discussion an adjournment was made for dinner.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
In the afternoon P. Birdall took the chair at 2 o'clock and there was a good attendance.

HOW TO MAKE FARMING PAY.
Mr. J. LANCHESTER read an excellent paper on "How to Make Farming Pay." They should not, he said, try to work too much land, for if they did they would get a less return for their labor and injure their land by allowing weeds to grow. So it was better to keep fewer cattle and take good care of them. They sometimes made mistakes by raising too many; they should always consider the crop that would suit the land and the market. They should grow all kinds of grain that would suit their farms and keep a few good animals of all classes. They should not waste time or money, and should attend farmers' meetings, especially the Institute, and try to make their interest profitable. They had reason to be proud of their calling and their motto should be "Onward and upward in farming."

ONTARIO HORSES AND HORSE MARKETS.
Prof. GROSVENOR took up the subject of "Horses and Horse Markets." As Mr. Linfield had remarked at N. Wood, they should study the requirements of the market. This was not as inspiring a subject now as it was a few years ago, when horses were booming. The boom in heavy horses a few years ago was caused by a change of ideas in the United States cities, which led them to look for heavy horses for their draught work, and the settlement of the Canadian Northwest also increased the demand. The demand in these two quarters had fallen off. The Northwest was raising horses, and the Western States had gone into breeding horses to a very large extent and had pretty well glutted their own market. Some people attributed the fall in price to the McKinley bill. He thought it had had some influence, but not as much as some people imagined, because on such an extent as to very much decrease the price in their own market. Horses had declined 40 per cent. in price in Buffalo, the great horse market. In the past four or five years. The Canadian horse had a good reputation there and brought a little higher price than western horses. Before the McKinley bill came into force the demand and price were decreasing in the States. At any rate with the large supply and the tariff they would not have a market in the States for ordinary horses and they had lost the Northwest market. What foreign market, then, had they? The Old Country market was of use if the price of the class required. At a profitable price, high class heavy horses that would weigh from 1600 to 1700 pounds. For such horses a dealer could pay from $100 to $150. They had a large number of horses in this country for which there was no market. The cause of that had really been carelessness in breeding, brought about by the unusual demand that had existed in the future they should only breed from the best and soundest material. A high class that would make good breeders and for a good class of horses, the would get a profitable return. It cost on the average $75 to raise a horse. They should raise horses that they could use at the same time they would be marketable, and should sell them when they were at their highest value. A good big horse of any class was better than a good little one, but was harder to raise. On the whole, heavy class than of the lighter, due to the better service in the heavy class. A very large majority of our light horses were crabs. They were lacking in quality. The majority and the majority in action. He did not think they could raise the quality of their light horses quicker than by introducing more thoroughbred blood. The thoroughbred was a very pure breed, and was a modification of the early war bred horses. He did not advocate breeding for speed, for it was too precarious a business for the average farmer, but what they should breed was what might be called a general utility horse. It was not for speed but for economy and the thoroughbred, but for quality, which was absence of coarseness. Quality was shown in a clean cut head and neck, a fine skin with an absence of blemishes and silky hair, and a fine closely knit texture in the coat. The required light horses with breeding or quality. He did not wish to go to extremes, he was commending the thoroughbred. Thoroughbred of itself was not exactly what they wanted, for when pure, being highly organized, it was often too high strung for ordinary work, but they wanted more thoroughbred blood. Horse breeders were an instinctive breeders, but the expert certainty was secured by breeding from the best. Breeding with thoroughbred blood was wanted the breed with more of substance. There was a demand at home, in the States and in England for a good carriage horse. Carriage horses should have good action in front and good stock in the hind legs. Thoroughbred horses had not high action as a rule, but horses bred from them had when bred to mares with action. For roadsters they could generate good as good a class from thoroughbred as from trotters, if not better. For saddle horses there was very good demand, also bred from the thoroughbred. The farmer, therefore, in breeding from thoroughbred had three strings to his bow—the carriage horse, roadster and saddle horse. By using Thoroughbred stock of size and substance, and good mares they would breed horses that would be of use on the farm. He said that could be used until of proper age to sell. He thought it was better for farmers to have two classes of horses, a heavy class and a light class. It was a difficult matter to get a good class, but in England it was hard to get a good class horse. But the best results in breeding from a coach were obtained when there was a thoroughbred foundation. Hackneys were booming now. It was a short-legged, stoutly built horse with good action. But to import a Hackney would cost more than the market would justify, and in England it was recognized that they should be bred to mares with a good deal of thoroughbred in them. Some trotters with good straight trotting action and good looks, would produce good roadsters, carriage horses and general purpose horses. He said it was best to breed from mares with blood in them. Thoroughbred horses for the purpose of breeding with stock of a rule and a good one could sometimes be got for $50. He had given his opinion plainly and if he was not right he would like to hear some other times as to what other way their horses could be more rapidly improved.

In answer to a question he said a saddle horse should walk, trot and canter well and have easy movement. The color was not particularly matter, unless it was cream or piebald. It should be from 15 to 16 hands, with a certain amount of substance with a good long neck and standing shoulders, not too thick through the shoulder, and not too long or weak a back. A few years ago people laughed at raising heavy horses, but now they were raised to get $100 to $200 now for young unbroken "cavalry" horses. There was a demand even for the home market, for the increasing supply. For cavalry horses they should breed the same as for saddle horses, and with good blood they brought a better price.

CORN AND THE SILE.
Mr. LINFIELD next gave an address on "Corn and the Sile." The soil should be in good condition and well prepared, and the

It should be from 15 to 16 hands, with a certain amount of substance with a good long neck and standing shoulders, not too thick through the shoulder, and not too long or weak a back. A few years ago people laughed at raising heavy horses, but now they were raised to get $100 to $200 now for young unbroken "cavalry" horses. There was a demand even for the home market, for the increasing supply. For cavalry horses they should breed the same as for saddle horses, and with good blood they brought a better price.

CORN AND THE SILE.
Mr. LINFIELD next gave an address on "Corn and the Sile." The soil should be in good condition and well prepared, and the subject now as it was a few years ago, when horses were booming. The boom in heavy horses a few years ago was caused by a change of ideas in the United States cities, which led them to look for heavy horses for their draught work, and the settlement of the Canadian Northwest also increased the demand. The demand in these two quarters had fallen off. The Northwest was raising horses, and the Western States had gone into breeding horses to a very large extent and had pretty well glutted their own market. Some people attributed the fall in price to the McKinley bill. He thought it had had some influence, but not as much as some people imagined, because on such an extent as to very much decrease the price in their own market. Horses had declined 40 per cent. in price in Buffalo, the great horse market. In the past four or five years. The Canadian horse had a good reputation there and brought a little higher price than western horses. Before the McKinley bill came into force the demand and price were decreasing in the States. At any rate with the large supply and the tariff they would not have a market in the States for ordinary horses and they had lost the Northwest market. What foreign market, then, had they? The Old Country market was of use if the price of the class required. At a profitable price, high class heavy horses that would weigh from 1600 to 1700 pounds. For such horses a dealer could pay from $100 to $150. They had a large number of horses in this country for which there was no market. The cause of that had really been carelessness in breeding, brought about by the unusual demand that had existed in the future they should only breed from the best and soundest material. A high class that would make good breeders and for a good class of horses, the would get a profitable return. It cost on the average $75 to raise a horse. They should raise horses that they could use at the same time they would be marketable, and should sell them when they were at their highest value. A good big horse of any class was better than a good little one, but was harder to raise. On the whole, heavy class than of the lighter, due to the better service in the heavy class. A very large majority of our light horses were crabs. They were lacking in quality. The majority and the majority in action. He did not think they could raise the quality of their light horses quicker than by introducing more thoroughbred blood. The thoroughbred was a very pure breed, and was a modification of the early war bred horses. He did not advocate breeding for speed, for it was too precarious a business for the average farmer, but what they should breed was what might be called a general utility horse. It was not for speed but for economy and the thoroughbred, but for quality, which was absence of coarseness. Quality was shown in a clean cut head and neck, a fine skin with an absence of blemishes and silky hair, and a fine closely knit texture in the coat. The required light horses with breeding or quality. He did not wish to go to extremes, he was commending the thoroughbred. Thoroughbred of itself was not exactly what they wanted, for when pure, being highly organized, it was often too high strung for ordinary work, but they wanted more thoroughbred blood. Horse breeders were an instinctive breeders, but the expert certainty was secured by breeding from the best. Breeding with thoroughbred blood was wanted the breed with more of substance. There was a demand at home, in the States and in England for a good carriage horse. Carriage horses should have good action in front and good stock in the hind legs. Thoroughbred horses had not high action as a rule, but horses bred from them had when bred to mares with action. For roadsters they could generate good as good a class from thoroughbred as from trotters, if not better. For saddle horses there was very good demand, also bred from the thoroughbred. The farmer, therefore, in breeding from thoroughbred had three strings to his bow—the carriage horse, roadster and saddle horse. By using Thoroughbred stock of size and substance, and good mares they would breed horses that would be of use on the farm. He said that could be used until of proper age to sell. He thought it was better for farmers to have two classes of horses, a heavy class and a light class. It was a difficult matter to get a good class, but in England it was hard to get a good class horse. But the best results in breeding from a coach were obtained when there was a thoroughbred foundation. Hackneys were booming now. It was a short-legged, stoutly built horse with good action. But to import a Hackney would cost more than the market would justify, and in England it was recognized that they should be bred to mares with a good deal of thoroughbred in them. Some trotters with good straight trotting action and good looks, would produce good roadsters, carriage horses and general purpose horses. He said it was best to breed from mares with blood in them. Thoroughbred horses for the purpose of breeding with stock of a rule and a good one could sometimes be got for $50. He had given his opinion plainly and if he was not right he would like to hear some other times as to what other way their horses could be more rapidly improved.

In answer to a question he said a saddle horse should walk, trot and canter well and have easy movement. The color was not particularly matter, unless it was cream or piebald. It should be from 15 to 16 hands, with a certain amount of substance with a good long neck and standing shoulders, not too thick through the shoulder, and not too long or weak a back. CHURCHES ON SUNDAY.

SPECIAL SERVICES AND SERMONS OF A DAY.

The Sunday School Anniversary at the George-st. Church—Services by Rev. Hugh Johnston—Rev. Mr. Mickle opens his Evangelistic Services—The Opening of the Evangelistic Series—The Christian as an Ambassador.

Yesterday the special services which will mark another anniversary in the history of the Sunday school of the George-st. Methodist church were commenced. At the morning and evening services special sermons were delivered by Rev. Hugh Johnston, of Toronto, and in the afternoon a special children's service was held in the church.

There was a good congregation present at the morning service. Rev. Dr. Johnston had been ill for several days but had made a special effort to fulfill his Peterborough engagement. That he had not yet regained his wonted vigor was manifested in his delivery, although his discourses were both comprehensive and interesting. Rev. Mr. Locke assisted him in the exercises.

Rev. Dr. Johnston's morning sermon was made directly applicable to the anniversary occasion. His text was the words:—"Gather the people together, men and women and children, and strangers that are within thy gates that they may hear and that they may learn and fear the Lord your God, as long as ye live in the land, whether ye go over Jordan to possess it."—Deut. xxi-12.

The preacher referred to the symbolic teaching of the text of the permanent work of the church, to do which work there were agencies, foremost among which was the Sunday school. Some looked upon this work with indifference because there was no written command, but it was a duty. First there was the work before the church, the moral and religious instruction of the young that they may bear and learn and fear the Lord their God. Education was one of the great questions always commanding the attention of the evangelist and the statesman. It was of two kinds, secular and religious. It was the duty of the church to diffuse a holy, sanctifying knowledge of the Word, in which was not only a system of knowledge but salvation. In the second place the preacher spoke of the gathering place and first spoke of the home, the family. Parents had a peculiar responsibility for the religious education of their children. They exercised the strongest and most continued influence over their children. He believed much of the evil and misery of the world was the result of neglect in childhood.

He did not think the Sunday school could supplant the home, if it would be would drop the Sunday school, for he believed the mightiest influence for piety and Christianity was found in the work of the Christian home. Home piety was the very foundation of national stability and the source of the nation's greatness. The next gathering place was the sanctuary. The pulpit was the greatest source of instruction. Thousands and thousands owed their mental stimulus more to the house of God than to any other agency. The pulpit was also the source of the nation's greatness. notes related in a happy style. He is also a good singer and at his service yesterday sang evangelistic hymns. He is fired by an earnest enthusiasm in his good work which will undoubtedly kindle a like fire in others before the services have been in progress many days.

"At the morning service he preached a sermon based on the words:—"And that knowing the time, that now it is high time, to awake out of sleep, for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed."—Romans xiii-11.

His opening words were notes of warning to those asleep in spiritual matters to awaken to activity. During his discourse he sang a solo.

THE EVENING SERVICE. In the evening there was a congregation present that filled the church. The service was enhanced by an excellent anthem by the choir. Before beginning his address the evangelist solicited the earnest support of the people of St. Andrew's congregation, asking them to give up ordinary legitimate things in order to assist in the service during the opening week. He then sang a touching evangelistic hymn and announced as his text the words:—"Now then we are ambassadors for Christ."—II Cor. v-20.

The evangelist at once, without any introduction, took up his text. They were ambassadors. An ambassador held an important position. He was a representative of a people, and often times a nation was judged by his ambassador. Many people did not go to church but they were watching the professing Christians and he had heard many say "that's a Christian isn't it?" His religion was not in his opinion. "It was a serious thing to be a Christian. They were being watched and people who never went to church were judging from them. There were no letters in the Bible addressed to sinners, but God wrote to sinners and said 'ye are my people.' Ministers could not sin and talk of Christians being made holy, but some would say 'where are your samples?' 'If you want to do,' said the evangelist, 'if you are not going to live a little better give up your profession and leave the church. Live up to it or else it is up, for if you do not live up to it you are a stumbling block.' It was a serious thing to be an ambassador for Christ. What impression, he asked, were they making on their families, or their servants and fellow workers in the second place he asked an ambassador had a message. Had they a MESSAGE FOR CHRIST? He was glad to say they had found in Luke 'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he has sent me to be baptized in the name of the Lord, to preach deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bound.' 'To preach the gospel to the poor.' No matter how poor, how little of this world's goods he had, he could be rich in the things of God. He could be a saint in heaven. No other poor people. This literal meaning was not altogether what was intended. The words meant the poor in spirit and they could come to the riches of a heavenly Father. 'To heal the brokenhearted.' This was a brokenhearted world. He believed there was not a home in Peterborough without its trouble, a boy wandering away or a girl going wrong. 'To preach deliverance to the captives.' Some would say there are no slaves here, but he said there were slaves in this time than in any country of the globe. See young men and middle aged men who could not give up swearing or evil habits, but were slaves to passion. Not young men alone but young women too. Girls that thought of nothing but dress and how to get clothes and were speaking to some who thought of nothing else or who laid half their life on a lounge reading a novel. He knew lots of women who could not give up novel reading. Thus the evangelist went over the message which was an ambassador of Christ had for the world and in closing he made an earnest appeal to the young people, to them all, to decide at once and come out for Christ.

A prayer meeting was held after the service to which many remained. The service for this week was an answer will be held in the St. Andrew's church. This evening service will be held at 7:45 o'clock. There will be afternoon meetings on Tuesday and Thursday.

A Romance in a Nutshell.

She went to a ball; wore too tight clothing; caught cold; was very ill for many days; a devoted admirer brought a remedy, when her life seemed to hang by a thread; she took it; recovered; and, finally, married the man who had saved her life. And the remedy he brought her was Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is a certain cure for all sorts of lung disease and scrofulous complaints, of which consumption is one.

She came to Canada with her husband in 1834, and after living eight years in Cavan township they settled on the east half of lot 29 in the 14th concession of Smith, where Mrs. Nugent resided until the time of her death, her husband having died four years ago. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church and was highly esteemed. Nine children, seven sons and two daughters, survive her. The funeral took place from the family residence at one o'clock this afternoon to Hay's cemetery.

RIGHTFUL RAILWAY ACCIDENT IN

Three Coaches Go Over an Embankment and Take Five—Several Killed and Number Injured—Three Members of Theatrical Companies Among the Wounded.

CLAYTONVILLE, Ind., Jan. 12.—Between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the northbound Moon train ran off the track about two miles north of here at Nicholson crossing. The accident occurred on a 50 foot embankment, down which four cars rumbled, the engine and one baggage car keeping the track. The trouble is supposed to be due to a broken rail.

The first passenger coach rolled over three times. It was full of passengers and caught fire from the stove, but all occupants escaped alive. The baggage and mail cars were wrecked. One of the baggage cars was seriously hurt. The Ladies' coach was literally torn to pieces, as was also the parlor car. Here was the greatest damage. There were hardly a passenger on the train who escaped injury. Help was soon at hand, and in a few moments the roadway was full of the mangled remains of the train. There were three theatrical troupes on board, one of which was the City Club Burlesque Company and was completely broken up. Every member sustaining serious injuries.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

A WOMAN'S CUNNING CAUSED THE MAHDI'S DEATH.

Falsely by His Slave—The Duke of Clarence's Illness—Serious Charge Against the British Government—Accused of Encouraging Slavery—The Egyptian Succession.

CAIRO, Jan. 12.—Father Ohrwalder, the priest who escaped from the Mahdists after nine years of captivity, confirms the report that the Mahdi was dead. Father Ohr-walder said he was tired of warfare and withdrew to Omdurman to enjoy a life of seclusion. Among the prisoners who had fallen into the hands of the Mahdi was the daughter of a wealthy citizen of Khartoum.
This citizen had refused to accept him as a successor of Mohammed and opposed his schemes. Consequently when Khartoum was captured by the Mahdists his property was confiscated, all his children except his daughter were sold into slavery. The fanatical Arab was struck by the beauty of the girl, and she was secretly carried to the Mahdi and presented to him. The girl to avenge her wrongs determined to take revenge. She succeeded in doing so at a point that while it was sure to produce death, yet was quite safe to bring about the desired result. The poison she placed in a cool drink intended for the Mahdi, and she gave the cup to her mother. He partook of the draught from the hands of his slave, never dreaming for a moment that she was the daughter of the man who had been according to the girl's calculations, and shortly after the Mahdi had drunk his cooling drink the effects of the poison began to manifest themselves. Arab doctors were summoned to him, but all their efforts were in vain. The girl had selected a poison that banned the attempts of the doctors to save the victim. For eight days the Mahdi suffered, suffering all the time the most excruciating agony and torment before death relieved him of his pain.

Father Ohrwalder gave a detailed account of the terrible sufferings he and his companions had undergone during their captivity at the hands of the Mahdists. He described how he was sent by the Mahdi to attack the Austrian mission station in South Kordofan and reduce it. The mission station was situated on the banks of a galling defence, and for five months they stood against the besiegers. At the end of that time, through treachery of a native, the gallant band of priests and nuns who were working with them fell into the hands of the derbishes. The nuns were sent to the harem of the Mahdi. The priests were their arrival they were nominally married and forced to live the lives of Mohammads. They accompanied the forces of the Mahdi to Khartoum and were present at the capture of that city. After that time they lived in Omdurman nominally free, under the strictest surveillance.

Death Through a Wager.
LONDON, Jan. 12.—Some details of the death at Belgrade of the Hon. Ernest Lyon are given by The Daily News. A French correspondent, who writes: "There had been a dinner at the British Minister's house and Mr. Ernest Lyon, who is the third son of the Earl of Strathmore, left the assembled party at 11 o'clock to ride to Topeholder. Halfway to that castle, near the brewery of Vintur, he fell from his horse and lay on the ground senseless and covered with blood. At midnight the horse came home without the rider. His friends immediately set out to search for him. They found him, but he did not recover his senses and died at 2 o'clock. Later telegrams from Belgrade state that rumors are current to the effect that Mr. Lyon risked his life by violent riding in trying to win a bet.

A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered and went to school. A year later, scurvy, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven more attacks appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well.

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'Lay with a Cure,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon disappeared, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co. since then I have never lost a single day.

"On account of sickness, I believe the disease was expelled from my system. I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age, and walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEAH, 9 N. Ballad St., Kendallville, Ind.

Rheumatism is like sand in the bearings of machinery. It is the worst of all ailments, and is the greatest lubricator which cures the disease.

For the past year I have been troubled to a very great extent with dandruff, also, a dullness of color in my hair and through the advice of a friend who spoke from experience I tried your Anti-Dandruff, which upon the application of less than a bottle of your liquid I find my head not only thoroughly cleansed but a vast improvement in the color and growth.

I have, and do recommend it as highly beneficial to the profession and public generally as an agreeable and welcome innovation in the routine put forth for the public favor. Yours, Geo. Wm. P. Wolz, Advertising Agt., "Frank Daniels Co."

A PEARL IN THE OYSTER.

Wrote a Horse and Dog and is Clubbed and Spurred Before Overcome.

Pont, Ind., Jan. 12.—At Wallace & Co.'s circus winter quarters near this city yesterday Diamond, the mammoth elephant, broke his chain in a fit of fury and killed the elephant dog, Mack, and the elephant horse, Davy. Both of these animals had been with him for the past five years. The building is badly wrecked.

It was only by the free use of iron spears and clubs that the other elephants were saved and the wild animal restrained. The horse was carried on his tusks for ten minutes.

The London Chronicle says: "It is probable that it was a lively recollection of the Alabama award which caused a hitch in the Behring Sea negotiations. The English representatives need beware of all ambiguous proposals emanating from the other side. We believe, however, that the obstacle will not prove insurmountable."

Mr. Varley, a social purist, who has recently visited Singapore, has written to Lord Salisbury, charging the Government with permitting a horrible traffic in Chinese coolies to be carried on in Singapore. He says these coolies are drafted by thousands, almost naked, and thrust into large receiving sheds in Singapore by agents, commonly called slave dealers, where they are shipped by English steamers to Java, Sumatra, Borneo and other countries and hired out by agents to a system of enforced labor, where they have no voice concerning their position, work or pay.

A Hunter Starves to Death. Esquimaux Point, Que., Jan. 12.—A hunter arrived here yesterday he found a man on an island in Whitehouse Lake, 36 miles from Esquimaux Point, frozen to death. He had in his hand a car, on which was cut with a knife "Joseph Galland, Montreal." It is supposed he died for want of food. Galland and another hunter left Agassiz, near Natusquan, last fall and were probably shipwrecked and lost their canoe. Nothing has been heard of the other man.

Fitzsimmons Captured. Pittsburgh, Jan. 12.—Richard Hamilton, alias Harrington, alias McCarty, who made an unsuccessful attempt to walk out of jail at St. Joseph, Mo., with a number of visitors on Thursday, is believed by Sheriff Spratt to be the fugitive Frederick C. Fitzsimmons of Brockville, Ont., wanted in Pittsburgh for the murder of Detective Wilkinson.

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 years - Restored to Perfect Health.

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McElroy, a well known grocer of Peterborough, Ont. He says: "Before 1883 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 125 pounds, suffering from constant pain in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, and all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and on days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains which I had been subjected to, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to mend. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

STRANGE WORDS. A Chicago Judge Sentences a Would-be Man-slayer to One Day in Jail.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 12.—Judge Anthony sentenced James J. Fancher to serve one day in the county jail yesterday. Fancher tried to kill Dr. Sawyer, his family physician, because the doctor had taken advantage of his professional relations with Mrs. Fancher to ruin Fancher's home. In sentencing Fancher Judge Anthony said: "The party who acts as a family physician should be a man in whom we expect honor, rectitude and virtue. He should not take advantage of his position and the confidence bestowed on him to betray the families of those upon whom he attends. I do not believe that it is a part of the duty of a family physician to be eternally calling upon the wives of his patients when the husbands are absent from the city, whether they are sick or well, or constantly sending flowers with the injunction that every petal contains a kiss."

"As a private citizen hearing the evidence in this case I might be led to exclaim: What a pity the defendant was such a poor shot! In some states the fact that criminal intimacy existed between the doctor and the wife of the defendant would have been a complete justification; but the law is different here, and I sentence the defendant to one day in jail."

A Pleasant Herb British-Anglo-Medicine The druggists tell us that the people call daily for the new cure for constipation and headache discovered by Dr. Elias Lane. It is said to be Oregon grape root (a great remedy in the far west for constipation) combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It sells at 50c and $1 a package and is called Lane's Family Medicine.

MANY FATALITIES. Frightful Wreck on the Lehigh Valley—A Flagman and a Brakeman Killed. His First Trip Fatal.

CARLEIGH, N. Y., Jan. 12.—A rear end collision between two Lehigh Valley freight trains occurred in the Erie yard here at 5 o'clock this morning. Flagman McCarthy of Buffalo and a brakeman named Woodruff, who was making his first trip, were in the caboose, and were instantly killed. Two cars were wrecked, five of which, oil laden, caught fire, and were entirely consumed, burning the bodies of the dead men.

GRAVES SENTENCED. He Pleads His Innocence, But is Condemned to Hang Next Week.

DEVENY, Cal., Jan. 12.—Dr. Graves' motion for arrest of judgment was denied by Judge Buring upon the opening of court today, and the doctor was sentenced to be hanged during the fortnight beginning Jan. 31.

The accused, his gray hair straggling over his forehead, arose and said: "Your honor, I never, in any way or in any manner, thought or had anything to do with the death of Mrs. Barnaby."

The doctor was deadly pale while the sentence was being pronounced.

Killed in Texas. St. Thomas, Jan. 13.—William Shaw, formerly of this city, M.C.R. conductor, was killed on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway at Denison, Texas, Sunday night.

Get the Hitter Every Time. "I can marry any girl I please," was his exclamation, but unfortunately the girl he did not please was; and there was a plain reason for it. He had contracted a catarrh of the worst form, and although a wealthy, educated, attractive person every other way, he was positively repulsive to his lady friends; a number of whom rejected his offers of marriage. A friend advised him to use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. He took his advice, and now is the most popular beau in town, and he really can "marry any girl he pleases" to ask. It made his breath pure and sweet, he has no headache, no offensive discharges from the nose, in short, he is perfect now, and all from using a few bottles of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

PAID THE PENALTY.

For the Murder of a Performer's Widow at Greenock.

GREENOCK, Jan. 13.—Frederick Thomas Storey, aged 40, formerly outdoor manager of Coak's circus in this city, was hanged today for the murder of Elizabeth Stewart, the widow of a circus performer.

On the night of the crime he followed the deceased, after the performance, and, having caught hold of her, said: "Why do you treat me like a dog?"

On Mrs. Stewart's attempting to escape, Storey drew a knife and stabbed her in the left breast. She died immediately.

When arrested the following curious letter was found on the prisoner:

DEAR JOHN: It is the last day I shall live. Think of me not carelessly; how much I have thought of you and your interest! A woman has spoiled my prospects in life; by the time you receive this she will be dead. I cannot help it; no doubt you will think me very foolish.

Storey slept lightly last night, but dressed himself with scrupulous care, ate a hearty breakfast and died with perfect composure.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Entertainment at St. Luke's.
An entertainment of a pleasure character was held at St. Luke's church last evening. An excellent programme was rendered and the present enjoyed the evening immensely.

Whether on pleasure boat or business should take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Pile, as it acts most pleasantly and effectively on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fever, headache and other forms of sickness. For sale in 75¢ bottles by all leading druggists.

The Jubilee Singers.
A large attendance gathered in the Opera House last evening to hear the First Jubilee Singers who rendered a sacred concert under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the George-st. church. The programme was an excellent one and the entertainment was one that delighted all present.

A Musical Treat.
The Whitney Mockridge Concert Co. that will give one evening in Peterborough on Wednesday, 20th, in the Opera House is one of the best combinations of talent before the public. No better indication of the high character of the performance and of the individual merit of the members of the company can be obtained than the very general approval of the critical press wherever they have sung. The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says: "Mr. Mockridge has a voice of wonderful sweetness and accuracy and was most favorably received in 'Every Valley' and 'Beulah' and see if there is any sorrow like unto his sorrow," in the last named selection displaying a command of his tones which could hardly have been shown in the course of the evening."

"My Daughter's Life."
Was saved by Hood's Sarsaparilla," says Mr. B. R. Jones, of Alton, Maine. "I have been running sore in different places on my body, but on giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla, she was cured. It is a wonderful medicine and now she is well, strong and hearty."

Hood's Pills cure Constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathartic.

WITH MUSIC AND SONG THE PUPILS DELIGHT THEIR PARENTS AND FRIENDS.

Musical Review at the Concert of the Congregation de Notre Dame—A Programme Rendered by the Pupils of All Ages—Presentation of Silver Medals.

"Let music and song be our pastime to-night" was the motto that spoke from the wall at the musical review or piano recital which was held at the Concert of the Congregation de Notre Dame last evening, and with what delightful enjoyment the practicing of that motto was fraught those who were present well know. The programme was rendered in the commodious music hall of the convent and the large number of the friends of the pupils were present by invitation to enjoy the renditions of the children and young ladies. His Lordship Bishop O'Connor was present and was an appreciative and delighted listener as the different numbers were rendered. With him were Rev. Father Hudkins, Rev. Father Dubé, Rev. Father Scollard and Rev. Father Desautels. Mayor Stevenson, M.P., was also noticed among the guests.

The evening's programme was a long one, yet it was rendered with a remarkable smoothness and was completed at an early hour. That the parents and friends of the children were delighted with the music rendered was manifested in many ways and His Lordship but voiced the sentiments of all present when, at the close, he commended the diligence and application of the pupils and the patient training of the Sisters which had resulted in such improvement of musical talent. To those who had attended previous reviews of a similar character at the convent and had heard many of the same pupils play, the improvement and development noticeable in their efforts was most pronounced and reflected with credit upon their careful and persevering attention to their studies and also to the emphasis laid upon what patience, talent and success they had achieved. From the smallest child that touched the keys to the most advanced mediant this increased proficiency was observed. A new feature remarked in the rendition of the programme were the memorized selections played by several of the pupils. Difficult in execution and trying to any accomplished musician some of these numbers were rendered with a brilliancy which was of a high merit.

Of the lengthy programme individual comment cannot be made. But it might be stated that seven of the eight young ladies who played in the duets were silver medalists, and their talent was evident to all who were listeners. The orchestra accompaniment enhanced greatly the chorus singing and their overture was a charming number. The orchestra was composed of Mr. Butler, flute, Miss Louise Yokome, violin, Mr. W. A. Sanderson, cornet, Mr. W. Leeb, bass, Mr. Foster, trombone, Mr. Walton, clarinet, and Misses Margie McCabe and Edith Hall, pianos. In Miss Little Jackson's solo Miss Yokome and Mr. Butler very effectively rendered the violin and flute obligato, while Miss Yokome also rendered with artistic taste the violin obligato for Miss Mary Riley's solo.

After the programme which is published below had been rendered Miss Mary Smith and Miss Maggie Butler were called from the seats and presented with silver medals which had been awarded to them for proficiency in music. The medals were given by Mr. John McKee and Mr. Thos. Dunn and were won by two young ladies in a highly meritorious manner. Mr. McKee was absent and His Lordship presented the medals while Mr. Dunn read the presentation of his own. After receiving the rewards of merit Miss Smith read a short address.

The final number His Lordship in a short address commended the industry of the scholars and the success of the sisters in their training, congratulated them on the marked improvement noticeable and thanked them for their excellent evening's entertainment.

IS NOW AT DEATH'S DOOR
GRAVE CONDITION OF THE DUKE OF CLARENCE.

Intense Gloom at Sandringham—The Young Man's Mother and Aged Grandmother Constantly by His Side—A False Report of the Heir's Death.

LONDON, Jan. 14.--It looks very serious to-night for the Duke of Clarence and Avondale.

A general rule serious illness in the royal family is admitted only when it cannot be questioned or denied. A prince is held to be ill only when it is certain.

His lungs are abnormally weak. A slight congestion nearly carried him off one year ago.

never been a robust lad and it is a question whether he has vitality enough to stand even a moderate attack of illness.

If the Duke of Clarence's illness should prove fatal, Prince George will be heir to the throne next after the Prince of Wales. Though all immediate danger from his recent attack of typhoid fever is over Prince George is anything but strong, and if influenza should fasten its clutches on him the Duke of Fife's baby would be brought close to the British

With all these points in view it is easy to understand the intense public anxiety about the Duke of Clarence's illness. Both the Princess of Wales and his fiancée, the Princess May, remain near the Duke's bedside.

All plans for the wedding are off. Everybody is anxiously waiting to see what card inexorable Fate will throw on the table.

Watching the Bulletin.

LONDON, Jan. 13.—Great apprehension was felt to-day in all classes of society regarding the condition of the Duke of Clarence and Avondale.

The attack of congestion of the lungs from which he is suffering developed into a very serious case, and the opinion was freely and openly expressed that the Duke would not recover.

A bulletin issued from Sandringham Hall at 9.30 stated that grave symptoms had supervised in the case and that the condition of the Duke was critical. The physicians in attendance upon the Duke have naturally sought to prevent the impression getting abroad that His Royal Highness was in any danger, and the bulletins hitherto issued have been somewhat optimistic in their wording. The news that they acknowledged that the disease had developed dangerous symptoms was taken by the general public to mean that they had given up hope. The expressions of sympathy for the

The Prince and Princess of Wales were many and sincere and on all sides. Among all classes the hope was expressed that the Duke would be able to battle successfully against the disease.

An immense crowd gathered about the gates of Marlborough House, the Prince of Wales' London residence. As soon as the bulletins from Sandringham Hall were received they were posted on the gates. The crowd was composed of people of all kinds and conditions, men, women, and

A large number of workmen were interspersed among the crowd, and they were especially noticeable for their bearing of deep respect and sympathy. There is no denying the fact that the engagement of the Duke of Clarence and Avondale to Princess Victoria Mary of Teck endeared him to the hearts of the English people, more particularly those of the working classes, with whom Princess Mary has always been a favorite because of her kind and unassuming manner and her many charitable deeds.

In the vicinity of Sandringham the excitement, though subdued to a certain extent by the nearness of the patient, was most intense. No one was allowed to enter the grounds of Sandringham save a privileged few, and no vehicles were permitted

The condition of the duke was the sole topic of conversation in the clubs, hotels, railway stations and in every place where numbers of people congregate. The bulletins from Sandringham were also posted at the Mansion House, the official residence of the Duke of Devonshire, and here too the duke's illness, cure, and recovery were

In the afternoon the crowd about Marlborough House continued to increase in number and the streets in the vicinity were

The Prince and Princess of Wales were at the prince's bedside all day.

A bulletin from Sandringham at 5.15 announced that there had been a trifling change for the better in the condition of the Duke.

The bulletin issued at 7 o'clock stated that the condition of the Duke of Clarence continued critical. It added that the best feature of the case was that the strength of the Duke was well retained.

Still Alive at Daybreak.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—A bulletin issued this morning says: The condition of the Duke of Clarence, if anything, is slightly better. An examination showed that both of the Duke's lungs were congested. The patient suffers frequently from acute pain and his breathing is difficult. The doctors' main hope is that the Duke's sound condition will pull him through, but the family know that he has not the robust vitality of his brother. The patient is assiduously nursed by his mother, who is occasionally assisted by the Princess Mary.

The illness of Prince Albert Victor of Wales and the suggestion of possible failure of the alliance between an heir to the British throne and the Teck family recall the striking sequel to the death at Nice of the Russian Czar, Nicholas, the elder.

the heir to the throne. "Roussell," brother of the present Czar, who was at the time engaged to be married to the Princess Dagmar, now the Empress of Russia. When the then Czarewitz lay on his death-bed he said to have asked his affianced to wed his brother Alexander, which she accordingly did some time afterwards. So might Prince George of Wales, a very sensible young man, it seems, carry out the intentions of Prince Albert Victor and wed his intended.

SCIENCE IN FARMING.

BREEDING AND MANAGEMENT OF HORSES, CATTLE AND SWINE.

The Growing of Apples for the Home and British Markets—Interesting Subjects Discussed at the Second West Riding Institute Meeting.

The second meeting this season under the auspices of the West Peterborough Farm Institute was held in the County Council Chamber on Tuesday. The was a very good attendance when President Kennedy took the chair.

HAMPSHIRE SWINE. Mr. JAMES BROWN, of Springfield, read a thoughtful and instructive paper on the case of swine. He referred to the importance of the subject, as swine were kept or every farm. He defended the pig from the charge of being a dirty animal, saying that it was fed with skim milk or buttermilk with meal stirred in and allowed to run on a field it would then not eat everything. They should not keep too many—not more than they could properly attend to. The market for the product of swine was almost unlimited and Ontario could compete with the Western States in quality. He did not want either a very long or a very short nose on a pig. The head should be well proportioned, placed in the face and the nose looking up. The neck should be thick, the shoulder good, and body long and round the hams good and standing straight and square under it. White pigs were thin in the hair and were more easily tormented by flies. They should get the best food they could, and the color depended on the breed. They kept the young pigs in a warm place and when six weeks old took them away from the mother and gave them the feed from. Pigs raised with milk was good food for growing pigs, and they allowed them to run on the field and the breed. If they had any surplus rough grain they fed it. He thought it was desirable to have an animal with good bones, though not coarse. If a pig came in April it was conceded that it was best to kill when the cold weather came in the fall, but they should use judgment.

Mr. THOS. BROWN said that pigs gained in flesh better in the warm weather, and they should be fed as long as warm weather lasted in the fall, unless the state of the market was such that they should market earlier.

MANAGEMENT OF HORSES. Prof. GRENDALE gave an address on "The Economical Management of Horses," which was reported in connection with the Northwood meeting.

In answer to a question Prof. Grenada said that with a good mother grass would be all that would be required for a colt. When it was older two to three and a half pounds of ground oats mixed with half a pound of bran might be fed, with a moderate quantity of hay and a little roots or bran meal occasionally. He preferred to give the food dry, and had should be carefully fed. He did not advocate feeding grain to a growing colt that was out of pasture.

After some further discussion an adjournment took place until the afternoon.

There was a good attendance at the afternoon session.

Prof. GRENDALE continued his remarks on the economical management of horses.

THE NORTHWEST. Mr. McMillan, representative of the Manitoba Government, was introduced and spoke briefly. He thought if any farmers from Ontario intended to go to Manitoba, and he would be pleased to give any information.

FRUIT GROWING. Mr. D. W. BEADLE then took up the subject of fruit growing. For apple trees, he said, the soil should be well drained, and would grow well in sand, gravel or sandy loam. It did not do well in clay. It was well to have them where they would be protected from late spring frosts, as on slopes and in a low valley and preferably on a northern slope. They should be at least thirty feet apart, so they would get plenty of sunlight. He suggested that they do their pruning while the trees were small, and while the limbs were small, so as to avoid cutting off large limbs. The form of pruning should be so as to let sufficient light and air in on the leaves. A mistake was sometimes made in making the limbs grow too much horizontally. The best time to prune was in the spring before the sap began to move, although when the leaves began to fall it could be a good time here. To protect trees from the sun, so they would not blister, wrap them in paper around them, then was a good plan and it would do no harm if it remained for a month. The ground should be in a good, workable condition when the trees were planted and the soil should be pressed down well on the roots so there would be contact. In dry or gravelly soil a pall of water poured on when the soil was about three quarters filled with it would be beneficial. A mulch on the top was beneficial, or cultivation would aid the trees. It was well to cut back the top of the tree to some extent to correspond with the diminution of the roots. It was important to have the wood of the tree well ripened and the proper varieties could be produced in Canada as well as across the lake.

He mentioned varieties that would grow well in this section. Canada had a reputation in the English market for fine apples and honest packing, and they should maintain that reputation. When there was a surplus of summer or fall apples the best way to handle it was to can or evaporate them. There was one thing further about shipping to the English market, and that was that if they were selling 500 barrels of good quality they would get more for them if they were all of one kind than if they were made up of five or more kinds.

THE LOCAL FRUIT GROWERS' ASSOCIATION. Mr. E. B. EDWARDS brought before the meeting the Peterborough Fruit Growers' Association, which he expected would hold a meeting in the Town Council Chamber on Feb. 2nd. The Association now had about fifty members, but the membership should be more numerous. The fee was $1.00 a year, which made them members of the Provincial Association and entitled them to the Canadian Horticulturist and other advantages.

TO KILL INSECTS. Mr. BEADLE, in answer to questions, gave the following recipe for killing the apple tree aphid:—Take one quart of soft soap and also two quarts of hot water. Boil and mix thoroughly. Add while still hot a pint of coal oil, and with a pump or syringe mix thoroughly. When using take what emulsion is necessary and add water until the coal oil will be one-fifth of the whole. For bark lice paint with soft soap.

THE DAIRY COW. Mr. LINDVALL spoke on the "Dairy Cow," following lines similar to those he followed at Northwood.

In answer to questions he said that a good average cow should give from 5000 to 6000 lbs. of milk in a year and should not make less than 200 lbs. of butter, and a good cow should make 300 lbs. in a year. Dairy cows need not be turned out in the winter.

Mr. G. O. HILLIARD said he had a cow which was milked up to calving and then gave 400 lbs. of milk.

Mr. ALAN BROWN said that he fed his cattle twice a day all they would eat and he did well.

Mr. J. A. STOTHARD did not believe in letting cattle out in the middle of the day from a warm stall ventilated stable.

Mr. U. QUINN said he thought a wooden stable would be better than a stone one.

Prof. GRENDALE said that the chief mistake with stone stables was that they were not high enough, not well ventilated and have not light enough.

HEREDITARY UNSOUNDNESS OF HORSES. Prof. GRENDALE took up the subject of "Hereditary unsoundness" in horses. There were two classes of causes of unsoundness, existing causes and predisposing causes which summarized the whole—pure heredity, defective formation, poor quality, and insufficient quantity of bone, ligaments, etc. The recognized hereditary diseases were spavin, ring bone and bone disease, and he thought splint might be included but was not so serious. A splint prominent and well defined he would not object to so much, but he would be suspicious of a horse that had a splint spread out. Curb was hereditary, but it might be owing to some extraordinary cause. If horses with curb-spavin was also defective in formation he would reject it. Spavin, catarrh and side bone were included as hereditary. A man who was selecting for breeding needed to be cautious and should give strict attention to defective formation as well as to unsoundness.

Mr. E. B. EDWARDS moved, seconded by Mr. T. BALL, that this meeting desire to vote on record the appreciation of the action of the Ontario Government and Dominion Government in regard to promoting agriculture and its appreciation of the services of the delegation and tender its thanks to them.

The motion was carried and was acknowledged by Prof. Grenada. The meeting then adjourned.

A Pleasant Herb Drink—Altering Medicine. The druggists tell us that the people call this for the new cure for constipation and sick-headache discovered by Dr. Elias Lane. It is said to be Oregon grape root, a great remedy in the far west for those complaints combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It sells at 50c and $1 a package and is called Lane's Family Medicine.

The funeral will take place from the family residence, No. 278 in the afternoon on Friday afternoon, Jan. 15th, at 2 o'clock, and proceed to the Little Lake Cemetery.

Catarrh

Is a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me. I am now in perfect health, and my blood is pure."—Jesse M. Bogg, Holman's Mills, N.C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became convinced, however, when I saw the results of its use. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and I did so. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I was cured. I had only a slight discharge, but the catarrh was completely cured. I am now in perfect health."—Charles H. Malouey, 115 River St., Lowell, Mass.

THE DEAD PRINCE

less thoroughly grounded in the science of navigation and even in the common details of a sailor's life, was entered in the navy. He displayed a remarkable aptitude for his chosen profession and rose rapidly to the rank of lieutenant.

Prince George of Wales.

and on his own merits. When in command of the gunboat Thrush a couple of years ago he was stationed at Halifax for some time and paid a short visit to Montreal.

As the younger son of George was much in the background, but his many lovely qualities endeared him to his associates, and their faithful reports won him a greater popularity with the English people than his more exclusive brother ever obtained. George was generally supposed, too, to be of much sterner stuff mentally than the heir presumptive, and the popularity of the young successor will go far to temper public sorrow for the dead prince.

George is something under the usual size, of a slender but well-built figure. His disposition is remarkably sunny and his manners hearty and pleasing.

The gossip concerning the succession which was freely indulged in during the illness of the Duke has been greatly increased by his death. It is generally agreed that he will now be made in bringing about marriage of Prince George to remove the possibility of the Fife succession. As the succession now stands, in event of the death of Prince of Wales and Prince George, the throne of England would fall to the wife of the Duke of Fife, and after her death to Lady Alexandra Duff, her daughter, who is not yet a year old. This possibility is not viewed with equanimity by the members of nobility, who believe that all the heirs to the throne should be of the full blood royal.

It is hinted very broadly that a marriage between Prince George and Princess Victoria Mary of Teck will be arranged.

The weekly paper, Modern Society, however, to-day asserts that a marriage has already been arranged between Prince George and a daughter of Prince and Princess Christian. Princess Christian is the third daughter of the Queen and was married to Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, Sonderburg-Augsburg on July 8, 1896. There are four children of this marriage, two sons and two daughters. The eldest daughter, Princess Victoria Louise, was born May 3, 1870, and the younger Princess, Franziska Josepha, was born Aug. 11, 1872.

WHERE HE DIED

Sandringham House, the residence of the Prince of Wales.

Sandringham House, where the young Prince died, is in Norfolk county, near Norwich. Wolferton Station, on the Lynn branch of the Great Eastern Railway, which visitors to Sandringham leave the train, lies rather low. The country between Wolfferton and the Wash, consisting partly of reclaimed marsh, is a level expanse of unbroken water, but beyond the station, hills of moderate elevation, which divide the village from what may be termed the plateau of Sandringham, run in ascending waves up to "the Heights." The country seaward is so flat that of a clear day there is a wide view over the sea to Lytham on the left, and of the Lincolnshire coast, with the spire of Boston Church just visible in front. The farm and laborers' dwellings and a substantial old-fashioned house, inhabited by a country gentleman, on the Prince's estate, are seen below. The station is about seven miles from Lynn, two miles from the house, and not quite so far from the sea.

In 1892 Lord Palmerston recommended the estate to the notice of the Prince Consort, then in search of a suitable residence for his son, and as Mr. Spencer Cowper, the owner, was willing to sell the purchase was effected for the sum of £220,000, or $1,080,000, and in 1893 the Prince of Wales entered on the ownership of Sandringham. The estate contains a little over 8000 acres—one-third being very good mixed soil, one-third grass, marsh and arable and one-third a kind of suitable to game cover and best left to pheasants and rabbits—although the Cowpers supported the property for the price for which it was sold was certainly below that for which it could have been purchased in the time of Charles II. But the desert may indeed be said to have bloomed into a garden since the manor-house was handed over to the royal tenant. In 1893 Sandringham as it appears to-day replaced the residence which Mr. Spencer and Lady Harriet Cowper had rendered habitable and comfortable.

Sandringham may be considered one of the most successful combinations of the art of "laying out" with the natural condition of the land that can be well conceived; for with infinite care and taste, and at vast expense, every feature of the landscape has been turned to account. Extensive plantations admirably planned, have covered the land, where it is not adapted for pasture or culture, with masses of foliage, and skillfully conducted rivulets have been adapted to the lakes which lend such charms to the grounds.

The President's Condolence.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Sir Julian Pauncefote addressed to Secretary Blaine to-day a note, in which he said:

"It is my sorrowful duty to announce to you the lamentable intelligence which I have just received from the Marquis of Salisbury of the death this morning at Sandringham of H. R. H. the Duke of Clarence and Avondale. I am directed by the President to express the sorrow with which he learns of this untimely death, and to assure you of his sympathy and the sympathy of the American people."

In replying to this note Secretary Blaine said:

"I have conveyed to the President the melancholy information you communicate in your note of this date of the death of H. R. H. the Duke of Clarence and Avondale, and I am directed by the President to express the sorrow with which he learns of this untimely death, and to assure you of his sympathy and the sympathy of the American people."

By a telegraphic instruction sent to-day the minister of the United States has been directed to make suitable communication of the President's deep regret and sincere condolences.

Two Youngsters for Mary.

HAMILTON, Jan. 15.—At the Assizes to-day Mary Ball, aged 19, of Godwin, obtained a verdict of $500 and $500 against William Dougherty of East Flamborough. The plaintiff testified that she had known Dougherty some years and that he had seduced her in 1899 and 1900 and promised to marry her. In the summer of 1901 she had a child to him. She produced one letter from the defendant—the only one she had kept, having at the suggestion of Dougherty destroyed the others. This one letter was a pretty full expression of love and an entreaty to return to him. It was dated from a hotel in London and was signed "Mamie" and of hope for a meeting "on Sunday." Miss Ball swore that Dougherty promised in September, 1900, to marry her, but did not set any date.

IRELAND'S DESICCATED WHEAT

Catarrh

It is a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Rogers, Milford, N. H.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emancipated from this disease and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the use of my eyes, and my system was badly deranged. I was unable to do any work, and I was almost discouraged. When a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obnoxious disease is by using Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Charles H. Maloney, 113 River St., Lowell, Mass.

AN UNRIVALLED LEADER.

Cardinal Manning's Great Skill As An Organizer.

PARIS, Jan. 16.—Cardinal Manning was not only a man of conspicuous ability, but his skill as an organizer and leader unrivaled among the chiefs of the Roman hierarchy in England. He was a man of high degree of wisdom and earnest efforts for the improvement of the condition of the poor, whether they were situated in the slums of London or in the remotest parts of the Empire. Of late years he had several times appeared as the adviser and defender of the working classes and thus enjoyed a high degree of popularity with a part of the community to whom the more retiring, scholarly Newman was virtually unknown. His death has been a loss to the cause of the poor, and it is one of the heaviest losses which the Church of Rome has lately sustained.

BAILEY BUYS FOREPAUGH.

He Also Transfers a One-Half Interest to the Frenchman.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 16.—James A. Bailey, proprietor of the Bannum & Bailey show, yesterday purchased from Catherine A. Cooper, widow of the late James J. Cooper, administrator of his estate, all his Adams Forepaugh shows, including all property, right, title and good will attaching to that well known exhibition.

Mr. Bailey immediately transferred a one-half interest in the purchase to Joseph T. McCaddon, who had been the manager of the shows since Mr. Cooper purchased them from the Adams Forepaugh estate two years ago. The amount involved in these transactions is not known.

The shows have been thoroughly reorganized and equipped for the coming season and will continue under the management of Mr. McCaddon, and all contracts and arrangements for the season will be fully carried out.

Mr. McCaddon is Mr. Bailey's brother-in-law. He is still a young man, but has a long and varied experience in handling large amusement interests. He has been especially trained from boyhood up by Mr. Bailey to become his successor.

AT A REVOLVER'S POINT.

New Edith Cook Is Said to Have Been Abducted from Her Home.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Jan. 16.—William J. Benson was arrested yesterday afternoon, charged with abducting Edith L. Cook from her home in Rutland Township, Chautauque County, Pa. The girl is said to have been taken from her home and friends at the point of a revolver, and forced to come to Buffalo and live with her abductor, who has been unable to communicate with her relatives.

A month ago Benson was in Rutland County and met Miss Cook at social gatherings. He took a fancy to her and made several proposals that she accompany him to Buffalo. She refused. One day, it is said, he drove up to the schoolhouse, where she was alone, and drawing a revolver, forced her to go with him. They went to the nearest railroad depot and came to Buffalo. Upon their arrival Benson took the girl to a house of ill repute in Michigan-street, where she was kept a prisoner.

In the meantime her parents were looking high and low for her. Her father came to this city and secured the aid of the police who found her, broken in health and spirit, at No. 1267 Main-street.

An old smelter declares that he has been using "Myrtle Navy" tobacco ever since the second year of its manufacture and that during that time he has never suffered from a blistered tongue or parched throat or any other of the unpleasant affections which most smokers will be obliged to endure. His experience, or says he, is that "Myrtle Navy" tobacco which he has ever tried is quite its equal and that it is worth the money "no other tobacco anywhere near it."

WILL WATCH AND WAIT.

IT IS NOT POLITIC FOR FRANCE TO INTERFERE.

To Bay British Friendship—Facts of a Possible Compromise on the Moroccan and Egyptian Questions—General Foreign News of a Night.

PARIS, Jan. 15.—North Africa at present demands the attention of the diplomatic world.

In Egypt we have had an unexpected change of sovereignty.

In Morocco we have seen the beginning of a revolt which is filling the harbor of Tangier with English, Spanish, French and Italian men-of-war.

I have just had a long and interesting talk with a French diplomatist peculiarly well posted on African politics, whose name I regret I am not able to reveal.

"As regards Egypt," said he, "I do not think the advent of Abbas will change the situation which existed in the time of his father, Tewfik Pasha."

"France might, of course, have taken advantage of recent events to create political misunderstandings. But it was not to her interest."

"All she had to do in order to effect this purpose was to propose another successor to the Khedivship."

Haim Pacha, the son of Mehmet Ali, would naturally have been the French candidate. According to Muslim custom he is the rightful heir to the Khediv dignity.

"The order of succession has, of course been modified, but it might not have been difficult to persuade Abbas to cancel the imperial firmans granted by his predecessor. If France had wished to attain this and Russia would probably have backed her."

France Does Not Wish It.

"But, I repeat, I do not think the interests of France would have warranted such a course."

"If proper policy is to maintain the attitude she has for some years past adopted—a policy of protestation against the English occupation of Egypt. She need not resort to more violent measures."

"All things considered, it may even be best for France that England should continue to occupy Egypt. For, at some time or other, an occasion will arise in which her assent to this occupation will be made the argument by which she will assure the Egyptian alliance—or, at all events, the benevolent neutrality of England."

"On that day we may see what is the value of the pledges which Lord Salisbury gave to Signor Crispi and Signor di Rudini."

Maintain the Status Quo.

"The maintenance of the status quo should be the policy not only of France but of all the Mediterranean Powers."

"England is now an intruder in the Mediterranean and she aspires to be a ruler. She already possesses Gibraltar. If she could get a footing in Tangier, now that she holds the gates of the Straits (Canal), she would command all the points of access to the Mediterranean, and no other nation could enter or leave that sea without her permission."

"But, depend on it, we shall not let her do that. France will not repeat the blunder she made at the time of the bombardment of Alexandria. Nor can I believe that Spain and Italy will be more tolerant. The Spaniards are particularly sensitive on the subject of Morocco. They have an old score to settle with the Moors, and they regard Morocco as a natural dependency of Spain."

Europe in Morocco.

"If things should take a bad turn at Tangier there will be a joint landing of troops and a simultaneous re-embarkation. We might, perhaps, consent to a Spanish occupation, however, in exchange for a rectification of our Algerian frontier in the direction of Morocco."

"Such is the substance of the statement made me by one of the most prominent men in the French diplomatic service."

Get the Bitten Every Time.

"I can marry any girl I please," was his exclamation; but unfortunately he was his own reason for it. He had contracted catarrh of the worst form, and although a wealthy, educated, attractive person every other day he was positively repulsive to his lady friends, a number of whom rejected his offers of marriage. A friend of mine, who is now in the army, told me that he had seen Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

My wife and self had dandruff and lots of it, accompanied by most continual itching of the scalp. Anti-dandruff entirely relieved us from both annoyances and we think it the best preparation known to clean out dandruff, keep the hair and act as a dressing without giving up unnatural appearance.

SPANISH ANARCHISTS.

Attack on American Town Are Reported Several Cases of Violence.

MADRID, Jan. 16.—The Spanish press has been lately very busy with the news of the city of Xerez, which is situated in the province of Cadiz, and is not far from the city of Seville.

The city of Xerez is a city of 84,000 population and there is always a military force stationed there. It was never dreamed that Anarchists would dare to attack such a well-defended place, but they did. They were repulsed, however, after desperate fighting, which lasted all night, and a large number of them were made prisoners.

It was thought the fact that the prisoners would be tried by court-martial and summarily punished would have a good effect upon the other Anarchists and that they would gain key conditions with the authorities, either civil or military.

Last night, however, another band of Anarchists made an attack upon Xerez, and this time they were successful. They were armed only with stones, but it was impossible for the gendarmes to disperse them. The cavalry was summoned, and the troops soon succeeded in putting the band to flight. Several of the Anarchists fell into the hands of the cavalrymen.

They will be tried by court-martial.

When our boy was six weeks old he had a rash on his cheek. It spread on both cheeks and chin. His mother was very distressed. I doctored with various remedies, but it got no better. My friend advised me to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I used them faithfully, and in one week the boy looked better. In one month he was cured, and now he is three years old and does not show any sign of it remaining. The child was so much in pain, and his mother was so distressed, that he could not get on his feet. I would be pleased to see any one who has a rash on their face, or who is troubled with itching skin, to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and thus bring relief to others.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Special Prayer Meeting.
A prayer meeting will be held to-morrow evening in the Royal Templars' hall from 7.15 sharp to 7.45. All Royal Templars are cordially invited to be present.

Backness is either hereditary or caused by sickness, mental exhaustion, wearing tight-fitting hats, and over work and trouble. Hall's Remedy will prevent it.

Changes in Progress.
Owing to the extensive alterations which are being made in the premises of Jos. Armstrong & Co., Miss Williams will not be found at her dress-making apartments during the next three weeks. After that time she will be at the old place with greatly improved facilities and accommodation for attending and giving satisfactory work to her many customers.

The Best Authorities.
Such as Dr. Dio Lewis, Prof. Gross, and others, agree that catarrh is not a local but a constitutional disease. It therefore requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which effectively and permanently cures catarrh. Thousands praise it.

The Highest Praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy yet efficient action. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 cents per box.

Seek Help.
A recent sale of thoroughbred cattle held by Mr. Graham, the well known breeder, near Port Perry, was attended by Mr. E. B. Birdsell, of Asphodel, and Mr. Douglas, of Warkworth, President of the East Northampton Farmers' Institute. Mr. Birdsell purchased a Durham bull, Gibbon Duke. These animals are fine animals of the Bates strain of Durham, known as good milkers, and Mr. Graham has brought his herd to a superior degree of excellence for milking.

A Close Call to a Fatality.
On Saturday night when the nine o'clock express on the Grand Trunk was coming in to the depot, a double sleigh with four occupants had a very close call to a terrible fatality. An engine was backing up when the sleigh with the four occupants, drawn by a team, came up the track, and the engine, moving slowly, until too late, was on the track and was grazed by the engine. The ladies in the sleigh seeing their imminent danger, threw themselves or were thrown from the sleigh and escaped unhurt. It was a narrow escape and again a warning has been read to those who are responsible for the absence of railway gates.

A Remarkable Case.—Mr. Walter Wheeler, of the Washington Mills, Lawrence, Mass., for two years afflicted with various pains, accompanied by a troublesome eruption, was completely cured after taking only eight bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.
Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache and is the best Symplic Medicine. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for a cure of the complaint of indigestion. Druggists sell it at 50c. and at a package.

THE INAUGURAL MEETING OF THE TOWN COUNCIL FOR THE YEAR 1892.

Mayor Kennedy's Inaugural Address—Suggestions Made—The Sewerage Question—The Appointment of Auditors—The Standing Committee.

The inaugural meeting of the Town Council of 1892 was held this morning in the Council Chamber at eleven o'clock.

A few minutes after eleven Town Clerk Cobb read the result of the recent municipal elections and stated that the necessary oath of office had been taken by the gentlemen elected.

The ward representatives present in their places were Councillors Cahill, Best, Kelly, Young, Bradburn, Dawson, Ferguson, McDermid, McDermid, Dennistoun and Mulhern.

MAYOR KENNEDY'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS.
Mayor Kennedy took the high cushioned seat of honor amid the applause of the Council. After doing so he gave his inaugural address. He said:—It gives me great pleasure to greet you at this inaugural meeting of the Council. I am pleased to see so many of the old members and would cordially welcome the new ones hoping that we all will endeavor to deserve the confidence of the ratepayers who have elected us to fill our respective positions. As we have come to the beginning of another municipal year, it is a source of satisfaction to be able to report prosperity and a large increase of population in the town during the past year, and I hope the coming year will be no less prosperous and that every effort will be made by the Council and myself to make this the best year in the town's history. Sewerage will be a vital question and one that should be well considered. I would suggest that as soon as we receive the report on sewerage now being prepared by the sanitary engineers a public meeting shall be called and an opportunity given to have the report thoroughly discussed so that the ratepayers may be able to vote intelligently on the question when it is brought before them.

OUR FINANCIAL POSITION.
I need hardly point out that it is essential for the Council this year to use every effort to reduce the expenditure. In order to do this the strictest economy compatible with the best interests of the town will be necessary. Our aim should be to reduce our rate of taxation and to make this a desirable town for the people to locate in. I would just say here that I am not in favor of granting bounties to manufacturing concerns. This town with its railway and natural facilities and its progressive business spirit should have inducements enough for any bona-fide manufacturer looking for a desirable place. I would strongly recommend in view of the natural desire of the public for the fullest information relative to the finances of the town, and the various accounts connected therewith, that the Auditors report for last year when completed should be published. Other towns and cities are in the habit of doing this and as the expense would not be great and no such report has been published since last the ratepayers I think would be pleased to have it for this year. In conclusion I would recommend that in order to expedite the business of the Council some system be adopted for having a stated time for the various committee meetings each month, and in case of any special meeting being called the ratepayers two days notice be given. (Applause.)

THE STANDING COMMITTEES.
Councillor DENNISTOUN introduced a by-law to appoint auditors for the year 1892. Mayor Kennedy appointed Mr. F. E. Bell as one of the auditors, and on motion Councillor DENNISTOUN, seconded by Councillor Dawson, the motion was carried. The by-law was given its necessary readings, passed and numbered.

THE STANDING COMMITTEES.
Councillor MCDERMID moved, seconded by Councillor KELLER, that the following be a committee to strike the standing committees for the year 1892:—Councillors Cahill, Winch, Kelly, Bradburn, Dawson, McDermid, and Dennistoun.

TELEPHONE.
Mr. Schaefer, local manager for the Bell Telephone Co., and his staff are busy enlarging the capacity of the exchange to accommodate one hundred more telephones. They are putting in another switch with a capacity for 100 wires. The poles are becoming so overloaded that another switch is being placed in the position from the office to the corner of Hunter and Chambers-sts., to accommodate subscribers in that direction. Ashburnham is being decorated with a number of fifty feet poles and new connections will be made. It looks though the free system would continue for some time.

MARRIED IN THE WEST.
A Northampton paper contains the following account of the marriage of Mr. Robert Bonar, formerly of Asphodel:—"The quietness of our rural existence was broken in upon a few days ago—on the 10th inst.—by one of those pleasing events which will always be the delight of your correspondent: a marriage. Not only because they are with us events of great interest, but because of the worthy couple they set before your many young bachelor readers. On the date above mentioned, at the residence of Mr. W. Byrd, Miss Annie McLeod, sister-in-law to Mr. Byrd, was married to Mr. Robert Bonar, of Wawota. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. McMillan in the presence of some eighty friends and relatives. Miss McLeod, eldest daughter of the bride, was bridesmaid, and the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Wm. J. Bonar. Many and costly presents testified to the esteem in which the newly-married couple was held. The excellent wedding supper provided was followed on the part of many of the guests with a dance, which continued until daylight."

ADVICE TO BROTHERS.
Mrs. Williams' Sore Throat Syrup has been used by millions of brothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural quiet sleep by treating the child from pain, and the little sufferer awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to the taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, always relieves the child, and is the best remedy for teething whether arising from teething or otherwise. Treat your child with a bottle.

COL. MCKIE of the Salvation Army.

A DISTINGUISHED OFFICER

Who Carried the Salvation War into Africa, to Visit Peterborough—A Tale of Africa.

On Saturday next the local Corps of the Salvation Army will tender a public reception to one of the most distinguished officers, Col. McKie, International Traveling Commissioner, is to arrive on the noon train on the Grand Trunk and will be received with Salvationist enthusiasm at the station.

Col. McKie was saved at Gateshead and his career as a Salvationist has been marked by fire and enthusiasm. He first labored as a layman in the year 1884, and was appointed A.D.C. to the London district and later to Major and Secretary to Col. Niel for the London Division. In 1888 he was appointed Vice-Principal of the Training Homes and in 1890 was promoted to Colonel of the Scottish Division. His career was a series of successes and in his work he has been considerably over twenty thousand souls crying to God.

A TALE OF AFRICA.

The San Francisco Chronicle tells the following of his life in Africa:—"The Alameda brought to this city Col. Thomas McKie of the Salvation Army, who is almost as big a gun as G. B. Smith himself. He has been far into Zululand, penetrated the wilds of Bechuanaland, wandered over Tassanah, been awed by the mountain peaks of New Zealand and is now at the fore of a soul saving expedition and prepared to swoop down on California. He is the man who went into the African interior almost alone, and with very little food, and was carried off by the Zulus, who took him for a witch doctor, and insisted that they would carry him before the king. Col. McKie's expedition went out into Zululand in a wagon from Umvoti, a town on the farthest boundary of Natal. The wagon was drawn by bullocks, and a road had to be broken for it. The party went northward several days' journey through a country only visited at very rare intervals by Boer traders, and finally the way was so much broken by deep ravines and high mountains that the wagon had to be abandoned. Col. McKie and a Kaffir guide, both unarmed and with but two days' supply of food, pushed on through the almost trackless forest. They hoped to find the king and to lead the way towards another expedition and to teach them that they came to make war of a different sort from that which the English had waged. During the first three days' journey they had crossed many streams, and the Kaffir had more water ahead, so they pushed on without carrying anything to relieve their thirst. At the middle of the fourth day they had found no river and

NOT A DROP OF WATER.
McKie, quite unused to the African heat, was forced to stop in a little clump of trees. The Kaffir guide went back for water. McKie, left alone, was awakened in the early morning by a hubbub about him, and, springing up, found himself in the midst of a group of Zulus, who had been standing looking at him as he slept. The Colonel thought they were in war dress, but afterwards learned this was not so. He motioned to show he was thirsty, and they seemed to understand, for at once the leader started to lead the way towards another camp some distance away. McKie went with the Zulus, and, after reaching the woods and walking half a mile through the trees, came to quite a wide river. It was not two miles from where he had slept all night. The chief took the water up in his hand and drank Zulu fashion. McKie, who had a drinking cup, made in the same plan as an ordinary tin, in his pocket, took it out, and, opening it to its full, filled it with water and drank. The Zulus made a great mistake. The savages saw the little ring of metal become a cup under the white man's touch and were much mystified. They considered McKie was a witch doctor of an altogether new kind. The chief knowing the Kaffir would be returning, started for the place where he had made his camp for the night, but to his surprise the Zulus stopped him. He tried to indicate that he wanted to go and then struggled. It was no use, for the savages took hold of him and carried him on over a sort of track along the river bank.

It was a lucky thing for McKie that he had a Kaffir for a guide. When the black returned to the camp and found McKie gone he tracked him to the river and followed until he overtook the party. The Kaffir had picked up the Zulu language in Natal and he explained that McKie was not a witch doctor but came to tell of a god. The chief understood and asked the two, McKie and the Kaffir, to go on to the Zulu village. This they did, afterwards returning to the wagon.

RECOGNITION OF SYMPATHY.
At the annual meeting of the Charitable Methodist Sunday School the following resolution was unanimously adopted:—Resolved: That the teachers and officers of the Charitable Methodist Sunday School desire to express to Mr. O. C. Bowse their sincere sympathy with him in his trying illness, and continued physical weakness, and their regret that he is thereby prevented from resuming his place and duties as superintendent of the school.

OBITUARY.

The John Huston, Sr., of Cavan.

Yesterday there died at his residence in Cavan an old and highly respected resident of this district in the person of Mr. John Huston, Sr., at the age of 77 years. Mr. Huston was only a short time ill, with a cold or a gripe, which developed into lung trouble and yesterday he quietly and peacefully passed away. The deceased gentleman was a native of County Cavan, Ireland. He came to Canada in 1828, and after living a short time in Cavan he settled in Monaghan, where he resided until eight or ten years ago, when he returned to Cavan township. In 1857 he turned out as a member of Capt. Huston's company to suppress the rebellion of that period. In 1858 he was married to Miss Mary Jane Wilson, who with four sons and three daughters survive him. Mr. Huston was highly respected and his death will be deeply regretted. The funeral takes place at one o'clock on Tuesday from the family residence in Cavan to the Little Lake cemetery.

The Late Mrs. Henwick.

On Saturday evening Mrs. Henwick, relict of the late John Henwick and aunt of Mrs. Wm. Mercer, died at the residence of the latter on Hunter-st. Mrs. Henwick was a native of Jedburgh, Scotland, and was 77 years of age. She formerly resided in Baltimore, Md., but during the past eighteen years resided with her niece, Mrs. Mercer. The deceased lady was a member of St. Andrew's church. She was one of the highest type of Christian character, and although owing to a trifling disposition her circle of acquaintance was not large, she was highly esteemed and beloved by her friends. An account of the illness of Mrs. Mercer and other members of the family the funeral, which took place this morning, was a private one and was held from the residence of Mr. Andrew Mercer.

We Met With Hard Luck.
Wm. Evans, a young man of twenty-four years of age, went to goal for ten days this morning as a vagrant. The young man came from Halifax and had gone west in search of prosperity. He failed to find it and was now returning home when he became stranded. He asked the Magistrate to send him up for a few days to give him time to write home for assistance.

WHY THERE WILL BE NO FUNERAL PARADE IN LONDON.

Important Announcement in the French Chamber of Deputies Respecting the Possible Landing of Men of War's Men at Tangier—General European News.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—The arrangements that were made for a public and semi-military procession through London to escort the remains of the Duke of Clarence and Avalonde from the Great Eastern to the Southwestern Station have been changed, in consequence of the general epidemic of influenza prevailing here. Upon the view of the authorities, who made no concession of their fears that exposure of the troops would probably result in a general attack of influenza, the Prince of Wales has been ordered to leave the city and return to the point of departure of the troops to be abandoned. The Prince of Wales, with the example of the Duke of Clarence and Avalonde from the presence of exposure during the presence of the Prince of Wales, who made no concession of his, has shown the greatest solicitude that the members of court should not be exposed to the unknown danger of the disease. The Prince of Wales would not be certain to seriously affect the health of the aged. The Duke of Clarence

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 years—Restored to Perfect Health.

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. R. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Hamilton, Ont. He says: "Before 1914 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 120 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion."

I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and on days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, silent and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, as I had cured my wife of dyspepsia, I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to rev up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the first bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and happy, and I subscribe to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other.

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review

TUESDAY, JANUARY 19, 1922.

By Geo. T. T. T.

Mr. G. Gumprecht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McLeod's drug store.

Oh, What a Cough! Will you heed the warning—the signal, perhaps, of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, consumption? Ask your doctor! If you can afford, for the sake of your life, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Salsol's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails.

To Go to London. By invitation of the brothers of Lindsay Lodge, I.O.O.F., the degree team of Ontario Lodge will go to Lindsay to-morrow evening to give an exemplification of the floor work. A meeting of the brothers who intend going to-morrow evening will be held at Ontario Lodge rooms to-night.

At this season of the year the effects of catarrh and cold in the head are most likely to be felt, and the danger of the disease, if not promptly treated. For this purpose there is no remedy equal to Salsol's Balm. It is a powerful and never fails to cure. Beware of imitations and substitutes. Hold by all dealers, 50 cents a bottle.

Remember the Sale of Books. This evening by Mr. Stapleton at the store 325 George-st. The collection is the finest ever sold in Peterborough, comprising all the standard authors, in half and Morocco bindings; and the illustrated works are such as are seldom seen at auction. Bargains may be expected to-night.

What miserable companions are dull feelings, depressed spirits, irritability, sleeplessness, headache, pain in the joints and limbs, drowsiness, short breath, furred tongue, stomach troubles and dyspepsia. Faint's Ointment Compound is the only medicine known to relieve that can effectively banish these troubles and give perfect health.

"Lined," as the brokers say, at "100 Doses One Dollar." Hood's Sarsaparilla is always a fair equivalent for the price.

The Council Entertained. After the adjournment of the Town Council last evening the members of the Council, officials and representatives of the various organizations were entertained at a supper at the Hotel by Mayor Kennedy. The spread to which the company sat down was an excellent one, and was most creditable to the proprietor of the Balmoral, Mr. J. Cavanagh. After justice had been done to the abundant supply of edibles, Mr. Cavanagh, the oldest Councillor, proposed to toast "The Mayor," which was received with enthusiasm and heartily honored. It is proposed the toast Mr. Cavanagh complimented the Mayor and predicted a successful year. Mr. Kennedy responded in a new speech, in which he outlined the course the Council should pursue, and was warmly applauded. Other toasts and speeches and songs followed, and a couple of hours of rare enjoyment was spent by the company the proceedings closing with the singing of the National Anthem.

They Killed the Wild Cat. On Saturday afternoon Murray McLean and Fred McLean, sons of Mr. Geo. McLean of North Monaghan, had a rather exciting experience, the afternoon's work culminating with the help of the family dogs, in the killing of a big wild cat. The boys are aged 12 and 13 years. They were out with the big dog driving him to a hand sleigh. The small dog was trotting about. On the road near the farm they drew out again: a pile of wood to let a farmer pass with a load of wood. As they stood by the wood pile an animal leaped from the pile on to the dog barked to the sleigh. The harness interfered with the dog getting down to business and he was at a disadvantage with the sleigh at his heels. The small dog, wild cat and dog and sleigh were presently mired up in a bog, while the boys armed with sticks, got in a whack or two on the wild cat. The farmer's team got unmanageable and reared off taking him away from the scene of action. The wild cat broke away and crossed a field and mounted a stump while the boys were freezing the dog from the harness. They went at him again, the wild cat leaping at one of the dogs as they drew near where he was perched. The dog finally enticed the wild cat down the hill of the boys and the club. They dragged the animal to the edge of the bog and muzzling it on the hand sleigh pulled it down. Finding out when they arrived that they had despatched about the biggest wild cat ever seen in the neighborhood. The boys are to be praised for their pluck, though their parents were not a little alarmed at the extraordinary proceedings. The boys were somewhat bitten and torn but are good for another tussle.

A Pleasant Herb Bath—A Spring Medicine. The druggists tell us that the people call daily for the new cure for constipation and sick-headache discovered by Dr. Blue Lane. It is said to be the most powerful remedy in the far west for those complaints combined with a simple herb, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It sells at 50c and 5c a package and is on Lane's Family Medicine.

THE CEMETERY COMPANY.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE SHAREHOLDERS.

The Annual Report of the Directors and Superintendent—The Finance—The Election of Directors—The Officers of the Board.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Little Lake Cemetery Company was held in the Council Chamber on Monday afternoon. The directors present were Messrs. H. Deane, J. J. Lundy, Jas. Stevenson, M. P. B. Max, Dentist, Chas. Stapleton and Ben. Shorty. Mr. H. Deane, President, was in the chair and called the meeting to order, when the above directors and some twenty-five or thirty shareholders were present.

The report of the directors for the year was read as follows:—
To the Shareholders of the Little Lake Cemetery Co.:

The Directors of the Company beg to present the following report of the proceedings for the past year.

At the first meeting of the Directors, Mr. Stevenson, who had been President for the preceding three years, declining re-election, Mr. Deane was elected President.

The preservation of the books and records of the cemetery has been the year's received the special attention of the Board. It is of the highest importance that the records of lots and of interments, etc., be preserved from loss and, as the safe in use was not sufficiently large, and the papers, etc., requiring to be preserved are continually increasing, the Board decided to erect a vault adjoining the present office and building as done at an expenditure of $234. The building was erected by Mr. Adam Dawson and the doors were procured from Messrs. J. J. Taylor, of Toronto.

The tariff of charges has been this year carefully revised by the Board and expounded to provide for all the ordinary services that are rendered by the superintendent and those under him.

The printed copies of the rules revised this year being almost exhausted, the Board decided before reprints to again revise them. The many changes and additions now made in them, will, it is hoped, further and to the preservation of order in the cemetery and to the making it beautiful and attractive. Copies of the rules will be supplied to the shareholders on application. With them is printed an historical sketch which it is thought will be interesting to the shareholders. The drafts of the new rules and sketch were prepared by the superintendent whose service in this direction the directors are glad to acknowledge.

The annual statement of receipts and expenditures of the year with the auditors' report thereon is also submitted.

The balance of cash on hand is $185, as against $177 at the end of the previous year, thus showing a gain during the year of over $800. While this large surplus is gratifying it should be noted that a large portion—$1,150—of the receipts of the year is derived from the sale of lots and graves, a source of income which must some day exhaust, while the expenses of maintenance increase annually as more of the ground is brought into use. At some future date the directors will have to depend to a great extent on the income derived from the accumulations of the year to carry out their work. It is therefore to be hoped that during the next few years, when the expensive improvements will probably be required, considerable sums will be set apart annually to increase the present reserve funds.

The directors have been so far unable to carry out the proposals expressed in their last annual reports to invest $1000 of the cash surplus in the purchase of a detached lot of the town as none were offered for sale during the year. They understand, however, that some will be offered by the town in a few months and they therefore recommended that when possible $1000 be invested in this manner and that another detachment of $2000 be obtained in exchange for the one for that amount held by the company and which has only one year more to run.

Signed on behalf of the directors,
HENRY DEANE, President.

THE SUPERINTENDENT'S STATEMENT.
Mr. FORD, the Superintendent of the cemetery, presented his report as follows:—

To the President and Directors and Shareholders of the Little Lake Cemetery Company:

I beg to submit the following report of the improvements made and the receipts and expenditures for labor at the cemetery for the year ending December 31st, 1921.

In the forepart of the cemetery about 80 trees and shrubs were planted, the piece of ground at the left was sodded over. This latter work was the sodding of the lot, and ground required 7,500 superficial feet of sod.

About half an acre in the back part of Cemetery was levelled and sown with grass seed for sod for future use.

The road leading from Onger ave. to the south entrance was cut to a regular width, grading and gravelled, making a permanent road. This work required 40 square yards of gravel.

500 feet of water mains have been laid and a hydrant erected at convenient places. At the single grave plot the basements of block 2 has been filled to a depth of two feet with earth, levelled and seeded with grass seed, making a pretty plot of 300 single graves.

The road from the single grave plot in the Pine Grove where the trees were planted to the lot to alter the ground on some trees were removed, also the dead trees and stumps north of the office and near the lake and the ground levelled, giving it a neat appearance.

The terraces along Lake ave. and Onger ave. and some of Maple ave. and the north part of Section O facing Harrison were re-sodded. This work required 1,750 superficial feet of sod.

A vault for the preservation of the books and records, etc., has been built in connection with the office and also a tool shop has been fitted up, as the one in use was too small for convenience. There has been removed several of the fences inclosing lots upon being instructed by those owning the lots to do so. It is hoped this work will be continued, as most of the fences and railings are becoming badly dilapidated and detract from the good appearance of the lot and cemetery.

I would recommend that a deep drain be made and laid with the next fall, running along Harrison ave. from the north to Range ave. and along Range ave. and some cross ones in section C intersecting said drain at Range ave. as this part of the cemetery should be drained.

Boots don't forget about Kiddie Booter. His prices are best so are his boots.

For several years I was persistently annoyed with an excessive accumulation of Dandruff, and although using various preparations recommended and shampooing regularly once a week, no material relief was realized until my attention was called to Anti-Dandruff, which has produced no looked for results in my case, four applications removing every particle of Dandruff, and as a specific for this trouble it certainly has no equal.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1892.

AN ESSEX SENSATION.

WAS FARMER POST CRUELLY DONE
TO DEATH.

A Dog Found Crouching on its Master's Dead Body. The Man Left a Hotel in Company With Two Companions and Next Day Was Found Cruelly Done
TO DEATH.

Windsor, Jan. 20.—William Sexton and John Ward, two travelers, who were seeking game in the vicinity of Elmston Station, near Windsor, observed a large dog crouching upon a little eminence near the railway track. The brute was howling, but refused to obey the men's whistle to approach them.

Thereupon the two hunters approached the animal. The dog was crouched upon the body of its master, who was lying on his back, and was apparently dead.

George Post, a farmer living near by, with the exception of his chest, stomach and throat, the poor fellow was frozen stiff.

The faithful brute had crouched upon his master's form through the long hours of the night without moving from his post. Post only lived a short time after being found.

It was learned that Post had left a saloon at Elmston Station, accompanied by his dog and a couple of unknown men, to walk to his home, 1 1/2 miles distant. He had been drinking during the evening and it is claimed that he had a goodly sum of money in his possession. When the body was searched after discovery Saturday morning not a penny of cash was found and therefore suspects point to foul play.

A Buffalo Boy Driven Insane by Attending Park House Meetings.

Buffalo, Jan. 20.—The exhibition of Spiritualists have driven Edward J. Atwell, a 17-year-old boy, crazy and yesterday he was taken to the asylum.

Some three months ago he was introduced to a meeting of Spiritualists, and since then he has been a constant attendant at their seances. At one of these meetings the alleged "materialization" sights and sounds so affected him that he was attacked with hysteria and had to be removed from the room.

He believes that he is full of disembodied spirits and that his clothing confines them.
He has been seen to tear his clothes off.
That's what he was doing when he was arrested in the street today.

Mr. Crowley's Successor.

New York, Jan. 20.—Mr. J. A. Bailey has just purchased, through his European agent, for "the Greatest Show on Earth," an adult male orangutan. Not only of this specimen full grown and perfect, but he is a valuable game of the species, measuring the age of this animal in 20 years and height, which is 1 foot 4 inches taller than the largest of these animals mentioned in books of natural history.

The price paid for the strange creature was $3500. This is the first adult orang outgoing ever seen in captivity here or in Europe. Judging from his height and development the age of this animal is 20 years.
His hands and feet are enormously large, white and his body is twice the size of a big man and is covered with coarse red hair.

His Eyes Were Turned Wrong Side Out.

TOXANTVILLE, Jan. 19.—R. T. Summers was born blind, but now sees. For a long time Summers, who is a white man, was a well-known character here and made good living by selling songs, marking cards, &c. A month ago he married a respectable widow and went to Alabama. At Hirmingham an oculist examined his eyes and finally cured him. Summers' eyes had always been reversed from what they ought to have been. The pupils were turned inward and back of the eye outward. A strange feature is that while Summers recovered his sight he has lost all knowledge of his trade, card marking.

A Clinton Fire.

CLINTON, Jan. 20.—Last night a disastrous fire occurred in Whitehead's block, causing by the explosion of a lamp in J. C.
Gilroy's drygoods store. The flames spread to the premises of J. B. Russell, jeweler, and Cunningham, grocer. Mr. Gilroy's stock was almost entirely destroyed. The stocks of Russell & Co. and J. Cunningham being saved. Mr. Gilroy was insured for $5000 and Russell for $5000. The Canadian Telephone Agency and the Canadian Express Co. each lose considerable.

Held up by Highwaymen.

LONDON, Ont. Jan. 20.—A son of Lieut.
Col. Dawson and Richard J. Williams were riding last night that while they were riding along the side road south of the second concession, London township, they were stopped by a couple mounted highwaymen who relieved young Dawson of all the money he had in his pockets, about 50 cents, and fired revolvers after Williams as he rode away, one of the shots grazing his shoulder.

Oldest Tapered Tailor's Bill on Record.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 20.—An unpaid tailor's bill of the Emperor Maximilian of Germany, who flourished just 400 years ago, has been discovered in the archives of the ancient city of Cologne. The bill is for 100 marks and is now in possession of the relic, and it has been suggested that they present the bill to the present Emperor for payment.

The Remains to Be Sent to England.

OTTAWA, Jan. 20.—The remains of the late Governor Countess of Lavan have been placed in a rolled steel casket and will be sent to England Thursday morning.

The remains of the late Mrs. Crawford, principal of Colby College, will be interred in the winter vault here till spring and then sent to England.

Neighboring Party Annihilated.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 20.—A Wabash train ran into a sleigh party of 21 members of the Clover Leaf Fishing Club near Forest Park this evening. It is reported eight persons were killed.

The Tallest Man on Earth.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 20.—Col. Pickett Nelson, known as "the tallest man on earth," died of typhoid fever yesterday, aged 31. He was 6 feet 1 inch tall and weighed 387 lbs.

The Lodge and the Prayer Meeting.

LONDON, Ont. Jan. 20.—The Methodist Association yesterday unanimously decided to take action on the matter of the times and places of meeting of the different circles and the way they conflict with religious meetings in the churches.

Destroyed the Church.

RAT PORTAGE, Ont. Jan. 20.—St. Alban's Church was completely destroyed by fire Sunday night involving a loss of $5000.

Other sufferers from cold in the head and catarrh have been promptly cured, why not you? Capt. D. Lyon, manager, Proprietor of the U. S. and W. A. O.
rear Ferry, Prescott, Ont., says: I used Nasal Balm for a prolonged case of cold in the head. Two applications effected a complete cure in less than 24 hours. I would not take $100 for my bottle of Nasal Balm if I could not replace it.

EDMUND YATES' GOSSIP.

Gloom and sorrow in the Royal Heigins Family.

New York, Jan. 20.—Edmund Yates
London cable letter to The Tribune says:
The two hotels, engaged for the Queen's occupation during her stay at Costebelle, are ready for Her Majesty on 15th of March.
The Queen will occupy the first floor of the Hotel Costebelle. The drawing room, dining room and the large private sitting room, all look to the south, but the bedroom has a northern aspect.

The Duke of Clarence's death will probably settle the question, which has been much debated of late, as to his brother remaining in the naval service. Under the altered circumstances it is not likely that Prince George will ever go to sea again as an officer on the active list, and, perhaps, it is hardly to be expected that he should,
but he will be a decided loss to the navy.
Directly after the meeting of Parliament address of condolence to the Queen, on the death of the Duke of Clarence, will be moved in both houses, in the house of lords by Lord Salisbury and Lord Kimberley, and in the commons by Mr. H. H. and Mr.
Gladstone.

The imperial train, which has just been completed for the German emperor and sent to Potsdam for approval, but was not an exchequer for nearly four million marks and has occupied more than three years in construction. Its eleven carriages, connected by corridors, include a stately, built with real gobelin tapestry from Carlsruheburg, a saloon, upholstered in white satin, a nursery, a reception room, adorned with marble statuary, an oak dining room, a kitchen and bedrooms for several guests. There is nothing like it in the world, and a great many of the details have been planned by the emperor himself.

The loss of royal favor to which Bishop Wilforce several times referred in his diary was originally due to his conduct during a bitter controversy which arose out of Dr. Hampden's appointment to the see of Hereford. This, however, was a mere passing cloud for really the secession of the bishop's brother-in-law, Archbishop Manning to the Roman Catholic Church and the passage at arms between Wilforce and Prince Albert, which arose out of that event, was what sent the former into quandary for a number of years and undoubtedly lost him the see of London when Bishop Bloomfield resigned in 1856. The secession of Manning to Rome was more by surprise, because during the period of Wilforce's favor he had been uniting in his efforts to procure a bishopric for his brother-in-law.

Shortly after that event had been formally announced Wilforce went to a levee where Prince Albert took him aside and reproached him for having certified Manning to be a sound Anglican divine when he was so earnestly recommending him for a bishopric. The bishop never would have become a Roman Catholic. This reply gave great and lasting offence to Prince Albert, although some years afterward a quasireconciliation was brought about through the good offices of Lord Aberdeen and the Queen, who was anxious to make Wilforce archbishop of York in 1862, and suggested his translation to London in 1868-69.

The first consignment of fresh salmon from British Columbia to Europe, which consisted of 30,000 lbs., from Fraser River, left New York the other day for Hamburg in a cold storage compartment of a German steamer. Frozen salmon from Canada have often been sent to England, but this is the first cargo from the Pacific coast, and if the experiment proves successful a very large trade will result. The rivers of British Columbia yielded nearly 11,000,000 lbs. of salmon during 1891, although it was reported as a bad year.

Harry Hiltmore to Fight in Detroit.

DETROIT, Mich. Jan. 19.—All arrangements for the eight-round bout between Harry Hiltmore of Chicago and Toronto and Jack Gilmour of this city, which is to take place here on Thursday night, have been completed and the affair promises to draw a large house. The contest will be fought with five-minute gloves.

Collins has a great local reputation as a boxer and has stood up before several good men, but has never gone against any prominent pugilist for money. He is undoubtedly the best man of his weight in Michigan.
A large delegation from Chicago will be present and will endeavor to arrange a fight between Ryan and Collins should the latter be successful in his fight with Gilmour.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1892.

A CONTEMPTIBLE ATTACK.

PETERBOROUGH has been fortunate in many ways, and it has heretofore been the good fortune of the town that no matter how keenly political campaigns might be fought, after they were over they did not leave ill feeling, and in social, business and municipal circles party feeling or politics was lost sight of. In municipal matters—in municipal elections and in the Town Council—politics was almost entirely banished, and the political opinions of a candidate or of a councillor had very little indeed if anything to do with his election or the position accorded him in the Council.

This rule, however, was laid aside by the Examiner last night, which assailed the Mayor because he is a Conservative, and in order to strike him and one or two others who were over whole Council, and in doing so violated the rules of common courtesy and good breeding. There is no mistaking—there is, in fact, no attempt to disguise—the fact that it is because the Mayor and a majority of the members of the Council are Conservatives that the attack on that body is made, and the Examiner points out that "the great majority of the Council are members of a political party, and that there is a 'large Conservative majority'."

And what is made the basis of this attack? It is that the Council did not pass a resolution sympathizing with the Royal Family on the death of the Duke of Clarence. It would not have been out of place if such a resolution had been passed; it would have embodied the deep sympathy felt by every member of the Council and of every citizen, and the address that is felt by every citizen of Peterborough on account of the death of the grandson of our beloved Queen and the heir-presumptive of the British throne. But to brand the Council as a body as being "disloyally silent, indifferent and unsympathetic" because they did not embody their feelings in a formal resolution is, in fact, and it is the worst kind of fudge when the long and labored article, bristling with ill feeling and political spite, demonstrates that the attack was not inspired by any feeling of loyalty or any other good impulse, but was solely the outcome of personal enmity, political feeling and partisan bias. It was on Thursday that the Prince passed away mourned by all, and the metropolitan journals editorially expressed grief and sympathy of themselves and the people. Yet the Examiner, who says it felt the blow so deeply, allowed one, two and even four days to pass away without thinking it necessary to make editorial mention of the event, until it thought it saw an opportunity to make political capital. This omission did not necessarily mean that the Examiner was unsympathetic and would not have been noticed had it not taken up the subject only after the Council had met and used it solely to make an occasion for attack upon a loyal body of men simply because a majority of its members do not hold the same political views as it does.

The Examiner states that Mayor Kennedy, at the inaugural meeting, made a sad address "with a presumable desire to include every member of public interest worth referring to," and yet everyone knows that this address was made up of four short paragraphs in which attention was called to a few municipal matters of importance. Why, the Mayor of Toronto (and if we desired to follow the Examiner's example we would point out that he is a Liberal) made an inaugural address of great length, and yet he did not think it necessary, in discussing municipal matters, to refer to the lamented death in the Royal household.

In its eagerness to make a point, no matter how, the Examiner even invaded the private social party, to which (its representative was invited and made one of the number, and due it a "justification" as which "no toast or reference was made to the Royal family." It may be according to its ethics to thus treat a private gathering and thus show a kindly set of courtesy, but even if so its remark was entirely unbecoming. To apply the rules of a public dinner to such an occasion is so absurd that the idea has only to be mentioned to be rejected with ridicule, yet such is the method adopted by the Examiner, all at once, very loyal Examiner.

It has not been the custom of Liberal journals to find fault because resolutions expressing loyalty had not been passed. Their custom has heretofore been to sneer at such resolutions as "lip loyalty," and to include in the amplitude of their sneer the "old flag." The sneer that the members of the Council "are the only men in all the world, belonging to a civic corporation," who have kept silence on the death of the Prince, is a wild one, and even though they passed no formal resolution, and even if they had thought the messages of condolence from the Dominion and Provincial Governments of this country and from other bodies sufficiently expressed to our beloved Sovereign and their mourning son and family the feelings of the people, there is not a person in Peterborough who would believe them less loyal on that account, or who doubts their attachment to British institutions or their sympathy with those who have been so sadly bereaved.

It would have been better, far better, if the Examiner had continued silent instead of making use of the national bereavement only to serve a party purpose. Such contemptible trifling with the sympathies of a people and a nation's mourning merits the scorn of all, and the offence is aggravated by the deliberate attempt to mix up politics with our municipal affairs.

THE BY-ELECTIONS.
There by elections have now been held and in two of them the Conservative majority was increased and in the third the Government suffered a reverse, but the general result has been encouraging to the Conservatives.

The constituency which the Government lost was Richelieu. Borel, in this county, is the headquarters of the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation company, of which Mr. Thos. McCreery is president, and its influence in the town is large. This influence was exerted against the Government candidate and led to his defeat, and while the Liberals shout over this victory they are making merry because they secured Mr. McCreery as an ally. If that please them, if they consider him an acquisition to be proud of, let them shout for a victory so gained is dearly bought. Outside of Borel, where the McCreery influence could not be exerted, the Conservatives gained, showing that there is elsewhere the people approve of the policy of the Government.

In Glengarry, the last election held, as in North Lanark, the Conservative majority was increased. Glengarry is an agricultural constituency, and it is in such constituencies that it was claimed by the Liberals the Government would be condemned, yet although Mr. McLennan, the Conservative candidate, was in during the last week of the campaign, he was returned by a large majority that he had received before. The highly dangerous policy of the Liberals, notwithstanding their specious pleas on its behalf, is too thoroughly understood by the people to be adopted by them, and in other matters also the course the Government has pursued merits and receives the approval of the people.

How do the Liberal members of the Town Council relish being styled by the organ of their party "disloyally silent, indifferent and unsympathetic"? Do they think the onslaught made upon them by the Examiner was deserved?

The New York Electrical World says:—"No Province of the Dominion can show a more rapid development of electrical appliances than the Province of Ontario within the past two years. The reports of the electrical inspectors of the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association show that there are now in use 3,500 miles of electric wire, 10,000 incandescent lamps, and that 13,000 are lights and 35,000 incandescent lights are burning nightly in Ontario."

The Empire points out that the three members of Parliament who were formerly active in the prosecution of Mr. O'Rourke, of East Northumberland, in the interest of purity of course, were Messrs. Barron, M. Q. Cameron and German. Mr. Barron has been unseated, Mr. Cameron threw up the sponge rather than face a trial, and Mr. German has been unseated and disqualified as well. A nice trio of "puritans" they were to act as judges of any man.

"It leads them all," is the general reply of druggists who asked about the merit of sales of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"PROMPT AND PERMANENT."

RHEUMATISM.—Jan. 17, 1893, GEO. C. OSGOOD & CO., Druggists, Lowell, Mass., U. S. A., wrote: "Mr. DENNIS, 136 Maple St., desires to say: 'CORRIN ROBINSON, son of Graniteville, Mass., came to my house in 1891, walking on crutches; his leg was bent at the knee for two months. I gave him ST. JACOBS OIL to rub it. In six days he had no use for his crutches and went home cured without them.'"

Lowell, Mass., U. S. A., July 9, '97: "The crippled boy ORRIN ROBINSON, cured by St. Jacobs Oil in 1891, has remained cured. The young man has been and is now at work every day at manual labor." GEORGE C. OSGOOD, M. D.

BOBCAYGEON.

Correspondence of the Review.

SCHOOLS.—The schools opened on Monday the 19th inst., with a large attendance in all the rooms. There was no change on the staff of teachers here this year, so that the work will go on without change or interruption.

GOOD LUCK.—This frosty weather has made good for the rink, and curlers have got down to work for the season.

LADIES.—The Rev. Dr. Howie, who is a converted Jew and a native of Syria, delivered temperance lectures here on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings of last week to large audiences. His lectures were of a most interesting character, as he reasoned them closely with accounts of the Holy Land with which he is quite familiar. Dr. Howie is a Presbyterian minister, who lost his eyesight when he was in his first year of theology, but he still persevered after he had become blind and graduated very creditably in Edinburgh, after which he came to America.

THE BLOOMING.—The singing that has come this last week has made things more lively here. Numbers of teams may be seen every day on their way back to the woods.

COLORADO THROAT.—A band of colored singers gave a concert in the Methodist church last week. They were greeted by a full house.

At this season of the year the effects of colds and cold in the head are most likely to be felt, and danger to life and health will result if not promptly treated. For this purpose there is no remedy equal to Nasal Balm. It is prompt in giving relief and never fails to cure. Beware of imitations and substitutes. Sold by all dealers, 50 cents a bottle.

FOURTH LINE, SMITH.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.—Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes a very certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure all kinds of headache and is the best Spring Medicine for the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. and $1 a package.

Catarrh

Is a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint, and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became disgusted from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom he had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."—Charles H. Maloney, 113 River st., Lowell, Mass.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

SENSATIONAL SCENE IN THE FRENCH CHAMBER.

Blows struck and Cars Cuffed and Half a Dozen Duels on the Table in Consequence—75 Bells Ringed—Endeavoring to Reconcile the Factions.

PARIS, Jan. 20.—There was unusual excitement in the Chamber of Deputies today. A Boulangist member, M. Laurier, wished to ask a question, the object of which was to have newspaper articles read from the tribune reflecting on the Government.

The matter was shelved after discussion, and so M. Laurier was leaving the tribune. M. Constans, toward whom the insinuations were directed, suddenly advanced and struck him in the face. There was an uproar immediately.

The Government supporters wildly cheered M. Constans.

Various groups of deputies became engaged in violent quarrels. During one of these disputes M. Delpech, a Republican, called the ears of Deputy Castelin, a Boulangist. As the result of this act of violence M. Dumartel waited on M. Delpech in the lobby to arrange for a duel with Castelin.

At this juncture there was another row resulting in arrangements for another duel, which it was settled should precede that between M. Castelin and M. Delpech.

About the same time, also in the lobby, a well-known journalist struck M. Bourdeau, a Boulangist member.

Later on the interrupted sitting was resumed. M. Constans on entering the chamber was greeted with cheers. He responded by expressing his satisfaction at the sympathy shown him in the chamber, adding that it was sometimes impossible to maintain one's sang-froid.

Another French Deputation scandal.

PARIS, Jan. 20.—From present appearances the country is on the eve of another deputation scandal similar to that in which Wilson, the son-in-law of President Grey, was the central figure, and which caused his retirement. De Cassagnac and Le Lanterne both charge Gen. Brugère, the secretary of the president's military household, with having conferred the red ribbon of the legion of honor upon several persons for pecuniary considerations.

MARSHALL, Jan. 20.—There has been further trouble between the French and the Dahomians. The French garrison made a gallant defense and the fighting lasted three hours. Finally the French made a sortie and the attacking party fled, leaving 250 dead on the field. The French loss was 30 killed and 10 wounded.

Submitted to Arbitration.

DUBLIN, Jan. 20.—Another effort has been made to secure the release of two opposing factions of the Irish Nationalists. William O'Brien, apparently of the opinion that the recent Parliaments victory has widened the breach between them and their opponents, has published a lengthy open letter addressed to John E. Redmond, in which he proposes that the existing differences be submitted to arbitration. Mr. O'Brien offers to retire from public life if it should be considered that such a course would tend to secure the end in view.

A convict named Bihnen, confined in the Poona Prison, killed a woman yesterday with an iron bar obtained from a trustee, then donned the warder's clothing, took his keys and escaped.

Rayward Kipling, the story writer, was married yesterday to Miss Bialer, sister of the young American novelist, who met him at the recent at Dresden from typhoid fever.

JUMPED FROM THE TRAIN.

Daring Escape of a Well-Known Chinese Smuggler.

BUFFALO, Jan. 20.—"Jimmy" Muldoon of Toronto is pretty slick, and no mistake. Mr. Muldoon was once a prisoner in this state, but owing to the precarious condition of his health obtained a pardon. He had been accused of smuggling Chinamen into United States territory. The lesson of that imprisonment was lost on James. He returned to Toronto, again became connected with the pilferage business, and again he fell into the hands of United States minions, and for several months past he has been confined here. Yesterday the United States marshal took Jimmy from his Buffalo quarters to convey him to Albany, where he was to stand trial in the United States District Court. Last night at Spraker's station, on the New York Central, while in charge of Deputy Colt, Muldoon succeeded in getting his custodian's attention distracted for a moment and made a break for liberty, jumping from the train, and has probably got to Canada by this time.

By the Same Dodge.

OTTAWA, Jan. 20.—Prof. Baldwin, charged with practicing medicine without the necessary qualifications, was arrested in Chester, and placed on the train by the constable whose charge he was to be conveyed back to Kempton. The train had got to a speed of 30 miles an hour, when the constable left him for a few minutes. During this time the prisoner made a jump for the door and leaped from the train and escaped.

INFANT DAMNATION.

The General Assembly Committee Eliminates This Doctrine.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The General Assembly Committee on the Revision of Faith made good progress yesterday in revising the doctrine of infant damnation. The doctrine of infant damnation was eliminated by the adoption of the following substitute for chapter XII, section 3, which now reads:

Infants dying in infancy, and all other persons who are not guilty of actual transgression, are included in the election of grace by the blood of Christ, and are regenerated by Christ through the Spirit who worketh when and where and how he pleaseth. No also are all other persons who are not outwardly called by the ministry of the word.

The entire service was marked by a solemn impressiveness that made itself deeply felt by everyone in attendance. Every detail had been most carefully arranged, and there was not a single incident to mar the solemnity of the occasion.

Removed to Memorial Chapel.

During the evening the coffin containing the Duke's remains was removed from St. George's Chapel to Albert Memorial Chapel. Here it was placed between the cenotaph of the late Prince Consort and recumbent figure of the Duke of Albany. The coffin will remain in its present position till Saturday in order that the Queen may be enabled to place a wreath upon it.

After the coffin had been deposited in St. George's Chapel wreaths from the Duchesses of Teck and Princess May were placed on it beside the wreath sent by Her Majesty.

Until late in the day floral tributes continued to pour into the castle from every part of the country. Some of them were of such size that it was a difficult task to get them through the doorway of the chapel.

Memorial services were held in Westminster Abbey, at which Archbishop Farrar officiated. An immense assemblage was present at the services, and many persons who were desirous of attending found it impossible to gain admission. Large numbers of men, prominent in public life, statesmen, authors and others, all attired in deep mourning, could be seen wattered here and there among the large congregation.

Services were also held in St. Paul's Cathedral. The Right Hon. and Right Rev. Frederick Temple, D.D., Bishop of London, preached the memorial sermon. There were present at these services 12,000

The services were most solemn and affecting and many of those present were moved to tears by the eloquent eulogy pronounced by the bishop on the dead prince.

The Queen, accompanied by Princess Louise, Marchioness of Lorne, attended a special service in the chapel at Osborne House conducted by Canon Duckworth.

ALLEGED CONFESSION OF JACK THE RIPPER.

Said to Have Made Known His Crime to a Priest in the Confessional—A Duel Over the Scene in the French Chamber of Deputies.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—A royal commission to investigate the now almost forgotten Whitechapel murders. A correspondent is informed that the death of a Catholic priest in the east end of London has placed some important revelations in the hands of the police. There can be no doubt that the priest, under the seal of confession, disclosed information that might have led to the arrest of the murderer or murderers of the murdered woman known as "Jack the Ripper's" victim. That the priest had qualms of conscience regarding the necessity of confession, and the package was with such atrocious, is evinced by the sealed packet he left behind him addressed to Sir Edwin Bradford, chief of London's police department. On the package was inscribed, in the dead priest's handwriting: "This is to be opened after my death—my lips must never reveal it."

GRIPS RAVAGES.

The extent of the epidemic in England—Statistics of Mortality.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The returns of the Registrar-General tell a story of the ravages of grip more eloquent than any amount of sensational newspaper description of the epidemic. The statistics cover 33 of the principal towns of the Kingdom, containing a population of 10,155,736. They show that the mortality for the week just passed was 23 per 1000, compared with 23.7 per 1000 during the previous week. The increase in some towns seems incredible. In Brighton the death rate increased from 27.2 to 51.5; in Liverpool, from 38.3 to 42; in London, from 22.4 to 40; in Norwich, from 31 to 40.1; in Portsmouth, from 38 to 57; and in Wolverhampton, from 30 to 43.1. There were 136 fewer deaths and 1193 more deaths in London than the average. The death rate in the metropolis from primary diseases of the respiratory organs rose to 124.8. There were only 1.3 hours of bright sunshine registered in London during the week.

Abbas Holds a Reception.

Cairo, Jan. 21.—The Khedive, Prince Abbas, held a reception at the Abdin palace. There were a great number of visitors, whom Prince Abbas, who wore a black uniform with gold facings, received affably and simply. Every one was struck with the resemblance of the young Khedive to the late Tewfik Pasha. He is small of stature, has regular features and a kind and noble expression.

Fight With Swords.

Paris, Jan. 21.—M. Dolphe, a Republican, who bored the ears of M. Castelin, a Boulangist, during the scrimmage in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, was instantly challenged. The fight came off with swords this morning. M. Dolphe was wounded in the arm. M. Castelin was not hurt.

Henri Rochefort, the Boulangist leader, in reply to an inquiry telegraphed him by M. Lauer as to whether he should challenge M. Castelin, Minister of the Interior, for striking him yesterday, or whether he should resort to prosecution, has telegraphed as follows:

Men of honor do not fight with thieves or plagues; nor do they sue them in courts where there is no justice and the magistrates are only venal.

TUPPER ILL.

The High Commissioner Down With Grip—The New Assistant Adjutant-General.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Sir Charles Tupper, the Canadian High Commissioner, is ill with influenza.

Colonel A. North has been appointed Assistant Adjutant-General of Canada, in succession to Col. Goldie.

OBITUARY.

Death of S. B. Barnett, M.P. For East Hastings, at Belleville.

Belleville, Jan. 21.—Mr. S. B. Barnett, M.P., died yesterday. (Samuel Barnett, Esq., Q.C., LL.D., was born in Hastings county, Sept. 30, 1843. He was educated at Alton College, where he completed his classical and preliminary law studies and was articled at Michaelmas term, 1862. He began the practice of law at Belleville in 1867. He has since then been known as one of the foremost jurists in Eastern Ontario. The deceased was a member of several Parliaments and had always been a Liberal in politics. For some years Mr. Barnett has suffered from consumption, and his life has been the despair of the doctors for a long time past.)

Dora, the Master of Music, Dead.

Dora, the great German composer, is dead, aged 57 years. He was a German by birth and went to Berlin when a young man to study music. At that time he had a wife, Mediasohn, Klingemann, Marr, Spontini, Devrient, Moscheles and Reisinger were there, and Dora had many chances to learn from them and from his own editor of musical papers.

Deaths in the Queen City.

Toronto, Jan. 21.—Death is busy in the city. Mrs. Maughan, the wife of Assessor Commissioner Maughan, succumbed to a severe attack of la grippe last evening. She was in the 60th year of her age and had looked forward to celebrating her golden wedding next week. The deceased lady, who was a native of England, was the daughter of Colonel Drummond and niece of Captain George Drummond, who was killed at the storming of Windmill Point in 1857. Mrs. Maughan's death is the more distressing to her family and friends owing to the fact that her husband and daughter remain in a critical condition.

Mr. Henry Pierce Harrison, manager of China Hall, died yesterday at his residence, 150 Indian-road, of typhoid fever. He had been sick for not more than a fortnight, and the tide of his death came to him suddenly. He was a native of England, and his friends met unexpectedly. The deceased was one of the heirs of his late uncle, Mr. Glover Harrison, the founder of China Hall, and has carried on the business since the death of his uncle, at the old stand. He was married and left a wife and children to mourn his untimely death.

The deaths are announced suddenly, at that of Mr. James Hogg, Dalglish and his wife, Margaret Hogg, Mr. Dalglish hailed from Yarrow, at which historic place in his early days he was personally acquainted with such notables as Hogg, the great singer of Elrick; Laidlaw, Sir Walter Scott and others whose names are well known. He had the honor of joining with Hogg in the famous fiasco of James and was perhaps the last survivor of the mourners who attended the funeral of Sir Walter Scott. Mrs. Dalglish was a niece of the Dalglish family. Her father, David Hogg, the poet's brother, was bookmaster at Abbotford, on which estate Mrs. Dalglish was born and brought up. She frequently saw Sir Walter Scott. She witnessed his funeral and saw his "Maggie" and Anne leave Abbotford, and alone and in tears, never to return.

One of the oldest residents in the city died at his late residence at 185 University-street. Robert Vinton came to Ruddy York in 1838, and for some years occupied a position in the old Bank of Canada. He was obliged to give up his situation on account of ill-health he went to New York and afterwards returned to the Atlantic to his native land. After remaining there for some years he came again to this country in 1851 and took up his residence in St. John's West, where he continued to live until his death. For 24 years he filled the position of locker in the City of York. He was a political ways a staunch Reformist, and voted for the Hines-Horn Government. He was born in St. John's West, and his funeral was held yesterday at 10 o'clock.

CLIMATIC ECCENTRICITIES

Favorable to Disease—A Warning to Our People—Canada's Health Shield.

Climatic eccentricities in Canada have to a very large extent, contributed to the spread of disease in our principal cities, and towns; and, as a consequence, the death rate is steadily increasing. It is worthy of note, that the majority of the young and middle-aged taken off by the hand of death, were predisposed to disease by typhoid, diphtheria, marial fever, grippe, neuralgic troubles and rheumatism, propped up by peculiar and changeable weather, and further strengthened by unsanitary surroundings, have taken off thousands in Canada during the past year.

This is certainly a warning—a sermon of truths for young and old, rich and poor. The duty of all at this time is to see that perfect health maintained, so that prevailing sickness cannot, with impunity, choose its victims. The nervous system should be in such a condition as to enable the body to successfully resist all attacks. We should carefully guard against feelings of depression, headache, nervous debility, sleeplessness and irritation. These symptoms are sure forerunners of disease and suffering, and should be driven off without delay.

All may succeed in their endeavors to keep healthy and robust, and at the same time ward off sickness, if Falco's Oleroy Compound is used. It should be in every home in Canada at the present time, where any ailments or troubles exist. No other remedy can so safely protect and shield our people from prevailing dangers. Falco's Oleroy Compound is truly a noble friend to the weak, and all who are predisposed to disease; and can under all circumstances, be thoroughly relied on. When it is faithfully used, people have no need of a physician's services, as they have in Oleroy Compound a power and an agency, which regular medical prescriptions can never compete with.

FURTHER UNPLEASANTNESS IN THE LAND OF THE DICTATOR.

Prisoners Escape From a Fort, Capture Governor, Compulse and Soldiers and Their Forts are only Dislodged After Onslaughts are Brought into Play.

Rio Janeiro, Jan. 21.—Yesterday evening 100 prisoners confined for various offences in Fort Santa Cruz, situated on the east side of the entrance to the harbor of Rio Janeiro and two miles south of the city mutilated and succeeded in overpowering and disarming the guards and soldiers stationed at that place. Armed with weapons taken from their former guards the insurgents, who were all sympathizers with the deposed dictator, the Fonseca, advanced upon Forte Rico and Lago, overcame the soldiers of duty and took possession of the two forts and all munitions of war which they contained.

The Government officials hurried all their available forces to the scene of the uprising. The troops were so placed as to surround, on the land side, the forts held by the rebels, while the Brazilian warships which were in the vicinity were stationed so as to guard the side of the forts which faced on the harbor.

A concentrated attack was then made upon the forts, which were re-captured. The leader of the insurgents blew up his machine with a view to capture inevitable.

HIS WHISKERS MAD.

Restaurant Waiters Sick at a New York Tavern.

New York, Jan. 21.—Waiters in restaurants and hotels are up in arms because they have been asked to shave their whiskers. "We are already obliged," said one disgusted waiter, "to give our tips to the head waiter and spend half our wages at the bar to keep on the good side of the proprietor, and now they demand our whiskers. That is too much and we must rebel." A meeting of waiters was held to discuss the matter.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." E. J. JOHNSON, Mt. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out
"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt tired and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. This is nothing like the 'R. C. BROWN, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1892.

THE TOWN COUNCIL AND THE EXAMINER.

For some reason, which may not be hard to guess, the Examiner has not out on a course of misrepresentation and abuse of the Town Council this year, and last night again showed its animus in an article on the question of the salaries paid the auditors in 1891 and 1892. That its animus is chiefly directed at the Mayor is clear from the fact that it starts off by saying that he pointed out the discrepancy between the sums paid those officers and the salaries named in the by-law, while the fact is, as its own report of the proceedings in the Council will show, that Councillor Medford introduced the subject of the auditors' salaries and other Councillors mentioned the discrepancy before Mayor Kennedy referred to it. This is not pointed out because either the Mayor or Councillors need any defence in this respect, but merely to show how little reliance can be placed upon the Examiner's statement of the case upon which it deals its abuse of the Mayor.

The charges that the new members made insinuations and the Mayor showed a lack of knowledge of the business of the Council is altogether wrong. The Mayor confirmed the statement of others that $75 had been paid while $50 was authorized by the by-law, and he stated the truth. That two years before the largest amount had been the sum stated in the by-law is correct and that the auditors had accepted the office on the understanding that the salary was the same as before is doubtless true, and it will no doubt be found that there was no wrong done in paying them the sums they received. At the same time the discrepancy was there, and that not having been discovered it was the duty of the Council, as the guardian of the people's interests, to bring the matter forward and to ascertain how it had occurred. In doing so and referring it to the Finance Committee, which will report the facts as they may be found, no one can charge the Council with acting improperly, for it only did its bounden duty in the matter. It is untrue that insinuations were made against Councillor Davidson or anyone else, and that there were no insinuations until the Examiner itself suggested them.

This second attack looks very much like a declaration of war from the Examiner against the Council, as it assails the whole body, the old members, new members and the Mayor. What its object is was shown by its first assault, when for the first time, in many years at any rate, politics was introduced into the discussion of municipal matters. The members of the Council, however, were chosen by the people to attend to the business of the corporation, and while they are open to criticism for their acts in that capacity, they are entitled to fair treatment and should not be subjected to misrepresentation and abuse without cause.

THE Examiner professes to consider the Review's references to its attack on the Town Council in regard to the Duke of Clarence a justification of its course, and says it has nothing to recall. If it is so easily pleased, and if it thinks it did nothing wrong in attacking a loyal body of men and in trying to lead many people into municipal affairs, by all means let it bug those delusions to its heart's content.

Women suffering from the ailments peculiar to their sex, and all ailments of the female system may be speedily cured and be restored to a fresh blooming complexion by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. W. J. Witter, Franklin, Mass., writes: "My sister had been ill for seven or eight years, and I looked as though she were going to the grave. Your Dr. Williams' Pink Pills completely restored her." Sold by all druggists. Beware of imitations.

When finished it will be the standard work of reference for all information relating to the art and business, its contents of clear explanations being of the highest value.

Who said Hood's Sarsaparilla? "Thousands of people who know it to be the best blood purifier and tonic medicine."

For several years I was persistently annoyed with an excessive accumulation of Dandruff, and although using various preparations recommended and changing my diet regularly once a week, no material relief was realized until my attention was called to Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has produced a marked result in my case, four applications removing every particle of Dandruff, and as a specific for this trouble it certainly has no equal.

Yours truly, W. T. ROBINSON, Oak Park, Ill. Telegram: W. T. Robinson, P. O.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething over fifty years with perfect success. It leaves the little sufferer at once, produces natural quiet sleep by soothing the inflamed parts, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to take, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea whether arising from teething or other causes. Treat—five cents a bottle.

(A Nature's effort to expel foreign substances from the bronchial passages. Frequently, this causes inflammation and the use of an anodyne. To other expectorant or anodyne is equal to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It soothes Nature in ejecting the mucus, always irritates, induces repose, and is the most popular of all cough cures.

"Of the many preparations before the public for the cure of colds, coughs, bronchitis, and kindred diseases, there is none within the range of my experience, so reliable as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For years I was subject to colds, followed by terrible coughs. About four years ago, when so afflicted, I was advised by a friend to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and to lay all other remedies aside. I did so, and within a week was well of my cold and cough. Since then I have always kept this preparation in the house, and feel comparatively secure."

—Mrs. L. L. Brown, Danvers, Mass.

"A few years ago I took a severe cold which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctor gave me up. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved my lungs, induced repose, and afforded the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of this medicine, my cough was cured."

RICHMOND ELECTION.
The Conservative Candidate Elected By More Than 300 Majority.

HALIFAX, N.S., Jan. 22.—The bye-election in Richmond, Nova Scotia, to fill the seat rendered vacant by the unseating of J. A. Gillies (Conservative) took place yesterday. Mr. Gillies being elected by 343 majority.

At the general election last March the contest was a triangular one, the candidates and their votes being: E. P. Flynn (Liberal) 670, J. A. Gillies (Conservative) 857, H. N. Paine (Conservative) 755.

Father and son in One Day.

SHARON, Jan. 22.—The double funeral of James Delisle and his wife, who was the 78th year of her age. Next day her husband died and one funeral and one grave sufficed.

Still Another Double Funeral.
GALT, Jan. 22.—The double funeral of James Delisle and his wife, who was the 78th year of her age. Next day her husband died and one funeral and one grave sufficed.

Here and Died Together.
GUELPH, Ont., Jan. 22.—John B. Bence, son of Alexander Bence, died yesterday from grip, contracted on Monday. His twin brother, prostrated by the shock, took to bed and died to-night.

Brothers Drowned.
HALIFAX, N.S., Jan. 22.—A special from Lunenburg, Nfld., says three boys, aged 7, 9 and 11 years, sons of Charles Collins, telegraph lineman, were playing on the ice to-day at Man-of-War Point when they broke through. The two youngest were drowned.

Accident in a Folding Bed.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 22.—A playful girl by the name of brother and sister Goldie Davis, the 7-months-old son of Mrs. Davis of 240 North Tenth-street, this city, his life Mrs. Davis had gone out early yesterday afternoon and left the two children at home together. The baby was asleep in the folding bed. While the older child was playing about the bedstead the locks became unfastened and the bed closed up with the infant inside. When the mother returned home and opened the bed she found her little one suffocated.

A Locomotive's Novel Mishap.
ORILLIA, Jan. 22.—A decidedly novel mishap occurred on the railroad. A light engine running from Gravenhurst to Allandale stopped at Orillia for orders, and here it was found that the front pair of trucks were missing from under the tender. The four missing wheels were located down an embankment two miles north of Severn Bridge. How the wheels became detached or whirled from under the tender without the help of trucks leaving the rails is not understood. The engineer felt no jar and was a most surprised man on seeing how matters stood.

The Boy of It.
How poor, how rich, how abject, how august, how complicated, how wonderful, in man, and it might be added, how "more so" in woman. With her peculiarly delicate and intense organization, she is the superlative creature of man. Even in disease she excels him, having many that he has not. She has, however, found out a grand remedy in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription; a medical agent, for the cure of her disease, in the exorcise cure of those diseases which affect her. It is especially effective in all irregularities of the menstrual system, and it is also a potent restorative tonic for the feeble and debilitated generally.

The Queen and Prince of Wales—The Queen of Wales.
LONDON, Jan. 22.—After the funeral the Prince of Wales, in company with the three Ministers, submitted that he was intensely depressed and weary. He had a hard day. Guests who had the last glimpse of him before he retired to his room, saying that he appeared to be worn and ill and that the overstrain was telling upon him. He had been on his feet from early in the morning personally supervising details of the preparations at Sandringham.

Memorial services were held in every important city in England and the colonies. In Bristol there was a march of the members of the cathedral that many fainting and had to be removed, while outside many women had their dresses nearly torn off and dozens of persons were injured in trying to secure admission. At the Portsmouth and other royal dockyards, in the garrisons at Gibraltar and in Malta, wherever the British flag flew, signs of mourning were displayed, special services were held, governors, officers and troops paraded and minute guns were fired. The corporations of all cities attended the church services in their robes of office.

The Car and Currier sent to Windsor a splendid floral offering. It is a magnificent wreath, 15 feet in diameter, composed of lilies, lilacs, rare orchids and other choice flowers. It is inscribed: "To our beloved monarch."

A cushion of Anger violets, a piece 60 inches long, set off with long tassels made of rare white cord, is the offering received from the King and Queen of Portugal.

A wreath, 22 feet in diameter, composed of choice white flowers, with waving masses of pale pink and green orchids, was sent from the British Legation in Berlin. All the floral offerings were adorned with devices of crosses and similar figures, generally formed in lilies. Similar tokens of sympathy came from most of the European courts and embassies and from most of the aristocratic families of England.

TELEGRAPHIC CONTRACTS

A Canadian Court Denies Them to be Contrary to Public Policy.
MONTREAL, Jan. 22.—The Court of Appeals has given its opinion declaring illegal the contract which the Northwestern Telegraph Company prints on the blanks which it furnishes. Lionel Laframboise received a dispatch from an employee which, by an error in transmission, made him take an unnecessary trip from New York to Montreal. He sued the telegraph company for $200 damages.

The court awarded $30. The company appealed and set up the plea that the dispatches were sent under a contract which declared that it would not be liable for damages resulting from errors unless the dispatch was repeated, and then only to the amount of fifty times the price paid for the message.

Such a contract the court declared to be contrary to public policy, and any contract by which a party sought to fix the punishment for his fault was illegal. The judgment was confirmed.

A PHANTOM CREW HAD SHE.
A Canadian Flying Dutchman With All Sails Set.

New York, Jan. 22.—The Italian bark Colombo D.J., which arrived yesterday from the Mediterranean, brought in a story which is a mystery of the sea. When she was about 150 miles west of the Bermudas a vessel was sighted drifting about aimlessly, with all her sails set. The Colombo D.J. ran near enough to her to read the name on her stern. She proved to be the bark Hutchings Brothers of Halifax.

Not a soul was on her decks and the calls from the Colombo elicited no response. The vessel had been abandoned, though she was in good condition. Why she was abandoned is the mystery. She was a new vessel and was on her maiden trip.

The Colombo's crew did not board the vessel, as night came on soon after she had been sighted, and the Italian vessel stood on its course.

It is possible that all the crew of the Hutchings Brothers may have died of yellow fever and that the bodies of those who died last are still aboard of her. She is a bark of 497 tons and is owned by Hutchings Brothers.

Ship on Fire.
LONDON, Jan. 22.—The British steamer City of Dundee, which has arrived at Liverpool from Norfolk, reports that on Jan. 11, in latitude 44 degrees north, longitude 43 degrees west, she sighted what was apparently a large steamer burning fiercely. At the time the City of Dundee saw the fire the vessel had been burning almost to the water's edge. The City of Dundee searched in the vicinity in the hope of finding some of the boats from the burning vessel, but saw a sailing vessel in the vicinity, and concluding that the people from the burning steamer had fled, she proceeded.

Beyond Calculation!

It is unwise and foolish to continue sick and maling, when you have within your reach such an unfailing remedy as Paine's Ointment Compound. Its cost is trifling, and its benefits are beyond calculation.

Board of Trade.

The Board will meet on Tuesday evening next to discuss the full and complete report of the committee on the proposed Merchants' Protective and Collecting Association. All merchants are asked to attend.

Johnston Balm Alive.

"Bergant" W. J. Johnston, who made such a deliberate attempt to leave this world yesterday at the Balmoral Hotel, still lies at the hospital in an unconscious dying condition. Although his vitality is so remarkable there is no hope of his recovery. Since yesterday it has been ascertained that he had been a victim of a fatal disease, the old soldier had served in India Mutiny and was the victim of a fatal disease.

Acknowledgments from Lord Stanley.

Major Kendry has received the following from Lord Stanley:

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 20th inst. in relation to the proposed Merchants' Protective and Collecting Association. I am glad to hear that you are so interested in the welfare of the community.

When King James the first wrote his

"Constitutional tobacco" the royal patent knowledge of the "royal Mary" over his curious production, he would have found a royal smoke. He would have been prepared to admit that with regard to the injurious effects of tobacco, it all depended on what tobacco you smoked.

An interesting debate took place at Lindsay last night in the Second Methodist Church. There was a large attendance and the subject of discussion was "Recovery of the soul after death." The debate was very interesting and the audience was much benefited.

At this season of the year the effects of attract and cold in the head are most likely to be felt, and danger is imminent if it is not promptly treated. For this purpose there is no remedy equal to MacFarlane's Catarrh Cure. It is a powerful and never fails to cure. Beware of imitations and substitutes. Sold by all dealers, 25 cents a bottle.

POETS AND POETRY.

The First Lecture of the Collegiate Institute Course.

The first lecture in the Collegiate Institute course was delivered last evening in the assembly room at the Institute. The attendance was fair, but not as large as it should have been, and it is hoped that the people will show more appreciation of these interesting and instructive entertainments by a larger attendance. Mr. Thos. Doody, President of the Institute Literary Society, occupied the chair and explained that the financial object in view was to pay for the plan in the assembly room. The programme was opened with a pleasing chorus, "Away, away the Morning Freshly Breathing," by the Glee Club, followed by an admirable instrumental duet by Misses Patterson and Hall.

Mr. J. JEFFRIES, English master at the Institute, was then introduced and delivered a thoughtful, pleasing and instructive lecture on "The Poet and His Art." The lecturer, after some general introductory remarks, referred to the peculiar mental gift that the poet possesses in a greater degree than others, and used so effectively imagination. The insight which his power gave, the intense, deep and vivid conception of things which it enabled them to impart to others, and the gift of idealizing and harmonizing were dwelt upon. The uses of metaphor and simile, and the airy and sportive imagination of comedy, were pointed out and illustrated. The lecturer suggested that the poet's type of imagery which conjured up mythical gods, etc., although there would always be some who would delight in reading these acknowledged dreams. The sensibility and susceptibility of feeling of the poet, his province of describing the features of nature, treating of the sensations of the moral nature, and of revealing new truth and unveiling forgotten truths, was dwelt upon. The advantages of the poet's form of communication for the expression of the feelings of the poet were pointed out, and the departments of poetry, the lyric, the epic and the drama, were described. The highest duty of the poet was not to the higher side of human nature and to awaken the divine in man. The lecture was very interesting and highly instructive, and was richly illustrated with quotations. In concluding Mr. Jeffries asked his hearers to devote to the poet a fair share of attention, and was heartily applauded.

Miss A. Hall sang a solo, "The Bitter Sweet," which was well received; Mr. B. Brooks gave a selection on the bones in his usual inimitable manner, and the entertainment was concluded by another chorus "Evening Bell," by the Glee Club, and the National Anthem.

ELECTRICITY.

The next lecture in the course will be delivered by Mr. Fessenden on February 5th. His subject will be "Electricity."

DISTINGUISHED SALVATIONISTS.

Arrival of Col. McKie and Mrs. A. D. C. A. Hallelujah Welcome.

Salvation Army circles will be rippled by an unusual wave of enthusiasm during the next two days.

At noon today Col. McKie, International Travelling Commissioner, whose portrait was given to the Review readers on Monday last, arrived on the G. T. R. express from Lindsay, accompanied by Staff-Capt. Grant, his A. D. C. When the distinguished Salvationists here were hailed by a gathering of the local corps, the band struck up and the soldiers gave them a warm hallelujah welcome. They were then escorted to an open hall, and headed by the band followed by a body guard from the soldiers of the local corps, were driven through some of the principal streets to the barracks.

Col. McKie has been a man of mighty power in the Salvation Army work and has worked in many climes, being the first to carry the Gospel to Africa. He is an interesting and powerful speaker.

Special meetings will be held to-night, tomorrow and on Monday. They will be interesting.

PECULIAR REMEDIES.

The Globe is forced to admit that the leader of its party in Quebec has made a bad mess of things. It says:

"Respectable French-Canadians feel humiliated these days. The Mercier Administration is shown to have been corrupt to the core. Money was pilched from the Provincial treasury by scores of thousands and buried into election campaigns, to the demoralization of the people, whose position as Ministers of the Crown has rendered their evil example all the more pernicious."

Having thus pictured the evil, the remedies the organ prescribes are very peculiar. It admits that the premier Mr. DeLoachville, "is reputed to be a honorable man," but it professes to fear that his government will be as bad as that of his predecessor, although it cannot utter a word against one of the Ministers. If it cannot recommend the people of Quebec to keep Mr. Mercier out, what does it propose?

Then the Globe fears a "raid" on the Dominion treasury from Quebec. It calls upon Ontario to be vigilant. Yet in the same article it praises Mr. Morais, who united with Mr. Mercer to make a "raid" on the Dominion treasury and was only prevented from succeeding by the defeat of the Liberals.

The only remedy for the terrible state of affairs that did exist in Quebec that the Globe can see is to abuse the French-Canadian and put Mr. Laurier in office. Its attack upon French-Canadian politicians is bitter enough, but the great mistake it makes is placing upon a whole people the discredit of the act of the ex-premier and his Liberal Government, and such uncalculated abuse is injurious and not remedial.

And if it fears a "raid" on the Dominion treasury, putting in office Mr. Laurier, who agreed to augment the subsidy received by Quebec, would be the best means possible of making it successful. And while Mr. Mercer should be unpardonably condemned for the plundering of Quebec the fact should not be lost sight of that a great deal of it was done for the benefit of the Liberal party of the Dominion and that Mr. Laurier has advised the people of Quebec to replace Mr. Mercer in office, with all his delinquencies fresh upon him.

Letters of Justice!
For many years the authorship of the letters of Justice was a mystery. There is nothing mysterious about the formula of that great remedy of nature—Pain's Ointment Compound. All physicians know its component parts and admit all that is claimed for it. It is an infallible remedy for the sick and suffering.

Never permit the system to become run down, as then it is almost impossible to withstand the ravages of disease. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills stand at the head of all medicines as a blood builder and nerve tonic, correcting irregularities, restoring lost energies, and building up the system. Good for men and women, young and old. Sold by all druggists or sent on receipt of price—50 cents—by addressing The Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

In my endorsement of Anti-Dandruff I can say as positively that I never could before, which is that this preparation is a perfect remover of Dandruff not only in the first stages but even where the plague has become chronic and has merged itself into a disease. Years of experience as a hair dresser, during which time I have experimented with every recommended preparation, not one has (not I might say, even all put together) given the satisfaction that Anti-Dandruff has.

It positively removes Dandruff. It stops falling out of the hair. It cools the head. It makes an elegant hair dressing without leaving a trace of its use. I use it daily in my hair dressing place, at Balmoral Hotel, and have yet to find the great customer who was not pleased with it.

If all teas were alike you would be sure to know just what you are purchasing, but they are not. The difference in their quality are as wide as the difference in taste. Those who can tell good tea from bad know what a worthless article bad tea is, and they know what a luxury they have at their disposal when they can get a cup of good tea. The strange part of it is that while good tea commands a fair price it is not expensive. As you cannot tell whether it is good until you have tried it, you must rely on your dealers. Give our 40c. tea a trial and you will be more than pleased with it. We are also selling an extra tea for the low price of 30c.

DANCING DEPARTMENT!

Physical Training, Calisthenics, Extension Exercises, Attitude, Position, Time, Trance, Drill, Walking and Fancy Dance of all nations. Fancy Dances for Concerts, Private Theatricals, Minstrels, etc.—all modern Society dances and latest to date.

I beg to say that this school is strictly carried on the truest principle of the art. I might also add that there are no special admissions, thus securing a perfect confidence to work on the part of the pupil. The system is very comprehensive. Children of three years to five are numerous on my other schools and make sufficient progress to induce others to send their babies. First lessons always have a lasting effect on the pupil, and we would advise early subscription.

Our Class will meet at Opera House Theatre, Mondays and Thursdays at 8 p. m. for Ladies and Gentlemen. Children, Misses and Masters—same days at 4 p. m. Private Lessons when not engaged with classes.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

The Weather.
Mr. Thos. Tait was as follows: Another cold day. At sunrise this morning the thermometer stood 15° below zero.

Always the Favorite!
It is well to remember that dyspepsia, indigestion, weak stomach and irregularity of the bowels are soon corrected when Faine's Ovary Compound is used. When once tried it immediately becomes the favorite remedy.

Telephone Line Changes.
The changes necessitated by the rearrangement and enlargement of the local Bell telephone system are now being made, and the work includes overhauling lines now in use on Hunter and Water-sts. The local manager, Mr. Schaffer, wishes subscribers to make allowance for any temporary inconvenience they may experience while the work is going on, with the assurance that as little trouble as possible will be given and the changes made expeditiously.

Spworth League Notes.
The Charlotte-st. Epworth League of G.E. held a very interesting meeting last evening, Mr. Hamilton in the chair. This being the regular monthly business meeting reports of the different committees were read and delegates appointed to attend the Convention of the Epworth League of the Province to be held next month at Toronto. Miss Barrie and Miss E. Sherlock were appointed delegates. A short programme was then rendered, which was comprised of a reading by Miss Dyer, a vocal duet by Misses E. Stevens and E. Sherlock, and a recitation by Miss Holmes. During an intermission an opportunity was given to sign the pledge and nine names were added to the roll.

That beautiful glossy sheen, so much admired in hair, can be secured by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. There is nothing better than this preparation for strengthening the scalp and keeping it free from dandruff and itching eruptions.

A Charge of Abduction.
A charge of child abduction was called at the Police Court this morning. It was laid by Margaret E. Stent and said that "Walter McElin did feloniously and unlawfully by force take away one Beale Oone, a child under the age of fourteen years, with intent to deprive H. H. Woodcock, the person having lawful care or charge of such child of the possession of such child." It appears that the child, who was one of the Bernard Home children, was given to a farmer in Smith, but the authorities at the Home being dissatisfied with the people in whose hands they had placed the child took her back to the Home. On Sunday, the 17th inst., it was alleged McElin picked the child up near the Home and took her away. Mr. Edwards appeared for the prosecution and stated that they were willing that the charge should be withdrawn. This was accordingly done, the informant to pay the costs incurred.

Oh, What a Cough!
Will you heed the warning—the signal, paragon of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, consumption? Ask yourself: If you can afford, for the sake of saving life, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails.

THE WORLD WIDE WORK THAT THE SALVATION ARMY IS PROSECUTING.

Col. McKie Tells of His Travels Around the World—Facts and Figures Showing What the Army Has Done and is Doing—The Work in Africa—The People and Treatment of the Blacks.

The Salvationists of the local corps and a large audience of citizens had an interesting address to listen to at the Simpson-st. barracks last night. Col. McKie, the International Travelling Commissioner, recounted some of his experiences around the world, interspersing his remarks with a few facts and figures in the shape of statistics of the Army's great work which will be of interest to readers as showing the magnitude of the Army's movements.

Another illuminated street parade was held which was led by the band. The streets were frequently thrown into a blaze with different colored lights and the volleys of the soldiers, hearty singing and music of the band, told of the Salvationists in the bosom of the Salvationists. The visit of Col. McKie, Adj. Southall and Staff Capt. Mantoo, has imbued the soldiers with new vigor and upon return to the barracks the opening exercises, conducted by Col. McKie, were full of life and enthusiasm.

THE ARMY'S WORK.
Colonel McKie, in opening his address, which lasted nearly an hour and a half and was delivered with attention-holding vigor and interest, explained the object of his visit to Canada. He was here to represent the General and to look at the Army as far as possible with the eyes of the General and report the condition of the Canadian wing. He was proud, he said, to be a Salvationist. Although they had their faults he believed they were the best people God had on this earth. The Army worked in thirty-seven different countries and colonies, spoke in thirty-four languages, had eleven thousand officers who were not salaried, and fifty thousand men and women in different corps. The War Cry, their official paper, was printed in thirty-seven additions and had a circulation of ten millions per annum. They had other Salvation magazines which had a circulation of ten millions. They had ninety Training schools, fifty Rescue Homes, fifteen Prison Gals Homes, fifty-three Slum Homes, eighteen factories which gave employment to both men and women, five million dollars per annum of income and General Booth said in trust five million dollars worth of property. Speaking of the "Darkest England School" the Colonel said three million men were served last year, at a cost of from a half cent to five cents a meal. Two hundred and fifty thousand persons were sheltered in the Rescue Homes.

Six cents per lodging and breakfast. Meetings held in connection with these homes had been attended by two hundred thousand, four thousands of whom were the worst stamp of men. Among these four thousand eight hundred and sixty-three were found permanent employment. Sixteen hundred and fifty-four women were passed through the Rescue Home, sixty-five per cent, of whom were genuine cases of conversion. In the last friends department twenty-three hundred applied for lost friends and six hundred and five were handed over to their friends. There had been five hundred thousand people visited and ten thousand sick people nursed and cared for during the year. Sixteen months ago, he said, Staff-Captain Plant and himself had been commanded by the General to take this tour around the world. He then vividly described the parting of friends and the passengers, using it as an illustration of the great parting day which was steadily approaching them all. He then gave a description of South Africa, the first place visited. After making reference to the country, its population and agriculture he described the people and alluded to the misery to which the whole race was subjected. In some places they were

NOT ALLOWED IN A CHURCH at all and in others a division divide the two, the whites on the one side and the blacks on the other. The Salvation Army insisted into their converts that a man was a man no matter what color he might be. The Colonel then gave a very interesting description of the celebrated Kimberly diamond field. He told of a remarkable case of conversion. A woman who had been ruined at sixteen left England and landed at Cape Town without a friend. Her child died and the young mother went further into sin, sinking until she became a desperate character, a gambler, boxer and hard drinker. She was wanted by the police and for six weeks drove a stage coach dressed as a man. Salvation officers met her took her to their quarters, lifted her up away from drink and sent her to the Cape Town Rescue Home where she became converted and was a prominent figure in the Rescue Home work. Speaking of Zululans the Colonel said he met a chief who had had thirty wives. Their ambition was to have as many wives as possible, yet their code of morals was the best he had ever heard of. A man had to fly upon any attempt at familiarity or be shot. After referring in detail to the work in the different States and Colonies, which was very satisfactory, he said they had TRAVELLED TEN THOUSAND MILES in South Africa. In Australia Commissioner Coombe was in charge. The Salvation Army was the religion of the country. It was flourishing and thirty-two thousand souls had sought conversion in five and a half months. In New Zealand there was a population of six hundred thousand. One of every thirty attended the Army meetings, one out of twenty-five took the War Cry and in ten weeks eleven hundred souls had been converted. Australia had subscribed $8000 to Prison Gals Homes. He gave an account of General Booth's travels over the same ground and outlined his movements. He had visited San Francisco where there was a population of three hundred thousand. There were five thousand churches, with an average seating capacity for five hundred people. The Army had been in the city about nine years, but had been very quiet during the last seven or eight years. A building had been given to them and during the last year three hundred souls had found salvation. The necessity for a Rescue Home had been raised and the land secured upon which to erect the building. In conclusion the Colonel said in South Africa the people received them with open arms. In Australia they were made to feel at home at once, when they rose on the platform. This was one of the greatest hindrances in Canada. Canadians kept to themselves. There was a coldness and distance which said "you must stand apart until you have proved yourself." His earnest wish for every

The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The latent poison, or other foul humor is hereditary and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is more convincing evidence than the power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scurfiness or salt rheum, removes the latent which causes scurfiness, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling and building up the whole system. Thousands testify to the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. Full information and statements of cures sent free.

THE DOMINION CABINET.

THE further changes made in the Dominion Cabinet will be received with satisfaction. Mr. J. G. Patterson, who enters the Cabinet as Secretary of State for the first time, has been looked upon as one likely to be thus honored, for he has for years held a foremost position in the House, of which he has been a member since 1874, while he has been previously a member of the Ontario Legislature. With experience, he combines ability, good judgment, energy and integrity, and the new Minister will give good service to the country, and with Mr. Patterson is personally popular.

Mr. Bowell leaves the Customs Department to become Minister of Militia. Mr. Bowell, who is the senior Cabinet Minister, has done excellent service as a member of the Cabinet and in his department, and with such faithfulness he has attended to his duties that even from opponents he has received words of commendation. To his new department he will carry a thorough knowledge of militia affairs, for from 1867 until 1874 he was actively connected with the militia. In 1888 he was promoted to the position of captain of his company, and he afterwards commanded the 4th battalion, retaining his rank as colonel when he retired. A most efficient and careful administrator, Mr. Bowell will give satisfaction in any department of which he takes charge and for this department he possesses special qualifications.

Mr. Chapleau, who will take charge of the Customs Department, is a man of great energy as well as a powerful orator, and this difficult department will be well managed by him. Mr. Adolphe Caron becomes Postmaster General, and as he is an industrious worker this department will continue to be in good hands.

Oh, What a Cough! Will you heed the warning—the signal, perhaps, of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, consumption? Ask yourself, if you can afford, for the sake of saving life, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Hall's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails.

When You Want Books don't forget about Kid's Boots. His prices are best so are his boots. d8.

Never permit the system to become run down, as then it is almost impossible to withstand the attacks of disease. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills stand at the head of all medicines as a blood builder and nerve tonic, correcting irregularities, restoring lost energies, and building up the system. Good for men and women, young and old. Sold by all druggists or sent on receipt of price—50 cents—by addressing The Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

BEHRING SEA.

Conference of the Commissioners at Washington—The Arbitration Delegation. WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The Secretary of State has arranged with the British Minister for a conference at Washington between the commissioners representing Great Britain and the United States who visited Alaska last summer for the purpose of obtaining definite information in regard to the seal fisheries. This conference is understood to be merely preliminary to the formal submission of the Behring Sea question to arbitration.

The basis of arbitration and the personnel of the arbitrators have been practically settled, but no official announcement on the subject will be made for some time yet. It is generally understood that Hon. E. J. Phelps of Vermont will be one of the arbitrators.

Archbishop Langevin Dead. FATHER POINT, Que., Jan. 27.—Archbishop Langevin, brother of Sir Hector Langevin, died last night after an illness of only 12 hours' duration. The deceased prelate was aged 71. He was the first bishop of the Rimouski diocese and his life work was here marked. Two years ago he resigned his See and was thereupon appointed Archbishop of Leonopolis in partibus indiditum. The remains will be interred in the cathedral at Rimouski.

Foul Play Suspected. CHATHAM, Jan. 27.—An inquest was held by Dr. Bray on the body of Mrs. John Weeks, wife of a colored laborer, North Chatham. Escaped from Toronto Asylum. DETROIT, Jan. 27.—Albert Long, about 40 years old, escaped from Toronto Insane Asylum several days ago. He drifted to Detroit and appeared at the house of John Madison, Sixteenth-street, last night. His appearance was so uncanny that Mr. Madison's young daughter was frightened into spasms. Mr. Madison got Long out of the house and turned him over to an officer. He will probably be sent to the Wayne Asylum.

Joked on Eternity's Threshold. HALIFAX, N.S., Jan. 27.—At Pleasantville Miss Lucy Logan, a young school teacher, played with a friend and then joked and laughed a greater part of the night. In the morning, in assisting her from the bed, she suddenly expired in the arms of her friend. Death was caused by heart failure.

Run Down by a Locomotive. BRANTFORD, Jan. 27.—Daniel Durham of Cainsville was crossing the R. & L.H. track near Brantford, when his horse was struck by a train. One of the horses was killed, but Durham escaped with a fractured arm and severe cuts on the head.

From Stage to Pulpit. ST. LOUIS, Jan. 27.—A sensation has been created in theatrical circles here by the announcement that George Hanlon of the Hanlon Brothers, producers of spectacular pantomime, has deserted the theatrical profession for the pulpit. William Hanlon, now here, has received a letter from George stating that he has determined to devote the remainder of his life and his means to religious work.

Dropped Dead on the Bench. JERSEY CITY, Jan. 27.—Judge Manning Knapp of the New Jersey Supreme Court and presiding judge of the Hudson county Circuit Court dropped dead Tuesday afternoon while delivering a charge to the grand jury at the Court House. The judge was returning to the violation of the law by the Hoboken theatre proprietors in giving Sunday performances when he suddenly expired.

A Faithful Lover. BRANTFORD, Jan. 27.—Union, a compromise is arranged in the course of the next few days, an interesting breach of promise of marriage suit will come before the court at the spring session. A good-looking young lady, daughter of a well-known farmer, recently deceased, was a young farmer, living with his father in the neighborhood of Mount Vernon, for $200 for breach of promise of marriage.

Funeral. Mr. Dugan Cameron is confined to his home with a serious attack of la grippe which has developed into inflammation of the lungs.

The Evangelistic Meeting. The evangelistic services are being held in St. Paul's church every evening this week. Rev. Mr. Meikle gives earnest address at each meeting and sustains an interest in the work.

A Victory. A despatch received this afternoon states that the Peterborough curlers won the final, defeating Ottawa by 11 shots. Skip W. G. Ferguson defeated his rival by 11 shots and skip T. Rutherford vanquished his opponent by 1. They will now have a chance to shine in the final banquet at Toronto.

His Sixtieth Anniversary. To-day one of George-st. most successful business men reached his sixtieth anniversary in business. Mr. Robert Fair, of the Golden Lion, commenced business sixteen years ago to-day and by attention to business enterprise and fair dealing, has been steadily increasing success during those many years. May he see many more anniversaries will be the wish of Mr. Fair's friends.

Last Book Auction. This evening in order to close out as many as possible Mr. Stapleton will hold one more sale this evening, when some of the finest books ever sold in Peterborough will be offered at reduced prices. Silver collection. d1d

A Child Dedicated. Another special time was enjoyed at the Salvation Army barracks last night. The attendance was not so large as on the previous night, but the old-time fire and enthusiasm was thrown into the meeting by the officers and soldiers. Col. McKie gave his farewell address and dedicated a child, the daughter of Bandman Arnold. The ceremony, which has been witnessed frequently before, was performed beneath the folds of the Army flag. The service was an interesting one, enlivened by splendid music by the band.

For years I was persistently annoyed by an excessive accumulation of Dandruff and although using various preparations recommended and shampooing regularly once a week, no material relief was obtained until my attention was called to Anti-Dandruff, which has produced unexpected results in my case, four applications removing every particle of Dandruff and as a specific for this trouble it certainly has no equal.

REVIEWS.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE—The complete novel in Lippincott's Magazine for February, "The Royalist," by Mr. William Westall, and is a stirring tale of adventure in the wars of Napoleon. Though its events date back nearly a century, they are presented in the brisk and business-like modern manner. The Journalist series is continued by Mr. Julius Chambers, of the New York World, in an interesting paper entitled "The Managing Editor." He duly magnifies the office of this potentate, discloses some of his secrets, and tells by what various means he has attained his most nearly autocratic success. Mr. Hermann Goelrich, in a solid article on the actor, and art of swimming, carries on the athletic series, and Mr. Louis N. McGargue reports some instructive remarks of Prof. R. B. Haislop, the eminent veteran swimmer, on "The Backstroke." Topics of national importance are handled by Julian Hawthorne, who has lately been interviewing the heads of departments at Washington, in "Secretary Rusk's Crusade," and by Hector, the eminent writer with authority of "The Board of Trade and the Farmer." Two papers deal with the past: John Sherwood's "Recollections" (the first of a series), and Mrs. Hester Dorsey Richardson's "Prison Galleys, Prison and Prisoner." Mrs. Jane De Forest Shelton, in "Name vs. Initials," deprecates our too liberal use of the latter. The editorial department, "As It Seems," discusses some recent revelations of Mark Twain concerning Mental Telegraphy, the late Lord Lytton in his early character of the poet, Owen Meredith, and Mr. Du Maurier's novel. The poets are present in unusual numbers, and they are mostly women, and a reproduction of the true text of St. George Tucker's poem, once so popular, is given in "The Danger of Being Forgotten." A short and highly imaginative story, "Jermyn's Portrait," by Marquise Clara Lanza, completes the number.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for February contains the beginning of a new series of papers describing a canoe voyage in 1891 down the Danube. From the Black Forest to the Black Sea. The first article of the series is written by Pountney Bigelow, and is superbly illustrated from drawings made, during the voyage, by Alfred Parsons and F. D. Millet. Julian Ralph contributes to this number another of his valuable and entertaining papers on the great Northwest, and under the somewhat unemphatic title of A Skin for a Skin, describes the fur-trading industries of British North America and the operations of the once powerful Hudson Bay Company. The article is accompanied by several strikingly original illustrations drawn by Frederic Remington. Another paper of peculiar historic as well as local interest is an account of the Old Shipping Merchants of New York, written by George W. Sheldon, and appropriately illustrated from drawings by G. D. Gibson and T. H. Robell and from paintings by E. J. Kane and Nedie. A valuable article on The Royal Danish Theatre, illustrated by Hans Tegner and others, is contributed by William Archer. The very interesting series of Personal Recollections of Nathaniel Hawthorne, by Elizabeth Sewall, is continued. In a paper entitled Chicago—The Main Sketch, Julian Ralph gives a graphic and glowing account of the present aspect of business and life in the great metropolis of the lake. In the department of fiction this number offers the following unexampled attractions: the new play of Amelie Rives, Abelwood, a tragedy in five acts, beautifully illustrated by Mary L. Gov. The Little Maid at the Door, a story of the New England winter of 1846, by Mary S. Williams, illustrated by Howard Pyle; Marie, another of William McLennan's infallible French-Canadian sketches, illustrated by G. B. Reinhart; and Pin de Sicile, a delightfully entertaining character sketch by Robert G. V. Meyers. John Hay contributes a poem, Night in Venice, which is accompanied by a superb frontispiece illustration drawn by W. T. Smalley. Another charming poem, The Stone Woman of Eastern Point, is by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps. The Editors' Department is headed, as usual, by George William Curtis, William Dean Howells, and Charles Dudley Warner.

INTENSE SUFFERING!

Mr. William Buchanan, 24 years engineer in the Cunard Steamship Company's service, 8 St. John's Road, Kirkdale, Liverpool, Eng., writes: "I suffered two years of agony from an affection in the head which six physicians pronounced incurable. They were divided in opinion as to whether it was acute neuralgia of the brain, but all agreed that I could never recover. In my paroxysms of pain it needed two and sometimes three men to hold me down in bed. When at death's door, was applied to my head. It acted like magic. It saved my life. I am well and hearty, and have had no return of the trouble."

"ALL RIGHT! ST. JACOBS OIL DID IT."

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 27, 1892.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Still Cold.
Mr. Thos. Telford writes as follows:—
At 8 a.m. this morning the thermometer stood 12° below zero.

A Steady Business.
This is certainly good news for camping, but Messrs. J. J. Turner & Son shipped a large quantity to Oshawa. They also received an order from St. Thomas to-day.

That beautiful glossy skin, so much admired in hair, can be secured by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. There is nothing better than this preparation for strengthening the scalp and keeping it free from dandruff and itching eruptions.

Legal Change.
The partnership heretofore existing between Messrs. Fennell & Johnson, barbers, etc., having been dissolved, Mr. Johnson has opened a law office, No. 57 1/2 Water-st., over U. S. Connolly, where he will attend to business of his profession.

An Old Resident Dead.
Mr. Stephen Wood, aged 79 years, died last evening at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Wood, at 1812 St. George's street. He was born in 1813 and was the son of the late Robert Wood, of Loughborough Place, Essex, Eng. In the year 1851 the deceased came to Oshawa where he resided until recent years when he came into town to live. He was father of Mrs. F. Dyer, and was a man generally respected. The funeral takes place at three o'clock on Thursday afternoon from 184 Market-st.

Queen Mother on Monday.
The Lindsay Post says:—"Mr. J. H. Ketcham, musical director, of Peterborough, who a couple of weeks ago started a class in town for the presentation of the beautiful operatic cantata, 'Queen Esther,' is meeting with gratifying success. Already over forty ladies and gentlemen have been enrolled, and Mr. Ketcham expects to have some sixty voices in all. The members of the different singing classes have gone into the practice enthusiastically. So far rehearsals have been held weekly on Tuesdays, but next week Monday will be the date owing to the G. T. R. concert intervening. The cantata will be presented early in March."

SABBATH SCHOOL WORK.

The Convention of the Harvey and North South Association.
The Harvey and North South A. S. Convention was held in the Methodist church, Lakeshore, on Friday, the 15th inst. Mr. W. H. Merrill in the chair.
The Convention was called to order at 10.15 a.m. After opening exercises the first subject taken up was the "United Children's Service," which was conducted by Rev. J. McKwen. The lesson chosen was the rejection of Saul and choice of David as King of Israel. The object of the lesson seemed to be to show the advantage of using simple language within the knowledge of the children, and that the teaching should be pointed and definite and bearing directly on the formation of character.
He was followed by Mr. W. H. Merrill in an exhortation on Sabbath schools, their origin, their aim and place in the church.
After singing by the choronic choir Mr. Merrill and Rev. J. McKwen named the following gentlemen as a committee to formulate the officers for the ensuing year:—
Rev. U. H. Raley, and Messrs. Merrill, Crafts, Hiscott and Brock, and Mr. J. B. Roberts from South Smith.
An adjournment was then made for noon.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
The Convention was called to order by Mr. Merrill at 2.15 p.m. After devotional exercises the nominating committee brought in the following report which was adopted by the Convention:—
PRESIDENT—Mr. Merrill.
VICER-PRESIDENT—Rev. U. H. Raley.
SECRETARY—Messrs. A. E. Kennedy.

COMMITTEES—Messrs. Crafts, Hiscott and Brock.
"The Duties of Sabbath School Teachers" was introduced by Mr. Crafts, who urged the necessity of thorough and systematic study, consistency of example and devotion to the work.

The Rev. J. McKwen emphasized the necessity of punctuality and regularity on the part of teachers and officers and perfect order on the part of all.
"Teacher Training" was fully and effectively dealt with by Rev. J. McKwen. He considered a good blackboard a necessary adjunct to every Sabbath school, as by its use the mind would be impressed through the eye as well as the ear, and thereby greater interest would be aroused and better work done.

"How to Retain the Senior Scholars" was introduced by Mr. Walrath. He would adopt a system of prizes, visiting the scholars, setting them to work and showing them your sympathy with them etc. He was followed by Rev. J. McKwen and Mr. Ventres.

It being after 5 o'clock an adjournment was made for tea.

Evening Session.
The convention was again called to order by the President at 7 p.m.
In the absence of Rev. Mr. Houck, Mr. J. R. Roberts took the subject "The Teacher's Influence." He dwelt on the responsibility of parents as well as teachers, the necessity of sympathy and a spirit of confidence being cultivated between parents and their children, the teacher's reward, his method of imparting instruction, the necessity for cheerfulness, and the importance of the old as well as the young attending Sabbath school.

"Methods of Teaching" was introduced by Mr. A. E. Kennedy followed by Mr. Hiscott.
"The Teacher's Reward" by Rev. G. H. Raley. He would impress upon them the necessity for perseverance on the part of all teachers and officers, the power of a good example. The teacher's work being carried to different parts of the world by scholars, he thus becomes the means of spreading the gospel. The children of to-day are the men and women of the future. The teacher is there to mould the future. He is in good company. The best men of all ages and climates have been or are engaged in S.S. work. The faithful teacher is abundantly rewarded in seeing his teaching reflected in the life of his scholars. Christ is a good pay master and the reward is sure and eternal.

The proceedings of the convention were reviewed by the beautiful singing of Miss Loew, of Toronto, and choronic ladies choir.
Heavy votes of thanks were passed to the good people around Lakeshore for their hospitality, to the trustees for the use of the church, to the singers and all who had contributed to the success of the convention.
The collection amounted to $2.55.
Then a very interesting and live convention was brought to a close about 8.30 p.m.

An Evening's Entertainment.
A highly enjoyable entertainment was held last evening in St. Luke's church. The attendance was large and the appreciation of the excellent programme marked. Rev. J. W. McCreary, the rector, presided. The programme opened with a chorus "Away with the Wind" by the Band of Hope, a song "The Soldiers Good-bye," by Miss Tivy, a reading, "A young Man's Attempt to Push a Baby Carriage," by Miss Armstrong, a song, "The Old Wooden Rocker," by Miss Maud Long and a vocal solo "I've Gotten and Gotten" by Miss Little Jackson. These numbers were delightfully rendered and were followed by an illustrated lecture "A Trip Around the World" by Mr. R. M. Roy. Mr. Roy's stereoscopic views never seem to give an exhibition he always has something new with which to delight his audience. After the excellent views which went with his profitable and interesting lecture and a numerous collection of disarming views, he gave a number of views of Jerusalem at the time of the crucifixion. This series were above for the first time and were of a very high order. They represent with accurate correctness with the scenes connected with the last hours of the Saviour and were put on the canvas with remarkable clearness. A chorus by the Band of Hope "Mellow Horn" and "God Save the Queen" closed the programme. Before the close Mr. R. B. Rogers moved, seconded by Mr. R. Adams, a vote of thanks to Mr. Roy, a resolution which was tendered with warm applause.

The Standing Committee for the Year appointed—The Judge's Report Received—An Application for Increase of Salary—The County Council resumed this morning. Wardens Foster in the chair and all members present.

The minutes of the previous day's session were read and approved.

A PROPOSED CHANGE.
Mr. CARRISBET, in reply to Mr. Maloney, said that his proposed amendment of the rate for the election of Wardens was to provide for the election being made by ballot.

THE CHURCH INVESTIGATION.
The WARDEN said that he had received the report of Judge Waller on the investigation into the expenditure of $100 by Mr. Kidd on the north line of Dunsmuir in 1884. He read a portion of the report showing that the Judge reported that the money had been expended.

Mr. BURNHAM enquired as to the cost of the investigation.
The CLERK said that a statement of the expenses was in the Finance Committee's book for that Committee to deal with.

The whole matter was referred to the Finance Committee.

IS POVERTY A CRIME?
An application was read from Mrs. Nesbitt, matron of the goal, for an increase of salary. He said she pointed out that she had also to act as matron of a poor-house owing to poor people being sent to the goal.

A discussion took place regarding the Storms family from Dunsmuir, which were confined in goal as vagrants. It was composed of the mother and six children, the eldest being only nine years old.

Mr. W. W. DUNDAS was called on and said his attention was called to this matter by a lady. It was a terrible thing to have young children growing up in the surroundings of the goal. He suggested that the children be sent to a home in Toronto.

Mr. BURNHAM thought it was an abuse of the law to commit people in this way as vagrants. Mr. MALONEY took the same view of it. Every township should look after its own poor. Mr. SANDERSON said that the South township was paying for the care of indigent people.

Mr. DUNDAS said it was an awful thing to send people to goal whose only fault was that they were ill or poor. It was time some provision was made for them.

Mr. BURNHAM—And it is worse in the case of children.

Mr. FURLA said it might cost less to do as they were doing than to build a poor house.

Mr. BURNHAM—But how long are these children to remain in goal? Are they to grow up there without any instruction?

On motion of Mr. Maloney the matron's application was referred to the Finance Committee and the Council adjourned.

THE BOARD OF TRADE.

Met and Form the Business Men's Mutual Protective Association.
The Board of Trade met at the Council Chamber on Tuesday night to receive a report from the Mercantile Committee on the formation of the proposed Business Men's Protective Association. The committee have had the matter in hand for some time and the result of the work is embodied in the draft of the proposed rules of order and regulations for the government of the association. It is proposed that the business men shall mutually combat one of the objectionable features of the credit system by making one another cognizant of the extraction of debts by parties and who neglect or refused to pay. A mutual exchange of facts in this regard will, if faithfully carried out, render it exceedingly difficult for credit to be obtained while one is indebted and owing are unsettled. Foreign societies undertake to do this work, but have been only partly successful, and it is felt that local effort will cover the field much more effectively and at a much less expense.

There was present, Mr. W. H. Meldrum, President, and Messrs. Taylor, Manson, Banny, Kinnear, McWhinnie, Fair, McKee, Hurley, J. P. Winch, R. J. Gibson, Matthews, Dobbin, Wilson and Phelan.

The report from the Mercantile Committee as to the formation of the association was read by the secretary, and its provisions left open for discussion.

The report provides for the appointment of a central office, to whom members of the association will report names of parties owing accounts and who refuse or neglect to pay the bills. The office will at once notify parties to effect settlement within specified time, failing which the names will be placed on register of association for information of members of association who may thus be in a position to discriminate when asked for credit. Bulletins will be issued to members at intervals of a fortnight giving particulars of facts reported also previous bulletins.

The proposed rules and regulations of the association were also submitted.

The report was received and afterwards read and discussed clause by clause and some amendments made, after which it was adopted.

The members were enrolled on the spot and the committee was authorized to acquaint the business men of the town of the scope of the association and to solicit members. The first meeting of the association will be called at an early date.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.
Mr. E. B. Lomax, manager for Mucklenstone & Co., Hardware Merchants, was elected a member of the Board of Trade. Mr. A. Gibson, of Clarke & Gibson, jewellers, and Mr. C. Lagro were also elected members. The meeting then adjourned.

A Bad Case.
Attention was again called, in the County Council this morning, to a very sad case. A couple of months ago a family consisting of a mother and six children were brought here from Dunsmuir and placed in the goal, having been committed from that township as vagrants. The father, named Storms, is living but is a useless man and did not provide for his family, and as the easiest way of disposing of the helpless woman and children they were arrested and sent here. The mother was a Brown—a relative of the family of idiots who were confined in the goal, but the children are said to be of average intelligence. The oldest child is a girl of nine years and the youngest are twins about a year old. The children are growing up in the goal, the home of criminals, because they are young and helpless, and it is no wonder that they are against this should be made. Mr. Burnham's question, are they to grow up in goal without instruction of any kind? Is a pertinent and forcible one and some action should be taken to remove them from the goal at the same time the whole question which it involves should be taken into consideration. Is not the case of these children a proper one for the interference of the newly organized Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children?

In my endorsement of Anti-Dandruff I can say something that I never could before, which is that this preparation is a perfect remover of dandruff not only in the first stages but even where the plague has become chronic and has merged itself into dandruff. During this time I have experimented with every recommended preparation, not one has (not I might say, even all put together) given the satisfaction that Anti-Dandruff has.

It positively removes dandruff. It stops falling of the hair. It cools the head. It makes an elegant hair dressing without leaving a trace of its use. Use it daily in my hair dressing place, at Balmoral Hotel, and have yet to find the great customer who was not pleased with it.

Coughing

Is Nature's effort to expel foreign substances from the bronchial passages. Frequently, this causes inflammation and the need of an anodyne. No other expectorant or anodyne is so good as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It soothes the inflamed membrane, relieves the irritation, induces repose, and is the most popular of all cough cures.

"Of the many preparations before the public for the cure of colds, coughs, bronchitis, and other diseases, there is none so good as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For years I was subject to colds, followed by terrible coughs. About four years ago, when so afflicted, I was advised by Dr. J. C. Ayer to use his Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and within a week was well of my cold and cough. Since then I have always kept this preparation in the house, and feel confident of its efficacy."

—MRS. L. A. BROWN, DORCHESTER, MASS.

"A few years ago I took a severe cold which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and, passed night after night without sleep. The doctor gave me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded the rest necessary for the recovery of my health. It is a most valuable remedy, and I feel confident of its efficacy."

Spargues to You Believed to be Dying

The Sultan's Narrow Escape From Death.

VIENNA, Jan. 27.—The trial of Frank Schaeffer and his wife for the murder of eight persons in the city of Vienna today. The prosecution succeeded in getting Schaeffer to confess that he murdered all the victims after ordering them.

Schaeffer volunteered to tell how the murders were committed and dramatically went through the blood-curling performance. He showed how he used to enter the struggling victims by the breast with his left hand, and with his powerful right hand clutch them by the throat and thus strangle the poor creatures.

In confessing his confession Schaeffer said that he had not killed the first woman he had outraged and robbed, because he had not at that time had the practice in the method of strangling which he afterwards acquired. The case has created a great sensation here.

Trade With China.

YANCOOVER, B.C., Jan. 27.—Vice-President Shaugnessy of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who has been visiting the leading trade centres of China and Japan, arrived here yesterday on the Empress of Japan, which vessel made another remarkably quick passage.

Mr. Shaugnessy states that the possibilities of trade between Canada and China and Japan, with a combined population of over four hundred millions of human beings, is simply a wonder which baffles the ordinary conception. He states that if properly watched and judiciously handled an enormous trade is certain to spring up for Canadian millers and manufacturers in flour, cotton and woolen goods, boots and shoes, provisions, fruit, canned and preserved meats and manufactured goods.

The Chinese and Japanese are just beginning to use these staples, and Canada is preferred to the United States in China, in consequence of the manner in which the Chinese are legislated against by the United States.

The goods from this country are certain to become a favorite with the untold millions of human souls in the Celestial and Flowery Kingdom. The market for Northwest and interior of British Columbia will become not only a steady but practically an illimitable one. Mr. Shaugnessy stated that Mr. Callaway, who went west with him, at Hong Kong, where it has been decided upon that the Canadian Pacific will establish a special office under the latter.

M. Ward, also the telegraph office, Robinson & Johnson's loan office, Miss White's millinery store were entirely destroyed. Loss about $150,000; insurance on block $700,000 on Reynolds' furniture and contents $2500, Myers $700 on contents.

Arrested As His Father's Funeral.

HAMILTON, Jan. 27.—A rather sensational affair occurred at Hamilton, in this country yesterday. W. J. Boyd, a wealthy resident, was gored by a bull some weeks ago, and from the effects he died. Mr. Boyd's son John, who since 1888 has been in Montreal, came here to attend the funeral, and was met with a capias order for his arrest. The order was secured at the instance of Albert J. Vanauken, who has entered action against John Boyd for breach of promise and seduction in 1888.

Knocked at the Well Door.

REBELVILLE, Jan. 27.—Thomas Geary, who was committed to Tread for burglary, made his escape from Constable Beely and Wilson of Tread after the vehicle in which he was brought to town had arrived in front of the jail. When one of the constables got out of the cutter (Geary, who had got rid of the handcuffs, jumped out on the other side of it and made his escape.

Physical Training, Calisthenics, Exercises, Aerobics, and other dances of all nations. Fancy dances for couples, private theatricals, minstrel, etc.—all modern society dances and latest costumes.

I beg to say that this school is strictly carried on the true principle of the art. I might add that there are no spectators admitted, thus securing a perfect confidence to work on the part of the pupil. The system is very comprehensive. Children of three years to five are numerous on my other schools and make sufficient progress to induce others to make their babies. First lessons always have a lasting effect on the pupil, and we would advise early subscription.

Classes will meet at Opera House, Mondays and Thursdays at 8 p.m. for Ladies and Gentlemen. Children, Minstrel, and other dances at 4 p.m. Private Lessons when not engaged with classes.

A POLITICAL COLUMN.

PRESTON AND HAGGART MEET AT KINGSTON.

The Quebec Royal Commission to Re-Open at Montreal To-Day—Liberal Conservatives of Menck Nominate a Candidate—General Political News.

MONTREAL, Jan. 28.—The Royal Commission commences its Montreal session in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, and at 10 o'clock. The Appeal Court rooms as the largest, has been chosen, as it is expected that there will be no disturbance.

There are rumors of many scandals from Quebec; but they must be tremendous in character to attract any particular attention.

After the Premier had signified his willingness to meet his present opponents, he was surrounded by a large number of the other Ministers. Mercier replied as follows:

QUEBEC, JAN. 28, 1895.

Hon. CHARLES D'ÉLLEVILLE, Prime Minister, Quebec.

SIR,—I regret that you seek presents to visit me before my departure for two meetings at St. Bonaventur tomorrow and St. Claire on Thursday. These presents are of no value to me, but I have accepted the responsibility of the dilemma which you put me in. I cannot possibly fix the date of the general elections. When one does such things one should be ready to face all consequences. I am a legislative councillor. You decline the contest for the seat of St. Bonaventur because that is your business, but let me tell you that you do not show much courage. You are afraid to fight me. I am a poor rusty sword at St. Anne de la Perle. As I am neither grand magnificent nor powerful, I can only defend myself. But there is not at St. Anne a public hall big enough to hold a meeting. If there were it is not favorable for an open air debate, would you be kind enough to limit the time to five minutes? I shall be very keen hearers and speakers too long waiting. I am, then, at present unable to accept your invitation. I am, Sir, Anne de la Perle. The affair will be between you and me. I am anxious to learn more about you although you are, you will understand in connection with the shield of the people.

Yours truly,
JAN. 28, 1895.
HON. JAMES MONROE

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes

That Tired Feeling
creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." ED. J. HENKINS, Mt. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out
"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BACOLS, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out
"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully it saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. PETER MOSHER, 36 Brookline Street, East Boston, Mass.

The Daily Review.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 1892.

THE WARDEN OF 1892.

The unanimous election of Mr. Joseph Forster, Warden of the County, to the position of Warden of the County was a just recognition of his services as a member of council both in his own township and in the county, and a tribute to the personal qualities which have won the confidence and respect of his colleagues. Mr. Forster is a native Canadian, as he was born in 1845 on the farm in North Monaghan upon which he still resides. In 1870 he entered the Township Council and six years later, upon the death of the late Henry Collins, he was called to the position of Reeve, to which he has been re-elected year after year by acclamation. He has also been a school trustee for many years. In his public position Mr. Forster has shown a proper spirit, and in the County Council he has taken an active part in managing the affairs of the county. In this election to the position of the head of that body the county has secured an efficient Warden who will carefully attend to the duties of the office.

F. W. FRANKLIN'S English advice of Jan. 9, says the Hamilton Spectator, show that, in Liverpool, Canadian apples were selling for, Baldwin 10c, to 10c, Greenings 10c, to 10c, Spices 10c, to 10c; while the best American apples were selling at, Baldwin 10c, to 10c, Greenings 10c, to 10c, and all the way down to 7c, for Baldwins. With unrestricted reciprocity no distinction could be made between American and Canadian apples.

SOUTH DUMMER.
Correspondence of the Review.

PRESENTATION.—On the evening of Monday, Jan. 18th, a tea meeting was held in the South Dummer church, which was very successful. During the evening Mrs. N. Davis was presented by her Sunday school class with a handsome pair of vases and the following address:—

To Mrs. N. DAVIS:
DEAR MRS. DAVIS:—We the scholars of your Sunday school class have taken the great interest you have always taken in us since you have taken our class, and we desire to present you with these vases as a slight token of our love to you. We thank you for the great interest you have taken in trying to make God's word more simple and plain to us and we all feel your great love for us. It is our hope and prayer that you may long be enabled to be with us Sabbath after Sabbath, and may God's choicest blessings be yours forevermore.

Signed on behalf of your class,
LARRY ARMSTRONG,
Ezra Brown.

Mrs. Davis made a suitable reply.

Never permit the system to become run down, as then it is almost impossible to withstand the ravages of disease. A WOMAN'S SACRIFICE.

A Canadian Girl Will Marry a Convict to Escape Him from Prison.

New York, Jan. 23.—On the night of Jan. 10 Detective Hall and Ryan caught two thieves breaking into a show case at Washington and Myrtle-avenues. The men scampered off, but were captured. One was Laurence O'Toole, 25, of No. 33 Johnson-street.

When the case was called to-day two friends of the prisoner told the judge that O'Toole wanted to reform and give up his wayward career and marry a young woman who was in love with him. The young woman was Julia Dempsey, the daughter of a well-to-do grocer of St. John's, Newfoundland. She had become acquainted with him while on a visit to Brooklyn and was captivated by him. Hearing of his last trouble she had determined to come to Brooklyn and marry him if his release could be secured.

Judge Walsh questioned the young woman closely and her answers seemed satisfactory. She said she had just come from St. John's and desired to marry O'Toole. She believed he was a good man at heart and would reform if he got a chance. Addressing the prisoner, His Honor asked him if he appreciated "the sacrifice this girl is ready to make for you?"

"I appreciate it thoroughly," said the prisoner. His Honor then paroled the prisoner, but said it was on condition that he marry the girl and get out of Brooklyn. O'Toole said he would carry out the agreement and leave Brooklyn, and the party left the court happy. O'Toole is about 25. He is an ex-convict, having served five years for highway robbery. He has been out of the penitentiary four months. Some time ago he stabbed a man in a fight. When arrested for his last offence he was living with a woman in Johnson-street.

EACH CAR ITS OWN MOTOR.

Railroad Trains Will Be Run by Electricity.

Pittsburg, Jan. 23.—A commission of nine railroad experts has been investigating here the subject of electrical transportation as applied to railroads. The commission represented the Northern Pacific, Wisconsin Central and other roads. The members visited the Edison works, the Thompson-Houston works at Lynn, Mass., and then spent two days at the Westinghouse works here. The result of their labors, which have been concluded, and the intentions of the railroads they represent were partially revealed by Chief Engineer Macbary of the Northern Pacific. He said: "I believe that the motive power will be applied directly to the axles of each car, thus making each car its own motor. Experiments are to be proceeded with at once. They will take place at the various works, and much of the cost will be borne by the railroads. I do not see why electricity should not displace locomotives, especially over steep grades. The question which will be most difficult of disposal will be the transmission of the current and the obtaining of equal conductivity in the wires."

Cleveland's Minstrels Disband.

OSHAHA, Neb., Jan. 23.—After three weary weeks of poor houses, light receipts and steadily increasing liabilities the W. S. Cleveland Minstrel Combination disbanded yesterday at Fremont, the sheriff took charge of the property. The company has been in hard lock for several months, and the Nebraska circuit proved a "Jonah." A portion of the troupe is in this city almost penniless.

Canadian Flour Men Sued.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—A. W. Ogilvie & Co., the Canadian flour men, were sued yesterday for $200,000 by Tracy D. Hull of this city. Last year Ogilvie is said to have sold out his 22 factories and numerous large milling plants throughout the British provinces, and commissioned Hull to arrange a deal with an English syndicate. Hull says he secured an option on the property, and found responsible English capitalists who were willing to pay $1,750,000 for the business. But, he says, the defendants, giving no good reason, refused finally to sell. The suit is for commissions and damages.

A St. Catharines Hotel Man Drowns.

WINDSOR, Ont., Jan. 23.—E. Russell Warner, one of the oldest hotel proprietors of the country, died suddenly at the Crawford House of pneumonia yesterday morning, aged 59 years. He came to Windsor New Year's day. Mr. Warner was paymaster of the R. & O. Cataract is not a local but a constitutional disease, and requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla to effect a cure.

For years I was persistently annoyed with an excessive accumulation of Dandruff and although various preparations recommended and shampooing regularly once a week, no material relief was realized until my attention was called to Anti-Dandruff, which has produced unexpected results in my case, four applications removing every particle of Dandruff and as a specific for this trouble it certainly has no equal.

REVIEWS.

THE METHODIST MAGAZINE.—(Toronto: William Briggs).—The article which will attract most attention in the February number is a memorial tribute to the late Dr. Stafford, by ten of his friends, accompanied by an excellent portrait. This tribute is worthy of the man and the man was worthy of it. Two illustrated papers of special interest are: "India; the Temple, its Palace, and its People," and the Rev. Dr. Hart's Missionary Journey in Western China. The Editor has also a paper on Across the Continent, with some striking illustrations. Mrs. J. H. McMeekin, an accomplished and active worker in the Woman's Missionary Society, contributes an admirable paper on The New Evangel, as she calls this noble department of church work. President Quay's stirring paper on Cromwell is concluded. Bishop Warren's Recollections in Astronomy are of fascinating interest. Fifteen pages are devoted to a stirring temperance tale of A Woman's Fight with the Monster. An important paper on Wesley's Ordinations, by E. S. Orr, and other articles, make up a strong number.

Subscriptions are coming in splendidly. Now is the time to secure the early numbers of the year.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

They Called on the Revue.
The Hastings Star says: "On Tuesday evening, of last week, the band went out to Mr. Jas. Moore's residence, a mile south of the village. They were warmly welcomed and report having spent a couple of hours very pleasantly."

Delegation the Result!
Some indulgence in narcotics to accustom and banish pain brought on by disease. The effects are terrible to contemplate; misery and degradation are the result. Faint's Cherry Compound removes pain and trouble, and the result is new life, peace and joy.

Further Provincial Aid Wanted.
Messrs. F. Birdsell and Charles O'Reilly represented East Peterborough at a meeting of delegates from agricultural societies at Toronto on Tuesday. A resolution moved by Mr. O'Reilly and seconded by Mr. Birdsell, asking the Government to increase the grant to the riding societies to $1000, the amount received by the township societies to remain as they are, was adopted, and Messrs. Birdsell and O'Reilly were members of a delegation which waited upon the Government and presented the request.

The County Officers.
The directors of the West Peterborough Agricultural Society for this year held their first meeting yesterday. Mr. Geo. E. Elliott, the President, in the chair. It was decided to hold the Central Exhibition this year on the 27th, 28th and 29th of September. A delegation composed of the President and Messrs. Birdsell, Kennedy, Vance and Collins was appointed to wait upon the County Council to ask for a grant. The election of officers was deferred until Feb. 17, when the work of revising the prize list will also be taken up.

That beautiful glossy sheen, so much admired in hair, can be secured by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. There is nothing better than this preparation for strengthening the scalp and keeping it free from dandruff and itching eruptions.

Mr. Westington Elected.
The vote of the Agricultural Societies in this district for a representative on the Executive of the Agricultural and Arts Association resulted in the election of Mr. W. J. Westington, of Plainville, West Northumberland. Mr. Westington secured the votes of West Northumberland, West Durham, East Northumberland and East Peterborough. The retiring representative, Mr. Robert Vance, of Ida, was supported by West Peterborough, South Victoria and East Durham, while North Victoria voted for Mr. T. B. Carlow, of Warkworth. Strong influences were brought to bear against Mr. Vance's reelection, but it is very creditable to him that in the three societies that favored his return there was not a vote against him.

It is very pleasant to take, soothes the inflamed membrane, and the little sufferer wakes up as bright as a button.

THE EXHIBITION.

The County Council Asked for a Grant for the Central.
The County Council went into session yesterday afternoon, Warden Forster in the chair.

A DELEGATION RECEIVED.
A delegation from the West Peterborough Agricultural Society, consisting of Mr. Geo. E. Elliott, President, Mr. R. Vance, Director, and Mr. Wm. Collins, Secretary, was received.

Mr. Elliott first addressed the Council. He spoke of the grant made by the Council last year to the exhibition, which was conditional upon the town granting $300. The town had really given $400, for the citizens subscribed $100 and the Town Council granted $300. This, however, was not held to fulfill the condition because the corporation had not granted $300. He read a paper signed by twelve members of the County Council stating that the intention was to make the grant providing the town either the citizens or the corporation, gave the required amount, but owing to the form of the resolution the Society did not receive the grant. They asked the Council this year to assist the Society.

Mr. COLLINS explained that the Town Council had declined to make a grant of $300 but had subsequently given $100. As the County Council had given nothing last year they should make their grant all the more liberal on that account this year. He suggested that the grant to the two riding societies should be proportioned according to the amounts they paid in prizes. Last year the West Peterborough Society paid out $1,273.75 in prizes, and the East Riding Society $604.45, or $673.90 less. The riding boundaries, he claimed, were not the correct boundaries, for many persons from the East Riding, some of them among the heaviest prize takers, came to Peterborough. They had good grounds and buildings and they wished to increase the prize list. They had good men on the Board of Directors, and with financial assistance they could make the exhibition second to none.

Mr. ROBERT VANCE said that other counties made grants to exhibitions, and the prosperous county of Peterborough should not be behind. He had had the honor to head a delegation from the East Durham Society to the Owan Council the other day and that Council had made a grant of $1,000. This was an example for this Council. Peterborough was a thriving and prosperous town and should have a first-class exhibition.

Mr. O'DONNOR moved, seconded by Mr. MOULTON, That the matter be referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. MOORE presented the claims of the East Riding Agricultural Society. It had a large exhibition.

Mr. FRYLAND thought it would be better to decide this matter in the Council instead of referring it to a committee.

Mr. GEO. E. ELLIOTT said the $150 they asked for last year they intended to make a saving with it.

Mr. KENNEDY said he supported grants to these exhibitions because there were many people, especially in the northern parts, who could not go to Toronto or other cities, but they could come to Peterborough. He had attended the exhibition at Peterborough and had seen as good stock there as could be seen any place, and at the Norwood exhibition last year he saw first-class stock from various parts of the Province. These exhibitions were of benefit and should be kept up.

The motion referring the matter to the Finance Committee was carried and the Council adjourned until Friday morning.

A DELEGATION FROM THE EAST.
The County Council this morning received Mr. P. Birdsell, of Asphodel, who waited upon the Council as a representative of the East Peterborough Agricultural Society.

Mr. BIRDSELL, addressing the Council, said he had been appointed by the East Peterborough Agricultural Society to wait upon them and see if the grant voted last year, about which there had been some misunderstanding, could not be arranged. They did not move in the matter before because they were arranging for additional ground, and they had now arranged for two acres and needed the grant to assist in preparing the grounds for exhibition purposes.

THE LICENSE LAW.

A Legal Point Raised on a Charge for a Third Offence.
Mr. T. O'Connell, of the Belmont hotel, was in the Police Court this morning charged with an offence under the Liquor License Act, it being alleged that he did sell liquor on Saturday night last contrary to the provisions of the statute. The charge was laid by Inspector Cochrane as a third offence, a conviction meaning that Mr. O'Connell was to lose his license.

Mr. R. E. Wood, County Crown Attorney, appeared for the prosecution and Mr. A. P. Pousette for the defence. Some fifteen witnesses were summoned.

Mr. Pousette commenced proceedings by taking exception to the information as laid. The information showed that the two alleged previous convictions had been made in 1889 and he submitted that these two offences having been committed before the first of May, 1891, the current license year, this offence did not come within the meaning of the Act as a third offence. Mr. Pousette held that the three convictions must be made all in the one license year, as each license stood alone and no license holder had any status in regard to any former license.

Mr. Wood argued that if this had been the intention of the Legislature it would have been easy to frame the law in that way. The intention was not to allow a license holder to run his limit and then commence each year with a clean sheet.

The Magistrate did not think the three convictions had to be made in the one year but noted the objection raised and proceeded with the case.

Only three witnesses were called and they proved the violation and the other witnesses were not required.

Inspector Cochrane, who went into the box and said that Mr. O'Connell was a licensed householder, was asked by Mr. Pousette raised the point that the license had not been given to him, but to his wife.

The Magistrate reserved judgment on Mr. Pousette's first objection until Monday morning.

Heating Water!
Some one said that Faint's Cherry Compound "is a running stream that hath much variety of great value." It has most undoubtedly proved its powers over disease sufficiently to convince the most skeptical.

The Revue Services.
There was a good attendance at the evangelistic services in St. Paul's Church last night. Rev. Mr. McKie gave an earnest address, speaking more particularly to Christians. A meeting will be held in St. Paul's this afternoon and again to-night. All are invited. Rev. Mr. McKie will hold another afternoon meeting in the Opera House on Sunday.

The Coming Carnival.
The Sons of Canada are arranging for a carnival to be held on a date to be named. Watch for date. The Committee having details in hand will do their utmost to have the carnival a brilliant and successful one.

There will be many features going ahead of anything yet attended. They propose that Canadian weather shall afford the opportunity for Canadian young men and women to display themselves in the best possible way, and the carnival will afford the chance. Watch for the date.

No one in ordinary health need become bald or gray if he follow sensible treatment. We advise cleanliness of the scalp and the use of Hall's Hair Renewer.

Fruit Growers Association.
A telegram from Mr. John Craig, Horticulturist of the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, announces that he will be at the meeting on Wednesday next (Feb. 2nd) at the Town Council Chamber. His experience as one of the greatest experts in fruit growing, especially in an equally cold climate. In addition to the present members it is hoped there will be a large turnout of both townpeople and farmers interested in fruit growing. The great object of the Association is to help the growing of fruit, especially apples that can be shipped to the English market, and for this purpose to get the best information as to the kinds that will succeed in this locality and that will answer for shipment.

The great object of good was to be met by the meeting held last year. This year it is hoped a larger number will be reached. Any one who has specimens of desirable apples, &c., is requested to bring them to the meeting. There will be a morning meeting at 10 o'clock and an afternoon meeting at 3 o'clock.

Our Best Public Men Have Given Strong
Amongst the many prominent people of Canada who have testified in favor of Harvard Brochural Syrup are well known ministers of the various denominations. Public speakers and members of parliament have given evidence of their testimony as well as scientists and singers. Harvard Brochural Syrup has, through grand work and prompt and honest results, gained the estimation of all classes who have suffered from sore throat, coughs, tickling sensations in the throat, and enlarged tonsils, and the most of the tonsils. Professional speakers, readers and singers do not consider themselves fully protected and equipped in their vocations, unless they are provided with a supply of the Harvard Brochural Syrup.

A Protest.
To the Editor of the Review.
Sir,—The great and serious defect in our school system is a pernicious one, viz., the lack of culture in some of our teachers. It has always been supposed that a "gentleman" in these democratic days, is a gentleman and that when he lays by his logarithm to be the tongue of eloquence, he will be purely classical. This culture is not the least expected of a school teacher. For some time one of these scholarly "gentlemen" as our inexperienced eyes of the past have been indulged in such a "liar" to some of his pupils. Now, it may be a "liar" to some of his pupils, but it is a "liar" to all.

It is hardly up to the spirit of "these degenerate days" that a teacher by example should call a boy a "liar." However, I can go so far as to say that, but, shades of the Academy! I am I to stand young girls called "liars"? At the Collegiate Institute in the Town of Peterborough two young girls, the daughters of respectable parents, have been called "liars"—plain, common "liars," by one of the most prominent and it is needless to say, polished members of the staff. Of course if the regulations demand the use of such language we must submit to it but I don't I humbly ask the Board to make inquiries with a view to the adoption of the good old fashion of indulging in such language as "liar" to some of his pupils. Now, it may be a "liar" to some of his pupils, but it is a "liar" to all.

SPRINGVILLE.

Correspondence of the Review.
UTTER BUTTER.—On Monday evening Messrs. Thos. Hunter and John McIntosh, two of the members of the Council of North Monaghan, entertained the members of Court Springville, Canadian Order of Foresters, and a number of visiting brethren, at an order supper in Goodfellow's Hall.

A session of Court was held, which was attended by brethren from Peterborough, Beltham, Mount Pleasant and Zion, after which about one hundred sat down to the sumptuous supper. The supper was followed by speeches, songs and recitations and a very pleasant social time was spent by the company, and all separated with warm feelings of good-will towards their entertainers. The proceedings closed with the National Anthem.

The Salvation Army band will be present and vocal selections will also be given. Rev. Mr. Thom will take the chair at 7.30. Silver collection.

Don't experiment with your health. You may be sure of the quality of your medicine, even if you have to take much of your food upon trust. Ask your druggist for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and no other. It is the standard and best blood purifier, the most efficient and economical.

In my endorsement of Anti-Dandruff I can say something that I never could before, which is that this preparation is a perfect remover of Dandruff not only in the first stages but even where the fungus has become chronic and has merged itself into a disease. Years of experience as a hair dresser, during which time I have experimented with every recommended preparation, not one has (nor I might say, even all together) given the satisfaction that Anti-Dandruff has.

It positively removes Dandruff. It stops falling out of the hair. It cools the scalp. It makes an elegant hair dressing without leaving a trace of its use. Use it daily in or hair dressing place, at Belmont Hotel, and have yet to find the great customer who was not pleased with it.

VIENNA, JAN. 30.—Frank Schneider and his wife Rosalie, who were charged with having decoyed eight young women from their homes on the pretext of employing them and then murdering them for the sake of their money and effects, have been sentenced to death.

Throughout the terrible arraignment of the prisoners by the public prosecutor Schneider sat with his head clasped in his hands and showed no emotion whatever. His wife, though she listened quietly to the scathing words applied to her, remained perfectly cool and unmoved.

When the death sentence was passed upon them they showed no fear, but listened to the fateful words with an air amounting almost to indifference.

Education in Germany.

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—The Sectarian education bill is under discussion in the Lower House of the Prussian Diet and masterly arguments for and against the measure are expected. The bill is a pet scheme of the Emperor, but is certain to meet with determined opposition.

Chancellor Von Caprivi to-day made a powerful speech in favor of the bill and took occasion to denounce the attitude of the National Liberals on the question. He said that if the members of that party continued in their opposition to the measure the Government would give further proofs of its ability to swim against the stream. The Chancellor added that it was not the Liberals but the National Liberals who

The C'hancellor declared in answer to this contention that the Government would steadfastly oppose the readmission of the Chancellor Von Caprivi concluded his speech by warning the opponents of the bill not to start an agitation in the country, as such a course would be doubly dangerous in the present difficult times.

Death of a Venerable Chorister.
LONDON, Jan. 30.—Mr. John Mitchell, chorister for about three-quarters of a century at St. George's Chapel, Windsor Castle, was buried at Windsor on Saturday. Commencing with the funeral of King George III. and terminating with the marriage of Prince and Princess Aribert of Anhalt the veteran chorister had taken part in most of the royal christenings, marriages and funerals at Windsor during the above-mentioned period. The funeral service was choral, the choir of St. George's and Eton College being present.

The Striking Copper Miners.
MADRID, Jan. 30.—The continuance of the strike at Bilbao is chiefly due to women inciting the strikers not to yield. A band of 40 women headed by working girls was ing knives and shouting "Hurrah for the strike," marched through the streets of the village of Ardoneda to-day threatening the property of the mine owners as they went along. The gendarmes guarding the mines and iron works were openly threatened with death.

No Quarter for Anarchists.
MADRID, Jan. 30.—The Minister of Public Works declared in the Senate yesterday that the Government would meet the anarchist Maximalist rebellion.

...the anarchists may say change: (further, he said, the Government had been content with simply dispersing the anarchists on that day, but they had resolved henceforth to decimate them. He hotly repudiated the suggestion that the troops fraternized with the Anarchists.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—Succi, the faster, to-day abandoned his attempt to go without food for 52 days. At noon it was announced that he would not be able to complete his task. At that time he had fasted within a few hours of 44 days. Succi presented a most shocking appearance. He

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered and to go on crutches. A year later, sciatica, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 8 years. In that time ten or eleven more appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well."

"Early in 1911 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus', in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then

I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEAH, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

A Fraternal Visit.

About sixty Good Templars from Peterborough and Ashburnham went to Mather's Corners last evening to attend an "open temple" held by the Happy Union lodge of that place. There were also a number present from Keene and with the people of the neighborhood filled the hall to overflowing.

A portion of the programme of the evening was furnished by the lodge at Mather's Corners, and then Bro. G. J. Early, Grand Marshal, of Carwell lodge, took the chair and the Peterborough visitors supplied the remainder, as follows:—A recitation by Miss Hamilton, a solo by Miss Kingston, a dialect recitation by Mr. James Munro, an address by Mr. Lindsay, a reading by Mr. John E. Richards, a recitation by Miss Kingston, a solo by Mrs. Munro, a recitation by Mr. Geo. Munro, mouth organ solo by Mr. Fisher, a recitation by Mr. E. Munro and a mouth organ solo by Mr. Hudson. The entertainment was an enjoyable one and the visit very pleasant. Carwell lodge expects to visit Keene lodge shortly.

There is a curious diversity of taste among smokers as to the kind of pipe they prefer. Some like the clay pipe best, others prefer the briar root, others again the meerschaum, some must have their pipe well seasoned before they can enjoy it, others again must have a new pipe and throw it away whenever it becomes little old. But though this diversity of taste among them is curious, it is not at all curious that there is substantial unanimity among them about the kind of tobacco to be used. Experience has proved to them that the "Myrtle Navy" brand of Meers, Tuckett & Son is the genuine article.

The Complimentary Concert. On Monday posters will be issued giving particulars of the programme for the complimentary concert to Mr. Howard. The committee expect that Mrs. Stevenson, who has already sung here and who was so favorably received, will contribute to the programme one or more songs. Local professional people and amateurs of the town will assist. The plan of the house is open at Howden's drug store. Price, reserved seats, 50 cents; general admission 25 cents.

JOHN MURPHY. A PROMINENT MONTREAL DRY GOODS MERCHANT'S ESCAPE FROM DANGER!

New Serious Trouble Was Averted! The vast army of newspaper readers in Montreal, and thousands throughout the Dominion, will, without hesitation, quickly recognize the above cut, reproduced from a photograph by Notman.

Mr. John Murphy, of the well-known and popular firm of John Murphy & Co., retail dry goods merchants, of Montreal, is a gentleman who is widely known and highly respected in social and commercial life. Mr. Murphy commenced business in one of the stores he now occupies, just a quarter of a century ago; and during that long period has seen many changes, not only in the dry goods business, but in the growth and prosperity of the commercial metropolis as well.

The writer well remembers Mr. Murphy's debut—his first appearance in the dry goods trade on his own account, and has watched with pleasure and unbounded satisfaction Mr. Murphy's continued years of success. His premises have been greatly enlarged from time to time; and to-day Mr. Murphy stands at the head of one of the finest and best equipped retail dry goods stores in Montreal.

Mr. Murphy's motto in life has ever been "upward and onward"; and through years of commercial depression and business adversity, Mr. Murphy has always maintained his secure business standing, and has steadily gone forward to greater honor and success.

Mr. Murphy's business career has been an eminently honorable one; and the business men of our country, who aspire to become merchants, can find no more noble pattern, as a guide to business success, than John Murphy.

To obtain the confidence of the public—especially of the ladies—and to maintain this binding link unbroken for so many years, is both from a commercial and moral point of view, a grand and noble victory, of which any man may well feel proud.

Mr. Murphy in his lifetime has been blessed with a good and vigorous constitution; but like thousands of other earnest men who, at times, confine themselves too closely to the many calls and details of an extensive business, and thoughtlessly neglect necessary exercise and rest; he overworked mind and body too much, and ere he was fully aware of the danger, Mr. Murphy found himself a subject of nervousness, indigestion and dyspepsia at various intervals. These are serious, annoying and terrible ailments for a business man to contend against. They wrest from the sufferer his vim, energy, snap and strength, and often are forerunners of alarming and fatal diseases.

Last October Mr. Murphy had a severe attack of nervousness and indigestion, which became so serious that prompt measures were necessary in order to get rid of the trouble. Upon former occasions, when these troubles came upon Mr. Murphy, he found but a small measure of relief from physicians. During the attack referred to, in October, a friend urged Mr. Murphy to use that wonderful and popular remedy, Paine's Celery Compound. The medicine was procured upon his friend's strong recommendation; and now Mr. Murphy's letter to the proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound will give the reader a true idea of its great worth and usefulness.

Mr. Murphy says:—"Indigestion and nervousness have been my trouble for years; and, having had a somewhat severe attack in October last, I bought a bottle of your Paine's Celery Compound, taking it in a little water, as directed, four times a day, before each meal, and before retiring at night. I derived almost immediate benefit from its use, and am now at the fourth bottle. I can testify, therefore, from my experience, in all honesty, that it is a first-rate tonic, and an very aid, from my improved health, that I have a trial."

It is well known that Mr. Murphy is no advocate or admirer of patent medicines; he has never used them or countenanced them in any way; and here let it be understood that, had it not been for his friend's recommendation, Mr. Murphy, doubtless, would now be under the impression that Paine's Celery Compound was but an ordinary patent, made simply to sell and draw in the dollars of the credulous, uneducated and unwary of our people.

To-day, Mr. Murphy classes Paine's Celery Compound with the most valuable agents known to the medical profession, and would not be without it if it cost ten times its present price. His improved health, his steady nerve, his vigorous appetite, sound sleep and freedom from pain, are to him sufficient evidence of its great worth and usefulness. In addition to all this, Mr. Murphy knows of many of his friends who have been brought to perfect health and strength through the use of this wonderful compound, and he has assured the writer that it will always give him great pleasure to recommend to the friends who he has the opportunity.

To the weary, sick and suffering in Canada, Mr. Murphy's letter will act as an agent of comfort and hope, and will cause many, who now suffer, to give up their idea that can with certainty bring new life, new strength, new vitality and new joys.

Oh, What a Cough! Will you heed the warning—the signal, perhaps, of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, consumption? Ask yourselves: "Can you afford, for the sake of saving 50c. to run the risk and do nothing for it? We know from experience that Shilo's Cure will cure your cough. It acts like magic."

"PROMPT AND PERMANENT."

RHEUMATISM.—Jan. 17, 1883, GEO. C. OSGOOD & CO., Druggists, Lowell, Mass., U. S. A., wrote: "MR. LEWIS DENNIS, 136 Moody St., desires to say: 'ORRIN ROBINSON, a boy of Graniteville, Mass., came to my house in 1881, walking on crutches; his leg was bent at the knee for two months. I gave him

ST. JACOBS OIL to rub it. In six days he had no use for his crutches and went home cured without them.'" and must prove conclusively its power over suffering and disease.

Lowell, Mass., U. S. A., July 9, '87: "The crippled boy ORRIN ROBINSON, cured by St. Jacobs Oil in 1881, has remained cured. The young man has been and is now at work every day at manual labor." GEORGE C. OSGOOD, M.D.

Mr. Murphy says:—"Indigestion and nervousness have been my trouble for years; and, having had a somewhat severe attack in October last, I bought a bottle of your Paine's Celery Compound, taking it in a little water, as directed, four times a day, before each meal, and before retiring at night. I derived almost immediate benefit from its use, and am now at the fourth bottle. I can testify, therefore, from my experience, in all honesty, that it is a first-rate tonic, and an very aid, from my improved health, that I have a trial."

It is well known that Mr. Murphy is no advocate or admirer of patent medicines; he has never used them or countenanced them in any way; and here let it be understood that, had it not been for his friend's recommendation, Mr. Murphy, doubtless, would now be under the impression that Paine's Celery Compound was but an ordinary patent, made simply to sell and draw in the dollars of the credulous, uneducated and unwary of our people.

To-day, Mr. Murphy classes Paine's Celery Compound with the most valuable agents known to the medical profession, and would not be without it if it cost ten times its present price. His improved health, his steady nerve, his vigorous appetite, sound sleep and freedom from pain, are to him sufficient evidence of its great worth and usefulness. In addition to all this, Mr. Murphy knows of many of his friends who have been brought to perfect health and strength through the use of this wonderful compound, and he has assured the writer that it will always give him great pleasure to recommend to the friends who he has the opportunity.

To the weary, sick and suffering in Canada, Mr. Murphy's letter will act as an agent of comfort and hope, and will cause many, who now suffer, to give up their idea that can with certainty bring new life, new strength, new vitality and new joys.

Oh, What a Cough! Will you heed the warning—the signal, perhaps, of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, consumption? Ask yourselves: "Can you afford, for the sake of saving 50c. to run the risk and do nothing for it? We know from experience that Shilo's Cure will cure your cough. It acts like magic."

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 Years - Restored to Perfect Health.

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Hamilton, Va. He says: "Before 1873 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to its pangs, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, but all night in my work, but at times I would have welcome death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to ease up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

THE QUEBEC REVELATIONS.

The Royal Commission which is investigating the transactions of the Mercur

Government in Quebec is bringing out further evidence of the wholesale booting that went on. Transaction after transaction is looked into and it is shown by the evidence of those connected with them and the bankers that the Province was robbed for the benefit of private individuals or for the political funds of the party.

There is one feature in these startling revelations this is of interest outside of Quebec. When the last Dominion elections were announced Mr. Mercier announced that he would stand by his leader, Mr. Laurier, and that the services of himself and his colleagues were at his disposal. But he did more than that. Money which had been voted as a subsidy to the Montreal and Ottawa railway went into the political fund for the federal elections and was used for the benefit of the Liberal party of the Dominion led by Mr. Laurier. Mr. Mercier boasted at the time that he would carry Quebec for the party, and he provided, out of the Provincial treasury, funds to help him in trying to carry out his boast. Aid it was shown that after the elections, when the Liberals wanted funds to protect the elections of Conservatives elected to the House of Commons, the Quebec treasury was again drawn upon through the aid of the Quebec railway grant. Mr. Laurier had promised to increase the subsidy to Quebec if he was placed in office, and to secure the fulfillment of that promise and thus obtain more money to squander, Mr. Mercier provided funds for the Dominion party and aided it all he could, knowing at the same time that if Mr. Laurier was successful he and his friends would have Ottawa to draw upon as well as Quebec.

The Royal Commission has heard the evidence of Mr. Whelan, the contractor for the Quebec court house, who stated that to Mr. Mercier and his friends he had paid over $20,000. Big grabs and little grabs were alike snatched up by the crew that was fattening upon the spoilation of the of the Province.

But despite this record Mr. Laurier cannot turn from his friend Mr. Mercier, for was not much of the thieving done to help to place Mr. Laurier in office? And his only advice to the people of Quebec, who have suffered so much, is to return Mr. Mercier to office.

At Ottawa the Conservatives have published all who were guilty of irregularities, and have shown a determination to punish all who have been guilty of wrong. But the leader of the Dominion Liberals, instead of following a similar course, gives his aid to return to office the men who have robbed the Quebec treasury.

As a cure for cold in the head and catarrh Nasal Balm is endorsed by prominent men everywhere. Dr. Derbyshire, president of the Ontario Oculary Association, says: "Nasal Balm beats the world for catarrh and cold in the head. In my own case it effected relief from the first application. Sold by dealers or sent by mail on receipt of price—50 cts. and $1 a bottle. Fulford & Co., Brockville, Ont."

THE COUNTRY'S FINANCES.

The Public Account for the Past Year—A Good Showing.

The public accounts of Canada for the last fiscal year were issued from the Government printing bureau on Thursday.

The revenue on account of consolidated fund was $28,575,510, the expenditure $28,343,567, showing a surplus of $232,943. The expenditure on capital account totalled $2,115,420.

The receipts from Dominion lands amounted during the year to $284,462; the amount invested in the purchase of land was $1,938,975; the total amount paid on 30th June last for sinking fund purposes was $28,555,511.50.

The debt redeemed, exclusive of savings bank withdrawals, amounted to $1,000,000. The Dominion notes in circulation increased $215,434, and on the 30th June the total outstanding was $16,176,317.

The net debt of the Dominion on the 30th June last was $27,838,520 an increase of $275,818 in the year, accounted for as follows:

Expenditure on public works (capital).....	$ 515,792
Expenditure on railways and canals (capital).....	3,503,408
Expenditure on Dominion lands (capital).....	94,847
Expenditure railway subsidies.....	126,875
Expenditure North-west rebellion.....	3,900
Transfers to deficit of consolidated fund.....	68,574
Less sinking fund investment.....	$ 1,886,578
Surplus.....	3,286,743
Remainder.....	4,173,922
Total.....	$ 27,838,520

A new table accounts for the increased debt from 1st July, 1887, to 30th June last. The following is a summary:

Debt increased by:
Expenditure on railways, canals, other public works, and the Canada Pacific railway.....	$2,525,141
Consolidated fund deficit transfers.....	1,125,987
Railway subsidies.....	9,886,893
Expenditure on and discount on loans.....	10,257,478
Deficits.....	15,860,428
Transfers to deficit of consolidated fund.....	5,725,571
Allowances to provinces.....	80,748,388
Debt decreased by:
Sinking fund.....	2,786,519
Surplus.....	8,362,886
Consolidated fund credit transfers.....	5,768,155
Receipts from premiums on loans.....	55,972
Receipts from Dominion lands.....	4,276,526
Refunds from sales of public works.....	13,804
Total.....	74,678,112
Net increase.....	$162,683,289

The Deputy Minister, Mr. Courtney, points out that the rate of interest paid on the gross debt averaged for the year 5.50 per cent., against 4.87 for the previous year. The net rate of interest paid on the debt fell from 3.99 to 3.94.

Its average rate of interest on the funded debt payable in London is .83, as against .82 in the first year of the drift regime, 1874, and .73 in 1875, the last year of the notorious Sir Richard's Finance Minister. During the year silver and copper coinage to the amount of $10,000 was procured for the Dominion through the office of the High Commissioner for Canada, and the profit thereof amounted to $24,821.78.

"Listed," as the brokers say, at "100 Does One Dollar," Hood's Sarsaparilla is always a fair equivalent for the price.

REVIEWS.

A New Guide to Japan and China—"Westward to the Far East" is the name of a neatly and tastefully fashioned little guide book, published by the General Passenger Department of the Canadian Pacific Railway for the convenience of those who are making, or who intend to make, the new and fashionable trip across the American Continent, and on to Japan and China. The dress of the book is pretty and distinctly Japanese, and the matter within is written by one who evidently is familiar with the place mentioned, and the customs and observances described, and who writes with a kindly appreciation of the people and pleasures of Japan, as well as with an artist's love for the beautiful in nature. The book contains all the information concerning the daily wants of a traveler which tourists find so useful, as well as a vocabulary in English and Japanese of the principal words and phrases in use when shopping, sightseeing, etc. The guide can be procured gratuitously on application to any of the agents of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHER.—The January number of the American Amateur Photographer is issued by The Oulton Co. (240-241 Fifth-ave., New York), which has combined the publication of the magazine along with the Oulton. The Amateur Photographer will continue to be edited by Miss Barnes and Mr. Beach. This number contains an excellent illustration, The Village Cobbler, and highly useful articles on The Question of Selection of Portraits, Lantern Slides, Toning and Fixing Gelatin-Chloride Prints, and other practical subjects. The society news and publishers departments are interesting and valuable.

ST. NICHOLAS.—As one looks over the pages of the February St. Nicholas, at every moment the eye is attracted by some bright thought in text or drawing. At the very front door comes J. H. Dolph's clever dog and cat picture. Then there is the picture of the little man in the orchestra. Oliver Herford, singing and dancing, sets at rest any question as to the invention of the umbrella. A strike in the Nursery! is a good idea. Of soldier fiber are the certain and continued articles, quite weighty enough to redeem the number from frivolity: Tom Kipling's Branden Matthews' boy story, The Admiral's Caravan, by Charles Carrol, Strange Corners of Our Country, by Mr. Charles F. Lumsden; Laura E. Richard's account of When I was Your Age, and Two Girls and a Boy. All of these are illustrated by the unexcelled artists who work for St. Nicholas. Other features struggling to be prominent among these attractions are A South American Hunt, by Herbert H. Smith, The Winning of Venezuela, by Tudor Jenks, Crooked Dick's historical ballad, by Ann Robinson Brown, and the charming verses for young children by Katharine Pyle and by Mrs. Wiggins.

THE CENTURY MAGAZINE.—The most timely article in the February Century is the one written by Mr. G. G. Bulfinch, assistant editor of the magazine, which records the results of a personal investigation by him, in behalf of the readers of The Century, into the history, methods, and designs of a just now notorious institution. The title of the paper is The Degradation of a Slave; or, the Charitable Career of the Louisiana Lottery. This number is also made notable by a posthumous story by Wolcott Balestier, who is the co-author with Mr. Kipling of The Naulahka. Baffey is novel in plot and situation. Captain Francis V. Greene, late of the regular army, who now holds a commission as major in the militia, contributes an important illustrated paper on The New National Guard; and in Open Letters General A. V. Kautz offers a plan of using the regular army serve as a school for officers of volunteers with a view to the national defense; Lieutenant R. E. Evans puts in a plea for a National Militia. In the same number The Naulahka is continued, also Dr. S. Weir Mitchell's contribution, the text being enriched by some original poems, and there are short stories by Mrs. Burton Harrison, author of The Anglomaniacs, and by the new South-east writer, Mrs. Virginia Fraser Boyle. Apropos of Washington's Birthday, Mr. Charles Henry Hart, of Philadelphia, has an illustrated paper giving hitherto unpublished portraits of General and Mrs. Washington, and Nelly Curtis. A most notable paper, by Edward Atkinson, on The Australian Ministry of Land Titles. Pioneer Days in San Francisco, Dr. John Williamson Palmer, and Dr. Wheatley's concluding paper on The Jews in New York are strikingly illustrated. The famous Belia, by Titian, engraved from the original by T. Cole, furnishes the frontispiece of this number of The Century. American art is interestingly represented by a full-page engraving of Brush's Killing the Moose. There are poems by Frank Dempster Sherman, Clinton Scollard, Richard E. Burton, Roscoe Chandler, Katharine Lee Bates, Charles J. O'Malley, and others. In Topics of the Time are editorials entitled Will an American State be Guilty of Suicide? A Cheap-Money Hand-Book, and The Metropolitan Museum.

Two Useful Books.—Shortland and Twiss' and Physical Culture published by the Fowler & Wells Co., 775 Broadway, New York, are useful volumes. The latter especially, with the instructions illustrated by diagrams, is a timely publication.

A Pleasant Herb Drink.—A Spring Medicine. The druggists tell us that the people call daily for the new cure for constipation and sick-headache discovered by Dr. Elias Lane. It is said to be Oregon grape root (a great remedy in the West for those complaints) combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It is in 50c and $1 a package and is called Lane's Family Medicine.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Henry Found.
A girl picked up a purse on Sunday on the street that contained a sum of money and left it in the police office, where the owner may apply for it.

Two Dollars Each.
Two young men appeared before the Police Magistrate this morning on a charge of having been drunk and disorderly and were fined $2 each.

St. John's Church.
To-morrow being the Festival of the Presentation of Christ in the Temple, common to all Christians, the Rev. Father will be at the altar in the afternoon immediately after school hours, at 4.15.

Shakespeare will please anyone as he modifies his theme: Thrice is he dead who bath his system straitened with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and he but naked, though arrayed in fur, whose blood is poor or with disease corrupted. An incomparable medicine!

They Break After Hours.
The law which provides for punishing those who drink in a hotel after hours, is being enforced at the O. P. Hotel. Two men were charged with having obtained liquor in the hotel after seven o'clock on Saturday night. One of them pleaded guilty and was fined $2 and $1.50 costs each, and the other pleaded not guilty and his case was adjourned.

As a cure for paralysis, sciatica, rheumatism, female troubles, such as irregular menstruation, etc., general debility and that tired feeling peculiar to many, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are unsurpassed. Beware of imitations and substitutes. Sold by all druggists or sent by mail post paid, on receipt of price, to the Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

Struck the Watch.
A lad was arrested on Saturday night charged with larceny. He and a couple of companions were together when they met Roland Peoples, a negro, at the O. P. Hotel. The lad was charged with having obtained liquor in the hotel after seven o'clock on Saturday night. One of them pleaded guilty and was fined $2 and $1.50 costs each, and the other pleaded not guilty and his case was adjourned.

Struck the Watch.
A dead cat was committed by someone during Saturday night at Dr. Goldsmith's stable. On Sunday morning one of the doctor's horses was taken out of the stable to be attached to a vehicle, when it was discovered that something was wrong with the animal. An examination showed four wounds on its breast, one as if made with a knife. The horse was returned to the stable and Dr. Goldsmith's horse, who attended to the injured animal. A thorough examination of the stall, which has been steadily in use for years, disclosed no means by which the horse could have injured itself, and the conclusion was reached that some felonious person had deliberately strangled the horse. The words are serious; it is thought that the animal will recover.

A FINE IMPOSED

For a Third Offence Against the Liquor License Law.
The charge against T. O'Connell of having sold liquor after hours on Saturday night came up for judgment this morning having been reserved on the legal point raised by Mr. Poussette.

Mr. Poussette said that under the view of the law taken by the prosecution a man might be convicted in one place ten years ago, in another five years after and be brought up here for the third offence, which would be unreasonable.

The Magistrate said that it was probable that they should not go back further than two years, as the forfeiture of the license for a third offence was for two years.

Mr. Poussette said that this was an offence created by law and the statute should be liberally interpreted. There was enough in it to justify the withdrawal of the charge as a third offence. The Inspector was more desirous of warning hotel keepers than of punishing anyone.

Mr. Poussette said he had nothing to do with that, and could not concede the soundness of the legal point taken.

Mr. Poussette (to the Inspector)—Mr. O'Connell, what do you think of the suggestion I made?

Mr. O'Connell—It is in the hands of the County Attorney.

Mr. Poussette—Well, Mr. Wood, what do you say?

Mr. Wood—I am not prepared to take the burden of making the charge.

The Magistrate then rendered judgment imposing a fine of $100 and costs to be paid in ten days, on the charge as it stood. The case will be appealed on the legal point raised, that for a charge for a third offence the two previous convictions must have been in the same license year.

This judgment, if sustained, will carry with it the forfeiture of the license.

AGAIN ADJOURNED.

The North Monaghan Threshing Case Enlarged Another Week.

The case in which three members of the North Monaghan Grange ask to have James J. Brealey bound over to keep the peace was called again this morning in the Police Court.

Mr. Brealey said that Brealey was still unable to appear owing to the whipping he received. Since the case was up before, he said, the complainants had obtained an order from the Judge to have Brealey examined and their physician said it would be unsafe for him to appear in the court and that he was effectively bound over to keep the peace for some time.

The Magistrate—Do you want the court to adjourn to his house?

Mr. Brealey thought the case should be dismissed.

Mr. Brealey said that Mr. Stone should have produced a medical certificate, as they did not admit that Brealey was unable to come. He suggested that an adjournment might be made with the understanding that Brealey must attend.

Mr. Brealey remarked that if Mr. Stone would undertake that Brealey would breathe easy until then.

Mr. Stone answered that he would undertake more than that before they were through with the matter.

Mr. Wm. Robson, a well known resident of North Monaghan, is very ill.

Rev. A. MacWilliams, of St. Andrew's church, was able to attend services yesterday, but was not sufficiently recovered to take charge of the services.

V.E.C.A. Notes.

The young men's rally on Saturday night was largely attended and all present listened with great interest to Evangelist Melkie, who gave an earnest gospel address on "The Life of Joseph." An after meeting was held and many young men resolved by God's help to lead a new life and to take Jesus Christ as their personal Saviour.

The Sabbath morning Bible Class and Consecration meeting was held as usual in the Association parlour and was conducted by Mr. Robert Bussell. Topic "The Suffering Saviour." Isaiah 53rd chapter.

Sabbath afternoon at 4 p.m. Bradburn's Opera House was filled by a large audience of "men, women and children" to listen to Evangelist Melkie give another of his plain talks, the subject being "The Moral Man, The Sport, The Hard Case." The speaker was listened to with great interest as he went on to show the difference between "The Moral Man, The Sport and The Hard Case" and that all were the same in the sight of God. The singing was led by the Y. M. C. A. band.

The usual Gospel and Song Service was held last evening, the association hall being filled by a large audience. Miss Camilla Sanderson gave an interesting address, the subject being "The Two Paths."

The Evangelistic Sermon.

Rev. Mr. Melkie occupied the pulpit of the Charlotte-st. Methodist church last evening and delivered a vigorous sermon on the text "And now it is high time that we awake out of our sleep." The after service was well attended and there were a number of personal applications for prayer. The services this week will be held in the Charlotte-st. church.

A Morning Fire.

At about seven o'clock this morning a blaze was discovered in the dress making department of Messrs. Hall, Innes & Co.'s store. The fire had started by some means in a box of drapery and had burned some shelving with drapery and come up through the ceiling to the tailoring department. The alarm was sent across to the fire hall and the firemen were soon on hand and extinguished the blaze. The damage to the building amounted to about $50 and goods to the value of about the same amount were destroyed. The damage is covered by insurance.

From Greener Association.

Latest advice from England show that Canadian apples are quoted at a considerably higher price than American apples of the same kind. This fact, which is largely due to the better flavor and better keeping qualities of the apples from the colder climate, shows that Canada can command the English market, and as this country is near the northern limit of apple culture, it follows that Peterborough should not be behind any part of Canada. What is wanted is a knowledge of the various markets which will suit this climate and also suit the English market. No man is better qualified than Professor Craig to give the necessary information. We hope to see large meetings at 10 and 2 o'clock.

New Dynamite Explodes.

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir.—It is rather surprising to see what a great deal of time is spent in our papers, speaking of the late explosion at Dublin Castle, an able writer says:—"That the explosive was not dynamite is assumed from the fact that it wrought destruction upwards instead of downwards, which is the rule with dynamite." Now, for one to say that the last six words in the above sentence is the height of nonsense would be a very mild term indeed. We have tried it in many different ways and proved that it displays its force exactly equal in every direction. A small portion placed between two boards and exploded horizontally by a string, will shatter the upper one equally as much as the lower one. A portion placed in an iron pipe, placed as above, will just enough to burst in shatter every part of the pipe and the iron will fly in every place and direction to the very ends of the pipe, and it will only moderately fracture it, make a hole in the clay with a bar, lodge the cartridge close up under the centre of the rock, the explosion will not be as loud, but the rock will be rent in a thousand places, and the explosion will be a decided uniformity in the direction of its rays of light as does the sun or stars. Best proof is: A manufacturing firm of dynamite direct to defy any kind of explosive to throw their burden clear to the bottom of the hole, and our dynamite, a brilliant and decided success. We drilled a hole six inches in diameter, and a foot deep in a solid iron ore, starting at the bottom and drilling upwards, and the agent's first charge of dynamite blew out the tamping with awful force, second and third charges only caused the ground to shake, and a faint report as if miles away. On reaching the bottom of the hole, in course of time by other means, we found that the hole, for the length of the charges, was from 10 to 20 inches in diameter, and as round and even from the centre as a compass could make it, the hole was a perfect cylinder and the charges placed above, beneath, or in a vertical line around the object, striking the same resistance, will exert equal force, as the explosion occurs in so less a fraction of a second than the time it takes the atmosphere, not having time to recede, is of itself an object of almost equal resistance. EXPERIENCE.

A Ten Dollar Gold Piece for a Cent.
Some time ago, a gentleman bet that if he stood at the corner of Broad way and Fourteenth-st., New York, and offered gold Eagles to the passer-by for a cent each, he would find no purchasers. The experiment was tried and it turned out just as he said. No one would believe that the coins were genuine. It seemed too good to be true. An equally remarkable offer is that made by the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the sovereign cure for Consumption. Think of it! restoration to life and health for mere song. There is not a case of Lung-scurf—in other words, Consumption—that will not yield to it, if it is taken in time. It is the greatest blood purifier ever known, and is guaranteed to benefit or cure in all diseases of the throat and lungs, or money refunded. Only extraordinary cures, properties could warrant its claim to its makers in selling it, on a trial!

THEIR FUTURE RULER.

THE QUESTION OF THE SUCCESSION TO THE THRONE.

Life is Unpopular, but Only With the Aristocracy, Who Dislike the Idea of a Subject Being so Near the Crown
Personally as by Issue—The People Love the Queen.

London, Feb. 2.—The profound sensation which was created by the death of the Duke of Clarence, is, of course, subsiding, but the possible results of that event on the succession to the Crown, still afford much food for reflection to those who look a little ahead.

Indubitably one of the immediate effects of the Duke's death has been to strengthen the hold of the Crown upon the country.
Once more the domestic instincts of the people have been forcibly attracted to it.
The Queen's letter has been read with sympathy in every home.

The Queen's Influence.
She understands the English people and how to stir their emotions. Her regard for family ties gives her more real power over the nation than any consideration of state.
The same thing made George III. popular.
The Queen's letter has been read with sympathy in every home.

The Queen's letter has been read with sympathy in every home.

When the struggling crowd had reached a point opposite the Burlington Hotel, the police having become disheartened, another rush was made and proved successful.

The flag was seized from its stilted position and torn into shreds. Caps were swung and the crowd roared and howled
and the air was filled with the sound of trampling feet. Some fruit-laden baskets were trampled upon.

The scene of violence was continued till the Army retreated into the Citadel, and the police were left to disperse the mob, which came into collision with the police, and the uniforms of all were spoiled.

Run on the Rocks.
London, Feb. 2.—The steamer Eider,
New York for Bremen, ran ashore on the
Alderford rocks, late of Wight, yesterday.
In the afternoon, however, the Eider's engines were started and an attempt was made to get her off with her own power.
There is now no prospect of floating the Eider until the next high tide, however.
It is believed there is not the slightest danger of the Eider's wrecking.

A despatch at 10 p.m. says all the passengers and the rest of the mail have been safely landed. The crew remain aboard preparing for the attempt to tow the steamer off. The attempt will be made at 1 o'clock in the morning. The last boat-load of passengers was landed amid the rejoicing of a large crowd on the beach.
The rescuing crew received an ovation.
The steamer remains aboard the ship. The captain thinks the vessel will come to no harm during the night. The weather is finer than during the day, the night being clear and starlight.

The Eider left New York Jan. 23, carrying 15 cabin, 35 steer cabin and 150 steer passengers for Bremen. She also carried a large quantity of mail matter and a valuable sacred cargo.

Hospitals at Odessa Crowded With Fever
Patients Suffering From Hunger.
London, Feb. 2.—The Odessa correspondent of The Daily News says: Hunger
typhus is spreading alarmingly. In large towns in this region all the hospitals are filled and private buildings are being converted into hospitals. This is the state of affairs in Moscow and Vladivostok.

A correspondent writing from Rixian
declares that the more fanatical and superstitious portion of the peasantry believe that Count Tolstoi is Anti-Christ and decline to accept his bounty for fear that they will thus commit their souls to perdition.

Wales' Old Doctor Dead.
London, Feb. 2.—By the death of Sir
Oscar Clayton, the eminent surgeon, the Prince of Wales has lost one of his oldest friends. Clayton was the first of the doctors summoned when the Prince was taken ill
in 1871, to diagnose the case of typhoid fever,
and he has always had the credit of saving the Prince's life. Sir Oscar was a rich bachelor and nearly 75 years old when he died, but he never ceased to be reminded that he had grown old. He always dyed his hair and enjoyed life immensely.

At West From Toll.
MONTROSE, Feb. 2.—The remains of the Rev. Charles H. Spurgeon are lying on the bed on which he died. The bed around the body is almost hidden from sight by the number of floral wreaths that have been sent by relatives, friends and admirers of the deceased. The features of the dead man show not the slightest evidence of death agony. He looks as though he had simply fallen asleep, and his face bears the placid expression of one at rest from pain.
The body will be removed to-morrow to the mortuary chapel in the cemetery.

Starving Poor Handled in Process Feed.
LONDON, Feb. 2.—Russian notices show
that large numbers of starving peasants are daily arriving at Samara, a city of about 75,000 inhabitants. They are unable to find work or procure food and many of them are being made desperate by the pang of hunger. The robbery of shops, houses, etc., is becoming frequent. The suffering people steal anything that they can lay their hands on that will bring them money, even brass plates are taken from the doors of houses and door handles. Many of the famished wretches have been attacked by typhus fever and they are dying
in large numbers.

All Quiet in Samoa.
ATKLAND, New Zealand, Feb. 2.—Advices have been received from Samoa to the effect that Matafua and other absolute peace has been restored. The danger of civil war is now over. Baron Pilach has withdrawn his resignation of the presidency of the Apia council.

Man and Wife Murdered by Burglars.
PETERBOROUGH, Feb. 2.—Burglars entered the house of a man named Debourges, near Compende, and after murdering him and his wife plundered and set fire to the house.

A Great Grandmother at Forty-Seven.
LOCKPORT, N.Y., Feb. 2.—A great-grandmother at the age of 47. This is the record of Mrs. Henry K. Updegrave of Tower
City, Pa. She was married in her 14th year, her oldest daughter was married at 15;
her granddaughter was married at 16;
and now a mother.

Outmet's Opponent Retires.
MONTREAL, Feb. 2.—There will be no
political contest in Laval. Mr. Cyrille St.
Armour, who was nominated by the Liberals, has retired. This gives the seat to Hon.
J. A. Robitaille without a fight.

Do You Knapp's Balm,

THROW THEM INTO THE SEA.

A Mob Fiercely Attacks a Salvation Army Corps.

LONDON, Feb. 2.—There was rioting in Eastbourne at the Salvation Army celebration of the founding of the corps.

After the usual morning service the Salvationists marched through the streets under police protection, but were only disturbed by running comments and chaff from the crowds on the sidewalks.

In the afternoon a mob rapidly collected at the Army Citadel, and as the "soldiers" filed out, singing their processional hymn, they were subjected to more chaff accompanied by the singing of a ribald parody, yelling and hooting. Several hundred well-dressed men formed a corps 20 abreast, and the procession of the "soldiers" was broken up, and it was proposed to hold a meeting.

Along the whole route windows, balconies and even carriages in the street were filled with citizens and visitors watching the scene.

A huge mob awaited the Army at the sea-front and with howls drowned the voices of the Army leaders. The police had great difficulty in clearing a way for the "soldiers," who had to cling tenaciously to their instruments and flags, without daring to move toward the mob. Directly the service began the mob swept down upon the Army shouting, "Throw them into the sea!"

The forces of the police were augmented and resisted rush after rush, although nearly overpowered by numbers.

The Salvationists were pelted with pellets by their foes throughout the half hour they remained on the beach. When their service was seemingly ended, although not a word of it had been heard, the members of the Army commenced their return march.

They climbed to the parade with the utmost difficulty, their assailants making frequent rallies, but failing to capture the Salvationist flag. Desperate hand-to-hand encounters with policemen were continued.

A few clergymen and soldiers were present,
but held aloof.

When the struggling crowd had reached a point opposite the Burlington Hotel, the police having become disheartened, another
rush was made and proved successful.

The flag was seized from its stilted
position and torn into shreds. Caps were swung and the crowd roared and howled
and the air was filled with the sound of trampling feet. Some fruit-laden baskets
were trampled upon.

The scene of violence was continued till
the Army retreated into the Citadel, and
the police were left to disperse the mob, which came into collision with the police, and the uniforms of all were spoiled.

Run on the Rocks.
London, Feb. 2.—The steamer Eider,
New York for Bremen, ran ashore on the
Alderford rocks, late of Wight, yesterday.
In the afternoon, however, the Eider's engines were started and an attempt was made to get her off with her own power.
There is now no prospect of floating the Eider until the next high tide, however.
It is believed there is not the slightest
danger of the Eider's wrecking.

A despatch at 10 p.m. says all the passengers and the rest of the mail have been safely landed. The crew remain aboard preparing for the attempt to tow the steamer off. The attempt will be made at 1 o'clock in the morning. The last boat-load of passengers was landed amid the
rejoicing of a large crowd on the beach.
The rescuing crew received an ovation.
The steamer remains aboard the ship. The
captain thinks the vessel will come to no harm during the night. The weather is finer than during the day, the night being
clear and starlight.

15 cabin, 35 steer cabin and 150 steer passengers for Bremen. She also carried a large quantity of mail matter and a valuable sacred cargo.

Hospitals at Odessa Crowded With Fever
Patients Suffering From Hunger.
London, Feb. 2.—The Odessa correspondent of The Daily News says: Hunger
typhus is spreading alarmingly. In large towns in this region all the hospitals are filled and private buildings are being converted into hospitals. This is the state of affairs in Moscow and Vladivostok.

A correspondent writing from Rixian
declares that the more fanatical and superstitious portion of the peasantry believe that Count Tolstoi is Anti-Christ and decline to accept his bounty for fear that they will thus commit their souls to perdition.

Wales' Old Doctor Dead.
London, Feb. 2.—By the death of Sir
Oscar Clayton, the eminent surgeon, the Prince of Wales has lost one of his oldest friends. Clayton was the first of the doctors summoned when the Prince was taken ill
in 1871, to diagnose the case of typhoid fever,
and he has always had the credit of saving
the Prince's life. Sir Oscar was a rich bachelor and nearly 75 years old when he died, but he never ceased to be reminded that he had grown old. He always dyed
his hair and enjoyed life immensely.

At West From Toll.
MONTROSE, Feb. 2.—The remains of the Rev. Charles H. Spurgeon are lying on the bed on which he died. The bed around the body is almost hidden from sight by the number of floral wreaths that have been sent by relatives, friends and admirers of
the deceased. The features of the dead man show not the slightest evidence of death agony. He looks as though he had simply fallen asleep, and his face bears the placid expression of one at rest from pain.
The body will be removed to-morrow to the
mortuary chapel in the cemetery.

Starving Poor Handled in Process Feed.
LONDON, Feb. 2.—Russian notices show
that large numbers of starving peasants are daily arriving at Samara, a city of about 75,000 inhabitants. They are unable to find work or procure food and many of them
are being made desperate by the pang of hunger. The robbery of shops, houses,
etc., is becoming frequent. The suffering people steal anything that they can lay their hands on that will bring them money, even brass plates are taken from the doors of houses and door handles. Many of the famished wretches have been attacked by typhus fever and they are dying
in large numbers.

All Quiet in Samoa.
ATKLAND, New Zealand, Feb. 2.—Advices have been received from Samoa to
the effect that Matafua and other absolute peace has been restored. The danger of civil war is now over. Baron Pilach has withdrawn his resignation of the presidency of the Apia council.

Man and Wife Murdered by Burglars.
PETERBOROUGH, Feb. 2.—Burglars entered the house of a man named Debourges, near Compende, and after murdering him and his wife plundered and set fire to the house.

A Great Grandmother at Forty-Seven.
LOCKPORT, N.Y., Feb. 2.—A great-grandmother at the age of 47. This is the record
of Mrs. Henry K. Updegrave of Tower
City, Pa. She was married in her 14th
year, her oldest daughter was married at 15;
her granddaughter was married at 16;
and now a mother.

Outmet's Opponent Retires.
MONTREAL, Feb. 2.—There will be no
political contest in Laval. Mr. Cyrille St.
Armour, who was nominated by the Liberals, has retired. This gives the seat to Hon.
J. A. Robitaille without a fight.

THRILLING SCENES OFF NEWFOUND-LAND COAST.

Fifty Vessels Driven Ashore and the Lives of the Crews Saved Only by Great Throwing.

HALIFAX, N.S., Feb. 2.—During the terrible northerly gale at Black River, N.S., on Monday night, over 50 vessels at sea place were driven on shore, and all more or less damaged. A number of the vessels were American.

While the gale was at its worst the schooner S. M. Lake was capsized and the crew thrown into the sea. The captain's little son, who was in the launch at the time, was unable to make his escape.

His father, after reaching the shore, and finding that his son was still on board the upturned schooner, dashed into the water again, and, after several attempts unavailing to rescue the little fellow, who was more dead than alive.

After some time he was rescued by the schooner Avenger, from Boston, which was wrecked at Petty Harbour on the 21st, struck at 6.30 a.m., during a terrific gale and snow storm. Previously she had had her sails all blown away, decks swept and her only boat smashed.

The vessel became unmanageable, and the captain and crew never expected to reach the shore alive, and were only saved by the heroic conduct of one of the men, who put a line about himself, jumped into the sea and swam at the risk of his life through the surf to a high rock, where he made the line fast, and by this means all managed to reach land, but saved himself.

No far 250 cases of oil have been recovered at the scene of the wreck.

BEHRING SEA.
The Arbitrators Meet at Washington and Discuss the Situation.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Sir Julian Paun-cote, the British Minister, called at the State Department in company with the British Legation Sea Commissioners, Sir Basil Powell and Dr. Dawson, who have just arrived in Washington from Canada.
They had a conference with Mr. Blaine and arranged preliminaries of the joint commission to be held between the United States and British commissioners who visited Behring Sea last summer for the special purpose of investigating the seal industry. The United States representatives are Prof. Mendenhall of the Coast and Geodetic Survey and Prof. Merriam of the Agricultural Department. Each commissioner has arrived at certain conclusions, and the object of the conference between them is to bring these results together in a joint report, containing the findings of the facts to be submitted to the arbitration. The report will probably form the basis for the enquiry to be conducted by the arbiters and from each side will advance its case.

The commissioners deal with the present and future issues involved, such as the justification of the Behring Sea, which course is the question to be determined.
The facts furnished by the commissioners to the numbers and habits of the seals, the extent of the industry and the probability of the extermination of the species by indiscriminate sealing will, however, form an especial task, and being practically conceded that the arbitration cannot be concluded to be effective during the coming season, steps will be taken at once to secure the renewal of the seal in the month of last year, which compact will expire May 1 next.

Prompt action on this question is necessary in order that sealing fleets may be advised in advance of preparing for their usual spring cruise to the seal waters.

According to the terms of the agreement reached between Lord Salisbury and Secretary Blaine the tribunal is to be composed of seven arbitrators, three of whom shall be citizens of a neutral country, two from the United States, and two representing the British interests, one

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1922.

THEIR INAUGURAL MEETING.

The Board of Health of 1921 held their first meeting.

The first meeting of the Board of Health of 1921 was held yesterday afternoon at four o'clock in the Town Council Chamber.

Those present were Messrs. Wm. Leach, H. Deane, J. L. Hughes, Dr. H. H. Brown, and Mr. Shortly, and Town Clerk Cobb, Secretary, and Chief Constable, Sanitary Inspector.

The Secretary read the names of those appointed on the Board for the ensuing year and called upon them to elect a chairman.

Mr. Leach, the efficient chairman of the past year, declined to accept the position for another year.

Mr. Hughes moved, seconded by Mr. Shortly, that Mr. Edg. Pearce be chairman.

This resolution carried.

In the absence of the newly elected chairman Mr. Leach presided for the remainder of the meeting.

Dr. Brennan brought up the question of proper arrangements for the conveying of patients to the hospital. He wanted the delay at present experienced removed, by having it permissible for a patient to be admitted to the hospital on the order of the Town Physician or the Chief of Police, without any formalities.

The matter was briefly discussed but was dropped to be taken up again at the next meeting.

The Board then adjourned.

The Law of It.

How poor, how rich, how abject, how august, how complicated, how wonderful, is man; and it might be added, how "more so" is woman. With her peculiarly delicate and intense organization, she is the superlative degree of man. Even in diseases she excels him, having many that he has not. She has found out a grand remedial agent, for the cure of her diseases, in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a medicine suited to her nature, made for the express cure of those diseases which effect her. It is especially effective in all weakness incidental to motherhood, while it is also a potent restorative tonic for the feeble and debilitated generally.

Revelation.

The Board of Education will meet to-night.

The young man who was charged with larceny was dismissed this morning, paying costs $9.10.

That new stock of dry goods at M. Carleton's is going off with a rush. Auctioneer every night. Catch some of the bargains to-night as they go.

As a cure for cold in the head and catarrh Nasal Balm is endorsed by prominent men everywhere. Dr. Derbyshire, president of the Ontario Creamery Association, says: "Nasal Balm beats the world for catarrh and cold in the head. In my own case it effected relief from the first application." Sold by druggists or sent by mail on receipt of price 50¢ per bottle, and $1 a bottle, Fulford & Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Pleasant Herb Drink—A Spring Medicine

The druggists tell us that the people call daily for the new cure for constipation and diarrhoea discovered by Dr. Sims Lane. It is said to be Oregon grape root (a great remedy in the far west for those complaints) combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It sells at 50¢ and $1 a package and is called Lane's Family Medicine.

MONTREAL, Aug. 4th, 1901.

It is a pleasure for me to say good words in favor of Anti-Dandruff, as its merits cannot be questioned. In my own case, Dandruff not only made itself known by its appearance in more than liberal quantities from which I could not obtain relief, but its continued presence and increasing formation caused falling of the hair. My barber spoke highly of Anti-Dandruff. I used it, and not only has every trace of Dandruff disappeared but the falling of the hair has stopped. Having full faith in the preparation, I not only endorse it for the above but further add that as a fine dressing for the hair nothing equals it.

Save Your Hair

By a timely use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation has no equal as a dressing. It keeps the scalp cool, and healthy, and preserves the color, fullness, and beauty of the hair.

"I was rapidly becoming bald and gray; but after using two or three bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor my hair grew thick and glossy and the original color was restored."—Melvin Aldrich, Cactus County, N. H.

"Some time ago I lost all my hair in consequence of measles. After due waiting, no new growth appeared, then used Ayer's Hair Vigor and my hair grew thick and strong."

It has apparently come to stay. The Vigor is evidently a great aid to nature."

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the past four or five years and find it a most satisfactory dressing for the hair. It is all I could desire, being harmless, causing the hair to retain its natural color, and requiring but a small quantity to render the hair easy to arrange."

Mrs. M. A. Bailey, 9 Charles street, Haverhill, Mass.

TERROR IN LONDON.

STRANGLERS AND BODY-SNATCHERS
REAPING HARVESTS.

Manning's Body Watched—Forty People
Mysteriously Disappear—In Barham
Retrieved—Cometries Robbed—Scott Land Yard Famed.

LONDON, Feb. 2.—Mysterious disappearances are alarming Londoners just now. They have made a scare almost equal to that of Jack the Ripper.

About forty people now missing. Police are mystified. Lives of men who have gone upon visits have vanished as completely as though, like Elijah, they were carried up into the clouds. Women who went shopping have not returned to their homes.

Strange to say all the people sought after lived in neighborhoods, tapped by underground railroads.

Scotland Yard has a theory. It always has. Its theory is horrifying. In substance it is this:

A series of murders by imitators of the notorious Scotch body-snatchers—or rather stranglers—Messrs. Burke and Hare, whose little only figures in a sort of central agency for medical colleges and sold at the rate of about $15 per cadaver.

In this way the police pair of corpses secured and sold upwards of 70 "subjects." Their work was very rapid, too, and they knew that as soon as a "hue and cry" were raised their occupation would be gone.

While the police of Edinburgh were at their "vital" and a woman gave them a clue. She was, preceding a neighbor in a by-path northwest of the city one Saturday afternoon. Suddenly she heard a scream and then saw to thick-set men hurrying into a thick with what appeared to be a big bag.

She proceeded to the neighbor's house and gave her friend an account of the incident. The neighbor never returned. One afternoon subsequently the woman who had seen the men in the thicket met them on a public street. She notified the authorities, who finally arrested and convicted the villainous pair—one being hanged and the other dying before the day of execution arrived. Their nefarious operations gave rise to the word "barking."

LONDON is then, according to the detective, almost awoken to a condition of things such as Edinburgh experienced. Of course medical men deny there is any necessity for murders in order to secure subjects. They claim that the workhouses and the morgues furnish an ample and legitimate supply. The police, however, are convinced that the stranglers are abroad, and they will doubtless soon make arrests based on their convictions.

SHE DIED OF FRIGHT.

The Night of a Murder Killed Mrs. De Mera.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Feb. 2.—The night of a murder being committed and fear that the homicide was to be shot caused the death of Mrs. De Mera, a French maid, who was walking on the street Thursday, when she saw Arthur Barker kill his wife.

Mrs. De Mera ran into a store, fainted, and the shock caused a hemorrhage today that resulted fatally.

EHI ABOLISH FOOTLIGHTS!

Mr. Herkimer's Suggestion to Do Away With the Dearest Tradition of the Theatre.

LONDON, Feb. 2.—On Thursday afternoon Mr. Herbert Herkimer, the well-known artist, delivered a lecture at the Avenue Theatre to a professional audience. Many well-known members of the dramatic profession were present, including Mr. Herkimer, Mr. Charles Wyndham, manager of the Criterion Theatre; Mr. Beerbohm Tree, manager of the Haymarket Theatre; and Mr. Langtry. The subject of Mr. Herkimer's lecture was "Scenic Anomalies of the Modern Stage." He referred in a humorous manner to aquatic comedies, farces, and particularly rising moons and wobbling canvas waves.

He advocated the abolishment of footlights in favor of groups of lights on a level with the faces of the actors. These lights, he said, should be placed on each side of the auditorium, about 10 feet from the proscenium. He maintained that the lighting of the stage should be worked by one man, could easily be fitted in all theatres, and that the use of footlights was a "palpable and no longer to be excused" offense to the eye. The conductor of the orchestra and the orchestra itself should be below the line of sight, as was the case in the days of the Greeks, when the orchestra was a part of the stage.

Mr. Herkimer declared, was his ideal of what a playhouse should be. Mr. Henry Irving, he said, deserved the thanks of the community for the matchless staging of his productions.

A Case Like That of the Assassins Unearthed at Magdeburg.

BERLIN, Feb. 2.—A man named Erbe and his paramour, a woman named Runkel, have been arrested at Magdeburg on a charge of murdering a young woman named Klages, daughter of the steward of an estate near that town.

It is alleged that Erbe and his accomplice lured the girl to Hanover on the pretence that she was to accompany a family of that city on a trip to Italy. At Hanover, where the girl was a model, she was seduced by Erbe and his accomplice, who then murdered her and fled to the city of Magdeburg.

This was the way the police expect to prove was done. They also claim to have evidence that the first victim of the couple was a woman named Kasten of Magdeburg, and that these two were not the only ones who were murdered, all the victims being serving women.

Alaska and British Columbia.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Secretary Blaine has, through the acting secretary of the Treasury, asked Congress for an appropriation of $50,000 to complete the preliminary survey of the boundary line between Alaska and British Columbia.

Blaine says that the most difficult and expensive part of the work has already been accomplished, and it is of great importance that it should be completed.

LETTERIDGE, Feb. 2.—Ernest Kenny, aged 10, endeavored to climb on a milk wagon while it was in motion. He put his foot in the spokes of the wheel and in a twinkling the spectators were horrified to see the boy's leg, from the knee, fall to the ground on one side of the wheel, while the boy fell on the other. He never uttered a cry. Medical assistance was called and he was removed.

Tried Himself to Death.

VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 2.—Arvon Workman, who a little over a year ago had one of his legs amputated on account of a cancer, died at his residence this morning, having fretted himself to death.

THE SURPRISE

READ the directions on the wrapper.

1st. Commence by dipping one of the articles to be washed in a tub of lukewarm water. Draw it out and rub on the "SURPRISE" lightly, not missing any soiled pieces. Then roll in a tight roll, put back in the tub under the water and let it stay there half an hour. Do all the wash this way.

2d. After soaking for this time, rub lightly on the washboard the dirt will drop out.

3d. Then wash lightly through a lukewarm rinse water, which will take out the suds.

4th. Next rinse through a blue water. (Use scarcely any bluing. SURPRISE takes the place of bluing.) Wring them; hang up to dry without boiling or scalding or any more rubbing.

The wash will come out sweet, clean, white.

I beg to say that this school is strictly carried on the true principle of the art. I might also add that there are no spectators admitted, thus securing a perfect confidence to work on the part of the pupil. The system is very comprehensive. Children of three years to five are numerous on my other schools and make sufficient progress to induce others to send their babies. First lessons always have a lasting effect on the pupil, and we would advise early subscription.

Purify

The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is hereditary and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poisons and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is more conclusive proof than the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes skin eruptions, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. Thousands testify to the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. Full information and statements of cures sent free.

REMARKS.

There is scarcely a scientific subject that should be of greater interest to the citizens of Peterborough than electricity. This is an electric town, in some particulars at any rate. There are three telephone and three telegraph companies that do business here, and the streets, many of the business places and some of the residences are lighted by electricity furnished by a local company. One of the strongest companies organized for the manufacture of electrical machinery has its Canadian factory here, and this year we will have—or at least we hope we will—see an electric railway in operation, while an application from a second company for authority to construct lines for conveying electricity for lighting, and also for supplying heat and power, is before the Town Council. A glance at the network of overhead wires and the sufficient to convince anyone that this is an electric town, and if it were not a visit to the large buildings in the south and west would complete the evidence.

And yet it is only in recent years that electricity has been applied to such practical purposes. It is only about twelve years since a clock manager exhibited throughout the continent an electric light and the greatest show on earth, and constructed for the building of street railways made only twelve or fifteen years ago considered provisions that the cars should be run by "horse or mules power," without the faintest idea that below the concrete apron electricity might be applied to that purpose. What may yet be accomplished with this power it would be difficult indeed to predict. That it will displace the steam locomotives on the railways may be taken as a certainty, and electricians look forward to the time when it will provide heat as well as light for ordinary purposes. Some believe that it is not impossible that with the aid of electricity the question of aerial navigation will be solved and that air ships propelled by the power will be the carriers of the future, and as American magazines are now arranging for articles on this subject and experiments with that end in view.

While no subject should be more interesting, a very little is generally known about it. The technical terms that the experts use so freely are a foreign language to most people, and knowledge of the principles of electricity is limited. Under these circumstances an opportunity to learn of electricity from a competent instructor should be welcomed, and the managers of the College Institute lecture course noted wisely in placing two lectures on this subject by the Principal of the Institute on the course. It would be using a strong term to say that anyone is wiser at this subject regarding the which even Edison is yet striving to learn more, but Mr. Fennenden is an able electrician and thoroughly competent to give instruction in the science, and the citizens will do well to attend both of his lectures.

The old man would have you know. Two boys, who owned a cattle farm on West, Christened it "Focus," at their own request. The old man thought it quite a good name. For there the sun's rays meet (the sun rises most).

The last property, and they and their families enjoyed the very best of health. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets were always found in their medicine chest—the only positive cure for biliousness and such headaches, indigestion and constipation, and all disorders of the bowels and stomach. Strictly vegetable, small, sugar-coated; only one required for a dose; their action is gentle and thorough. The best Liver Pill on earth.

Don't Forget That in addition to our own splendid Peterborough orchestra some of the best instrumental artists in the Dominion will assist them at the Ontario "Entertainment" to be given by the Peterborough Philharmonic Society under the direction of Mr. J. Churchill Arkley in the Opera House, Tuesday evening, Feb. 9th.

Wherever may be the cause of blackening, the hair may be restored to its original color by the use of that patent remedy Hail's Vegetable Medicated Hair Restorer.

FRUIT GROWING.

Meeting of the Peterborough Association.

The Experimental Farm.

A meeting of the Peterborough Fruit Growers' Association was held in the Council Chamber this forenoon. Mr. George Hilliard, President, was in the chair.

Mr. Hilliard gave an account of the formation of the Association and read the minutes of the previous meeting. The membership amounted to sixty. The financial statement showed a balance on hand of $1.60.

The statement was referred to Messrs. C. L. Trotter and J. A. Middleton, auditors.

THE OTTAWA EXPERIMENTAL FARM.

Mr. JOHN CRAIG, horticulturist at the Ottawa Experimental Farm, spoke on the work at the farm. In fruit growing hardness was the first qualification. In large fruits they were testing the capabilities of as many varieties as they could secure. They were testing American varieties, which were derived from stock imported from the moister portions of Europe. It was thought that harder stock could be procured from more northern parts of Europe, and they were testing the fruiting and keeping qualities of Russian apples. Of the American varieties they were testing 137 varieties and 230 Russian varieties. They were also developing seedlings and crosses of the two lines and had 5000 seedlings in the orchard. They were also testing fifty American pears, but Ottawa had a cold climate and generally they were a failure. The Finnish Beauty, Bartlett, D'Anjou and Shalrin were the most hardy. They had also 74 Russian pears. Some of these were quite hardy, but he feared they would not be of high quality. They would, however, be useful for growing and grafting. In cherries they were experimenting on the same lines and the result would be to largely increase cherry growing. The Blandin, a Russian cherry, was hardy, but the Latocha was of better quality and he could recommend it. It might interest them to know they were trying to grow peaches at Ottawa. They planted them in the spring in a hole in the ordinary way, being well out back. They cut the roots away on two sides and the roots of the other two sides were spread out and placed over a mound shaped form in a hole. These acted as a king and in the fall, while young, the tree was laid down and covered. Outside of testing they experimented in cultivation, propagation, investigating new varieties, and experimenting in fungicides. They were also working with small fruits and had many varieties. The work in his department also included vegetables, testing varieties, methods of cultivation, etc. He also had charge of the forestry department. One branch of that work was testing varieties of forest trees and they had many kinds set out and would obtain much information regarding them. Another line was distributing trees to the Northwest and in 1890 they sent out 100,000 trees and last year 300,000. They supplied them by a small distribution of fruit trees. Ontario would have to make up if she was going to supply Manitoba with fruit and she would have an active competitor in British Columbia. They had also sent out to the Northwest a large quantity of seed of Manitoba trees. They hoped to be able to make the experiments a great benefit to the whole community. In answer to questions he said Montmorency Ordinaire was a valuable cherry.

Mr. GLEN said he grew cherries successfully. The Early Richmond was a lighter cherry than the Montmorency and smaller.

Mr. CRAIG said that when they could get wood saws and herryard mowers he would not be without with commercial fertilizers. A good practice was to use ashes one year and manure the next or the following year. For grapes wood ashes had more beneficial use alone, and a dressing once in four years with manure.

Mr. D. W. DUNN said he had a Japan quince in his garden which bore a great deal of fruit but it was hard.

Mr. HILLIARD said the roots needed careful protection.

Correspondence of the Review.

LA GRIPPE.—La Grippe has appeared here again and at present a number of our villagers are complaining on account of the non-respect of persons having once more attacked them, but as yet no cases have proven serious.

—As the 11th of Feb. has been set for the bye election in this riding, caused by the unseating of Mr. Fairbairn, both Mr. Walters, the Reform candidate, and Mr. Fairbairn, the Conservative candidate, are hard at work through the riding and as usual both are confident of being elected.

GOOD SIGHTING.—The good sighting that has lasted throughout this month has given every person a chance to get a good supply of wood.

ANNIVERSARY.—The anniversary in connection with the Methodist church here on Monday last proved a decided success. There were over three hundred persons took part in the church where a very interesting program was rendered most efficiently. The program was as follows:—

McComas, of Fennell Falls, and A. Wilson, of Belleville, also gave very suitable addresses for the occasion. At the close of the program, the most pleasing feature of the evening, the presentation of a purse, accompanied by a suitable address, was given by Miss J. J. English, who has filled the responsible position of organist in the church for three years.

A MOULDERS GATHERING.

The Local Iron Moulders Materials One of the International Vice-Presidents.

Mr. Thomas Wisdom, Second Vice-President of the International Vice-Presidents arrived in town Tuesday evening on a visit to the local union No. 191. Although the notice of the visit was short, the local moulders made preparations to receive their distinguished visitor. Mr. Wisdom is making a tour organizing new unions and visiting those already organized. His object is to extend the sphere of the union.

A meeting of the moulders was first held in their hall at eight o'clock. Mr. J. Hennessey, President, was in the chair. The address of the evening was made by Mr. Wisdom, and the deliberations were listened to with manifest interest by those present. The speaker referred to the organization which he said was in a prosperous condition, solid financially and flourishing as regarded membership. He urged them all to seek to benefit the organization and always to think well before making any rash moves. The address was an interesting one for the Iron Moulders.

After this meeting closed an adjournment was made to the Palace Restaurant where an elaborate supper was served. Mr. Hennessey, President of 191, presided in the seat of honor, while Mr. Joe. Crowe occupied the Vice chair.

When the good things provided had been discussed satisfactorily short speeches, songs and social chat passed an hour or more most pleasantly. Short speeches were made by Messrs. Joe. Crowe, J. Hennessey and John Robinson, each of whom wished Mr. Wisdom success and safety on his tour and promised if he came this way again and visited them the Peterborough brothers would try to entertain him in a suitable manner. Mr. Wisdom replied in a happy speech and referred to the Peterborough Union which was in a flourishing condition and always carried to success anything they undertook.

Other brief speeches were made by Messrs. J. O'Brien, Jas. Lowden, Wm. Roddick and Thos. Tucker. The last two speakers are foremen, the first at the Lock Works and the other at the Wm. Hamilton shops. Both these speakers referred to the moulders of 191 as industrious, steady workmen who always did their work. Songs were sung by Mrs. and Miss Bowman, Mr. Bowman and Mr. Geo. O'Hearn.

It was regretted that one of the best spoken men of the Union, Mr. Ward, was unable to be present on account of illness.

The gathering dispersed after a most agreeable evening. Mr. Wisdom left this morning for the East.

THE FIRST HOCKEY MATCH.

Lindsay Wins in an Evenly Contested Game—Hockey Notes.

The first hockey game for blood was played at the Carleton Place rink last night, when a team from the local club met a team from Lindsay. The result was a hard won victory for the visitors, the score being 4 goals to 3 in favor of Lindsay.

There was a good attendance of spectators. The enthusiastic contest of the players on the ice was infectious and the onlookers took an interest which depended on the struggle grew warm in excitement and enthusiasm. The play was close and both teams were doing their utmost to carry the "puck" through the goal. In the first half each side scored two goals, while in the second Lindsay scored twice and Peterborough only once. For Peterborough Dumble, Hadden and Sayers did the scoring and P. Knowles (2) McBurney and Keenan did the honor of scoring for the visitors. Every player on the Peterborough team did well, Dumble, Sayers and Montgomery especially coming in for commendation. The local team, so newly organized, can feel justly elated at the game they played, for notwithstanding the visitors did not expect to have such a fight when they came here.

The teams were composed as follows:—
Lindsay: P. Knowles, J. Roy, J. McMillan, J. O'Brien, A. Knowles, J. McBurney, J. Keenan, J. Sayers, J. Dumble, J. Hadden, J. Montgomery, J. P. Knowles, J. Roy, J. McMillan, J. O'Brien, A. Knowles, J. McBurney, J. Keenan, J. Sayers, J. Dumble, J. Hadden, J. Montgomery.
Peterborough: J. P. Knowles, J. Roy, J. McMillan, J. O'Brien, A. Knowles, J. McBurney, J. Keenan, J. Sayers, J. Dumble, J. Hadden, J. Montgomery.

After the game the visitors were entertained at a banquet spread in the club room of the rink, where the knicks and bruises of the battle were smothered in the delicious vapors of bivalves.

It is likely a return match will be played with Lindsay some night next week. The local team are also contemplating a trip to Cobourg and Port Hope, playing both teams on the one day.

Fifty Years wedded.
A golden wedding, the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage ceremony is not a frequent occurrence in this locality, for fifty years of a residence in this neighborhood dates back to a time when the town was emerging from the forest and pine stumps graced the main street. On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edwards celebrated their golden wedding at the home of the bride in Douro, near the boundary line, and there was a gathering at the home of relatives of the second and third generations.

Six of the eight sons and daughters were present and seventeen out of twenty grand children, all anxious to do honor to the venerable and happy couple. A number of friends were also present to do honor to the occasion. At high noon Mr. W. V. Valland, son-in-law, read the following address:—

DEAR PARENTS.—Fifty years ago, though happy years have passed away since you were wedded; the earlier years fragrant with anxiety and industry, the later years brightened by your mutual love that charmed and gladdened your home through seasons of such uncounted joy.

Your children remember with affection and pride the parental care and loving guidance that ever sought to keep their children's footsteps in the path of virtue and to instill in things that should mould their characters right and make them men and women worthy of their parents and respected in the community.

Your sons and daughters greet you on this happy occasion honoring the white hair that testifies to a golden olden time claiming the reverence worthy due. They felicitate you on the arrival of the jubilee year of your wedded life, long may the golden chain remain unbroken that binds you together.

Your grandchildren add their congratulations. To them you have ever been the kind and thoughtful, the generous and sympathetic older father and mother. They earnestly pray that you may long be spared to welcome at your home door your son's and daughter's sons and daughters.

They ask you to accept this golden headed case and this easy chair. May the one assist the steps of father and the other afford comfort to mother.

Wishing you yet many years of life untended by the hand of sorrow and replete with joy and comfort.

PROPERTY COMMITTEE.

Mr. STEVENSON presented the following report of the Property Committee:—

GENTLEMEN.—Your Property Committee beg leave to report that wood has been purchased during the year for each school at an expense of $200. The extra expenditures were caused mainly by the introduction of the Smead-Lowe system of heating into the work and South Ward school. The amount of fuel and the price are distributed among the various schools as follows:—

Your committee recommend that the Treasurer be authorized to pay wood accounts on the production of a certificate from the janitor and an order from the Chairman of the Committee.

In reference to the Application of George Tighe for an increase of salary your committee are of opinion that the same should be given Mr. Tighe as the work he is called on to do and for that reason recommend the addition of $100 to his salary.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. STEVENSON, Chairman.

FEES FOR THE ENTRANCE CLARK.

Mr. DUMBLE said the Board had passed a resolution charging a fee of $2.50 for non-residents who attended Mr. Wm. Smith's school. Mr. Hill moved, seconded by Mr. McRAE,—"That the non-resident fee for both Mr. Wm. Smith's and Mr. Jas. Smith's schools be $2.50."

King of Medicines

A CURE "Always Successful."

"When I was 17 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered and went to school. A year later, rheumatism, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven more appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well. Early in 1881 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Cure,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and about. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then NEVER LOST A SINGLE DAY in account of rheumatism. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except in the winter, when I am a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the King of Medicines." WILLIAM A. LEWIS, N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1892.

THE FISCAL DEBT.

There is, perhaps, no one feature of administration that receives more adverse criticism on the part of the Opposition than the increase in the public debt of Canada. Yet none less deserves it, as we propose to demonstrate, even the most ardent of the Liberal party. Taking, in the first place, the results under Liberal and Conservative rule these remarkable contrasts are presented:—Between 1873 and 1878 the net public debt of Canada rose from $55,345,361 to $140,362,000, a gross increase of $85,016,639, and an average annual addition of $17,003,329. Since the return to power of the Conservative party, the net debt of Canada has been carried up to $237,569,000, at which it stood at the close of last June, an increment of $97,146,991 in thirteen years, or an average annual increase of $7,465,920. That is to say, taking merely the face of the figures without examination of the causes contributing to the debt increase, it appears that the Liberal regime has increased the amount of public debt more rapidly than has been the case under thirteen years of consecutive Conservative administration, a fact which in itself ought to end the stupid charge of extravagance on the part of the present Government. But that is not all. During five years of Liberal rule the capital expenditure upon works of public utility—canals, railways, buildings, etc.—reached $38,311,400, or, in other words, the total of the increase in the debt by $3,000,000; while the capital expenditure upon similar works since 1878 has exceeded the increase in debt by $15,151,000. To put the case in another way; the Liberals borrowed $40,515,000, and invested only $25,311,000 of that amount in permanent public works contributive to the development of national resources and the cheapening of transportation; whereas, the Conservatives, while borrowing only $37,445,000 in thirteen years, have expended $15,151,000 in such public works. The difference between the two cases is just the difference between prudent and improvident management.

The people, however, are concerned probably more about the cost of carrying the debt, than about the volume of that liability. The incidence of taxation arising out of the public debt, that is to say the interest charge, is the aspect of practical importance, in relation to which a few figures may be cited from official sources:—

Interest Paid, Per Cent.	1873	1878	1883	1888
	4.01	4.92	4.92	4.92

The significance of these figures cannot well be exaggerated. They show that in five years of Liberal rule the cost of carrying the debt mounted up to $1,396,578, or at the rate of $280,000 annually; whereas, in the last thirteen years the cost of carrying the debt has grown to $2,885,353, or at the rate of only $195,019 annually. This decrease has been due in large part to the decline in the rate of interest upon loans made in Canada, the average rate paid on the gross debt having fallen from 4.02 to 3.35 per cent. since 1878, and in the facts cited is found the most conclusive answer to the charge sometimes brought that the character of capital expenditure in later years has impaired the credit of the country.

In the last ten years the Canadian Pacific railway has been built, and the contribution to the work from public funds have amounted to no less than $61,770,000. The value of such an investment from a national point of view needs not to be argued at this day, but it is worth while pointing out that, apart from the subsidies to the Pacific railway, the net debt of Canada, on June 30 last amounted to only $175,020,000, or $38.40 per head of the population, while in 1880 the net debt was $35.90 per head, showing practically no increase in the public debt, exclusive of the item of the Canadian Pacific railway, as to the extent of which both political parties are now agreed.

There is a yet more striking way of putting the case, namely, by measuring the annual interest charge on the public debt on the basis of the per capita impost. Here are the figures:—

	1880	1881
Population	4,200,000	4,300,000
Net interest	$6,200,000	$6,200,000
Interest per head	$1.48	$1.44

So, that, as these official figures make clear, the great public works of Canada constructed during the last twelve years, including the Canadian Pacific railway, are costing the people in the way of taxation exactly ten cents yearly, and it is about this infinitesimal charge the Liberal party is making so much ado.

It will be satisfactory to learn that the improvement in the condition of the national finances effected by the Conservative Government has been sustained down to the present time. Indeed, in the last fiscal year, the net debt was increased by the trifling sum of only $275,500; and there is every reason to expect the fulfilment of the prediction made by the Finance Minister, Mr. Foster, as long ago as in 1889, namely, that all the public services would be performed up to June 30th, 1892, without any increase in the net debt.

TWO SIGNIFICANT VICTORIES

The results of the elections in Prince Edward and Lennox yesterday were magnificent and significant victories for the Conservative administration. In Lennox a March last Mr. Allison, the Liberal candidate, was elected by 57 majority, and yesterday he was defeated by a majority of 51. Lennox is a border constituency and largely an agricultural one. It has been pretty evenly divided politically, and if the Liberal policy of unrestricted reciprocity was making any headway it should be shown there. But the result shows that the Government has made a gain, and the principal gains are in the agricultural districts.

In Prince Edward the Conservative candidate, Mr. Miller, was re-elected by the handsome majority of 212. This constituency had been held by the Liberals for some years previous to March last, when Mr. Miller was elected by a majority of 99, which was so handsomely increased yesterday. Prince Edward is one of the principal barley districts of Ontario, but the Liberal arguments were seen through by the reversion of the county, who rolled up the large majority for the Conservative candidate.

Following the Conservative gain in Soulangue, Que., and the victories elsewhere these elections show that the people have no use for the doubtful knavery of Richard Cartwright, and his pro-Yankee policy, and that they approve of the statesmanlike policy and course of the administration.

MR. MEREDITH.

The Montreal Witness (Liberal), which is not much given to paying compliments to Conservative public men, whatever their merits and deserts, has this to say of the Conservative leader in the Ontario Legislature:—"Mr. Meredith has helped Mr. Mowat to make the Government of Ontario pure and economical. He might have resorted to a policy of promising to squander the 'public money,' and thus make headway among the corrupt against the economic policy of the Liberal administration. He might have appealed to popular prejudice against Mr. Mowat. He has on the contrary, followed the Opposition in the Assembly along fair and straight lines and on sound political principles. We believe that Mr. Meredith has helped the Assembly of his sense of the high standard which Mr. Meredith has performed for the province as leader of the Opposition." A Government which inherited in 1873 from Sandfield Macdonald a cash surplus of $1,000,000, has spent every cent of it, and now owes $1,000,000, with direct taxation not far off, may be economical from the Quebec standpoint where Count Mercier has through fifteen to twenty millions by gift, but is unable to see it. A Government responsible for the school book monopoly; for the manipulation of the license system so that the Scotch Act was used to carry elections; and Conservative license holders are now squeezed for money for the province as leader of the Opposition. A Government which inherited in 1873 from Sandfield Macdonald a cash surplus of $1,000,000, has spent every cent of it, and now owes $1,000,000, with direct taxation not far off, may be economical from the Quebec standpoint where Count Mercier has through fifteen to twenty millions by gift, but is unable to see it. A Government responsible for the school book monopoly; for the manipulation of the license system so that the Scotch Act was used to carry elections; and Conservative license holders are now squeezed for money for the province as leader of the Opposition.

As if Prince Edward and Lennox were not bad enough for the Liberals in one day, the Liberal M. P. for Pontiac was unseated yesterday. Another purist who secured his seat by corruption.

SINCE the adjournment of Parliament the Conservatives have gained Soulangue, Lennox and Queen's, N. B., making a change of six on a division. The Liberals have gained Richelieu, which did not count on a division last session. An increase of five in the Government majority is a good beginning.

KEENE CHRONICLES.

OLIVE CLUB CONCERT.—The Scotch concert given by the Olive Club was very successful. Mr. J. M. Drummond, Township Clerk, acted as chairman. In addition to the musical numbers on the programme Miss Ours gave a Scotch recitation in a very feeling and impressive manner. There were about two hundred present. The club gives concerts, not for financial gain, to supply pastimes for the winter evenings and help with religious services, free at church services, public meetings, etc.

PHILOSOPHER'S OPINION.—Voltaire said to a beautiful young lady with whom he was dining: "Your rival is the perfection of art; you are the perfection of nature." This could not have been said if the young lady was suffering from disease, and pain had left its signs on her features. Women who want to keep beautiful and the "perfection of nature," should use "Favorite Prescription" to assist Nature when needed, to correct irregularities, aid circulation, and digestion, and thereby clear up the skin, rendering it soft and beautiful. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine for women's peculiar ailments, sold through druggists and guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money refunded.

MURDER REVIVED.

By a Petition to Release Macmahon From Penitentiary.

CHATHAM, Feb. 4.—A petition to His Excellency the Governor General is being circulated in this district for the release of Benjamin Macmahon. It will be remembered that Macmahon was sentenced to be hung at the Fall Assizes in 1888 for complicity in the murder of Willis Holton of Tilbury Centre. The murder of Holton took place on the night of Jan. 15, 1888, in a small room at home near Tilbury Centre. Macmahon was immediately arrested, but his accomplices, Huff and Todd, quick-witted, escaped. After a number of months' search was found and both himself and Macmahon stood their trial. Quick was acquitted and Macmahon sentenced to death. Macmahon, however, being committed to imprisonment for life. Proof was, however, afterwards brought to show that Huff, who cannot be found, was the actual murderer of Holton and that the others were only his companions on the occasion.

Now the friends of Macmahon, more especially the Orangemen, to which Order he belonged, have taken the matter up and on the plea that purely circumstantial evidence of the most untrustworthy character was produced and very grave doubts being entertained as to his guilt, urge the Governor General to pardon him. They have taken into consideration that he has already served three years.

W. Dewdney's Suicide.

VICTORIA, B.C., Feb. 4.—The funeral of W. Dewdney, a prominent agent, who committed suicide at Victoria the other day, took place yesterday. Dewdney made his will a few hours before the shooting and left a note to his family stating that he was getting so weary of the brain and that it would be as well for him to die now instead of in an insane asylum. Dewdney came to British Columbia in 1854, and was with the sappers and miners until 1862. The deceased was about 50 years of age and a native of England. He was a brother of Hon. Edgar Dewdney, Minister of the Interior.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1892.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Cold Again.—At sunrise this morning the thermometer stood 23 degrees below zero with symptoms of being colder to-morrow.

Be Caught a Train.—There was only one case of small importance at the Police Court this morning. "Joe" Quinn, hackman, was charged with furious driving. It was shown that he was driving to catch a train and he was allowed to go with a warning.

The Ladies' Meeting.—The pleasant effort and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasant to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effective in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Local Society Notes.—Last night Peterborough Lodge, L.O.O.F., initiated five candidates and one member joined by card. The new paraphernalia was used for the first time making the initiation ceremony more impressive and attractive than before. There will be a practice this evening in the first degree.

That New Stock of Dry Goods.—At Mr. Cartton's is going off with a rush. Auction sale every night. Catch some of the bargains to-night as they go.

The Case Settled.—The case of Mr. Leonard vs. the Town has been settled. Messrs. Dumble & Leonard, solicitors for Mrs. Leonard, have given notice to Mr. Leonard, the Town Solicitor, that they will accept the judgment of the Divisional Court. This leaves the town in the possession of the street as it was opened, and no damages or costs are to be paid to the plaintiff.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has given me great relief in bronchitis. Within a month I have sent some of this preparation to a friend suffering from bronchitis and asthma. It has done him so much good that he writes for more. —Charles F. Dunterville, Plymouth, England.

Municipal Matters.—The Charity Committee met last night and awarded tenders for charity wood. Mr. G. A. Reid, of Douro, was awarded the contract for 30 cords of dry mixed wood. Mr. Wm. Charlton, of Douro, for 30 cords of tamarack and Mr. W. J. Hall for 30 cords of dry mixed wood.

The Street and Bridge Committee also met and awarded tenders for lumber. The contract for the supply of plank, cedar blocks, cedar, etc., was divided between the Dickson Co., Mr. Alf. Macdonald and Mr. J. E. Brunwell, of Brimingham.

The Council will meet in Committee of the whole on Monday night to discuss the street railway and its kindred matters. Engineer James English is around again after his acquaintance with a gripe.

As a cure for cold in the head and catarrh of the nose is considered by prominent men everywhere. D. Derbyshire, president of the Ontario Creamery Association, says: "Nasal Balm Balm is the best for cold in the head and catarrh of the nose. It effected relief from the first application." Sold by druggists or sent by mail on receipt of price—50 cts. and $1 a bottle. Fullford & Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE COMPLIMENTARY CONCERT.

A Success—A Good Audience and Enjoyable Programme.

The complimentary concert to Mr. L. Seward on Thursday night was favored with a very fair audience, the hall being fully two-thirds filled, and as the expenses had been kept low by the energetic committee the net proceeds should reach a fair sum, though none too large, the object in view being to substantially, as possible, recognize Mr. Seward's kindness and his services as well as Mrs. Seward's given on many occasions. The programme was subject to some alterations from the printed list, but the changes detracted in no way from the general interest of the proceedings.

The programme, which is given below opened with a very fine piano duet by Miss Wrighton and Mr. Fred Clarke, rendered with precision and brilliancy. Mrs. O. Green, who sang at a disadvantage owing to the stage curtains being up, the lady's voice filling the vacancy above the songery, was warmly received and heartily applauded for her smooth and melodious song. Mrs. Seward and Mrs. Stapleton sang a beautiful duet, their voices blending in pleasing harmony. Mrs. Seward afterwards sang in solo a pretty ballad her full and sympathetic tones and clear enunciation being admired.

Miss Yokome (violin) essayed the difficult task of executing a double number, the technical difficulties of the first part being gracefully and brilliantly mastered by the young violinist. Miss Yokome with each successive appearance at concerts gives evidence of the increasing proficiency and fuller method that results from painstaking study and practice. The second part was rapidly and firmly executed, and gave evidence of the young performer's versatility. She was warmly encored and gratefully responded.

Miss Vair and Mr. Dunn sang in duet, Miss Vair's soprano notes joining in brilliant harmony with Mr. Dunn's fine baritone. The first duet was well sustained. Miss Vair singing with the finish of a professional artist, and in the closing duet, "Excelsior" taking the high strains clearly and effectively. Mr. Dunn was in good voice as usual.

It is a gratifying fact that when an instrumental number of a high degree of excellence is required that there is available the services of an artist of the skill and technical ability as possessed by Mr. J. Churchill Arlidge. His flute solos are played with the polish of a master and the accompaniment of delicacy of execution. He was heartily encored and responded by playing a bright Irish air with variations. Mr. Johnston gave a solo on the guitar, a very fine and well executed selection. He was encored and in response played a fantasia on the familiar air "Old Blind Joe" and "Home Sweet Home," the delivery of execution and finesse of tone showing what the instrument is capable of in the hands of a master.

Mr. J. H. Long made a brief address on things in general, humorous and serious, and paid a high and well deserved compliment to Mr. Seward for his ever ready assistance generously given in aid of local societies and institutions. Mr. Long concluded his remarks by saying that nothing conduces more, aside from religion, to the amenities of civilization than art and music—music first of these two.

Mr. W. G. Giesse briefly introduced members of the company. The accompaniments were played by Miss Wrighton, Mr. Arlidge and Mr. Seward.

Following is the programme:—

Personal.
Mr. B. M. Roy has been confined to bed several days, but is slightly improved.

Hon. John Haggart, Minister of Railways, returned to town from Lindsay last night and proceeded east on the midnight train. Mr. J. E. Bocher, O.E., was elected a member of the Council of the Association of Architects at the annual meeting.

The Presbyterian Society.
The first meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Peterborough was held in Port Hope Wednesday. Mrs. McCusker, of Hamilton, addressed a large audience in the Presbyterian Hall at 3:30 o'clock. Mr. McArthur, a returned missionary from China, Rev. Mr. Giesse, of Brimingham, and Rev. B. O. Jones addressed the meeting in the Presbyterian Church at 8 o'clock. The addresses were listened to with great attention. The music provided for the occasion was excellent.

Cricket Club.
The first match of the President-Vice-President competition was played at the rink last night. President R. Max. Dennison played and defeated Vice-President D. W. Dumble. The risks and scores were as follows:—
PRESIDENT. VICE-PRESIDENT.
A. Blane. G. Seward.
G. Brown. G. Edmiston.
G. Fitzgerald. E. R. Edwards.
R. M. Donatouan s.p. 14. D. W. Dumble, s.p. 5.
Majority for President 10 shots.
The Croft-Snowden contest yesterday afternoon excited considerable interest. Eight ends were played and the result was a victory for Mr. Croft, the score being Croft & Snowden 4. To-night the same two gentlemen will skip rinks and again test their knowledge of the game.
A scratch game was played last night between rinks skipped by Wm. Salsbury and D. Belleghem. The latter won.

Keep This in Mind.
The only skating carnival of the winter will be held on the evening of Friday, Feb. 12th, under the auspices of the Sons of Canada Lodge. A great many have waited for some entertaining local society to set up a carnival and the Sons of Canada have taken the matter up. They are making complete preparations, and a large list of valuable prizes are offered in competition open to ladies and gentlemen. Keep your eye on the papers and learn particulars. The Band will be present on evening of the carnival.

A YOUNG LADY'S LIFE.

LABORS IN THE SLUMS OF LONDON AND VILLAGES OF INDIA.

Staff-Capt. Cox, a Young Salvationist who has been much service—Her Conversion—Eighteen Months in India—A Fanatic With Small-pox Almost Works Her Death.

Staff-Capt. Blanche B. Cox, the Salvation officer whose visit here on Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday next was announced last evening, is a young lady who has seen a good deal of the shady side of life in her many labors.

Her portrait published in a recent War Cry represents a young lady full of energetic vitality, with a sympathetic, intellectual countenance and a head of short curly hair. She is an entertaining speaker, filled with enthusiasm for the work, and her addresses are certain to be fraught with great interest.

A SHORT SKETCH OF HER LIFE is interesting reading. A writer in the War Cry thus tells of her conversion:—Some eleven years ago, the subject of our sketch sat listening to one of Mrs. Booth's fervid lectures in a crowded London hall. Her mother's enthusiasm larded upon her, as together they wended their way homeward at the conclusion of the meeting. Conscience had been aroused in Blanche Cox, and she felt miserable, angry also with the speaker, whose burning words had produced this state of spiritual discomfort. She had often watched curiously the lives of professing Christians, marvelling at the apparent inconsistency of their lives, and the religion, throughout the week seeking worldly pleasure with the avidity of the worldly, yet on Sunday taking their place as church members, and at the duly appointed communion seasons sitting at the table of the Lord. She was at last looking to the young girl, as she sat meditating in her seat in the gallery of the large church in which her father held the office of deacon. The conclusion of it all was evident. Her own religion must be all suffering, or she wanted none. She was impatient and wanted to make plain the path, but it looked a difficult one to the bright, gaily-loving school girl. She realized that it meant self-abnegation, and here was self crying loudly for pleasure, ease, indulgence. She went again a few days later, with her mother, to the Railway Hall, Portman Square, to hear Mrs. Booth preach on "Justification by Faith." In spite of herself she found herself listening with absorbing interest. A vision of two life paths arose before her, the path of pleasure and the path of the cross. She seemed to see their course, and the goal to which either must infallibly tend. The necessity of instant choice pressed an irresistible burden upon her heart. She yielded to the holy influence of the hour, knelt by her seat, and chose the Christ-path, and there. This was verily an all-satisfying religion she joyously realized as soon as she arose from her knees, the calm of that peace which passeth all understanding filled her heart.

HER CONVERSION.
She was baptized and united herself with the church of her childhood. The evidence at the same time warm interest in the Army work and made frequent visits to the barracks. A year later she was enrolled as one of the first soldiers at Regent's Park, and as a recruit proved herself an efficient and devoted soldier. She was a constant visitor in the slums of the great city. A short time later she was promoted to the staff of the training home and was actively engaged in instructing recruits in the religious branches. She continued her cherished labors among the poor and wretched of the slums, seeking to rescue fallen girls and women from their lives of sin and shame. It was not long before she was elevated to the rank of Staff-Capt. and volunteered for service in the Maffius. She was accepted and after arriving in India was appointed first to a station in the Punjab. She labored at Umballa for almost six months and then was transferred to Bombay where she edited the "War Cry" in connection with the Army work among the opium dens, in the streets and at meetings. About this time she had

from a fearful death. A Parson just recovering from small pox and animated by a fanatic hatred for all Christian Christians, suddenly touched the young Salvationist. The momentary contact brought the justness of her life and her life was almost despaired of. Careful nursing by an American lady medical missionary was blessed by the Divine Healer and Miss Cox recovered. After recovering she travelled among the Himalayas visiting villages and spreading the news of Salvation. After eighteen months in India she returned to England and was engaged in special work throughout the United Kingdom. Again volunteering for foreign work she was sent to Canada and has been abundantly successful since coming here.

To-morrow night Staff-Capt. Cox will give her address on "Travel in India."

A DEFENSE OF MR. MCGREVEY.

A few days ago the report was circulated that Mr. Thos. McGreevy, whose name became so well known in connection with the investigations at Ottawa, would be a candidate in Quebec West against the Conservative candidate. This was followed in the Globe on Saturday by a long article, given prominence by headlines and leading, said to have been written by a gentleman in Montreal, in which Mr. McGreevy and the Connollys are defended and Sir Adolphe Caron attacked. The Globe's writer tells the people that Mr. McGreevy is an honest, trustworthy and ill-used man, and that the Connollys (whom the Liberal lights referred to a short time ago as "Nicks" and "Micks") enjoy "a good reputation," are industrious and useful men, and are more to the same effect. For Murphy and Robert McGreevy he has no defence; for these two turned upon Thos. McGreevy and the Connollys, who are now so warmly defended, and they are therefore no use to the Liberals, especially as they are in enforced absence from the country. This new move may be surprising, and in order to break the way for it the Globe in another place says the desire is not to defend Thos. McGreevy and the Connollys, but to show that they are "less culpable" than others. This, however, leaves intact the elaborate defence and the commendation of the more prominent article, no statement of which is corrected or impeached editorially and no effort is made to show the defence is allowed to be felt by those who are willing to accept it. But those who have watched the course of the Liberal leaders, who have seen Mr. Laurier in league with Mr. Metcalf, have watched the law courts at the protest election, have been tried, have seen the evidence of the methods adopted in Ontario and in Quebec to raise money for the Liberal campaign funds, will not be greatly surprised at anything that may be done by the leaders of that party even to a defence and commendation of those whom they were a short time ago denouncing with the choicest expressions in their vituperative vocabulary.

In this article Mr. J. Israel Tarte, who is now one of the Liberal fold, is incidentally shown to have been notified by the aid of Mr. Thos. McGreevy and the kind of man this professed patriot is further shown, if the statements regarding him are true. The attack upon Sir Adolphe Caron, so far as any evidence is pronounced, amounts to this, that he gave orders during the elections of 1887 upon Mr. Thos. McGreevy for different sums, amounting in all to $2,000, to pay expenses connected with the elections in different places. Mr. McGreevy was treasurer of a fund raised by subscriptions, so it is stated in this article, for the purpose of the election, and Sir Adolphe gave the orders upon him to pay large sums in the counties. What Sir Adolphe will have to say about the matter we do not know at this writing, but the pith of the charge is that he used money for election purposes furnished by Larkin, Connolly & Co., the Government contractors. The evidence, however, so far as produced, does not show that, for the statement is made in the article itself that there were subscriptions made, and the fact, if it is one, that Sir Adolphe drew upon that fund does not at all show that he knew anything of the contributions of the contractors. If, however, any member makes a charge of improper conduct as a Minister or member against Sir Adolphe Caron, there is no doubt that an opportunity will be given to make it good, but a charge coming from a source that defends Thos. McGreevy and the Connollys does not of itself carry much weight. There are charges made of bribery, but they are no more than the general charges of this kind which the Liberals have been making all along while the members of that party have been unequally right and left for corruption. By all means let anyone guilty of wrongdoing be shown up and punished, but this defense of Thos. McGreevy and the Connollys in the Globe, even if coupled with an attack upon a Conservative, must seem queer reading to members of the Liberal party who are not prepared to follow the winding path of their leaders.

Dead Bar From Home.
The Seattle Telegraph of Friday, January 29th has the following reference to the death of the late Peter Phelan, an old Peterborough boy, who died in that city:—The remains of Peter Phelan, aged 33 years, who died Monday last after a brief illness at the residence of Thomas J. McNamara, were entered in Calvary cemetery yesterday. He had been employed with the Fort-mont mill company about a year, and out of respect to his memory the office will be draped in mourning for 30 days. The mill shut down yesterday and the employees attended the funeral in a body. Mr. Phelan came to Seattle a year ago from Peterborough, Ontario, where he was born. In 1884 he accompanied General Lord Wolseley's expedition up the Nile for the relief of General Gordon at Khartoum and for his services received a queen's medal. While here he made many friends. His parents and several brothers and sisters reside in Ontario; also his wife and family, who were prevented by illness from joining him some time ago.

The Smith-st. Bridge.
To the Editor of the Review.—DEAR SIR,—In reply to a letter in the Examiner of the 5th, I would like to say that I have travelled over the Smith-st. bridge for several years and never saw it in such a disgraceful condition as it is now, and I think it would be an act of (humanity) to repair the bridge at once to allow the farmers on that side of the river to safely cross to attend the great Ice Carnival to be held on the night of the 12th, under the auspices of the Sons of Canada. Thanking you Mr. Editor for your valuable space, I remain yours very truly, S.O.O.

Y.M.C.A. Notes.
The Young Men's rally on Saturday night was largely attended and all present were much interested in the addresses given by Messrs. Hamilton and Mannel. The singing was led by the Y.M.C.A. band.

The Sabbath morning Bible class and consecration meeting was held as usual in the parlor and was conducted by Mr. T. Dodds. Sabbath afternoon at 4 p.m. in the Y.M.C.A. large hall a large audience listened to Evangelist McKie who gave another of his plain talks, the subject being "Delusions." Singing was led by the Y.M.C.A. band. The usual Gospel and Song Service was held last evening, a number expressing their interest in the meeting.

The Hockey Match at the Carnival.
To the Editor of the Review.—DEAR SIR,—Friday evening a letter signed by Mr. Barnes, secretary of the Edison Hockey Club, and in reply would say that one of the players in the above club met the carnival committee in Peterborough Bookstore on Saturday, Jan. 30th, and he gave the committee to understand that if arrangements could be made with the Peterborough club, that the Edison club would be willing to play a match with them for a short time to advertise the game and show a large number how it was played. Mr. Barnes, who is the name of the above player I will be most happy to give it to him along with the names of some half dozen others who were present when the interview took place. Further I might state that three members of the Sons of Canada Carnival Committee met Mr. Montgomery, secretary of the Peterborough Hockey Club, and he said that if the Edison Club were unwilling to play a friendly game, the Peterborough's would get up a match among themselves.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I remain, Yours very truly, JAS. W. KENNEDY, Sec. Carnival Committee.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.
Dr. Bliss Lase, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. Druggists sell it at 50c. and $1 a package.

KILLED WITH A CHARGE OF PEAS.

Alex. Keaton, a Seven-Year-Old Boy, instantly killed in his home at Auburn. A shocking tragedy was enacted at Auburn yesterday morning shortly before noon. Alex. Keaton, a seven-year-old son of Mrs. Keaton, widow of the late Wm. Keaton, watchmaker, was almost instantly killed by the accidental discharging of a shot gun.

The boy Alex. and his elder brother were playing around the floor of one of the rooms in their humble home which stands just opposite the wood yard at Auburn. In the corner stood a shotgun which the elder boy had loaded with a heavy charge of peas to give a scare to a neighbor's dog which had been annoying them. In their play one of the boys struck the gun and knocked it to the floor. In falling the hammer struck against a corner of the lounge and the weapon discharged. With the report came a scream of terrible anguish from little Alex. who was sitting on the floor close to where the gun stood. The entire charge in the gun struck the lad on the lower part of the jaw and neck. With the two words, "Ma, ma," the boy sank down, dying almost instantly. The wound was a shocking one, the charge making a hole in the neck and severing the jugular vein.

Death came so quickly that no medical aid could be summoned. The police were notified and Chief Constable made inquiries and reported to Coroner, Dr. Bell, who did not consider an inquest necessary.

The child's mother was prostrated by the terrible shock and a physician was called in last night. She is still very low to-day.

The Salvation Army will take charge of the funeral. A GENEROUS CONTRIBUTION.
The employees of the Auburn Woolen Mills showed their sympathy with the bereaved family in a most substantial and noble manner to-day by raising a subscription among themselves amounting to $75 to aid the stricken widow and her family.

WORKING IN THE SLUMS.

A Young Lady Tells of Work in India and Among the Slaves of London.

Staff-Capt. Blanche B. Cox, the young lady Salvationist, a sketch of whose many experiences as a Salvation officer was published a few days ago, is here and has established herself in the good graces of the soldiers of the local corps and the many citizens who are interested in the different societies on Saturday night and yesterday to listen to her.

Staff-Capt. Cox is a young lady whose manner of speaking shows that while much of her work in recent years has been in the slums yet she has not been contaminated in manners or customs. She speaks with a pretty English accent and talks very fluently. Her addresses are all interesting, being made so by a happy faculty of the lady's of relating incidents, never of an exaggerated character, in an effective style.

On Saturday night Staff-Capt. Cox spoke on "Travels in India." She referred to the work the Army was doing in India, related incidents in her own experience and told of the manner in which the Salvationist worked in the far off peninsula, begging their food from door to door, living as a native so as to reach the prejudiced people.

Yesterday afternoon the barracks was filled with an audience that manifested their interest by the most marked attention. The lady Salvationist spoke on "The Slum Rescue work." She had been engaged in this work in the great city and spoke from experience. The Army always aimed at rescuing the masses and was instituted with this object. When first beginning the work they had rented a small room in the slums and went in among the people like one of themselves. They dressed in the manner of the old clothes, wore a shawl over their heads and went into the miserable homes of the people of slumdom with pale and bruised faces. They gave the people practical religion. They had had theoretical religion and they repudiated it. But when they entered the slums, they went into their homes and scrubbed the floor, washed the baby, tended the sick or sat by the dying the people would ask "Who are you?" They answered "Your servants in Jesus Christ." The next question always was "How much do you get for this?" They answered not a cent of salary. The people would sometimes say "Well, you can come again if you like." At first the "white aproned ladies" as they were called, were received with hatred and were treated to rotten eggs, dead fish, etc. When she left, however, the people had learned to love them and they had become doctor, priest, minister, policeman and everything else to the people. There was a feeling among these poor neglected people of the slum that they were too disreputable to go into a church and they remained in their slum quarters and would never come within the reach of the Gospel if they were not reached in their own way. The speaker told of how she herself when dressed in her slum dress had been put out of her own church in which her father was a deacon. She was told that she could not remain because she had no hat on. A shawl covered her hair and she and the church official did not know her. This was what turned the slum people from the outside world. She also told of the bright pictures sometimes met amid the misery and poverty and crime of the slums and Walter chapel district, giving an illustration of the case of an old woman called "Eggs and Milk," whom they found happy in her faith to the Lord while fighting starvation. The old lady had never seen a blade of green grass in twenty years and had lived in miserable dark quarters, mending old shoes, yet always happy.

In the evening a halloish soul-saving meeting was conducted by Staff-Capt. Cox. The barracks was again filled and an enthusiastic time was enjoyed.

This afternoon and to-morrow afternoon Staff-Capt. Cox will conduct holiness meetings in the basement of the barracks. All Christians are invited to these meetings.

To-night she will give an address on "Darkest England." This will be an interesting deliverance. To-morrow night her subject will be "Midnight in London" and many more incidents of life in slumdom will be related. There promises to be an interesting series of meetings.

A Meeting For Winter Races.

Some of the local horsemen are making an effort to arrange for a winter meeting on the ice here. It is proposed to hold a four day's meeting. The last day's programme is to be made up of events for two-winners in the previous three days. If such a meeting could be arranged more great sport would be witnessed and the management would aim at making the four days a success and satisfactory to all who enter. To make the arrangements definite, if possible, a meeting of horsemen and all interested in winter races is to be held at the Grand Central hotel on Wednesday evening, Feb. 10th. The meeting is called by Mr. M. O'Connor, secretary, and the attendance of all interested is requested.

A FOREIGN IMPORTATION
PUT IN HUMAN LIFE TO WORK A PURPOSE.

The Gospel the Lesson That is to Evangelize the Human Race—Missionary Sermons by Rev. Mr. Bartlett, of Lakeland.

Rev. Mr. Bartlett, of Lakeland, preached special sermons at both services in the Market Methodist church in Ashburnham yesterday. They were the annual missionary sermons and the services were stamped with a missionary aspect throughout. The discourses had missions as the leading theme, the hymns were of a missionary character and the choir rendered a beautiful missionary anthem.

At the morning service a good congregation listened to an impressive sermon by Rev. Mr. Bartlett based on the words:—

"Another parable spake He unto them; the kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened."—Matthew 13: 33.

Immediately preceding, said the speaker, was the parable of the grain of mustard seed, in which the Saviour spoke of the Gospel as inherent life. As a seed grows so the Gospel spreads, having life in it, but in the leaven in the parable the text God spoke of the growth as the result of something put in from outside.

A FOREIGN SUBSTANCE put in to work within them. The Gospel was a foreign importation put in human life to work its purpose, the same as leaven was put into bread to make it good. The chief seat of falsehood in man was internal and became evident outside in acts performed. Some people talked of being saved from the centre to the outside, and so the Gospel worked within man's nature until every particle was leavened. The Gospel changed society not by restrictive, but regenerative measures, by changing the motives and principles and secret springs of the whole life. It was a living force, an irresistible and everlasting energy. The trouble with some Christians was not that the leaven had lost its power, but that the conditions were not favorable. With favorable conditions the leaven would do its work and they would have good bread. So if they would keep the conditions favorable, keep nearer to God, the Gospel would keep on working and leaven the whole. The whole matter was in their own hands and if they allowed themselves to get into wrong conditions how could they expect to be good Christians. It was the same in the church. He made bold to say that God had done as much for the world as the church would allow Him to do.

GOD WOULD DO NO MORE for him as a man than he would allow Him to do. They could take the successive stages of the church's history and it will illustrate this, but there was no need to do so. God had said if they would let their hearts be true they would find Him. When they came to God and the church lived in proper relations to God the cause prospered. This was illustrated in the present time. God was doing more in the world to-day simply because the church wanted more done, because the church was guarding its spiritual life more zealously than ever. Then the leaven worked among improbabilities. They could not tell of the philosophy, the chemical process of leaven in bread-making but they knew what it did. He could not tell them of the philosophy of the Divine Word in the human soul but he was not going to question the result produced because he did not understand the philosophy. Yet that was the standard in regard to missions. They said "Before we interest ourselves we want to know all about these things." They would never know. The leaven was there and would work. He did not know how the Gospel worked to change men but knew it did change them. The Gospel leaven was assimilative in its action. Not only did it touch the meal but changed it and imparted its own nature.

TO EVERY PART. In this was the glory of the Gospel, that it not only touched human life but changed it and imparted to it a new nature. If each were made leaven in this assimilative action they would be in leavening the whole. This was the great method Jesus Christ designed for the salvation of the world. Some people were perpetually getting, eternally receiving but gave nothing out. They got that they might give out again. They were in the church not only to get something but to find a sphere of active work. In concluding he again emphasized the importance of the church being in a favorable condition, saying they should be a great deal more considerate of the condition of the church, of the Bible. The Bible was all right. The leaven continued until the whole was leavened. This meant that what the Gospel came to accomplish would be done, what God intended to do for the fallen world of man he was going to do. If the process was slow that was the fault of the church not of God. The Lord God of Hosts would save the race of man just as soon as the church of God was alive to the right work. It might be twenty years or it might be two or three hundred years. In closing he asked them two questions, were they leavened and were they aiding to leaven the whole by prayer, sympathy and good money?

At night the annual missionary meeting of the congregation was held. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Bartlett and Rev. W. B. Young, R.A. of Millbrook.

Ask Your Friends About It. Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam has cured the past few years has cured so many coughs and croup in this community. Its remarkable sale has been won entirely by its genuine merit. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so pure, none so effective, large bottles 50c. and 25c. at all druggists.

Succeeding in the West. In an account of the late Wawanesa, Man., in the Brandon Times, there is the following paragraph regarding Mr. R. J. Nethercutt, formerly of Peterborough. Mr. Nethercutt's friends here will be pleased to hear of his success in his western home. "Mr. R. J. Nethercutt has the only hardware store in Wawanesa. He came from Peterborough, Ont., in the spring of 1889 to Brandon and was in the employ of Mr. Robert Wilson for a short time before taking charge of that gentleman's business in Wawanesa. In February, 1891, he purchased the Wawanesa business together with the building in which it was carried on. In September of the same year he added a large addition, and now has one of the largest hardware stores in the place, carrying a stock of over $75,000. His trade has more than doubled since he took it over, but this is partly accounted for by the removal of two other hardware firms from the place. His customers can be attributed not only to his fine business qualities, but largely also to his personal attractions."

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Paragraphs Picked up Among the Different Congregations.

Rev. Mr. Melkie, the Evangelist, occupied the pulpit at both services at the George-st. Methodist church yesterday. In the morning the evangelist conducted a Bible reading preparatory to the Communion. At the communion service which followed twenty new members were received into the church. At the evening service there was another large congregation present. The evangelist will hold his meetings this week in the George-st. church. On Tuesday and Thursday afternoons he will give addresses on the Tabernacle illustrated with colored diagrams.

The feast of Candlemas was celebrated at 10.30 at St. Peter's cathedral yesterday morning.

The annual meeting of the St. Paul's church congregation will be held on Wednesday evening next. Tea will be served by the ladies from six to eight o'clock.

Special anniversary services in connection with the Charlotte-st. Methodist church Sunday school will be held on Sunday next. The Rev. Mr. Baker, M.A., will preach in the morning to the children and at 7 p.m. to the parents. On Monday evening, the 13th inst., Rev. Mr. Baker will give a lecture in the Sunday school entitled "Baptism in Rome." On Thursday evening a tea will be given to the children of the school.

Rev. Mr. Edwards, who has been preaching a series of sermons on Noah for some time past, made some remarks a week ago on the subject of Noah's Ark, which were well received by some of his hearers. Yesterday morning and evening he followed up the sermon of the previous Sunday by a recapitulation of his views in a more extended form—and in clear, simple and logical exposition, and his meaning and intention that all doubts were most satisfactorily set aside.

Rev. Alex. McWilliams occupied the pulpit at St. Andrew's church yesterday morning after a few weeks' illness. Rev. Mr. Locke, of the George-st. church, preached at the evening service.

At the annual meeting of the Peterborough Presbyterian Society of the W.F.M.B. the following were elected:—President, Mrs. Oak, Port Hope; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. Fairbairn, Peterborough; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Lord, Grafton; 3rd Vice-President, Mrs. Thompson, Hastings; 4th Vice-President, Mrs. Paton, Peterborough; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Laidlaw, Port Hope; Recording Secretary, Mrs. W. B. Reid, Port Hope; Treasurer, Mrs. Hay, Cobourg.

The choir of St. John's church are to be congratulated on the marked improvement which is noticeable in the music of the church at the present time. They are taking an increased interest in their parts of the service. The new organist, Mr. Fred Clarke, entered upon a difficult post as successor to the talented Dr. Davies, but his playing seems to have given every satisfaction to the congregation. As a Peterborough boy it will be hoped that a brilliant future lies before him.

At the evening service in St. John's yesterday Rev. J. G. Davidson suggested that all members of the congregation who could do so should make their arrangements to be in Toronto next Friday, Saturday and Sunday and "take in" the St. Andrew's Brotherhood Convention, the latter of whose movement will be present among other distinguished visitors and addresses will be delivered by some of the leading clergy and laymen of the Canadian and American churches. Some five delegates to the Convention will be present among other distinguished visitors and addresses will be delivered by some of the leading clergy and laymen of the Canadian and American churches.

True Economy. No matter how many hundred doses of any other medicine are offered for a dollar, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the cheapest blood-purifier and blood-builder, because it is guaranteed, and your money is returned if it doesn't benefit or cure.

With its use you only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more?

Revelation. Charles Baker, a Sunday drunk, was fined $5 and costs at the Police Court this morning. He paid the money.

A council meeting of the whole Council is to be held to-night to discuss the street railway matters.

Such as Dr. Jho Lewis, Prof. Gross, and others, agree that catarrh is not a local but a constitutional disease. It therefore requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which effectively and permanently cures catarrh. Thousands praise it.

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy yet efficient action. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 cents per box.

Rheumatism,

is due to the presence of uric acid in the blood, is most effectively cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Do not get Ayer's and no other, and take it till the poisonous acid is thoroughly expelled from the system. We challenge attention to this testimony.

About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatism, being able to walk only with great difficulty, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that it has effected a complete cure. I have since had no return of the disease. Mrs. E. H. Dyer, 110 West 125th St., New York.

"One year ago I was taken ill with inflammatory rheumatism, being confined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system deranged in every way. I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining strength and soon recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine." Mrs. L. A. Stark, Nashua, N. H.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1892.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

MRS. OSBORNE WAS TERRIBLY PERSECUTED.

Parliament to be asked some pertinent questions concerning the action of the Treasury Department in the matter of the Prince of Wales said to be London to adopt Princess May.

London, Feb. 8.—Much disgust and indignation are being expressed at the shameful and cruel mismanagement of the Government prosecution of Mrs. Florence Estlin Osborne.

In the first place, at the Lord Mayor's Court, the wicked woman was kept waiting over an hour before any one representing the Treasury condescended to put in an appearance at all.

Then a Treasury solicitor, knowing that the charge would not hold good, coolly asked that the warrant for false pretences be withdrawn, and by way of exhibiting some soul, applied for another warrant on the charge of perjury. Upon this Mrs. Osborne will have to stand trial. She was hauled from one court to another, half mad with distress and fainting from exhaustion.

This guilty but most unhappy and afflicted woman has been cast into prison on remand simply because the Treasury grossly mismanaged the case.

Nobody demands this prosecution. Full reparation has been made to all the injured persons, and the Treasury is obliged to interfere, but if it has interfered in the name of justice let it pursue the path of justice and not inflict tortures upon a broken hearted woman such as Lady Jeffries might well have been brought off. I believe the subject will be brought up in Parliament next week.

Mrs. Osborne a heroine

London, Feb. 8.—G. W. Smalley cables: Mrs. Osborne was suddenly become a sort of heroine. Her surrender is understood to have been at her own wish, and her treatment by the Treasury officials is deemed unbecomingly harsh. Hence the curious outburst of feeling in her favor. She is expected to take her trial for obtaining money on false pretences, and has now to face a charge of perjury, on which she is remanded without bail.

The Anti-Parliamentary Chairmanship.

DUBLIN, Feb. 8.—The Independent (Parliamentary) says the re-election Saturday of Justin McCarthy as chairman of the section of the Irish parliamentary party, opposed to the policy of the Parliament, was due to a compromise arrived at in order to avoid offending the numerous aspirants for the chairmanship, most of whom could command a majority, but whose defeat would have split the McCarthyites into several sections.

The Freeman's Journal (McCarthyite) admits that other anti-Parliamentaries are better qualified than Mr. McCarthy for the chairmanship, but that in the present organization of the party their services are best given from the ranks.

Salisbury's strong sentences.

LONDON, Feb. 8.—The portion of Lord Salisbury's Easter speech which called forth the storm of the Protestant nation's reply is contained in these sentences: "England in the Protestant nation of the world, England, more than any other country, has resisted the domination of the clerical profession. Yet now you are going to create an ultra-clerical state under the government of Archbishop Crooke and Walsh. Ireland consists of a majority and a minority. You are going to give to that majority, which contains all that is backward, all that is unprogressive, all that is contrary to civilization and enlightenment, power over all that is enlightened, civilized and progressive."

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

THE EVE OF THE OPENING OF PAR-LIAMENT.

Mr. Joseph Chamberlain Elected Leader of the Liberal-Unionists in Succession to the Duke of Devonshire—Entertaining the Members at Dinner.

London, Feb. 9.—A meeting was held at Devonshire House yesterday to elect a successor to Lord Hartington, now Duke of Devonshire, as Liberal-Unionist leader in the House of Commons. Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, M.P. for Birmingham, who has long been talked of as the successor of Lord Hartington as parliamentary leader, was formally elected to the position.

Mr. Chamberlain, in a speech, said the Duke of Devonshire would still direct the policy of the party. He maintained his position was that of a Liberal. All the opinions he had expressed throughout the fight for the maintenance of the union he still firmly adhered to.

London, Feb. 8.—Lord Salisbury and Mr. Bessy gave a dinner to their prominent supporters this evening as it customary on the eve of the opening of Parliament.
The Queen's speech, which is exactly as outlined in Friday's Dispatch, was read to the guests.

Lord Derby and the Duke of Devonshire gave dinners to the disident leaders and Mr. William Vernon Harcourt entertained the principal Liberals.

The Eve of Reconciliation Past.
London, Feb. 9.—T. P. O'Connor says in yesterday's Sun:

"The stillness of the Irish political atmosphere just at present is deceptive. We have reason to believe the coming, or at least the nearness, of a reunion of the factions. The Irish are a little ashamed of continuing a struggle the cause for which no longer exists. It must be admitted that there is still much bitter animosity, but a change in the situation is apparent."

"The more rational members of the minority have altered the tone of their speeches and no longer indulge in invective and calumny. There is a suspicion that this is due to pressure brought upon the mouthpieces of the faction by their own supporters."

"Whether there is to be permanent peace or not it is too early to state with confidence, but there is at present something in the air which leads us to believe that the era of bitter personal recriminations is past."

London, Feb. 9.—A recent caucus meeting of the McCarthys, Mr. O'Connor says:
"We never saw a gathering more serious, more under control. The speeches were entirely devoid of the usual Irish exuberance and debatable questions were talked over without unreasonable criticism. We asked several members the reason for this unanticipated and received from all the same answer in substance, namely, that it was the effect of the terrible lesson taught by the occurrence in committee-room 16."

Did You Bite?
Scotland Yard Detectives Break Up a Nephris Legacy Agency.

London, Feb. 9.—Scotland Yard detectives have succeeded in breaking up the business of one of the most important of the spurious "Claim Agencies" that do business with silly Americans and colonialists, who believe that large fortunes have been left them in England, or that they are the legitimate heirs of valuable estates now in possession of Englishmen. E. Ross and William Lord Moore are the names under which the head of the concern does business.
An enormous number of letters from the dupes of this "agency" were found at the place in Ingersoll-road, which is a small dwelling house. The modus operandi of its business is interesting.

The dupes first get a circular informing them that a large sum of money has been left to them by a deceased relative, the name of whose name is to be a large estate in Great Britain, or to a fortune in chancery, or to a deposit undclaimed in the Bank of England, and requesting him to communicate with "The European Claims Agency" in New York. If he does so, he gets a response, stating that he is entitled to the money, and that he must send a bond-man who will prosecute the claim. If the $25 is sent that is the end of it.

SAFE FOR A TIME.

The El-Timed Comments of the Proprietor of the London Financial Observer.

London, Feb. 9.—W. Perryman, proprietor of the Financial Observer and Mining Herald, who accused Messrs. Bon-nard, Deakin and Purbrook with bribing
The Financial News, a rival paper, to support dishonest schemes and with obtaining £28,000 as "promotion plunder" in connection with schemes for the purchase of breweries at Baltimore and elsewhere, was to-day sentenced by Judge North to two months imprisonment.

AN ELEPHANT'S VICTIM.

Major Anson Killed in a Jungle
Hunt in India.

London, Feb. 9.—A party were out elephant catching at Garhwal under the charge of Major Anson, superintendent of the Bul-dharpur district, when the animal was riding a tame elephant, which was attacked by one of the wild elephants and overthrown. Major Anson escaped unhurt, but his wife received injuries which required hospital treatment.

Heavy Fines in Mrs. Parnell's Case.

London, Feb. 9.—The costs in Mrs. Par-nell's will suit, which will be tried early in March and involve a sum of £200,000, are enormous. The Attorney-General and Sir Charles Russell receive each 800 guineas as a fee and 200 guineas for reading the massive pile of papers in the case. The Solicitor-General has 600 guineas fee and 200 guineas for reading the papers, and fees of a similar character will be given to the other counsel.

London's New Underground Railway.

London, Feb. 9.—The bill has been deposited in the House of Commons authorising the construction of a new underground electric railway from Waterloo station under the River Thames to the Baker-street station. The length is 11 miles 10 fms.
and the line will cost £200,000, of which the tunnelling will swallow up £438,435.

Reduced Duties On Salt.

Ottawa, Feb. 9.—Mr. De la Roche and Mr. Scott, representing Dow & Co. of Montreal, waited on Premier Abbott on Saturday on behalf of the brewers. They represented the necessity of altering the excise duty on salt, which was increased a cent a pound last session.

"LET HER GO!"

Were the Last Words of Murderer Mc-Eivaine Before His Execution.

St. Louis, N.Y., Feb. 9.—Charles Mc-Eivaine was electrocuted at 11:28 yesterday. Just as the first current was about to be applied, McEivaine shouted
"Let her go!" At that moment the current was turned on and all the sound ceased.

There was a quick convulsive jump of the subject following the application of the current. A livid shadow crept into the hollow of the dying man's face; the sides of the nose, the lips became purple, the wrists were ashen first and then welts of purple color showed around the edges of the straps.
Meanwhile there shrank, alternating 150 times each second, was beating at the nerve cells and exhausting the oxygen from the blood capillaries. There was no movement in any part of the entire frame.

"Close!" commanded Dr. McDonald, and the small lever at the switchboard was pushed back to its place and the current was cut off. The hour was 11:12 49 a.m.

The power of 1800 volts of electro motive force had been busy 49 seconds with the life centre of the man, motionless figure.

Not Dead at the First Contact.

Dr. Ward reached down to the cell on the right side of the chair and was feeling for pulse beats, when from the livid lips of the subject there showed an exhalation of mucus and almost at the same instant there came from the throat a broken exhalation of air from the lungs, which had thus expelled the last inhalation of air taken in at the last moment as the condemned man nerved himself for the death stroke.

Then came a shorter gasp, which was cut short in a gurgle by the respiration of the current, which at the moment was flowing at 1600 volts and 10 amperes. Quickly the current was reduced to 1200 volts and the sound of a gentle hiss—steam simultaneously curled up from the electrode on the calf of the left leg.

There was no more sound of burst surface, though a few minutes later and after all was over there hung in the air a suggestion of smoke from burning flesh, probably the result of blistering under the heated plates in the electrode.

"Stop!" again ordered Dr. McDonald and the little lever again cut off the current from the subject.

Dr. Wood again advanced and tested the wrists for possible pulse beats. There were none, showing beyond doubt that the man was dead. There came no more tremor of action anywhere, and when the mask on the purple face was loosened the neck resolved and the entire frame sank down a senseless substance.

The Body Turned.

When the body was laid upon a table for the autopsy it was observed that there were slight blisters from the heated water in the electrode at the temples; the hands, which had remained completely immersed,
were in a degree disfigured on the surface,
but the wounds had each a slight bluish ring about them where they had been wet upon immersion, but had been withdrawn at the convulsion attending the first contact. At the calf of the left leg, where the second contact had been made instead of at the hands, there had been something more than blistering, the rigid tightening of the muscles, the presence of the sponge dry and hard resulting to singe the surface. The first period of contact was 50 seconds; period of second contact, 38 seconds.

The autopsy demonstrated that McEivaine was thoroughly sane, the substance and the tissues of the brain being entirely normal.

Immediately after the execution Dr.
McDonald said that the experiment demonstrated that contact with the leg and the forehead are the best.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It soothes the little sufferer at once, produces natural quietness by treating the child from within, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, intensifies the gums, always relieves the inflammation of the throat, and is a well-known remedy for diarrhea whether arising from teething or other cause. Want you can a bottle.

Afterwards the happy couple left to catch the str. Islander for Victoria, where the honeymoon will be spent. They were given a hearty sendoff by the many friends present. Miss Wood and Mr. Roseborough are both well known in this neighborhood and their many friends will wish them every happiness.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not put on a stimulus, but imparts genuine strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla restores.

That Tired Feeling
creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives you healthy, active, mental and digestive strength.

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." Ed. J. Jenkins, Mt. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out
"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. Brooks, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out
"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully that I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." Miss. Parana Mosier, 30 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

BUTTER MAKING.

Practical Hints Regarding How to Make Butter Making Pay.

The following essay, written by Mrs. R. E. Birdsall, of Ashcroft, won the first prize offered by the Farmers' Institute of East Peterborough for essays on butter making.

Butter making can, with very few cows, be made profitable, but in doing so there are a great many things to remember, and the first is in the care of the cows. They must be chosen with a view to their milking qualities, of which one must not neglect to take into consideration. Some cows have a very small flow of milk but give a greater amount of butter than many larger milkers, and these are well cared for. Their pasture must be good. They must have good water and plenty of it. A great deal of the milk, if it is to be of good quality, is lost in the water, and if that water, drunk by the cows, is filthy and impure, you cannot expect the milk, or the butter made from that milk, to be anything but bad and injurious. If the season be dry, or the pasture poor, feed green food, as the quality of the milk depends on the quality of the feed. Get out manure, corn and ensilage all go to increase the flow of milk, and they should be fed where they are raised. Never allow cows to be shod at and driven against each other or chased by dogs when bringing home from pasture. When all is quiet the cow's nerves are not upset. The milk consequently is more freely given. The same rules for quietness apply in the stable and barnyard where they should be treated gently and kindly. They should be fed regularly, and carded at least once a week.

Before milking the udder should be well brushed and cleaned and the milking done as quickly as possible by the milker, and the milk should be strained through a cloth. The milk should be drawn the more comfort the cow experiences, and the more willing she is to let it down, and I say by the same person, as far as practicable, as so two milk milks and the cow is susceptible to such changes. Another thing to be remembered is regularity. Milk at the same time each day and you will feel rapid for the little inconvenience once it may occasion sometimes.

There are always impurities in the stable and barnyard, no matter how clean you try to keep things and there is nothing so easily tainted and so susceptible to such impurities as milk. So as soon as the cows are milked, the milk should be carried away at once and strained in some safe place. The temperature of 50 degrees Fahr. or in creamers, the deep pails, when I have the water about 45 degrees Fahr. From the time the milk is brought in there is one important thing you cannot do without, and that is the thermometer, as by testing and trying all the temperatures you will not have half the trouble you would have otherwise and the time will be saved that you waste without one wondering what the matter is, is it hot or cold? With the beginning of the year of milk there is another thing I would speak of and speak of most emphatically, and that is cleanliness. It is the beginning and end of the whole business and without it you cannot make good butter. Everything must be kept sweet and clean. The pails, or wash your milk things with the same cloth you wash your dishes and pots and pans with, and have first or even second class butter. There are two great advantages with the deep pails (creamers) for setting the milk. The first, being covered so speaks of dust, flies or other abominations can drop in, and the second, the cream is always sweet. Prof. Robertson's rule is to strain every twenty-four hours, before the cream can get sour. Strain each time fresh cream is added and several times besides. Two days before churning one quart of cream for every four pails full to be strained should be set apart and kept as warm as 70 degrees Fahr. One day before churning the cream (which will then be sour) should be added to that which is needed for churning, well mixed and all kept at a temperature of 50 degrees Fahr. A very good rule is, which I have found.

One thing we should not do is to mix the cream from the shallow pans and the deep pails, as they are not of the same quality and the butter will not gather as readily. And again with different breeds of cows the cream should be kept separate. For instance, I have Jerseys and Durhams. The cream from the latter I churn thirty or forty minutes. While sometimes with the former ten minutes, rarely twenty minutes, is the time I churn. So, if I have the cream mixed I would only get my Jersey butter and the rest would be wasted, or if I went on churning to get the Durham the Jersey would be ruined.

With the little barrel churn (well named "The Diver") one can truly say that butter making is a pleasure. It is turned with a crank, revolves in a stand, and with no padding or anything inside to interfere with the churning. It is a pleasure. Butter washed and scalded and brought to the right temperature for churning, and the cream being added in a regular motion should be kept up until the butter comes in particles like "head," only stopping a little at first to let the gas escape. When the butter has gathered the buttermilk should be drawn off, running through a small strainer, as also the succeeding waters, in case any little particles of butter escape, and pure water thrown in in place of the buttermilk. That is churned a minute or two, drawn off and a second supply added. If after churning this water a few times it is milky looking, draw off and add still another. If it is clear, however, lift the butter out. It will, of course, float on top and be easily taken out with the ladle, which, with the butter bowl, should have been well washed and scalded with boiling water before the churning was started. Let them stand with the boiling water in until it is cold. Then empty out and fill with clear cold water and let stand while churning. The butter being all washed in the churn, of course only the salting remains to be done. If made for market, you must consider your customer's taste, but from one-half to three quarters of an ounce of the best dairy salt, well sifted, to a pound of butter, will suit most people. Work the salt in and then set in a cool place for a few hours, when a second working will be necessary.

If you are packing in jars, be careful, all the way through, about leaving any little space or any water, as the butter will be hard to keep. Fill to within one and half inches of the top, lay a clean white cloth over the top of the jar, but a good layer of salt, and then fill with a strong brine. This will keep your butter good and sweet for months.

If, on the other hand, you are making into rolls, have them neat and compact. Prof. Robertson, in a bulletin issued from the Agricultural College, Ames, 1888, says, in speaking of butter rolls, "Put them up neatly and tastefully, with a little crimping and beautiful, as far as possible, for these will permit."

But without too much crimping and headfiring, the rolls certainly look better for a full size and find a more ready sale than if left perfectly plain. Each roll should be wrapped in a clean white cloth and dropped into brine, being sure to keep the rolls well under cover until you have sufficient number for market. The lined rolls are being done every day with a great extent, on account of the rust, as was fully explained at Peterborough this fall by Prof. Head in his able lecture on butter making.

In making the dairy a success, then, you must have certain rules and follow them implicitly, so as to always have your butter the same. People will soon know your butter, and because it can always be depended upon, the demand will be equal to, if not more than the supply.

To The Editor of the Review:
Sir, It is with pleasure that the Sons of Canada Carnival Committee announce that the hockey match will take place on Friday, Feb. 12, at 7 o'clock, at the rink on the corner of the Review and the Exhibition grounds. The match will be between the Sons of Canada and the Peterborough rink.

It is expected that this will be the most exciting game of the season as both clubs are about evenly matched.

Thanking you, Sir, for your valuable space, I remain,
Yours very truly,
Jas. W. Kennedy,
Sec. Carnival Committee.

Ask Your Friends About It.
Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured so many coughs and colds in this community. Its remarkable effects have been witnessed by its genuine merit. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so sure, none so effective. Large bottles 50¢ and $1 at all druggists.

My head was literally full of Dandruff and nothing gave me visible relief until using Anti-Dandruff, a few applications of which has thoroughly cleared the dandruff from my head and I feel better.

Wait the Road.
To The Editor of the Review:

Sir, There appears to be a commonly recognized custom to which all well disposed persons are willing cheerfully to conform, namely, the custom of waiting for a horse to be shod. It is a custom which is not only a nuisance, but a source of danger to the horse and rider. It is a custom which is not only a nuisance, but a source of danger to the horse and rider. It is a custom which is not only a nuisance, but a source of danger to the horse and rider.

But let us look at the other side of the picture. It is unfortunately the habit of many of the very men who are the most benefited by this custom, when they are returning home with empty sleighs, to alight and occupy the whole road as if they had a perfectly legal right to do so. The result is a source of danger to the horse and rider. It is a custom which is not only a nuisance, but a source of danger to the horse and rider.

This is the shame of the weaker sex. They not only do this, but they often form a kind of procession, the drivers congregating on one side and their teams, frequently the leaders, to guide themselves. This is a most dangerous custom and I believe it is illegal.

The proper authorities—if there are such—should take steps to put a stop to this nuisance, and those who are the sufferers from it should do all in their power to assist them.

A pile word of thanks is due to the man who, if he has a load, civilly stops his team to let another pass; or, if he has no load, himself takes the rough part of the road, with his strong "whoa." But those who persist in making themselves obnoxious to their fellow travellers, by willfully obstructing the road, should be made to suffer the highest penalty that the law can impose. And as it is impossible, in many cases, for strangers to identify these offenders, it would be desirable to employ detectives to bring a few of them to book. A detective disguised as a woman, or even as a respectable dressed lady, would find a long line of sleighs, and a number of drivers would readily fall and I should think that he might easily arrest half a dozen of them one afternoon on the road between Peterborough and Lakefield.

Yours etc.
Law.

TO AVOID MISTAKES.

I contend that you make a big mistake when you pay $1.00 for goods which can be purchased at ROUTLEY'S for 75¢, also by purchasing last year's style of goods when you can get the NEWEST in the market at ROUTLEY'S.

The goods coming in this week are worth looking at, even if you should not want to buy.

SAVED BY THE SNOW.

Snow Makes it Easier to Convey Food to the Distressed Russians.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 10.—Little is now heard here of the famine. Heavy snows have fallen, a strong crust has formed and goods and grain may be conveyed in sledges to any part of the Empire. Much grain has already reached the famine-stricken provinces, and according to the reports received here the condition of the sufferers has much improved.

It is the general opinion here that the distressed provinces will now be enabled to hold out until spring.

SURGEON'S REMAINS.

The Crowd Break Up the Wooden Case of the Coffin for Relics.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—From 7 o'clock yesterday the body of the late Rev. Charles H. Spurgeon has been lying in state in the Metropolitan Tabernacle. An enormous crowd was waiting for the doors to open and as soon as they were permitted the throng began to move past the coffin. Thirteen thousand persons had viewed the body before 11 o'clock. The coffin is covered with palm branches.

The coffin was originally inclosed in a wooden case, and before it was taken to the train that was to convey it to London this case was taken off. It was broken in pieces, and the crowd eagerly seized upon the bits of wood and carried them off as relics.

Mrs. Frank Carow Divorced.
LONDON, Feb. 10.—Miss Edith Chester, the actress, today obtained a divorce from Frank Carow, with the custody of their children. Carow treated her badly, and on one occasion struck her. He was, moreover, found guilty of infidelity.

Miss Edith Chester is known here as a former member of Rodina Vokos' Comedy Company, when she went under the name of Miss Leslie Chester.

MESLOP MURDER.

Tom Young and His Wife Both Down with Grip—Over the Ground.

BRANTFORD, Feb. 10.—Thomas Young and his wife, who are witnesses in the Meslop murder case, have both been very ill with the grippe.

The Meslop residence remains as it was on the night of the murder. The basket upon which Mr. Meslop's head rested when his wife and daughter reached him, after his life had been taken, is still in the same spot, and nothing will be touched until after the trial is concluded.

The Lottridge family feel confident that John Lottridge will be released on the day of the trial. Mr. Thomas Lottridge, father of the accused, is a very respectable man and feels the position of his son very keenly.

Whatever the defence propose to set up they are doing it in a manner that the prosecution cannot gain any information about it.

The New Customs Detective.

OTTAWA, Feb. 10.—It is reported the new Minister of Customs, Mr. Chapleau, will appoint Lt.-Col. Audet, now of the State Department, to the position of chief of the customs detective force, which became vacant some time ago owing to the death of Mr. J. F. Wolfe.

Nail-Makers at Work.
HAMILTON, Feb. 10.—Yesterday morning the American Nail Works started work after three months' idleness, due to a strike of the men against a reduced scale proposed by the company; but an agreement was reached under which they went to work yesterday morning on the basis of 16 cents a keg.

Killed on the Crossing.
BANGOR, Ont., Feb. 10.—A Lambton farmer named John McGregor was crossing the M.C.R. track near here in a covered buggy when he was run down by a train and instantly killed.

Another Costly Fataality.
FERRIS, Ont., Feb. 10.—A farmer named John Hall of Ferris and his son, aged 17, were going up Tower-street hill with a team, when they encountered some boys coming down the hill on a hand-sleigh. The horses took fright, throwing both father and son out of the sleigh. The young man was almost instantly killed and the father seriously hurt.

A Man Drowned in a Fall of Water.
PICKERING, Feb. 10.—Frank Clark, aged 19, the adopted son of a clerk of this place, was this morning found dead, being drowned in a fall of water. Deceased was subject to fits and had fallen face downward. When found his face was in the water and life was extinct.

And Still Trading.
BELLVILLE, Feb. 10.—One hundred and ten tons of rock from the Lingham quarry in Belmont yielded $1100 worth of gold, and the cleaning up is not yet completed.

Calamity in Mattawa.
MATTAWA, Ont., Feb. 10.—Early yesterday fire broke out in a frame building in Main-street, owned by the Earl estate and occupied by Rothchild's tailor shop. Mrs. Rothchild, a little girl aged 4 and a baby of 18 months, who were in the upper flat, perished in the flames. The building, which was wholly of pine, rapidly succumbed, and the flames communicated to M. Gervin's large storehouse and ginger ale factory, all of which were destroyed. Loss about $12,000, partly insured.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

The Weather.

Mr. Theo. Telford writes:—At sunrise this morning the thermometer stood only 1 degree above zero with apparent signs of more changeable weather.

The Latest Light.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasant to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effective in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Boatmen's Happpings.

A team from the local club will go to Port Hope and Coburg to-morrow to do battle at both places. They will play at Port Hope in the afternoon and at Coburg in the evening.
All power to them. The names of the team are:—T. H. Dumble, G. Savers, W. J. Montgomery, W. Phelps, H. Roy, J. Gensell, W.
Bradburn and A. Ondaft.

A Child's Sudden Death.

Yesterday afternoon ex-Councillor Langford's second daughter, Maud Irene, aged seven years, died very suddenly. The child was in her usual health on Sunday, but on Monday was crawling, and early on Tuesday morning became sore and died at three o'clock in the afternoon.
She was an active and lovable child, and Mr.
Langford and family will receive deep sympathy in their sudden and bereavement.

A Handy Reference.

The Practical Ready Reference Guide to the Statutes of Canada, compiled by Mr. F. K.
Blatch, of the Island Revenue Department, just issued, is a work that contains the titles of all chapters of the Revised Statutes of 1886, and all subsequent, amending, repealing, and new Acts, with a column of references to all previous Acts from which the Revised Statutes are consolidated. It is nearly bound in linen, is compact and is calculated to do away with much tedious hunting over voluminous volumes for amending and repealing Acts. It has been highly recommended by leading lawyers, members of Parliament and judges, and will, no doubt, fill a long felt want among all who have anything to do with the Statutes of Canada.
A similar guide to the Statutes of Ontario, now in course of preparation, will be ready by the 1st of March.

After the Grip.

And after typhoid fever, diphtheria, pneumonia, or other prostrating disease, Hood's Sarsaparilla is just what is needed to restore the strength and vigor so much desired, and to expel all poison from the blood. It has had wonderful success in many such cases.

Hood's Pills.

Hood's Pills act especially upon the liver, routing it from torpidity to its natural duties,
cure constipation and assist digestion.

Ladies at Robinson's School House.

A number of the ladies of the Women's Auxiliary of the George-st. Methodist church drew out to Robinson's school house, in Smith, last night to attend an entertainment held there under the auspices of the Auxiliary of that church. The evening proved to be an interesting and profitable one. Mrs. Hood, president of the Auxiliary, presided, and performed the duties falling to the position with graceful efficiency. Mrs. J.
Kendry, of town, gave an interesting address on the work of the organization, and Miss Lizzie Sanderson, of town, read a carefully prepared paper on "Why We Should not Doubt." Miss Clarke, of Bridgewater, also read a profitable paper entitled "Systematic Giving." Mrs. Fitzgerald, Miss Udy and Mrs.
Hood contributed musical selections and responses, of town, and Miss Craig gave a vocal duet. The programme was well rendered and those present were delighted with the entertainment.

THE BELMONT GOLD MINE.

Highly Encouraging Reports of the First Thorough Test.The first thorough test of the Litcham gold mine, in Belmont, and of the new apparatus for the reduction of the gold bearing rock taken from it has been made, says the Belleville Intelligencer, and the result, as we learn, on unquestionable authority, is in the highest degree satisfactory.The test was the reduction of 100 tons of ore, from which 50 ounces of gold, valued at $1,100, was yesterday shipped to Philadelphia. This gives a yield of $10 to the ton, but there is still a quantity of gold in the mercury and some concentrations that are no doubt very rich. The total yield may safely be placed at about $15 per ton.The separate process is by far the most successful that has yet been tried on the refractory ores of this region, as but a very small per cent age of the precious metal remains in the tailings.
This effect upon the gold mining interests of the district must be highly important.It is the intention of the proprietors of the mine—so well as they are satisfied with the result of the test of its value—to largely increase their plant and prosecute the work on an extensive scale.

A PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

The Officers of Carwell and Ashburnham Lodges Jointly Installed—A Pleasant Evening.An interesting gathering was held in the Old Town Hall in Ashburnham last night when a public joint installation of officers of Carwell and Ashburnham Lodges of Good Templars took place. This was the first public installation and the large attendance manifested the interest that was taken in the Order by many outside of its circles.The officers of the lodge took their respective places when the meeting opened with the opening ode of the Order. Bro. G. J. Early, G. M., D. D. G. C. T., presided as chairman and introduced an excellent programme with a short address. Then came a chorus by the members of Carwell Lodge, a reading by Bro.
Frederick, a month organ duet by Mrs. Fisher and Freshman, a recitation by Sister M.
Hamilton, and a duet by Sisters Nellie and Winnie Curstey.The installation ceremony was then performed by Bro. G. J. Early, G. M., D. D. G. C. T.
The ceremony over, the programme was again renewed with Bro. McInnes giving a reading.
Messrs. Cook, Dobbie and McGrath rendered a trio, Miss Hattie Courtney contributed a song, "A Little Boy's Speech" was delivered by Master C. Russell, Sister Munroe and Bro.
Fisher gave a duet and Bro. J. and B. Monroe recited. This programme was admirably rendered and with the installation ceremony made up an interesting programme for the evening. The proceedings were closed by the assembly uniting in the National Anthem.
Miss McKim presiding at the organ.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.
Dr. Elias Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure constipation, headache, indigestion, biliousness, for the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c, and it is a package.Evangelistic Services.
There was a large attendance again at the union evangelistic services in the George-st.
Methodist Church last evening. Rev. Mr.
McKie was assisted by Rev. Messrs. Torrance Trotter and Locke. Mr. McKie gave an address on "Forgiveness," and quite a number manifested their desire for the forgiveness spoken of by the evangelist. A hearty welcome is extended to all at these services.An Egyptian Curiosity.
In July, 1881, there were discovered in the ancient city of Thebes, the mummies of Egypt's mightiest Pharaohs, among them that of Ram-ses the Great. There were also found seals, coins, statuettes, preserved food, and a few rolls of papyrus, some of the latter being of great value, curiously bound together, and, notably, standing the mould and mildew of ages upon them, as easily read as if written yesterday.A queer little book entitled, "A Night with Rameses II.," has been executed so cleverly, that the oxidized seal, suggestion of mould, antique coloring, and partially decayed and ragged-edged papyrus carry at once to the mind the possession of a veritable relic from the dawn of civilization. Stamped to any address on receipt

Last night a number of young men were walking on George-st. when they heard the crash of glass, and on investigation it was discovered that a burglar was in the act of going through Gough Bros. store. Several of them guarded the door while one ran over to the police station and in a few minutes Policemen McIntyre and Adams were on the scene. They entered the building and began to search, when they discovered the man under the counter in the boot and shoe department with a large amount of red cloth used for covering shelves.When taken to the police station he was asked what he was going to do with the cloth, and he said he was going to dress for the Sons of Canada in Central, to be held on Friday, the 12th.

ORATORIO "EMMANUEL."

SUNG BY THE PETERBOROUGH
PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY.The First Presentation in Canada of the Glorious—Successful Debut of the Socety—The Soloists and Chorus.The Peterborough Philharmonic Society was organized last autumn, largely as the result of zealous effort on the part of Mr. J. Churchill Arledge, choirmaster and organist of St. Paul's Church. Mr. Arledge went at the work with enthusiasm, and drew together a membership from among the towns who came to give the time to the study of music a character such as that of the oratorio, which is distinctly more severe than the cantata. During the earlier weeks of the winter practice was taken up on the score of the sacred oratorio "Emmanuel," composed by J. Eliot Townbridge.
Under the direction of Mr. Arledge the parts were performed so as to warrant a public presentation. The soloists are all members of the Society and the management were loyal strict in assigning the solo parts to members and not relying on assistance from outside the Society, no matter how efficient or desirable it might have been.On Tuesday evening the chorus and soloists were seated on a raised platform built in front of the curtain of the stage of the Opera House, a provision that allowed the full volume of the singing to be heard to advantage. The orchestra was ranged in front and added an element of strength to the forte passages while well in time as accompaniment to the soloists. Mr.
Arledge occupied the conductor's stand and waved the white wand of authority with clarity and precision.As the strength of the oratorio is in the chorus, that deserves first mention. Those who have followed the work at practice were familiar with the extent of practice that followed it, but the large audience was not only surprised but gratified. In attack the chorus was prompt and full, the time invariably steady, the shading and expression intelligently executed and the final passages of each movement sung with pleasing steadiness and uniformity. The thirty-six voices threw out a volume of sound that afforded it decision and led to the ground work of the oratorio and formed a foundation on which the lighter parts of the libretto were well founded.At no time were the soloists not heard, the confidence that is given by singing in mass prevalent even in the slightest degree irregularity in the movements. In point of strength the soloists were well equipped with leading voices, having among its members Miss Vair, the Misses Hall, Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Johnston and other ladies of ability. The altos were, if anything, at a disadvantage in point of numbers though the work performed was excellent. A large number of tenors would materially help the balance of the parts and the music achieved by the society will no doubt draw others to join.
The basses had a field day, or rather might, as in the ranks are many of the best voices of the town, men of mature age and who have sung for years and enjoy the pastime yet. The society will make its reputation on the strength of its chorus, which is the line of development it is desirable to cultivate, as their will by mutual general improvement and pleasure, rather than seek to bring forward the solo voices as of the first concert. A word of praise is due for the excellent order and regularity in which the chorus rose to sing and at the finish of each movement was again seated.The national anthem was again sung, and the oratorio was then given as the opening selection. The text of the oratorio, printed, with the names of the soloists included, gave the audience opportunity to intelligently follow the work of the singers as the score was rapidly covered. The solo by Miss Vair, Mrs. Hunter, Miss L. Dixon, Mrs. Brodigan and Miss Edith Hall were excellent, and were deservedly applauded. Of the tenors Mr. J. Crane had the largest share of the work and acquitted himself with distinction and ability. Mr. McKie took a share of the work in good voice. The bass soloists shared the solos assigned among Messrs.
W. F. Nelson, J. A. Hall, J. Jones and H.
Thompson, and others.The society is to be congratulated on its success and its next concert is looked forward to with interest. Following is a list of members who took part in the oratorio:—

The Manchester correspondent of the Port Perry Observer says:—"There is every prospect of the cheese industry being again established in this village. The Messrs. Howson, of Peterborough, have been submitting their plan to the farmers in the neighborhood and have met with very fair encouragement, so much so that they have made arrangements to build a new factory right away, and will have it ready for operation by the first of May. They are live business men, and coming from the great cheese country—Peterborough—they intend to do the best for all it is worth, and they guarantee to manufacture a first class article. The Messrs.
Howson have returned home but left instructions with the township clerk to call a meeting if those who have signed the agreement and all those who are interested in the business, to meet at the town hall, Manchester, for the purpose of electing a president, secretary, treasurer, salesman, and not less than three directors, who will manage the whole business for the patrons, so that the patrons will have ample security that no such trick as Morrison performed on them will be again enacted."

the Board of Education and one from the Town Council. It is said the Board will have the advantage of a rink of four first-class curlers, while there are only two stans barbers among the Councilmen. But the Council will go training and one of the representatives of the

That won't wear off;
This hawking and this spitting,
I've lost my sense of smiling,
And taste's going, too.
I know catarrh's what ails me,
But—what shall I do?
My hawking and my hawking
Keeps up a steady din.
I'm haunted by the fear that Consumption may set in.
I feel that I am losing ground,
No wonder I'm blue,
I know my health's falling,
But what can I do?Do! I'll tell you what to do, my friend, if you'll lend me your ear a minute. Go down to the drug store and buy Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and take it according to directions.
Give, and you'll soon find that this miserable headache is a thing of the past; the hawking, hawking and spitting will be irretrievable to you as well as yourself, will come to an end, and in a short time you will feel a new man. A new man—think of that—and all for fifty cents, which is the price of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy,

A RACY CASE REPORTED FROM ST. CATHARINES.

Drove on His Wedding Day and Objected to His Wife Singing at Church Concerts—Another Fatal Coastal Accident—Mother and Babes Burned to Death.

St. Catharines, Feb. 10.—Before Judge Simkins yesterday the suit was heard of Blair v. Muir, an action brought by Mrs. Alberta Muir, wife of Mr. John A. Muir of Port Bessy, for the recovery of her damages, Gladys, a child of about 2 years of age, now in the possession of its father.

Before any evidence was taken Mr. Ouler asked if all charges were withdrawn and bygone treated as such would Mrs. Muir return to her husband.

Mrs. Muir emphatically said no, adding that she was afraid of him; further, that she did not care for him at all.

Mrs. Muir at first sworn and gave her evidence at great length. They were married in 1903 and the child was born in 1899. The trouble originated in the first place about church matters, the husband being a Presbyterian and the wife an Episcopalian.

Kicked Her Out of Bed.

Witness then stated that his abuse consisted in twisting her arm, pulling her hair, forcing her to go to church, and using her with a soap dish, and kicking her out of bed.

Collected to Her Little Pleasures.

She had a good voice and was fond of singing. When married she was taken to a comfortable home. Her husband is a sober and industrious man—a very domestic man—and appears to be an affectionate father, but he objects to her taking his pleasures, such as singing in churches.

Mrs. Muir was horrified to hear him curse the day upon which he was married. He tried to force her to go to his church and used terrible words after Gladys was born. On another occasion, on the presence of Miss Kane, he threw water on her, and carried her in her lace and threatened to hit her with a jug.

Wanted to Stop Singing "Tears."

Mr. W. Muir, father of the defendant, was examined by Mr. Rykert and gave some general evidence, showing the first difficulty arose between them over church matters. He was tired of hearing about their domestic troubles and had not visited their home in two years. He was not aware that John was an ill-tempered man, but like all other men he would not be annoyed or provoked without reason. She always complained that he did not give her money or take her into society, and after her marriage even wanted her husband to send her to a convent music school.

Case was adjourned for a week.

KILLED THE CHILD.

Whether Willfully or Accidentally a Coroner's Inquest is Being Held.

CUMBERLAND, Ont., Feb. 10.—Sunday the little daughter of Mr. John Robinson, boot and shoemaker, died after only being ill about eight hours. Later on a landlady informed that the child had been ill, but that Mrs. Robinson, the child's stepmother, then said she had given the child laudanum, and as she had destroyed the bottle the amount taken was found to be fatal. An inquest will be held.

ST. CATHARINES, Feb. 10.

MARRIED, Feb. 8.—Four of the leaders in the recent anarchist attack at Ayrer have been sentenced by court martial to be executed Feb. 9.

Rheumatism,
BEING due to the presence of uric acid in the blood, is most effectively cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that it has effected a complete cure. I have since had no return of the complaint. — Mrs. L. A. Dodge, 110 West 124th st., New York.

"One year ago I was taken ill with inflammatory rheumatism, being confined to my room for nearly a month. I got out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system generally in a feeble state. I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovered my former health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine." — Mrs. L. A. Dodge, New York.

I beg to say that this school is strictly carried on the true principle of instruction. I might add that there are not so many students admitted, thus securing a perfect condense to work on the part of the pupil. The system is very comprehensive. Children of three years to twenty are admitted. The other scholars make sufficient progress to induce others to send their children. As my other always have a leading effect on the pupils, and we would advise early subscription.

CANADIAN MINISTERS.

CONFERRING WITH BLAINE AT WASH-INGTON.

The Preliminary Interchange of Views
Results in the Arrangement of Ground for a Conference, Which is Expected to Last Several Days.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The negotiations between the United States and Canada in regard to reciprocal trade relations were opened formally at a conference held at the State Department of the representatives of each government.

The Secretary of State and General John W. Foster represented the United States, while Canada was represented by a commission consisting of Sir John Thompson, Minister of Justice; Hon. Mackenzie
Bowell, Minister of Militia; Hon. George C. Foster, Minister of Finance; Mr. Harmaier, Deputy Commissioner of Customs, and Mr. Newell, Private Secretary.

The commission really consists of the three first named officials, the others accompanying them as assistants.

The morning Secretary Blaine spent half an hour with the President at the White House, going over the ground to be taken by the United States in the coming conference. He then at 11 o'clock went to the State Department and met Gen. Foster in the diplomatic reception room.

In ten minutes Sir John Thompson, the British Minister, appeared and notified
the Secretary that the Canadian delegates were ready to enter upon the negotiations,
which would last several days.

This series of negotiations is intended by the Secretary that the Canadian delegates
were ready to enter upon the negotiations,
which would last several days.

They arrived about noon and there was a preliminary session of an hour, during which the conference talked "across the board," as the diplomatic phrase goes, and arranged the ground for the coming conference, which will last several days.

The House Committee on Immigration agreed to report favorably a bill absolutely prohibiting Chinese immigration.

The House Committee on Coinage has agreed to report favorably the free coinage
bill introduced by Mr. Bland.

Kealey Cured, He Lost His Mind.
New York, Feb. 11.—Walter B. Kealey died at the Poughkeepsie Insane Asylum on Friday. His wife deserted him four years ago and went to England. He took to drink. He entered the Kealey Institute at White Plains on Dec. 21 last and remained there until the end of January. He was apparently cured.

Sunday, one week ago, he became suddenly insane, though up to that day he was perfectly sane. He had been a member of the Poughkeepsie Insane Asylum for some time. He was discharged from the institution.

Paris became so violent that he was removed to the insane asylum at Poughkeepsie, and on Friday died, his last words being, "Joan! Joan! Come home to your husband and children!"

His death and others which have occurred recently at the institute may lead to the State Board of Health, and the State Medical Society also, taking a hand in an investigation on their own account and it is one of the probabilities that a legislative investigation may be ordered by the Senate and the House of Representatives.

The House Committee on Coinage has agreed to report favorably the free coinage
bill introduced by Mr. Bland.

Restoring Mind to an Idiot.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—If a novel surgical operation which was performed yesterday is successful there will be one idiot less in the world. Dr. J. H. Brown, of William A. Hammond, assisted by three surgeons, removed the skull of an imbecile, removed a large amount of bone, closed the skull and expects that the patient will not only recover but will be a level headed man. This is the first operation of the kind ever performed upon an adult.

The patient is a young man from Canada, 24 years of age, and was brought to this city four or five days ago. Up to four years ago he was a well educated and intelligent man, had a collegiate education and was recognized as a man destined to make a bright record in the world.

Went His Bet and Died.
VIRGINIA, N.J., Feb. 11.—James Donnelly, a lad of 16, who lives at Lockport, nearly a week of 22 last Saturday that he could not get away within 15 minutes and drank 20 glasses of beer. He succeeded in his attempt and won the $2, but two hours later was taken with convulsions and died.

"My Poor Heart is Broken."
KINGSTON, Feb. 11.—Maurice Nagle, Bathurst, Ont. died in the shanties from heart failure. He was 40 years of age, had 40 miles away, but his pain was so severe that all they could make was some 20 miles the first day, and had to seek lodgings in a house on the road. The next morning they started and got within four miles of the end of their journey, when he turned to his companion and said, "I am dying; my poor heart is broken," and died soon after.

Prisoners from New Brunswick.
KINGSTON, Feb. 11.—Keeper Johnston and Guard Laidlaw of the Bouchette, N.B., penitentiary, arrived in the city yesterday with three female prisoners. Maud Lindsay, a woman of bad repute, for shooting a man dead about four weeks ago, to serve a life sentence; Jennie Black, sentenced to two years for larceny, and Margaret McKee, for the same offence, three years. The prisoners behaved creditably on the journey.

Sent Back to Canada.
BUTLOR, Feb. 11.—O. Armstrong, T.
Reuter and George Durie, Grand Trunk Railway employes, who live in Butlor, Ont., but work in this city, have been compelled to give up their employment by Inspector DeBarry. This afternoon the commission sent the men back to Canada and told them they could not return unless they brought their families and intended to become residents.

Killed by a Tree.
BELLVILLE, Feb. 11.—Gordon Aylmer of Bellville, aged 20, was killed yesterday by a tree which he was falling.

Oh, What a Cough!
Will you heed the warning, the signal,
perhaps, of the sure approach of that terrible disease, consumption? Ask yourselves if you can afford, for the sake of saving 50c. to run the risk and do nothing for
it. We know from experience that Shole's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Death of C. H. Waterhouse of Stratford.
Other Deaths.

BRANTFORD, Feb. 11.—C. H. Waterhouse, sr., died last evening. The funeral will be on Friday. Deceased was the founder in 1854 of the Waterhouse Engine Works Company of this place.

Ottawa Bank President Dead.
OTTAWA, Feb. 11.—Mr. James McLaren, a prominent lumber merchant and president of the Bank of Ottawa, died today.

Deceased leaves two brothers, Rev. Alexander McLaren of the Presbyterian Church and Rev. Dr. McLaren, professor of theology in Knox College, Toronto.

Mr. McLaren took a great interest in the formation of the Bank of Ottawa, and was its first and only president, much of its success being due to his energies. He was a member of the firm of W. McLymont &
Co. of New Edinburgh, the Canada Lumber Co. of Carleton Place, vice president from its commencement of the Sheppard Bros.
Lumber Co., formerly of Burlington, but now of Boston; president of the McLaren, Ross, Lumber Co. of New Westminster, B.C.; president of the North Pacific Lumber Co. of Port Moody, B.C., and was largely interested in mining operations in Ottawa and Hastings Counties, and also held interests in sugar, salt and silver industries in western Ontario. His estate is estimated at $5,000,000 to $6,000,000.

Other Dead.
Hermann Honan, managing director of the German Lloyd Steamship Co., the effects of a stroke of apoplexy.

Rev. J. B. Armstrong, Uvalde, Tex. was ordained in 1851 and retired from active work in 1887.

Right Honorable Sir James Caird, the well-known writer on agricultural subjects, at London.

In the Commons.
LONDON, Feb. 11.—In the House of Commons yesterday Thomas Sexton, member for West Belfast, gave notice that he would move an amendment to the address in reply to the Queen's speech, declaring that a majority of the Irish people and their representatives in the House of Commons are convinced of the inability of the Imperial Parliament to legislate for Ireland in a manner required by the distinctive interests of that country. This conviction has been intensified by the manifest failure of the Land Purchase Act to afford a basis for an extension of the class of occupying tenants.

London, Feb. 11.—The members of the Parliament party met yesterday, and appointed their Parliamentary whips and secretaries. It was resolved to leave the chair vacant as a mark of respect to the memory of their late leader, Charles Stewart Parnell.

In Honor of Spurgeon.
LONDON, Feb. 11.—The first of the three services to be held over the remains of Rev.
Mr. Spurgeon to-day opened in the Tabernacle. The service was crowded. The children from the Stockwell Orphan Asylum, in which institution Mr. Spurgeon was deeply interested, were present, dressed in mourning and sang hymns.

New York, Feb. 11.—Edmund Yates cables: "I understand that one result of the visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales to Osborne is that the Queen consented to allow the coffin of the Duke of Clarence to be removed to Sandringham, where it will be buried in the churchyard
in a grave adjoining that of the infant Prince Alexander who died in 1871. The coffin is to remain in the Albert Memorial Chapel, Windsor, until after the return of the Court to the castle, as the Queen wishes to see it and Her Majesty will attend the service in the chapel, which will be conducted by the Bishop of Rochester and Canon Bolton. The Queen did not wish the coffin to be placed in the royal vault, but desired to have it buried in a crypt of the Prince Consort's Mausoleum at Frogmore. The removal to Sandringham and interment there will be conducted privately."

Killed on a Steamship.
GLASGOW, Feb. 11.—A fatal accident happened yesterday to a number of workmen who were engaged in making some repairs to the hull of the British steamer Pervian, which arrived from London and left Glasgow on Saturday last. The steamer was on the ways in the Glasgow Graving Dock at the time. The men were working on a scaffold suspended over the side of the vessel when the frame suddenly collapsed and they were precipitated to the bottom of the dock. One man was instantly killed and four others fatally hurt.

For Being Knocked Down by a Curtain.
LONDON, Feb. 11.—Herman Vein, the Anglo-American actor, was awarded $300 damages and $80 for doctors' bills in an action for damages which he brought against the proprietors of the Coliseum Theatre for injuries received by being knocked down by the unexpected fall of the curtain at that place of amusement.

A Frontier Battle.
BERLIN, Feb. 11.—A despatch from Landberg, close to the frontier, states that a conflict has occurred between a body of Russian gendarmes and a band of emigrants. The fight took place on Russian territory, a short distance from Landberg.
Three emigrants were killed and ten were wounded. A number of emigrants were taken prisoners.

Revolution in Serbia.
LONDON, Feb. 11.—The Vienna correspondent of the Chronicle says rumors are current in Vienna that a revolution has broken out in Serbia. All telegrams from Serbia are subjected to censorship.

The Anarchist movement is growing in Spain. A bomb was exploded in Barcelona yesterday and one man was killed. The four leaders of the Anarchists who attacked the town of Xeres were executed yesterday.
The platform upon which the garotters were fired was in the Plaza directly in front of the jail.

Sensational rumors are current to the effect that the Greek steamer Embrico, which was recently wrecked off the Scilly Islands, founded during a mutiny of the crew. The statements of the survivors are conflicting, but it is evident that the Greeks, forming a majority of the saved, used violence to prevent the access of others to the boats. An investigation will take place.

For a Broken Neck $4000.
BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Feb. 11.—The jury in the case of Leonard Matthews against the Chicago and Alton Railroad Company returned a verdict in the Circuit Court yesterday awarding damages of $4000 to the plaintiff. This celebrated case has been before the courts for two years. The complaint alleged that his neck was broken by being knocked from a car by a bridge near Joliet about two years ago, and he now wears his head in an iron framework for support.

Hurt at the Ice House.
HAMILTON, Feb. 11.—Evan Martin, a well-known stock raiser at Cayuga, came to Hamilton to attend the races on the ice.
During the local race this afternoon James Burr's horse was crowded off the track and ran over Mr. Martin. He was knocked down and had one leg broken and his head badly cut.

THE POLITICAL COLUMN

M. C. CAMERON RETURNS FROM FLORIDA.

Judgment by the Supreme Court in the West Northumberland, Prescott and North Perth Appeals—Several Appeals To-day.

OTTAWA, Feb. 11.—The argument in the appeals in the preliminary objections in the Supreme Court in the West Northumberland, Prescott and North Perth appeals was concluded at 1 o'clock to-day. It was contended by the appellants that the deposit of security was placed in the wrong court, that is, that it was deposited in the court where the case originated and not in the court of trial. The four judges held that in regard to the deposit the statute was literally complied with and therefore they dismissed all the cases with costs. All three constitutions are Liberal. Justice Macdougall took no part in the judgment.
The cases had nothing to do with the merits and the appeals have yet to be heard.

M. C. CAMERON IS BACK.

State by 500 Majority.

WINDSOR, Feb. 11.—Mr. M. C. Cam-return from Florida, where he has been for his health. He says he will certainly de-

A Cure "Almost Miraculous"

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered I was left with a lame leg. A year later, another attack of the same kind occurred, and I was again laid up. In the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was a cripple, being confined to my bed 4 years. In that time I saw or heard of no cure, and I was almost dead. I was then 25 years of age, and I was in a position to give you facts as far as accurate."

The article referred to says 100 tons of ore produced 80 on. gold valued at $2,100, which would be equal to $210 per on. The value of refined gold at the U. S. mint is only $200 per on. but 800 per on. is about the average price that has been obtained for Minnesota gold, and it would not be safe to put any higher value on the Belmont gold.

The quantity of ore put through the Crawford mill for the late test was 114 tons, instead of 100 tons, or to be exact 100,390 tons, which produced from the quick silver treated, 80 on. gold as stated, and at $200 per on. is worth $16,080, to which will have to be added the gold in the concentrates from the bottom of the mill. I have made a test showing that it contains about 600. per lb. and if the quantity is 300 lbs. as estimated, the segregable gold contents will be $180, making the whole available yield of 124 tons $1,180 or about $9.50 per ton.

The ore was taken so as to get the average of all from a shaft 10 feet deep, and two levels of 10 feet each, in a vein of ten feet average width, so that the result is highly satisfactory. Owing to the splendid work done by the Crawford mill, which saved all the gold, but a trace, or double what the old stamp mill would have done with this particular ore. To Mr. Lingham and his associates belongs the credit of having demonstrated that the Belmont gold ore, can be made to pay by treatment in the Crawford mill, which they own the "patent" with the capital and "know" to run it.

I intended to give you more full details in a few days, but thought it best to make the foregoing corrections as far as I could do so now.

Yours truly,
H. T. STROUDLAND.

HIS SOUL IS IN HEAVEN.

But His Body, Unlike That of John Brown, Will Soon March Into Court.

SAUL STEVENS, Feb. 12.—Coulter, the self-confessed murderer of his father, was arraigned on a charge of perjury in the Circuit Court this morning. He pleaded guilty. Judge Stevens asked him if he understood the nature of the charge against him. "Yes," he replied. "It is a business matter between God and me for eternity." He was remanded to jail to await sentence. Coulter is undoubtedly crazy. He says that his soul is in heaven and that he cares not what becomes of his carcass.

GOOSEY SKEDADDLES.

The Indian Witness Makes His Escape From a Constable.

BRAITFORD, Ont., Feb. 12.—The Indian Goosey, the chief witness in the Hildes murder case, has skipped out. He has been staying in charge of Constable Hunter, and this morning a man of the latter was making good his escape. He put after him, and when he caught up Goosey smashed him pretty badly and proceeded on his way. It is thought he will make for the States.

KILLED IN HIS CAB.

Fatal Collision on the Michigan Central at Tilbury.

TILBURY, Ont., Feb. 12.—A west-bound train on the Michigan Central Railway, Conductor J. H. Kilgour, Engineer William Deyell, crashed into an east-bound train on the same line, taking siding at the east switch here during a storm at 5 o'clock this morning. All the trainmen escaped by jumping excepting Engineer Deyell, who was caught in the wreck and instantly killed. The engine and two box cars were demolished. Deyell was a resident of St. Thomas.

Killed as a Crossing.

WALKERVILLE, Ont., Feb. 12.—Jeremiah Driscoll, deputy-mayor of Sandwich East, returning from Windsor last evening with a load of hay, was struck and instantly killed while attempting to cross in front of the 6:30 express going south on the Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway. The horses he drove escaped unhurt.

NEW BRUNSWICK FINANCES.

They Are in a Very Bad Shape—A Business Tax Suggested.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Feb. 12.—Premier Blair addressed a public meeting at Sussex last night on the provincial finances. He admitted a deficit for the past year of between $80,000 and $70,000. He now proposes to make the revenue meet the expenditure by levying a tax on banks, insurance, telegraph and telephone companies and kindred organizations. This announcement is positively put out as a leader. It has created considerable excitement in business circles. The provincial finances are in a bad way. Mr. Blair frankly saying last night that the interest on the debt of New Brunswick had increased from $45,000 in 1882 to $103,000 at the present time. Mr. Blair flatly contradicted the reports that he intended to dissolve the House and formulate provincial policies for the Dominion arena.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The time has arrived when it seems
most important that we should communicate with friends, patrons and the public generally, regarding the prospects and opportunities for economically securing such goods as change of season makes necessary for you to have. Having secured a new and seasonable stock under advantageous circumstances, and feeling confident we are in a position to offer actual bargains, we look about us for some method of announcing this fact in a manner which will convince you we are honest and earnest in our claims.

The readers of the Review will find facts in plain words concerning our goods and prices. Perhaps we talk strongly, but our stock will admit of it.
We talk to the point, not with any desire to boast over our attractions, but with a determination to have it known that you will stand in your own right
if you fail to see our new line of Seasonable Goods. Great care has been expended to secure only the newest, choicest and most desirable. The state of the market has been such as to afford the cash buyer unparalleled opportunities for securing excellent goods at very low figures. Careful and judicious buying at hardpan prices, together with close attention to the wants of our trade, has secured us a stock which, in completeness and general excellence cannot be equal-
led. Come and see us.

ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.

A RUSSIAN GENERAL KILLED BY Nihilists.

Mrs. Osborne committed to Trial on a Charge of Perjury in swearing That She Did Not Meet the Hargreave Jewels.—General Cable News of a Night.

London, Feb. 13.—The debate on the amendment to the Queen's address, moved by Mr. John K. Redmond, the "Parliamentary" Leader, and suggesting amnesty for Irish prisoners convicted of connection with political plots, was resumed yesterday in the House of Commons.

Timothy Harrington said that the prisoners had been convicted of an indictment against them with political objects, and that it was a gross outrage to treat them like ordinary criminals. Why not extend to them the distinction which all civilized nations usually do with political and other offenders?

Justin McCarthy said that the Fenians were wild and possibly foolish revolutionists, but that dynamite outrages did not form any part of their program.

Home Secretary Matthews aroused cheers and laughter from the Conservative benches by remarking that the speaker, having been once closely connected with Fenianism, ought to have given his valuable assurance as to the omission of outrages from the program to Sir William Vernon Harcourt when that eminent member of the Opposition was engaged upon the subject.

Harcourt Opposes an Amnesty.
Sir William Harcourt arose amid profound silence and was listened to with the greatest attention. He said that he had not shirked the debate. He had listened attentively to the remarks of the honorable members on both sides of the House, but he had failed to find therein any reason for changing his previous view. He said that inquiries made with the greatest care since the conviction of the prisoners had confirmed the finding as to their guilt, and no reason to revise their punishment had been alleged. The statement that the convicts were Fenians and that the Fenians had compelled the Liberals to support them, he said, was a gross misstatement.
The principle of Home Rule for Ireland was contrary to the fact. The truth of the matter was that the Fenians had been the greatest obstacle to Home Rule.

Thomas Sexton said that the fact that the whole of Ireland had a passionate desire for amnesty ought to suffice as a justification for asking the Government to exercise its power of clemency.

Mr. John Dillon said that he would personally vouch for the fact that he, as a Fenian, abhorred the use of dynamite.
He appealed to both parties to exercise clemency, which, he said, they would never do.

The motion for an amnesty was rejected
by a vote of 168 to 97.

The announcement of the figures was greeted with loud cheers by the minority.
Thirty-one Liberal members including John Henry Madsen, who was recently elected to succeed Lord Harrington as member for the Rosendale division of Lancashire, supported the amendment. Sir William Vernon Harcourt and Mr. John Moyle opposed it. The majority consisted mainly of Unionists.

MRS. OSBORNE.
Her Husband's Sympathy Throughout—
Mrs. Hargreave's Forgiveness.

London, Feb. 13.—Mrs. Florence Ethel Osborne was yesterday brought from Holloway jail to the Bow-street Police Court, where she was arraigned before Magistrate Sir John Bridge to answer the charge of perjury made against her in connection with the Hargreave jewels, which she brought in the Hargreave, who had charged her with the theft of a quantity of valuable jewels.

The court room was packed with friends of the Osbornes and Hargreaves and others. Mrs. Osborne was attended by her husband, Mr. H. H. Osborne, who was seen by the judge in the prisoner's dock as he went in, bowing her head in her hands.

Capt. Osborne stood beside his wife outside the dock and held one of her hands in his own, and strove to infuse her with courage to face the ordeal before her. Mr.
Gill appeared for the Treasury to prosecute the charge. He produced the formal evidence of perjury as shown by the records of the higher court and then called as a witness Mrs. Hargreave.

Mrs. Hargreave repudiated the evidence
she had given in the trial of the libel case.
She stated that the jewelry had been restored to her and that all the costs incurred by her in defending the libel suit had been paid back to her.

BECOMING DESPERATE.

The reverses which the Liberal party suffered last week at the hands of the electors has made the organ of the party desperate. When Lennox and Prince Edward spoke the Globe accepted the defeat with a show of resignation. But the loss of East Bruce and North Victoria, and the increased Conservative majorities in other constituencies, drove it out of its reserve, and it takes up the old cry of "bribery" and "stuffed lists." How little there is in these cries may be understood by an examination of its wild statement that "many of the 100 names added by the Tories to the North Victoria list are said to be bogus." This is manifestly absurd. The lists were revised in open court. Notice had to be given of applications to add names, and any names on the list improperly, if there were any, could be struck off. The Liberals were represented at the court of revision, and drew the Globe mean to say that Mr. Barron, Mr. McLaughlin and those who aided them were doing so to allow many bogus names to be put on? This statement, like those which accompanied the only desperate efforts made to break the force of the reverses the party suffered.

If the Liberals were wise they would profit by these reverses and the lessons they really teach them, instead of misrepresenting their opponents. They should learn from the votes of the electors as expressed at the polls that the people will not except an anti-Canadian policy, will not endorse a party in league with men who have plundered Quebec, will not sanction a bargain by which these men were to draw upon the Dominion treasury, and will not be misled by misrepresentation and false charges. The Abbott administration has taken up the task of carrying out a truly Canadian policy in a proper spirit and with a true appreciation of the needs of the country, and it has shown a commendable determination to have a pure government and not only to drive out, but also to punish in the courts so far the law will permit, any who will be guilty of wrong, even though they have been known as Conservatives. These things are looking in the Liberal party as at present organized, and the organ only makes itself ridiculous by shooting bribery after the record of the party made for itself in the election courts and while the spectacle of the Laurier-Mercier alliance still exists.

The Lindsay Post's misrepresentation of Hon. John Haggart's speech in Lindsay is going the rounds of the Liberal press, but it will have as little effect elsewhere as it had in Victoria.

THE COMMODORE'S RECEPTION.

Comrades of the Town and Vicinity Welcome the Head of the A. C. A.—A Toronto Delegation Present.

Saturday a jovial party gathered at the Olympic Club rooms to do honor to the head officer of the American canoe Association, Commodore Winnie, of Albany, New York, who is making a series of visits at points throughout Ontario in the interests of the association. His recent visit to Toronto entailed the association members there very much and in response to an invitation a strong delegation from the Toronto canoe club came down on Saturday evening and joined with the Peterborough men in celebrating the occasion. Supper was served by Mr. W. Bowman in the dining room of the Palace Restaurant, the spread being a tempting one and nicely served. Among the company present in addition to local canoe men were Vice-Commodore Baker, Rear Commodore Tilley and Messrs. McMillan, Elgie, Ford, Bell, St. Croix, Sparrow, Ellis and Jacques of the Toronto club, Mr. J. G. Edwards, of the Lindsay club and Mayor Keedy, O'Connell, Desnoyers and McEwen and other guests. Ex-Commodore H. G. Rogers, guided the chair and Ex-Commodore E. B. Edwards the vice chair.

In response to the toasts of the association, able speeches were made. Commodore Winnie was especially happy in his remarks. He spoke, encouragingly of affairs and complimented the Canadian members on their loyalty to the sport and its interests. He outlined the plans for this year's meet and gave some details of the position of affairs for the guidance of members in working up the feeling for a successful season's sport.

Short speeches were made by the chairman, the vice chairman, Com. Baker, Mr. J. G. Edwards and others, after which the company adjourned to the billiard room where a pleasant hour was spent in listening to the songs, recitations, speeches and music furnished by Messrs. Winnie, Dunn, Bane, Elliott, Baker, Desnoyers and others who kindly contributed to the entertainment.

The company dispersed with mutual expressions of good will and interest, the Toronto men returning home by the morning train.

A CAPITAL OF FIFTY MILLIONS

The Consolidation of the Two Great Electrical Companies—A New Ratchet Switch.

The Electrical World of Feb. 13th says:—"Vague rumors of a proposed consolidation of the Edison and Thomson-Houston companies have been drifting about for the past two weeks, and these have now taken such shape as to indicate that this union of interests is practically an accomplished fact. The combination promises to be not a mere commercial union, but a genuine amalgamation of the two great companies under a single management. It is generally understood that Mr. C. A. Coffin, who has successfully piloted the Thomson-Houston Electric company, will be put at the helm of the consolidated company. With this union of the forces of the two largest electrical corporations in America, there will come into existence an organization so powerful as to be assured of the practical control of a large portion of the electrical business. On the whole the effect of this is likely to be good, for from time to time the electrical business has felt the unpleasant effects of too great competition. The immediate reduction of prices produced thereby is grateful to the general public, but the tendency is to secure it by work less thorough and less satisfactory than would be the case were the margin of profit somewhat greater. With the conscientious and able management the new company is likely to have, we may look forward to careful and painstaking work, and the stability brought by it into any and every department of industry. The character of the committee of reorganization is ample guarantee of honest and straightforward purpose."

The capital stock of the new company is to be $50,000,000, divided into 500,000 shares of $100 each.

In the same issue of the Electrical World a description is given of a new ratchet switch made by the Edison company, which have been devised to meet the demand for small ratchet wall switches. The ratchet switch of the company have been compelled by the increasing demand for ratchet switches to enlarge considerably the department in which they are manufactured.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes a very certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache and is the best Spring Medicine. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. and $1 a package.

Personal.

Mr. John McKee, of New York City, is in town on a short visit to friends.

Mr. E. J. Toker, of Ottawa, is in town today.

An Early Morning Alarm.

The fire brigade was given a cold call for nothing about five o'clock on Sunday morning. The green house of Mr. H. Kitney, in Ottawa, was destroyed by fire at that hour and some person seeing the reflection sent in an alarm. The brigade made a rapid turn out but only went to Lakeland when the fire was seen to be out of the limits.

To Nurses Recommended.

If you will send us your address we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt Appliances, and their charming effect upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlets free. If you are thus afflicted we will send you a Belt and Appliances on trial.

Y.M.C.A. Notes.

The young men's rally on Saturday night was held by Mr. A. J. Hamilton and was a source of blessing to all.

Bababath morning consecration meeting was held as usual in the Association Library. Topic, "The New Covenant." It was fairly well attended.

The 6 o'clock afternoon meeting was conducted by Mr. James Sutherland who spoke from Exodus 14, 15, "The Lord shall fight for you and ye shall hold your peace." It was a very earnest and practical address.

Mr. Isaac Richardson addressed the Gospel and Song Service in the evening speaking on "Lost Opportunities" taking his text from Gal. 14, 15. The chair was occupied by Mr. G. H. Christie in the absence of Mr. O'Neil.

Do not forget the grand rally for young men to-morrow evening, 16th inst., when Messrs. F. J. Fedard, of Ottawa, and one of Peterborough's old Y.M.C.A. secretaries, and Mr. G. K. Williams, of Kingston, will address the meeting. Come, boys, and bring another with you.

Revisite.

The Town Council will meet this evening.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—Some time ago there were several communications addressed to the town council respecting the market fees and the letting of the same by tenders or public auction. What has been done? When will the Council take the matter up? Will they follow in the footsteps of the old Council and withhold the letting from public competition or will the whole thing be arranged through again in a hole and corner and thereby deprive the town of the large revenue which the market fees and the letting of the same would bring in? I am a resident of this town and I am sure that I am not alone in feeling that the present Council with all its professions for economy has not enough said in it to break up the contract that is depriving us of so large a source of revenue? I would like to hear your views on a matter of so much public importance.

Yours, &c., F. R. HENDERSON.

Is my endorsement of Anti-Dandruff I can say something that I have could before, which is that this preparation is a perfect remover of dandruff not only in the first stages but even when the plaques have become chronic and have merged itself into a disease. Years of experience as a hair dresser, during which time I have experimented with every recommended preparation, not one has (as I might say, even all put together) given the satisfaction that Anti-Dandruff has.

He heard what she said about his looks. He hurt his feelings, but he couldn't deny she told the truth. He remembered a friend whose face used to be as bad as his. It had become smooth and clear. He went to him and asked how the change had been brought about. "Simply by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," was the reply. "Take that, and I'll warrant you to get rid of your dimples."

He did so.

If all teas were alike you would be sure to know just what you are purchasing, but they are not. The difference in their quality are as wide as the difference in taste. Those who can tell good tea from bad know what a worthless article bad tea is, and they know what a luxury they have at their disposal when they can get a cup of good tea. The strange part of it is that while good tea commands a fair price it is not expensive. As you cannot tell whether it is good until you have tried it, you must rely on your dealers. Give our 40c. tea a trial and you will be more than pleased with it. We are also selling an extra tea for the low price of 30c.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

The Ladies Delighted.
The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasant to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effective in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

A Surprising Party.
A party of young folks from town gave Mr. Thos. Donaldson, Reeve of north Monaghan, a surprise party on Saturday night. He was naturally dumfounded to see so many walk in on him in his domestic circle, but was equal to the occasion and entertained the party in a way which they will not soon forget.

If you are troubled with hawking and spitting, dull headache, losing sense of taste or smell, you are afflicted with catarrh, and to prevent its developing into consumption, Nasal Saline should be used promptly. There is no case of catarrh which it will not cure, and it is the best and most effective remedy. Try it, all diseases.

Restoring Religious Services.
David Graham and James Moore learned a lesson from which all others may learn from their experience that the Salvation Army barracks, and the services conducted there are and must be recognized as sacred religious services as those held in the churches. On a recent occasion when the barracks at the Monaghan barracks for raising a disturbance. At the Police Court this morning they were charged with disturbing a religious service. Staff-Capt. Steele and a soldier told of the conduct of the two men who they said had been drinking. The captain warned them to keep quiet but they refused. The Magistrate fined them $10 or one month in gaol. They paid the fine.

Rev. Wm. H. H. H. H.
Pastor of the Presbyterian church of St. Paul, N. J., voluntarily writes strongly in favor of Hood's Balm. He says: "Reading I know of no other remedy that stimulates the liver or cleans the stomach like this remedy. I know of scores of cases who have been helped or cured by it."

The Highest Praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy, yet efficient action.
Two Slaves Come Free.
Thos. Turcott and Michael Daly, two youths, had two charges to face at the Police Court this morning. They were first charged with loitering on a public street. The second charge was one of larceny, it being alleged that they had stolen a pair of hand sleighs from the property of Bertie Davies. The sleighs were taken away from Dr. Davies residence on McDougall-st., some two weeks ago and on Wednesday last Mr. Turcott and Michael Daly had them on Elm-st. Turcott swore that he found the sleighs from "in the ice under the bridge" and that he had left them at Daly's. He acknowledged that after being coaxed by a young lady he had taken a ride on the Elm-st. hill. The charge of larceny was dismissed but on their own admission they were fined $3 for loitering on the hill. Turcott and Michael Daly had no money and at the suggestion of Mr. W. H. Moore, who appeared for the boys, the Magistrate made the fine $1 each and the two youths left the court rejoicing.

Ask Your Friends About It.
Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured so many coughs and colds in this community. Its remarkable sale has been won entirely by its good results. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so pure, none so effective. FATHERS RESPONSIBLE.

FOR THE TRAINING UP OF THE CHILDREN.

The Wife is Only a Co-Worker—A Sermon to the Children and Another to the Parents—The Duty of the Child and the Duty of the Father—Sunday School Anniversary Sermons by Rev. Mr. Baker of Port Hope.

Yesterday was a special day for children and parents at the Charlotte-st. Methodist church. It was the anniversary service of the Sunday school of the church, services which marked the close of another year and which were full of impressive interest. Rev. Mr. Baker, of Port Hope, preached the special sermons and anyone who heard, whether child, teacher or parent, must have been benefited by his practical, earnest expositions. The rev. gentleman evidently had a subject in the Sunday school and the children, which was near and dear to his heart and he placed his thoughts before his hearers in the most forcible manner. The hymns were selected with special reference to the day and the Sunday school was the object of special prayer.

TO THE CHILDREN.
In the morning Rev. Mr. Baker addressed himself to the children, reading his discourse on the fifth commandment:

"Honor thy father and mother."
He impressed upon the children their duty to their parents, whom they should love, respect, obey and reverence. The little ones, of whom there were many present, were attentive listeners.

In the afternoon a special service was held when the children of the Sunday school and many friends listened to able addresses. The speakers were Rev. Mr. Baker, Mr. H. S. Griffin, Mr. Alex. McCann and Mr. O. C. Rowe. The addresses all had true success in life as their leading theme. It was a service fraught with much interest.

A SERMON TO FATHERS.
Although the heavy storm was whirling the snow in blinding gusts and filling the sidewalk with knee-deep drifts the church was filled with a good congregation at the evening service when the rev. gentleman delivered a discourse to the parents and to the fathers particularly.

This, said the preacher, is children's day, the anniversary of the Sabbath school, and all the prayers, hymns and sermons were in the interest of the children. There were many lines of thought upon which he might speak. He might speak to the teachers, but in his experience he knew there was no class that needed it less, no class that more faithfully performed their duty, or made more sacrifices than the men and women in the Sabbath schools. He wanted to talk to the parents and more especially to the fathers. In speaking in the morning he had told them they must have respect, love, obedience and reverence towards their parents and that they should do it because God required it, for as good children they should obey their Father in Heaven that their days might be long in the land the Lord their God had given them, that they might live to a good old age. There was an old saying which said "Only the good die young," but the fact was that only the good men and women live to a good old age. The Lord prolonged their days while out half their days. He thought the parents who were present in the morning were in accord with what he had said. They were in sympathy with it and said that it was right. It might be some would say as he spoke of the ideal boy "That's my boy, a respectful, obedient and reverent child." But some of them might not be so fortunate, and they would say "I wish my boy or my daughter was that, but they are not as obedient as I would like them to be," and they may have reasoned in their mind why it was. If they did and attempted to answer their own question, that answer probably ran like this: "My boy or girl is like all others; born in sin and because of the law of sin he is disobedient, disrespectful and irreverent naturally." And if any said their boy was particularly bad they excused him on the ground that he was simply following his wild oats, the prayers of his father and mother will be answered and he will come back. That might have comforted him, but few fathers this morning reasoned "I may be the cause of my child's disrespect, disobedience or irreverence; he was not trained up as he might have been, his example is not what it might be. The fathers did not think of that, but thought only of the obligations of the child and not of the duty of the father. They thought of the fifth commandment but not of the passage "Teach them diligently unto your children." It was no more required of the child to learn of the parents than it was of the parent to train up the child. The parents had increased knowledge and power and their obligation was the stronger. If they did their duty faithfully the chances were that their children would be faithful to the fifth commandment. So he came with this and his text:

THE WICKED WOULD NOT LIVE

"Ye fathers, provoke not your children"—Ephesians vi: 4.

It was fathers and fathers only who were addressed and not the fathers and mothers. Home said

THE FATHERS ONLY were addressed because of the mental depreciation of women. This was not true, for in the Old Testament the women were honored as much as in the New. This was another point of the divinity of God. Another reason given was because it addressed in regard to grown up children and the fathers dealt with them particularly. This was not the reason. It said fathers only because the father was head of the wife, and in training the children he was responsible and the wife was only a co-member with him in the work. He emphasized this responsibility of the father, threw it off upon the mother, the Sunday school teacher or the minister. The father said he provided for the body and the intellect, but could not be bothered with the spiritual matters. This should not be done, though a man had a talent for a wife and supported the maintenance and Sabbath school. He was responsible for the moral and spiritual training of the boys and girls. In order to make the evening sermon a counterpart of the morning discourse he would make it read:

"Fathers provoke not your children to wrath by the Lord's commandment."—Ephesians vi: 4.

Rev. Mr. Baker, of Port Hope, formerly of Cobourg, preached in St. Paul's church yesterday morning and in St. Andrew's church in the evening. The rev. gentleman spoke in the interests of the Montreal Presbyterian College.

The choir of the Charlotte-st. church rendered excellent music at the special services held there yesterday. In the evening Mrs. O. Green took the solo in the anthem and during the offertory Mr. A. L. Davis rendered a solo in good voice.

Rev. Father Collins preached vigorous temperance discourses at the eight and ten o'clock masses at St. Peter's cathedral yesterday.

child's respect. They could provoke the child to wrath by cruel treatment, punishing while in anger. Simple indifference and allowing the child to have his own way was a great deal to do with a weak and there was no greater mistake than to allow this in a child. They were not to provoke a child to disobedience, for obedience was the foundation of the child's character, of the church, and of the state. Take obedience out of the church, state or character and they had no church, character or state. So they should be careful and train the child to obey. One way of provoking to disobedience was by having too many rules, so that the child said "Don't's" written everywhere. They should let their commands be as few, plain, simple and scriptural as possible and see that they were obeyed. They should never make unreasonable requests of their children. They should respect the child's conscience and manhood, and if they made an unreasonable request take it back. They were to bring up a child, and he impressed upon them their duty in daily devoting time to the training of the boys. He closed with an appeal to love and affection to the children. He would rather die leaving his children trained faithfully than to die leaving them rebellious.

THE MONAGHAN GRANGE CASE.

The Case is Heard and all Parties are Bound Over to Keep the Peace.

The enlarged Brealey-Grange case was called at the Police Court this morning after the Magistrate had disposed of the morning docket. This is the case in which Mr. Andrew Young and Mr. Wm. Swinton laid information against Mr. J. J. Brealey to bind him over to keep the peace. Messrs. R. E. Edwards and G. M. Rogers appeared for the two complainants and R. B. Stone for the defendant. The Magistrate inquired if the case was ready.

Mr. Edwards—We are ready to proceed your honor.

Mr. Stone—You have been ready for some time, haven't you?

The MAGISTRATE—Is Mr. Brealey here?

Mr. Stone—No.

The MAGISTRATE—Why not?

Mr. Stone—Because he is too sick.

The MAGISTRATE—Oh, well, that won't do.

Mr. Stone—All right issue a warrant if they are willing to take the responsibility.

The MAGISTRATE—You should bring a doctor's certificate if he is ill and submit the case in a proper way.

Mr. Stone—I stated here last week that he was sick and put in a doctor's certificate. All that I have to say is that he is sick and unable to be here. If they wish to take harsher course they can do so. Mr. Brealey is ready to submit and I sent to gaol he is ready to go like a little man.

After some further discussion Mr. Stone said Mr. Brealey's evidence would not be taken if he was present and he was willing that the Court should proceed with the case. "We are willing," said Mr. Stone.

"That these men carry this matter as far as they like. We'll come at the tail end of the hunt, and (sotto voce) as he resumed his seat) we'll be there with both feet. The case was then proceeded with.

THE THREATENED SHOOTING.
Mr. Andrew Young, one of the complainants, was the first witness. He testified that he had been heard of threats that had been made by Brealey. They were not against him personally, but against the members of the Grange of which he was a member. He wanted Mr. Brealey bound over as he feared he would do him bodily harm. He saw Brealey at the Grange hall on the 18th of January. He had a Winchester rifle loaded with five ball cartridges and had fifteen more cartridges in his pocket. Brealey came to the door of the hall and asked him to stand back or he would shoot. Walton said, "You don't use any firearms on me, Brealey." Brealey then unbuckled the cover of the gun when Walton seized it and with the aid of the witness took it away.

John Bennett and Andrew Dunlop had told him of threats Brealey had made.

In cross examination by Mr. Stone the witness said that he and Joe Walton and Wm. Swinton had arranged on Saturday to go to the Grange hall all the 18th to hold possession. They had heard that Brealey was going to come there and calculated on giving him a thrashing. He took a black snake whip with him to do the thrashing with. They went to the Grange at 8:30 in the morning and remained until after the Grange meeting at night. They took their dinners with them. Brealey came about half past eleven. Swinton and Walton took Brealey's coat off to search him. Swinton thrashed Brealey and after giving him five or six lashes asked him if he had enough. Brealey said "Felt away" and Swinton gave him five or six more. The Grange had passed a resolution to push the case against Brealey but nothing was said about paying the expenses. The dispute arose over the ownership of the hall and it was not afraid of Brealey doing him any harm any place except at the Grange hall.

Mr. Andrew Dunlop testified to meeting Brealey after the assault on the 18th when he was leaving the hall. Brealey said he was going back to get another rifle and would shoot the three men at the Grange. James Grady had seen Brealey on his way to the hall and the latter had told him he was going to hold possession.

The Magistrate was of opinion that both parties should be bound over to keep the peace as the members of the Grange intended to exercise their rights at the hall. Mr. Edwards protested against this on the ground that a civil action had been instituted by Mr. Brealey against the two complainants.

After more argument the Magistrate ordered the three men, Joe Walton, Andrew Young and Wm. Swinton, and the defendant, J. J. Brealey to be bound over to keep the peace, each to give his own bond in $500 and two securities of $250 each.

DEATH AT A CONVENTION.

SENSATIONAL INCIDENT AT A TORONTO ASSEMBLY.

Canon Davidson of Colborne Leads the Brotherhood Take the Hourly Rates He Dies in a Doctor's Office—A Son's Heroism—General Canadian News.

Toronto, Feb. 15.—A painful event, the memory of which will linger long in many hearts, occurred during the convention of the St. Andrew's Brotherhood on Saturday. The session was opened with prayer conducted by Rev. Canon Davidson of Colborne. The rev. gentleman was present during the morning session, taking a keen interest in the proceedings throughout. In the course of the morning he complained of indigestion, and shortly after noon felt so ill that he determined to consult a doctor. He accordingly left the schoolhouse and was driven by a friend, Mr. Lamb, to the office of Dr. Cameron, in Sherbourne-street. The doctor was, however, unable to relieve his sufferings and he expired about 1.30 in the doctor's office.

Rev. J. C. Davidson, rector of Peterborough, son of the deceased, was chairman of the convention in the afternoon, and Mr. N. Ferron Davidson of Toronto, president of the Brotherhood, was the opening speaker. While the Rev. Mr. Davidson was presiding and guiding the meeting with an energy and calmness, a sudden conveying the sad news was handed to him. Stricken as he was by the information yet he kept on with his duties, and when the conference was over gave the announcement of the death, and then in broken accents announced the sad news to his astonished hearers. He was upborne in his sorrow, he said, by the knowledge that it was a passage from an earthly life to a heavenly one, an event tending not so much to sorrow as to inspiration, dying as he had in the very act of service. Then Mr. Davidson hastily left the room, leaving the brotherhood struck equally with sorrow for the loss sustained and admiration for the heroism of the son.

The following are the council for next year: F. Dumoulin, N. F. Davidson, R. E. Hicks, C. Heath, Jr., R. Parker, S. Waugh, Toronto; S. Woodoff, Woodstock; T. A. D. Bliss, Ottawa; A. Fred Bishop, Montreal; R. V. Rodgers, Kingston; W. F. Cockshutt, Brantford; E. Raynes Reel, Winnipeg; F. H. Haffner, H. B. Southwell, Hamilton; W. H. Baker, Stratford.

The officials for the ensuing year are: President, N. Ferron Davidson, Toronto; 1st vice-president, R. V. Rodgers, Kingston; 2nd vice-president, R. B. Southwell, Hamilton; treasurer, C. Heath, Toronto.

Rev. Canon Davidson was well known here, and the sad news of his death, conveyed in the foregoing dispatch, will be received with deep regret. Rev. Mr. Fenrick announced the sad fact at St. John's last evening, and it was learned by the congregation with feelings of sorrow. The Rector of St. John's, Rev. J. C. Davidson, whose moral courage is referred to and commended in a dispatch, will receive sincere sympathy in Peterborough in his sudden bereavement.

People who use arsenical preparations for their complexion, do so at the risk of their lives. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is guaranteed free from any injurious drug, and is, therefore, the safest as well as the most powerful blood medicine in the world. It makes the skin clear.

For several years I was persistently annoyed with an excessive accumulation of blood, and although using various preparations recommended and changing regularly once a week, no material relief was realized until my attention was called to Anti-Bloodruif, which has produced unlooked for results in my case. Four applications removing every particle of bloodruif and as a specific for this trouble it certainly has no equal.

THE CENTRAL CANADA COMPANY.
A report of the annual meeting of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company is given in another column, and like the previous reports of this Company it is a record of satisfactory progress. The assets have steadily advanced until they amount to $1,168,078. The reserve fund was augmented as a result of the year's operations and now amounts to $200,000, one fourth of the amount of the paid up capital, and the contingent fund was increased to $30,000. This shows careful management and a sound condition of the company's affairs. Another very gratifying feature of the report is that the repayments during the year, both of principal and interest, were highly satisfactory, another evidence of careful management as well as of the good position of the district in which the loans are invested. This Company is a home institution and one that possesses the confidence of both investors and borrowers.

The Granite Juniors, of Toronto, are to arrive here on Thursday to play a friendly game with the team of the Peterborough Hockey Club. This will be an interesting struggle as the boys will go in to win.

See That You Have It!
Every merchant, banker and business man should have a clear and unclouded brain when attending to business, or success is never certain. Failure's Oelex Compound produces strong, steady nerves, and a clear, active brain.

Society Notes.
At the regular meeting of Lansdowne Lodge, No. 6 of England, last evening, Bro. R. Warren, P. M., presided with a Past President's Jewel. Bro. P. Barry, President, made the presentation on behalf of the lodge in a neat speech, and Bro. Warren acknowledged the honor in suitable terms. Major Kendry was introduced and initiated, and after the business was concluded, refreshments were served by Bro. T. Hooper and an enjoyable social time was spent.

The Snow.
"A Ratepayer" writes complaining that the sidewalks on Albert and Alfred streets are blocked with snow and that women and children have to take the road on these streets, where they are driven into the snow by teams and dogs, and he asks for snow play in this matter. "A Ratepayer" should have enclosed his name with his communication, for all letters of publication should be accompanied by the name of the writer as a guarantee to the paper that they are written in good faith.

A Russian Curiosity.
An antique curiosity owned by S. D. Marrian, of Springfield, Mass., was in town yesterday and drew up at the Review office door. It was a sleigh which was made in Russia in 1883, for Dr. Marrian's great-grandfather and has been used by different generations of the family ever since. The doctor has had it repaired and decorated at considerable expense and it is an attractive as well as comfortable vehicle. It was imported into this country in 1878. It used to have a leather top but that has been discarded with. There are also a set of Russian clothes that go with the sleigh that cost $25 in Russia, but they are in Springfield. The doctor says their merry ring can be heard a distance of four miles, and he intends sending them to his brother, Henry Marrian, of Harwood, and those who hear them will be able to test their strength of sound. He also has two large and handsome neck strings of Russian copper bells which he will send over. This ancient sleigh is a curiosity that should go to the world's fair at Chicago, where it would be sure to attract attention. Dr. Marrian intends with a partner from the west, to establish a medical college here and is looking about for a suitable place.

Our Best People Say So!
It is pure excellence, a great family remedy of our times. Failure's Oelex Compound is purely vegetable, being composed of the best herbs and roots known to science for the cure of disease. It is always reliable, and is suited for all ages and conditions.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CENTRAL CANADA LOAN AND SAVINGS COMPANY.

Another Year of Progress Reviewed—A Very Satisfactory Report Presented—Election of Officers.

The eighth annual meeting of the Shareholders of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company was held at the head offices, George-st., Peterborough, on Wednesday, Feb. 10th, 1892, at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Geo. A. Cox, President, in the chair. Mr. F. G. Cox, Manager, was requested to act as secretary.

After the usual routine of business had been disposed of, the Manager read the eighth annual report as follows—

Eighth Annual Report of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company of Ontario.
The Directors have the honor to submit their eighth annual report, together with a statement of assets and liabilities as at the 31st December, 1891, and a statement of the profit and loss account for the year ending at that date duly audited and certified.

Two half-yearly dividends at the usual rate of 6 per cent. per annum, amounting to $45,000, have been paid.

The steady increase in the assets of the company, now amounting to $1,168,078.37; the steady growth of the surplus, now amounting to $200,000; and the increased earning power of the company, are all satisfactory features in the operations of the past year.

The repayments during the year, both on account of principal and interest, have been highly satisfactory, the amount repaid on account of interest being $188,460.10 and the amount repaid on principal being $349,528.68. New loans have been made during the same period to the extent of $200,000.

We have experienced no difficulty in finding satisfactory employment for our funds, but the rate at which choice loans can now be obtained has somewhat reduced the average rate of interest on our investments. That, however, will be met by the reduced rate at which we are now able to place our debentures. This is, no doubt, the experience of all money lending institutions and is not to be regretted in the interests of the country generally.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Geo. A. Cox, President.

F. G. Cox, Manager.

THE REPORT APPROVED.
The President in moving the adoption of the report said—

GENTLEMEN.—It again becomes my pleasant duty to submit for your approval, a report in which it has not been necessary to express any regrets or any apologies. In short, we have had a successful year's business, and in moving the adoption of the report, I cannot do better than allow the figures that have just been submitted to you, to speak for themselves. Invested Funds of $1,168,078.37 and Surplus Funds of $200,000 (equal to 20 per cent. of paid up capital) at the end of the eighth year, most, I think, meet with the approval of the shareholders. The satisfactory nature of the accounts held by the company is indicated by the fact that at the close of the book on the 31st of December, the overdraft interest was only a fraction over one per cent. on the amount invested, and in six weeks that have since intervened, a large portion of these arrears has been paid. It will be known to me, if not all the shareholders, that the borrowing power of the Company is limited to three times the amount of our paid up capital, or in other words to $2,400,000, upon the capital as it at present stands. Our Debentured Deposits are now paid in very close to that amount, and it is necessary that we should either raise new stock or allow these shareholders who hold partially paid stock to pay up the same in full, and as several shareholders have expressed a desire to do this, I propose to submit for your consideration, a resolution authorizing any shareholder who desires to pay up the unpaid portion of his stock to do so by paying a premium of 20 per cent. upon the amount so paid. It is anticipated that this will result in an addition to the paid up capital of not less than $200,000, upon which the premium will make a further addition of $40,000 to the Reserve Fund. I shall be glad to furnish any further information that may be desired by any shareholder present, and in the meantime I beg to move the adoption of the report.

J. R. DUNDAS, Esq., said:—It affords me pleasure to second the resolution for the adoption of the report. I congratulate the shareholders, and only upon the present position, but the future prospects of the Company. I only returned from Scotland last week, and while in Glasgow I had a very satisfactory interview with Messrs. Finlayson & Auld, the chief agents of the Company in Great Britain, and I can assure the shareholders they are ably represented there by a highly respected firm, and I was very much gratified by their expressions of confidence in the Company and by their assurance that they would be able to send us money when we could find safe and profitable investment for our funds.

RICHARD HALL, Esq., said:—It is not necessary for me to say anything in support of the resolution, the result of the year's business and the steady growth of the Deposits and Assets of the Company are so satisfactory that they speak for themselves. I quite approve of the proposed addition to the paid up capital by permitting the present holders of partially paid stock to pay the same in full at a premium of 20 per cent. on the amount so paid. I have no doubt it will result in a large addition to the cash capital, and thus increase the borrowing power of the Company and extend its usefulness.

W. CLUNTON, Esq., said:—The proposed plan of increasing the cash capital, by allowing shareholders to pay up stock at 20 per cent. premium, is certainly preferable in my opinion to the issue of new stock; it affords the present holders of a daily paid stock an opportunity of making a safe investment at a fairly good rate of interest, upon security steadily increasing in value. As a regular attendant at the investment committee meetings, I can vouch for

Cure for Constipation and Headache.
Dr. S. J. Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's "Spring Medicine." It will cure sick-headache and is the best Spring Medicine. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. and 10c. a package.

Refrigate.
A charge of abuse preferred by a wife against her husband was withdrawn at the Police Court this morning.

A Roof Collapse.
The heavy fall of snow has loaded the roof with a tremendous weight of snow. This morning the enormous pressure of snow on the roof of T. Fitzgerald's coal sheds on Bethune-st. caused the roof to collapse. The sheds are about one hundred and fifty feet in length and it was an expensive accident for Mr. Fitzgerald.

The Market Lease.
One of the Town Councilors, who had read "Freeholder's" letter in the Review last evening, remarked to a Reviewer in private:—I saw that letter in the Review and you might answer it by stating that the market lease does not expire until April when it does it is the intention of the Council to put it up to public tender. This morning the market will be done, so you can make this answer to the correspondents who have been writing on the matter."

The Great Reason for the Success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in its positive merits. It cures where other preparations fail.

Six Months in the Central.
George Green, the individual whom Constable Stewart arrested last week in the act of indecently exposing himself to a lady on Hunter-st., was up in the Police Court on remand this morning. Since he was arrested the Market has been in a state of inquiry at Kilmount where the man was laid, but could learn no good of the fellow. When asked if he had anything to say he replied that he had not. The Magistrate then sentenced him to six months in the Central Prison.

A Number of the Edison employees who have been playing the piano in the concert hall to the grandstand and galleries and who in their more youthful days have probably played at shinney have so recently manifested a wish to play the Edison Hockey club, "to give them a few points," that a number of them have been arranged to play on Wednesday night of this week, at which much fun and merriment is anticipated. The match will be played at the rink. It is understood that the contestants will secure the services of one or more medical men to attend at the contest. Hostilities will begin at the usual hour.

A Lecture on Home.
The anniversary of the school services of the Methodist church were continued last evening when Rev. Mr. Baker, the earnest preacher of Sunday, delivered a lecture in the church on "Homes in Rome." The rev. gentleman had established himself as a practical preacher, and he now was remembered also as a lecturer of ability and eloquence. Unfortunately the audience was not a large as it should have been. The lecturer gave a description of the sign he had seen in the eternal city and the pictures of the paintings and buildings in the city were all interesting and profitable. At the close Rev. Mr. Edwards expressed the pleasure it had afforded him to listen to the lecture, which he enjoyed very highly. This evening the anniversary tea will be held and will be followed by an entertainment to which all friends are invited.

The Breachy Case.
To the Editor of the Review.
Sir,—In your account of this case in yesterday's paper you state that J. L. Walton, Wm. Swinton and Andrew Young as well as Breachy the defendant in this case were ordered to find sureties. The Magistrate did indeed make some unguarded remarks which your reporter apparently construed as meaning that such an order was actually made. But the only case before him for hearing was the case against Breachy, in which an order for sureties to keep the peace was made. The other parties were not before the court, nor complaint or charge was laid against them, and even a "from away back" could hardly think seriously of condemning men without a hearing against whom no charge was laid.

Meers, Walton, Swinton and Young will of course be the better off if they take any further notice of the matter, but if you have published an account calculated to prejudice them in the eyes of the public, I deem it proper to take this means of setting them right.

Yours truly,
R. B. EDWARDS.

ADVICE TO HYPNOTISTS.
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural quiet sleep by soothing the inflamed membrane, and the little sufferer awakes as "bright as a button."

It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other cause. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Teaching Temperance in the Schools.
Dear Sir,—Kindly allow me through your columns to deny the false charges made in an article entitled "Teaching Temperance in the Schools," contained in the issue of Saturday, over the signature "A W. G. F. U. Woman," against the School Board, Inspector and teachers of the schools. By a reference to the article above referred to, you may learn these charges, so that I need not repeat them. Temperance and hygiene is now, and was, during the last three terms, taught to the pupils in all the grades of our schools from the second book to the junior fourth term, and I herewith send you a printed copy of the examination paper set, and written upon at the late promotion examinations in December last.

In regard to such an utterly false statement it carries with it, as that of circulating in the schools, and as that of a W. G. F. U. Woman, against the School Board, Inspector and teachers of the schools, together with a member of such a Society is unparalleled, and must certainly reflect discredit on the mental and moral hygiene of such an individual as "A W. G. F. U. Woman."

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your kindness in allowing me this privilege, I am, yours very truly,

This valuable and never-failing com-

Sunday Morning's Fire.
Mr. Chas. Kitchin, of Oshawa, whose greenhouse was burned early Sunday morning as announced in yesterday's Review, places his loss at $400. He has an insurance of $500 to meet his loss. How the fire originated is mysterious. Mr. Kitchin was awakened from his sleep by his wife and with his son rushed out of the house and worked for half an hour fighting the flames in their night clothes. They succeeded in saving the house which would have been burned with its contents had the fire not been discovered when it was.

follows:—"The Rev. Geo. Edwards, of the preached two excellent sermons in the Methodist church. The morning text was 1st Kings, x, 14, "Is this heart right?"

We wish we had space for a synopsis of the sermon, it would do any one good to have heard it. It was plain and practical and delivered in such a manner that the simplest child could understand it. The evening text was Acts viii, 1-10. The subject, the death of Stephen, the first Christian martyr, and the result of the persecution that followed."

May they bring the trophy here this year.

"The bonspiel was concluded to-day, when Calgary, for the Walker trophy. The third and fourth prize winners were Mc-Oulough, Stonehall, and Dunford, place this afternoon. The Lindsay men were heartily applauded as they were decorated with medals and carried off the

NO REDUCTION IS MADE BY THE COUNCIL IN THE NUMBER OF LIQUOR LICENSES

Councilors Support the Petition—The Street Railway Matter Settled—Reports of Committees—Communications—Another Application for the Use of the Street for Fairs.

A special meeting of the Town Council was held last night and many matters of general interest were disposed of. The debate on the reduction of the liquor licenses occupied considerable time, but the report of the committee leaving matters as they are was finally adopted. Mayor Kennedy presided and present were Councilors Cahill, Best, Wines, Kelly, Young, Bradburn, Pearson, Ferguson, McIlwain, Dan-

COMMUNICATIONS.
The minutes being confirmed Town Clerk
Cobb read the following communications:
From Alfred James Payton asking for an extension of time to pay his taxes, he having been sick and unable to work.—Court of Revision, and the Clerk was instructed to take no action until the Court met.

From J. D. Craig, captain of the Fire Brigade, asking that some alterations be made in the sleeping apartments of the brigade. At present there were two double beds in the rooms and the brigade would like them changed to four single beds as the double ones were inconvenient and badly in need of repair. The brigade also called attention to the manner in which the janitor attended to the rooms.—Property Committee.

From R. N. Roddy stating that he was prepared to build a hotel a few rods from the market square with accommodation for over one hundred guests and desired the Council to recommend that he be given a license by the commissioners. He was prepared to open the hotel as soon as the first permits.—License Committee.

From Mr. J. H. Yelland, secretary of the Fire Brigade, petitioning for a new outfit of rubber clothing for the firemen.—Fire,
Water and Light Committee.

From Alfred Coveney asking for the remission of dog tax.—Court of Revision.

From K. B. Edwards, Town Solicitor, enclosing a copy of a letter received from Messrs. Dumble & Leonard in which they accepted the recent alternative judgment in the case of Leonard vs. Peterborough.
The letter also suggested the advisability
of the limit of the street being staked out so as to prevent any trouble in future.

This appeared to the Town Solicitor very desirable to carry out.—Street and Bridge Committee.

From Wm. Duncan asking for a remission of taxes as he was unable to work.—
Court of Revision.

From Terrence Smith asking that he be allowed an extra man on account of the extra work on the sidewalks.—Fire, Water and Light with power to act.

From Edg. Pearce, County Clerk, enclosing the resolution passed at the recent session of the County Council in regard to the Smith-st. bridge.—Received.

ANOTHER APPLICATION.

Messrs. Dumble & Leonard addressed the following communication to the Council:

GENTLEMEN.—We understand that the parties who contemplate the construction
of an electric railway have made application for leave to put in the street poles for wires supplying light and power.
We are notified that the purpose of putting in machinery for supplying light and power
will be to prevent any trouble in future.
This appeared to the Town Solicitor very desirable to carry out.—Street and Bridge Committee.

ANOTHER APPLICATION.

Messrs. Dumble & Leonard addressed the following communication to the Council:

GENTLEMEN.—We understand that the parties who contemplate the construction
of an electric railway have made application for leave to put in the street poles for wires supplying light and power.
We are notified that the purpose of putting
in machinery for supplying light and power
will be to prevent any trouble in future.
This appeared to the Town Solicitor very

Fire Brigade, petitioning for a new outfit of rubber clothing for the firemen.—Fire,
Water and Light Committee.

Messrs. Dumble & Leonard in which they accepted the recent alternative judgment

The letter also suggested the advisability
of the limit of the street being staked out

This appeared to the Town Solicitor very desirable to carry out.—Street and Bridge Committee.

From Wm. Duncan asking for a remission of taxes as he was unable to work.—
Court of Revision.

allowed an extra man on account of the

led that the granting of a lesser number of licenses at a higher fee would not decrease the income and would elevate the character of the hotels and benefit the town. He referred to the large number of ratepayers who had signed the petition and reminded them that $2,500 had been expended for charity and he believed that this was largely due to drinking habits. He reminded them of the large number of convictions and of the crime and suicides caused by drink. The town hotel keepers were a good body of men as a whole and to be found in any place, and he was of opinion that the reduction should be granted. He wanted good reasons for refusal if it was refused.

Councillor Younge asked if the signatures were twelve hundred ratepayers.

Mr. Younge said there were twelve hundred citizens on the petition and about half of them were ratepayers.

Dr. Firs also addressed the Council in support of the petition referring to the manner in which the shop licensees sold liquor over the same counter and sent it out in the same delivery. The great bulk of the people, he thought, would be pleased with the Council's action if they saw fit to reduce the number of licensees.

Councillor DUMFRIES said he was not a member of the License Committee, but he thought that in face of the petition and the citizens who had addressed them he should give his reason for voting for the report.

He was in sympathy with the temperance work, but he could not allow a matter of $200 or $100 to stand in his way, but it was more. The reduction meant the depriving of six citizens of their legal business which they were carrying on under the law. The figures given by the petitioners were correct, but he believed that the town was four short of the number they were entitled to.

He thought in presenting such a petition that the names of the men who were to be out should be given. He for one could not vote for the reduction of the licensees and thereby causing thousands of dollars loss to gentlemen carrying on business under by-law passed by their predecessors.

Councillor McILWAIN enquired if all the hotels were properly equipped.

Councillor DUMFRIES stated that this was a matter outside the power of the Council.

Councillor Younge did not deem it legal for any legislative body to pass on what a man's stomach should contain. The Scott Act was a mischievous piece of legislation.
He did not think the reduction of the licensees would reduce drinking and advanced similar arguments to Councillor Dannison in regard to depriving the hotelmen of a means of livelihood.

He was in favor of temperance, but he did not think this would decrease the drinking or lessen the temptation. The man who wanted a drink would go another block or carry a larger quantity in his pocket. He combated the separation of the shop liquor licensees from other businesses, saying he believed it would increase drinking. He would support the motion because he did not think it would be in the interest of Peterborough or temperance to do otherwise.

Councillor MULHURN asked Councillor Younge if he thought with only the Oriental hotel in town the same amount of drinking would be done as at present?

Councillor Younge replied that he did, for with the one hotel men would buy their liquor by the bottle and drunkenness would increase.

ENFORCE THE LAW.
Councillor KELLY said they had a law and the principle was to enforce the law out of that law. He believed if the law was carried out it would be far better than all the chaff given out in the town. If the law was enforced there would be no necessity for reducing the number of hotels. He did not think the law was enforced. He would like to see it enforced.
The number had been fixed by former Councils and he did not think them too many. The matter of shop licensees was one for the commissioners to deal with.

Councillor MULHURN asked if they could never get hotel keepers to keep the law.
The proprietors might, but their friends would not let them.

Councillor KELLY asked why the hotel men should not keep the law as well as a merchant.

Councillor McILWAIN moved in amendment that a by-law be passed fixing the number of licensees at sixteen.

The report was put to a vote and carried, only Councillors McIlwain and Mulhern voting against it.

Mr. McIlwain's amendment was dropped.

STREET AND BRIDGES.
Councillor CARILL read the report of the Street and Bridge Committee as follows:

To the Mayor and Town Council of the Town of Peterborough:

GENTLEMEN.—Your Street and Bridge Committee beg leave to report that they have awarded to the Dickson Co. the contract for supplying the corporation with plank and board plank for the current year at $1 and $7.50 per m. respectively.

Also the contract for supplying square oak and cedar scantling to Alfred Mc-Donald at $9 and $7.50 per m. respectively.

Your Committee beg leave to report that quantity of stone say 50 to 75 cords be procured and broken for street purposes.

Your Committee had the Smith-st bridge thoroughly examined and find that the probable cost of putting the same in repair would be upwards of $2,000. Your Commissioners are of opinion that it would not be judicious to expend so large a sum on the bridge as they believe it would not even last for any great length of time.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
THOS. CARILL,
Chairman.

The report was carried.

HEALTH MATTERS.
Councillor DAWSON presented the report of the Health Committee as follows:

To the Mayor and Council of the Town of Peterborough:

GENTLEMEN.—Your Health Committee beg leave to report and recommend that a contract be entered into with Charles Eitney for the supply of a dumping ground for 1892 at the price of sum of $40 and that Thos. Williams be offered the sum of $50 in full settlement of all claims he may have against the town in respect of claims under his contract during the 1891, the offer to be made without prejudice.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
ADAM DAWSON,
Chairman.

The report was adopted.

THE ANNUAL REPORT.
Councillor DAWSON stated that Mr. Eitney had increased his rent on account of increased debris dumped on the grounds.
In regard to the matter of an ambulance the chairman said he had made enquiries in regard to the procuring of a suitable conveyance and would report on the matter at the next regular meeting.

Councillor DUMFRIES said the old men were refusing to carry contagious patients to the hospital and an ambulance was necessary. He thought the Council might better deal with the matter than the Board of Health who had power if they wisely used it.

Councillor DAWSON said he would report
the next meeting.

CHARITY TRUSTEES.
Councillor WILSON read the Charity Committee's report as follows:

To the Mayor and Council of the Town of Peterborough:

GENTLEMEN.—Your Charity Committee beg leave to report that they have purchased for instructions from the Council advised for 100 cords of wood for charity purposes. Your Committee met and recommended the purchase of the following persons for the quantities and at the prices named be accepted namely:—

Wm. Charlton, 50 cords of dry laminate at $3.20 per cord.

J. A. Reid, 20 cords of dry mixed wood at $2.25 per cord.

W. J. Hall, 25 cords of dry mixed wood at $2.25 per cord.

Your Committee would also recommend that in future the Charity Committee report to the Council monthly, the amount of charity distributed each month together with the names of the parties receiving same and the amount received.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
H. E. WILSON,
Chairman.

A discussion took place in regard to the publication of the names of those receiving charity and the report was adopted, as reported.

TRANSIENT TRADERS.
Councillor MULHURN introduced a by-law to license transient traders in the town.
The by-law fixed the license at $50. The by-law was given its reading, passed and numbered.

THE STREET RAILWAY.
Councillor DUMFRIES stated that since the last meeting the whole Council had met the Edison Street Railway Syndicate and had changed the lengthy resolution placed in the minutes and published at the last meeting. The change made provided that liquor over the same counter and sent it out in the same delivery. In this case the crossing of the rails of the G. P. R. if all went to the North Ward school cleared before nine o'clock. He drew the attention of the Council to the matter.

The resolution carried.

TO AMEND THE MARKET BY-LAWS.
Councillor Younge gave notice that at a future meeting he would introduce an amendment to the market by-law to meet an injustice to the local dealers. Under the present by-law outside dealers could come in and buy before eleven o'clock while local dealers could not buy till after that time.

SIDEWALKS IN THE NORTH.
Councillor DUMFRIES complained that the North Ward had not received proper attention in regard to cleaning the sidewalks of snow. He said he was safe in saying that not on one occasion was the sidewalk to the North Ward school cleared before nine o'clock. He drew the attention of the Council to the matter.

Councillor McILWAIN and the Mayor addressed the Council in regard to it. It was the duty of the Fire, Water and Light Committee to deal with this matter.

The Council then adjourned at ten o'clock.

Quick Restoration to Health.
A lady says:—"Before I had used two bottles of Faint's Ointment Compound, the horrid nervousness and terrible dizziness which troubled me for years, seemed to quickly vanish, and I experienced a new and happy existence."

livered by Mr. F. J. Fedor, of Ottawa, and Mr. G. E. Williams. A running time is to all young men.

Personal.
Mr. Thos. Mack, successor, is confined to his house with a cold, which is not serious as reported.

Councillor Mulhern was indisposed yesterday and was unable to be present at the Council meeting last evening.

For several years I was perfectly annoyed with an excessive accumulation of Dandruff and although using various preparations recom-

material relief was realized until my attention and as a specific for this trouble it certainly has no equal.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral with the best effect in my practice. This wonderful preparation once saved my life. I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and given up by my physician. One bottle and a half of the Pectoral cured me."—A. J. Kildon, M.D., Middleton, Tennessee.

"Several years ago I was severely ill. The doctors said I was in consumption, and that they could do nothing for me, but advised me, as a last resort, to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking this medicine two or three months I was cured, and my health running good to the present day."—James Richard, Darien, Conn.

"Several years ago, on a passage home from California, by water, I contracted so severe a cold that for some days I was confined to my stateroom, and a physician on board considered my life in danger. Happening to have a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I used it freely, and my lungs were soon restored to a healthy condition. Since then I have invariably recommended this preparation."—J. B. Having Confessed His Crime, a Parolee Will Carry a Clear Conscience to Prison.
SAULT STE. MARIE, Feb. 16.—William Gaultier, the notorious assassin, who, after acquittal for the murder of his aged father, confessed in a revival meeting that he had committed the crime and had perjured himself on the stand in the trial, was today sentenced to State's prison for 10 years for perjury, to which he pleaded guilty on Thursday.

When brought into the court room for sentence he fell upon his knees and cried loudly:
"Oh, God, oh Saviour! I await thy coming," and similar phrases.
He was finally quieted down and remained silent until after sentence had been passed, when he exclaimed loudly:
"I can rest for human punishment. God and I have balanced our accounts and I am all safe."

HAVE LEFT WASHINGTON

THE RECIPROCAL COMMISSIONERS RETURN HOME.

The Associated Press Reports that the Treaty has been concluded owing to the fact that the Commissioners had no power to act.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The Canadian reciprocity negotiations came to an end today. There was a session of about 24 hours at the State Department, attended by Secretary Blaine and General Foster on the part of the United States, and Sir Julian Pauncefote and the Canadian Commissioners on behalf of the applicants for reciprocal trade relations.

At the end of the meeting it was announced that negotiations were concluded and that the visitors would leave here for Canada tonight.

The State Department officials refuse to make known the result of the conference, but it is believed that the visitors were unsuccessful in their mission, principally because of their alleged failure to satisfy representatives of the Government that they were authorized to conclude a commercial treaty independent of the direct interests of Great Britain.

The proposition of the Canadians, as it is understood, was that a treaty be concluded on the following basis:

1. A renewal of reciprocity treaty of 1854, with the modifications required by the altered circumstances of both countries.

2. A reconsideration of the treaty of 1880 with respect to the Atlantic fisheries, with the aim of securing the free admission into the United States markets of Canadian fishery products in return for facilities to be granted to United States fishermen to buy bait and supplies and to transship their cargoes in Canada, all such privileges to be subject to the following basis:

3. The protection of commercial and other fisheries on the Atlantic coast and in the inland waters also.

4. The relaxation of the seal and coasting laws of the two countries.

5. Of the coasting and inland waters dividing Canada from the United States.

6. Mutual salvage and saving of wrecked vessels.

7. Arrangements for settling the boundaries between Canada and Alaska.

The one-basis theory.

The smaller feature of the one-basis theory was "built in" as a wonderful bait, and it was "the weakest part" of the whole. The one-basis theory was only too common. With the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, this may be avoided, and women may be comparatively safe as their health, vitality, and vigor are restored.

Dependability, only a few of the symptoms of weakness of the female system which the "Favorite Prescription" is warranted to remove.

In my endorsement of Anti-Dandruff I can say something that I never could before, which is that this preparation is a perfect remover of Dandruff not only in the first stages but even when the plaques have become chronic and have caused a hair disease. Years of experience as a hair dresser, during which time I have recommended with every reasonable prospect of success, not one has (for I might say, even all put together) given the satisfaction that Anti-Dandruff has.

It positively removes Dandruff. It stops falling of the hair. It cools the head, it makes an elegant hair dressing without leaving a trace of it. I use it daily in my hair-dressing place, at Belmont Hotel, and have yet to find the first customer who has not been pleased with it.

BURNED THE CHURCH.

A Gaudious Mob Maltreated Protestant Clergymen and Worshipers.

ATWATER, Feb. 16.—During the service at the Protestant Church at Atwater yesterday a mob of men forced their way into the interior of the building and severely maltreated the ministers and the audience. They stole everything of value in the church and then set fire to it.

A detachment of troops was sent to the scene and they succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not until the interior of the church had been burned beyond repair.

Many members of the mob were arrested.

An Heir To Millions Killed in the Hunting Field.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—Thomas Frazer, the eldest son of Sir Thomas Frazer, Bart., was thrown from his horse and killed while hunting with the Vale of White Horse, Crickhatch, hounds, near Swindon. He was heir to an enormous fortune amassed by his grandfather, Sir Charles Frazer.

There is another son, Frederick, a lad of 21, who now becomes heir to the baronetcy. Sir Charles Frazer left $4,000,000 in cash, besides much real estate.

The Queensland Government to Admit Polynesians as Plantation Laborers.

BRISBANE, Feb. 16.—A remarkable manifesto on the colored labor question, signed by the Premier, the Hon. Sir Samuel Walker-Smith, K.C.M.G., was published this morning. It begins by stating that the attention of the Government has been repeatedly directed to the very unsatisfactory condition of the sugar industry, through the difficulty of obtaining suitable labor, and to the intention of the Government to remove the admission of Polynesians as plantation laborers for a period of 10 years.

WILLING TO DIE.

Having Confessed His Crime, a Parolee Will Carry a Clear Conscience to Prison.

From to Death.

HAMMOND, Feb. 16.—A man named Smith was found frozen to death on Saturday morning last on the mountain between Benmarville and Smithville. It is supposed he was under the influence of liquor and fell off his car and lay at the side of the road all night. The horse went on home, but was not discovered by the family until the morning. A search was instituted, but too late. The body was frozen stiff when found.

Were Used by Confidence Men.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—"Heath's Infallible Counterfeit Detector," a book containing directions for detecting spurious money, has come to the notice of the Secret Service officials having suppressed the sale.

The "Detector" was published by Laban Heath of Boston, who sold the book in numerous quantities. The books contained lists of Treasury notes of any denomination from $1 to $500. Many complaints were received at the Treasury Department that the books were being used by "honey" steers and confidence men. The shapers, it was discovered, would seek the pictures of the Treasury notes out of the book and pass them on the money.

The system is very comprehensive. Children of three years to five are numerous on my school and make sufficient progress to induce others to send their babies. First teacher always have a lasting effect on the pupils, and we would not be able to do this without the aid of the school.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

The Annual Meeting.
The annual meeting of the Bible Society is to be held to-night in St. Paul's church when the annual reports will be submitted and officers elected. Rev. J. M. Milligan, of Toronto, will deliver an address. There should be a large attendance.

The Ladies Delighted.
The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Hyrup of Pina, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasant to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet efficient in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

A Gift from Ottawa.
The College Institute has received a valuable addition to its museum, in the shape of a catalogued collection of Canadian mineral specimens from the Department of Ottawa. The collection comprises one hundred and ten specimens and will be greatly valued by the Institute staff.

If you are troubled with hawking and spitting, dull headaches, losing some of taste or smell, you are afflicted with catarrh, and to prevent it developing into consumption, Nasal Balm should be used promptly. There is no case of catarrh which it will not cure, and for cold in the head it gives immediate relief. Try it. All dealers.

M.C.A. Notes.
Last evening a large number of young men assembled to greet Mr. F. J. Fedah, General Secretary of the Ottawa Association, and a very profitable and pleasant evening was spent. Mr. Fedah gave an interesting account of the world's convention, which he attended, held last year at Amsterdam, showing the great work which is being done in all lands through the Y. M.C.A., also impressions of the London Convention, and in a practical and helpful way showed the needs of this special work. Many questions were asked and helpful answers given on the best way to do the work. The meeting was closed by a consecration service led by Mr. Fedah, which was powerful in its effect and will bring blessing to the lives of all our workers who receive an impulse by this meeting. Heartly thanks were given Mr. Fedah for remaining over to give these valuable hints on the work.

That Tired Feeling.
Is often the forerunner of serious illness, which may be broken up if a good tonic like Hood's Serravallo is taken in season. This medicine invigorates the kidneys and liver to remove the waste from the system, purifies the blood and builds up the strength.

Constipation is caused by loss of the peristaltic action of the bowels. Hood's Pills restore this action and invigorate the liver.

Courting Chit-Chat.
A game was played between two legal risks at the rink last night. The representatives of the bar were shipped by Geo. Edmison and E. B. Edwards. The former was victorious by six shots.

Two local risks shipped by R. Max Denison and Sam. Clegg are going to Port Hope tomorrow to play a friendly game.

The two tankard risks went to Toronto last night and are in the big bonspiel there to-day. The two risks were—J. B. Penland, Geo. Brown, Sam Ray and Theo. Rutherford, vs. J. Stewart, R. B. Davidson, C. McGill and W. G. Ferguson. In the first the Peterborough risks were drawn against the Hamilton Thistles, while Lakefield was the bye. The Thistles are one of the strongest clubs in the tankard contest and it will be good news for the local curlers to know that the Peterborough men defeated their Hamilton opponents by 15 shots this morning. A desperate war was required to shift the afternoon. The Peterboroughers should now be in the fight to stay after defeating one of the strongest clubs of the six best competing.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT.

Goldsmith English Has a Charge Preferred Against Him.
Goldsmith English appeared in the Police Court this morning on a charge of embezzlement. The charge was preferred against him by Mr. Rich. N. Morton, of Montreal, manager of the Singer Manufacturing Co. and read as follows:—That Goldsmith English, on the 25th day of September, 1891, was a servant of the Singer Manufacturing Co. and that the said Goldsmith English whilst he was a servant as aforesaid on or about the day and year aforesaid a certain valuable security, to wit, one promissory note made by J. A. Blackwell, of and belonging to the said Singer Manufacturing Co. fraudulently and feloniously did embezzle contrary to the statute in that behalf as the said informant is informed and does verily believe.

Mr. R. E. Wood, County Crown Attorney, appeared for the prosecution and Mr. E. R. Edwards for the defence.

When asked to make his election as to trial Mr. Edwards asked for time in which to decide. Mr. Wood objected to waiting for the defence to make their election and some argument followed. The Magistrate stated that he would not try the case, so that the question of election was settled.

The case was enlarged for preliminary hearing until Monday, February 22nd, and the defendant will be admitted to bail upon furnishing securities, himself in $300 and two securities of $100 each.

HIS LAST RESTING PLACE.

Funeral of Rev. Canon Davidson—Interment in Trinity Churchyard, Colborne.

The funeral of the Rev. Canon Davidson, rector of Colborne and father of Rev. J. C. Davidson, Rector of St. John's, whose sudden death at Toronto on Saturday last, while attending the Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, has already been announced, took place at Colborne yesterday and will long be remembered for the manifestations of intense sorrow and sympathy of which it was the occasion. The lay rector was exceptionally full in the fulfiling of the duties of his high and holy office, and invariably kind and cheerful in his disposition. Although in charge of this parish but for little over three years, he so endeared himself not only to his parishioners, but to the community at large, that his loss was felt as a public calamity. His body, in charge of the local chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, was taken to Trinity church at 10:30 a.m., and from that hour until nearly twelve a stream of sorrowing friends took their last look, upon earth, at his familiar features. The church was decorated with flowers, Easter lilies, and purple hangings, by the loving hands of the ladies of the congregation, and the coffin was almost hidden by most exquisite floral offerings, which included the red St. Andrew's Cross, within a circle, from the local chapter of the Brotherhood, and two others from the members of the Canadian Council and the Peterborough chapter. At noon the Holy Communion was administered to a large congregation. Rev. Canon DuMontin being celebrant, assisted by Archdeacon Allen, of Millbrook; Rev. Canon Sprague, Cobourg; Rev. J. E. Cooper, Hastings; and Rev. John Gibson, Norwood. At one o'clock the solemn and impressive burial service of the Church was said, two hymns and the "Nunc Dimittis" were sung, and all was over. The burial was in a pleasant shady spot in this churchyard.

The family of the deceased, who have been most active and efficient co-workers with him in his ministrations in the parish, have the deepest sympathy of the community in their bereavement. Besides the clergy mentioned above, there were present, Prof. De Vernet, of Wyldes College, Toronto; Rev. G. Warren, Lakefield; Rev. C. B. Kerwick and Rev. W. Loucks, Peterborough; Rev. W. B. Magnus, Brimley; Rev. S. Daniel, Port Hope; also the church-women of St. John's Peterborough (Messrs. H. R. and G. A. Smith), Cobourg, Brighton, Uxbridge, and Grafton, and Messrs. Elms, Henderson and A. Campbell, of Toronto.

In this connection it might be well to correct an error in the reports of Canon Davidson's death as they appeared in the Toronto papers. Rev. J. C. Davidson was with his father, who was so suddenly taken ill while attending the convention, until he passed away at 1:30 o'clock, and he then heroically returned to the convention and presided at the afternoon session so as not to interfere with the convention.

To the question, Which is your favorite poem? there may be a great variety of answers; but when asked, which is your favorite blood-purifier there can be only one reply—Ayer's Serravallo, because it is the purest, safest, and most economical.

A Pleasant Herb Drink—A Spring Medicine.
The druggists tell us that people call daily for the new cure for constipation and sick-headache discovered by Dr. Miles. It is said to be Oregon grape root, a great remedy in the far west for those complaints combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It sells at 50c. and $1 a package and is called Miles' Family Medicine.

The Anniversary Closed.
The anniversary services of the Charlotte-st. Methodist Church Sunday School closed last evening with a highly successful children's tea and entertainment. From six o'clock until eight tea, buns and jam were served, and the children in the lecture room. There were almost three hundred of the scholars of the school present and they enjoyed the tea and the fun and frolic which was associated with it. After tea an adjournment was made to the church where Mr. R. M. Roy too: the children and a large gathering of their parents and friends on a trip around the world. Mr. Roy gave an interesting lecture, illustrated with fine stereoscopic views, showing his audience views from all parts of the world. He gave many views of R. us to illustrate the references of Rev. Mr. Baker's lecture of the previous evening. The views and lecture were greatly appreciated and everyone was delighted with their evening's entertainment.

HOW THEY MANUFACTURE

CARBONS AND PORCELAIN GOODS IN PETERBOROUGH.

The Successful Enterprise of the Brooks Manufacturing Company—About Two-Thirds of the Canadian Carbon Consumption Supplied From Here—The Interesting Process of Making Door Knobs and Porcelain Goods—A Complete and Flourishing Industry.

It often falls to the lot of a reporter to pleasantly vary the usual bread of every day duties by dropping into one of the town's many flourishing industries and allowing the public to take a peep into the realm of machinery and manufacture.

Yesterday the Review gave a visit to the works of the Brooks Manufacturing Co., a concern which has flourished and extended since its establishment until now it is a hive of industry where manufacture of the most interesting process is successfully carried on. Some months ago, at the time of its addition, the REVIEW gave its readers an outline of the porcelain works which have been combined by the Brooks Company with their carbon industry. The roads of the two works find their way to a great extent into the same market, and hence the connection which allows of the amalgamation of the two.

It is now about two years since the company began building operations, preparatory to commencing the manufacture of carbons. The industry then established has thrived, the works have manufactured a carbon which has won its way by its merits into the Canadian trade until to-day the output is fifteen thousand carbons per day, and in the neighborhood of two-thirds of the carbons consumed in Canada are turned out at the Peterborough carbon works. This demand necessitated an extension of the building some months ago.

Some few months ago the company decided to branch out into another line of manufacture and buildings and kilns were erected adjoining the carbon works for the making of porcelain goods, such as door knobs, insulators and cut-outs used in electrical wire stringing. This enterprise is now in full running order and on a footing which insures success. The Royal Electrical Co. which have been using goods manufactured here, have said they have never seen finer porcelain and similar has been the verdict of the Lock Works which is supplied with its door knobs by the company. The outlook is indeed bright and the company confidently expect big things in their porcelain enterprise.

The reporter was very kindly shown through both branches of the company's works by the general manager, Mr. C. W. Taylor, and the visit was of the greatest interest.

THE PORCELAIN MANUFACTORY.

How many persons when they take hold of a door knob know the many processes the little piece of handwork comes through from the time it goes into the works to the time it comes out smooth and polished ready for the door handle. To trace it briefly let us go to the Brooks Company's Works. First of all the clay that is used is all imported. There is the China clay brought from England and the Maryland clay from the State of the same name. The process of manufacture begins when the clay, mixed with water, goes into the "mixer," an immense vat where it is stirred about by a vertical revolving shaft. It is then in a pasty liquid state. It next passes into the "lawn" where it runs through a sieve almost as fine as silk, with 150 meshes to the inch. Having passed through the sieve of the "lawn" it enters the "agitator," another vat similar to the "mixer," where the clay, now like cream, is kept in motion. From the agitator it is pumped to the "press." This machine is made up of many compartments and each compartment holds a linen bag. The liquid clay runs into these bags and the pressure of the pump forces the clay through the bags and carried into a vat from which it is carried back again to the "mixer." The clay is taken from the press in almost the state of plaster and taken into the drying room. After it is dried it is broken into pieces and put through the "pulverizer." It comes out in a finely sandy state and is then ready for the "presses." These are supplied with dies and the pulverized clay is pressed by the workmen into shape, either as door knobs, insulators or cut-outs. The clay now and passes to the turner where it is expeditiously turned into shape and rounded off it is a door knob. The knobs or insulators are then packed into large casks, probably eight or ten dozen in a cask, and are ready for the kiln. These "green" knobs are put on the top of the kiln. In this state the porcelain is called "blowitz." When they come out from the first kiln they are hard but have no gloss or shine. They then go to the glaze where they are dipped in the glaze and then passed in about down into smaller casks and, after burning in the kiln, come out ready for market.

BEGINS TO TAKE FORM

The manufacture of these knobs, the fire-brick vessels in which the porcelain is baked, is carried on distinctively separate as any mixing of the two clays would spoil or mar the porcelain goods. The saggers are made after the style of other earthen vessels in pottery. The clay used is a red New Jersey and is imported for the purpose. There is the sagger house where the mill is to be found and the making room where the pottery work. These two rooms only are utilized for the manufacture of saggers.

Then the two kilns in which these saggers with their contents of porcelain are placed to receive the action of the fire are immense structures of brick. They are 18 feet in diameter and 65 feet in height and have a capacity for fifty thousand door knobs each at a burning. The heat is supplied by coal, which is fed into the kiln by the means of eight fire holes. The porcelain clay is subjected to an intense heat for about thirty-six hours when the door is unsealed and the saggers taken out. A kiln is "run off" about once a week. It takes two days to fill it and about the same time to empty it. Upon leaving out of the first kiln the goods are taken from the saggers and sent to the sorting and packing department where they are sorted up and boxed ready for shipment.

WHERE CARBONS ARE MADE.
Upon entering the carbon branch of the works after a visit to the porcelain industry a great contrast at once strikes the visitor. In the latter place everything is snowy white and the dust that lies every place is like flour. In the carbon works everything is black as the blackest and the dust that covers workmen and shops is like powdered charcoal. In the manufacture of carbons the machinery is of a heavier class than was seen in the adjoining building. That the process of manufacture is somewhat complicated will be understood when the reader knows that the carbons are headed something like thirty-seven times from the time they enter in the raw material until they leave the works boxed and labelled for the purchaser.

The petroleum coke, from which the carbons are made, upon entering the works is introduced to the crusher where it is crushed into small pieces the size of peas. These are then ground in a large roller where it is fired for twenty-three hours. It is then elevated by carrying shafting to bins from which it passes through a process of milling similar to that to which flour is subjected. It next finds its way to the "mixer" where it is mixed over fire, after which it passes through the "pulverizer" and then goes on to a platform to cool. The material is now ready for carbons and the workmen take it and place it in the moulds, each mould containing eighteen carbons. A mould being filled the workmen heat it sufficiently to melt the pitch and place it in the hydraulic press where it is subjected to an enormous pressure.

This hydraulic press is applied by a man seated in front of its indicator and the power is supplied by a hydraulic pump in the engine room. It gives a pressure of six thousand pounds to the square inch, which means that each of the moulds receives a pressure of about four hundred and fifty tons. After this Herculean squeeze the carbons are stripped from the moulds in a pliable state and piled under a weight to dry. Then they go to the hands of youths who scrape the fine left from the mould off the carbons and they are ready for the ovens. There are two of these large ovens with a capacity for 75,000 carbons each which they are heating to fill, so that the demand continues to remain with them and in fact increase. The shipment of 10 many carbons and porcelain goods requires a supply of suitable boxes and these are made on the premises, together with all necessary patterns. In fact the works are most complete throughout and are operated with a system and smoothness which speaks well for the management.

Peterborough will feel proud that such a manufacture established in its midst has been so successful and that so many Canadian towns are lighted by the Brooks carbons. The company now employ over eighty hands and this number is likely to be increased at a near date as the porcelain goods win their way by their merits into the Canadian trade.

The manufacture of what is known as the Heath lamp is also carried on at the works, but is a side line from the two industries outlined above.

A Cure "Almost Miraculous"

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered, and to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well."

"Early in 1911 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Cure,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY

A CELEBRATED NERVE DOCTOR!

He Speaks Words of Truth!—Choose the Path of Wisdom!

The celebrated German neurologist, Adolph Heilmüller, says that excessive, exhausting and too long-continued work, and deprivation of the right amount of sleep, are some of the main causes for the increase of nerve troubles in our day. This well-known writer also asserts that severe mental application should not be continued more than three or four hours at a time; and that night work should be avoided altogether, as the excitement is apt to interfere with sleep. Sleep, he contends, is the principal agent of recuperation. He dwells on the fact that, sooner or later, insomnia wreaks its vengeance on all offenders; and he forcibly asserts that nerve troubles first develop into disease when joined with sleeplessness.

It cannot be denied that overwork of body and brain, with nervousness and sleeplessness, is causing widespread trouble and disaster in our land to day. The worker of the nineteenth century works beyond his strength, and in order to keep it up he resorts to stimulants, which produce a super-excitation of all the nerves, and to overcome this he resorts to narcotics—all of them deadly in effect.

The medical men of Canada know well that they are too often called on to attend such serious cases, and they are cognizant of the fact that these terribly dangerous and fatal troubles are on the increase. The great majority of doctors would much prefer to treat the ordinary ailments of life in which they are more successful. These subtle nerve diseases are complicated and difficult to reach by the ordinary methods now employed, and but few sufferers are ever cured.

Science, ever mighty when properly cultivated, has given to true and honest researches mighty agents for the benefit of mankind. Perhaps the most remarkable and wonderful of these discoveries of the nineteenth century has been Pain's Oeury Compound, an agent that has accomplished more good in the field of nerve diseases than all the combined efforts of physicians.

The nervous, sleepless, broken-down, worn-out, dyspeptic and rheumatic through the healing power of Pain's Oeury Compound, have found a new life, a fresh existence and new joys that no other earthly remedy or power could give them. Amongst the true and honest members of the medical profession Pain's Oeury Compound is the favorite, accepted and acknowledged remedy for nerve disorders, and is prescribed every day.

For several years I was persistently annoyed with so extreme accumulation of Deadwood and although using various preparations recommended and cheapening regularly once a week, no material relief was realized until my attention was called to Anti-Deadwood, which has produced unlooked for results in my case, four applications removing every particle of Deadwood and has a specific for this trouble it certainly has no equal.

Yours truly, W. T. ROBINSON, Can. Pac. Ry., Telegraph Co., Montreal, P. Q.

ting, dull headache, loss of taste or if you are afflicted with catarrh, and to pre-

Residential Electric Lighting.

The first residence in town to be lighted throughout by electricity is that of Mr.
Wm. Walsh on Dickson-st. The Electric Light Company completed the work on Saturday and the service supplied is most satisfactory. Every room in the residence is lighted by incandescent lights which are controlled by separate switches in each room. The light is highly successful and satisfactory for residential lighting and the effect is good, while the service is convenient and easily handled.

of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier entitles it to your confidence. No other preparation has such a record of cures of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Blood Poisoning, or other diseases. To try it is to know its merit. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.For a general family cathartic we confidently recommend Hood's Pills. They should be in every home medicine chest.

A Warning to Others.

Chief Bosses do not propose to allow the hotel men to bear all the punishment for violation of the Crooks Act, but will attempt to allow the law fall alike on those who sell the license holders to commit the breach. This morning two young men were in the Police Court to answer to a charge of obtaining liquor under prohibited hours on Sunday, 7th inst. One of the men who were accused pleaded not guilty and the other pleaded guilty. The other was fined $5 and costs.
The guilty was fined $5 and costs.

Mistaken Hockey Players.

The shabby match at the Ontario, "e-st."
rink last night was a source of much epicure for those present and of a great deal of hard work for the players. The game was the outcome of a supposition of several employees of the Edison Works that they could put on skates and go on the ice and discount or double discount the regular Edison hockey team. The game was to be shiny and shabby it was, up to the middle and down the sides. The battle waged warm for an hour and although the light was high, the best of good feeling prevailed.
The result was a complete defeat, a compelling vanquishing of the shabby players. The hockey men scored nine goals while their opponents scored only one. But don't think that the shabby players are downcast or a silent, dumb-found crowd. They are as game as ever, but they know, by facts, that they were not in it. Mr. Langton refereed the game.

NO NEED TO BE AFRAID

BECAUSE OF THE ATTACKS UPON
THE BIBLE.Annual Meeting of the Bible Society—More should be done.—Address by Rev. J. M.
Milligan, of Toronto.—The Discussion on the Bible—The Catechisms for the Youthful.It was an audience that partly filled the centre pews of St. Paul's church that assembled within that edifice last evening at the annual meeting of the Peterborough branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society.
It cannot be said that public interest runs high in regard to the Bible Society or its praise-worthy efforts to disseminate the Gospel, at least such would be the conclusion that would be reached by the statement of the chairman last night when speaking of the contributions. Yet although interest might be down at zero point, there should have been a crowded church to hear the speaker of the evening, Rev. J. M. Milligan, of St. Andrew's church, Toronto. However those present heard a stirring address delivered in the divine's energetic characteristic style.Sheriff Hall presided as chairman of the MOVING BACKWARD.

Sheriff Hall in presenting the reports said the committee which had met immediately before the meeting had decided owing to unavailability of the attendance of members not to nominate the officers or appoint the collectors, but would do so at a meeting at a near future date. He was glad to see that there was a small increase this year in the amount sent to Toronto, but it was not what it should be. He saw by looking at the reports of former years that when the town only had one-third of its present population, as far back as the year 1860 or thereabouts, they sent regularly $200. Some years they sent more but always that amount. The year before last they had only sent $45 and last year they had made it $76, an increase of $31. This should not be when the town had tripled its population and more than tripled in wealth.
They should go forward rather than backward. The committee intended to try and do better this year and he hoped next year they could report better results.The choir then rendered an anthem and the chairman introduced, without preface, the speaker of the evening.

THE EVENING'S ADDRESS.

Rev. Mr. Milligan chose the Bible as the subject of his address. In opening he referred to his disappointment last year. He very much regretted, he said, having missed a grand and consequently failing to be present at the meeting. Proceeding to his subject he said an infidel had said years ago that in fifty years the Bible would be an obsolete book. But never had so much interest, so much discussion been centered around the Bible as at present. So much was this the case that some people were beginning to fear for the Bible. He thought discussion promoted health and in twenty-five years this discussion would result in the triumph of the Bible. The Bible was a unique book. When they looked at the Bible they should look at it as a literature, look at it in its human history, see what it proved, try to realize the surroundings of the men in it, their social position, the nations influencing their domestic lives.
They must do this. The Bible was not a book for a slumber. They must take the Bible and diligently and rationally apply themselves to get its benefits, the same as men had to apply themselves to get the benefits of steam and electricity. They were to reverence the Bible. They thought they revered it when they did not quote it in humor or apply it in an unworthy or humorous way. But this was mock reverence. They were positively to reverence it and take it the same as a matter of business and study it, so that year by year it became more and more a real book. The Bible would become more and more to them
"as it was discussed. The great danger
"was that the advancement of the "light" was not this discussion but the sup-"world" questioning of fools. The Bible was officially a book of its unity of purpose. All the way through there was one great pur-"purpose. The Old Testament and the New "were two parts of one great record. The "speaker then referred to the great purpose
"manifest in the Old Testament, the aim of "God, the administration of His law, the "impressing upon the people their sin
"and their need of a Physician. When they "were utterly broken they were ready "for reformation. When men cried
"out of the depths they would "not forget. So Paul felt when he said he "could never do enough for Christ, who "rescued him from a terrible abyss. The "Bible was eminently a history, not a "philosophy.

IT WAS A HISTORY

of God's dealing with man, a history of the most important interests of men. He was not a stickler, but would confess that if it proved the historical inaccuracy of the Bible it would not bother him, because the Scriptures testified of Christ and His uniqueness of Christ proved to him that Hewas not of the earth. He did not like to speak of the Bible, he said, so much as an inspired book as a book of revelation.
Suppose it did not harmonize, suppose things did get misplaced, what about it?
It did not destroy the truth that Jesus came here, that He died, rose again and ascended up on high. The Bible, like a veil, unveiled Christ, but it was not the drapery they were to look at, but the face behind it. The Bible gave a new system of ideas, and he illustated words with the Gospel.
With the proper conception to say that the Bible did depend on any brittle verbalism was absurd. The Bible did not depend upon the infallibility of the printer, and he would say to young people, young men in particular, "Don't be in a hurry in decerting the Bible. Don't be in a hurry in taking up with new things, although some of them are well enough." There was nothing in the rag paper or printers' ink, but it was the contents they were to take and live by. When they found a passage they could not explain they should put it on the shelf and it would come right in time.
They could not all agree on all things, but they could dwell together for what they did agree on. Pro. Locke and he did not agree on all points, but they were on the same side and Bro. Locke in time would come to see as he did. The best thing to bring a boy up on was the catechism. They should give the youth the positive truth and not the critical.
As a man grew up he could stand more ex-posure. The destruction of the poor was the poverty and the enriching of the rich was their wealth. "Seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness and all things will be added unto you." They need not be afraid of all the attacks. They would not be a scratch of a pin on the Bible. There was no need of being afraid of the World, it was so unique and the great truths so self-evidential that it did not depend upon mere verbiage. The rev. speaker closed with an appeal to assist the Bible Society.

MORE SHOULD BE DONE.

Rev. Mr. Locke said he had felt since he came to the town that they were not doing what they should for the Bible Society. He hoped that the literature of the Bible Society would become more generally circulated therein for he believed this was all that was needed to make all take an interest. When they saw what the Society was doing they would be willing to help on the work. He concluded his remarks by referring to the obligation they owed to the eminent speaker of the evening for his presence there and closed by moving a vote of thanks to Rev.
Mr. Milligan.Rev. Mr. Torrance seconded the resolution and said he thought the great deal of the success of the Society depended upon the character of the canvass made. This year they proposed to divide the town into districts and have two ladies canvass each district. Two ladies of the Society had volunteered and he asked other volunteers to send in their names.
The vote of thanks was then put and carried. The meeting closed with a hymn and the benediction by Rev. Mr. MacWilliams.

PETERBOROUGH IN THE FINAL.

The Peterboroughs win Three Times and Play in the Final.The two Peterborough rinks were curling a great game at Toronto yesterday in the tankard bonspiel. At night they were one of the four undefeated rinks. In the morning they defeated the Hamilton Thistles, former winners of the tankard by 5 shots and in the afternoon they shot out Collins wood by 17 shots. In the first game Skip Bathford's rink defeated their opponents by 6 shots and Skip Ferguson was victorious by 8. In the afternoon Skip Bath-ford's majority was 8 and Skip Ferguson's
3. The Bonspiel says that Peterborough and the Granite rinks were the favorites.
Lakeland, who won the bye, fell out of the struggle in the first game, bowing to the Granites by 5 shots. The Peterborough rinks which played yesterday were composed as follows:—Q. W. Hume, R. B.
Davidson, Q. McGill, G. Ferguson,

Obituary.

Mr. T. L. Hoffman died yesterday at his residence on Albert-st., after a short illness.
He was taken ill on Wednesday evening and succumbed to inflammation of the lungs. Mr.
Hoffman, who was 74 years of age, was a native of Prince Edward County, and was a deacon of the U. E. Loyalists who settled last century. He was a veteran of 1837, having served the Government at the battle of Chrysler, and about forty years ago he came to Peterborough. In 1854 he began the manufacture of brick at Keene and was one of the first to establish that industry in this neighborhood, and about 25 years ago he returned to town, where he resided since, highly respected by all who knew him. The funeral will take place at 9 o'clock to-morrow afternoon from the family residence, 116 Albert-st., to the Little Lake Cemetery.

THE CENTRAL DIRECTORS.

Meeting of the Directors of the Peterborough Central Exhibition.The Board of Directors of the Peterborough Central Exhibition held their second meeting last night at the residence of the annual meeting of the society at the Morgan House yesterday afternoon. The business on the programme was appointing of officers and the prize list.Mr. Wm. Collins was re-appointed secretary and Mr. M. J. M. Collins, treasurer. The directors then voted into the prize list and revised it from class 1 to 35 inclusive, making several additions. A committee of ladies was appointed to revise classes 36 and 37 (ladies' work).
Mr. John Garbutt, of Smith, tendered his resignation as a director on account of ill health. The resignation was accepted.
Mr. Vance moved, seconded by Mr.
Bathford,—"That this Board of Directors has heard with regret that Mr. John Garbutt has found it necessary owing to ill health to resign his seat on this Board, as he has always been a serious and useful director, and we hope that he may in the near future be restored to his usual health and be able to resume his place on this Board, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to Mr. Garbutt by the Secretary."
Mr. Thos. Hall, of Smith, was appointed to fill the vacancy on the Board caused by Mr. Garbutt's resignation.
The Board then adjourned.

Reduction in Licenses.

To the Editor of the Review.

DEAR SIR,—In reply to a letter published in the Examiner on Wednesday evening, signed "Reduction," I would like with your permission to state some of the objections I hold to the opinion expressed therein. In regard to the implied opinion that the curtailing of the licenses by six would be the saving the corporation the necessity of sustaining from 75 to 100 families, I am entirely unable to agree.
Whoever the dealer is, whether he is has certainly stamped himself as one with a very limited experience with regard to liquor dealers or liquor drinkers. Who in the name of common sense ever heard of a confirmed drunkard such as deprives his family of a livelihood stopping drinking because five or six hotels had been struck off the list? As an evidence of this we have the lamentable experience of the Boot Act when an attempt was made to close all houses. Who then is the man that got drunk and convicted of drunkenness? Certainly not those who were in the habit of taking an occasional social drink, but the men whose families have to-day to apply to the corporation for charity. But, however, Mr. Editor, it is not a fact that liquor with all its evils, is not by any means responsible for all the charity dispensed in our city. It is an evidence of the best of authority that some of the adher-ents of the Salvation Army (surely a temperance organization) have been struck by an adverse wind and compelled to seek relief and aid, and as such is the case, now
do you think a reduction would help them?
As to Mr. Young's position in the question, our entering town, for I have it on the best of authority that some of the adher-ents of the Salvation Army (surely a temperance organization) have been struck by
an adverse wind and compelled to seek relief and aid, and as such is the case, now
do you think a reduction would help them?

prised not the vote of what is commonly called drunks, but the best of temperance in our town who surely ought to have an interest in our welfare.

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 years—Restored to Perfect Health.

For people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McLaughlin, a well known grocer of Hamilton, Ont. He says: "Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 120 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nervousness, and indigestion."

Intense Suffering

I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcome death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to come up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

THE VISIT TO WASHINGTON.

The visit to Washington of Mr. John Thompson, Hon. G. E. Foster and Hon. Mr. Bowell was an outcome of the correspondence that took place previous to the last general election. It will be remembered that a representative of the Newfoundland Government negotiated a treaty for that island with the United States. The Dominion Government asked to be included in the negotiations, and pointed out to the Imperial authorities how undesirable it would be for Newfoundland to make a treaty that would exclude and discriminate against the rest of British North America. Mr. Blaine at that time said that the United States would treat with Canada and a request was made for Canada to suggest a question for negotiations. That was done, and an appointment was made for an informal conference with representatives of this country. Sir Charles Tupper, Sir John Thompson and Mr. Foster went to Washington, but as the President wished to postpone the conference they returned. At that time the Liberal journals predicted that that would be the last of the matter, and they were chagrined when they learned that the three Ministers were on their way to Washington. What took place at this conference is not yet known, for in accordance with usage the proceedings were secret. The Empire's Ottawa correspondent under date of Feb. 17th says of the return of the Ministers:—

"They did not come back looking depressed and discouraged, as was to be expected of them. If the reports which have appeared in the press during the past few days were to be believed, Sir John and Mr. Bowell early paid a visit to the President, and had a long conversation with him on the subject of the conference, and it is probable that a meeting of the Cabinet will be held to-morrow to consider their report."

"Sir John Thompson in speaking to the Empire to-night said that nothing could exceed Mr. Blaine's courtesy, promptness and frankness, and it was a pleasure to meet and transact business with such a man of ability as is the United States Secretary of State. Sir John regretted that he could not state what had been done by the Ministers at Washington, as for the present the negotiations were confidential. It was not true that, either in Washington or since the return of the deputation, anything had been said about the conference. A gentleman who accompanied the deputation to the American capital said this last visit had confirmed in his mind the impression he had previously formed, that Mr. Blaine was head and shoulders over any other statesman in the United States. Referring to the alleged Washington despatches which have appeared in the Globe and other newspapers, in which the objects of the conference were portrayed in the worst light, it has been ascertained that these despatches of a home manufacturer, as what was going on were so wide of the mark that the Ministers must think it worth while contradicting them."

Ask Your Friends About It. You know it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured so many coughs and colds in this country. It is not a new sale has been won entirely by its genuineness. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so pure, none so effective. Large bottles 50c. and $1 at all druggists.

TESTING APPLES.

What is Being Done at the Ottawa Experimental Farm.

The following is an extract from the statement made by Mr. John Craig, Horticulturalist at the Ottawa Experimental Farm, before the Agricultural Committee of the House of Commons:

In large fruits we are making test of varieties running along two lines: first with the standard varieties chosen from the nursery men's catalogues of to-day. These are the product of the first introductions by the early settlers, as modified by selection and cultivation, and now called the American varieties. These varieties have mostly come to us from the western and middle parts of Europe as our settlers came from that region. The French colonists when they first came here brought with them the best fruits of their native locality; the English settlers followed and brought their favorites; and the Scotch, Irish and Welsh did the same with theirs; so that to begin with, as I have already stated, we had the fruits of western and the middle portions of Europe. I might say this class then, composed one side of the varieties tested. Secondly, the other class is made up of East European sorts which you have frequently heard referred to as "Russian apples," and I will draw attention to them quite often in the course of my remarks, as we are testing this class extensively. In order to give you an idea as to the causes which led to their introduction for trial into this country, I will relate briefly a few facts relating thereto, upon which blazed the beginning of the work.

Ever since the introduction of the Duke of Oldenburg from Russia by way of England, about 40 years ago, there has been a growing interest in the fruits of that cold climate. The first large importation was made in 1870 by the United States Department of Agriculture. This comprised 22 varieties, but owing to the very crude state of Russian pomology, evidenced by the many synonyms afterwards found in the collection, and coupled with long unpronounceable names—the work of sifting the good from the bad in this cumbersome list has been laborious and slow. Without going into details in regard to their merits and demerits I may say, that varieties have been found to repay all the expenses incurred in the work of introduction and trial; and when we look at the possible advantages to be derived from these foreigners by uniting them with our native varieties, thus obtaining hardiness on the one side and possibly quality on the other, the benefits likely to accrue are incalculable. I have said the first importation was made by the United States Department of Agriculture, but the credit of bringing this work to a practical and successful issue is due to a Canadian—one now departed—I refer to the late Chas. Gibb, of Lobofoord, Quebec. At great personal expense in company with Prof. Budd, of Iowa, he undertook the arduous task of visiting the various localities in which these fruits were grown, making notes on condition and quality of tree and fruit. The result of those investigations—a fair and unvarnished statement of fact—was published and is now the foundation of our knowledge of the Russian fruits. As far as we know at present any apple tree not up to the grade of hardiness of the Duke of Oldenburg or of Keweenaw is of doubtful usefulness for planting in the district of Ottawa or similar latitudes. I have referred to the work in apples. Experiments of a like nature have been carried on with pears, cherries and plums.

THE MISER.

The human race I have surveyed, The rich, the poor, in every shade, I think the smallest God has made is the low grovelling miser.

He hoards a coin, if only it be in his pocket, as if it were the mean soul of the miser.

No fellow feeling reaches him, Philanthropy he calls a whim, He looks down on low-down steam in the heart of that old miser.

On wretched man I will write that would buy the body proper food, Living on husks, if but he could, Such is the wealth—battered miser.

On earth he'll deserve a spot, He gathers but he scatters not, His heart is cold, his brain is hot, He hoards each piece and cent he gets, If he could learn the bills to split, Would learn the greedy miser.

At times elated, then distressed, His peevish soul can find no rest, Pressing his treasures to his breast, The chief idol of the miser.

His midnight dreams, his noonday thought, He hoards more riches can be got, On mounds of gold his fancies float—Go dig it up, you miser.

On troubled waves of conscience tossed, He must have gold at any cost, Though worldly peace and soul be lost, He hoards more riches can be got, If he could learn the bills to split, Would learn the greedy miser.

His wealth-bound soul is dead and cold To everything but gold and gold, His ruling passion, grasp and hold, He hoards more riches can be got, If he could learn the bills to split, Would learn the greedy miser.

No praise of men, no worldly's bright ray shines on that worthless piece of clay, His purses are his gods, but to lay up treasures like a miser.

No love for man, of God no fear, He hoards more riches can be got, Until God's voice sounds in his ear—He hoards more riches can be got, If he could learn the bills to split, Would learn the greedy miser.

His eyes grow dim, his feet feel cold, Before him lies his pile of gold, With his death grasp he strives to hold The treasures of a miser.

He holds them with a death-stamped face, He hoards more riches can be got, They will not purchase him a place In Heaven's blissful home—He hoards more riches can be got, If he could learn the bills to split, Would learn the greedy miser.

He gains no good from all his store, He hoards more riches can be got, All he owns now is six by four, The best place for a miser.

WM. T. FORD, Smith.

Prof. Blackie's Conference of Faith.

The following has been handed in for publication:—Prof. Blackie writes to The Scotsman: I perceive that the spokesman of the churches have been stirred to a churchy strife by the Duke of Argyll's most wise and instructive address to the night in defence of the common Protestant Presbyterian form of church government, to which Episcopacy, since the days of Luther, forms a notable and fashionable exception. I was dreading a theologian before I became a professor, and so the public may excuse me for giving 14 lines of my Confession of Faith on the matter.

HIGH CHURCH OR LOW? Creeds and Confessions! High Church or Low? I cannot say; but you would vastly please me if with some pointed Scripture you could show which of these belonged to the "Senior Jesus."

It is to all or none; not curious creeds, But order of forms of churchly rule he taught, With human good and human blessing taught.

One nor Priest, nor Presbyter, nor Pope, Bishop or Dean may stamp a party name; But Jesus, with His largely human name, The service of my human life may claim.

Let grateful priests do battle about creeds, The Church to mine that does most Christ-like deeds.

For several years I was persistently annoyed with an excessive accumulation of Dandruff, and although using various preparations recommended and changing regularly once a week, no material relief was realized until my attention was called to Anti-Dandruff, which has produced unlooked for results in my case, four applications removing every particle of Dandruff and as a specific for this trouble is certainly has no equal.

If all teas were alike you would be sure to know just what you are purchasing, but they are not. The difference in their quality are as wide as the difference in taste. Those who can tell good tea from bad know what a worthless article bad tea is, and they know what a luxury they have at their disposal when they can get a cup of good tea. The strange part of it is that while good tea commands a fair price it is not expensive. As you cannot tell whether it is good until you have tried it, you must rely on your dealers. Give our 40c. tea a trial and you will be more than pleased with it. We are also selling an extra tea for the low price of 30c.

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY FEBRUARY 19, 1892.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Rev. Mr. Curran.
The report of the annual meeting of the Baptist South Ward Mission S.S. is held over.

St. Paul's School.
A social under the auspices of the Y.P.S.C.E. will be held in the school room on Monday evening next, Feb. 22nd. A good time is expected and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

The Ladies' Bazaar.
The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasant to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet efficient in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Now for Bargains.
Having bought the bankrupt stock of the W. Metcalf business consisting of harnesses, saddlery, etc., I can offer some special bargains during the next month. Look these up at the sign of the Big Horse Head, Shortly, George-st.

Adam Hall's Offer.
Adam Hall is offering the best Canadian Oil in the market at 10 cents per Imperial gallon. This Oil is pure and safe and will be found superior to all others in the market. This is a great opportunity to consumers to have their oil filled, as we believe it is not sold at this price at any other town in Canada.

A Pleasant "At Home."
A pleasant "At Home" was held at the residence of the Mark-st. Methodist church, last evening. A very happy and enjoyable evening was spent and a programme of excellent numbers was rendered and highly appreciated by those present. Mr. Macbeth gave a reading, Messrs. McGrath, Cook and Dobbin two musical offerings, Mrs. Thom and Mrs. Wilmore two duets, Mr. Herbert gave a clever exhibition of club swinging, and Miss Minnie Hamilton a recitation. It was a social evening which delighted all who attended.

To the question. Which is your favorite poem? There may be a great variety of answers; but when asked, which is your favorite blood-purifier? there can be only one reply—Ayer's Sarsaparilla, because it is the purest, safest, and most economical.

Arrived at Court too Late.
John Gurney appeared at the Police Court this morning to answer a charge of assault. Eugene Koo charged Gurney with assaulting his wife, Camille Koo, and the accused was in court with a lawyer ready to defend the case. At ten o'clock the complainant had not appeared and after waiting ten minutes, the Magistrate advised the defendant to be on his guard in the future and not lay himself open to such a charge and dismissed the case. A few minutes after the court adjourned the complainant accompanied by his lawyer appeared, but it was too late, his tardiness had lost him a hearing.

Be Careful and Watchful!
Fast living, excesses and intemperance are productive of exhaustion, nervousness, sleeplessness, morbidness and paralysis. Thousands die yearly from these terrible diseases. If you feel any of these evils coming on, use Paine's Oxy Compound.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.
If you will send us your address we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Paine's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their amazing effect upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted send you a Belt and Appliances set.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

A Township Convention for Ontario held at Keene.

The Ontario Sunday School Association held a convention in the Methodist church in Keene on Wednesday, Feb. 17th, which was well attended. The first session was opened at 10 o'clock a. m. by Rev. F. Andrews, Rev. Jas. Thom, B. A., and Mr. Wand addressed the children.

The Nominating Committee named the following officers for the ensuing year:—
PRESIDENT—Jas. McNeil.
SECRETARY—B. English.

All the clergymen in the township and all Sunday school superintendents were appointed ex-officio members of the Executive Committee.

The Secretary read reports from the Ashburnham, Bethel, Cold Springs, River Road, Union, Lees, Villiers, Keene Methodist, Keene Presbyterian, and Greybrook Sunday schools, which were received.

The closing exercises were conducted by Rev. Mr. Thom.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
The convention resumed at 2 o'clock. Rev. F. Andrews gave a thoughtful address on the best method of promoting mission work in Sunday schools.

This was followed by five minutes address on "How the Parents of Sunday School Lesson" by Rev. Mr. Thom, Mrs. Curtis, Mr. John Borland, Mrs. Kindred, Mr. John Kindred, Miss Alice Curtis, Rev. Mr. Andrews, Mr. Jas. McNeil, Mr. Wand and Miss Brough.

After a hymn had been sung a conference on the same subject was opened by Rev. Mr. Curtis and continued by Messrs. John B. Borland, J. H. Taylor, W. Wand, Rev. J. Thom, Jas. McNeil, Mr. Wand and W. Macbeth.

The chairman made an announcement regarding the finances and a report was received from the Mather's Corners Sunday school.

EVENING SESSION.
The evening session was opened at 7 o'clock, Mr. James McNeil in the chair, with prayer by Rev. Mr. Thom.

Rev. Mr. Curtis gave an instructive address on "The Duty of Parents to Help the Sunday School Teacher."

Rev. Mr. Thom gave a practical address on "The Best Method of Promoting the Temperance Cause in the Sunday School."

These addresses were very interesting and will do much good in arousing greater interest in the work of the Sunday school on the part of parents and in having more attention given to temperance.

On motion of Rev. J. Curtis, seconded by Mr. G. Bacon, it was decided that the next convention be held in the third week in February, 1893.

The thanks of the convention was tendered to the speakers and officers and all who had assisted.

The convention was then closed with devotional exercises. Rev. Mr. Curtis pronouncing the benediction.

Rev. D. A. Thompson, of Hastings, and Rev. J. J. Kase, of Havelock, were unable to be present, but otherwise the programme was carried out as arranged, and the convention was a most interesting one, and will be productive of good results.

The prostration after the ship is entirely overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It really does make the weak strong.

Opening of the Y.W.C.A. Hall.
The new hall of the Young Women's Christian Association will be opened this evening. A good musical programme has been prepared and addresses will be given by pastors of the different churches. The public are cordially invited to be present. The hall is over Mr. H. Long's confectionery store.

The Great Safeguard!
If you are weak and predisposed to disease or contagion, fortify the body by using Paine's Oxy Compound. This great modern remedy is a safeguard against prevailing epidemics and sickness.

Keep Blood Pure.
Undoubtedly needs a thorough cleansing this season to expel impurities, keep up the health-tone and prevent disease. You should take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and system tonic. It is unequalled in positive medicinal merit.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, effective, but do not cause pain or griping. Be sure you get Hood's.

A Military Invitation.
An invitation has been received inviting "the Sergeant-Major of the 7th Battalion to ninth annual dinner of the Sergeant-Major and Sergeants of the Queens Own Rifles, of Toronto, which is to be held in the Q. O. R. mess room on the 26th." At present the Sergeant-Major of the 7th is vacant but a non-commissioned representative may be sent to represent the Battalion.

To Police Court Frequenters.
John Powers was arrested by Constable McGinty yesterday afternoon for drunkenness. At the Police Court he said it would not occur again. It was his first offence and the Magistrate allowed him to go. "And remember," said the Court "if you appear again it will be Central Prison. I have sent several to the Central Jail and I will send more. I don't propose to fill the goal with men who want to get in there." There is a note of warning in these remarks for general offenders.

By looking at the quotations of the Virginia tobacco market it will be found that the highest price paid for "fillers"—which is the tobacco which forms the body of the plug—very closely corresponds with the involved price of tobacco leaf imported into Ontario. As over four-fifths of all the leaf imported into the Province is for "Myrtle Navy" stock, this fact is official proof of the claim that the "Myrtle Navy" is made of the finest Virginia leaf.

St. Paul's Sunday School.
The anniversary tea and entertainment of the St. Paul's church Sunday school was an evening of fun and enjoyment for the children of the school. At 5:30 o'clock tea was served to the children. Miss F. Dixon and Mr. W. F. Nelson having these arrangements in charge. Then a programme was rendered in the commodious Sunday school room. Sheriff Hall, superintendent, presided. After the opening hymn the following was the programme. Rev. Mr. Milligan making a capital children's address, while the other contributors acquitted themselves most creditably:—

THE CURLERS COME HOME

AFTER DOING SOME GRAND PLAYING IN TORONTO.

The Tankard Lost by Six Shots—The Final Played in Water on Steps—The Peterborough Tankard Makes Good Reputation for Themselves—Ship Rutherford-Jas Played—The Tankard's History—The Peterborough's Will Receive Medals.

The two tankard rinks who had been battling so nobly in the tankard bonspiel in Toronto arrived home last night, and although they did not bring the tankard back with them, they made great records as curlers.

The news of their defeat in the final was welcome intelligence here last night for it was thought that they were sure winners. But when the despatch arrived "soft ice" the friends here grew dubious and it was the "soft ice" that lost the game.

There was a couple of inches of water on the ice when the match was played in the afternoon, which made it unfit for play. Skip Ferguson's rink was handicapped by this heavy ice and the other rink was crippled but Skip Rutherford and his Vice Skip, Sam Kay played a magnificent game.

The Toronto Empire refers to the former's play and Sam Kay could well have been mentioned too, for they both put up a game that dazzled their opponents. The umpire declared the ice unfit to play on in the afternoon, after Peterborough had defeated Belleville in the morning, but the Granites who were Peterborough's opponents in the final were best in playing and carried the day.

The Peterborough rink did not want to be let down light but they only wish the ice had remained in good condition so that they could have finished up the bonspiel in the form that they played all through. However the playing was good and the Empire thus tells the story:—

THE NORTHERN COMPETITION
for the Ontario Tankard, the premier curling trophy of Canada, has been played, and the Toronto Granites have proved the winners for the second time. When they won in 1886 they had not nearly so hard a contest as yesterday. Peterborough from the outset played a strong and consistent game, almost to the sending down of the last shot the result was in doubt. The excitement was something tremendous, the spacious gallery and the platform around the ice of the Victoria rink, where all the games were played yesterday, were crowded with spectators, who cheered with might and main as the final lodging place of every good stone sent down was decided. Skip Rutherford, of the Peterboroughs, is undoubtedly one of the finest curlers that ever stood on ice. His play is as good as his over true and reliable. Mr. T. G. Williamson, who took Mr. Matthews' place as skip of the rink opposed to Mr. Rutherford, is rightly accounted one of the best curlers in Toronto, but the Peterborough man was after him and on the spot every time so truly that he had five of the best of the score at the end. But Mr. C. G. Dalton, a veteran who has figured in every final for the last seven years and is the only skip in Toronto who has twice played on a winning rink, was altogether too strong for Mr. Ferguson, and as he secured a majority of 11, Mr. Rutherford's 5 melted in thin air, and the Toronto Granites came out ahead in probably the keenest competition that ever took place for the Ontario Tankard.

Although there were signs of a thaw outside the ice in the capital condition, but about noon it began to soften and later on water appeared on the surface. Secretary Russell and Umpire John Bain, of the Toronto Curling Club, proposed that the final of all should be postponed to another day, but neither the Granites nor their opponents desired that, and the match was accordingly played. Some of the Granites proposed that the scene of the fight should be removed to their own rink on Church street, but the visitors preferred to have the battle out where they were.

The morning games were watched with the keenest interest, Belleville and Peterborough both having a large number of admirers present. But the latter proved the strongest, although rink No. 1 was a tie that the Toronto Granites would heat. For some reason or other, appeared to be taken as a certainty and yet the Granites put up a very strong game. Public expectations, however, were not disappointed, and the Granites and Peterborough met for the final.

THE STORY OF THE ORIGIN of the Ontario Tankard can be briefly stated. When in 1874 the curlers of this province decided to decide from the Canadian branch of the Royal Canadian Curling Club and form a branch of their own, there was a surplus of about $1,300 in the treasury. It became a question as to what should be done with this money, and representations being made to the Canadian branch that it would be a good thing to provide two tankards, one to be played for by the Quebec clubs and the other by the Ontario, the suggestion was acted upon, and it was for the temporary possession of the trophy thus bought that the great fight has been raging in this province between 90 clubs for the last six weeks.

After the contention for the right of the custody had been decided yesterday afternoon, the curlers were invited to the reading room at the Victoria club. There, on motion of Secretary Russell, Mr. John Wright, president of the Toronto Curling Club, took the chair. Mr. Wright briefly welcomed the visitors, congratulated the Granites upon their well-earned victory, spoke in admiring terms of the gallant and plucky fight made by the gentlemen from Peterborough, and called upon Mr. J. S. Russell to present the tankard to the winners.

Dr. Wright thanked the branch and echoed the words of his namesake regarding the noble fight made by the Peterboroughs. Mr. Davidson, of the defeated club, told the Granites not to be too chirpy over their victory, and playfully reminded them of a certain whipping they received in Peterborough recently in a match for a medal.

Mr. W. Badenach, president of the branch, announced that he had decided to give a gold medal to the winning club, while Vice-president Beaton would give a silver one the runners up. In concluding his laughingly said that he had no doubt the Peterboroughs would wipe the ice with the Granites when they met them, as they intended to do next week. Then the victorious Granites formed in line, filed out and boarded a Carlton and College car for their own apartment home on Church-st., where Mr. Badenach had the tankard filled to the brim with Pommeys, and handsomely, hospitably and gallantly entertained the company.

THE WAY OF THE FINAL.
The following was the way the final was won by the Granites:—

OTHER CURLING GIFT-GRA.
Two rinks went to Port Hope yesterday and were defeated by 13 shots. There was a feature in the game which Skip Dennison good-naturedly laughs about. It was a seven and that the Port Hope rink and which so dumfounded the Peterborough rink that their opponents had made their lead 18 before they caught their breath.

The rinks and scores were:—

MACFARLANE WILSON,

Constipation,

If not remedied in season, it liable to become habitual and chronic. It is a purgative, by weakening the bowels, causing, rather than cure, the evil. Ayer's Pills, being mild, effective, and strengthening in their action, are generally recommended by the faculty as the best of purgatives.

"Having been subject, for years, to constipation, without being able to find much relief, I at last tried Ayer's Pills. I took both a dose and a pleasure to testify that I have found great benefit from their use. For over two years past I have taken one of these pills every night before retiring. I would not willingly be without them."—G. W. Bowman, 26 East Main st., Carleton Place, Ont.

"I have been taking Ayer's Pills, with good results. I fully endorse them as the best purgative for which they are recommended."—T. Connors, M. D., Centre Bridge, Pa.

"For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action. I am now in excellent health."—S. L. Longbridge, Bryan, Texas.

THE MISSING CURATE.

REV. MR. MARTIN WAS INDEED A GAY DECEIVER.

The Secret of the Departure of the Curate of Christ Church, Kingston, Beginning to Crop Out—Why He Failed to Marry the Young Lady to Whom He Was Engaged.

CHATHAM, Feb. 18.—The developments in the case of Rev. N. H. Martin, curate of Christ Church, who so mysteriously disappeared on Monday morning last, serve to show that the charitable construction placed upon his departure was misplaced, and that as long ago as six or seven years he had taken advantage of one of the three women to whom he was engaged to be married and that it was to avoid the exposure of his sin that he so suddenly decamped.

It will be recalled that the one of the women to whom he was engaged was Miss Sarah Bonet, and it was to this young lady he gave the extraordinary note published yesterday agreeing to marry her on Feb. 15 and giving her full possession and ownership of all the furniture and contents of his house.

How the Singular Deed Was Made.
A sister of Miss Bonet, Mrs. George Rudling, who resides in Kingston street, let the cat out of the bag. When interviewed she explained that Rev. Mr. Martin had repeatedly promised to marry her sister. The wedding was fixed upon originally for Feb. 8, and the supper was prepared and everything in shape for the wedding, but Martin failed to show up. In a day or two he was hunted up, and in the presence of the girl, her sister and the latter's husband said he was sorry he had been obliged to disappoint Sarah Monday, but would marry her for sure on the 15th.

Mrs. Rudling continued: "Give us a writing about the stuff in the house if it belongs to Sarah," said my husband. And Mr. Martin said, "Certainly, and also that I'll marry Sarah." He then sat down and wrote the paper you talk of. No, there is no truth in that. He never got a writing for damages for seduction against him. I will admit that he had a baby seven or eight years ago, but who to confess I don't know. But I know for a good while she has been true to Mr. Martin, feeling he would marry her.

Other Notable Engagements.
The other young ladies to whom the curate engaged himself were Miss E. Kitchen and Miss Deane, and in the houses of the parents of both these estimable young ladies every preparation had been made for the wedding, the date arranged with Miss Kitchen being Feb. 10 and with Miss Deane Feb. 12.

What the Pastor Left.
Christ Church paid Rev. N. H. Martin a salary of $1800 a year. His parsonage rent he paid himself. Mr. Martin came to Christ Church some 15 years ago from Walkerville. He has been a devoted and hardworking pastor. Archdeacon Sandys is the rector of Christ Church, although Mr. Martin has undertaken to largely discharge the duties of the principal office. He was liked by his people and was carrying on his pastoral work energetically and successfully.

A DOMESTIC REVENGE.
Young Girl Sent to the Mercers for Burning Her Employer's Barn.

WARR, Feb. 18.—Before Judge Darnley a girl of 14 years named Ellen Berry was charged with incendiarism. This girl was taken from an industrial home in Toronto by a farmer near Wrentham, Brook, named Obed E. Bagshaw. She was to remain an inmate of his house during her minority. A few days ago Mrs. Bagshaw scolded the girl for some misconduct and shortly afterwards the latter slipped off with some matches and set Mr. Bagshaw's barn on fire. In the conflagration which burned about 80000 worth of property was lost, including among other things 60 head of cattle. The girl admitted having committed the crime and appeared to be quite hardened. The judge sentenced her to two years in the Mercer Reformatory.

Mr. William Buchanan, 24 years engineer in the Cunard Steamship Company's service, 8 St. John's Road, Kirkdale, Liverpool, Eng., writes: "I suffered two years of agony from an affection in the head which six physicians pronounced incurable. They were divided in opinion as to whether it was acute neuralgia of the brain, but all agreed that I could never recover. In my paroxysms of pain it needed two and sometimes three men to hold me down in bed. When at death's door,

ST. JACOBS OIL

was applied to my head. It acted like magic. It saved my life. I am well and hearty, and have had no return of the trouble."

"ALL RIGHT! ST. JACOBS OIL DID IT."

ANNOUNCEMENT

The time has arrived when it seems
most important that we should communicate with friends, patrons and the public generally, regarding the prospects and opportunities for economically securing
such goods as change of season makes necessary for you to have. Having secured a new and seasonable stock under advantageous circumstances, and feeling
confident we are in a position to offer actual bargains, we look about us for some method of announcing this fact in
a manner which will convince you we
are honest and earnest in our claims.

The readers of the REVIEW will find
facts in plain words concerning our goods and prices. Perhaps we talk strong, but our stock will admit of it.
We talk to the point, not with any desire to boast over our attractions, but
with a determination to have it known
that you will stand in your own right
if you fail to see our new line of Seasonable Goods. Great care has been expended to secure only the newest, choicest
and most desirable. The state of the market has been such as to afford the cash buyer unparalleled opportunities for securing excellent goods at very low figures. Careful and judicious buying
at hardpan prices, together with close attention to the wants of our trade, has secured us a stock which, in completeness
and general excellence cannot be equal-
led. Come and see us.

JESSE JAMES OUTDONE.

THE STAR OF THE WESTERN BANDIT

PALES

Before the Daring Hero of his Eastern Rival, Who Robs an Express Car, Shoots the Messenger, Steals an Engine at the Point of a Revolver and Keeps Up a Running Fire from the Cab of the Locomotive at His Pursuers—Finally Captured.

ROCHESTER, Feb. 22.—The shooting of an express messenger on a Central Hudson train, the riding of a valuable safe, the flight of the robber on the engine of another train, from which he drove the crew at the point of a revolver; running light from the engine cab for miles, chased by another engine filled with railway men and the capture of the desper-ado by a sheriff's posse in a swamp after a wild pursuit across the country—these are some of the sensational features of the most desperate attempt at train robbery in the history of the Central Hudson Railway. The express car in the shade as an exhibition of courage and nerve, the famous exploits of the Jesse James band or other outlaws of Western fame.

Train No. 3 on the Central Hudson is known as the Express Company's special.
It runs every day in the year between New York and Buffalo and carries only goods and property shipped by that company.

The train leaves New York at 9 o'clock each evening and is due in this city at 7:05 o'clock in the morning. Nearly all the cars run through to Chicago and it contain the most valuable express matter.

The Famous "Money Car."

One car is known as the "money" car and in it is stored the specie from the United States Treasury for Western banks, as well as money in process of exchange between banks of New York and the West.
The load of wealth sent from New York on this train is usually greater on Saturday evening than on other days and often amounts to more than a million dollars, in addition to jewelry and other valuable goods.

One of the most trusted messengers of the company and sometimes several are placed in charge of this car. So great is the secrecy observed in regard to this car and its contents that often the crew of the train do not know in which car the money is carried.

The Robber's Appearance.

Daniel T. McInerney of this city was in charge of the money car on the trip Saturday night. The train was made up of three express cars and a day coach for the accommodation of the regular train crew. Only one messenger was assigned to the money car, as the work of looking after it.

Purify

The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is hereditary and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is more contamination than the power of Blood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. Thousands testify to the superiority of Blood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. Full information and statements of cures sent free.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1922.

TWO MORE GAINS.

Two more elections on Saturday and two more gains for the Conservatives. In East Hastings a Liberal majority of 54 in March last was turned into a Conservative majority of 415. The change was general throughout the riding. Deseronto and Tweed increased their Conservative majorities and in every township the Government candidate made gains.

In South Ontario the result was brought about in much the same way, a Liberal majority of 38 being turned into a Conservative majority of 197, and the Conservative candidate having a majority without the vote in the towns.

The Globe, having nothing else to fall back upon and making its usual about about bribery in East Hastings. That is all someone. The Liberals used money in East Hastings and would have used more had not the Conservatives watched closely the men who came into the riding for that purpose.

The Liberal policy, the more it is understood, is less liked by the people, and as the discussion of it proceeds the majority against it increases.

The People are not all Dead.

A lady man, whose horses and cart were stuck in the mud, prayed to Jupiter for help. Jupiter answered: "Fool! get up and get your horse out of the mud, and do not call on me when you can help your self." Foolish people buy medicines haphazard, blindly trusting to promises made without a guarantee. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is guaranteed to cure colds, coughs, all lung affections, and even Consumption in its early stages. It puts to rout all stomach troubles, purifies the blood, drives venereal action to the lungs, liver, and drives blood from the skin. It is an honest medicine, and an invaluable health insurance policy, which should never be allowed to lapse. All druggists keep it.

Light! Light! Light!

A lamp is offering the best Canadian Oil in the market at 10 cents per imperial gallon. This oil is pure and safe and will be found superior to all others in the market. This is a great opportunity to consumers to have their lamps filled, as we believe it is not sold at this price at any other town in Canada.

Sale of Town Lots.

We direct attention to the bills advertising the auction sale of Town Lots, namely:—The south half of lot number one, south of Rink-st. and east of George-st., (the Magazine lot) and lots 2 and 4 north of Townsend-st. and west of George-st. The sale takes place at the Town Council Chamber, at 3 o'clock on Monday the 27th inst.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning—the signal, perhaps, of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, consumption? Ask yourself: "Can you afford, for the sake of saving time, to run the risk and do nothing for it?" We know from experience that Hall's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails.

THE BREALEY-GRANGE CASE.

The Second Charge Dismissed—The Question of the Order for Bonds.

The Brealey-Grange case made its appearance again in the Police Court this morning when the second charge against J. J. Brealey laid by Wm. Swinton was brought up. This charge is like unto the first preferred by Andrew Young and its object was to have Mr. Brealey bound over to keep the peace. The matter was enlarged for one week to allow the defendant to give the bonds as ordered by the Magistrate last week in the first charge. These bonds when given will practically cover both charges. Mr. R. B. Edwards and Mr. O. M. Roger appeared for the prosecution and Mr. E. B. Stone for the defendant, who is still reported to be unable to attend Court.

The matter of the Court's order in the former case was brought up again. Mr. Edwards inquired if an order had been made ordering the complainants to furnish bonds when no informations had been laid against them. If so he wanted to take the necessary action in the case to have the order set aside.

Mr. Stone said on behalf of his client he had not asked the order made out and consented to have it withdrawn.

Mr. Edwards—Do I understand that there is no such order?

The Magistrate—I understood at the time that Mr. Stone requested that the complainants be bound over, and I made such order, which I had a perfect legal right to do. Mr. Stone has withdrawn his request and the order is withdrawn. I did make an order and if Mr. Stone had not withdrawn his request the order would have stood.

Cheese Board.

A report of the annual meeting of the Cheese Board on Saturday is held over.

The great majority of so-called cough cures do little more than impair the digestive functions and create bile. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, on the contrary, while it cures the cough, does not interfere with the functions of either stomach or liver.

V. M. C. A. Notes.

On Saturday evening Messrs. Early and Miller and the General Secretary, gave their impressions of the Provincial Convention held last week at London, which served to interest the young men present, and a very helpful after-meeting was held with good results.

Mr. Thomas Dodds led the Bible study and consecration service on Sabbath morning very profitably. The attendance was excellent, and much interest was manifested.

Mr. R. W. Russell's earnest and practical talk at the personal purity meeting yesterday afternoon was much appreciated by the young men present and we are hoping for results from it. The orchestra led the singing.

Last evening the attendance and interest were good at the gospel and song service. Mr. Early gave a short talk on the work being done by the Y.M.C.A. and what was done at the London Convention. Mr. George Gilchrist, one of our active members who leaves this week for Vancouver, B.C., spoke on the benefits derived from the association and bid us God speed and farewell. It was a time of refreshing from the presence of the Lord.

The adjourned annual meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 4 p.m., all ladies in town interested in the work for young men should come will be presented and officers elected.

Ask Your Friends About It

Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured so many coughs and colds in this community. Its remarkable sale has been won entirely by its genuine merit. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so pure, none so effective. Large bottles 50c and $1 at all druggists.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers from the children's tenderest years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, soothes the natural quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums always pain, relieves colic, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea whether arising from teething or other cause. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

MONTREAL, Aug. 4th, 1861.

It is a pleasure for me to say good words in favor of Anti-Dandruff as its merit cannot be questioned. In my own case Dandruff not only made itself known by appearance in more than liberal quantities from which I could not obtain relief, but its continued presence and increasing formation caused falling of the hair. My barber spoke highly of Anti-Dandruff. I used it, and not only has every trace of Dandruff disappeared but the falling of the hair has stopped. Having full faith in the preparation I not only endorse it for the above but further add that as a fine dressing for the hair nothing equals it.

Obituary.
The death is announced of Mrs. Masters, an old resident of Peterborough, at the advanced age of 77 years. For some time Mrs. Masters has resided with her son-in-law, Mr. James Alexander, at Toronto, where she died on Monday, the 22nd inst. Your Blood.
Undoubtedly needs a thorough cleansing this season to expel impurities, keep up the health and prevent disease. You should take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and system tonic. It is unequalled in positive medicinal merit.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, effective, but not cause pain or gripes. Be sure to get Hood's.

Personal.
Mr. Robt. Pierce, late of Brantford, who has been employed at the Edison works here for one month past has resigned his position there, to accept the agency for this district of the Covenant Mutual Benefit Association of Cambridge, Ill. Mr. Pierce has already established himself in the warmest friendship of the local Odd-fellows and will be found by all with whom he may have to do business a courteous straight forward gentleman. The Association he represents is well known to members of the I.O.O.F. and now that the general public are admitted among its policy holders the opportunities for successful work are greater as the field is larger. His friends will wish Mr. Pierce success in his new work. He also proposes to undertake the instruction of Odd-fellows lodges in the dramatized form work and any brother of the local lodges or any who have witnessed the work as it is exemplified here under his instruction will be only too ready to recommend him as a team instructor of superior ability. The work as he has established it is equal to it not ahead of any exemplification that has been seen.

THE GREAT NORTH WEST WHAT THE PRESBYTERIANS ARE DO- ING THERE.

Discourse by Rev. Dr. Robertson, Superintendent of Northwest Missions—The Progress of Ten Years—Figures Showing What has Been Done—What has yet to be Done.

Prof. Dr. Robertson, Superintendent of the Northwest Missions of the Presbyterian church, was in town yesterday and preached at two services. In the morning he was at St. Paul's church and in the evening had occupied the pulpit at St. Andrew's.

THE MORNING DISCOURSE.
The large congregation which was assembled at the morning service at St. Paul's received considerable insight into mission work in the great Northwest and gathered a great deal of information in regard to that field of the church's missionary enterprise. Rev. Dr. Robertson took for the basis of his discourse the words:

"Another parable put he forth unto them saying: The Kingdom of Heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field."

Which indeed is the least of all seeds, but when it is grown it is the greatest among herbs and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

Another parable spake he unto them: The Kingdom of Heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took and laid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened."

These two parables, said the rev. gentleman, were complementary to one another. The one referred to the extension of the Gospel and the other had reference to the cleansing, the elevating, the purifying of the Kingdom of Christ. Christ told His disciples His Kingdom was to be one and wide and His religion would be the religion of the race. At the time this was uttered it seemed very unlikely.

To the human eye Christ was nothing more than a Jewish peasant followed by a number of other peasants. Their nation was under Roman rule and to think such of such a nation would establish a Kingdom that could be one and wide was unlikely. Yet they found the Gospel which left Jerusalem with staff and wallet in less than three hundred years clothed in gold and purple in Rome. The Gospel had spread. These were the most progressive nations which were Christian nations. They were the people who made the most progress in literature, science and art and would best extend the knowledge of the Gospel to others. He supposed during the last one hundred years half of the present Christians had embraced Christianity. In other words one hundred years ago those professing Christianity numbered two hundred million whereas to-day they numbered four hundred million. It was the true religion which had for its purpose the elevating of men, making them more like Jesus Christ. The Gospel was given to be a leaven and Christ's idea was that this leaven should go on working until all had come to the knowledge of the truth. This told why the Gospel should be disseminated—because it was a leaven, leavening society. They could easily understand that if the Gospel was to do its work they were to keep all countries in touch with Jesus Christ. It would not do to gain this, that and the other province or this, that and the other kingdom and go on and allow the evil one to come behind and come in and dispossess them.

In fact they could not successfully carry on foreign mission work until they could point the hearer to what the Gospel had done for themselves. He had talked with one of forty-eight Chinese who were returning to their own country and the man had said "You say we smoke opium, well don't your people drink whiskey? You say we gamble, don't your people gamble, at the horse race, playing baseball and betting? You say we are immoral, so some of our people are, but what is that house over there, and that. We are returning home and will tell our people that your teaching is good, very good, but you do not live by it, you do not practice it." The rev. gentleman said he trembled at the injury that had thus been done and was sorry to see the forty-eight Chinese returning home unconvinced and with so many evidences to point to in this land and the United States. They must show to the hearer the benefits of the Gospel to some in our own land. In the west the Chinese were coming over to this country by the thousands and were studying our religion and institutions to go back and tell their people. They should let them see that Christianity had done a marvelous work among us. The rev. speaker took up the subject which was perhaps nearest his heart, the Northwest mission. He said he had come to tell them a little of the work in the west. It was their own work, and he felt it was due to them for him once in every two years to let them know.

WHAT THEY WERE DOING.
and what was to be done. There had been going to the West a steady stream of emigrants, not a large stream but a steady one and in consequence of the good crops of last year it was probable that the emigration this year would be in advance of any year since '81 and '82. As these people were going west it was the duty of the church to provide the means of grace, for if left alone they would drop into indifference and sink into sin and vice. They had been encouraged by the progress of the church's work and he would give them some figures to indicate what this work had been. Ten years ago they had two emigrants between Lake Superior and the Pacific Coast. Now they had 71 and of these 43 were self-sustaining. They had on the communication roll ten years ago 1153 names in comparison to 14,800 at the present time. Ten years ago they had preachers of the gospel at 115 stations, and last summer they had missionaries preaching at 836 stations, and at 189 of these no other church was carrying on the Christian work but themselves. They might ask "Are these people helping themselves?" Yes. Ten years ago they contributed towards their own support $14,100 and last year they gave $194,708. This was giving at the rate of $19.00 per member, and at St. Paul's they were giving at the rate of $19.80. They never expect a large congregation to give as much per individual member as the small, but it was due to them to tell them the case so that they would see that the people of the West were not leaning unduly on the support of the people of the East. There were this winter 150 mission stations where no services of any kind were being held. This was because of two reasons, they had not suitable men, and if they had they had not the means to send them. Ten years ago they had 25 missionaries, while last year they had 145 in the field, and this year they wanted to send out twenty-five or twenty-six more men if they had the funds. The preacher then dealt upon the work which they wanted to do, relating instances of the opening up of stations as illustrating the great necessity there was in many places for missionaries. There had been 122 churches and manse built representing a capital of $400,000. This was by the aid of the church and manse building fund established some years ago. There was much to encourage, as was seen, but it was discouraging not to be able to undertake the work. The mining camps and settled districts required the Gospel. There was wealth in that country and all it wanted was development. How important it was then that this wealth be developed in the hands of Christian people. He told of what had been done by generous gentlemen and ladies in Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto in assisting to send out missionaries and hoped that the young people of the church would see their way to undertake to support a missionary in the field.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

The Late Cardinal Manning and Rev. Mr. Spurgeon the Subject of a Sermon—Church Notes.

Rev. E. F. Torrance last evening at St. Paul's church devoted an exceedingly able discourse to the late Cardinal Manning and Rev. Mr. Spurgeon. The sermon was one which set the lives of these two great divines before the eyes of the congregation in a most interesting manner and the undivided attention accorded the rev. gentleman told that the biographical discourse was received with interest. The St. Paul's pastor based his discourse on the words:

"Whoso follow, considering the end of their conversation."—Hebrews xiii, 7.

After his opening words the rev. gentleman first spoke of Cardinal Manning, giving a brief record of his life and referring to the incidents which led to his departure from the Church of England to the church of Rome. Cardinal Manning, he said, was a formidable controversial writer, a powerful preacher and one who took a prominent part in philanthropic work. The preacher gladly recognized his splendid qualities but it was doubtful whether he had done much to injure the church of England or to advance the church of Rome. His reference to the great London preacher of the Metropolitan tabernacle was more extended.

He sketched his life and related many incidents and anecdotes illustrative of his remarkable gifts and of his success as a preacher, writer and philanthropist. They might be led to ask, he said, what was the secret of Mr. Spurgeon's great success. It was due in a marked degree to his great natural and spiritual gifts. A casual observer would see nothing striking in the face of the great preacher, but others could see lines of a powerful man. He had natural gifts of a great memory, a rich full voice like a bell which filled every corner of the great tabernacle, a ready wit, a man born to lead and a sincere man. His spiritual gifts were equally as great. He was a man full of the Holy Ghost and the Spirit of God and when he listened to him pray he felt that he heard a man talking to a friend. No man's death in the present century, or he doubted if in any, was more deeply mourned than his. Thousands felt they had a personal friend. His name would go down to posterity as one of the greatest preachers since apostolic times with Bunyan, Calvin and the good army of great ones. In closing the rev. gentleman said:

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
They might not all be great, that was the privilege of very few. But if they could not be great they could be good.

The Christian Endeavor Society of St. Paul's church held a social reunion for the young people of the church this evening. John B. Clarke, the bookbinder orator, to be in the Charlotte-st. Methodist church next Sabbath. In the evening he gives his temperance address entitled "Moral Heroism."

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor will deliver a charity lecture at St. Peter's Cathedral next Sunday evening after vespers. The lecture is the Annual one in behalf of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Rev. W. H. Cook, of Owan, occupied the pulpit at the George-st. Methodist church yesterday morning. Mr. E. Thorpe, of Ashburnham, preached at the evening service.

Rev. Mr. Locke, of the George-st. Methodist church, was conducting services at the Methodist church in Owan yesterday.

THE LMBEZZLEMENT CHARGE.

Goldsmith English Receives His Preliminary Trial—Judgment Reserved.

The charge of embezzlement against Goldsmith English preferred by Mr. Morton, of Montreal, Manager of the Singer Manufacturing Co., came up on enlargement for preliminary hearing at the Police Court this morning. The charge is that the accused did embezzle a promissory note while in the service of the Singer Company.

Mr. E. E. Wood appeared for the prosecution and Mr. E. E. Edwards for the defence. At the first hearing a week ago the Magistrate had decided not to try the case and the evidence for a preliminary trial was proceeded with.

Mrs. Davidson, the young lady who had been book-keeper with the Singer Agency at the time of the alleged offence, gave her evidence in regard to the defendant taking a machine out and saying that he placed it with Mr. Blackwell. He never made any return for the machine, while she was there and when she asked him to either bring it in or make a report he said the prospect was good but the people did not want to sign any paper and would not pay any cash until they had sold some of their produce. To Mr. Edwards she said there were other agents who had machines out for a number of months.

Miss Ives Martin had been in Miss Davidson's position as book-keeper when that young lady left the Singer Company's employ. No return had yet been made for the machine in question nor did she recollect ever speaking to Mr. English in regard to it.

months ago so that English could get it cashed.

Mr. W. D. Parker, accountant of the Ontario Bank, told of the note produced of Blackwell to English. He had discounted it on the 27th of September, 1891, and gave the proceeds to English and took his receipt for the money.

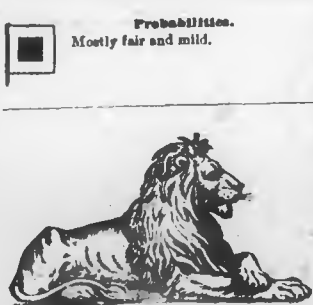

Mr. J. W. McCleary, the local representative of the Singer Co., was next sworn. The prisoner had been working for the company for about two years. To Mr. Edwards the witness said that at first the prisoner was a good agent. There had been no ill-feelings between him and Mr. English until lately. He had had no words with prisoner at any time. English did complain that the company had not treated him fairly in regard to collections. He complained that he was keeping the company's horse and was getting nothing to ride. English told him that he had placed a machine with Mr. Blackwell but that the latter gentleman would not sign a note and could not settle until he sold some produce. He did not in January tell the witness he would settle for the machine if he would give him more. The prisoner never stated in his presence that he had placed a machine with Mr. Blackwell but that the latter gentleman would not sign a note and could not settle until he sold some produce. WHERE IS HER CREW.

DRIVEN BY FIRE TO DEATH IN THE SEA.

Locked in Each Other's Arms Captain Boyd and His Wife Fell With the Blazing Remains of the Doomed Lodoiana—Nightmen Hunt Were Aboard
the Loodiana, But No Trace of Them Could Be Found For Miles Around.

New York, Feb. 23.—The sailing vessel Loodiana of Nova Scotia left the port of New York with a cargo of petroleum for London two months ago. She was owned in Windsor, Nova Scotia, and was of 1874 tons register. After her departure from New York on Dec. 21 nothing was heard of the ship until three weeks ago.

The arrival of the steamship Egyptian Monarch at London in the latter part of January confirmed the rumor of the disappearance of Loodiana, but added to the disaster by the report that she had been sighted on fire. It was stated that she had seen the Loodiana blazing fiercely in mid-ocean. Two persons were on board, but before they could be rescued the flames forced their way into the vessel and they were drowned within sight of their would-be rescuers.

The Egyptian Monarch arrived at Quarantine yesterday morning and reached her dock at Wilton's Stores, Brooklyn, in the afternoon. Second Officer Jordan, who was on the bridge on the night of Jan.
16, told the story of the burning of the Loodiana.

"I was on the lookout. The wind was blowing furiously and the sea was mounting high above us. Suddenly away over on the port bow I saw a glare in the heavy sky. At first I thought it was only a sailing vessel showing a star light to some off passing vessel. Then I saw a sudden flash and what seemed to be an explosion lighting up the horizon for miles around.
Seeing a glare of fire, I went to the foremast. I went for Capt. Irvin, who came on deck immediately. He gave orders to take in all sail, and the Egyptian Monarch was headed in the direction of the light.

"At 1.30 a.m. we rounded to near the burning vessel. It was the Loodiana, and she was ablaze from stem to stern. The flames had nearly reached the bows. In the bright glare I saw two figures sitting astride the jibboom. The flames were then so close that I saw a man and a woman, who were clinging to each other.
Afterwards I learned that they were the captain and his wife.

"There was no hope of saving the vessel,
even if any one had thought of doing so.
The flames had run up the masts and rigging, and had obtained such a hold that nothing was to be done but to let her burn. The flames had nearly reached the bows. In the bright glare I saw two figures sitting astride the jibboom. The flames were then so close that I saw a man and a woman, who were clinging to each other. Afterwards I learned that they were the captain and his wife.

sible. The two men, who were sitting astride the jibboom, were holding on to each other. The flames had nearly reached

TWO MAY DIE

Quarrelling Hungarians Use Their Knives
With Terrible Effect.

LETTERIDGE, N.W.T., Feb. 23.—On Saturday evening a number of Hungarians were in the bar of the McKenzie House when an altercation arose between two young men, Adam Vargo and Frank Tykdyk. The quarrel had scarcely begun when the latter whipped out a clasp knife and, before any one could interfere, stabbed Vargo twice, once in the face near the ear and again in the back.
The assailant was arrested.

Later in the evening, between 12 and 1 o'clock, a party of Hungarians were passing the boarding house in the railway yard near the track. Joe Tojan, a Slav, was chopping wood at the door, and Paul Onwick, one of the party, called him an insulting name. A few words ensued and Onwick rushed upon Tojan brandishing an ugly knife in his left hand. There was a groan and Tojan fell to the ground insensible, with the blood pouring from a terrible wound in his right breast. The knife had been sunk deeply in the man's breast and given a twist, making a ghastly cut and severing a large artery. It is doubtful if he will recover. Onwick was arrested.

The Wedding Consummated.

BRANTFORD, Feb. 23.—Mr. W. A. Davis, the young man who was arrested here some time ago on a charge of burglary at Cook-ville, a station on the C. P. R., arrived in the city on Saturday.

Davis was the night operator at the Cookville station. H. G. Reid was the station master. Thirty dollars was stolen and Reid accused Davis. In the court at Brantford it was shown that the die had been cast in the money had not been in the safe in the station, but in Reid's residence, and was taken out of a book in which he placed it. The residence adjoins the station. The Judge after hearing both sides of the case acquitted the accused.

This afternoon the marriage of Davis which was so unreasonably postponed on a previous occasion, on account of his arrest for larceny, took place. The bride was Miss Nellie Dowling, daughter of Mr.
Thomas Dowling, Northborough-street.
The Rev. T. N. Johnston, pastor of the First Baptist Church, performed the ceremony.

Killed by Death.

CALX, Feb. 23.—William Huntberger, aged 57, employed on the farm of J. C.
Dietrich on the (Hill-road near Galt as a farm hand, was found this evening lying on the floor of the stable in a dying condition.
Doctors were summoned, but death had occurred prior to their arrival. Upon examination it was found that the ribs were crushed in over the heart, caused by the kick of a horse. Huntberger had been working the horses during the day and was alone engaged fixing them in the stable for the night when the accident occurred.

New Brunswick's New Schemes.

OTTAWA, Feb. 23.—Solicitor-General
Fugley of New Brunswick, who is here attending the Supreme Court, informed a correspondent to-day that there will be a deficit of about $70,000 in the province for the year ending December 31st last. It is proposed to make up this deficit by issuing bonds, the same as is now done in Ontario. So far these licenses have been under the control of the municipalities.
It is also understood that a provincial tax will be placed on telephone and telegraph

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

St. John's Church.

To-morrow being St. Matthew's Day there will be service in the afternoon at 4.15 o'clock.

Miss M. Harris, 222 Hartwood, Ottawa.

Was the fortunate person to secure the elegant Gold Watch from the Ladies' Elégant Weekly's (of Toronto, Ontario). Prize Competition for Thursday. Watches and other prizes given away daily. Send two three cent stamps for particulars.

The Lights of a Church.

The Murray-st. Baptist church is now lighted by an incandescent service which was turned on for the first time last Sunday. Sixteen 25 candle power lamps have been placed in the edifice by the Electric Light & Power Co. The service was most satisfactory, the beautiful light greatly pleasing the congregation. A couple additional lights may be placed in front of the church and this will complete the illumination.If you are troubled with hawking and spitting, dull headaches, loss of taste or smell, you are afflicted with catarrh, and to prevent its developing into consumption, Nasal Rinse should be used promptly. There is no case of catarrh which will not cure, and for cold in the head it gives immediate relief. Try it.
All dealers.

Races at Norwood.

Races were held on the ice at Norwood yesterday and several of the local horsemen went down to take them in. Two events were run off and afforded good sport for the spectators. In the green race Alex.
Paterson's "Herald" took first and F. J. Daly's mare won second money. In the three minute trot Collins' "Dick Smith" carried first place and John Newall's Gladstone took second. The races were to be continued to-day if the ice was in condition.

After the Grip.

And after typhoid fever, diphtheria, pneumonia, or other protracted disease, Hood's Pills are just what is needed to restore the strength and vigor so much desired, and to expel all poisons from the blood. It has had wonderful success in every such case.

Hood's Pills not especially upon the liver,

ridding it from torpidity to its natural duties,
care constipation and assist digestion.

The All-Night Lights.

The Electric Light and Power Co. have placed in their station a new 40 light Thompson & Houston arc machine. This machine is to supply the additional arc street lamps called for by the town's agreement with the company made at the end of last year for thirty-one additional lights and an all-night service. The wires for these lamps have all been strung and now that the machine is in place all is ready for the additional service except the lamps. These are expected here every day and will be "hung up" probably before another week. The all-night service, about which there has been many inquiries will probably be given in about a week, while all the additional lamps may not be in position quite so soon.

To Sufferers Dehydrated Men.

If you will send us your address we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dyke's Celebrated Electro-Vulcanic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effect upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and make you a healthy man. If you are afflicted with any of the above named ailments, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on trial.It is estimated there are five thousand different kinds of pills on the market.
Should one be able to test the entire lot for a perfect specific in sick headache, foul stomach, habitual constipation and liver complications then only one would be found; Morris's Bismuth Pills, they care where others only relieve. Price 25 cts.

DIED IN MONTANA.

A Former Resident of Peterborough Carried Away by a Grippe.The St. Jamesville, Montana, Tribune of Feb. 12th contains the following notice of the death of Mr. Samuel Long, formerly of Peterborough:The community was shocked to hear of the sudden demise of Samuel Long, one of the miners at the Curlew mine, who first had an attack of a grippe, which afterward developed into pneumonia, from the effect of which he died at 4 p.m. last Friday, Feb.
12th, 1892.His brother Ben was telegraphed for at Black Pine, Mont. soon as they thought him dangerously ill, but he did not arrive in time to see him alive.The funeral, which was largely attended by friends from all over the valley, was conducted from the Curlew school house, where the funeral services were presided over by Rev. M. L. Rickman to a very large audience at 1 p.m.The procession formed in line 38 carriages deep at 2 p.m. and wended their way to the Victor Cemetery, where all that was mortal of Samuel Long was laid to rest.Samuel Long was born in Peterborough, Ontario, Canada, Nov. 22nd, 1853, and was 23 years, 3 months and 14 days old at the time of his death.In 1873 his mother died and in 1876 his father died leaving a large family of eleven children to struggle for themselves with the help of living relatives.At the age of 20 years in 1873 he and his brother Ben moved to Minneapolis near which place they worked in the lumber woods of Minnesota and on the Mississippi river until 1877, when Ben started for Montana and landed in July on the 8th of July, Sam followed and landed in Missoula the 5th of August of the same year, and has made Missoula county his home ever since, working in the Blackfoot and Elmer 2000 valleys, a lumberman and mining.The latter occupation he has followed for the past two years. The brothers have been together most of the time since they left home, until last summer, when the intention of the Curlew mine was charged Ben for reasons wholly unknown to the boys. Ben went to Black Pine and has been working there ever since, until notified that his brother was dangerously ill, when he quit immediately and came down only to find him cold in death.Samuel Long was a young gentleman of exemplary habits and well liked by a wide circle of associates, who will demise their young friend out down in the prime of manhood.There are only three brothers left of the family of eleven children. An only sister, Mrs. Belle Campbell, died the 30th of last May at Peterborough, Canada.He leaves three brothers, Ben, who is at Black Pine, Canada, and Alex. who last heard from at Tacoma, Washington, to mourn his untimely departure.The surviving friends have the sympathy of the entire community, in this their sad bereavement.The same paper contains the following card of thanks:I desire to express my heart-felt thanks to the many friends and neighbors of Car-lew vicinity, who so kindly assisted during the illness, death and burial of my beloved brother, Samuel Long. BENJAMIN LONG.To make the hair grow a natural color, prevent baldness, and keep the scalp healthy, Hair Restorer was invented and has proven itself successful.

The Appeal Case.

The appeal case in which Mr. T.
Cavanagh appeals from the decision of the Police Magistrate as to the sealing of a third offence under the Liquor Act was to have come up this morning before Judge Waller. Mr. Poussette, Q.C., is still confined to his home and the case was again enlarged, this time until Saturday next at 11 a.m.

They Visited Warsaw.

The choir of the Murray-st. Baptist church, accompanied by the pastor and a few friends, drove out to Warsaw on Monday night where a social was being held on the occasion of Rev. Mr. Stephen's taking charge of the church. The entertainment proved to be of a most pleasant and successful character. Among the numbers of the evening were four well-rendered anthems by the choir of the Peterborough church and an address by Rev. Mr. Trotter.Addresses were also given by Rev. Mr.
Hyde and Rev. Mr. Wilson, the Presbyterian and Methodist ministers at that place.

St. Luke's Temperance.

The Temperance Society of St. Luke's church, Ashburnham, is flourishing and the entertainment held in the schoolroom of the church was a very successful and enjoyable one. Rev. J. W. McCleary, the rector, presided as chairman and after an opening hymn gave happy address. A short programme was rendered. Miss Pakenham and Mr. Armstrong gave an instrumental duet, Master B. Wood contributed a song, Messrs. W. McGrath, F.
Cook and J. P. Babin a mouth organ trio which was enjoyed. Mr. J. J. Turner, Jr., a song which was also enjoyed, and Mr. K.
Hodgson an authorial and mouth organ selection. These numbers were creditably rendered and the programme closed with an enthusiastic temperance address by Mr.
R. J. Colville, General Secretary of the Y.
M. C. A.

Y.M.C.A. News.

The monthly meeting of the Devotions and Invitation Committee will be held on Tuesday evening at 8 p.m.
Bible study for young men will be held on Thursday evening at 8 p.m.
We have received from a friend two elegant engravings, "The Entry into Jerusalem" and "Christ led to Crucifixion," and which Mr. H. Thompson has so kindly framed. We thank them both very much.
Also from another friend Bible Readings for facturer and Builder, and American very grateful.

An Annual Service.

On Monday evening the Christian Endeavor Society of St. Paul's church held a social to which all the young men of the congregation were cordially invited. The invitation was accepted by an unusually large number of young people and as a result an evening of great social enjoyment was spent. The regular Endeavor meeting was first held from 7.30 to 8.30 at which Mr.
W. F. Nelson, President, presided. The topic was "God's Word, How do you Receive it?" After the meeting the social was held and by the assistance of a thoughtful innovation of the Social Committee the young people present were enabled to become acquainted and mingled in pleasant sociability. Every person seemed to feel that he or she was welcome and a spirit of amability pervaded all. It was one of the most successful socials ever held in the church. During the evening an excellent programme was rendered, Mr. Nelson performing the duties of chairman. The numbers were not numerous, but they were of an entertaining and meritorious character. There was an instrumental duet by Misses Annie Ball and Fairweather, a vocal solo by Misses Susan Cammeron, two recitations by the boys rehearsed, Master David Talmage, an instrumental duet by Misses Edith Ball and Eva Wrighton, a vocal solo by Master Gusle Arlidge and an instrumental solo by Miss Wrighton. Master Stuart's recitations were cleverly given for a boy of his years. The first was a recitation of a temperance character, "The Brandy Bottle."
The second was the humorous "Bacon in School." Both were well recited. During the evening refreshments were served and,
as usual, were bountiful and toothsome.

A COUNCIL OF CHEESEMEN.

Annual Meeting of the Peterborough Cheese Board—Officers Elected and Matters Discussed.There was a good attendance and plenty of discussion at the annual meeting of the Peterborough Cheese Board which was held in the market building on Saturday afternoon, Mr. J. M. Drummond, President, was in the chair.Mr. M. E. Sanderson, Secretary, read the minutes of the last annual meeting.
Some discussion arose in regard to the motion which was introduced by Mr. Garton and adopted. The motion forbade any factory selling of the Board on penalty of being erased from the Board and allowing factories not receiving a bid to sell off the Board.The minutes were confirmed and the question in regard to the by-laws were left for later consideration.
Mr. Geo. Edwards, Treasurer, presented the financial statement for the year. The receipts for the year was $184 and the expenditures $24.75, leaving a balance on hand of $159.25. The report was adopted.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The election of officers was next proceeded with and resulted as follows:—
PRESIDENT—J. M. Drummond, of Keene factory.FIRST VICE PRESIDENT—John Cruise, Marquette factory.SECRETARY—M. E. Sanderson, North
Smith factory.TREASURER—Samuel Edwards, War-minster factory.The matter of appointing the Board for the past two years. The brethren were considered at some length.
The question was whether one or two arbitrators should be appointed. A motion was submitted appointing Mr. W. H. Wrighton arbitrator for the Board and Mr. Hugh Spence to be called in when Mr. Wrighton was either unwilling or busy. After a great deal of discussion the motion was carried.

THE RULES AND REGULATIONS.

The rules and regulations for the government of the Board were adopted as last year without amendment.
Mr. Clouston suggested that in the second clause the words calling upon buyers to take 500 boxes on a first or second selection should be changed from "first and second selections shall be about 500 boxes" to "first and second selections shall not be less than 500 boxes." Mr. Riddell suggested further that buyers in any selection should take 500 boxes. The clause was thus amended making it read "all selections shall not be less than 500 boxes" adopted without amendment, and then Mr. Clouston's motion before discussed was taken up again.Mr. Clouston supported his motion. He said he took a pride in the Board, and without being asked to do so he thought he could say he had done a good deal to make it what it was. The motion was in the interests of the salesmen, and he went on to show the desirability of having the cheese boarded sold on the Board. It was the interests of the factories to keep the buyers and salesmen together and the cheese sold in open competition.Mr. Galvin, of Lakeland, and Mr. Stewart also supported the motion, but the secretary, Messrs. Nollie and Johnston were opposed to it.Finally the motion was allowed to stand.
Mr. E. Nollie submitted a draft of further rules for the government of the Board and its sales as they were not taken up.

OTHER MATTERS.

A suggestion was made by Mr. Theo.
Robertson that hereafter no cheese be sold on contract in the Board, but that the sale be held every two weeks.Mr. Galvin, Mr. Stewart, and Mr. Clouston strongly favored the adoption of the suggestion. The matter was left in abeyance until later.On motion of Mr. Stewart seconded by Mr. Robertson a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Clouston for his services to the Board. Mr. Clouston duly acknowledged the honor done him.Wednesday the 25th day of May was fixed for the first regular Board meeting.
The Board then adjourned.

The commission of the Town Trust sold four and west of George, the margins lot, was sold to Mr. Alf. Macdonald for $750. Parcel two and three, lots No. 2 and 3 south of Townsend-st.

and west of George, were sold to Mr. H. Rask for $350 each. Parcel number four, lot No. 4,

The Ball Postponed.

The ball which was announced for next Monday evening under the auspices of the Olympic Club has been postponed until after Lent. The time for preparation was too short and hence the postponement until after the Lenten season.

The Coal Oil Boom.

The coal oil "out" is over, or at least the great run of ten cent oil will be discontinued.
A meeting of the dealers was held yesterday and an agreement was reached in regard to the price and oil will no longer be cheaper than day light. It was decided to sell the Canadian oil at 15 cents and the American oil at 20 cents.

The Summer Election.

The election in Dunsmuir for the Revereville, made vacant by the unseating of Mr. J. Robb, took place yesterday and resulted in the election of Mr. Robb by a majority of 21 votes. Considerable interest was manifested in the contest and many outside voters went into the township to vote.

"The Queen's" New Palace.

It has been customary with all successful newspapers and publications to secure a home for their offices by building and naming it after the publication, as soon as the no-one of the enterprise would permit, and it is only another indication of the success of "The Queen" that we learn that it has reached that point where larger and better quarters are required for its extensive growing business, and that the publishers have decided to erect one of the handsomest and most complete newspaper buildings in the Dominion.
A large lot has been purchased on Malinda St., and the architects are now at work on the plans of the building, which is to be a three storey and pressed brick, with a large stage of the Queen on the top of the building.Finally the portion of Toronto is the heart of the business portion of Toronto is a valuable location, and the Queen and Queen building will add one more to the substantial structures which have been erected for business purposes by enterprising citizens of the city during the past few years.

King of Medicines

A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered and to go on crutches. A year later, sciatica, in the form of white swellings, appeared in various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven persons appeared and tried to cure me, but all failed. I feared I never should get well. Early in 1885 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Cure' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then have never been again subject to the same account of sickness. I believe the disease was expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that I have a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

IMPROVEMENT AND PROGRESS.

T. Dolan & Co.'s Extension of their Premises and Clothing and Furnishing Trade. Visitors to Peterborough invariably go away with the feeling that our town, especially in its business places, is quite the equal of the cities. The spirit of improvement is always at work and changes are made that when completed afford additional facilities and give greater scope for business. The spring work in this direction opens out with the alterations and improvements to be made in the premises occupied by T. Dolan & Co., the well known and old established clothiers. Their fine store corner of George and Hunter streets is probably the centre of the business part of the town and has always been conspicuous in its excellent location and fine display of goods. The business of the firm calls for more room for the work of making up clothing, and for the accommodation and display of stock. They have arranged with Mr. Geo. A. Cox that the owners of the property will at once put in hand the work, which will be proceeded with at once. The Hunter street hall of the store will be cut out and large plate glass windows inserted, the window at the corner being of mammoth proportions and three others nearly so large. To the west there will be an extension of the store. The hall way on Hunter-st. giving access to the offices above will be taken out and the space together with the store now occupied by Mr. W. W. Everett will be added to the room now afforded by the Dolan & Co.'s store. The floor space of the store will be about 2600 square feet, 180 feet long by 35 feet wide. The extension will provide additional room on the second and third floor to accommodate the work people and reserve stock. Additional improvements will be put on in the shape of a commodious hall room, closets, etc., conveniences that will add to the comfort of the large staff of employees. The firm are ordering largely of new lines of ready made clothing and also a very fine stock of hats, caps, etc., while the furnishing department will be increased to double the present size. The growth of their ordered clothing trade necessitates the enjoyment of a secure outlet to keep up with the work, which will be done in the best style of the most fashionable city trade.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

A Bill to the Storm of Legislative Disunion.

Toronto, Feb. 23.—Yesterday afternoon's session of the Local House was short and uninteresting.

Mr. Barr moved for returns showing the number of persons confined in the different jails of the province as inmates, persons unable to support themselves, and the length of time each person has been confined. He also wishes to ascertain at the same time the number of insane persons confined in the jails of the province, the length of time each person has been confined and the reason for being so confined. In support of the above a short speech was made, in which he characterized the principle of committing respectable persons to jails owing to their inability to support themselves, as being entirely proper, as manifestly unfair and tainted by a spirit of medievalism. Responding Mr. Mowat remarked that everything possible had been done for the ample protection of the aged and infirm in the various communities, but owing to the large numbers of persons who had been in some instances run short. He had, however, no objection to making the returns asked for.

The prostrate after the Grip is relatively overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It really does make the weak strong.

GOUGH BROS. EXPANDING!

Their Already Mammoth Store to be Lengthened and the Front Re-modelled.

Gough Brothers expanding does not mean that the enterprising and genial firm are personally taking on the popular idea of a salesman's physical appearance. The expansion is in the way of more room for the growing and already large trade. The name is a household word in the district and thousands of men and boys are wearing Gough's clothes every day with an extra suit for Sunday. The firm want more room and have arranged with Mr. Cox and the company owning the premises that the work shall begin next week. The fronts of the store will be taken out and re-placed with three splendid plate glass windows the full length of the front, less the space required for the doors. Inside the wall between the stores will be pierced and supported on columns, throwing the two stores into one. Interior arrangements will then be altered so as to afford a better display of stock. The rear walls of both stores will be taken out and an extension of thirty feet made to each store to afford more room for lines of stock now not well placed for inspection. The improvement will be great and will add largely to the convenience of customers in examining goods. The firm, in order to reduce stock exposed during the time the work of alteration is going on, announce a big sale to commence on Monday next, particulars in regard to which are given in their advertisement.

LAKEFIELD LOCALS.

Died in the West—An Illustrated Lecture—Mechanics' Institute—Other News.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.—On Thursday evening last in the Presbyterian church Mr. D. W. Campbell delivered his illustrated lecture "A Trip to Richmond, Virginia," under the auspices of the D.F.M.B. This lecture was beautifully illustrated with a large number of very fine stereoscopic views, illuminated with a very powerful time light. There was a large audience and all were well pleased and hoped that Mr. Campbell might soon return.

DEATH OF A FORESTER.—Word has been received that Mr. Gabriel Doman, of Vanover, N.C., has died of inflammation of the kidneys. He was a former resident of this place and at the time of his death was a number of Court Lakefield No. 45, C.O.F. We extended our sympathy to the bereaved family.

PERSONAL.—Mr. E. A. Baggis has gone to Pembroke where he has secured a position in a drug store. While in Lakefield he was a very popular clerk in Mr. Bird's drug store and we bespeak him success in his new position.

BASKET SOCIAL.—The Royal Templars will hold a basket social in their hall on Monday evening, Feb. 28th, to aid in wiping off their indebtedness. Ladies bringing baskets admitted free. Gentlemen 25 cents. A good programme is being prepared and a pleasant evening may be expected.

FORESTERS CHURCH PARADE.—The members of Court Lakefield No. 45 will meet in their hall on Sabbath evening at 8 o'clock and leave there for the Presbyterian church at 8:15, where the Rev. J. McKewen is connected to preach their annual sermon. Let all Foresters try and be present.

TO MEET THE H.O.R.—A number of our Lakefield Foresters went to Peterborough on Wednesday afternoon to attend the Foresters at home and reception to H.O.R. Town.

CONCERT.—The Mechanics' Institute will hold a concert in their hall on Thursday evening, March 2nd. Admission 10 cts.

MEMORIAL INSTITUTE.—The Mechanics' Institute will be open every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings from 7 to 10. A large number of papers, books, periodicals and magazines free for members. The secretary, Mr. Bloomfield, is ready to receive membership fees and contributions for either books or money for its support.

Health By Good Living. Buy your meals where you can always rely on getting a good article. Fresh and salt meats of all kinds, pickled Pigs Cheeks, 3 cents per lb. 3 lbs. Sausage for 25 cents. All goods delivered promptly. John J. Howden, 461 George-st.

Hall's Vegetable Sialin Hair Restorer has restored gray hair to its original color and prevented baldness in thousands of cases. It will do so to you.

Vote of Thanks. At the regular meeting of Peterborough Lodge, No. 18, Sons of Canada held last evening, a vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. and Mr. Dr. Geo. Burnham, Mrs. and Mr. G. McGill and Mrs. and Mr. J. E. Stratton for their kindness in acting as judges at the Carnival held on the 12th, also to those who so kindly loaned the Lodge flags, etc.

The Feet are not all Dead. A lady man, whose horses and cart were stuck in the mud, prayed for help for help. Jupiter answered: "Foot get up and put your shoulder to the wheel, and do not call me when you can help yourself." Foolish people buy medicines hap-hazard, blindly trusting to promises made without a guarantee. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is guaranteed to cure colds, coughs, all lung affections, and even consumption in its early stages. It purges the blood, gives healthy action to the sluggish liver and drives the bile from the skin. It is an honest medicine, and an invaluable health insurance policy which should never be allowed to lapse. All druggists keep it.

Literary Society Collegiate Institute. Mr. J. A. Fife will deliver a lecture on the evening of Friday 26 inst. at 8 p.m. on the following headings: 1.—Explanation of Philologic Theory. 2.—Combustion of a candle in air—products formed. 3.—Combustion of air in coal gas and coal gas in air. 4.—Combustion in oxygen. 5.—Heat of combustion. 6.—Combustion in chlorine.

MONTREAL, Aug. 4th, 1891. It is a pleasure for me to say good words in favor of Anti-Dandruff. Its merits cannot be questioned. In my own case Dandruff not only made itself known by appearance in more than liberal quantities from which I could not obtain relief, but it continued presence and increasing formation caused the falling of the hair. My barber spoke highly of Anti-Dandruff. I used it, and not only has every trace of Dandruff disappeared but the falling of the hair has stopped. Having full faith in the preparation I not only use it but advise it for others but further add that as a fine dressing for the hair nothing equals it.

REVIEWS.

LIPPIWORTH'S MAGAZINE.—The complete novel in Lippiworth's Magazine for March, A Soldier's Secret, is by Captain Charles King, who alone among living Americans has the secret of the military tale. His last story has a very recent theme, the Sioux war of 1890, and will be found equal to any of his previous works. In the Journalist Series, Mr. A. K. Watrous handles The Newspaper Man as a confident ally and but too briefly. In the Athletic Series, the mysteries of Horsemanship and Polo are revealed by an accredited authority, Mr. Foxhall Keene. Under the heading of One Hundred Miles an Hour, Mr. Chas. E. Deason, of the Reading Railroad, discusses the facts and possibilities of railway speed and rejects the popular notion that a faster rate necessarily means increased danger. Certain facts about Rebuilding the Navy are set forth by Mr. Barry P. Mason. This article is liberally illustrated. Mr. O. H. Herford gives an account of Ibsen's Earlier Work, and especially his grand and lurid drama, The Vikings in Helgeland. The projected Independent Theatre is explained in two papers by Edward Fuller and James L. Ford. Mr. Robert Timm writes on Getting There. The department As It Seems considers Mr. Thomas Hardy's last novel, Mrs. Ferhune's Virginia tale, and sundry other matters. There is a short story by Miss M. G. McGelellan, and a brief sketch by Edith A. North. The poetry of the number is by Anne Reeve Aldrich, B. Deostur Smith, Jr., Prof. Clifton Bonland, Ruth Johnston and Mrs. C. Franklin.

The young lady whose picture appears above is Miss Eva Watson, 66 Close Ave., Toronto, has derived considerable of a reputation as the winner of The Canadian Cyprian's prize in their competition for January. Miss Watson being the one to send in the first correct reply. Miss Watson has received her prize and states to the reporter that she is delighted with it, it being one of Mason & Rice's best-lined up-hugs, and a brief sketch by Edith A. North. The poetry of the number is by Anne Reeve Aldrich, B. Deostur Smith, Jr., Prof. Clifton Bonland, Ruth Johnston and Mrs. C. Franklin.

Earthquake in California. SANTA ANNA, Cal., Feb. 23.—Eight shocks of earthquake were felt here last night. Clocks were stopped at 4 o'clock. At San Bernardino a heavy shock was felt, lasting 1 1/2 minutes. The vibrations were northeast and southwest. No serious damage was done, but the shock was followed by light trembles all night.

Also a Bab's Fish. ATLANTA, Feb. 23.—News of a horrible murder and cannibalism near Ray's Mill has been received. Lucy President, a degraded and idiotic negro woman, left her home and 9-month-old infant in charge of her two older children, Mark and Linda, aged respectively 9 and 11 years.

Securing an ax, Mark deliberately knocked the babe in the head and mangled its body in different places. Not content with the crime he had already committed, he took a fork and gouged out the eye of the little one, which he roasted, and then taking a slice out of either jaw he and his sister sat themselves down to a feast.

Onesville Strike at Carwell. ONESVILLE, Feb. 23.—The workers on the Onesville looms in the Canada Cotton Company's mill here, numbering 170, are out on strike. They claim the price on these goods has been reduced about 10 cents per cut.

Manitoba Legislature. WINNIPEG, Feb. 23.—It is officially announced that the Manitoba Legislature will be called together on March 10.

Cure for Constipation and Headache. Dr. Elias Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry root and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache and is the best spring medicine. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 25c. and 50c. a package.

It is estimated there are five thousand different kinds of pills on the market. Should one be able to test the entire lot for perfect specific to the headache, the stomach, habitual constipation and liver complaint then only one would be found; Middle's Bile Beans. They cure where others only relieve. Price 25 cts.

Emilie B. Dutton, 21 Ferry Ave., Toronto. Was the fortunate person to secure the elegant Gold Watch from the Ladies' Pictorial Weekly (of Toronto, Ontario). Prize Competition for Monday. Watches and other prizes given away free. Send two three-cent stamps for particulars.

Hotel Eden. Mr. John B. Clarke, who lectured to a large audience last evening in the Opera House, is to give his world renowned temperance address in the Charlotte-st. Methodist church next Sunday evening. A special silver or bill collection will be taken up at the door. A cordial invitation to all to come and hear one of the world's brilliant and most captivating orators.

Society Notes. There was a large gathering of Odd-fellows at the regular meeting of Peterborough Lodge, I.O.O.F., last evening, when Charles Peterborough in undress uniform visited the lodge and the lodge degree team conferred the third degree upon two candidates. The new paraphernalia was used for the first time in the third degree team work was performed in a highly creditable manner. The new floor work has now been completed and the team bear testimony to Bro. Pierce's ability as an instructor. After the degree work short speeches, in which the work was highly complimented, were made by several of the visiting brothers. Many brothers from the surrounding lodges were present.

Whiskers that are prematurely gray or faded should be colored to prevent the loss of age, and Buckingham's Dye excels all others in coloring brown or black.

A Woman vs. A Boy. The Magistrate had only a single case for his attention at the police court this morning. It was one in which Mary Deval charged Brag. Woose, a lad of fourteen or fifteen years, with disorderly conduct. Mr. E. B. Stone appeared for the boy. The woman in her evidence said the boy, without her, had annoyed her by throwing snowballs at herself, her home, her children and her dog and by calling her names. The boy denied the charges, except that he did throw snowballs at the dog. The complainant's tongue ran glibly and was not silenced until the Magistrate reprimanded her by saying "Woman hold that tongue, if you please." The boy was found guilty and was fined $2. He evidently came prepared for any emergency for he drew out some bills and paid the fine.

If you are troubled with hacking and spitting, dull headaches, hoarse voice, and if you are afflicted with catarrh, and to prevent it developing into consumption, Rasm's should be used promptly. There is no cure of catarrh which will not cure, and for cold in the head it gives immediate relief. Try it. All dealers.

ROSE, SHAMROCK AND THISTLE.

An Entertaining Lecture on England, Ireland and Scotland by the poet Black Orator.

John B. Clarke, the poet black orator, is becoming familiar to Peterborough audiences, but he is evidently a very popular one, for the Opera House was well filled last evening to listen to the lecture he delivered under the auspices of the local lodge of Good Templars. A tedious delay arose at the commencement before the lecturer arrived. He was to have reached here at noon, but missed his train connections and did not come in until 8.15. It was a few minutes after half past eight when the curtain rolled up and the lecturer appeared before the audience. The long wait was patiently borne by those present and Miss Nellie Wright made pleasant part of it by rendering a delightful instrumental selection.

"The Rose, the Shamrock and the Thistle" was the title of Mr. Clarke's lecture and it was a subject, the handling of three countries and their representative people, which afforded ample scope for the versatile poet black. And by the way, the man, with his bursts of oratory, his intellectual gift of telling a story and his poetic ability, is not forgetful of the boy, with the "literary profession" of selling newspapers and potting the understandings of the people, for he frequently refers to his early days as a boot black and street arab. His lecture last night was an interesting, amusing and profitable deliverance presented with the oratorical effect and dramatic force which has made him so popular as a platform lecturer. He said in opening he had great pleasure in coming to Peterborough because it was his seventh time. He then took up his lecture with "the bouquet title." First he went through England, country after country, spoke of the illustrious men each had given to the world, referred to their peculiarities or, if literary readers desired, to their productions. He said he did not aim at giving the facts of the exact dimensions of each stone and pillar or data as to the antiquity of things seen in the trip, but he would give the humanness of the people. He spoke of Eliza Cook, Charles Dickens, John Dryden, Wm. Carey, John Newton, John Wesley, Alfred Tennyson, Morley Pugh, Wm. Ewart Gladstone and many other Englishmen noted in politics, literature or war. His songs and stanzas of verses with which his lecture abounded were good and when he was illustrating by instance how Paddy's wit always brought him on top at the climax he made the audience laugh. In fact he kept them in good humor all through England's greatness would never decline, he said. It was impossible for any Christian nation to decline, but stand in all its grandeur as long as the habitable globe remained. Secondly the lecturer went to Ireland where he found much amusing and interesting. He spoke of such Irishmen as William Wolesey, Goldsmith and Adam Clarke. In Scotland he made reference to Wallace, Bruce, John Knox, Robt. Burns, Thos. Guthrie, Thos. Chalmers, Walter Scott, Carlyle, Hugh Miller and Charles Mackay. His lecture was a most interesting and well told humorous story at another frequently drew forth the applause of the audience. He is a most delightful lecturer. In closing he eloquently hoped that the Shamrock, Thistle, Rose and Maple Leaf would ever remain united.

This evening Mr. Clarke will lecture in the Y.M.C.A. hall when he will deliver his popular lecture "Hits and Misses." Admission only 15c.

The Ladies' Delight.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasant to take and to the taste, and yet effective in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Dead in California.

Mr. John Irwin, of the Post Office, received a telegram this morning from San Jose, Cal., conveying the sad intelligence that Ella Stewart, wife of his son, Mr. Fred Irwin, was dead. The message gave no particulars but the deceased lady's illness must have been brief. Mrs. Irwin was an estimable young lady who was well known in town and had only been married a few years. Her friends will receive the sad news of her untimely demise with sincere sorrow and will extend the greatest sympathy to her bereaved husband and her friends in their bereavement. The remains will be brought here for interment. Mr. Irwin leaving San Jose on his sad journey with the remains to-morrow.

After Night Weight Bread.

Chief Bessie and Constable Adams paid a visit to the bakeries in town this morning, not to purchase a small loaf for their mid-day meal but to see that the makers and dispensers of the staff of life were giving their customers their full weight in each loaf of bread. All the bakeries had a visit from the officers, with the result that about seventy small loaves of bread are now in the police cells, having been seized for light weight. The two bakers who found light in weight were Messrs. W. H. Buck and Sam. Angiers, the former having some eight pans and the latter some nine pans of hot bread seized as it came from the oven. They will explain the weight to the Magistrate at the police court in the morning. Of the other bakers the majority were just on the line and Mr. John Gray was found some five ounces over the required weight and entitled to credit for the same. Mr. Buck explains that the bread weighed the place had been too long in the oven and dried out, and he did not intend to send it out.

An Infant and Long Hair.

Miss Wallis, daughter of Mr. Jas. Wallis and Mrs. Macklin had an experience yesterday which fortunately did not result in injury to themselves. The two ladies were driving on the Monahan road and near the foot of Morrow's hill turned the horse, when the runner of the cutter caught in a hole in the road and the vehicle overturned. The ladies were thrown out upon the road, and the horse frightened by the mishap ran on. Still more frightened by the shouting of several well-intentioned men who attempted to stop the animal, it came into a ditch and then down George-st. at a furious gallop, the cutter still on its back. The cutter of Blincoe and George-st. the cutter collided with a telephone pole, the shafts were smashed and the horse liberated of his burden. It started down Blincoe-st., but had only gone a short distance when Constable Adams cleverly stopped the mad career. The cutter was not badly damaged, except the shafts.

FORESTRY.

Its Beneficial Effects on the Climate of the County.

Mr. John Craig, Horticulturist at the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, during his examination before the House Committee on Agriculture, said:

The effects of forestry on the climate of a country are nearly all beneficial, such as more equal distribution of rainfall. This is one of the most important points to be considered; another is the regulation of the temperature, by this I mean prevention in a measure of extremes, the possibilities of a sudden rise or fall in the temperature changes so frequent in prairie districts may be lessened. Then again evaporation from the soil is very much reduced. There is a vast difference between the condition on the surface of the bare and uncovered soil, and the soil on the forest floor. A forest floor serves the purpose of a sponge in collecting and holding the moisture which comes down in the form of rain. The fine root system of the trees amounting to a drawing up moisture from below. As the rain falls it collects around and within these forest centres and gives it back up gradually, thus obviating spring torrents and summer freshets. Another important point to be noted is the velocity of the wind, with their great power, thus we can see the effect of the forest in the prevention of the strong north wind, with their great evaporating power. The evaporating power of the wind is generally in direct proportion to its velocity. Thus greater the velocity the stronger its evaporating power. Thus we can see the effect of the forest in the prevention of the strong north wind, with their great evaporating power. The evaporating power of the wind is generally in direct proportion to its velocity. Thus greater the velocity the stronger its evaporating power. Indigestion

It is not only a distressing complaint, of itself, but, by causing the blood to become depraved and the system enfeebled, is the parent of innumerable maladies. This Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best cure for indigestion, even when complicated with liver complaint, as proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway Centre, Mich.:

"I have constant indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Noting that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetite has returned, and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a healthy woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."

FAINTED IN THE MONTREAL POST OFFICE.

His Friends Alarmed!

A few days ago, one of Montreal's estimable business men dropped apparently dead in the post-office. Friends quickly gathered round the well-known merchant, and he was soon restored to consciousness. He had covered without any harm. The family physician was summoned; he pronounced the merchant's condition to be serious, and ordered a period of quiet and rest. A run down constitution, nervousness and weakness retarded the business man until for his regular duties and work.

This is no uncommon occurrence in the great business towns and cities of Canada. In nine cases out of ten, the trouble arises from overwork, close application and business anxieties. The common laws of nature are disregarded; necessary exercise and rest is not taken; the brain becomes heavy and clouded; digestion is impaired; and the whole nervous system suffers terribly. We usually find such cases in the ranks of the sleepless, nervous, dyspeptic and despondent; and, at times, such characters have thoughts of self-destruction.

Would to heaven that such sufferers fully realized the worth and value of that grand restorative, builder and vitalizer, Paine's Celery Compound—a remedy prepared especially for the great work of nerve strengthening and flesh building.

The merchant and business man cannot, even with wealth at his command, open up a sure avenue of escape from his sufferings and troubles, than by a regular and daily treatment with Paine's Celery Compound. The best people of our time—professionals, men, bankers, merchants and others—have had occasion to test the wonderful powers of this preparation; they have found a new life, and have not thought it derogatory to their social standing to testify to its value. Physicians, without hesitation, acknowledge its superiority over all other known remedies for bringing back to health and vigor the weak, nervous, overworked and broken-down.

The proprietors of this great and popular remedy are always ready to give sound and practical medical advice to all who desire it. Their Consulting Physician is a gentleman of the highest standing in the community; he has made the great nervous system a special study, and will, at all times, give correspondence the full benefit of his great experience. A RAILROAD SEIZED.

A Toronto Cattle Train Seized on Ottawa and Gatineau Valley Road.

OTTAWA, Feb. 27.—Deputy Sheriff McLaughlin seized the Ottawa and Gatineau Valley Railway yesterday, or at least seized the available rolling stock.

The railway is a young one, and its rolling stock is somewhat small, so that when the deputy sheriff took possession of three or four cars the company was crippled. The regular train which leaves Hull at 6 o'clock did not go out.

The seizure was made at the instance of James A. Patterson of Toronto, who has a claim of $1000 against the company.

Another company of Toronto capitalists was formed here today. It is called the Montreal Freehold and Robert Jaffray is to be the president. The other directors are: F. J. Stewart, C. S. R. Dunick, Edward Gailley, John Burns, Samuel Blake, all of Toronto, and A. Archer of Montreal.

The Bagge estate, along with the property bought by The Consolidated Land Co., another Toronto concern, and they have already started to cut up and put on the market. Mr. Cook of Armstrong & Cook and Mr. Stinson were also at the meeting of the new company here today.

Little Mary Clark Dies After Her Doll.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—A tray fastened to the front of the high chair in which sat baby Mary Clark, at No. 87, Hanover-street, Brooklyn, hanged the child until she was dead yesterday.

Mrs. Clark had gone out of the room and left the baby fastened in the chair with a doll and a bottle to amuse the child. Little Mary dropped her doll. Trying to reach it, she slipped down until the tray caught her chin. There she hung until, for mother returned and was horrified to find her dead.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 27.—James J. Whisker, son of a wealthy English farmer residing in Macdonald municipality, 12 miles from Winnipeg, committed suicide yesterday morning by hanging himself in his father's barn. A few days ago he received word from England that a very dear friend of his had suicided, and ever since he has acted very strangely.

TERRIBLE ITCHING

Used Everything Five Months. In

Three Weeks not a Scar or Pimple.

Cured by Cuticura.

When my baby was three months old his cheeks and forehead began to break out with white pimples on red surface. In a few days itching commenced, which was terrible. After he would rub his face, the pimples would soon come out, and in a short time (spread over the top of his head, then all over his face, and in a few days he was covered with a thick crust of pus. I saw your advertisement of the Cuticura in the "Chicago Weekly," and immediately ordered it. I purchased CUTICURA and commenced using it. In three weeks' time there was a cure or pimple on his face, on his head or on his neck. He is now perfectly cured, and has no signs of the disease. His skin is healthy and has a beautiful head of hair.

Purify

The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is circulated and transmitted for generations, and is a source of suffering, and also accounts for the prevalence of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more conclusively proven than the power of Hood's Sarsaparilla to purify the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes skin eruptions, neutralizes the acids and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling and building up the whole system. Thousands testify to the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. Full information and statements of cures sent free.

THE DUTY OF THE RICH TOWARDS THE NEEDY AND THE SUFFERING.

Bishop O'Connor Preaches a Sermon on Charity in Aid of the St. Vincent de Paul Society—The Report of the Society for the Past Year—A Handsome and Liberal Collection.

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor delivered the annual sermon in aid of the St. Vincent de Paul Society at St. Peter's Cathedral last evening. There was a large congregation present and the earnest words of His Lordship were uttered in a perfect stillness which evidenced the attention with which they were being received by the vast congregation which filled the cathedral.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society is a charitable organization of which the public hear very little, but which is doing a good work year after year in relieving the pressing wants or extreme suffering of the poor. His Lordship last evening at the close of his deliverance on the appropriate virtue "Charity" referred briefly to the Society, which he said gave the laity an opportunity of exercising their charity towards the poor. He read the annual report which showed that the collection from the weekly meetings during 1891 had been $64.15 and the private donations $10. The collection at the annual service was $90.15, which with the balance from the previous year made the total receipts for the year $204.04. The expenditure had been: Bread $75, meat $40, fuel $30, tea, sugar, etc., $40, and distributed in money $10.22. This made the total expenditure $185.22, leaving a balance on hand of $118.82. He said that quite a number of the gentlemen of the congregation were members but he would be greatly pleased to see all the gentlemen connected with the Society.

A DISCOURSE ON CHARITY.

His Lordship in his sermon dealt strictly with his subject "Charity" and placed the duty of those who had been endowed with much of this world's goods towards their less fortunate brothers plainly before them. He based his discourse on the words:—

"But up arise in the heart of the poor and shall obtain help for thee against all evil."

Better than the shield of the mighty and better than the spear;

It shall fight for thee against thy enemies."—Ecclesiastes, ix, 15-17.

Amongst the many duties that Almighty God had imposed upon men to perform here in this world, said His Lordship, they found in reading the sacred Word of God that there was none more frequently or more plainly inculcated than compassion towards the poor and suffering. Even towards the very time of Moses himself they read of Almighty God taking the poor and suffering under His particular attention. They found that many of the writers of the Old Testament especially commended and praised compassion and charity shown towards the poor and suffering. When Christ Himself came upon earth to make known His doctrine to men to reform the world, to preach the universal brotherhood of mankind, He laid down as one of the fundamental doctrines of salvation, almsgiving and compassion towards the poor and needy among their brothers. And since Jesus Christ laid down the doctrine they found the rich Christians giving forth of their riches to the poor in order to draw upon them the Holy Ghost and the prayers of the poor whose miseries were relieved. Christ said they would have the poor amongst them always. This unequal state of society, the rich on the one hand and the poor on the other, this inequality of humanity was a misfortune their first transgression. It meant that brought poverty and suffering and the Lord told them they would have the poor with them always as a reminder of their rebellion against God and to purify them by patience and suffering. But the loving mercy and compassion of Almighty God had made provision for

THE POOR AND SUFFERING

of his rebellious children and if they were content to suffer it was for their purification, and if they bore it in love their Father would bring them with eternal happiness in the next world. Almighty God had made provision for this unequal state of society by making them stewards, not only and not the real possessors and He entrusted more riches to one in order that they might be stewards of God and that they might by faithful stewardship obtain eternal happiness. God imposed upon them the duty of providing for the poor and suffering in order that they might atone for sin and afford relief to the needy. They could go back even to the time when the law was given by Moses to the chosen people God had selected to be His chosen nation. In their old law they find that God commanded the Jews to give three of their possessions, crops, fruits and vintage to their poor and suffering brothers. They had only to take up the book of Deuteronomy where the laws were laid down and they would see that Almighty God told the Jews of the special provision they must make. His Lordship cited the commands that were given to open the hand to the poor and needy and asked what could be more emphatic? What could be a more absolute or strict command than these words by Almighty God. And, he said, they found the Jews had faithfully kept the commandment. The Jews in the world to-day showed their fidelity to this by the charity they exercised towards their needy brothers. But outside of the Jewish, other nations had turned away from God and worshipped at the doors of false gods and lost the command.

THE RESULT WAS

that the poor and needy were neglected and made the mere slaves of the rich and powerful. Thus when Christ came what was the state of the world? What was the state of society? Where was charity? There was little or none. There was nothing but hard-heartedness. Then Christ made charity one of the fundamental doctrines of salvation. Almsgiving or charity was absolutely necessary if they would have salvation. The words when Christ reduced the commandment to two he made the first thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy strength, and the second Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. When He came He came in poverty, preached the Gospel to the poor and sympathized with them and told them they were the most beloved amongst His flock. His Lordship impressed the importance of the exercise of charity as a Christian virtue and referred to the scenes described in Matthew where on the day of judgment the Lord says, "Come ye blessed, enter into the Kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world, for I was hungry and ye gave me to eat, I was thirsty and ye gave me to drink, I was naked and ye clothed me, I was in prison and ye visited me." And the righteous are surprised and ask, "When saw we Thee hungry and fed thee, or thirsty and gave thee drink, or naked and clothed thee?" And He replied turning to the poor, "As often as ye did it unto one of these ye did it unto Me."

When they did it to the poor they did it to Christ Himself. His Lordship continued the picture by pointing to the judgment upon the unrighteous. "When ye did it not unto the least of these ye did it not unto Me; be gone unto everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels." Could they doubt, he asked, or say that it was left optional with them that it was not to close the heart and hand against the wants of the indigent or suffering? No, they dare not when they saw the emphatic condemnation of the reprobrates when they failed to give meat to the hungry or drink to the thirsty. Let no one boast of his Christianity if he practiced not compassion towards the poor. His Lordship further impressed upon his hearers their duty, if they had more than was necessary for their wants, towards the poor, whom they were not to defraud of their alms. He finally saved them from being closed by saying that if they would be closed by their hearts and pockets, remembering that "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord."

The collection taken up in aid of the St. Vincent de Paul Society totalled the handsome sum of $117.85.

MORAL HEROISM.

Mr. John B. Clark's Sunday Evening Address in the Charlotte-St. Church.

Last evening in the Charlotte-St. Methodist church, instead of the regular preaching service Mr. J. B. Clark, of Buffalo, N.Y., gave his brilliant address on "Moral Heroism." The church was not only crowded to the doors, but the vestibule and even the vestries were packed and very many were turned away, not being able to obtain admittance. For two hours Mr. Clark held the immense throng spellbound and moved them at will by his magic eloquence. His style is known to everyone and he can delight, entertain and instruct his hearers to almost any length. He characterized the liquor traffic as a sin against God and a wrong against man. He spoke of a monument in the United States erected to those who fell in war between the North and the South in which the sculptor had represented the different nations and which had seven approaches, nations and which had seven approaches, which introduced all the virtues and had different lines of approach, the scientific, the philanthropic, the social, philosophical and the political. The speaker said "Moral heroism" was born of God the world over. It was not unobscured audacity or effrontery, but the spirit that characterized and animated the apostle when on his way to Damascus when he cried "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?" and at the city of seven hills he said "Lord, I am ready to be offered up, I said 'Lord, I have kept the faith.' This was the heroism that should animate every worker for domestic felicity known as the temperance reform movement. Pagans and heathens uttered against the liquor traffic. George Fox, the great and illustrious founder of the society of Quakers, designated it as a "liquid calamity." John Wesley had said more pungent things about it in ten minutes than any man along the line of history. He lauded the heroism of the great Robert Hall, of Boston, Lyman Beecher, father of the eagle of eloquence the late Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, the late John B. Gough, the greatest temperance orator of our times, Canon Farrar, of Westminster Abbey, and Frances E. Willard, the grandest temperance lady in America, the lady who had done more and effective work along the line of gospel temperance than any other, and whose services were still in demand. He pointed out that common sense, common decency and common history were alike opposed to the traffic, and that of all the Bible was opposed to it. Mr. Clark had been asked "Why bring the Bible into the liquor question?" He replied "Because it is my authority." He said the man who asked him his right for using the Bible and who was a lawyer, "Why do you quote Blackstone?" The lawyer replied, "Because he is my authority." Then said the speaker, "It was Blackstone himself that said that the Bible was his authority." He referred to the "thou shalt nots" of the Bible, which he said were the basis of all law and for thousands of pupils throughout this and other lands defining Biblical prohibition. Moral suasion was only summer lightning prohibition was that was to destroy thunderbolt. The speaker drew a very fine picture of the difference existing between the savings and loan banks of our country. The savings bank was a saving bank, the dividends were redness of eyes, foulness of breath, remorse of conscience, and some of the old depositors got special dividends in the shape of delirium tremens. Mr. Clark closed his beautiful address by telling of the story of his conversion in 1873 in Pennsylvania, through the instrumentality of the crusaders, especially Mr. Dr. Knox. He closed with an eloquent appeal to the women to go into this work of home protection and save the boys and girls from the diabolical curse of the land, the liquor traffic.

The singing of the choir was excellent the first anthem being "We praise thee, O God," Miss Farwell and Mrs. Clyde Grace taking the solo parts very effectively. In the closing anthem Miss M. Stephens and Mr. Davis sang the duet, also with marked effect.

To-night Mr. Clarke will give his very best effort, delivered over 1200 times, entitled "To and from London." Admission only 15c.

Remember that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has no equal as a specific for colds, coughs, and all affections of the throat and lungs. For nearly half a century it has been in greater demand than any other remedy for pulmonary complaints. All druggists have it for sale.

T.M.C.A. Notes.

The praise prayer and hymn meeting conducted by Mr. Albert Hamilton on Saturday evening was both helpful and profitable and many testified of blessing received. The singing was bright and lively, being led by the orchestra. Young men are missing a treat by not attending these services, which are so helpful to all.

Mr. Frank Brisco led the Bible study and consecration service on Sabbath morning with much blessing to all present.

The personal purity meeting on Sabbath afternoon was addressed by the General Secretary on companionship, which we trust will bear fruit in the lives of young men. The singing was a marked feature, being led grandly by the orchestra.

Last evening the hall was well filled at the gospel and song service. Mr. Frank Mason gave a practical and impressive address on "Growth," which we hope will result in many growing in grace and truth in Christ Jesus.

The Finance Committee will meet on Tuesday evening at 7.30.

The Board of Directors will hold their monthly meeting on Tuesday evening at 8 p.m.

Bible study for young men on Thursday evening at 8 p.m.

OBITUARY.

The Late James Best, Sen.

Mr. James Best, a life-long resident of Peterborough county and a universally respected citizen of the town for nearly half a century, died at his residence on Water-st. at noon yesterday. The death summons was very sudden and unexpected. The deceased gentleman some two or three weeks ago was prostrated with an attack of grippe, but he was improving and up till almost the moment of his death no immediate danger was anticipated. A few minutes before life departed he had been conversing with those about him. Heart failure was the cause of his sudden demise. The late James Best was a son of the late Francis Best, of Emily township, and was born at the homestead in that township where his brother William still resides, in the year 1828, being sixty-four years of age at the time of his death. At the age of eighteen the deceased came to Peterborough and accepted a position as clerk with the firm of Nicholson & Ball. After seven or eight years with this firm he embarked in business for himself and has been in the dry-goods business ever since. He was a member of the Church of England and connected with St. John's church. As a citizen Mr. Best was unassuming and never aspired to any public office, but pursued the even tenor of an upright, honest business man, winning and retaining the respect of all with whom he came in contact. He was married to Miss Fanny Crawford who survives him. Four children—three boys and one girl—were born to the union, and one son, James, survives his father. The bereaved wife and sorrowing son and his mourning relatives will receive the sympathy of the community in their hour of sadness. The funeral will take place from the family residence, Water-st. at three o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Died in Bakers.

On Feb. 18th Mrs. Leitch, wife of Mr. Wm. Leitch, formerly of Peterborough, died at her home in Clifford. In her husband's life she was a devoted wife and mother. Mr. and Mrs. Leitch visited friends in this town and county two years ago and while here they were taken with a grippe, which was prevalent then as it has been this winter. Having recovered somewhat they returned home, where they both had a relapse. Mr. Leitch recovered but Mrs. Leitch never fully recovered from the attack. On Feb. 11th last she was seized with a pain in the chest, which continued until the 15th Feb. when she became worse. She seemed to be recovering after that, but on the night of the 18th she suddenly passed away. The funeral service was held on Sunday, the 21st, in the No. 3 school house, Broadview township, and the building was filled with the large congregation. Rev. Mr. Wisnand preached the funeral sermon from the text, "To me to live is Christ and to die is gain." Mrs. Leitch was born in Goldstream, but was a native of Scotland, and was 68 years of age at the time of her death. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and was always kindhearted and charitable and was much respected by her neighbors.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS

A Fraternal Visit. A number of persons from town drove to Lakeside this evening to pay a fraternal visit to Clement Lodge, A. F. & A. M.

Mrs. R. F. Brown, Kingston, Ont. Was the fortunate person to secure the elegant Gold Watch from the Ladies' Bazaar (of Toronto, Ontario). Prize Competition for Thursday. Watches and other prizes given away daily. Send two three cent stamps for particulars.

A Wheel and Good Fortune. At the Edison works yesterday a number of the workmen, and one in particular, had a fortunate escape from injury. A workman was setting a tool on the emery wheel when by some means the wheel burst and flew in all directions. Fortunately no one was injured, not even the man who stood at the wheel.

Thanks rendered. At a meeting of the High Chief Ranger's Reception Committee, Canadian Order of Foresters, held last evening, a resolution was passed tendering the thanks of the members to Jas. Stevenson, Esq., M.P., Mrs. J. R. Stratton, M.P., and to the ladies and gentlemen who kindly assisted in the entertainment on the occasion of the visit of the R.W. High Chief Ranger; also to the Edison Club for the use of their parlors and piano, and to the societies and individuals who loaned flags and decorations for the hall that evening.

Small Notes. Mr. Robt. Mounsey, of the township of Alvin, has recently purchased the promising young bull "Waverly of Birdall" to place as the head of his herd of short horns. He was bred by F. Birdall and Son, of Birdall, Ont. His sire, "Waverly," carried off first honors both at Peterborough and Woodstock last fall and his dam, "Daisy Deane," was bred by Mr. Wm. Collins, of Peterborough. This should be a sufficient guarantee of his usefulness in the dairy herd.

Board of Trade Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the Board of Trade will be held this evening when every member should make it a point to be present, as a large attendance at the annual meeting means a successful year. Some of the matters coming up for discussion are:—The new order-in-council affecting the lumbermen, the sewerage, publication of the assessment roll, the desirability of a more complete town-auditors' report, the public health, high taxes for current expenses, the new association, the Secretary's report. The election of officers will take place to-night.

As a cure for paralysis, sciatica, rheumatism, female troubles, such as suppression, bearing down pains, etc., general debility and that tired feeling peculiar to so many, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills stand unrivalled. Beware of imitations and substitutes. Sold by all dealers or sent by mail post paid on receipt of price—50 cts. a box—The Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

There was a large audience at the Charlotte-st. Methodist church last evening to hear the strong lecture of his visit delivered by John R. Clarke, the popular orator. "To and Fro in London" was the subject and the lecturer interested and amused his audience by his descriptions of London and noted men whose life and actions were recalled by the scenes in the great city. Rev. Mr. Edwards, pastor of the church, presided at the meeting, which was opened with singing and prayer and closed with the doxology.

THE LONDON ELECTION.

Messrs. Gough Bros. are temporarily removing their winter stock of boots and shoes and some of their clothing to No. 3 Clouston-Or block, 368 George-st., in order to clear the way for the extensive enlargement and improvement of their premises. The expansion of Gough Bros. business forced them to enlarge their premises, and this enlargement forced them to seek the temporary premises named above, where, it must be remembered, their big bargains follow their goods.

A meeting of the lacrosse club will be held on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Olympic club rooms.

The Peterborough and Edison hockey teams were at the rink last night all ready to battle for supremacy, but the curfew was on the ice and the match had to be postponed.

The Peterborough team goes to Lindsay to-morrow night to play the Lindsay team.

On Saturday evening two ladies walking up the west side of George-st. prevented the show window of Joseph Agnew & Co.'s dry goods establishment from being destroyed by fire. A silk handkerchief suspended from the top of the window fell and caught in the lighted gas jet in the window and in a moment was in a blaze. The ladies noticed the accident and crossed the street in time to prevent the burning silk from falling among the light goods in the window and igniting a general blaze.

A Pleasant Social. A social was held in the lecture room of the George-st. Methodist church last evening under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society and there was a large attendance of young people. A large social programme was carried out:—A solo by Miss Morse, club singing by Miss Mann, recitation by Mr. Corkran, instrumental duet by Master Percy and Leslie Owens, reading by Miss Ames, instrumental solo by Miss Noble, instrumental solo by Percy Owens. Refreshments were served by the young ladies in abundance and of excellent quality and a most enjoyable evening was spent. One gratifying feature of the evening was that a number became members of the society.

Remember that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has no equal as a specific for colds, coughs, and all affections of the throat and lungs. For nearly half a century it has been in greater demand than any other remedy for pulmonary complaints. All druggists have it for sale.

A very sudden death. Miss Maggie Bollen, daughter of Mrs. John Bollen, of Lakeside, died very suddenly yesterday afternoon. The young lady attended the lecture delivered by His Lordship Bishop O'Connor at St. Peter's cathedral on Sunday evening and was apparently in her usual health and spirits. After returning home she was taken suddenly ill and never rallied, death ensuing about four o'clock yesterday afternoon. Heart failure was the cause of death. The deceased young lady was well known in town and was highly respected. Her very sudden demise was a terrible shock to her mother and friends. The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at the family residence, Lakeside, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Death of Joseph Griffin. Joseph Griffin, bailiff of the Division Court, died at his residence between ten and eleven o'clock this morning. The deceased had not been ill many days and his demise was unexpected by his friends. Last evening he seemed to be in good health and the doctors held out little hope. This morning death came. The deceased was a well-known resident of the town. He was a native of Peterborough, being a son of the late Anthony Griffin. He was forty-three years of age at the time of his death. In youth he was apprenticed with Mr. James Steenson and learned the shoemaking trade. Later he went into business for himself. About four years ago he was appointed bailiff of the Division Court and held that position until his death. He was a member of the Roman Catholic church and of the local Court of the Catholic Order of Foresters. He leaves a wife and family to mourn his loss. The funeral will take place at 2:30 on Thursday from his late residence.

In the Way of Improvements. Among the improvements in George-st. business houses have been done more to brighten and improve and at the same time afford increased accommodation, than those which have been completed in the dry goods establishment of Messrs. Joe. Armstrong & Co. The visitor who remembers the premises as they were a lamentable lack of daylight in the rear portion of the store. This has been remedied and now the sunshine floods the store through a plate glass rear. The stair-case which ran from the centre of the store to the second story stairway runs upwards along the south side. This has given an additional space of about twenty-two feet to the store. This space has been utilized to advantage for the display of large stock of staple and fancy dry-goods which the firm always carry on their shelves, and also a room for a nobby business office. A rear entrance and a window of plate glass right the shop in a magnificent manner. The woodwork have been finished in cherry and the effect is good, harmonizing beautifully with the handsome paper and decorations with which the walls and ceiling have been ornamented. It is now a commodious and handsome store that the firm of Armstrong & Co. occupy at the Lakeside.

Enlargement and Improvement.

Messrs. Gough Bros. are temporarily removing their winter stock of boots and shoes and some of their clothing to No. 3 Clouston-Or block, 368 George-st., in order to clear the way for the extensive enlargement and improvement of their premises. The expansion of Gough Bros. business forced them to enlarge their premises, and this enlargement forced them to seek the temporary premises named above, where, it must be remembered, their big bargains follow their goods.

The Milk Turned Sour. I will not tell you her name, but one of the neighbors says that during her brief visit the other day the milk turned sour. Her countenance looks a yard long. She sighs perpetually. The cloud on her brow is deep. If beaten out this, I believe it would cover the sky. Her voice is doubtful, and her eyes show no radiance. Her wrinkles are numerous. She is a sorry picture, and she is the victim of one of the most common complaints common to women. Her system is deranged. She needs a course of self-treatment with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This will eradicate thoroughly those excruciating periodical pains and functional weaknesses incident to her sex, and at the same time build up and invigorate her whole system by its health imparting influence. A trial bottle will convince.

Rescued in a Hay. Two rather unusual visitors appeared at the police station last evening and were furnished with and oaken mattress in the cells for the night. They were two dusky aborigines, an Indian girl of seventeen summers and her brother fourteen. The two young people told a story of privation and suffering. They had lived at the Indian reserve near Hagersville. Their father and mother had both gone to the happy hunting grounds and they had been under the protection of their grandfather. Their grandfather owned a lot of private land and resided on it with his wife and a few other people. They were very poor and after getting the children back to a hut of a home the Indian deserted them and the two children had lived on until starvation started them in the face. Then they started a long, weary walk for town and arrived here yesterday afternoon. The Chief gave them shelter for the night and this morning they were sent on to Hagersville at the town's expense. The case will probably be enquired into.

A Week's Circuit for Theatre. "W. W. Power, the energetic manager of the Queens Opera House," says the Belleville Ontario, "is always looking after the interests of the theatre-going public. He has now a plan on for the formation of a week's circuit between Toronto and Montreal, including Belleville, Peterborough, Kingston, Brockville, and two nights at Ottawa. The idea has met with the unanimous support of Peterborough, Kingston and Brockville, and it is likely that in view of the new opera house mooted in Ottawa that city will also come into the ring. An effort is being made in Toronto to form a week's circuit in Western Ontario. Instead of staying two weeks in Canada as many of the better class of shows now do this arrangement will give them four weeks. Another feature of the scheme is that a great many shows will cross the line that would not go to the expense and inconvenience of crossing over for only two weeks. If Mr. Power can show on the road will be looked and hence the public can see a good show and there will be money in it for the management."

THIRD ANNUAL MEETING OF THE PETERBOROUGH BOARD OF TRADE.

President's and Secretary's Reports—Towns Drainage—The Street Railway—Railway Crossings and Gates—New Members, etc.
The Board of Trade met on Tuesday evening to celebrate in a general way the third birthday of the institution. The Town Council Chamber was at the Board's disposal and the seats of the councillors were occupied by gentlemen who are interested in furthering the interests of the town in every good way.

There was present President Meldrum and Messrs. A. Hall, W. Mason, G. W. Ramsey, R. McWhinnie, J. P. Hurley, F. Matthews, W. G. Bain, A. L. Davis, Geo. Sproule, Chas. Wynne, R. Malbolland, Jas. Keady, T. A. Hay, H. S. Macdonald, Macfarlane Wilson, R. Fair, F. H. Dobbin, D. W. Dumble, Jas. Fairweather, H. Thompson, J. E. Belcher, R. B. Rogers, W. A. Stratton and Geo. Schofield. The Secretary, Mr. J. H. Burnham, read the minutes of the last annual meeting, which were approved.

The President laid on the table his report with the remark that further on in the meeting it would be offered for the consideration of members. The report will appear in the issues of the DAILY REVIEW of tomorrow.

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT.
The Secretary then presented his annual report as follows:—
Mr. President and Gentlemen:
I have the honor to submit to you my third annual report. The Board has grown to be a powerful organization, established to be hoped upon a permanently sound basis. The opportunities afforded by its existence for public discussion of any measure are becoming more thoroughly appreciated as people see how highly the Board of Trade is valued elsewhere. The young men are urged to follow more closely the example of the older ones who give careful attention to the well-being of the Board, and who often at risk and inconvenience attend its meetings. The young men should shoulder their responsibility in this community more readily as they are to the men of age and experience in the future.

1. At the first meeting of the year the question of sewerage was brought up. Since then it has been considered by the proper committee of the Board who are anxious that the Board should express a general opinion upon it at the first meeting held since the handing in of the engineer's report. There is a widely spread feeling that the health of the municipality has not been protected as it might have been.

2. When the street railway matter came first before the public, your committee left measure untended whereby they might assist in furthering and protecting the interests of the town.

3. It may be observed that the statute of Canada creating boards of trade gives them very great opportunities for effectively looking after public affairs within the district of each one. In fact it is doubtful if any body of men within the contemplation of the laws of the Dominion has more real power.

4. A very practical undertaking just brought to a successful issue by this Board is the organization of the Merchants Mutual Protective Association for the town and county. Many plans have been presented at various times by travellers to the merchants of the town, but few of them have stood the test of your committee's investigation. Those that are sound are also expensive, and they must necessarily be of limited local membership. It is manifest that unless the local membership be large subscribers will not be able either to make a thoroughly united effort to stamp out the system of getting credit without any intention of paying or to make delinquent debtors "pay up," as far as possible. This local association has been established upon a firm and economical basis starting with a large membership of over 65, which is most encouraging. Your committee recommends the appointment of Mr. Mahony as registrar of this association.

5. Trade has been good this year and the farmers are in improved circumstances. The reports received by your Secretary indicate a healthy condition of business. The tendency to over-do merchant-trading has subsided although there is still an empty sufficient number of places of business. Failures have been few and unimportant.

6. People become aware, last summer, of something quite new in the history of the town—viz., comparative failure of the water-supply both for manufacturing and domestic use. The board proceeded without delay to inquire into the causes of the scarcity and your secretary thereupon addressed a long letter to the Minister of Railways and Canals at Ottawa asking the department to give its immediate attention to the large system of reservoirs in the north country, and the extension of either the Local or Dominion House. The Minister promptly responded by directing the local superintendent to prepare a plan for the relief of the water supply. The engineer has made his report and from the nature of it, it may be said that both navigation and commerce will receive a great benefit. This action on the part of the board should be followed up until the great danger to our water supply is finally removed and navigation is made easy.

7. A great deal of time was spent upon the T. V. canal project, more especially in securing the cooperation of the boards of trade along the line of the water-way and of the cities in the N. W. Nothing new remains to be reported with respect to it.

8. Your secretary has written far and wide and despatched circulars to the four corners of the globe. He has received acknowledgments and reports from many distant places showing that the distribution of iron ore serves at least to keep Peterborough in the public mind. Boards of trade have exchanged reports with this board and your secretary has been careful to keep up a cordial relationship with them.

9. The railway crossings in town continue unprotected and dangerous. As the town will without the necessary rates be largely liable in case of accidents the Board has more than once expressed its opinion that the matter should be carefully looked into with a view of removing this source of danger.

10. It is submitted that it would be well for the Board to direct the attention of the municipal committee of this Board to some scheme whereby the current expenses of the town may be met without a resort to high assessments and taxation.

11. It is recommended that a request be made to the honorable body of town councillors for the publication in the newspapers or otherwise of the assessment roll. It is believed that this if done only for one year would be a matter of public gratification and information. It is further recommended that a request be made for a more explicit report from the local auditors in order that the ratepayers may be more easily view the state of the town's finances.

STATISTICS.
There have been held 8 general meetings, 10 committee meetings, 5 council meetings and ten sub-committee meetings. The members number 75, an increase of ten.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH.
12. It is submitted that the action of the Board of Health is not altogether satisfactory. On an examination of their annual report for 1890 p. 27, 28 of governmental returns just to hand, under the heading of "Slaughter houses" it will be seen that the citizens are expected to act as their own board of health. A few extracts will illustrate:—"On this question matters reached a climax during the year. Last winter a new slaughter house having been established at the S. end of the town without permission from the Board, residents in that locality urged the removal of all slaughter houses and were commended with the Provincial Board on the subject. Such strong denunciation making vigorous representations to the slaughterer, that the Board found it necessary to withdraw permission from all slaughter houses within the corporation," places "which although kept under the best management could hardly be other than unsanitary."

13. With all due deference and fraternal regard for the local board it is submitted by your committee on the report, that they do not appreciate their true and proper functions, which are to guard the public rather than to ensure that the public should have to ensure them. It is further advised that some action be taken with reference to the filling up of Spaulding's Bay with sand, which as medical authorities say is likely to make it a hot-bed of infectious diseases when the rotting process has thoroughly set in. The report of the Board of Health itself upholds this view "when the names that is piled of saw-dust in Little Lake" begin to decay, should become built upon there there would be some risk to the community. In other parts of Canada many cases of typhoid fever have originated from this cause.

AN EVENING AT ST. LUKE'S.

An Enjoyable Entertainment by the Young People of the Church.
The young people of St. Luke's church presented an excellent entertainment before a large and very appreciative audience at the Sunday school room last evening. The programme was one of merit and each number was well rendered, while the presentation of the laughable farce in four acts, "The Irish Broom-maker," was a whole programme in itself.

The programme opened with an overture by the orchestra. Then followed a song by Mr. J. J. Turner, Jr., a dialogue by Willie Armstrong and Reg. Turner, a mouth organ solo by H. Plack and W. Edwards, and a character duet by Mr. J. J. Turner and Miss L. Long. These came the event of the evening, the "Irish Broom-maker." The casts was a strong one, each of the members portraying with talent their several parts. The central figure was the broom maker himself, Mr. F. Packenham. The presentation was enjoyed immensely. The walls between acts were delightfully filled in by selections by the orchestra. The casts of characters was as follows:—
Sir Ralph Credulous..... Mr. A. H. Gaskins
Walter Levee..... J. J. Turner, Jr.
Dr. Francis..... R. W. Wilson
Dennis Murphy..... R. W. Wilson
Dr. Murphy, professor of medicine..... J. J. Turner, Jr.

Y.M.C.A. NOTES.

The Monthly Board Meeting—The Work That is Being Done Among the Young Men.
The monthly board meeting was held last evening. The attendance was excellent. Mr. Kearl, president, occupied the chair. Encouraging and cheering reports were given by Mr. Isaac Richardson for the devotional, and by Mr. A. J. Hamilton for the recreation committee, which showed that since January 21st about 1000 young men have visited the rooms in the evening, 188 the gymnasium, 556 attended family worship. This gives some idea of the work the association is doing among young men.

Mr. G. S. Best reported on behalf of Finance Committee. The annual report will be issued in a few days to subscribers and friends whom we are paying for a hearty response on the part of our citizens to enable us to do still more aggressive work. The General Secretary gave a review of the work for the past month and outlined future lines to be taken up especially in the study. They had been a very interesting class for the students in the Collegiate Institute on Saturday afternoon which promises to be both profitable and interesting. It was agreed that two members of the Board should be appointed as visitors for the month, to visit the rooms, meetings, etc., and report to the Board each month. This will bring the members closer together and all will be in the intelligent knowledge of the work as it is carried on. A hearty and sincere vote of thanks was tendered to the Ladies' Auxiliary for the handsome manner they have furnished the rooms and also for their continued hearty interest in our work. Special efforts will be made to increase our membership, seeing we shall have a very complete association "home" when we get the new apparatus in the gymnasium, which will be under the supervision of Sgt. Major Readle. All young men should realize the great need of physical culture and join this class at once. It meets each Monday and Thursday evening and if we can get enough business men to go in we shall have a class on Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 6.

We are glad the religious services held each week at the Protestant Home and Nichol's Hospital are appreciated and that there is a request from both the institutions for more services, which we hope to be able to comply with shortly.

Ladies appreciate Anti-Dandruff from the fact that it not only thoroughly removes dandruff but restores fading hair to its original color, and makes it soft and pliable without leaving any indication of a dressing being used—clear as crystal, clean to use, it is a valuable toilet preparation.

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 years—Restored to Perfect Health.

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McLaughlin, a well known grocer of Hamilton, Ont. He says: "Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering from burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, anxiety, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and on days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to come up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other.

THREE LONDON ELECTIONS

The Hamilton Spectator thus clearly states the case in regard to the disputed votes in London: "The case of the London voters objected to by the Reformers appears to be somewhat complicated. But, in the first place, the men are qualified voters. They are bona fide residents of or owners of property in London, and when the revising officer made his preliminary list, he put all these names on. This was in the spring of 1911. In October the secretary of the Reform association sent out about 800 notices of objection to names on the list. The law declares that objections shall be made in the form D in the schedule of the act; and form D says the objector shall 'state the name or names objected to, with the grounds therefor.' The notices sent out by the secretary of the Reform association did not state the grounds of objection. He merely went on a fishing excursion. It is part of the Reform plan of campaign to send out wholesale lists of objections to Conservative voters, trusting that some of the persons objected to will neglect to put in an appearance, and that their names will be struck from the rolls by reason of their default. It is very evident that such was the design in London. Instead of fighting each individual case the Conservatives decided to deny the authority of the notices sent out. Those notices did not comply with the requirement of the statute, and they were unfair in that they sought to put men on trial without specifying the charge against them. They simply called upon 800 citizens to go into court and prove themselves innocent. A Mr. Allen, a bona fide elector, was selected as the representative of the class. He went before the revising barrister, but he refused to prove his right to vote; he objected to the objection. He denied that the notices sent him was a legal notice. The revising officer held that the notice was insufficient, and gave leave to the Reform officials to amend their notices. Mr. Allen then appeared to the county judge and he was still held to represent the whole class of Conservatives attacked. Judge Elliott decided that the notice was invalid, null and void, and the revising officer then declined to act upon any of the notices. Mr. Allen held that this decision was final, and that he would appeal from it. The law says that in Ontario appeal from the revising officer shall be taken to the county judge, and that the decision 'shall be subject to no further appeal.' Nevertheless the Reformers did appeal to the court of Queen's Bench and that court held the notices to be sufficient, and issued a mandamus ordering the revising officer to hear the objections. Mr. Allen again appealed to the court of appeal, but before a decision was reached, the revising officer proceeded to act upon the notices and struck the names of about 400 voters from the list. In the meantime the court of chancery had decided that the court of Queen's Bench had no power to issue the mandamus it had issued. When the appeal reached the court of appeal that court decided to entertain it on the ground that the mandamus of the court of Queen's Bench had already been acted upon. Mr. Allen and 329 other bona fide electors then appealed to the county judge against the action of the revising barrister in striking their names from the list. This appeal has not yet been heard. Of these 329, 131 voted on Friday. Mr. Carling received 128 of their ballots and Mr. Hyman three. At least that is the latest statement. What the county judge will do we cannot pretend to say. What is certain is that 131 properly qualified electors have endeavored to exercise their franchise, and that the Reformers by trick and device have tried to disfranchise them.

TOOK HIM FOR A MAIL BAG

Harry Johnson, 1411 1/2 St. of a 1st class train, left for a

DONOR FERRY, N.Y., March 2.—Harry Johnson, 30, of Trenton, N.J., met with a singular accident yesterday.

He was working on a scaffold surrounding one of the signal towers now being erected. At 4:30 o'clock the fast mail came thundering along. The mail is taken from a stand by a lever catch, that is, the mail bag is suspended from the stand and as the train approaches it the bag is snatched with a lever while the train is going at full speed. This stand is built but a few feet from the new tower.

As the train came along the legman must have taken Johnson for the mail bag, as he threw out his lever, which caught Johnson about the legs below the knees. In its tight grasp it drew Johnson toward the train and dropped him to the ground, nine feet below.

Johnson's legs are terribly crushed and it is feared that amputation will be necessary.

A ROUGH TIME

British Steamer Abandoned—Another on the Rocks—The Crews Saved.

LONDON, March 3.—Heavy weather prevailed in the English Channel. The British steamer "Plati," from Liverpool for Bristol, was abandoned yesterday in a sinking condition 160 miles west of Scilly Islands. In addition to a dangerous leak in her main shaft, the vessel was broken and it was an impossibility to handle the vessel. Her crew were taken off by the steamer "J. W. Taylor," bound out from Liverpool, which landed them at Falmouth. At Dover a perfect blizzard is prevailing, and the passage across the channel is very rough. The mail boat "Ville de Douvres," plying between Dover and Ostend, while attempting to make the pier at Dover, was driven on the rocks, but she was afterward towed off. On the east coast of England the storm is equally severe and all the ports are filled with weather-bound vessels.

GREAT STRIKE IMPENDING

Thousands Will Cease Work—Coal Rising in Price—Excitement in London.

LONDON, March 3.—As the time approaches for the inauguration of the strike of the coal-miners, who on March 12 will quit work for two weeks with this object of compelling such an advance in the price of coal as will prevent the mine owners from reducing wages, the effects on the government can be more readily gauged. It would be impossible to approximately estimate the number of persons who would be thrown out of work by the closing of mines, iron works, factories, etc., but it is certain that over one million employes will be idle. With their families it is believed that close on to five million persons will directly or indirectly feel the effect of the attempt of the miners to prevent any reduction in their wages. Of the miners themselves, 460,000 men will take part in the strike. The outcome is watched with more than usual interest that pertains to labor movements for the attempt is on such a gigantic scale that everybody who uses coal will either be compelled to pay increased prices for fuel or, in the case of manufacturers, close down their works and lose the profits of their business. At Sheffield the rolling mills and the T. V. T. association announce that the works will be closed during the miners' strike. The decision affects thousands of cutlery, grinders and forgers. All the employees of the engineering works, iron foundries and wagon building works connected with Lord Durham's and Lord Londonderry's collieries have given notice that those works will be closed. Seven thousand railway employes connected with the collieries will be thrown out of work. The price of coal in Sheffield district has risen three shillings per ton. In Dublin the price is four shillings per ton higher.

A GUN AT ITS HEAD.

Shocking Suicide of a Resident of Clinton It Ran in the Family.

CLINTON, March 3.—William Cooper, father of the late W. H. Cooper, tired of this world's care, put an end to himself yesterday. He placed a gun in his mouth and pulled the trigger blew the top of his head off. The corpse presented a horrible sight. He died instantly. It is just one year ago that his son threw himself before an express train here and was also instantly killed.

Ended Life With His War Pistol.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., March 3.—John G. Mason, a well-known lawyer and public man of this place, committed suicide Sunday by shooting himself through the head with a pistol he carried during the war. His body was found before a large mirror in his room in the house he occupied alone. He was a member of the historic family of his name and followed the fortunes of Lee and Jackson. So devoted was he to the Confederate cause that he made himself conspicuous by wearing on public occasions the same grey uniform he wore at the surrender.

He was about 50 years old and twice a widower. The loss of his last wife seemed to break him down.

Late Saturday night he met J. W. Colburn, one of the famous Black Horse Cavalry of Fauquier county, and when they separated he said: "Good-bye, old 'Reb'; you will never see me again."

A will was found in which he expressed a wish to be buried in his Confederate uniform.

Once More the Fatal Crossing.

ONEARVILLE, March 3.—About a week last evening Patrick McGarvey, a well-known farmer of Laval, was crossing the track just outside the town when his horse took fright at an approaching train and became unmanageable. The team was struck by the locomotive. McGarvey was instantly killed and the horses so badly injured that they subsequently died. McGarvey was aged 55 years.

His Father Lives at Athens, Ont.

BUFFALO, March 3.—A fall of rock in the tunnel at Niagara Falls yesterday caught Robert D. Addison, 20 years old, son of a physician at Athens, Ont. His right arm was broken and his back hurt so that he is paralyzed below the hips.

A Baby With Four Feet and Four Hands.

BURLINGTON, Ia., March 3.—Mrs. K. Houton, living near here, has given birth to a girl baby with four well-developed feet and hands and one body. The two organisms being grown together face to face. The little monstrosity is alive.

East Simcoe.

ONTOARIO, March 3.—The official declaration of the election in East Simcoe gives a majority for Bennett (Cons.) of 112. There were 109 spoiled and rejected ballots.

Another Beauharnois Man Gets There.

NICOLET, Que., March 3.—Mr. Monette, the Opposition nominee for the Quebec Legislature in Nicolet, has resigned. Mr. Beauharnois, Conservative, is consequently elected without opposition.

A Pleasant Herb Drink—A Spring Medicine.

The druggists tell us that people call daily for the new cure for constipation and sick-headache discovered by Dr. Elias Lane. It is said to be Oregon grape root, a great remedy in the far west for those complaints combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It sells at 50c and $1 a package and is called Lane's Family Medicine.

Reviews.

There were no arrests last night. A party of seven left this morning for a fox hunt in the townships.

Otonabee Lodge, L.O.O.F., had a rehearsal of the third degree last night.

Peterborough Lodge, L.O.O.F., meets tonight.

Hamilton is also suggested now as the objective point for the annual trip of the 7th Battalion.

The Manufacturers Committee meets at three o'clock this afternoon to meet a gentleman in regard to an industry which he wishes to locate.

Frank Anthony, the peasant vendor, is not going to leave his stand at the corner of George and Hunter-roads, without an effort to alter the order of the Council which made it compulsory for him to move. Frank is circulating a petition and having it largely signed asking the Council to allow him and Wm. Job to continue in their present stands at the street corner.

Better and Better.

"Better than grandeur, better than gold, Better than rank and thousand fold, Is a healthy body, a mind at ease, And simple pleasures that always please."

To get and keep a healthy body, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a remedy designed to not only cure all diseases of the throat, lungs and chest, but keep the body in a thoroughly healthy condition. It eradicates all impurities from the blood, and cures all indigestion and dyspepsia, blotches, pimples and eruptions disappear under its use, and your mind can be "at ease" as to your health.

Entertainment and Improvement.

Messrs. Gough Bros. are temporarily removing their winter stock of boots and shoes and some of their clothing to No. 3 Claxton-Ox block, 303 George-st. In order to clear the way for the extensive enlargement and improvement of their premises. The expansion of Gough Bros. business forced them to enlarge their premises, and this enlargement forced them to seek the temporary premises named above, where, it must be remembered, their big bargains follow their goods. 331

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting artificial strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes

That Tired Feeling
creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

Fagged Out
"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." H. C. Brooks, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out
"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully it saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. Phoebe Moshier, 50 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.

Our Canadian Home.
The sixth census bulletin issued by the Dominion statistian, deals with the houses of Canada, and shows that the increase in the number of inhabited houses throughout the country is proportionally larger than the increase in population, and, by inference, that our people are living better, and in better circumstances than they were ten years ago. On the 6th of April last there were in Canada 684,842 occupied houses; under construction 10,875 and unoccupied, 84,164. The occupants of a large percentage of these vacant houses had moved from them to new houses. The increase in the number of houses between 1881 and 1891 was 10.9 per cent., while the increase in population was 11.07 per cent. The number of houses in each of the Provinces and the increase during the past ten years given below:

Ask Your Friends about it
Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured thousands of people in this community. Its remarkable sale has been won entirely by its genuine merit. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so pure, none so effective. Large bottles 50c. and $1. at all druggists.

The Education Department.

In 1874 the people of Ontario paid through the department of education, the sum of $225,117. In 1881 the expenditure was $225,924. Increase, nearly 50 per cent.

In the former year the government grants to common schools amounted to $225,924. Last year they amounted to $225,117. A slight decrease.

Receiving grants to common schools, the expenditure to 1891 amounted to $278,963.77. In 1891 to $438,745.37—an increase of 56 per cent.

This department exactly illustrates the operations of the Moral government. The benefit to the people is enormous. The expense to the people is enormous. Increase.—Spectator.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain in condensed form the elements for building up the blood and nervous system. When broken down from overwork, mental worry, abuse or excess, you will find them a never-failing cure. For several years I was persistently annoyed with an excessive accumulation of Dandruff and although using various preparations recommended and shampooing regularly once a week, no material relief was realized until my attention was called to Anti-Dandruff, which has produced an instant cure. In my case, four applications removing every particle of Dandruff, and as a specific for this trouble it certainly has no equal.

Yours truly, W. T. ROBINSON.

FROM HARVEY.

A Sabbath School Convention held in Zion Church.

Correspondence of the Review.
A Sabbath school convention was held in Zion church, Harvey, on March 3rd. Mr. Merrill, President, presided and Miss M. Chase acted as secretary. The convention was opened in the afternoon with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Mr. Snowden who then placed the meeting in the hands of the chairman.

The first subject, "Relation of the S.S. to the Home," was introduced by Rev. Mr. Snowden who dealt with it under the two heads, the relation of S.S. to Christian homes, and the relation of S.S. to un-Christian homes. The subject was further discussed by Rev. Mr. Haley, Messrs. Merrill, Ventress, Brock, Hiscott, Lavery and Tate. After singing and prayer the second subject, "S.S. Officers and their Duties," was introduced by Mr. Hiscott. The discussion which followed was participated in by Rev. Mr. Snowden, Mr. Merrill and Rev. Mr. Haley. Meeting was then closed by singing and prayer.

Evening Session.
Mr. Merrill opened the evening meeting by singing and prayer.

The minutes of the afternoon were then read. The first subject, "The Lessons that had been learned at Conventions held at Lakehurst and Taylor," was introduced by Mr. Brock. The subject was further discussed by Messrs. Merrill and Ventress. Mr. Merrill read and looked up only the first ten verses of the thirty-ninth chapter of Jeremiah and discussed the different methods of teaching the lesson. Mr. Haley added his view to the subject. At a hymn had been sung Mr. Haley gave an instructive address. Questions bearing on S.S. work were asked and answered by Mr. Haley.

A collection amounting to $1.75 was then taken up. Vote of thanks was given to the delegates and also to the friends at St. John's Church for their kind hospitality. The meeting was closed by Rev. Mr. Haley.

REVIEWS.

THE COSMOPOLITAN.—Elizabeth Island, who recently married a wealthy New York lawyer, opens the March number of the Cosmopolitan with an article on the Cologne Cathedral beautifully illustrated from photographs. Adam Badeau, the ex-Confederate General to London, under the title of "Lawrence Hill and the Countess Waldgrave," contributes a paper on his life when an officer of the guards. M. H. de Young, Commissioner of the World's Fair from California, has a most interesting article on expositions, sketching the history of their rise and progressive development. The illustrations accompanying this article are from the pen of Harry Penn and adequately display to the readers the architectural glories of the Fair buildings.

Patience Stapleton's story, "The Trailing Yew," is concluded, and Oscar Ray Adams appears with a delightfully amusing and satirical sketch entitled "An Archbishop's Unguarded Moment." Mrs. Bee's Mexican study is a gem of crystallized observation and color. Charles E. A. Wingate gives one of his careful and pleasant studies of the history of the stage in fair images upon the stage. The other papers in this number, are: A Night with a Leopard, a serio-comic adventure in Ceylon; Political Cartoons of Tennyson, the great cartoonist of Punch; and a paper by the Editor on the problem of Aerial Navigation, which the Cosmopolitan has set itself to solve if it can. The departments are continued by Dr. Hale and Brander Matthews.

THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.—The March number of the Ladies' Home Journal, which most admirably the exact opposite of this popular magazine has accumulated its 700,000 readers to expect; the place of honor is given to the interesting and beautifully illustrated article by Ada Chester Bond entitled "A Royal Recluse," which deals with the life of seclusion led by the Empress of France, Eugenie, England Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher continues her interesting reminiscences of her famous husband, and Miss Winnie Davis, daughter of Jefferson Davis, contributes her concluding paper on "The American Girl Who Studied Abroad." Mrs. Frank Leslie and Henri Junius Browne answer in decided negatives the questioned accusations are our Girls Too Independent? and Are Women Inconstant? Frederick Doelman gives an interesting sketch, illustrated with portraits of Mrs. Charles H. Spurgeon, the widow of the famous London preacher, and Frances E. Smith, an equally delighted one of Mrs. Gabrielle Greasley Clendenin.

The first part of a serial, "A Brief Prelude," by Margaret Butler Snow, capably illustrated by A. B. Wenzell, provides good fiction. Samuel Abbott and Harry Romaine contribute short poems, while the cover bears a poem to March, by Ella Wheeler Wilcox. Rev. Dr. Falmagne, Mrs. Lyman Abbott, Mrs. Margie B. Botome and Mrs. Scott are found in their respective departments. Robert J. Burdette discourses from a New Testament: But Ashmore continues her Side Talks With Girls, and Foster Coates gives the boys much information concerning the "Boys Who Have." Famous. The article is represented in the pages edited by Maude Haywood and Mary F. Knapp. Mrs. Mallon writes of Fashionable Visiting Toilettes, and Miss Hooper is as usually helpful to the home dressmaker.

The juvenile subscribers are remembered in the full pages of Mr. Palmer Cox's "Brownies," and the amateur gardener in Mr. Raxford's "All About Flowers." Although the March number is of unusual excellence, (Ourlis Publishing Company, of Philadelphia.)

THE CENTURY MAGAZINE.—The frontispiece of the March number is an engraving of Paderewski from a photograph, and in addition a drawing by Irving R. Wiles is given, showing the great virtuoso at the piano. Accompanying these pictures are A Great Study, by the distinguished American pianist and composer, William Mason. A Biographical Sketch, by Miss Fanny Morris Smith, and a poem, by R. W. Gilder, entitled How Paderewski Played. In this number of the Century Mr. Stodman's essays on poetry are begun. Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer has an article on St. Paul's Cathedral, which is brilliantly illustrated by Joseph Pennell. The United States Fish Commission is described by Mr. Richard Rathbun, a scientific member of the staff. Professor Henry C. Adams presents a timely study of "The Farmer and Railway Legislation." Prof. Boyesen tells of An Acquaintance with Hans Christian Andersen, Colonel Richard Malcolm Johnston, the popular story-writer, has a paper, illustrated by Embury, on Middle Georgia Rural Life. The Rippling-Balletter Naulahka is continued, as well as Dr. Weir Mitchell's Characteristics. Hamlin Garland begins a serial in three parts entitled "Old Pap's Flaxen." Dorothy Prescott, a new writer, makes a social study of the savitrons of Boston in an illustrated story called "Our Tolstoy Club." Miss Viola Roseboro' tells the story of The Village Romance, and Mrs. Burton Harrison that of Gay's Romance. Fictionally the number is remarkable not only for the pictures in the descriptive articles, so called, but for Mr. Cole's engravings, this time after Giorgione. Among the poets of the number are Thomas Bailey Aldrich, Mrs. James T. Field, Langdon E. Mitchell, Charlotte Fiske Bates, Alice Williams Robertson. Mr. Bull's article on the Louisiana Lottery National Lottery, written before the withdrawal of the Lottery from the contest in Louisiana.

It is not what its proprietors say, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that makes it sell and win the confidence of the people.

If all tens were alike you would be sure to know just what you are purchasing, but they are not. The difference in their quality are as wide as the difference in taste. Those who can tell good tea from bad know what a worthless article bad tea is, and they know what a luxury they have at their disposal when they can get a cup of good tea. The strange part of it is that while good tea commands a fair price it is not expensive. As you cannot tell whether it is good until you have tried it, you must rely on your dealers. Give our 40c. tea a trial and you will be most pleased with it. We are also selling an extra tea for the low price of 30c.

Death of Mrs. Joseph Beryl.

Mrs. Joseph Beryl, of Emily, died yesterday afternoon at the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. John A. Bennett, Lake-st. The deceased, who was a daughter of Mr. Robert Matchett, of Ottawa, leaves a husband and a large family, the youngest of which is only seven months old, to mourn her loss. The body was taken to the family residence in Emily to-day and will be interred at Boboyacoon, on Wednesday, March 9th. The bereaved family will have the sympathy of all in their loss.

Lost on the streets.

On Saturday night a Monaghan farmer who had been in town on the market in the morning started for home about nine o'clock. At ten o'clock Sunday morning the same farmer drew up on George-st. to ask the police to direct him onto Charlotte-st. He had lost himself and had been seeking for four or five hours to get on the right road. And he had been not drinking either and had been into town many a time before. The city after night bewildered him, and the growth of the town had worked such a transformation in the south end that he lost his bearings entirely.

A Grand Entertainment.

Under the above heading the Belleville Intelligence says:—"The entertainment in the Bridge-st. Methodist church last evening was a brilliant success. A very large audience greeted the performers, and testified their delight by repeated applause. Dr. Davies is a master of his instrument—the organ—and, since the concert of Frederick Archer, nothing of a superior character has been given in the city by any organist. The pure, sweet soprano of Miss Jackson won much praise, and in "Angels ever Bright and Fair," brought to mind the silver tones of Frederick Williams. Sara Lord Bailey stands in the front rank of American elocutionists, and gave a varied and intensely interesting programme."

THE EDISON'S ECLIPSED

At a Game of Hockey by the Peterborough Team.

On Saturday an exciting game of hockey was played at the Charlotte-st. rink between the Edison and Peterborough teams. The game furnished good sport although the result was rather unbalanced, the Peterborough's winning by 4 goals to 1.

When the puck was faced the Peterborough boys rushed the game and the Edison's had to play a defence game. This they did very successfully and carried the war into Peterborough territory as well. The result at half time was a goal for each. The game was free of any roughness and the vanquished players took their defeat most good naturedly. For the Peterborough's Bowers scored two, Gemmel one and Phelan three goals.

The teams were composed as follows:—
Edison's: Goal Point, W. Brashers, Elliott, Cover, Montgomery, Harrow, Dumble, Taylor, Forward, Phelan, Gemmel, Wiggitt, Phelan, Gemmel.

MUSIC AT THE ARMY.

A Family of Musicians who Enhance the Salvation Army Service.

There were large crowds at the Salvation Army barracks at the services on Saturday evening and yesterday. A special attraction was furnished by the presence of the Greene family of Striling. Each member of the family is a natural musician. There are the mother and father, May the sixteen-year-old daughter, and Mendon and Carlos, the two sons aged fourteen and twelve respectively. The junior members of the family have a wonderful musical gift and the services yesterday was made delightfully attractive by the sweet music of this family and the renditions of members of the local corps.

To-night will be the last upon which the family will be heard, and the service will be made of more than ordinary interest. It will take the form of a musical festival and the performance will be enjoyable and entertaining, while the addresses will not lose their true blood and fire, and satisfaction. There should be a large attendance to-night.

The music furnished by the band on the street is excellent and many comments are heard of the improvement the musicians are making in their playing. To-morrow night the hockey match of the season will be played at the rink here when the Peterborough team will meet the Cobourgs. This is sure to be a great game and spectators can get anticipating a night of good sport. The band will also probably be present.

Society News.

Ottawa Lodge, I.O.O.F., will hold a regular meeting to-night. The first and second degrees will be conferred upon several candidates.

The committee of Peterborough Lodge, No. 111, have made all arrangements to give the citizens a night with the Odd-fellows in the Opera House on the 25th of this month. Make no other arrangements for this date, as this will be something never seen before in Peterborough.

Still Watching the Military Openings.

Come upon her extended tour through the principal cities of the United States, Miss Delaney has spent the whole of this week in visiting the important Canadian military openings in Montreal and Toronto, and arrived home last week. Her return with enlarged experience, and well repaid for all the time occupied in visiting these great centres of fashion. Miss Delaney brings with her the leading ideas in military for the approaching season. Her early spring selections include a handsome variety of beautiful designs in velvets, haws, flowers, ribbons, mantles, etc. Ladies are invited to call and inspect these new arrivals. Miss Delaney promises her customers an early exhibition of spring styles which cannot be excelled.

Ex-Mayor Robert Bowie, Brockville, Ont., says: "I used Nasal Balm for a bad case of catarrh, and it cured me after having ineffectually tried many other remedies. It is a relief to give immediate relief for cold in the head." This is the experience of thousands in all parts of the Dominion. There is no case of cold in the head or catarrh that will not yield to Nasal Balm. Try it. Beware of substitutes.

Recent Service.

A constantly increasing business from the inception five years ago is proof sufficient that Mr. O. G. Rowe has won the confidence of the general public. His has this been done? By the exercise of good judgment, by honest dealing, and by fair prices for the best service. They have now decided to make a new departure in connection with their store, namely, to add an attractive military department. Ladies' complaints have been engaged to take charge. The rooms will be among the most elegant in town and will be opened for the general public about April 1st. Mrs. and Miss Cassidy come to Peterborough highly recommended as first class milliners and the ladies of Peterborough will study their own interests by extending to them a liberal patronage. The grand military opening will take place about the first of April, of which due notice will be given.

Rev. Wm. Bellinshaw, Pastor of the Presbyterian church of Sparta, N. J., voluntarily writes strongly in favor of Hood's Pills. He says: "I know of no other remedy that will cleanse the blood, stimulate the liver or clean the stomach like this remedy. I know of scores and scores who have been helped or cured by it."

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy, yet efficient action.

CARRYING GOOD TIDINGS.

THE METHODIST MISSIONS AND HOW THEY ARE SUPPORTED.

The Annual Missionary Services at the George-st. Methodist Church—Sermon by Rev. John V. Smith, of Toronto—A Platform Meeting and Address—Address by Rev. John V. Smith, of Toronto.

Yesterday was a bright, glorious day, full of sunshine and budding freshness but the vigor of the outside atmosphere was almost equalled by the interesting and energetic character of the special annual missionary services held in the George-st. Methodist church. Missionary enterprise, the spreading of the Light of Truth into the lands where its rays have not yet reached the benighted heathen or having reached them has not yet melted their customs of heathenism, is one of the leading avenues of church work in the present time and Methodism has not been behind. Large congregations assembled both morning and evening to listen to the special sermons and addresses, of which missions and mission work were the themes. Rev. John V. Smith, the occupant of the pulpit of the Metropolitan church in Toronto, delivered the sermon in the morning, and he was reinforced in the evening by Messrs. John Moore and Wm. Calvert, two Toronto gentlemen.

THE MORNING SERVICE.

There was a large congregation at the morning service. The opening devotions were conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Locke, and Mr. W. Calvert, of Toronto. Rev. John V. Smith took his text from Numbers xlii, 23:—"What hath God wrought?" The preacher's theme was formed before the creation of the world—and what he had done, especially in recent years, in opening the way for the Gospel. The gentleman spoke eloquently and with power, and the sermon was a most impressive one.

An Evening Platform Meeting. In the evening the spacious edifice had not a vacant seat, on the floor or in the gallery every pew had its full complement of interested worshippers. The services differed from the usual order, taking the form of a platform meeting. Rev. J. H. Locke, the pastor, was in the pulpit while with him on the platform was the able preacher of the morning, Rev. Mr. Smith, and Messrs. John Moore and Wm. Calvert, two Toronto gentlemen who were wrapped up in church work. The services were also marked by good singing, both congregational and by the choir. Two excellent anthems were rendered by the choir, Mr. J. Crane presiding at the organ. The opening of the services was a most impressive one.

THE PAST YEAR'S RECORD.
Rev. Mr. Locke, after an anthem by the choir, imparted considerable missionary data and information to the congregation. He held in his hand the sixteenth annual report of the Methodist Missionary Society. From this he drew his facts and figures. He found a summary of the missions connected with the eleven conferences of Canadian Methodism. This showed that they had 399 domestic missions with 432 missionaries and 83,900 members, 47 Indian missions in the Northwest, with 35 missionaries and 4,183 members, 7 French missions in the Montreal Conference with 6 missionaries and 234 members, the Chinese missions in British Columbia with 3 missions, 2 missionaries and 153 members, the foreign in Japan and China with 475 missions, 414 missionaries and 44,500 members. The income for these missions for the past year had been $243,000, an increase of nearly $25,000 over the previous year. The subscription list of the missions amounted to $171,000, the juvenile offerings to $26,300, legacies $30,000, in all $243,000. The expenditure had, of course, been equal to the income. The Peterborough district was given showing the subscriptions and among these were the George-st. church. He found that in that congregation four gave $30, one gave $20, one gave $12, eight gave $10, thirty gave $5, fourteen gave four, five gave $3, thirty gave $2, and the balance of the year $100. The treasurer who had received this money and tabulated the returns was Mr. Benj. Shortly who had performed his duties with great enthusiasm, efficiency and success. The lady collectors had been Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Griffin, Miss F. Walton, Mrs. Glass, Mrs. Smart, Mrs. Parker and Mrs. A. Jones. They were indebted to those ladies for their services and he was glad to say that they had consented to act again this year. The total subscriptions of the congregation had been $74,850, an increase of $150 over the preceding year. He closed by asking those who had contributed in the past to continue their subscriptions and expressed the hope that many new subscribers would have in their names.

THE ADDRESS.
Mr. Calvert, of Toronto, was the first speaker and he was brief. In opening he referred to the report that had just been read, and said that God had promised to do great things for this stricken world and was doing great things, and would do still greater things. He spoke of the law of God which, if adopted and lived up to, worked a complete revolution in the life of a people. When God converted a man he was not to keep his blessing to himself, but be an instrument in leading others to a knowledge of the truth. He concluded with an anecdote illustrative of what an uneducated man in ordinary life who was earnest and faithful could do in influencing others, and hoped that the true missionary spirit would animate them.

Mr. Moore, a Toronto business man, was the next speaker after a hymn had been sung. He is a gentleman who has visited the missionary fields, seen the missionaries at work, witnessed many touching and impressive incidents, and in this way came into possession of a large fund of missionary information. Combined with this he is earnestly interested in the work and is as eloquent, fluent speaker. He commenced by referring to missionary work and the manner in which Methodism had caught the spirit. He had stood by the Master when He said, "Go preach the Gospel," and had gone forth, and they thanked God for what they had done. But to-night he thought of all the congregations who were assembled, of the church militant and the church triumphant. He thought of the witnesses, such as Geo. Macdougall. Then they had the living witnesses. There were the Crosses, the Macdougalls, the Jennings, the Hopkins, and the speaker appreciated the self-sacrificing lives of the wives of these men. He wanted to have men appreciated while they were living. People were afraid to lose them.

SAT A GOOD THING

of a man until he was dead. This evil and snuffing and going around with yards of craps after he was dead was no good. It was those around them that required their sympathy. The speaker then branched into the missionary field, and by anecdotes and reminiscences gave his audience interesting glimpses of missionary work in the Northwest among the Indians, in British Columbia among the Chinese and the Indians on the borders of Alaska. Religion got into the web and wool of their texture and would abide. The Indians organized a band and the first tune they played was "Nearer My God to Thee," and their second "God Save the Queen." They were Christians and patriotic, grand citizens. That was what the missionaries were doing, and the country would never know what the missionaries had done in smoothing the way for the incoming settlers. If they linked together their love to Christ and their conservation of self and substance and did what they could they could have wonderful joy. They were only stewards and to refuse to give what God had given them was a terrible thing. He concluded by referring to giving and what had been done, but said he looked for grander things, for a grander awakening which they were beginning to see.

Rev. Mr. Smith followed after an anthem had been rendered and the collection raised. He spoke of Mr. Moore and as a man who could speak of mission work without reserve, as an unprejudiced person and a layman who spoke of what he had seen with his own eyes. He drew the picture of the little stream gurgling from the mountain side, widening and deepening until it supported on its bosom the commerce of nations and said this Methodist Missionary Society was like the little rill. It was a small thing at the close of the first year when the total amount raised was $15,000. It was $243,000. He followed up Mr. Calvert's anecdote illustrating what influence one man might develop by telling the story of John Williams, who was a missionary and martyr. He hung the remainder of his address on an illustration of an organist increasing the volume of music by pulling out the stops, referring to the Sunday Schools, the Bible Society, the Missionary Society, the Young People's Societies and consecrated womanhood as stops which the church had pulled out, and the music was growing louder the world over. He closed with an exhortation to be up and doing.

Subscriptions were then received and the service closed with a hymn and the benediction.

PERSONAL.
Messrs. W. Armstrong and J. Kelly, of Montreal, spent Saturday and Sunday in town.

Mr. Adam Hall has been confined to his house for the past two days, but will be out again in a day or two.

Miss Leta Gray, of Toronto, is in town the guest of Mrs. D. W. Dumble.

A Sunday Runaway.
There was a runaway accident on George-st. last night which will be remembered by a couple of young men in town. The horse and cutter was from Sloan's and was driven by Messrs. J. Coulter and J. Wylie. The horse took fright coming down George-st. and before the young men knew what had happened the cutter overturned and they were out on the hard bit dirty road. The horse continued his run on Charlotte-st. The cutter was badly damaged, but its occupants escaped fortunately.

Dr. T. E. Miller, of Cross Plains, Wis., has expressed the opinion that, for obstinate cases of erysipelas and scrofula, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is unquestionably the most effective remedy known to pharmacy. Wonderful cures have resulted from its use.

Reviews.
—There was no police court this morning.

—The Town Council will meet this evening.

—The snow has faded quickly and the streets are in need of a scraping.

—Arrangements are being made by a number of enterprising citizens to receive complete returns of the elections in Quebec to-morrow night.

—James Dawson, an old newspaper man who had worked in Belleville, Toronto, Kingston and many parts of the States, died in the Kingston hospital on Saturday.

Coughing

It is Nature's effort to expel foreign substances from the trachea and bronchi. Frequent coughing, therefore, is a sign of a healthy system. No other remedy is so effective as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is a natural cough remedy, and is the most popular of all cough cures.

Of the many preparations before the public for the cure of colds, coughs, bronchitis, and kindred diseases, there is none so reliable as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For years I was subject to colds, followed by terrible coughs. About four years ago, when so afflicted, I was advised to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and to lay all other remedies aside. I did so, and within a week was well of my cold and cough. Since then I have always kept this preparation in the house, and feel comparatively secure.

—Mr. W. F. Rogers, Danvers, Mass.

A few years ago I took a severe cold which attacked my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctor gave me up. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved my lung, induced sleep, and effected the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continual use of this "Cherry Pectoral" my cure was effected. —Mr. J. H. Robinson, Rockingham, Vt.

BRAINED HIS KEEPER

One Prisoner Escapes from Brockville Jail and Another Man Attacks the Turnkey With an Iron Bar.

BROCKVILLE, March 5.—Moore, the tramp stranger, recently committed on a charge against a young lad named Chaver, escaped from jail.

After leaving his cell Moore tore up the blankets of his bed, converted it into a rope, and fastened it to the wall which he could reach from his window.

When taken into the jail yard, he caught hold of the rope, climbed rapidly hand over hand to the top of the wall and jumped over. He is still at large.

Saturday morning a young man named Bates, under sentence of six months for burglary, attacked Turnkey Dewey with a piece of the leg of his iron bedstead when the turnkey opened his cell door.

Bates struck Dewey a terrible blow on the head, inflicting a dangerous wound. Dewey closed with the prisoner who kept on striking him on the head with the piece of iron, inflicting eight wounds.

A prisoner named Blair hearing Dewey being taken to his room and secured the prisoner.

Dewey's wounds were stitched up by Dr. Moore. He is suffering great pain and his condition is considered critical.

After Bates had been put in a dark cell and handcuffed a search resulted in finding a rope made of bedclothes around his body.

A rope was also found under his pillow in his cell made of bedclothes.

DEATH IN THE CANTEN.

An Old Nitro-Glycerine Can Used as a Water Pail Explodes.

WINNIPEG, March 7.—Frank Ericson and George Savage were instantly killed at Parrywood Station on the C.P.R. by the explosion of a can of nitro-glycerine.

They had been using an old nitro-glycerine can for taking water to the camp. It was placed too near the fire and exploded, killing both men instantly.

Jim Dawson Is Dead.

KIRKPATRICK, March 6.—James Dawson died in the hospital last night. The deceased was for years an advertising canvasser for several of the Toronto dailies.

He then drifted into commercial pursuits and travelled extensively over Canada and the United States. He grew sick over a year ago, beginning with rheumatism and dropsy and finally developing into cirrhosis of the liver. He was a member of the Toronto Typographical Union. The deceased was a native of Kingston.

Illegally Married Couple.

WINNIPEG, March 6.—A man styling himself Rev. W. Fawcett, and claiming to be a Methodist minister from the United States, recently performed several marriage ceremonies in the district of Lake Superior.

It now turns out that Fawcett is not a minister or legally qualified to marry, and the Manitoba Methodist Conference has found it necessary to publish a statement disavowing him.

The Fall.

Perhaps Tennyson has written nothing which appeals to the hearts of all who read his poems more than the "The Fall of the Leaf." The burden of the refrain comes home with telling force to the hearts of those who have friends who have died.

"The Fall of the Leaf," they realize, "is the death of a friend." They feel that the dear one might have been saved if they had heeded the warning of the haunting cry, "The Fall of the Leaf."

They feel that all the more keenly because they see others being rescued from the grasp of the death angel and they think what is saving others might have saved their loved one. When the first signal of danger is given, it is to avert the catastrophe. Be wise in time. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will drive away consumption. Do not wait until too late to get the wonderful efficacy of the cure. It outcures where other remedies fail.

BEARING SEA.

The Proposals of Lord Salisbury Not Acceptable to the United States.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The Behring Sea matter has assumed the most serious phase and public officials make no attempt to disguise the grave nature of the situation. It was developed to-day that Lord Salisbury has made proposals which it is claimed cannot be accepted.

In the language of a prominent official his proposition is "wholly unfair, arrogant and even insulting to this country." It is said by experts that the opening of Behring Sea for one season in the manner suggested by him would result in the speedy extermination of the seal, and there then would be nothing left to arbitrate; as an official expressed it "it would be like arbitrating the ownership of something that had gone out of existence."

The news from British Columbia that the sealing fleet is making preparations for unusually extensive operations this season is considered at the State Department.

LONDON, March 6.—Inquiry was made at the Foreign Office by a representative of the Associated Press regarding the Behring Sea question. The official answer said that although he did not wish to make a statement at this juncture, yet he could say that no information had been received that the Behring Sea Commissioners had failed to arrive at a satisfactory understanding regarding the methods to be employed in the seal fisheries. He deprecated what he called the animus which permeated the information received here from the United States concerning the matter.

The Leader's Founder Dead.

TORONTO, March 7.—James Beatty, sr., died at his residence, 17 Fuller-street, on Saturday. Mr. Beatty was born near Kildare, county Cavan, Ireland, in 1798, and came to Canada in 1818. In his early years he learned shoemaking, and for many years carried on a leather business in this city. In 1852, however, he established The Leader and conducted that journal for about a quarter of a century. He founded the Toronto General Hospital, was a director of the Grand Trunk and a charter member of the Western Assurance Co. He sat in Council for a number of years and represented East Toronto in the first Parliament of Canada. Mr. Beatty was married shortly after reaching this country. His wife died in 1825. His only surviving child, Mrs. Mullaney, resides in this city.

KIRKPATRICK, March 7.—Saturday John McCallum, farmer, of the 10th concession Kirkpatrick township, while in the act of loading a wagon slipped, the log rolling over his body and inflicting injuries from which he died.

The Law of Libel.

OTTAWA, March 7.—Messrs John King, Q.C., Berlin; Pease, Kingston, Whig, and Selwyn, St. Thomas Journal, representing the Press Association, interviewed the Minister of Justice yesterday and suggested certain changes in the law respecting criminal libel. Mr. King dwelt at length on the changes which the Press Association considered desirable in their interests. The Minister and Deputy Minister listened attentively and asked the delegation to send them a written communication which should receive their best consideration.

Coughing

It is Nature's effort to expel foreign substances from the bronchial passages. Frequently, this causes inflammation and the need of an antidote. No other expectorant or medicine is equal to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is Nature in ejecting the mucus, allays irritation, induces repose, and is the most popular of all cough cures.

"Of the many preparations before the public for the cure of colds, coughs, bronchitis, and kindred diseases, there is none within the range of my experience so reliable as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For years I was subject to colds, followed by terrible coughs. About four years ago, when so afflicted, I was advised to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and to lay all other remedies aside. I did so, and within a week was well of my cold and cough. Since then I have always kept this preparation in the house, and feel comparatively secure."

"A few years ago I took a severe cold which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continual use of the Pectoral, a permanent cure was effected."—J. J. Fairclough, Rockingham, N.H.

WHISKEY AND DEATH.
FATAL SHOOTING AFFAIR IN DURHAM COUNTY.

Farmer McCann of Carlton Hill Attempts to Pay an Old Grudge and is Shot by the Man He Assaulted—The Murderer Surrenders to the Police.

PORT HOPE, March 8.—Thomas McCann and A. Howe, two young farmers of Carlton Hill, 10 miles from here, spent Saturday in Millbrook drinking heavily, and left the village about 2 a.m. Sunday considerably the worse of liquor.

McCann determined to vent an old grudge on a neighbor named Thomas Forsyth, and broke into the latter's house, frightening his family into flight. They dragged Forsyth out of bed and would have probably murdered him had it not been for the timely arrival of John McCann, who, suspecting his drunken brother was into mischief, was hunting for him about the neighborhood. He pulled the men off Forsyth and succeeded in getting them out of the house. They evinced an inclination to return and were warned by Forsyth, who had suffered serious abuse at their hands, that he would shoot them if they did so.

Disregarding the warning, they made a rush for him and Forsyth fired, the shot hitting Thomas McCann in the left thigh, about four inches above the knee. The shot scattered in all directions, some of it penetrating the lungs and resulting in the death of the young man.

Forsyth gave himself up to the police. He says he fired low and intended only to frighten the men off.

An inquest is being held.

SHOT HIS FRIEND.
Careless Handling of a Revolver—A Fatal Shot in a Man's Throat.

OTTAWA, March 8.—Two young chaps from Prescott, en route to the North-west, entered Living's hardware store to purchase a revolver. Living's turned to see what he wanted. Whilst his back was turned one of the men caught up the loaded pistol and snapped the trigger. The weapon exploded and his companion, named Cunningham, fell unconscious to the ground. Dr. Hanna found that the ball had penetrated the muscles of the right arm and lodged in the breast.

TOOK MORPHINE.
A Montreal Dentist, on Suicide Bent, Took a Powerful Dose.

MONTREAL, March 8.—Dr. Gird, one of the leading dentists here, purchased 25 grains of morphine and at 10 o'clock yesterday morning injected the whole amount subcutaneously. At 2 o'clock his wife suspected there was something wrong and called in a doctor and the man was removed to the hospital, where he revived, and up to this hour he has not succumbed. Dr. Hanulovic, the superintendent, says that recovery has never been known after so large a dose.

Mother and Child are Doing Well.
Mr. Brown was sick. His friends said she would never get well. "What's the trouble?" "I, some kind of female weakness. The doctor has given me one or two bottles of 'The Cure' and I feel better now." "The cure?" "That is quite out of the question." "I don't believe it," said a woman who heard the conversation. "I don't believe she's any worse off than I was, five years ago, from the same trouble, and I don't look very much like a dead woman, do I?" "The certainly did not, with her red, p.ump cheeks, bright eyes, and 120 pounds of good healthy flesh, and she had a dead woman's look on her face and I'll bet she can get well." She did so. She advised Mrs. Brown to take Dr. Plummer's Female Prescriptions. Mrs. Brown took the advice, also the medicine which cured all kinds of delicate diseases on her two-year-old son. Last night she presented Mr. Brown with a new-born son, and mother and child are doing well.

ONE DEAD, OTHERS DYING

NEGROES AND ITALIANS FIGHT AT THE FALLS.

Red Blood Between Parties Employed on the Tunnel Results in a Terrible Tragedy—Many Bullets That Found Victims—The Murderers Taken Into Custody.

NIAJARA FALLS, Ont., March 8.—There are some 600 or 700 navvies employed on the construction of the great tunnel at the American side of the river at the Falls, composed principally of negroes and Italians imported to the village especially for the work.

Frequent fights between the two races have occurred, and the village police being unable to cope with the gang, respectable residents have lived in a state of terror.

Affairs culminated last night when three negroes made a raid on a shanty occupied by some Italians near shaft No. 2 for the purpose of securing a keg of beer in possession of the latter.

Pistols were drawn, and as a result one Italian is dead and several others wounded, one of whom will die.

The dead Italian is named John Russo, and the one who will die is Ignatius Donaghy. Tony Hays has a ball in his neck, Tony Mohrath a wound in the region of his heart and Joe Smith a ball imbedded in his chest.

The town police succeeded in arresting the three colored men. They pretended innocence and tried to throw the pistols away.

The colored men are named Henry Barker, William Chambers and Charles Kelly. Kelly and Chambers have "quads" on Barker. Barker used a five-shot, making every ball count.

Under the Wheels.
BROCKVILLE, March 8.—William Carbonneau, 17 years, endeavored to jump on the rear of an east-bound freight at the G.T.R. station, but caught the wrong handle bar and was swung under the wheels. He was dragged several feet along the track and came to rest off.

His Identity Disclosed by Death.
MONTREAL, March 8.—Messrs MacMaster and McGibbon have received instructions from the Marquis de Salaberry of Toulon, France, to endeavor to have the register of the death of Paul Dupuis, formerly editor of La Semaine Religieuse in this city, altered, in order to establish that Mr. Dupuis was really the Marquis de Salaberry, a wealthy nobleman who left France some 10 years ago and came here, changing his name to Paul Dupuis. The Marquis devoted himself to journalism in this city and died here about a year ago. His widow La Marquise, residing in Toulon, in order to obtain possession of the estate, requires to have the fact established that he was not Paul Dupuis but the Marquis de Salaberry and the lawyers have been instructed to investigate the matter and have the register changed.

IN A RUSH

TO stop the hard work of wash-day—to stop the rub, rub, rub and tug, tug, tug, to make the clothes clean? Of course you are. Then send for "SURPRISE SOAP" and use the "SURPRISE WAY" without boiling or scalding the clothes, and save half the hard work. Have comfort and ease, with clothes neater and cleaner than the ordinary way. STOP now a moment to consider if it is any advantage to use a pure Soap like Surprise, and save yourself, your hands, your clothes.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

THE BILL RESPECTING INSURANCE CORPORATIONS.

Mr. Hardy's Bill to Reduce the Number of Grand Jurors from 18 to 13.

Toronto, March 9.—In moving the second reading of his bill respecting insurance corporations, Mr. Gibson elucidated fully and clearly several of the more important provisions.

The bill, he said, that has been presented to the Legislature for some time is looked upon with much interest by the people of the province at large, and especially so by benevolent, friendly and other corporate bodies. The courts, he explained, had concluded that the province had exclusive jurisdiction in matters of insurance, and in compliance with the right thus granted it was already exercised in regard to fire and life insurance.

The province, in accepting the jurisdiction mentioned, assumed a great liability and had, as an outcome, to see that the province should be able to meet the liability. The Government should know the nature of the powers of all such companies, and should be able to meet the liability. The Government should know the nature of the powers of all such companies, and should be able to meet the liability.

IS THIS JACK THE RIPPER
SICKENING DISCOVERY IN A VILLA
NEAR LIVERPOOL.

The Bodies of Five Women and Children Discovered Buried Beneath Cement
Under a Heathstone in a House Recently Occupied by a Man Who Was Arrested in Australia for Wife Murder.

LIVERPOOL, March 17.—A man named Williams was recently arrested at Melbourne for murdering a woman. Investigation disclosed the fact that he had committed a horrible crime in this city before going to Australia. The bodies of a woman and her two children whom the man had murdered were found to-day buried under the hearthstone of the house in which they lived.

The house in which the bodies were found was once occupied by Williams.
The bodies first found were wrapped in oilcloth and Turkish towelling.
After the three bodies were taken out the police continued their digging, it being rumored that other girls who had visited Williams were missing.

Another Horrible Find.
The search was continued under difficult conditions owing to the almost unbearable stench and the fact that the whole floor is thickly cemented.

The excitement reached fever heat when the bodies of two other children were found to have been buried under the house.

The first of the children's bodies was that of a girl of 12 years, who had been strangled, the second was that of a girl of seven, the third that of a boy of five and the fourth that of a baby about a year old.
The remains of the last three victims had been cut.

A Man of Mystery.
The question who Williams really is and how he lived remains a mystery. On his first appearance at Rainhill he stayed at an hotel, where he led a reclusive life, being a man of great mystery and with a general style of wealth. He drank plentifully, but not excessively, and was always ready for champagne treats. He was fond of a good story, and was a tactician. He never gave an inkling of his personal history.

A local newspaper on the occasion of his murder in Melbourne, tried to get a sketch of his career, but William refused to give any information regarding himself. He first met Miss Mather at her mother's house and was introduced as a man of a villa.
Williams pretended to act for a mythical Colonel Brooks and obtained the tenancy of the villa by paying six months' rent in advance and the great loss of blood caused the death of the last three victims had been cut.

Arrived, But Never Departed.
Immediately after he had taken possession of the villa an unknown woman with two children was seen about the house.
Nobody saw them arrive or depart.

About the same time another woman visited him at an hotel and the two partook of a champagne luncheon. Williams told the landlady that his companion was his sister. This woman was seen twice, when she also vanished.

Preparing for His Victims.
After taking the villa Williams often left the hotel in the morning and would not return till evening. His clothing and person used to be covered with dirt and his hands were black with dirt. He expressed his intention of putting down new floors in a house.

A laborer has been found who deposes that this statement was true. He says that Williams called upon him to assist in work of taking up the floors and a kitchen and two other rooms, and hired a plasterer to relay them in cement.

These preparations had been completed when the victims came on the scene, and the murders must have been effected without delay.

Williams left the hotel to occupy the villa, but in a few days he returned, saying that he could not sleep there, that his sister and the children had gone to Port Head, and that his place were unoccupied. He afterward returned to the villa, but finally came back to the hotel.

He hurried his marriage with Miss Mather, in fact he went to stay at her mother's three weeks prior to the ceremony.

Nuggets of Gold and Diamond Rings.
The mother was eager for the marriage,
as Williams made lavish displays of bank notes, nuggets of gold and diamond rings

Probably in March more than any other month in the year are the ravages of cold in the head and catarrh most severely felt. Do not neglect either for an instant, but apply Nasal Saline, a time-honored and reliable cure. It is pleasant and agreeable. Try it. On Sunday, March 27th, the brethren of the local Foresters' Lodge will attend divine service in a body at St. Andrew's Church, at seven o'clock, p.m. Rev. Mr. MacWilliams, pastor of the Church, will preach an appropriate sermon. The brethren will assemble at Court Peterborough hall, Simcoe-st., at 8 p.m. on that evening and march to the church. All brethren of the district are invited to join with the local brethren on this occasion.

Deadly is an exclamation from the pores of the scalp that spreads and dries, forming scurf and causing the hair to fall out. Hall's Hair Renewer cures it.

Relieved of His Money White Swindler.

Thomas Miller, a young man, was arrested last evening at Lakeside, charged with stealing the sum of $300 from James McBride. McBride came home from Nassau on Thursday and in the course of the day he came into the Commercial Hotel where Miller relieved him of his money. When he sobered up McBride reported his loss and suspicion attaching to Miller he was arrested at Lakeside where he had gone in the afternoon. At the Police Court this morning the young man pleaded guilty to taking $300 and was remanded for sentence for one week.

Ask Your Friends About It.

Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam has cured so many coughs and colds in this community. Its remarkable sale has been entirely by its merits. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so pure, so effective, so large bottles 50c. and $1 at all drug stores.

Attended on the Street.

The Lindsey Post says: "Thursday evening last Mr. Hunter Galt was returning home from the skating rink, where he had been witnessing the sports, he was attacked by some miscreant just opposite the town clerk's office, William-st., who darted out from the shadow of the building, struck him over the eyes with some heavy weapon and then ran. The blow inflicted a bad cut and knock and Galt, who was walking, where he lay until picked up some minutes later by a passer-by, who happened to know him and helped him home. Mr. Galt can assign no cause for the outrage of which he was the victim, as he has no enemies, and thinks his assailant must have mistaken him for some one else in the dim light. The police are giving the matter their attention, and it is to be hoped may obtain a clue."

"Ayer's Medicine" have been satisfactory to me throughout my life, especially Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has been used by many of my patients, one of whom says he knows it saved his life.—F. L. Morris, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE SEWERAGE SYSTEM. SHOULD BE PROCEEDED WITH IN SECTIONS.

This is the Resolution Passed at the Public Meeting of the Ratepayers—The System Discussed and Explained—The Report Immediately Rescinded to Bear the Burden of Taxation.

The proclamation of Mayor Kendry calling a public meeting of the ratepayers of the town for the purpose of discussing the proposed sewerage system drew an audience of between three and four hundred citizens to the opera house last evening. The gathering was a fairly representative one, but still far short of what such an important question, who had his share of the town councilors were present and many of the prominent members of the Board of Trade were noticed in the seats. Mr. Macdonnell, of Toronto, who had prepared the plan and presented the report already published, was present on the platform. Mayor Kendry called the meeting to order about 8:30 and stated the object of the meeting which had been called by the Council to consider an application of opinion from the ratepayers in regard to the proposed sewerage system, which would entail a large expenditure.

THE SYSTEM EXPLAINED.
Mr. R. B. DUMBLE, who had his fine stereoscopic instrument in the centre of the hall, threw the map of the proposed sewerage plan upon a canvas the full size of the stage curtain. This map was excellently reproduced and showed in a most interesting and enlightening manner the system of sewerage proposed, pointing out the reasons for the different points in the plan, reasons which were presented by the natural levels and lay of the town. He stated that he had calculated on the extra flow in case of a heavy thunder storm and rain fall and at no time would the sewer be more than three quarters full. The ordinary sewerage would not more than half fill the sewer. The acres of interlocking sewer on Townsend-st. would take off all the extra flow of these heavy rainfalls. The most important point to be considered was the outfall. The first required to be built would be the outfall trunk sewer and it might be built by small portions, or in one piece.

Mr. Macdonnell, armed with a fishing rod as a pointer, explained the system as portrayed on the canvas and set forth in his report. He went into details of the scheme he proposed, pointing out the reasons for the different points in the plan, reasons which were presented by the natural levels and lay of the town. He stated that he had calculated on the extra flow in case of a heavy thunder storm and rain fall and at no time would the sewer be more than three quarters full. The ordinary sewerage would not more than half fill the sewer. The acres of interlocking sewer on Townsend-st. would take off all the extra flow of these heavy rainfalls. The most important point to be considered was the outfall. The first required to be built would be the outfall trunk sewer and it might be built by small portions, or in one piece.

Mr. Macdonnell, armed with a fishing rod as a pointer, explained the system as portrayed on the canvas and set forth in his report. He went into details of the scheme he proposed, pointing out the reasons for the different points in the plan, reasons which were presented by the natural levels and lay of the town. let the town put it down and make the people who used it pay for it by a frontage tax. Those who had the sewers should pay for it and it was a shame for wealthy people to come and ask the town of Peterborough to put down a system of sewerage at the great expense simply to enhance the value of their property.

Here the Mayor called Councilor Cahill, Mr. James Stevenson and Mr. Dumble to the platform.

Mr. Hill (rising again).—Excuse me, but I think it is a shame that our workmen should be enlisted and not asked to take a seat on the platform.

The cheers and laughter that followed were general. Mr. Hill was forced to walk to the platform by the cries of "platform, platform!"

Mr. Hill, on gaining the elevation, said, "Gentlemen, I thank you but I hope it is not in fun that you are asking me to walk to the platform by the cries of 'platform, platform!'"

A MEETING AT ST. PAUL'S.

A Successful Missionary Meeting at St. Paul's Church—A Powerful Address.

A most successful missionary meeting was held in St. Paul's church last evening. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Endeavor Society of the church. The attendance was good and the programme of a most interesting character.

Rev. E. F. Torrance, pastor of St. Paul's, presided as chairman and a choir of members of the local Endeavor Society was present. The meeting opened with a hymn by the choir and prayer and Scripture lesson by Rev. Mr. Torrance. Rev. Geo. Edwards, after another hymn by the choir, gave a short talk on "How to Interest Young People in the Mission Work." This was a practical address characterized by pointed suggestions. Rev. Alex. Macdonnell, was the speaker of the evening had arrived earlier than was expected. Mr. Macdonnell withdrew his remarks.

Rev. A. B. Winchester, a returned missionary from China and a very gentlemanly man, was the speaker of the evening. He addressed the assembly on the subject of the mission work. He introduced his subject by taking Samuel's consecrated life as an example for others to follow. He pointed out the need of a new life—no debtors to all who were without Christ and by comparison of their own wasted lives with the life of Christ striving to make their lives more Christ-like. They were saved to live for Christ's use. On this continent, he said, there were thirteen million people who were fighting for King Jesus. In temporal affairs, as compared to spiritual things, England had taken the course of India in a few hours, while the world had had the Christian religion for centuries and yet never heard of Jesus. In concluding the speaker gave eloquent words referring to England's connection with the opium trade in China and the manner in which treaties had been broken with the Chinese empire.

At the close of the address a vote of thanks was moved by Mr. Peter Hamilton, seconded by Mr. E. J. O'Leary, and tendered the lecturer.

THE MARKET SOLD FOR $1720.

The sale of the Tolls at the Auctioneers' Office, Green's is the Purchaser.

The Council Chamber was packed to overflowing this morning at eleven o'clock at which hour the market toils for the ensuing year were to be offered for sale by auction. The Market Committee of the Town Council was assembled in the committee room and before the sale commenced eleven gentlemen sent in their proxies for the committee's approval. Those eleven gentlemen who were after the tolls and were there as bidders were—Messrs. Wm. Moore, Wm. Buck, John Kelly, Jas. H. McRobert, Jas. G. Graham, John Doherty, John Kincaid, B. H. Green, R. N. Boddy, Jas. Spence and W. B. Cocks.

Mr. E. H. Edwards, Town Solicitor, read the conditions of the sales as published in the Review.

Mr. John McNaughton, who occupied a seat within the council bar, asked the Solicitor if there was a clause in the agreement which provided for the heating of the market building and the use of the same by the lessee. Mr. McNaughton complained of the cost, which he said had been $48 in 1891, being borne by the town.

Mr. Doherty, the late lessee, denied that the cost of heating had been $48. It was only about $22.

Councillor Wm. Moore, chairman of the Market Committee, stated that the town would heat the building as in past years.

The eleven bidders then lined up inside the council bar and Auctioneer O. Stapleton began the sale. Mr. Cocks followed with a bid of $1000. Mr. Cocks followed with $1100. Mr. Kelly and Mr. Doherty bid $1200 in one voice. Mr. Green raised to $1250. Bidding which had been brisk now became slow. Mr. Green raised his offer to $1700. Mr. Kincaid went $10 better and then it was knocked down to Mr. Green at $1720.

Mr. Doherty has had the market for many years past, the rent being $800.

The medal was won in the rink competition by the President's Skip, Donaldson, who risked a thirteen point game had to decide who was to be the individual owner of the medal. Skip Donaldson did not enter the competition for his own gift, so that it was left to F. Robinson, D. W. Dumble and Wm. Salisbury, the other three steps on the rink to decide the question of proprietorship. On Friday evening Wm. Salisbury defeated F. Robinson and on Saturday evening Wm. Salisbury won the medal by defeating D. W. Dumble by a score of 13 to 5.

DRANK CARBOLIC ACID.

MRS. MAGGIE SHEPHERD'S SENSATIONAL DEATH.

Details the Fatal Drought and then is About to Administer the Remedy to Her Baby Boy When Her Husband Horrors the Bottle—The Evidence of the Husband Set Forth that Such was the Tragedy—A Jury will Investigate—The Inquest Opens.

The quiet of the Sabbath of the South Ward was agitated yesterday by what appears, from the evidence that can be gathered, to have been a most deliberate suicide, attended with sensational surroundings. Mrs. Maggie Shepherd, the young wife of Robert H. Shepherd, died a shocking death from the effects of swallowing a quantity of carbolic acid in the presence of her husband, and then attempting to administer the terribly fatal liquid to her twenty month's old child which she was nursing in her arms.

The scene of the tragedy was one of the two rooms over the grocery store of Mr. J. O'Brien at the corner of Aymer and Lake streets, two rooms which the unfortunate woman with her husband and young child occupied as a bedroom, and the other was occupied as a kitchen, dining room and parlor. It was a humble home in which the family had lived since August.

The scene of the tragedy was one of the two rooms over the grocery store of Mr. J. O'Brien at the corner of Aymer and Lake streets, two rooms which the unfortunate woman with her husband and young child occupied as a bedroom, and the other was occupied as a kitchen, dining room and parlor. It was a humble home in which the family had lived since August.

From what the young husband told a Review reporter shortly after the fatal drought had been swallowed with such deadly results, it appears that everything has not been smiling upon them with favor. Sickness came to the husband and small debts accumulated. His wife took these things they had been discussing their family affairs before rising. The wife was soon to become a mother and she did not look into the future with the buoyant hope which prompted her husband to tell her that all would come out right in the end. It was eleven o'clock before they arose and the wife prepared the breakfast. After breakfast the wife proceeded with her household duties and her husband took the paper, lighted a cigar and sat down on the side of the bed in the adjoining room, to read. The door was open and the rooms were very small so that a word spoken by either could be heard by the other. The first words uttered were starting to the husband. "Bob, I've poisoned myself," or some such expression came to his ears and looking he up saw his wife sitting near the stove not over a dozen steps from him pouring the contents of a small bottle into a tumbler. He jumped towards her and as he did so the desperate woman was about to put the fatal bottle into the mouth of her baby boy and to his life with her. The horrified husband snatched the bottle from her hand and turned to look for water, which was the first remedy that entered his mind. The wife noticed his action and said "There's no need to look for water, there is none," a fact which she knew as she had put the last drop in the tumbler on the stove. The husband, with the bottle in his hand, rushed downstairs and sent Mrs. O'Brien, who lived next door, up to his wife while he telephoned for medical aid. Mrs. O'Brien ran upstairs and found Mrs. Shepherd standing in the small kitchen near the table with the child still in her arms. Mrs. O'Brien took the child and exclaimed "Oh, Mrs. Shepherd, what did you do this for?" "I did it," said the dying woman and she started for the bed in the other room. "Come with me, Freddie," she said, attempting to get the child from Mrs. O'Brien. The face of the woman, Mrs. O'Brien said, was ghastly. She was breathing with difficulty. She was working from the effects of the burning acid she had drunk. The husband here came up from downstairs with a cup of milk which his wife swallowed with avidity. She had walked to the bed and thrown herself upon it. She again asked for milk, but besides this never uttered another intelligible word, but died about eight minutes after swallowing the acid. When Dr. Pigeon arrived he found the woman dead. He was beyond all mortal aid. Dr. King arrived, having been summoned by a young man the terrified husband had despatched for a doctor.

These are the facts of the act which robs a man of his young wife and a child of its mother, the facts as told by the husband and Mrs. O'Brien, the only two persons who saw her while she was doing the deed. The child, a little boy, a little over a year old, was slightly burned on the cheek and forehead where the carbolic acid had fallen from the bottle upon him or where the mother had given him.

A FAREWELL KISS.

The poor woman as she lay in the little bedroom did not show much signs of the fearful death which she had died. Her child, who was with her, was not hurt. She was badly burned on the right side by the liquid which had run from her mouth, but the features were composed as if she had been asleep.

The only cause which can be assigned for such a shocking act of self destruction is that of the husband's refusal to above. Dependence caused by the adversity that had suffered, coupled with the fact that the future would only add to her trouble, probably prompted the act. In her delicate condition the little family affairs appeared to have taken a deeper hold on her than the facts would seem to justify, and during the few days she complained of headaches.

The deed must have been done in a moment of despondency, for its desperate circumstances would allow of no other construction. The dead woman was comely in features and was well spoken of by her neighbors, who say she was a hard worker. She was most devotedly attached to her little boy, and it would seem that she did not want death to part them. The two rooms which formed their home showed many evidences that she was a tidy house-keeper and had made her rooms look as tidy as possible with the means at her disposal. On the 30th of October, 1891, a little more than three years ago, she was a native of England, where her friends still reside. He is an intelligent looking young man and had nothing but kind words to say of his wife, although he said she had a very warm temper. He telegraphed her family in Montreal at once.

AN INQUEST OPENED.

The police were notified of the event and they in turn notified the coroner, Dr. Pigeon, who after visiting the house and consulting with the Attorney General Attorney decided to hold an inquest. Accordingly, at five o'clock yesterday afternoon a jury had assembled in the room where the tragedy embodied in the room where the tragedy had been enacted and were duly empaneled. The small kitchen was packed to suffocation with sympathizing women of the neighborhood, inquisitive men and the jury. The names of the latter were—J. J. Turner, foreman, W. O. Cumming, Jas. Davey, H. W. Watson, Wm. Abbott, A. A. Swanson, T. Trombley, Jas. McDonald, Jas. Malind, Joe Cranfield, Alex. Forbes, Jas. O'Brien, E. S. Lebourveau.

Having been sworn the jury proceeded to view the remains. This done the coroner stated that he would advise a post mortem examination. He was interested and others were interested in knowing the condition of the deceased's stomach was in and to ascertain this a post mortem would be necessary. Before they could order a post mortem the jury would have to bear some evidence and the husband of the deceased was called.

THE HUSBAND'S SWORN STORY. ROBERT H. SHEPHERD when he stepped forward, was told by the coroner that he must not take the oath and could object to answering questions if he wished. The witness however said he was willing to be sworn and tell all he knew. He was then sworn and told a story without any hesitancy and one which corresponded exactly with that told the reporter in the morning. He said:—I know the deceased woman to be my wife. Her health this morning was first class when she got up. When she got up she got breakfast as usual. She put out of breakfast with us, after breakfast I went into the bedroom to sit down and smoke and read while she was attending her household in a cup, but I thought I heard her saying "Bob, I've poisoned myself," or "Bob, I've poisoned myself," I could not say which but they both mean the same. I jumped up and saw her emptying the contents of a small bottle into her hand. As I got to her she was about to put it

INTO THE BABY'S MOUTH. She was nursing the child at the time. I snatched the bottle from her hand and looked around for medical aid. "There's no need to look for water there is none," I ran downstairs for Mrs. O'Brien and called to her saying, "For God's sake, Mrs. O'Brien, come up and see Maggie, she's took poison." She came up and took the bottle into her hand. I told the young man who was in O'Brien's at the time to hurry up with some water while I telephoned for a doctor. In the meantime Mrs. O'Brien had gone up and looked around for medical aid. She said "There's no need to look for water there is none." I ran downstairs for Mrs. O'Brien and called to her saying, "For God's sake, Mrs. O'Brien, come up and see Maggie, she's took poison." She came up and took the bottle into her hand. I told the young man who was in O'Brien's at the time to hurry up with some water while I telephoned for a doctor.

THE CORONER'S VERDICT. The jury returned their verdict at 11 o'clock. They found that the deceased woman had committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. They also found that the husband had committed suicide by attempting to administer the acid to his child.

THAT LOAD OF WOOD.

TAKEN IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE CREAM HORSE.

May Result in the Acquittal of the Heolop. Aspects—Albert Testifies to His Father Being in Hamilton, His Wife Corroborates Him—Bartram's Brother-in-Law and Niece in the Witness Box—How the Night of the Murder Was Spent.

HAMILTON, March 22.—The balance sheet for John Bartram and John Lottridge's accounts with the law, will be struck during the next two days. The evidence will be practically closed, it is believed, when the sun sinks this afternoon.

It was like an oasis in the desert, to observe an attractive-looking witness in the box this morning, after the spasm of squaws and Indians who have succeeded one another during the long trial.

The witness was Mrs. Fannie Dinman, who was married in September last. She was allowed to sit down while giving her evidence. Mrs. Dinman is a sister of Lottridge and niece of the accused.

The Game of Triviales. She corroborated in every detail the story told on Saturday by her sister, Miss Nancy Grace Lotridge. She was living at Bartram's house for some time previous and subsequent to the date of the murder. Was there the Monday night before the murder and took part in a game of dominoes played that evening with other members of the family and the Weavers and saw her uncle John at 12 o'clock in the morning.

She also heard him starting for Hamilton with a load of wood about 4 o'clock and did not see him again until the Wednesday following, when he returned to the house at 12 o'clock and found him there.

There was no Indians there, she said, and she was not aware of any other persons being there. She was not aware of any other persons being there.

Annie Weaver, who has been mentioned as a witness at the Bartrams on the Sunday and Monday before the murder, admitted being a cousin of Jack Lottridge and a niece of Jack Bartram, and repeated the story told by Miss Lotridge and Mrs. Dinman regarding the game of dominoes and the presence of her Uncle John in the house, until she left about 12 o'clock. She also knew that Jack Bartram went to Hamilton with a load of wood the next day, and repeated conversations that were heard during the evening about it.

The witness exhibited a wonderful memory for details, but in all the information the Crown Attorney got from her there was nothing that did not fit in perfectly with the testimony given previously by Jack Lottridge's sisters.

A Weaver's brother-in-law of Jack Bartram and father of the last witness, gave similar testimony. He was one of the party at Bartram's on the Monday night before the murder, when dominoes and other games were played, and he told what was done prior to his departure in the evening, corroborating what his daughter and Jack Lottridge's sisters had said.

Albert Bartram, son of Jack, said his father arrived at his house, 119 Queen-st., Hamilton, on the morning of the murder with a load of wood for him. When witness came home at noon, he found his father there. Jack Bartram said nothing about his trip down except that he missed his train on the road. Witness said his father remained until Wednesday, and before he left Thomas Lottridge arrived with another load of wood, for which Jack Bartram told him he had arranged at Middleport on the Sunday previous.

Mrs. Alice Bartram, wife of last witness, told by Mrs. Lotridge, corroborated the story about the arrival of the load of wood. Chief A. G. Smith, clerk of the Indian Reserve, was called to produce his books concerning payments to Indians on the reserve with a view to proving that some of the Indians had been paid by the Crown had perjured themselves.

That Cream Horse. Henry Bartram of Middleport, brother of the prisoner, John Bartram, corroborated the evidence of many other witnesses that prisoner was at home until 12 o'clock the night of the murder playing dominoes and left for Hamilton with a load of wood a few hours later. Witness swore that he helped load the sleigh and saw the prisoner depart. The Crown sought to prove that it was witness who drove the horse and wood to Hamilton, but this he denied.

William Lovett, a farmer near Ancaster, swore that he met man with a load of wood on a one-horse team, driving a cream-colored horse towards Hamilton the morning of the murder. Witness recognized Bartram in the man, William Arms, William R. Shaver, John Cowing and George Patterson, all farmers, gave similar testimony.

William Bartram, another brother of the prisoner Bartram, swore that the latter slept in the same bed with him the night of the murder and got up at 1 o'clock and started with a load of wood for Hamilton. James Cresswell, a Middleport blacksmith, swore that neither prisoner, nor Gosney were at Young's Hotel the night of the murder, as he was there. George Myers corroborated this evidence.

Court adjourned at 9.30 to 10 o'clock.

The opinion gains ground that the prisoner cannot be convicted on the evidence produced thus far, and unless the Crown has rebuttal evidence of a very strong nature forthcoming the prisoners stand a good show of being acquitted.

During the sessions of the court, the prisoner, John Bartram, sits in the dock with his one eye focused on his witness and his head to one side so as to get one ear and one eye into range. He maintains this position nearly all day, except when he puts his head down to wipe the sore eye and then he resumes the same attitude. As Herr Richter would say: "Always I see 'im like dis'."

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Toronto, March 22.—There was little business transacted at the session of the Ontario Legislature yesterday.

Mr. Ross promised to bring down a missing return in connection with the Upper Canada College matter.

Several petitions were received praying that no alterations be made in the Municipal Act.

Mr. Waters' bill for the protection of persons employed in places of business other than factories was read a second time and referred to a select committee.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.
PROPOSED CANADIAN ALIEN LABOR LAW.

An Important Discussion in the House. But the Bill, Which is a Retaliatory Measure, Not Likely to Pass the House. Another Lively Debate in the Senate.

Ottawa, March 22.—The House found itself divided inside of the party lines Monday on the question of the Alien Labor Law introduced by Mr. Taylor of Leeds.

The act is laid down on the lines of the United States act, and its purpose is to prevent the importation of workmen into Canada under contract.

Mr. Taylor in introducing it said if they could not get reciprocity in labor with the United States the only resort was to adopt their own tactics towards them. He quoted quite a number of cases where Canadians were prevented taking employment in the United States under the provisions of the law of that country.

He said that this was the third time he brought the bill forward; now he intended to press it to a division on the third reading.

Mr. Fraser, the giant of Guelph, pointed out that the bill would prevent us from importing skilled labor in new industries, instancing the glass and steel works in New Glasgow, where it was imperative to get skilled labor from abroad.

Dr. Spence thought that Mr. Fraser had no right to say that. The fifth clause specially provided for the importation of such labor under contract.

Mr. John Thompson said he was aware that this measure was supported by a large class, but he failed to see that its adoption would benefit any class in the community. If we were suffering by the operation of alien labor laws he could not see how, nor had they been shown, that the adoption of a similar law here would mitigate the application of the law in the United States.

There would be no amelioration or amendment of its provisions. On the other hand, while it was just now the policy of the United States to restrict immigration to that country, it should be our object to attract emigration of a suitable kind. Mr. Fraser had pointed out another defect, and he could not see that the clause that had been quoted as covering that defect was at all clear or conclusive. It would be difficult for persons who resided in the labor to first ascertain whether there were not some where in the Dominion persons who piled their occupations. They would then have to believe that the bill would measure the laughing stock of the civilized world. The committee that met two years ago had deplored and condemned the American law, and now it was proposed that we should enact a law identical with it. Parliament would always be found willing to afford labor and proper protection to the workman, but they could consent to no legislation which proposed to prevent men coming here at their own expense and measure of employment. It was particularly undesirable that in the circumstances of their present relations to the United States any legislation of this nature should receive the assent of Parliament. He believed it was a subject capable of friendly discussion, and representations of the harsh nature of the provisions of the United States labor law would be made by the Canadian Government.

Mr. Laurier Concides. Mr. Laurier agreed in a large measure with what had fallen from the leader of the Government. The author of the bill had the principle he could not but admit. He thought, however, that a convenient and propitious time to have presented the American Act was during the recent visit of the Canadian Ministers to Washington.

Joseph H. Ryckman and Mr. McKay of Hamilton supported the bill. The latter said that the Government's policy of protection should be applied to the working-man as well as to their masters.

Mr. J. D. Edgar supported the bill and Mr. W. B. Ives of Sherbrooke supported it on the ground that we could not afford to be governed by any higher moral considerations than our United States neighbors.

Mr. Mills of Montreal also opposed the bill.

They had a long run before they were caught.

Think They Should be Paid. After their all-night session and the lost half day this morning the jurors on the Mrs. Shepherd case thought that some provision should be made to give them some remuneration for their time and trouble. They therefore decided to formulate a petition to be forwarded to the provincial authorities asking that a coroner's jury be remunerated.

A Missionary Evening. The regular meeting of the Epworth League of the George-st. Methodist Church last evening was of a missionary character. Mr. Geo. S. Bean presided and the meeting was opened with the usual exercises. There was a large attendance. The special features were instructive papers on Japan by Mr. N. Munro and Miss Allen and a "Missionary Catechism," which brought out many interesting facts regarding missions. A collection was then taken up for missionary work. The meeting was a most successful and profitable one.

AN ALL-NIGHT SESSION.

THE JURY INQUIRING INTO THE DEATH OF MRS. SHEPHERD.

The Evidence that was Submitted—The Jury fail to Agree after an All-Night Session—Witnesses Recalled and a Verdict that she died from the Effects of Carbolic Acid.

The inquest opened on Sunday to enquire into the death of Mrs. Maggie Shepherd was resumed last evening at the Police Court room before Dr. Fife, coronor. The court room was crowded with spectators who were apparently much interested in the case. The evidence was all in at 10.45 and the jury was left to consider their verdict until nearly noon to-day did not agree to return and sign verdict.

Mrs. O'Brien, who saw the deceased after she had taken the deadly drink and before she died, was first called and sworn. She said:—Mrs. Shepherd has lived in my house since the 14th of August. To my knowledge she seemed a very nice person. She was in and out of my place and seemed a reasonable person. I never heard her threaten to destroy her life or that of her child. About twelve o'clock Sunday Mr. Shepherd rushed into my house and said, "For God's sake, Mrs. O'Brien, come up; look at what Maggie's taken." He said, "For God's sake, come up and look at what she's taken." I went up and found her lying on the floor. She was awfully excited and had a white spot around the mouth. I took the child and went to the bedroom door and she turned and said, "Come, Freddie, come to mamma." She had such a wild look I was afraid she would injure the child. She then laid down on the bed and I gave the child to some one. I took her by the shoulder and said, "Oh, Mrs. Shepherd, what have you done? You have poisoned yourself. Can't you pray to God to let you live until some one comes to help you?" I said, "you'll die" and she said, "I know it" or something to that effect. She did not answer me further, but asked for milk. Mr. Shepherd gave her milk and she drank it and called for more. She could not drink the second cup, but only took a mouthful. We offered her melted butter, but she could not swallow it. I ran down to see if the doctor was coming and when I came back she was dead. It was about from eight to ten minutes from the time Mr. Shepherd called me until she died.

To a Jurymen—She did not give or I do not know of any cause for her act. As she ran down stairs to get the milk. Dr. Pixon, who was the first doctor to reach the deceased, told of his being called and of how he found the woman. She was dead. The husband showed him the bottle from which his wife had drunk. It contained strong carbolic acid. Mr. Shepherd also told the witness that the deceased had tried to poison the child. He saw the child and found that the acid had been poured over the face leaving a stain such as of carbolic acid. None of the acid had gone into the child's mouth. The witness said Mr. Shepherd had told him that he and his wife had had some little disagreement that morning and that she was subject to fits of violent temper, in which she sometimes beat her head against the wall. He noticed post mortem mottling of the hands which came on unusually soon after death, caused by an obstruction in the blood vessels preventing the return of the blood from the limb to the heart.

JOHN McNAMARA, the young man who was in Mrs. O'Brien's when Shepherd came in to testify, corroborated Mrs. O'Brien's evidence as to what happened in the house. Mr. Shepherd sent him upstairs with some water. Witness offered her a drink but she said "No," and then asked if he had any water. This was before Mrs. O'Brien came up and the deceased was standing near the bedroom door with the child in her arms.

To a Jurymen—She made no other remarks except the two I have mentioned. Mrs. Baird, who lived close by, was sworn and said she had been called by Mr. Shepherd and when she came down she found her lying on the floor. She was dead. She went down to get the bottle from which his wife had drunk. It contained strong carbolic acid. Mr. Shepherd also told the witness that the deceased had tried to poison the child. He saw the child and found that the acid had been poured over the face leaving a stain such as of carbolic acid. None of the acid had gone into the child's mouth. The witness said Mr. Shepherd had told him that he and his wife had had some little disagreement that morning and that she was subject to fits of violent temper, in which she sometimes beat her head against the wall. Mr. Shepherd sent him upstairs with some water. Witness offered her a drink but she said "No," and then asked if he had any water. This was before Mrs. O'Brien came up and the deceased was standing near the bedroom door with the child in her arms.

THE MOTHER'S EVIDENCE. Mrs. SHEPHERD, the mother of the dead woman, and a tall lady wearing spectacles, was sworn and told her story in a peculiar style. "I cannot tell anything about her only that she had a very short hot temper. Shepherd came to my home about four years ago. They were married and went to the States and had a good home. They had lived together and never had any more trouble than there is between any man and wife. I believe he had tried to do his best by her but she had a hot temper and has done this." This evidence was told at a rapid rate which, with her Yorkshire accent, made it almost unintelligible. Asked again if she knew of any cause of the act she said, "I know nothing about it more than she had a bad temper like her father. She was good later, a good, hard worker, but would have her own way. When they grew up I let them go their own way, but they always came around. But she'll not come no more I guess."

THE CORONER'S EVIDENCE. The coroner, Dr. Fife, read the result of the post mortem. The superficial examination showed no marks of violence. She was present about four months. The state of the body gave a detailed description of the condition in which the different organs were found. In answer to questions Dr. King said:—"Death was probably due to the congested state of the lungs and kidneys, but by what means caused I could not say. I did not find the evidence I expected. I could not say what she died from. If she died from carbolic acid poisoning I would expect more evidence. I have not seen such evidence. Death might be caused by a spasm of the glottis producing congestion of the different organs of the body."

To a Jurymen—We did not make a chemical test of the stomach, but we would expect a carbolic odor to be generated when the stomach was opened. This odor was absent in this case. I could not say that death was the result of poison. There was evidence of a convulsive fit. There were no marks of violence and we examined very closely.

Dr. Pixon, recalled, said:—I agree with the post mortem statement put in. I believe the cause of the woman's death was the action of carbolic acid, causing spasm of the glottis and shutting out from the lungs so that circulation of blood in the lungs was stopped. The left side of the heart continuing to pump blood on and the circulation in the lungs being stopped the right side of the heart became loaded with blood on which it was unable to contract so that the late red organs were all gorged with blood. Hence death. I could not smell carbolic acid in the stomach although I tried. The trouble is that the esophagus and stomach did not show the injury we would expect to find after swallowing such a quantity of carbolic acid. My opinion is that only a small quantity of carbolic acid was swallowed, but what was swallowed happened to touch what in her case was a fatal spot, causing intense irritation which produced the spasm of the glottis. Under no other circumstances can I account for the absence of injury to the esophagus and stomach and the suddenness of her death."

This was all the evidence and, after briefly changing the jury as to their duty, the coroner left them in charge of Constable Adams to find a verdict. This was fifteen minutes to eleven and it was expected that a few minutes would see a verdict arrived at. About twelve o'clock the coroner was called up to hear the verdict they had not written out, but they dictated the following:—"That Margaret Shepherd came to her death by the effect of carbolic acid administered at or about noon on the 20th March, 1892, but we cannot say by whom the carbolic acid was administered."

The coroner was not willing to sign such a verdict and, after being told that Mr. Shepherd's evidence was admissible, a couple of the jurymen disagreed with the finding and would not sign it. The coroner then went over the evidence, pointed out the salient points and left them again.

But the jury was not soon to arrive at a verdict. Some of the jurymen could not bring themselves to decide that the unfortunate woman took the fatal draught by her own hand from which his wife had drunk. The death from the effect of carbolic acid administered by her own hand was suggested and seven of the jurymen were ready to sign it, but five of the others disagreed, while the thirteenth man must have had peculiar ideas of his own. The coroner in vain tried to get the jury to agree to a verdict which was agreed to by all. The question as to by whom the acid was administered and tried to send them towards a verdict, but it was of no avail. Some of them laid down on the benches in the room and made themselves as comfortable as they could, while ever and anon runs of laughter and sounds of discussion came to the waiting below. At twenty minutes to five this morning the state of affairs was unchanged and the coroner allowed the jurors to go, taking their recognizances to appear at 10 o'clock. At 10 o'clock the jury again assembled in the committee room of the Council Chamber and Mrs. O'Brien and Mr. Shepherd were recalled to repeat their stories. Their testimony was substantially the same as given the night before. The coroner then left them and after fifteen minutes considered they arrived at a verdict which was agreed to by all. Very Little Evidence Offered By the Crown in Rebuttal—Counsel For the Defence Occupied Nearly all Day Yesterday Addressing the Jury.

HAMILTON, March 24.—Very little evidence was called in the rebuttal by the Crown at the Heslop trial yesterday.

It will be remembered that Emily Tobo, a relative of Douglas, swore that she saw him at Lewiston between Feb. 9 and 16, 1891, but Dr. Macdonald of Hagerstown swore this morning that at that time she was under his care.

Alphus Hewitt of Lewiston swore that George Douglas was not at his wife's funeral on the Thursday after the murder, in direct rebuttal of Henry Adams who claimed to have seen him acting as a pallbearer on that occasion.

John Hamilton of Lewiston swore that Douglas was not at Mary Patterson's funeral.

Samuel Gooney was recalled to contradict the story told by Isaac Douglas as to what transpired at a visit made by Douglas to the witness while the latter was in jail.

Deputy Tom Voss of Niagara Falls, Samuel Adams, a Brandon constable, and Andy Horn, were called to the stand, and were called to prove that prisoners were arrested on an altogether different story to account for their whereabouts on the day of the murder.

This closed the case and the addresses of counsel for the defence followed.

Mr. Nesbitt spoke for three hours and Mr. Heyd was still continuing his address when the court adjourned.

The case will be given to the jury tomorrow.

BEHRING SEA.
Bill Discussing the Reply of Lord Salisbury.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—In the Senate yesterday Uncle Sam showed his teeth. After all the Bohring Sea correspondence had been referred to committees it was found that the President, in reply to Lord Salisbury's latest despatch, plainly told him that the British Government declines to assist in the protection of the seals during the arbitration of the claims of the United States he will proceed to enforce the law and exclude poachers from Behring Sea if the military force of the United States is required to accomplish it.

The note created a sensation in the Senate. Lord Salisbury does not in his note refuse to enter into a modus vivendi of some kind; he does not flatly refuse to be a party to some arrangement, but diplomatically speaking, he "fails to consent" to the proposition made by this Government. Inasmuch as the Senate has refused to make the correspondence public it is exceedingly difficult to get a clear statement of the exact ideas intended to be conveyed in the diplomatic language of such correspondence as that laid before the Senate today, but undoubtedly the impression generally conveyed by the reading was that Lord Salisbury has refused to renew the arrangement of last year.

POISON IN THE VEIL.
Mrs. Cousins' Death Directly Traceable to Her Face Covering.

St. Thomas, March 24.—Mrs. Hugh Cousins, wife of Hugh Cousins, sumner clerk on the M.C.R., died suddenly yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock. Mrs. Cousins had been troubled with a sore lip. A week ago Sunday she attended church as usual, but on Wednesday her face became swollen and caused her severe pain. The swelling extended to other parts of her body and she was finally obliged to go to bed. Medical aid was called in, but no serious results were anticipated. Her husband went out on his regular trip yesterday morning thinking she was better and did not get back till after her death. Mrs. Cousins wore a red veil to church and the doctor thinks the dye from this entered the sore on her lip and caused her death.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.
THE DEBATE ON THE BUDGET CONTINUED.

The Welland Election Matter Again Brought Up in the House—The New Chief Liberal Whip—The Members to Take a Holiday.

OTTAWA, March 24.—The church holidays are for Parliament what the visit of the trustees is for the scholars in the way-back schools. Friday being Annunciation Day, Sir John Thompson moved an adjournment from Thursday till Monday.

Col. Tisdale, the member for South Norfolk, introduced a Welland election matter as a question of privilege. He stated as the facts in the case that an instance of corruption by an agent had been established. On this case Mr. Gorman was uneaten. His counsel intimated to the court that his client would not appeal against the judgment of the court. Then charges of personal corruption were entered upon with the result that the member was disqualified. Against this he is appealing to the Supreme Court. As there was no appeal against the judgment naming Mr. Gorman, Col. Tisdale held the seat was vacant and he moved that the Speaker issue his warrant for an election.

Mr. Laurier objected to this summary way of dealing with so important a subject. The member whose seat was affected should be notified.

Sir John Thompson agreed with the Opposition leader, and the matter stands.

The New Member for Queen's.
The House then entered on the order paper, and while Mr. Brodeur was finishing Frenches at Sir Adolphe Caron George F. Baird of Queen's, N.B., came into the chamber. It was his first appearance since the general election.

It is not often that Mr. Laurier is heard in his mother tongue, but he took part in the little debate on Mr. Brodeur's motion for correspondence, before mentioned. His compatriot picked up their ears and seemed to listen to him with interest.

The F.R.I. Tassel.
Mr. Perry, the abbreviated, grizzly-bearded representative from Prince Edward Island, filled up the rest of the afternoon with a discussion of the tassel scheme and related the way the light blue tassel had been introduced by the Dominion. He was going when the House rose.

When it reassembled after dinner Mr. Flinn moved the second reading of his bill amending the Canada Temperance Act. The changes are slight and the bill received its second reading.

The Budget Debate.
This brought the House with a rush back to the debate on the Budget Speech.

Mr. Bennett, the slight young lawyer from East Simcoe, resumed the debate from the Government side.

He was succeeded by Mr. McMillen. Mr. Samuel Hughes, the member for North Victoria, took up the parole.

Mr. Sample adjourned the debate.

Mr. Landreth is anxious to know if the Department of Customs charged duty to the amount of $62 on a Union Jack sent by the Duke of Connaught as a prize to a corps at the Montreal contest, and has put a query on the order paper.

Notes.
A delegation from Toronto, (Guelph and other places in the city asking for a reduction on crude oil used in the manufacture of gas, as the supply in the Dominion is not equal to the demand. They had an interview with Messrs. Bowell and Foster, who promised them to consider the matter.

The Manitoba and Northwest members on Premier Abbott's motion to adjourn at an additional draft he made in the supplementary estimates for immigration purposes.

At a caucus of the Liberal party this morning Mr. James Sutherland, M.P. for Oxford, was appointed chief whip of the party in the place of Mr. James Trow, who is not now in Parliament.

The New Steamer—A Beaver Killed—Entertainment—The Carriers' Frigate.

I. O. G. T.—The Good Templars held an open night in Town Hall here, on Tuesday evening last, and it proved a most successful affair. A number of members from South Verulam, L. G. were present and took part in the program, which was varied, interesting and amusing. The kindergarten song by the children took the audience by storm, and in fact there was no more after that. The whole audience in the hall, which was packed, seemed to enjoy the evening's entertainment to the full.

SPRING GAMES—We notice a number of our merchants are getting their windows nicely decorated with spring goods.

A NEW BOAT FOR THE LOWER LAKE—Dr. J. C. G. has made arrangements with Mr. J. H. Power, and Mr. T. T. T. of Kingston, who are to build a new boat for the lower lake, to be built at the Pointe St. Charles, and to be built at the rate of $15 or 16 miles an hour. It will come up to the present standard, and it is to be built at the rate of $15 or 16 miles an hour. It will come up to the present standard, and it is to be built at the rate of $15 or 16 miles an hour.

THE LAST BEAVER—Mr. Wm. Humphrey, who lives on the side of a small stream, has just killed a beaver, and he has been watching for a time till the unsuspecting woodman put his head out of his house and Mr. Humphrey shot him. The beaver was a fine specimen, and the last of the season.

There was no hope. I should have been able to move from my bed. Under my face were napkins continually reddened with blood from my mouth. I could not swallow, and I had no action of the bowels for a week. The doctors said the case was hopeless, and I was to be put to rest. I was to be put to rest. I was to be put to rest.

THE STRIKE AT AN END.

NO FURTHER TROUBLE ON THE C. P. R.

The Mediation of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers Results in the Termination of What Remained to Prove One of the Most Disastrous Strikes on Record.

WEDNESDAY, March 24.—The Canadian Pacific strike was settled here yesterday, the reconciliation being brought about by a delegation of the company's locomotive engineers, who for two or three days have been endeavoring to restore peace.

The terms of settlement agreed upon are these:

All men who have been discharged and who have gone on strike, also any employee who has been discharged for refusing to take the place of any striker, or who has voted to strike, to be reinstated without prejudice.

If it can be shown to the committee of engineers who have mediated between the company and the trainmen that any of the strikers committed an assault upon any official of the road he to be dismissed. This to apply to the Pacific and Eastern divisions as well as the Western division.

A committee of five engineers, namely: A. Kennedy, W. J. Watson, A. Heath, J. Brown and C. Pope, to settle the points on which the trainmen and the company differed.

That the arrangement between the general superintendent of the Pacific division of the trainmen that the rates on the Western are to be taken as those on the Pacific division to be carried out unless in the meantime the trainmen and the general superintendent of the Pacific Division have already settled the matter.

Throughout the strike the engineers have been endeavoring to act as peace-makers and to bring about the satisfaction of the men and the company. The company has been endeavoring to act as peace-makers and to bring about the satisfaction of the men and the company.

It is probable the first case of a railroad strike settled in such a manner, and the terms of settlement indicate in what high esteem both parties hold the engineers.

To-night trains departed with regular conductors and train crews, and everything is now running smoothly.

Both sides are willing to await the decision of the engineers, having full confidence in their fairness.

Great satisfaction is generally expressed at the happy and early settlement of the difficulty.

Many expressions complimentary to the engineers are heard.

A Motion of Sympathy Voted Down.

WEDNESDAY, March 24.—At last night's regular session of the City Council, a motion of sympathy with the trainmen in their trouble with the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, to the effect that "in consideration of the fact that railroading in the Northwest, especially in winter, is accomplished by great hardships, and the cost of living in the Northwest exceeds the cost of living in the eastern provinces, this council heartily sympathizes with the trainmen in their efforts to obtain an equitable adjustment of their wages."

This motion, after a short discussion, was voted down by a vote of 2 to 2.

At Montreal.

MONTREAL, March 24.—This despatch was received from Winnipeg at a late hour yesterday afternoon.

HE FELL AMONG THIEVES.

BY DAVID CHRISTIE MURRAY.

Mr. Frost took this as he took most things, with a serene good humor, and being alone with her ladyship for a moment after luncheon, he started that excellent woman amazingly by asking for an immediate private interview. Her ladyship at once acceded his request, and left Mrs. Brotherton and the girls to wander. A strange conflict of doubt and fear reigned in those tender bosoms. She had never before been so much alone with her ladyship, and she was not a woman to be easily frightened. She knew herself to be far removed from the exalted circles in which Lady McCorquodale had her habitual haunts. She was ignorant of those nuances, and could only wait in agonized suspense.

CHAPTER IV.
Her ladyship was hit all abroad by this question. She confessed afterwards in narrating the interview that she had never been so amazed in her life before as she was then. She was startled, and her ladyship's own words. Her amazement was so little guarded that she permitted Frost to see it, and she recovered herself, and offered him a counter question.

"May I ask, Mr. Frost, why you put that question to me?"
"I wish to make Miss Grey my wife," said Mr. Frost, with straightforward simplicity.

Lady McCorquodale had been perfectly sure beforehand that this would be at least the girl of his nature, and yet when it came it seemed almost to take her breath away.

"I was quite unprepared for this," she said gravely, collecting herself. "You do indeed have a very high honor, but I am really afraid that you come too late."

"I hope not," said Frost. He was very solid and purposeful in his manner, and at Lady McCorquodale's hint of failure his color changed slightly, but not so slightly that her ladyship failed to observe it. He gave her a proof of his sincerity in the matter, and she saw at once that his feelings were really engaged. She took an immediate championship of his cause, even in the selfsame instant in which it exasperated her to think that it was probably hopeless. To think that a woman of her perspicacity had allowed herself to look on that silly self-complacent Harry Wynne, whilst such a chance as this was ready to present itself! She knew Humphrey Frost well enough to be sure that he had thought long and seriously before speaking, and she had been so blind that she had guessed absolutely nothing.

"The proposal gave him a new value in her eyes. In her own state, condescending fashion she had admired the girl, but Mr. Frost's approval set such a cachet of distinction upon her that a unwilling admiration was extorted in the old lady's mind. It placed in the air a new air to think that she might to-morrow the enemy of every marriageable girl in England."

"Humphrey," she said, falling back into the familiarity of twenty years back, "I will do what I can. I had never thought it possible—I had never so much as dreamed of you coming for her. Between ourselves you and I need have no disguises about one thing. There is not a girl of England whose parents would not jump at you. Your money and your family entitle you to that, and you have an excellent character. It is so self-evident that it seems almost to say to me, if I had had to choose a husband for my daughter, I should have chosen you. But you must know that the whole family has allowed the thing to go on so long, and that you have grown so accustomed to regard it as a thing of course."

"Let me understand you, Lady McCorquodale," said Frost, with a disturbed and puzzled look.

"Indeed she has," responded her ladyship, in an almost querulous tone; "she has been so engaged all her lifetime to Harry Wynne."

"Mr. Frost smiled, and looked at her ladyship. She, in answer to the smile, shook her head in a sort of vigorous responsibility, and Frost became immediately serious."

"Young Wynne," he urged, "is barely out of his teens."

"He is turned two and twenty," responded her ladyship, "and really there is no denying that they are devotedly attached to each other. We have had a sort of family peacetime of it. It has been a pretty little sort of pastoral comedy, going on under our nose, and we have all permitted it and petted it and encouraged it, until I am afraid that it is past changing."

"They are devotedly attached to each other," said Frost, but he had heard nothing of the kind. "That should be enough for a man, I suppose." He was bitterly and evidently disappointed, and his simple and quiet manner emphasized the fact that Lady McCorquodale's understanding. "It certainly should be enough for me," he pursued, "if Mr. Wynne and Miss Grey were a little older. I think Mr. Wynne has no special prospects."

"His uncle Percy allows him three hundred a year," her ladyship answered, "and he is engaged with Mr. Ferguson and the city, and between that and his verses and magazine articles he seems to make four or five hundred more."

Humphrey Frost looked at that statement thoughtfully, and for a moment quite unselfishly. To a man of his wealth the previous looked regularly.

"Can you think," he asked, "of throwing away a girl like Miss Grey upon a prospect of that kind?" He was afraid a second look of seeming unworthiness of himself. "I beg you to understand me, Lady McCorquodale. I quite feel the difficulties of the position, and I would not for the world do anything that should even seem to force your ward's inclination. I know that you are so far superior to any silly consideration in the matter, that I could not entice you on that side even if I were disposed to try, but this would not permit serious question with me, and I wish you to understand that I am very much in earnest. I am willing to wait, and I will ask you to do no more than to permit my proposal to Miss Grey. Let Mr. Wynne know that it has been made, and let Miss Grey herself at the expiration of half a year be the sole arbitress."

"It is quite possible," said her ladyship, with a quiet desperation in her voice which indicated that she thought it quite sufficiently impossible. "It is quite possible that Harry may have self-denial and pride, and even affection enough for Ithia to resist it. It is of course possible also that Ithia may see the advantages which your proposal offers, and that she may be so young, pretty, and charming, and that they have been so encouraged and spoiled."

Her ladyship broke off short once more, and was a good deal surprised when with an elderly heart a sentiment she had not suspected there. Intensely as she loved the match between Humphrey and Ithia, there was a secret ambushed hope, which was really too foolish to be recognized, that the girl would not permit serious question with me, and I wish you to understand that I am very much in earnest. I am willing to wait, and I will ask you to do no more than to permit my proposal to Miss Grey. Let Mr. Wynne know that it has been made, and let Miss Grey herself at the expiration of half a year be the sole arbitress."

"You may perhaps do me one favor, Lady McCorquodale," said Frost, after a lengthy pause. (To be continued.)

EMPEROR WILLIAM SAID TO BE A VERY SICK MAN.

We are also worried and annoyed—Capt. Anson to resign—some talk of Prince Henry coming to the front—Treasurer in Paris and London.

New York, March 24.—The Herald's Paris correspondent says: Emperor William has been in such a state of abnormal excitement for the past fortnight that he has shut himself up in his private apartments and has refused to grant audience to anyone. The attitude of the press on the Loi Noire and on the troubles in Berlin still arouse him to anger, but what has excited him more than anything else is a letter which he has received from an old schoolfellow at the Cassel Lyceum.

The writer is now a professor at Tubingen and has always been the best possible friend of the Emperor. In the letter he sharply criticized the Loi Noire and said that the Emperor's attitude towards the Catholics was a disgrace. The Emperor's friends, who had placed all their hopes on him. The letter reached the Emperor on Wednesday, the 23rd inst. The Cabinet Council was held on Thursday. During the session the Emperor did not say a word, and when he was made a sign with his hand that he was willing to withdraw. When, however, Capt. Anson said, "Your Majesty, the Emperor of the day has been passed," he rose and burst into a violent harangue, in which he insulted the Ministers and used such bitter language towards the Catholics that the Emperor's friends, who had placed all their hopes on him. BOTH MEN ACQUITTED.

THE MESLOP SUSPECTS FOUND NOT GUILTY.

The Jury, after Four Hours' Deliberation, Discharge the Accused—Lottridge May Not be Tried for Robbery of the Meslop Residence.

HAMILTON, March 25.—The brutal assassination of the aged treasurer of Ancaster Township, John Meslop, is now added to the long list of unpunished crimes writ across Ontario's escutcheon.

John Bartram and his nephew, John Lottridge, who for 10 days past have been the most interested figures in the fight for the which has been enacted in Hamilton's court house, were last evening declared not guilty by a jury of their peers.

Mr. Over closed his address at 3.30 after speaking for three hours and a half. Judge Ross's charge was against the prisoners.

Four Hours' Consideration.
The jury retired at 4.45 p.m. to consider a verdict, and after an absence of nearly four hours returned with the verdict of "not guilty" at 8.45 p.m. John Lottridge will still be held on a charge of burglary.

Bartram will return and complete his term of two years in the castle stone.

When the verdict was announced the prisoners' faces lit up and their friends and counsel crowded around them and congratulated each other on the verdict.

BEHRING SEA AGAIN.

THE ARBITRATION TREATY RATIFIED BY THE SENATE.

The Senate Makes Public the Letters Which Have Passed Between the President and Lord Salisbury—The London Press on the Situation.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The Senate has made public the Behring Sea correspondence transmitted by the President. As already stated, it includes a statement from Lord Salisbury that he sees no reason for another suspension of sealing; that there is no security that this arbitration will be concluded before the expiration of the season of 1892 and that it would be more equitable to provide that sealing shall continue on condition that owners of vessels shall give security for satisfaction of damages the arbitrators may award.

Mr. Wharton's Reply.
Mr. Wharton replies, by direction of the President, calling attention to the gravity of the matter, the large number of Canadian sealers already cleared, assumes the sincere purpose of both Governments to promote peace, and concludes as follows: The President directs us to say that the mode of last year is the least that the Government can accept in reason. The restraint after a treaty of arbitration should be more absolute, not less. He does not desire to protract this discussion, and having now in the most friendly spirit submitted considerations which support the just demand of this Government that the property which is the subject of an agreed arbitration shall not be subjected to spoliation by the arbitrators. He expresses the hope that Lord Salisbury will give a prompt and friendly answer to renew the mode.

The President will hear with regret that Her Majesty's Government continues to assert a right to deal with this subject precisely as if no provision had been made for a settlement of the dispute, and in that event this Government as has already been pointed out will be compelled to deal with the subject upon the same basis and to use every means in its power to protect from destruction or serious injury property and jurisdictional rights which it has long claimed and enjoyed.

To Ratify the Treaty.
WASHINGTON, March 23.—The Behring Sea arbitration was discussed by the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations at a special meeting, and it was decided to recommend the ratification of the treaty.

The main topic of discussion in the executive session of the Senate was not the Behring Sea treaty itself but a significant resolution reported by Mr. Sherman from the Committee on Foreign Relations to accompany it. This resolution was in the nature of an endorsement of the attitude assumed by the President in the pending contention, and in substance assures him of support of the Senate in his expressed purpose to defend American rights in Behring Sea.

Tail-Twisting May Prove Serious.
LONDON, March 23.—Commenting on the danger of bringing the British and American boats in proximity, The Times says it is only too likely to bring them into conflict and concludes, "Tail-twisting may be a popular sport, but a serious quarrel with England is not likely to ensue. Mr. Harrison in a presidential campaign."

Sarsaparilla

It would be difficult to find a man better known in the vicinity of Burlington, Vt., than Mr. R. D. Wheeler of Windsor Falls, the efficient Deputy Sheriff of Burlington county. He says:

"I had a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla sent me by the Rev. Dr. H. H. H. of Lowell, Mass."

"Dear Sir: I had a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla sent me by the Rev. Dr. H. H. H. of Lowell, Mass."

"I should still keep using it, as I have for the past ten years. With me the question as to whether life is worth living depends upon whether I can get Hood's Sarsaparilla. I don't think I could live without it now, certainly I should not wish to, and suffer as I used to. For over ten years I suffered the horrors of the damned with

A THREE MONTHS TRANSACTION.

Mr. Blaine, the member for Algoma, brought before the Legislature a very peculiar transaction which illustrates the ideas the Government has with reference to the public service. In 1873 a timber berth on the north shore of Lake Huron was sold for $2,000. Thirteen years later, in 1886, Alexander Barnett had purchased the land for $2,000 and received a transfer of title upon payment of arrears. Six months after Mr. Barnett sold the land for $20,000, and for their assistance in making the sale he paid to Messrs. Aubrey White, now Assistant Commissioner of Crown Lands, and Thomas Johnston, a wood ranger, $10,000 as commission. To Mr. White he paid $5,000 and to Johnston $5,000, but Johnston afterwards shared up with White, giving him $2,500, thus making their profit on the transaction equal. By these means the two officials made a nice little fortune of $17,500 each.

Mr. Clancy pointed out that a return was brought down in 1888 showing that the ground rents on the limit had been kept paid from 1873 to 1888, but he was in a position to say that the return was untrue and that the rents had been paid in a lump sum in either 1886 or 1888, when the limit passed to the third owner. The matter was not improved when Mr. Johnston pointed out that Johnston, who received $10,000, was the same man who went over the limit in 1873, before it was sold by the Government for $2,000.

Mr. Hardy and Mr. Blaine saw nothing wrong in this. The Government had sold the limit for $25 per mile, had stood the risk for fourteen years, and then it was sold for $25,000 per mile, a private purchaser and the two officials pocketed the profits of the transaction. Ordinary people would think that Government officials should give the information they possessed regarding the limits to the Government, and not sell it to speculators to their own personal advantage, but Mr. Hardy could find nothing in the law to prevent public officials from dealing in timber lands, although there was a provision regarding other public lands, and he defended his officials. The transaction is an illustration of how officials may make large commissions by using information obtained in the performance of their duties, and which should be given to the Government and used for the benefit of the people, and the light manner in which it was treated by the Government was not calculated to protect the interests of the Province.

A STRANGE CASE.

In the able speech delivered by Mr. Foster in presenting his financial statement there were many important points. One of the most important was his reference to the interview between the Canadian Ministers and the United States Secretary of State regarding reciprocity, in which it was made clear that the United States Government will not treat with this country unless Canada will consent to bar out trade with all countries except the Republic and will give to the United States the power of arranging our customs tariff and excise laws. Mr. Foster said:

"In conference with Mr. Blaine, the Canadian delegation proposed as a basis for negotiations the reciprocity treaty of 1846 with such modifications and extensions as the changed condition of the country might render necessary or desirable. They pressed the conclusion of a treaty upon that basis. They were met with the reply from Mr. Blaine that a reciprocal treaty to a treaty based upon natural products alone had not in it the essential elements of reciprocity so far as the United States was concerned, and consequently they were unable to enter into it. He raised the question, as did also Gen. Foster, who was his confidant in what would be the result, whether we were prepared to make a proposal which would give, than natural products and take in and include a general tariff reduction in our market, especially against Great Britain, who was their chief competitor in nearly every

But She Was Brought into Healthy Girlhood by

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

Mr. Edward Hilbert, of 183 Broadway, Lawrence, Mass., sends us the following: "Ten years ago our child was born. Having lost six children we were naturally anxious as to the health of this one. What was our dismay and sorrow to find that she was apparently doing well, but at the end of a year, having taken severe colds, we supposed that she was dying. At this time she was a year old, and although anxious to live, she would not grow. When about 1 1/2 years old she began to have

Fainting Spells, dropping wherever she happened to be. At these times she would turn black and up to the point of death. Doctors told us she was in a very bad way from Heart Trouble. Nothing that we gave did any good until, in utter despair, we began giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She gradually began to improve, the fainting spells ceased, her general health improved, and at the end of a year, having taken severe colds, we supposed that she was dying. At this time she was a year old, and although anxious to live, she would not grow. When about 1 1/2 years old she began to have

Heavily and Rugged a child as you find anywhere and has never shown any indication of a return of the heart difficulty. During the past 6 years perhaps she has lost 3 times as much weight as she gained in the first year, and is now giving it to her irregularity of times when she has complained of feeling ill in the spring and early summer. We feel that we owe a great deal to Hood's Sarsaparilla and cannot say too much in favor of it." Edward Hilbert, Lawrence, Mass.

NO RIGHT TO AN OPINION.

IT IS A GOD-ORDERED DUTY, A GOD-GIVING COMMAND.

The Evangelization of the World Reduced to a Simple Matter of Dollars and Cents—A Powerful Missionary Discourse by Rev. J. R. Starr, of Toronto.

One of the most powerful missionary discourses listened to in Peterborough in some time was that which Rev. J. R. Starr, of Toronto, delivered to a crowded congregation at the Methodist church yesterday morning. It was missionary Sunday at the church and the popular and eloquent divine came here to preach the special sermon for the occasion. The draw seats were brought into requisition in the morning when the rev. gentleman chose for the basis of his forcible deliverance the words:—

"Come over into Macedonia and help us."—Acts xvi. 9

Pacing upon the eastern shore of the Aegean Sea, said the preacher, Alexander of Macedonia, born of Achilles, and his ambition fired by the illustrious memory of his ancestors, started out to wield in one universal empire the dynasties of the eastern world, beset by the Greek and the European conquerors of Asia. Pacing the shores of the Aegean sea on another night was another man who was destined by means of the gospel to become the Asiatic conqueror of Europe. The preacher said, and Paul was absolutely insensible to his charms. The fact was Paul was bothered about

A MATTER OF DUTY. The question with him was should he go? At length the shadows of evening settled over Mt. Ida's brow and during the night the matter was settled and the next morning at breakfast Paul said to his travelling companions: "We will go over to Europe." Accordingly they embarked the first missionaries to Europe. The occasion alike of the embarkation of the first missionaries and the decision to evangelize Europe was the appearance of the man at Paul's bedside saying: "Come over into Macedonia and help us." That Macedonian cry had become the world's cry. There was sitting in darkness, there was going on a cry for help. "The Gospel," they said, "is the help we need." They say how it enables, civilizes and enables people to rise to the level of the future; die; see people outstripping us in arts and science; send us the gospel, come over and help us!" Was Christendom under any obligation to answer the cry from nations sitting in darkness and superstition? Just as much, said the rev. gentleman, under obligation were they as Paul was. Under a greater obligation were they to answer the cry of the heathen than Paul was, for a little while he wanted to front them with this question: "In the first place, just as certainly as it came ringing into the ears of Paul just as certainly it came ringing into the ears of Christendom to-day, 'Go! Go!' That commandment was never repeated, it was never revoked but

JUST AS BINDING NOW as it was on Paul. He would send the word to escape from the obligation. Clear as a bugle blast, that command came ringing in their ears from the lips of a living Christ and the church's marching orders were "Go ye and preach the Gospel to every creature." They might be of different opinions, they might argue and disagree. They might say people do not need the Gospel; to send the Gospel to the heathen was simply to increase the heathen at home. "Your opinion," said the preacher, "what kind of Christians are you? There are three kinds of Christians, you know, the mission Christians, the anti-mission and the omission Christians. I rather think a good many in these days belong to the omission kind. But are you professing Christians, recognizing Christ as the leader of the advancing host? If so it is a question I tell you on which you are not entitled to an opinion. I stand on that proposition in time and I stand on that proposition before the judgment throne of God and throughout all eternity. It is a matter of God-ordered duty and God-given command and you have no right to an opinion." It was a question of loyalty to Jesus Christ; and when he said "Go" and they answered "No" and questioned the command they could not be loyal. So it was that surprise came to him when he saw people making the loudest kind of professions, people who made religion seem sanctimonious, people who made religion sour and repelling, surprise came over him when looking over the missionary reports to see these people's names omitted from that report. These people who

MADE HIGH AND LOFTY professions of holiness, but it was nothing but sanctimoniousness and did not come within forty thousand miles of holiness. They could not be Christians and either be opposed or indifferent to Christian missions. Upon all rested the obligation, as it did on Paul, to answer the cry "Come over into Macedonia and help us." Not only did it rest upon him but the obligation was greater because heathendom was easier of access. All obstacles had been cast to the dust, all barriers thrown down and all dangers set aside. Spain, Catholic Spain was holding out its hands and saying "Give us the Gospel." In Italy right under the shadow of the Vatican, a little church was doing a great work and Italy was welcoming the Gospel. Syria was reaching all who spoke the Arabic or worshipped Mahomet. In India the Gospel was established in the hearts of the people and into zamindars, an event which twenty years ago would have been pronounced impossible. Japan was also welcoming Christian civilization. Besides their obligation was greater than Paul's because it was demonstrated beyond all possible doubt that Christian missions paid. There was no undertaking in the world that paid as well as Christian missions in dollars and cents, in hard cash. Statistics showed that while it cost only about $80 to convert a pagan, it cost in Christian lands about $640. In other words a pagan convert was cheaper than a Christian convert and therefore it paid. Judging from the giving of converts in pagan lands they were away ahead of those in Christian lands.

THE CONTRIBUTIONS of the Protestant Evangelical churches of the earth amounted per head to the magnificent sum of 7 1/2 cents, whereas in pagan lands the average amounted to $135 per head. They are a few years ago one of the South sea islands sending to the missionary board $665, an average of $1.33 against 7 1/2 cents given by Christian converts. The ten thousand converts of the United States of Africa sent to the home board $75,000 the year that the Centennial of Methodism was celebrated. But these people were not civilized, they knew nothing about national policies or revenue tariffs and selfishness. Not only was it a fact that it was cheaper to convert the pagans but never had their been a land upon which Christian missionaries had set foot and planted the Gospel that the country sending out the missionaries had not obtained a hundred fold in trade and profit. Let him get the enthusiasm in missionary enterprise as high as had been the enthusiasm which had supported the Conservative party in the recent election and he cared not what the policy of the Government might be, that would be the finest way of increasing the trade with Canada. Christian missionaries were the aid of good government and the enemy of bad wherever they went. Besides there was the reflex influence of missionary enterprise. Show him a church which engaged heartily in mission work and he would show them one financially and spiritually prosperous. The only thing that would save the church from stagnation was missionary enterprise. Did it pay? Look at it from every standpoint they would come at it from whatever point they would and the conclusion was that before them that missionary enterprise paid as did no other and because it did it placed greater obligations upon them and upon the Christian church. The preacher then introduced figures into his discourse in an interesting way, saying there were 7,000 ordained ministers and 42,000 native helpers at work in missions. The progress of Christianity in the last fifty years had been greater than in the eighteen hundred years that preceded. After giving figures to show the progress that had been made and the strides of missionary enterprise, the rev. gentleman said heathendom was doomed and the evangelization of the world was a matter of time. He closed with an appeal to the church to consecrate itself, to be loyal and provide the money. In the evening the church was again crowded. The rev. gentleman preached from Luke xii. 20.

The result was a victory for Lakeland by 7 goals to 1.

FOUND IN LITTLE LAKE. THE GHASTLY BODY OF A DROWNED MAN.

Mr. Ernest Laplante discovered the body—Identity in Not Complete. It is supposed to be Richard Wigmore, of Dunsmuir. The last seen of the Missing Man Tallies With the Description of the Dead.

This morning Mr. Ernest Laplante made a ghastly discovery in Little Lake. Mr. Laplante noticed what appeared to be the end of a log floating in the water a little over half way between Matthew's packing house and McDonald's point. He had observed the black spot yesterday and about nine o'clock this morning started out in a dug out canoe to bring the log to shore. When he approached the spot he was horrified to see that instead of a sunk log it was the head of a man. The body was in an almost erect position with the back of the head visible above the water. Mr. Laplante secured the body and drew it to shore. He then notified the police and Chief Roszel and Constable Stewart went to the place where the body was lying near the shore in the water. Quicker crowd had gathered but no one could identify the drowned man. His face was horribly disfigured by the cold, the water and the ice, and showed signs of having been in the water for a considerable length of time.

IT WAS VERY NOCTURNALLY a young man of sandy complexion, about five feet ten inches in height and of good build. On his head was a black cap pulled down well over his eyes. He wore a dark tweed coat and vest over a black and white flannel shirt. His lower limbs were covered by a pair of full-cloth pants, under which was another pair of dark trousers and home made woollen underdrawers. The grey hair on his head was rolled up around the top of a heavy pair of top boots, with heavy soles and high heels. Around the waist was a red sash, while the suspenders he wore were of leather, evidently made by a harness maker. On the hands were a pair of red and blue mittens. The clothes and style of the man were those of a shanty man, but no one could identify him. Chief Roszel telephoned for Mr. Helleghem, undertaker, who went down and with Constable Stewart searched the clothes for something which might lead to identification. In the pockets were found nine dollars exactly, a two and five dollar bills and two dollars in silver. Besides the money some leather strings such as used in lacing belts were found on him, but there was nothing to tell who he was or how he met

THE REMAINS were then removed to Mr. Helleghem's establishment. Mr. T. Cavanagh was the first to give a clue to the dead man's identity. Mr. Cavanagh had received several inquiries of late in regard to a young man by the name of Wigmore who had disappeared from his home in Dunsmuir near Norwood. Only on Saturday Mr. T. O'Rourke, an uncle of the missing man was in town inquiring if the missing man had been seen, saying that his mother was in terrible suspense since his disappearance. Wigmore had been threatening and was said to have left home in his threatening clothes and Mr. Cavanagh thought the dead man must be the missing Wigmore. With a Harvard reporter he went and viewed the remains. It was hard to tell from the terribly disfigured features what the face had been in life, but Mr. Cavanagh saw enough to make him feel sure he had rightly guessed his identity. The leather strings would be likely things for a thrasher's pocket and on close examination the faintest mark was found sticking in the dead man's clothing. Word was sent to Norwood and it is probable relations of the missing man will be up and confirm or dispel the suspicions.

WOMEN WERE LAST SEEN. The evidence of the heavy clothing, the mittens on the hands, the decomposition of parts of the body all went to show that the man had been in the water for many weeks. In making inquiries along the line given by Mr. Cavanagh the Harvard found that Richard Wigmore, the missing man, was last seen, as far as can be ascertained, by Mr. Sam. Campbell, bartender, at the Croft House, on the last day of 1891, the first of December. Wigmore had a couple of meals at the Croft House and had a chat in the evening with Mr. Campbell. He told the latter gentleman his name and said he was going east. He waited at the hotel until after eleven o'clock, and then started out with the intention of catching the 12:17 midnight train on the C.P.R. Mr. Campbell says that relatives of Wigmore have been making inquiries of him and were afraid that he had realized on a half interest he had in a thrashing machine and thoroughbred stallion and had left with quite a sum of money. The description of Wigmore as he left the Croft House on that night tallies exactly with that of the dead man. It is Richard Wigmore the manner in which he met his death will possibly never be known and will only be ascertained if it is hard to advance a theory. He was not intoxicated when he left the hotel and how he got under the ice is a mystery.

Dr. Bell, Coroner, was notified, but up to the time of going to press had not deemed it necessary to decide to hold an inquest. The identification was still incomplete and although all kinds of reports were in circulation no one daring directly suspicious had been automatically revealed yet.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Paragraphs Picked Up Among the Different Congregations.

A meeting of the congregation of St. Andrew's Church is to be held on Friday evening next for the purpose of considering the extension of the Sunday school room, which has been made necessary by the increase in the attendance.

At the service at the Charlotte-st. church yesterday the music was of a very high order. The choir under the leadership of Mr. A. L. Davis, is making marked improvement and render music which is creditable to themselves and creditable to the congregation whose services it enhances. In the morning an excellent anthem, "O Give Thanks" was rendered with expression, Miss Annie Fawcett, Mrs. Clyde Green and Mrs. A. L. Davis and others.

The choir of St. Andrew's church, under their efficient chorister, Mr. Ketchum, rendered excellent music at the special evening service last night. An anthem, "Praise Ye the Lord" in which the choir took the solo most acceptably, was rendered as a voluntary and during the offertory, Misses Huebner and Carey and Messrs. Ketchum and White rendered a grand chorale. The choir and soloists were well supported by the congregation.

At the morning service Rev. J. O. Davidson opened his course of sermons on the "Life of Faith." He announced that the division of his subject over three Sunday mornings would be "Faith as manifested in the general" (reading and movements of men's lives); (2) as manifested in the moulding of character; and (3) as manifested in the worship of God. The life of Abraham was sketched out as the instance of the first part of the subject as dealt with yesterday. The preacher vigorously assailed the merely conventional Christianity of the day, which, he said, was largely founded on worldly traditions, home-combed through and through by worldly customs, and largely undermined by the power of the world. Christians were urged to shake themselves free from all this, and listening to God's call alone, to dare to follow only his guidance revealed by Abraham, a bold, distinct and unwavering course. Referring to Abraham dwelling in tents, Mr. Davidson also uttered an urgent plea for greater simplicity of life, and closed by calling on his hearers to come out from the ambitious, mechanical, dead-level life around and set their faces and desires towards a lofty heroic life here and the eternal city hereafter.

A TERRIBLE TIME COMING.

So Says Mr. M. W. Wood, an Apostle of the Second Coming.

The opera house was packed last night to hear Mr. H. Middleton Wood give his first address on the immediate second coming of Christ. Mr. Wood stood alone on the platform, there being, apparently, none to give him support at the out-set of his mission here. He is a tall, spare man, with dark beard and dressed in black, and he speaks from notes placed and delivered with an air of confidence that he has a message to deliver. He was listened to with attention, but with no further signs of approval.

In a few introductory remarks Mr. Wood informed his audience that he had come to speak of the great judgment and the new time from and the immediate coming of Christ. But that he did not mean the end of the world, but meant just what he said. At this point the fire bell sounded and a number went out. After the confusion had subsided Mr. Wood resumed his meeting with the Lord's prayer. He then said that it was not an ordinary evangelistic meeting, but his message was to the church.

There were two Holy Ghosts on since last week, the work of the Holy Spirit in saving people and the perfecting of saints. He would speak particularly of the second work. The church at first was one body, but now it was broken into fragments, and it carried on only the first work and left the perfecting of the saints undone. This message had been the burden of the church, but they had refused to hear it and they had appealed to the people's reputation of the parable of the fig tree that the guests did not attend what they wanted was faith—a faith that had nothing to do with the intellect or reason, but such as Abraham possessed, a faith that would believe that every word in the Bible was God's word. (Rev. 22, 18-20)

It was because there were so few little children, because the church was weak, faithless and corrupt, that he had headed his poster. "The time is come that judgment must begin." Judgments were about to come, the time spoken of by Isaiah (66, 17-18). The "four" was that the state of society known as old conservatism, it was falling away, and men were afraid. The "pit" they fell into was the state of things which criticized, pulled down and reformed, everything—altruism, communism, the "sane" was infidelity, which said there was no God. There were warnings sent by God of that which was to come. There were the mighty preparations for war by Christian nations, the distress of nations with no way of escape, and the perplexity in the business world, such as the difficulty between capital and labor. The rich had oppressed the poor. The poor were better off now but were not content, for when men got more their lust for more increased, whether they were rich or poor. Where would the rapacity of man stop? There was no such word as stop. What was the social condition? Did children honor their parents? And did the parents deserve honor? By many marriages was not looked upon as a divine contract, but as a civil contract to be set aside. In every stage of life all men were desiring or learning to deny a personal omnipotent God. They were forsaking the Father and the time was upon them when He would forsake them. They had come to the time spoken of by Paul as the last day (1 Tim. 5, 1-3). The various sections of the church had the form of Godliness, but where was the power? The French revolution of 100 years ago was referred to as a sample of times coming. The people then forgot that God manifested Himself by men. The king and noble forgot to administer in the fear of God, and the manufacturer and tradesman to be stewards for God. A similar terrible time for the whole world was close upon us. But God would not forsake those who trusted Him, and if the universal church would repent the time would be put back and any one who repented would be shown a way of escape. In Revelations, 7th chapter, the recent time was described. The 144,000 sealed was not the whole body of the baptized. God had "restored" his judges as at the first, and His commandments as at the beginning, and the universal church had for some time been sending men like himself to call the church to repentance, and had during this time been to those who listened so as to pierce them. In Acts they were told that the evangelists went out and baptized and the apostles went down from Jerusalem to seal the baptism. That had been going on for some years and was going on now. They were earnestly looking for the time spoken of in 1 Cor. 15, 51-52. The fulfillment was about to pass—immediately. They did not know the day, but they knew the season. A company of people were being gathered out of all the churches and were looking for that day. These people, gathered by God's restored apostles, were not fanatics, but were living holy lives, and were praying for the judgment to be withheld until all had heard and were gathered in. What ever their opinions might be they did not alter the fact that these things were true, and every Christian would believe just as all believed after the flood came. To-night Mr. Wood will give another address on the same subject.

FRANK WHEELER

AN OLD-TIME MONTREAL ATHLETE.

His Startling Statements—They are Worth of Consideration—Interesting to Athletes and the Public Generally.

Mr. Frank Wheeler, of the Metropolitan Manufacturing Co., Notre Dame Street, Montreal, recently made a statement for the benefit of his brother athletes and public, which are worth of serious thought and consideration.

Mr. Wheeler is favorably known to thousands in Canada as an old-time athlete. A true Canadian—who has shed lustre on Canadian field sports which so much conduce to the physical welfare of our young men. Our country has reason to be proud of such noble specimens of physical culture, they have given a reputation to our loved country, and made her to be respected all the world over where athletic sports are encouraged.

Mr. Wheeler was a lover and admirer of all athletic sports, but was particularly noted on the snow-shoe field, where he carried off many honors. He was one of the prominent members of the Emerald Snow-Shoe Club, an organization which has done good work for the encouragement of winter sports.

Athletes, like ordinary mortals, require much care and attention as far as health is concerned. They are subject to the common ailments of life, unless watchfulness is exercised; and once out of condition, it requires careful treatment to bring them back to health and vigor.

Mr. Wheeler, who for a time, had given up active participation in athletic sports, was still a vigorous and robust man. His snows and muscles were still strong and wiry, and he seemed to be fitted for any amount of hardship. The evil days often come when least expected, and like many another physically strong man, Mr. Wheeler overworked unconsciously.

He rested too little, and probably became indifferent to essential rules governing digestion and exercise. He at last had to succumb to weakness, lassitude and general debility.

We think it advisable at this point to give to the readers of the Review, Mr. Wheeler's own words. His letter regarding his sufferings are interesting, and will repay a careful perusal. This letter not only shows Mr. Wheeler's wisdom at a time when he was physically low, but also points out clearly the cause that all athletes should adopt when weak, broken-down, nervous, sleepless and dyspeptic.

"Permit me to write a few lines in regard to my own case. I am a Canadian, my friends will remember my haggard appearance about three years ago, when a young house surgeon of one of our leading hospitals pronounced my lungs weak and the tops slightly affected. At about the same time I was taken with Canadian cholera, lasting seventeen days, which naturally brought me still lower in health, and helped by the terrors of death, a shadow of my own robust constitution.

"As a test, I tried to join an insurance company (knowing full well the physician always gives the benefit of the doubt to the company) and I am sorry to say, I was not back for six or eight months, by one of our leading physicians.

"It was at this time that a friend recommended Palmer's Oeury Compound; and, to please my wife, I took two bottles, and seemed to regain my appetite, and felt some inclination to brace up; but, unfortunately, I did not continue the good work, and when after a very favorable verdict from a careful examination of the late doctor, Dr. Howard, who's a thoroughly reliable man, told me that my lungs were perfectly free from disease, but that my constitution was totally run down, and I had strained two lungs over my left lung, causing the pain which had raised me on one of the longest periods of recovery.

"I had tried many times to get up stairs and lay on one of the longest periods of recovery. I had tried many times to get up stairs and lay on one of the longest periods of recovery.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Restored Their Child from Scrofula.

For Scrofula, Sals Rhenum, and all other foul humors in the blood of children or adults, Hood's Sarsaparilla is an unequalled remedy.

We are so thankful to Hood's Sarsaparilla for what it did for our little girl that we make this statement for the benefit of other anxious parents and.

Suffering Children

Our girl was a beautiful baby, fair and plump and healthy. But when she was two years old, some broke out behind her ears and spread rapidly over her head and forehead down to her eyes, and into her neck. We consulted one of the best physicians in Brooklyn, but nothing did her any good. The doctors said it was caused by a scrofula humor in the blood. Her head became offensive to the smell and dreadful to look at. Her general health waned and she would lay in a large chair all day without any life or energy. The sores caused great itching and burning, so that at times we had to restrain her hands to prevent scratching. For 3 years

She Suffered Fearfully

with this terrible humor. Being urged to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, we did so. We soon noticed that she had more life and appetite. The medicine seemed to drive out more of the humor for a short time, but it soon began to subside, the itching and burning ceased, and in a few months her head became entirely clear of the sore. She is now perfectly well, has no evidence of the humor, and her skin is clear and healthy. She seems like an entirely different child in health and general appearance, from what she was before taking is an illustration of what Hood's Sarsaparilla is doing for the sick and suffering every day, from Maine to California. DOMINION FINANCES.

When Mr. Foster made his first budget speech several years ago he predicted that, as large undertakings were about complete, the time was about come when the revenue and expenditure (including capital expenditure) of the Dominion would balance. His prediction he has been able to verify. Last year the revenue of the Dominion amounted to $88,779,210 and the ordinary expenditure $88,240,000, which left at the end of the year the tidy surplus of $539,210. But there were capital expenditures during the year, on railways, canals, public works, and Dominion lands, and these were almost entirely provided for out of the revenue, the net debt being increased only by $275,317. This was done although a large reduction was made in the taxes at the last session. The increase in the net debt in the past two years has been only $275,000, and for three years past the debt has remained practically at the same figure. This is satisfactory, especially when it is remembered that the Mackenzie Government, with Sir Richard Cartwright's management, piled up the debt at the rate of over $8,000,000 a year, and instead of providing for capital expenditure out of revenue had to borrow money to cover ordinary expenses.

The Government has not only kept down the debt and provided for capital expenditure out of revenue, but has reduced the burden of the debt. By prudent management the credit of the country has been kept up, despite the attacks of Sir Richard and his disciples and their, especially Sir Richard's, efforts to discredit Canada in financial circles in England, and the rate of interest has been materially reduced. The net interest per head of the population is now 14 cents less than it was in 1887-8.

For the current fiscal year, in view of the removal of the sugar duties, the Finance Minister expects the revenue and expenditure to be about equal, with probably a small margin on the right side of the ledger.

It is not surprising that the electors, who appreciate prudent management, retain the present Government in office instead of handing the affairs of the country to one who handed them so badly during the five years he was in office and who has since given further evidence that he should not be trusted with the confidence of the people.

HIS HOUSE WAS A HAREM.

Shocking Disclosures in Connection with Prince Michael.

DETROIT, March 30.—Chief Starkweather and Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Springer have examined a number of the long-haired women brought down from the Prince Michael colony yesterday and now detained as witnesses against Prince Michael (M. E. Mills) and Eliza Cook.

The revelations startled the officers and showed both the prisoners to be veritable devils.

Bernice Bickle, a pretty girl of 15 years; May Webster, 20 years old; Alice Court, a handsome young girl and a sister of New Jerusalem and Carrie Bandy, unblushingly spoke of their criminal relations with the Prince and did not seem to consider it wrong at all.

It transpired that with the aid of the Courte woman little Bernice had been deliberately debauched by the "Prince."

Besides the four "angels" who were taken into custody as witnesses yesterday Emma Butler, another "angel," was brought down to police headquarters. She gave the same testimony as the other ladies of the harem.

This morning a warrant was issued charging Mills with the seduction of Bernice Bickle, aged 15, the penalty for which is five years in State prison.

When charged with his crimes Mills only quoted that "false witnesses would appear against him" and the like.

Mrs. Mills, Michael's lawful wife, accompanied by her attorney, last evening proceeded to her husband's house and took possession of it.

A despatch was sent last night to Mrs. Mills' brother, Thomas Leitch, mathematical master of the St. Thomas Collegiate Institute. He will probably arrive in Detroit shortly.

POLITICAL UNION.

The Meeting at Woodstock Sings the National Anthem.

WOODSTOCK, March 30.—The political union meeting held yesterday attracted one of the largest audiences the Town Hall has seen for a long time. Sol White, M.L.A., Dr. O'Brien, ex-M.P., and E. A. Macdonald of Toronto were the speakers announced, but at the last moment Mr. Macdonald was the only one to put in an appearance. He did not receive a very attentive hearing from the audience and the meeting closed with cheers for the Queen. No vote was taken.

Died on his Wedding Trip.

TORONTO, March 30.—The Union Station last evening was the scene of a large gathering of Forsters under most distressing circumstances. Mr. John Rastan, Court Lord Dufferin No. 634, New Westminster, B.C., was married Feb. 17, and was in this city on his wedding tour, when he died suddenly on Saturday last. The bereaved bride-widow took the remains back to New Westminster last evening at 11.15 by the C.P.R.

The Railway Committee.

OTTAWA, March 29.—Mr. Wood, Brockville, presided over the first meeting of the Railway Committee yesterday morning. The first bill introduced was by Col. Tisdale, an Act respecting the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada. The Act provides for the consolidation of the Northern Pacific Railway with the Grand Trunk. The bill was adopted.

Mr. Corby presented an Act to extend the limits of the Belleville and Nipissing Railway Company, which was approved and reported.

Mr. Oakesworth presented an Act to enable the Nipissing and James Bay Railway Company to change their terminus to North Bay instead of a point at or near the Northern and Pacific Junction and (Canadian Pacific) railway, to sell a portion of the land under construction if necessary and to extend the time for construction. The bill was reported.

Mr. Ingram presented an Act to extend the time for the construction of the Erie and Niagara section of the Canadian Southern Railway. The bill was allowed to stand, the time asked, five years, being considered too long.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE IMPROVEMENT OF JUDGE ELLIOT—Improving the Canadian Militia—Canal Tolls—The Resignation of Hugh John Macdonald—Deputations.

OTTAWA, March 31.—Judge Elliot occupied the attention of the House about 10 minutes yesterday without any action being taken. He will be another petitioner on Monday Mr. Laurier presented a petition from a number of ratepayers of London asking for Judge Elliot's impeachment. When the petition came to be examined it was found that it did not conform to the rules of the House, which require that at least three signatures should appear on the page containing the prayer of the petition. Mr. Laurier, therefore, had another petition prepared and presented it to-day, and when the time came for reading and receiving petitions he moved that this petition be read. This, of course, can only be done with the consent of the House, and objection being raised the petition was not read.

Mr. Laurier next moved that the petition be printed and a copy sent to Judge Elliot. Mr. Thompson pointed out that the petition had not been read by the House, and it may prove on examination to be irregular, as its predecessor had been. The matter was not of much urgency, that it should be taken out of its regular course. The petition was therefore treated in the usual manner, and the matter will probably come up in its usual order on Friday.

Before the orders of the day were called this afternoon Mr. Gibson asked whether the Government had decided as to the reduction of Canal tolls and was informed by Mr. Laurier that no order in council had been passed.

At 3 minutes past 4 o'clock yesterday Mr. Hughes moved for a return showing the strength, and of the militia. He expressed considerable dissatisfaction with the present condition of the militia, and asked the Government to take steps to improve it.

Minister of Militia Bovey admitted that there might be something to be done, but he had heard, and expressed a desire to do all in his power to increase the efficiency of the militia. He said that the Minister of Militia would give him a couple of hundred thousand dollars in addition to the $275,000 now voted for drilling he would be happy to have the whole force drilled every year.

Proclamation in Night.

The first "low wash" of the wave of coming proclamation was heard yesterday when Mr. John Thompson gave notice that he would move to-day that in future Government business take precedence on Thursday.

The "short session" held at once proclaimed that proclamation would take place by May 15 but is most likely to precede.

Mr. Laurier wanted to know yesterday when the Redistribution Bill would be brought down and informed by Mr. Thompson that he did not know but it would be as soon as possible.

Many Deputations.

A deputation consisting of Mr. George Munson, Toronto, and Messrs. Colburn, Chateaufort, McKay, McLeod, Skinner and Nairne waited upon the Minister of Finance yesterday and urged placing higher rates of duty upon a few grades of minerals treated chemically and imported into this country. The Minister promised to consider the matter.

Mr. Corly, M.P., introduced a deputation composed of Mr. William Black and Mr. A. L. Hennip to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries yesterday. They asked that the close season for bullheads and whitefish in the Bay of Quinte be extended. Mr. Hennip said the whole question of the close season upon the inland waters of Canada as well as the subject of some fishing would be required into by a commission next summer.

In connection with the deputation to the Hon. John Thompson from the Ontario Horse Breeders' Association, a conference was held in the tower room of the House of Commons last evening to consider the formation of a Dominion Association. The Minister of Agriculture was present in addition to Messrs. Nunn, Rogers and Stalker, and also the following members: Lieut. Col. Tyrwhitt (chairman), Senator Peewee, Messrs. Ingram, Fairbairn, Bovey, Cargill, Hodges, Campbell, Henderson, Sprague, Hughes, Cochrane, Miller, Baker and Clarke Wallace. Resolutions were passed agreeing to form a Horse Breeders' Association, to hold a series of fairs for the sale of horses and asking the Government to contribute to the expenses. It was decided that the deputation should wait upon the Government in the morning to ask that a duty of $20 a head be placed on animals worth over $100 each, and that on horses worth over that sum the duty be 30 per cent. ad valorem.

WHY SIR JOHN'S SON RESIGNED.

He Has No Ambition, and No Tastes for Political Life.

OTTAWA, March 31.—Asked about the correctness of the rumor that he intended resigning his seat in Parliament, Hugh John Macdonald, the member for Winnipeg, stated yesterday that the only thing wrong about such a report was that it was somewhat premature. "I have asked my leader, Mr. Abbott, to be allowed to resign," he went on, "and so far have not yet got a decided answer from him."

"Your reasons are—"

"I merely don't like the work. I have no ambition for political life. My tastes don't lie in that direction; besides, I have a legal business requiring my attention. As you are aware, I only accepted the nomination on the distinct understanding that I should be allowed to resign as soon as it was convenient for the party to permit me to do so. Sir Donald Smith refused the nomination at the last moment and was asked to run so as to prevent Mr. Isaac Campbell getting elected by acclamation. The majority of the party was too small last session to permit me to resign, but now there is no such excuse."

Mr. Macdonald is, without doubt, one of the most popular members in the House. Mr. Macdonald, who represents the Saskatchewan district, also desired to resign his seat at the close of the session. He will be guided largely by what his friends say, but a large and growing business almost daily wants his personal superintendence.

Great Fire in India.

RANGOON, March 31.—A great fire is raging in Mandalay.

Three-quarters of the town is already destroyed, including the new telegraph office and the old palace.

Great loss of life is reported.

Missionaries are Now Safe.

LONDON, March 31.—The Chinese Government has guaranteed all the mission districts in China and has promised to severely punish the perpetrators of any future outrages.

A Decolt Victory.

RANGOON, March 31.—A small British force operating on the Kanik River had an engagement with the natives and were defeated. One soldier was killed and six were wounded.

One More to Decolt's Record.

MELBOURNE, March 31.—The police believe they have discovered proofs that Decolt, in addition to his other crimes, murdered a man named Kays, with whom he went to Cape of Good Hope from Australia in 1889.

Deeming is guarded night and day aboard the Ballarat by seven watchers. It has been discovered that he has plucked the hairs of his assistants out by the roots in order to baffie identification.

The Foot Sorely Says.

"It is our will That thou be otherwise; we might be all We dream of happy, high, majestic. Where is the beauty, love, and truth we raised the petition was not read."

Mr. Laurier next moved that the petition be printed and a copy sent to Judge Elliot. Mr. Thompson pointed out that the petition had not been read by the House, and it may prove on examination to be irregular, as its predecessor had been. The matter was not of much urgency, that it should be taken out of its regular course. OTTAWA, March 31.—The Soo train on the C.P.R. going west was derailed at Hull station yesterday owing to an open switch.

The train due in Ottawa at 2:40 left Montreal on time, consisting of an engine, baggage car, second class emigrant car, Southern Railway car, colonist sleeper, St. Cloud, dining car and Mississippi, private car.

The private car contained, amongst others, Hon. J. A. Giesse, M.P.; Sir A. P. Caron, M.P.; Dr. Montague, M.P.; Mr. Tetreau, M.L.A., and several others who had been the guests of the Montreal Conservatives at last night's banquet to the De Boucherville government.

All went well until the train reached Hull, where it does not stop, running straight through to Ottawa. About 100 yards this end and the platform of Hull station is a switch, beyond which comes a sharp curve on an embankment of boulders and earth, crossing a swampy ditch with scrub cedars.

Shocking to relate, on reaching this switch the whole train left the rails, and running for about 150 yards the engine turned over into the ditch, taking all the train with it except the cars St. Cloud and Mississippi.

In the first emigrant car were 75 Norwegian immigrants—men, women and children. This car was wrecked from its wheels and the bodies lie some 40 feet from the track. Though its inmates were all badly shaken and had to be taken out through the windows none of them sustained any fractured limbs, and no fatality occurred.

The second-class car was lying when the engine was wrecked, and the whole train was lying on its side on the embankment. The front wheels of the St. Cloud car were wrecked off, but fortunately the car kept the rails.

Switchman Pierre Miller states that the switch was last used on 14th inst. and then all the express opinion is that some person tampered with it.

Freeman Gilden's body was removed to the Ottawa morgue, where an inquest will be held.

WILL NEWFOUNDLAND COME IN?

Important Announcement in the Senate by Premier Abbott.—A settlement of the dispute respecting the admission of Newfoundland into the Dominion of Canada is the subject of a bill introduced by Mr. Abbott in the Senate yesterday.

OTTAWA, March 31.—Hon. Mr. Tupper laid on the table the House yesterday afternoon the return asked for some days ago of the correspondence, etc., with Newfoundland.

It is very bulky, containing some 600 pages, and contains nothing which has not already been made public.

In the Senate this afternoon Senator Boulton moved for papers relating to Newfoundland, and in doing so made an attack on the Government and said that Newfoundland was quite justified in acting in the way she had done.

Mr. Abbott in reply traced the transactions with Newfoundland step by step from the passage of the first bill in 1869, and showed that throughout the Canadian Government had acted with the utmost forbearance. In conclusion he said that quite recently the Government had received a quasi-confidential communication from London, suggesting a conference, which had been acted upon, but unfortunately Mr. Hurvey of the Newfoundland Government had left for home before anything could be done. Since then the Ottawa Government had expressed its willingness to appoint a representative to the conference, and said if Newfoundland agreed to discuss the matter all other international discriminating against Newfoundland fish products will be revoked. He had reason to believe the Newfoundland Government, through the medium of Lord Lansdowne, had communicated this intelligence to the proper authorities. For his part he hoped a full and free discussion would result in a satisfactory solution of the whole question. He earnestly wished that all causes of friction would be removed and hoped that the day was not far distant when Newfoundland might express a desire to join her fortunes with ours, thus rounding off and completing the Dominion.

Whisky in the Bitter.

BUFFALO, March 31.—The latest and most novel way to smuggle in the best brands of Canadian whisky without fear of duty has just been discovered. A Canadian farmer apparently attempted to smuggle in several large casks or tubs of butter one day at Kew's Point, but the collector surprised him, seized the tubs and had them put up at auction.

The farmer followed his better pretty closely and hid it in a comparative few days. He bundled it into his wagon and drove over to Plattburg, N.Y. The officers thought it was quite out of the ordinary and followed the old man. They discovered that he turned it over to parties, and further investigation and a little wire work revealed that in the bottom of those tubs were a dozen bottles of whisky with the butter packed securely about them.

The whisky was confiscated. The duty on whisky is $2.20 per gallon.

Upper Canada Furniture Factory Burned.

BOWMANVILLE, March 31.—About 8:30 last evening fire was discovered in the top flat of the Upper Canada Furniture Factory. Before the fire engine could get there the whole upper flat was ablaze. A Canadian farmer apparently attempted to smuggle in several large casks or tubs of butter one day at Kew's Point, but the collector surprised him, seized the tubs and had them put up at auction.

In my endorsement of Anti-Dandruff I can say something that I never could before, which is that this preparation is a perfect remover of Dandruff not only in the first stages but even when the scalp has become chronic and is matted with a dense growth of scales. Years of experience have shown me that every man who has used it has been cured, and I have no hesitation in giving the satisfaction that Anti-Dandruff has.

It positively removes Dandruff. It stops itching of the hair. It cools the head. It keeps the hair from falling out without leaving a trace of the use. I use it daily in my hair-dressing place, as follows: I take a hairbrush and brush my hair with it, and then I have the first customer who was not pleased with it.

Great Fire in India.

RANGOON, March 31.—A great fire is raging in Mandalay.

Three-quarters of the town is already destroyed, including the new telegraph office and the old palace.

Great loss of life is reported.

Missionaries are Now Safe.

LONDON, March 31.—The Chinese Government has guaranteed all the mission districts in China and has promised to severely punish the perpetrators of any future outrages.

A Decolt Victory.

RANGOON, March 31.—A small British force operating on the Kanik River had an engagement with the natives and were defeated. One soldier was killed and six were wounded.

One More to Decolt's Record.

MELBOURNE, March 31.—The police believe they have discovered proofs that Decolt, in addition to his other crimes, murdered a man named Kays, with whom he went to Cape of Good Hope from Australia in 1889.

Deeming is guarded night and day aboard the Ballarat by seven watchers. It has been discovered that he has plucked the hairs of his assistants out by the roots in order to baffie identification.

The Foot Sorely Says.

"It is our will That thou be otherwise; we might be all We dream of happy, high, majestic. Where is the beauty, love, and truth we raised the petition was not read."

Mr. Laurier next moved that the petition be printed and a copy sent to Judge Elliot. Mr. Thompson pointed out that the petition had not been read by the House, and it may prove on examination to be irregular, as its predecessor had been. The matter was not of much urgency, that it should be taken out of its regular course. The petition was therefore treated in the usual manner, and the matter will probably come up in its usual order on Friday.

Before the orders of the day were called this afternoon Mr. Gibson asked whether the Government had decided as to the reduction of Canal tolls and was informed by Mr. Laurier that no order in council had been passed.

At 3 minutes past 4 o'clock yesterday Mr. Hughes moved for a return showing the strength, and of the militia. He expressed considerable dissatisfaction with the present condition of the militia, and asked the Government to take steps to improve it.

Minister of Militia Bovey admitted that there might be something to be done, but he had heard, and expressed a desire to do all in his power to increase the efficiency of the militia. He said that the Minister of Militia would give him a couple of hundred thousand dollars in addition to the $275,000 now voted for drilling he would be happy to have the whole force drilled every year.

Proclamation in Night.

The first "low wash" of the wave of coming proclamation was heard yesterday when Mr. John Thompson gave notice that he would move to-day that in future Government business take precedence on Thursday.

The "short session" held at once proclaimed that proclamation would take place by May 15 but is most likely to precede.

Mr. Laurier wanted to know yesterday when the Redistribution Bill would be brought down and informed by Mr. Thompson that he did not know but it would be as soon as possible.

Many Deputations.

A deputation consisting of Mr. George Munson, Toronto, and Messrs. Colburn, Chateaufort, McKay, McLeod, Skinner and Nairne waited upon the Minister of Finance yesterday and urged placing higher rates of duty upon a few grades of minerals treated chemically and imported into this country. The Minister promised to consider the matter.

Mr. Corly, M.P., introduced a deputation composed of Mr. William Black and Mr. A. L. Hennip to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries yesterday. They asked that the close season for bullheads and whitefish in the Bay of Quinte be extended. Mr. Hennip said the whole question of the close season upon the inland waters of Canada as well as the subject of some fishing would be required into by a commission next summer.

In connection with the deputation to the Hon. John Thompson from the Ontario Horse Breeders' Association, a conference was held in the tower room of the House of Commons last evening to consider the formation of a Dominion Association. The Minister of Agriculture was present in addition to Messrs. Nunn, Rogers and Stalker, and also the following members: Lieut. Col. Tyrwhitt (chairman), Senator Peewee, Messrs. Ingram, Fairbairn, Bovey, Cargill, Hodges, Campbell, Henderson, Sprague, Hughes, Cochrane, Miller, Baker and Clarke Wallace. Resolutions were passed agreeing to form a Horse Breeders' Association, to hold a series of fairs for the sale of horses and asking the Government to contribute to the expenses. It was decided that the deputation should wait upon the Government in the morning to ask that a duty of $20 a head be placed on animals worth over $100 each, and that on horses worth over that sum the duty be 30 per cent. ad valorem.

OTTAWA, March 31.—The Soo train on the C.P.R. going west was derailed at Hull station yesterday owing to an open switch.

The train due in Ottawa at 2:40 left Montreal on time, consisting of an engine, baggage car, second class emigrant car, Southern Railway car, colonist sleeper, St. Cloud, dining car and Mississippi, private car.

The private car contained, amongst others, Hon. J. A. Giesse, M.P.; Sir A. P. Caron, M.P.; Dr. Montague, M.P.; Mr. Tetreau, M.L.A., and several others who had been the guests of the Montreal Conservatives at last night's banquet to the De Boucherville government.

All went well until the train reached Hull, where it does not stop, running straight through to Ottawa. About 100 yards this end and the platform of Hull station is a switch, beyond which comes a sharp curve on an embankment of boulders and earth, crossing a swampy ditch with scrub cedars.

Shocking to relate, on reaching this switch the whole train left the rails, and running for about 150 yards the engine turned over into the ditch, taking all the train with it except the cars St. Cloud and Mississippi.

APRIL

Mr. A. H. Bradley
of the Full River Police.

It is highly gratified with the result of the trial of the case of the Full River Police. He was badly run down, had no appetite, what he did eat caused distress and he felt all the time. A few bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla effected a marvelous change. The distress in the stomach is entirely gone, he feels like a new man, and can eat anything with old-time relish. For all of which he is highly indebted to Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is very important that during the months of March and April the blood should be thoroughly purified and the system be given strength to withstand the debilitating effect of the changing season. For this purpose Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses peculiar merit and it is the most effective blood-purifying agent.

The following, just received, demonstrates the wonderful blood-purifying powers:

"Gentlemen: I have had salt rheumatism for a number of years, and for the past year one of my legs, from the knee down, has been broken out very badly. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla for a long time with no good result, and was at last obliged to walk with crutches. I finally concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before I had taken one bottle the improvement was so marked that I continued until I had taken three bottles, and am now better than I have been in years. The inflammation has all left my leg and it is entirely healed. I have had such benefit from

ENGLAND AND THE COLONIES.
The cable yesterday furnished a paragraph which was said to be taken from an article in the London Times, in which the benefit to England of the colonies was questioned. The dispatch was so worded as to convey the impression that the article referred to was an editorial expression of opinion by the Thunderer, but it will probably be found that it was only a letter in that paper, from some crank, and in no sense endorsed by the Times.

The action of the Imperial Government in regard to Canadian questions goes to show that public opinion in England is the opposite of that expressed in the article, for Lord Salisbury's firm attitude on the Behring Sea question has protected the rights of the Dominion, and it is no discredit to Canada to say that but for the Imperial backing this country would have had much more serious trouble in securing its rights on the Pacific. The home Government looks upon questions of that character in any part of the empire in the same light as if they had arisen nearer home, the whole empire being properly regarded as one, and there has been no indication that there is any coolness in England towards the colonies, while in the colonies the loyalty of the modest land is well represented. Such despatches as the one referred to, coming through a United States source, must be received with caution.

Mr. John A. Campbell, St. John, N.B., writes: "My wife was unwell for four years from irregular periods, brought about by a severe cold. She tried many remedies, but without success. IT WILL BE FORWARDED.

An Expression Which Will Follow Mr. Scott to Winnipeg.
Learning of the intended departure of Mr. A. E. Scott for Winnipeg the local Endavor Union prepared an address, expressing the sentiments which they cherished as co-workers with Mr. Scott in his endeavor work. The address was sent to Toronto to be illuminated, but was not received here until yesterday, and therefore could not be presented to Mr. Scott prior to his departure. However the address, which has been handsomely illuminated, will be forwarded to him in his new home in Winnipeg. The address reads as follows:

Mr. A. E. Scott,
DEAR FRIEND AND BROTHER.—It is with feelings of sincere regret, we have heard of your contemplated departure from town, and we can assure you that it is only the thought it is so often by day, and recollection in parting with one who has shown such fidelity in the service of the Lord Jesus Christ in Christian Endavor. But in your own church society and as President of the Local Union, you have brought concentrated common sense and indefatigable zeal to bear upon the arduous duties of office. It was this manly and manly in the planning and carrying through to such a successful issue the provincial convention of the E. U. of Ontario, which has given Peterborough such a warm place in the hearts and minds of our fellow Endeavorers. We bid you a heartfelt farewell, wishing you the choicest blessings Heaven can bestow, and we do pray "God be with you till we meet again." We trust that you may be long spared to further the work among your people for "Christ and the Church." The Lord bless thee and keep thee. The Lord take thee into His holy arms, and be gracious unto thee. The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace."

Peterborough Boating Club.
To the Editor of the Review.
DEAR SIR.—Last week over my own signature, I wrote you, calling the attention of those who would like to see the Boating Club kept alive in this flourishing town, to the fact that it was in danger of being blotted out of existence. I pointed out that movement on the part of the present Boat House and the lot of land on which it stands—the only available and accessible site for a house on the river front, now that the existence of Water at has been conclusively established. I ask for a response from those, whether former members of the club or not, who, before it is too late, desire to see the property retained as a club house instead of being sold, and to keep alive the club for which we use it was built. Although many of the old members have lost this interest, I feel that there are in Peterborough enough young men of the proper spirit to maintain a Boating Club. A canoe club such as the town may be proud of. To the latter I appealed and I still appeal, and I ask them to take action before it is too late. If those who are most active in insisting upon selling the property and winding up the club think it a manly or honorable course to write letters in your columns over assumed names and pretending to be in favor of keeping the club alive, but in reality seeking by insinuation and misrepresentation to head off any movement towards that end, then I cannot call in the same boat with them, and I do not intend to answer them. Neither personal abuse, nor a newspaper controversy, nor yet a lawsuit, is necessary to determine this matter. All that I have asked, and all that I ask, is, that before the property is sold, if it must be sold, a full opportunity shall be given to those who are willing, if there are such, to re-constitute the club.

Yours truly,
E. B. EDWARDS.

The True Merits of Melisse.
As there may be some people who do not yet quite appreciate the great value of Melisse cloth for health garments, and as others may have been deceived by the misrepresentations of interested parties, we give the following description to remove false impressions:

Melisse proofed coats or other garments are not what the inventor and manufacturers claim them to be, neither more nor less. They are both rainproof, porous and odorless, therefore perfectly healthful and comfortable. They are common sense garments, and should be treated in a common sense manner. Although rainproof they are not waterproof in the sense that a water cushion or bottle made of rubber is waterproof. Being porous, water can be forced through them, either by heavy pressure or by squeezing with the fingers. If they were absolutely waterproof they would be absolutely air-tight and therefore no better than rubber. Hence lies the peculiar color of the Melisse. Sensible people do not buy rainproof garments for the purpose of forcing water through them or of carrying water in them, neither do they take shelter under a water-proof, nor sit in a pool top leisurely. They buy rainproof garments to wear for the purpose of protecting themselves from the weather, and a Melisse coat or mantle will effectually protect the wearer for many hours in a heavy rain or snow storm. Melisse has a peculiar water-repellent property which prevents water when falling in the form of rain or snow on a garment from penetrating the cloth, and the true way to test the utility of the Melisse garment is not by pouring a stream of water on it from a watering can, but by wearing it in a heavy rainstorm. The result will be found eminently satisfactory. Continued exposure to the weather will not impair in the slightest degree the rain-proof quality of Melisse. It is fixed and permanent. These garments, thoroughly well made from fine materials, are now on the counters of first-class dealers throughout the whole country.

During the past month these stores have been undergoing extensive alterations, and now with pardonable pride we have much pleasure in announcing that these stores are the finest of the kind in Canada. Their aim has been to clothe a man or boy from head to foot. They have added department after department until now they have reached the goal of their ambition. A WORD ABOUT OUR CLOTHING DEPARTMENT.

Never in the history of the trade has such an array of fine clothing been placed before a buying public. Our stock this Spring embraces all the latest designs and patterns, and they were made under our own special supervision, the workmanship is of a superior quality. Notwithstanding all this our prices will be found lower than ever. When we came to you as the revolutionizers of the Clothing trade, we promised you that we would benefit the public, and now after a long trial have we kept our word? If so let that be our best guarantee to the public that we deal honestly and squarely with them in the future. We are not so egotistical as to believe that we please everyone, still to those whom we did not please, as well as those we did please, we sincerely return thanks for past patronage. As we are not infallible we are prone to make mistakes, and our judgment, like any human being's, may err. Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Elias Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure stomach-headache and all the other ailments of the blood, liver, kidneys and bowels. For the blood, it is a tonic. For the bowels, it is a cathartic. For the liver, it is a purgative. For the kidneys, it is a diuretic. For the stomach, it is a sedative. For the head, it is a brain tonic. For the nerves, it is a nerve tonic. For the system, it is a general tonic. It is a cure for all ailments of the blood, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is a cure for all ailments of the stomach, head, nerves and system. It is a cure for all ailments of the body and mind. It is a cure for all ailments of the human race. It is a cure for all ailments of the world. It is a cure for all ailments of the universe. It is a cure for all ailments of the God.

Several of the firemen who were at a meeting on George-st. last night when the fire alarm was sounded but they could not hear the bell and therefore did not turn out and will have to pay a fine for their absence.

Other persons interested, among them Constable Mulholland, heard no alarm. It is a general complaint that the present alarm is a poor one to say the least and a better one should be provided with-out delay.

Accident to an Engineer.

THE SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION.

The Afternoon Session of the Good Templars—Juvenile Lodge Organized.

The district School of Instruction under the auspices of the Good Templars resumed at 2:30 yesterday afternoon.

Bro. Lawrence, G. S., read a paper on "Our Missionary Work" written by Bro. Robertson, G. S. T. The paper was an able one, inspiring to more progressive missionary work.

A motion was carried memorializing the Grand Lodge to have copies of the lesson paper printed for sale among the lodges of the Province. This it was thought would prove a source of much benefit.

Bro. FRANK MASON, of Carleton Place, read a well-prepared paper on "Aggressive Teetotalism." The paper was a strong appeal to all to band themselves together for the purpose of banishing intemperance from the land and establishing prohibition.

A great many people would like to see prohibition but that was all they would do towards getting it. Some grew discouraged as what they thought was the poor success of temperance people were meeting with and dropped out of the ranks. One way of gaining prohibition was by giving the franchise to women.

This paper was freely discussed by Bro. Margaret, Mason, Bart, Young, Lindsay, J. W. B. Munro and Grand Secretary Lawrence.

Bro. W. L. Scott, G.S.T., commenced an interesting address on the juvenile work by referring to woman suffrage. The object of the juvenile work was to teach the young in the ways of temperance and the abstemiousness from intoxicating drink, tobacco, gambling and smoking.

Discussion followed this address in which Bro. Mason, Best and Sargent and Bro. Scott participated.

Bro. Lawrence, G.S.T., then read a paper prepared by Bro. Simon B. Chase, F.S.W. G.T., chancellor of the Good Templars' Board of Education, on "Good Templars' Course of Study." This paper drew forth discussion by Bro. Mason, Lawrence, and J. W. B. Munro.

"Good Templars Life Insurance" was a comprehensive paper written by Bro. John K. Wilson, F.G.T., and read by the Grand Secretary, Bro. Lawrence. The paper came down severely upon the old line companies, the writer saying that the Louisiana State Lottery was a Sunday school in comparison with these companies. The paper also urged members to insure in the Good Templars Life Insurance Company.

The paper was briefly discussed by Bro. Mason and Lindsay.

The committee appointed in the morning to report on the state of the order in this district reported as follows:—

Four committees recommended that a district temple be organized at once; also that lodges be requested to visit once another as often as possible; That an annual meeting be held in some central place.

That each lodge be requested to have a temperance sermon preached at least once a year.

Signed,
Bro. Lawrence called Sister Scott to the chair when she delivered an earnest address on juvenile teetotalism, urging all present to join the temple.

The lodge then adjourned for tea. In the evening there was a large gathering when the juvenile lodge was organized. Twenty-six members were initiated, and the lodge will be an active organization. The officers of the new lodge are:—

Bro. J. W. B. Munro, G.S.T., President.
Bro. J. W. B. Munro, G.S.T., Vice-President.
Bro. J. W. B. Munro, G.S.T., Secretary.
Bro. J. W. B. Munro, G.S.T., Treasurer.
Bro. J. W. B. Munro, G.S.T., Steward.
Bro. J. W. B. Munro, G.S.T., Sergeant-at-Arms.
Bro. J. W. B. Munro, G.S.T., Chaplain.
Bro. J. W. B. Munro, G.S.T., Organist.
Bro. J. W. B. Munro, G.S.T., Librarian.
Bro. J. W. B. Munro, G.S.T., Reader.
Bro. J. W. B. Munro, G.S.T., Singers.

At the close of the afternoon meeting, Bro. Lawrence announced that arrangements had been made for the organization of a Lodge at Hridenorth on Friday evening, April 18th.

Rev. Wm. Wellman.

Pastor of the Wesleyan Church of Sparta, N. J., voluntarily writes strongly in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla. He says: "Nothing I know of will cleanse the blood, make the liver clean the stomach like this remedy. I know of scores and scores who have been helped or cured by it."

CHARITY CONCERT.

A Successful Effort to aid the Poor in Ashburham.

A successful charity concert for the aid of the village poor was held in the town hall, Ashburham, last evening. About three hundred persons were present to enjoy the excellent programme that was rendered. Mr. H. G. Strickland was in the chair.

The programme was composed of some very excellent musical and literary selections and a laughable farce. Mrs. E. A. Peck opened the programme with a brilliant and charming vocal number, "Ivory Gates and Golden" by Mrs. H. Strickland.

Mr. O. N. Brown gave a humorous reading "Valentines' School" and Miss Eva Trevelyan rendered "Katie's Letter," a vocal solo, in good voice. Mrs. Stapleton then delighted the audience with another solo, after which the side-splitting farce, presentation "The Irish Broom-Maker" was presented with inimitable effect. THE SEWERAGE SYSTEM.

AN INTERVIEW WITH THE CHAIRMAN OF SEWERAGE COMMITTEE.

If sewers are necessary, the whole system should be constructed and paid for by a General Rate—Many Points Referred To.

The action the Town Council may take, or its inaction, in regard to the question of sewerage has been commented upon in letters in the paper, and meeting Mr. Cahill, Chairman of the Sewerage Committee, a Review reporter interviewed him on the subject and was rewarded with a statement of the situation and Mr. Cahill's views on the question. Mr. Cahill has had a long experience in municipal affairs and his views will be read with interest.

Mr. Cahill was first asked why the Council had not taken some action in the matter or if there was any "hitch" in the way.

"There is no hitch in the matter at all," was the answer. "The committee has not met to consider the question since the engineer's report was laid before the people, because we wished to give the people time to consider and discuss the question. Besides, even if it was decided to go on and had the money in the bank for the purpose, it could not be gone on with now, nor until the water in the sewer would run near the lake or river the whole distance, and until the water subsides the trench could not be dug, especially as it would be out through porous soil."

The committee, however, will meet and will probably report at the next meeting of the Council whatever decision they arrive at."

REPORTER—What is the position in regard to the township?

Mr. CAHILL—Dr. Bryce suggested that a meeting of representatives of Ottonabee and Monaghan and of the town be held in the middle of this month, to which the Provincial Board of Health would send a representative, at which the whole matter as it may be thought to effect the townships may be considered.

REPORTER—You saw, I suppose, the suggestions made by Mr. J. J. Fitzgibbon, Mr. CAHILL—Yes. As to the proposition to run the sewer on a line from the end of Aymer-st. to the river, there is the objection that it would have to be carried through private property. In that case, the sewer would have to be carried in making connections, and houses might even be built over the sewer. In regard to following Park-st. to the river, that is a question of engineering and cost and it is worth looking into.

REPORTER—Mr. Macdougall refers to the system proposed as the separate system. What does that imply?

Mr. CAHILL—It is not exactly the separate system, but to a certain extent it is. The system does not provide for drainage, except water from the roofs of buildings, and does not provide for carrying off of kitchen garbage, which would have to be carried away from the roofs of buildings, and does not provide for carrying off of roof water and the liquid waste from the house. In Brockville, where they have a separate system, no surface or rain water is allowed into the sewer proper, a tile drain being laid for roof water and cellar drainage. A system that would take away the surface water too would be much more expensive. Peterborough is favorably situated for getting rid of the surface water, and the present drains on George, Hunter and Simcoe-sts. could be utilized for that purpose and for carrying off water from the elevators and motors.

REPORTER—What view does the Council take of the whole question?

Mr. CAHILL—The Council has not expressed an opinion, and I do not even know what the members of the committee think about it, as I have not discussed it with them yet. They will, as I said, consider it and report.

REPORTER—Would you give your own opinion?

Mr. CAHILL—I have really no very decided opinion as to the advisability of constructing the sewers. No doubt we will soon have to face it any way. My feeling is that the people should have all possible information on the subject and then decide for themselves. If, however, it is decided that they should be constructed, I think they should be built to cover the whole town, by a general tax. If, of course, need not be all done in one year. For instance the main or outfall sewer, and on George to Brook-st. and on Aymer to Brook-st. and then the main sewer on Aymer and the George-st. sewer to Smith-st. continued next year. The remainder might be built in sections as 25 per cent of the residents of a section petitioned for a sewer. The portions needing sewerage most would be built first, and the whole system might be completed in five years.

REPORTER—Why do you prefer the general plan?

Mr. CAHILL—If it is desirable to have sewers at all, if they are a necessity, they are a necessity for the whole town. Having one portion of the whole town, would not make the rest of the town healthy, and if they were built by the local tax people would be slow to petition to tax themselves for the construction of the sewers. Besides, half of the residents on a street might want a sewer and the other half or one-fourth might object to it, whereas if the work were done on the general plan the people would be more anxious to get sewers and petition for the benefit of the community, and upon it we have the best school system in the world. The health of the inhabitants is as important as education, and on the same principle if we wish to have a good system of sewers they must be paid for by the whole town.

REPORTER—Would not those living outside the centre of the town object to this plan?

Mr. CAHILL—They should not, for, if it is necessary to have sewers, those residing outside the centre portion would get them cheaper by the general tax plan. For instance, a valuable property on George-st. may occupy a frontage of only twenty feet, and by the local tax plan it would only have to pay for half of the cost of twenty feet of sewerage, the opposite side paying the other half. That is of course a real estate street might have 100 or 200 feet frontage and be a great deal less value, yet it would have to pay five or ten times more for the sewerage than the more valuable property on George-st. This would not be the case with the general plan.

REPORTER—Then the position is reversed, and would not the general plan be an inducement to George-st?

Mr. CAHILL—It would equalize itself on George-st. by street frontage sewerage rates—probably five years before some parts of the town. And, as I said before, if it is desirable to have sewerage it should be paid for by all, on the same principle as the schools are paid for. Besides, that is the way all municipal rates are levied here, for the administration of justice, fire protection, police protection, street watering, sidewalks and street repairs and all taxes for municipal purposes.

REPORTER—Is there any other plan besides the frontage tax or the general plan?

Mr. CAHILL—There is another plan, such as the one adopted in Brockville and other places, where a portion of the cost of the sewer is paid by the frontage tax plan charged to the property and the balance paid by the whole corporation.

REPORTER—Have you information at hand regarding the financial position of the town?

Mr. CAHILL—The net debt of the town—that is after deducting from the gross debt the Midland railway bonds owned by the town, money and debentures in the hands of the Commissioners and money in the bank—is stated by Mr. Pearce, the Secretary of the Commission, to be $125,000.

REPORTER—How much would the sewerage expenditure increase the town's debt if the whole system was completed?

Mr. CAHILL—In my opinion it would not increase the tax rate, on an average of say five years, more than a mile and a half on the dollar, for our sewerage has been in the past, as it has been in the past.

The reporter having enquired of Mr. Cahill's time as a busy morning, thanked him for the interview and withdrew.

CHICKETERS ORGANIZING.

Annual Meeting of the Cricket Club—The Officers Elected.

The postponed annual meeting of the Cricket Club was held last evening in the Olympic Club room and was very successful and there is every prospect that the gentleman's game will enjoy a lively season this year. In fact sports all appear to be invigorated this year and cricket will not be the last of the others. Dr. Burnham presided in the chair.

The officers elected were:—
Hon. President—A. O. Dunlop.
President—Dr. Burnham.
First Vice-President—Rev. V. G. Goss.
Second Vice-President—J. Hampden Burnham.
Secretary—W. J. Montgomery.
Captain—Sam Ray.
Executive Committee—W. A. Stratton, Sam Ray, T. H. Dumble, B. Boucher and P. Goldsmith.

The question of securing a "pro" for the season was discussed and it was finally decided to engage one and to raise the funds for so doing among the players and admirers of the game. A committee, consisting of T. H. Dumble, B. Boucher, W. Stratton and P. Goldsmith, was appointed to undertake the raising of this fund. It is hoped that the club will receive generous treatment from those who take an interest in cricket and there is no doubt but that the season will be a successful one.

Other minor matters were talked over and the meeting adjourned.

Probably in March more than any other month in the year are the ravages of cold in the head and catarrh most severely felt. A Progressive Insurance Company.

Among the Life Insurance Companies doing business throughout the Dominion the North American Life Insurance Company is deservedly counted a place in the front rank. The company, now many years in existence, has rapidly increased its business and written a good share of the policies issued during the last few years by methods are good, the risks carefully selected, settlements are promptly made, the policies are free from vexatious and other conditions which often rob a policy of its practical value. The North American is progressive in that it places before applicants a choice of many plans under which a minimum expense in the way of premiums, in fact the North American is known to fulfill every obligation that a prudent investor can desire. A feature offered by no other company is the opportunity to the insured to borrow from the company, to pay last term premiums, and in case of death before term of policy is reached, returns to the insured, or his heirs, all premiums paid after death. With full face value of policy. Backed by such desirable methods, the new general agent for this district, Mr. S. U. Faulkner, is equipped to push the business of his company. Mr. Faulkner has been in the business for many years and is well known to the public. He is a popular and efficient man and will be glad to be of service to the public. The Farmer Protested.
There is nothing gained by ignoring, as the Brit speakers permit in doing, the fact that the farmer is protected from unfair foreign competition by means of the much abused National Policy. Since the time it was first inaugurated the effect of that policy has been more and more to keep out United States products, which, under the Cartwright regime, easily made this country a dumping ground, to the manifest injury of our own farmers. We have only to compare the imports of leading articles to-day and before the N.P. was set up to show this. Notwithstanding the great growth of our consuming capacity, the strong temptation to purchase from an overflowing market near by, the cheap production in recent years of the Western States in grain and meat—all of which causes would naturally tend, in spite of everything, one might think, to increase the importations, yet we find, comparing 1878 with 1891, that the imports in nearly all the leading lines have actually declined to a great extent.
For instance:

	Imp'd from U. S. 1878.	1891.
Wheat.....	$5,510,121	$2,525,873
Flour.....	1,833,520	269,277
Oats.....	851,285	48,283
Barley.....	127,102	158
Rye.....	77,286	24,433
Pork.....	778,286	620,585
Bacon and Hams.....	269,028	208,985
Cattle.....	138,586	15,736

The Canadian farmer, on other words, finds himself protected from the cheap Western competition which has broken down the farmer of the Eastern States and loaded them with mortgages. When Sir Richard Cartwright declared that the United States market was a panacea for every ill, there may have been a few Canadian farmers who, depressed by a series of unsatisfactory harvests, gave heed to the fable. But during the last five years, the merits of the thing have been threshed out.
The Canadian farmer has looked across the border; he has examined the official statistics of the various States; he has read the evidence of farmers before Congressional Committees, in magazines, reviews and newspapers; he has found out that he is a better-off man than his competitor, and has given Sir Richard to understand, in the late elections, that Unrestricted Reciprocity is a delusion and a snare.—Toronto

CALLED UPON TO PAY DEARLY FOR

DEEMING, THE WIFE MURDERER.

any confessions and had made no admission to anybody. He could prove an alibi in the case of the murder of three men in Johannesburg, South Africa.

The doctors who have examined Deeming declare that he is in good health.

When in the court-room Deeming refused to answer even the most formal questions. He was asked to state whether he was guilty, but he refused to do so. He was given water, but he refused to drink it. He was given a glass of water, but he refused to drink it. He was given a glass of water, but he refused to drink it.

The police are guarding Deeming very closely. He is being guarded by a large force of police. He is being guarded by a large force of police. He is being guarded by a large force of police.

A detachment from Johannesburg, South Africa, says that the police there have failed to find Deeming with the murders committed there in 1936, and that he has been proved that Kray, who was supposed to have been murdered, died of fever in 1936.

In contrast to his behavior on first being lodged in prison here. Deeming now assumes a bold front. He has said to his solicitor: "Wait till I get out and I will smother the newspapers up. I will sue every one of them for libel." The idea that I had anything to do with the Ripper's work is absurd.

LONDON'S UNEMPLOYED.

Deputations Wait Upon the Lord Mayor and Dean Gregory.

LONDON, April 4.—A deputation of unemployed workmen waited upon Lord Mayor Evans Saturday. The leader asked that the balls of the city companies be turned into labor warrants. He wanted land to be purchased by the Corporation.

The Lord Mayor replied that he would require time to consider the novel proposals laid before him by the deputation. He assured them that he sympathized with them and said he was sorry to learn of the widespread distress among the workmen.

A meeting of the unemployed was subsequently held at Tower Hill. It was previded over by the negro Wadd. He referred to the deputation appointed yesterday to wait upon the Very Rev. Rover Gregory, dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, and said that the deputation found the dean at luncheon. He received them and said he would preach a sermon in the Cathedral on Sunday in behalf of the unemployed, and though he must have known that some of the members of the deputation were hungry he did not ask them to have even a cup of

A TRUE BILL.

The Charge of Venue in Mrs. Montagu's Case of no Avail.

DUBLIN, April 4.—The grand jury of this county, to which the venue of the case of Mrs. Annie Margaret Montagu was changed from Coleraine, Londonderry county, returned a true bill of manslaughter against the accused for killing her 3-year-old daughter Helen. It also returned a true bill charging her with willfully ill-treating Austin, Walter and Gilbert, her three sons, all of whom are under the age of 14 years. Mrs. Montagu is the wife of R. A. C. Montagu, a justice of the peace at Londonderry, and daughter-in-law of Lord Montagu.

LONDON, April 4.—Alexander Allan, senior member of the steamship firm of Allan Ross & Co., whose vessels ply between England and various American and Canadian ports, died in England yesterday.

The Price of Dynamite.

PARIS, April 4.—Renecho, the Anarchist, says that in the case of the explosion in the Boulevard St. Germain he depicted the injured persons as the victims of the police. He was watching in the street. He was stationed in a wine shop opposite and Chaurmant and the woman Anbert brought the dynamite in a saucepan.

The Loban barracks explosion was effected with dynamite packed in a metal

"I was best not saying anything," I thought. I was afraid to demonstrate. "I am proud of what I have done. You will not get a single word of repentance out of me. I am not a coward. I have been arrested. I would have continued to be arrested, sparing nobody connected with the condemnation of Anarchists. I would like to see you up the Chamber of Deputies for imposing upon dynamites the penalty of death. Let nothing stand in the way of Anarchism. I would like to see you, Mr. President, Marconi and others simply to procure money to assist the cause. I could never stop to begging."

Paris, April - French troops have captured the last of the Centes in the mountains after hard fighting, during which three officers and 17 privates were killed.

 CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 4 - A special from Millersburg, Holmes County, says a Negro Monday lynched an unknown negro, hanging him to a tree. He had been about the town a couple of weeks and had been ordered to leave. He had lingered about people's doorsteps and annoyed them in various ways. There are supposed to be no more Negroes in Holmes County. He was the only Negro in the county.

Miss Mattie A. Cobb of Providence, R. I.

Undoubtedly many diseases may be prevented if the blood is kept pure and the general health-tone sustained by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. When this is done, the germs of La Grippe, Diphtheria, Pneumonia, Scarlet and Typhoid Fever, Malaria, etc., cannot lodge in the system. After all such prentending diseases Hood's Sarsaparilla has been found of justifiable value in restoring desired health and vigor, and purifying the tainted blood.

For example, read the following from Miss Mattie A. Cobb of Providence, R. I., and her mother. Miss Cobb is a young lady of 18, a Picture of Health

and is in the front rank in her studies in the High School. Her father is a well-known police officer.

"Messrs. C. L. Hood & Co.: I write to tell how good Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. For some time ago I had diphtheria and was sick for a year afterward, being Weak, Blind and Helpless I used one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and it made me feel strong." MATTIE A. COBB, South Chester Avenue, Providence, R. I.

"As my daughter wanted to write how well she liked Hood's Sarsaparilla, I thought I would say a few words. I think it is the Greatest Blood Purifier ever brought before the people. Some of my friends say 'go away with your medicine.' I said the same once, but since my daughter has taken Hood's Sarsaparilla My opinion has changed considerably." MRS. C. L. COBB, Providence, R. I.

HOOD'S PILLS do not weaken the system like other cathartics, but actually tone up and give strength to the patient.

YOUNG'S POINT.

The Mary Ellen being prepared for the season—The Rhinoceros and Drives—Interesting Items.

Correspondence of the Review.

THE SPRINGER MARY ELLEN.—Mr. P. P. Young is having the steamer thoroughly overhauled on the bottom in the locks here. Before the high water comes she will get a coat of paint. There is some talk of putting in a new engine and boiler. Capt. Boulard and Ed. Young will be to the fore again this season, and will be glad to accommodate all old patrons and as many new ones when the traffic begins.

THE BOATS.—The roads are drying up wonderfully this spring and the snow is nearly all gone in the woods.

THE SHANTIES.—The shanties are all broken up and the men paid off. The drives will be the best of the season. The weather continues mild the ice will be out of the creeks in about ten days from the time to come down. A good many drives will pass through here this summer.

THE WATER.—To all appearance the water will not be high this spring, as there is very little water in the swamps and marshes. Mr. Rogers will have to be very careful with the water this summer and not let any go to unnecessary waste. He has a good staff of men as lockmasters all along the E. F. route and who seem to be understanding their business.

PARADE FRISING.—The boys are getting the sport just now feeling for the parade for perch. They are very large and fine to set for a change.

THE MICE.—The saw and shingle mill are in full blast. Mr. W. McGregor in the former and Mr. A. Dunn in the latter mill as foremen.

BUILDING SITE.—Major Release, of Lakeside, has recently purchased a fine site for building a summer residence at the foot of Clear Lake, near the falls of James Edwards. It is a lovely spot for a house and the scene cannot be equalled on these waters.

BEAD TRAIL.—If you call at Stewart's cash store you will see the best family ring for $2.50 a hundred and five for $25 pounds best yellow sugar for one dollar.

FRUIT TRAIL.—Mr. G. Gumprecht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs. Taylor & McDonald's drug store.

Trans Valley Canal.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—The Board of Trade holds a general meeting on Thursday evening. It is the intention of those who have pursued the I. V. Canal scheme through its various stages to bring the matter up at that meeting. All the members of Parliament along the route have now more than ever, thrown their energies and determination into the successful carrying out of this cherished project. A little help at this juncture may go a long way. The public are invited. The Town Council Chamber is the place of meeting and the hour eight o'clock.

Yours,

J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM, Sec. Treasurer.

Pale or yellow girls should use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They bring ray redness to the cheeks. When I was a young girl, New York, says, I had been sick for two years and had lost my strength, was continually troubled with sick headache and palpitation of the heart, unable to get rest at night, not so well as I am now. I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after three boxes, I feel a new girl. All dealers or by mail on receipt of price—50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50. Address Dr. Williams' Med. The Sewerage Question.
To the Editor of the Review.
SIR,—I see in your reporter's interview with Mr. Cahill, the Chairman of the Sewerage Committee, that he is in favor of the whole system being built at one time and put upon the general rate. This is an outrageous suggestion. Are those who live on the outskirts of the town to have a complicated system of sewers whether they like it or not? Let those people living and working in the crowded part of the town build and pay for a sewer if they like, and goodness knows they need one bad enough. A few of the landlords say so. They are against sewerage because it will put them to greater expense and lessen their profits. But they are now scheming to foist the burden on the whole town, to relieve their minds and pockets. Speak up, Mr. Stevenson, what have you and Mr. Cahill to say to this? Build your sewer where it is needed and in the way Mr. Macdougall suggests, bit by bit when wanted. Nobody would notice it then on the taxes. The tenants in the middle of the town are at far greater expense now than they would be if the landlords would have them and not till then. ANTI-LANDLORD AND SUFFRAGE.

The Dog Release.
To the Editor of the Review.
SIR,—I am afraid that the promoters of the dog by-law are not heaven-born legislators. They aim at abating the dog nuisance. How do they do it? They raise the tax to double of the amount on the honest man who voluntarily pays his dog and who usually owns a well-bred dog, while the dishonest dog owner is "as you were." The by-law passed is an old scheme revived which was proved a failure before. There is no penalty whereby the terms of the by-law can be enforced and therefore it is of no use, besides a proper officer should be appointed to see that the law is carried out. The attention of the police to their duties proper will be their excuse again for not enforcing the by-law, besides they have been given no power to search upon suspicion for unlicensed dogs. There is no provision for the taking of dogs except perhaps as dogs, and no regulation against their running at large at all times, which is the greatest nuisance of all. They should be taxed at least at five dollars. Will our Council kindly try their hand at it again and oblige a lesser suffering community.
Yours, etc.,
DUNCAN.

A Scratch Game of Hockey.
To the Editor of the Review.
SIR,—In an item of news contained in the Examiner of March 28th and headed "Scratch Game of Hockey," I notice that unfair conduct was hinted at on the part of the Lakeside boys, and I think it only right, in justice to them, that the true facts of the case should be known. It is stated that the Peterborough juniors went up to play Sheldrake's school and that they were met by a stronger and heavier team; whereas several onlookers were heard to remark how wonderfully well matched in point of weight and size the teams appeared to be. In Sheldrake's school, with one exception, the boys are all under fifteen years of age, the majority of them being in fact under twelve. And surely the Peterborough team, whose youngest member was apparently not less than fourteen, would have considered it less honorable to have "walked over" a team composed exclusively of small boys, than to be honorably beaten in a fair game by their equals. With regard to the two inches of water on the ice, the Lakeside boys did not provide it for the express purpose of giving their opponents a cold welcome, but it was thought by some who understand these matters to be in some measure due to the warm weather. If the Peterborough juniors have no objection to publish the age and weight of their respective members of their team I have no doubt that the Lakeside team would do the same, which would be the fairest way of settling any dispute. In conclusion I would say that I do not believe that the "squealer" was one of the team, who appeared to take their defeat in good part.

HALLELUJAH JUBILATION.

The Seventh Anniversary of the Local Corps of the Army—Two Children Benefited.

With hallelujah jubilation, salvation fire and the finest of spring weather to add to their success the local corps of the Salvation Army celebrated the seventh anniversary of their storming of the citadel of Satan in Peterborough. It is just seven years ago since the red-coated soldiers and pole-bonnetted ladies came here and during the years that followed no one will say that much good has not been accomplished. Men and women who were out of the reach, to a certain extent, of the means of grace have been brought face to face with their sin, have professed Salvation and joined in the ranks of the blood and fire Army. Many of these have left town, some have backslided, others have maintained their new found salvation, but owing to circumstances have withdrawn from the active service. However, notwithstanding the drifting away of the recruits continually being added, to-day there are one hundred and twenty-five soldiers enrolled in the ranks of the local corps. They are commanded by Ensign Steele, a faithful officer who, however, may soon be moved to another station as is the custom in the Army. Then a fine band of nineteen musicians whose music has passed through that stage of the Salvation Army which makes a man's hair rise and has arrived at a stage of proficiency which makes the citizens enjoy their Salvation selections on the march out. The band has received a valuable addition to its members by the enrolling of the Green family of five musicians, who came to Peterborough last week to reside. The local corps is in a most prosperous condition and during the year many converts have come forward and sought the Saviour at the penitent form.

THE ANTI-VEGETARIAN MEETING commenced on Saturday evening, when Staff-Capt. Cox, the bright young lady officer who paid Peterborough a visit a few weeks ago, conducted the grand welcome anniversary jubilee and dedication services at the Simcoe-st. barracks. A large audience was present. Staff-Capt. Southall, D. O., is also in town and took part in the service. After the opening of Salvation songs, prayers and testimonies, in which Mark Spensley's stout out as usual in his originality of expression, the dedication ceremony took place. Staff-Capt. Cox explained the ceremony, which was performed under army orders in the same manner as has been often seen here. Two children, a son of Mr. Geo. Spensley and a daughter of Mr. H. H. Spensley, were duly dedicated to the Army. Staff-Capt. Cox then read a Scripture lesson and made a vigorous address at the conclusion of which two persons came forward to the penitent form.

A LIGHT IN A MILL.

Give the Police a Little Excitement—An Unfortunate Insurance Man Seeking Lodging.

The police had a little excitement out of the ordinary added to their bill of fare on Saturday night. About ten o'clock on Saturday night a telephone message was received from the nightwatchman at the mill on the Dickson Co's race, that a strange light had been seen moving around the mill.

Chief Roedel and Constable Adams went to the mill and the nightwatchman showed them an overcoat, a white shirt, a collar and a necktie, and insurance schedule and a note book he had found in the mill. The officers at once began an investigation and every nook of the big building was searched from the bottom story to the top of the tower. But no owner for the overcoat and linen could be discovered. The police returned shortly after eleven o'clock. About half past one o'clock Sunday morning another telephone message informed Constable Adams that the light had been seen in the mill again. Constables Adams and Stewart at once set out for the mill armed with dark lanterns. Constable Stewart and the nightwatchman went in and began a search while Constable Adams waited outside to prevent escape. When the searchers reached the third or fourth story Constable Adams went in and joined them. They had gone up nearly to the top when upon reaching one of the floors a voice came out of the darkness saying "Say, have you fellows got my coat?" The owner of the voice was a young man who was at once taken in custody and escorted to the cells. He said he was an insurance man and had come here a couple of weeks ago to work for one of the local agents. He had received several promises of risks, but had written up none and the money was very low. He had been stopping with a friend, but as he could not pay board he got ashamed and decided to sleep out rather than impose upon a friend. On Saturday night he accordingly spotted the mill as a suitable lodging house and had gone in and taken off his coat and white shirt so that he would not dirty them. Then he went up street and was gone when the police paid their first visit. The light that was seen was from a small wax candle he had with him. The man appeared to be respectable but unfortunate and he was allowed to go Sunday morning.

EDISONIAN ATHLETES.

The Edison Baseball Club Organized for the Season—A Town League Talked of.

On Saturday evening the baseball club of the Edison Athletic Club met in the club parlors to organize for the season. Baseball will be represented in the Edison club by a strong team this year and, with the other clubs which have been organized, an active season can be looked for.

Mr. R. H. Hunter was in the chair and the matters of the club were well talked over. Mr. Sam. Foster was elected captain and a supply committee, composed of Messrs. S. Foster, T. Arthur and A. Pomphrey, was appointed.

The matter of forming a local baseball league was discussed. It was suggested that a league, including Fort Hope, Lindsay, Cobourg and other outside clubs and the local teams be organized. There were various objections to such a scheme as the arrangement of a schedule for so many outside games would be a difficult matter, an active season can be looked for.

However it was thought that a league of the town clubs might be desirable as a means of creating and maintaining an interest in the game throughout the season. This object in view representatives of the different clubs will be asked to meet, discuss the matter and if possible arrange a season's schedule of games. Messrs. Sam. Foster and J. M. C. Barnes were appointed to meet representatives from the Edison club on such a joint committee.

The meeting then adjourned.

A Big Show.

The most recent successful spectacular play, "The Bottom of the Sea," will be presented at Brockton Opera House Saturday, April 4th, only one night. The piece is a decided novelty, and its production in other cities has attracted crowds. It is said to be one of the most marvelous comedies of this generation, and to favor of the weird imagination of Jules Verne.

The scenes are said to be artistic and mechanical triumphs in their way, presented with surprising elaboration of detail. The object in view is to lay out a submarine cable, the wreck of a vessel, and the rescue of the passengers are all vividly pictured. The height of this sensational realism is shown in the descent of divers to the "dreadful" depths of ocean, "the repairing of a broken cable, and an attack on the divers by an enormous octopus. The company presenting the piece is said to be good, and a fine production throughout.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The young men's rally Saturday evening was addressed by Mr. E. M. Russell, on "The Final Reckoning" and made an impression on all present. The attendance and attention was good. The orchestra rendered excellent service in the song service. A very helpful after meeting was held.

The Bible Study and Consecration Service led by Mr. Thomas Dodd's was both profitable and practical and a short blessing was the result.

The General Secretary gave a short talk to men only at the "Personal Purity Meeting" yesterday afternoon, which we trust will bear fruit. The Y. M. C. A. had added much to the success of the meeting in the service of song.

Last evening the hall was crowded at the "Gospel and Song Service." Sheriff Hall gave a very practical and helpful address which was good seed sown and will bear fruit. A letter was read from Mr. F. G. Saunders, China, which was full of encouragement and bright with future promises. The service was a solemn one and many when away to ponder the things heard.

The Commercial Man's Grip.

I have long looked for a preparation that would keep my head clear of Dandruff, but always failed to receive any material benefit until a friend recommended Anti-Dandruff, which I used with perfect success. It not only removed the dandruff, but with three applications, but stopped the annoying itching of the scalp and rendered the hair soft and pliable without leaving an appearance of a dressing being used. It now occupies a permanent position in my grip. It is pleasant to use, and with pleasure I recommend it.

A BANK ENTERED.

Burglars Gain an Entrance to the Ontario Bank But Their Booty is Small.

Exaggerated reports were on the wing yesterday that the Ontario Bank at the corner of Simcoe and Water-sts had been burglarized between Saturday night and Sunday morning. These reports had their beginning in the operations of some amateur robber who visited the bank.

About ten minutes to four o'clock on Sunday morning, Nightwatchman Gordon on his rounds found that the side door on Water-st. leading into the back yard behind the Ontario Bank and Hall, Innes & Co's. floor had been forced. Proceeding further the Nightwatchman found that the back door of the bank had been opened by means of a hole which had been cut from the outside. Mr. Gordon went inside but found that the nocturnal thief had done his work. He then went out with Constable Stewart made a thorough examination of the premises but could find nothing. Mr. W. F. Nelson, one of the clerks, slept above the bank but when awakened by the police had seen no previous visitors.

There is an iron door on the back door of the bank but this had not been closed of late. The thief or thieves had bored a circle of holes with a small auger and in this way made a hole which admitted a hand which turned the key that was in the lock on the inside.

An entrance gained an examination of the teller's box revealed a small twenty-two calibre revolver and part of the Saturday's lunch. These were taken and composed the whole of the burglar's booty. The lunch was in a tin ash box and when the stealthy visitors found the box they undoubtedly thought of the money which they carried it out into the yard and upon opening it and finding the remains of a lunch instead of currency of the realm they hung it away in disgust. The manner in which the work was done, the absence of all right, but the door was open when the thief came again at 3.30. Constable Stewart also passed the bank after two but everything was quiet then.

100 INFERNAL MACHINES

DISCOVERED BY THE PARIS POLICE IN A SINGLE DAY.

Together with a Large Quantity of Dynamite—The Ammuni- tion Expertly Sealed Out of Their Wits by the Determined Attempt to Intimidate Them.

PARIS, April 4.—The finding of one hundred and fifty infernal machines and several dynamite cartridges in various parts of Paris, evidently having been hastily thrown away, shows that the anarchists are greatly alarmed at the rigorous domestic inspections which are being made by the police and have taken this means of getting out of their possession any articles which would incriminate them. The police are prosecuting their search in the strictest manner and are removing every hole and corner for explosives.

Ravachol, who is the composer of explosives, invented a kind of machine, having twice the power of ordinary dynamite and five times the strength of dynamite. It is composed of one part of nitroglycerine and two parts of fuming sulfuric acid.

OWED $93,000

Further Details of the Connection at Brussels.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 4.—A Belgian newspaper has been enquiring into the facts in regard to the disappearance of McLean & McLean's private bank.

The assets are placed at about $93,000, while the liabilities are only about $73,000. There was $20,000 of the bank's assets, this being very little withdrawn owing to a report that the bank was in liquidation.

McLean, the senior partner, who is now engaged in lumbering in Alabama, has been communicated with and is expected here to-morrow.

In the meantime C. R. Armstrong of London is acting as receiver for the McLean's Bank.

The difficulty has arisen from advances to local firms, among whom are grain men and who deserve very little sympathy.

McLean has been a resident of Brussels for about 15 years and enjoyed the highest regard of the people, and as a mark of the esteem in which he was held in Brussels was elected reeve in January, by acclamation, after a three years' experience as councillor at the board.

McLean wrote back from Windsor that he had plenty of surplus to square off all accounts, claiming to have a margin of over $20,000, but saying he had not time enough to face his creditors.

CAUGHT AT THEIR WORK.

Two Burglars Captured by the Police in a London Store.

LONDON, April 4.—At 1 o'clock Saturday morning Police Constables Ralph and Campbell while on duty noticed that something was evidently wrong in the store of Mr. E. V. Vail, merchant tailor, 247 Dundas-street, and on going to the rear of the building found a window broken. The officers quickly entered, and with the aid of their dark lanterns discovered two men crouching behind a counter. Ralph and Campbell drew their revolvers and covered their game, who at first appeared disposed to resist arrest. They were finally overpowered, however, and conveyed to the station. One of the men had on a new suit of clothes, and his old ones were lying on the floor. The fellow had decked himself out in a new pair of trousers. They gave their names as James Clark and John Dwyer and said they belonged to the States. This is the second time the same place has been entered within three weeks.

Examining Board at Ottawa.

MONTREAL, April 4.—At the annual convention of Medical Councils for the conferring of degrees in medicine at Montreal, the old council, Dr. Johnson, is the voluntary attracted a secret society which exists in the University. He said that one professor of the University was a member of it, and this fact alone caused a spirit of division and distrust among the students. He added that the class of '22 was not one of them, and unless it was stamped out the reputation of McGill would be greatly impaired.

The situation was cleared up by the fact that the majority of the students present.

Your correspondent interviewed several of the students on the subject and one said that he was in looking up Dr. Johnson's records.

In view of the spirit displayed by the students it is believed that the faculty will take immediate steps to suppress the matter.

Dr. Johnson, in addressing the "ser" class, advised the formation of an examining board in Ottawa, which may mean a new board in Ottawa, which may mean a new board in Ottawa, which may mean a new board in Ottawa.

La Patrie Declares in Favor of Annexation.

MONTREAL, April 4.—Mr. Macdonald's candidature in Toronto as a straight annexationist has awakened considerable interest in political circles here, and the French-Canadian press especially is devoting a good deal of attention to it. La Patrie, the leading French Liberal organ, which is owned by ex-Mayor Beaudry, in tonight's issue publishes the full text of Mr. Macdonald's manifesto, and in a leading article endorses his candidature and comes out flat-footed in favor of the annexation of Canada to the United States. La Patrie says: "We believe that if this question was frankly submitted to the electorate the popular vote would show a very unexpected result. Should the false pretension that our religion, our language and our nationality would incur more risk in the United States than in the Canadian Confederation be laid aside? Should the electors, who for the most part know the United States from having lived in it, or from having relations in it, be asked whether they would prefer imperial federation, to which we are being drawn despite ourselves, or political union with the States, to which we are naturally gravitating? Should we say to them, 'Will you be English or American? You have no other alternative,' the majority of the citizens, who do not profit from our two nations government, would respond from their hearts that they were Americans, and that they cared nothing for the title of Canadian or for the Old Game? Such is our opinion as regards the Province of Quebec, and Mr. Macdonald, who should know, says that in thousands of cases the people of Ontario declare that the only way to put an end to our chronic trouble is to have annexation to the United States."

Not Much More, but Plenty of Froth to the Line.

New York, April 4.—Miss Caroline Pluge, who is using Joseph Probst, the Brooklyn brewer, for $20,000 damages for blighted affections, disclosed to the court yesterday the romantic way in which Probst, as she declares, proposed to her. She had come to his house for some vermouth after a concert, and whether because of love or vermouth, Probst burst into effusive poetry.

Oh, I am so happy now, by do you want to go? You're my joy.

Of course, Caroline could not resist that. She had her baby boy in court this noon. Since the quarrel with her Probst has married.

HAMBURG, April 3.—A large warehouse at the head of the Kaiser Quay, was destroyed Saturday, involving a loss of several million marks. The chief of the fire brigade perished in the flames.

NEW ORLEANS, April 3.—One of the most destructive cotton fires on record broke out in morning among some cotton on the sidewalk in front of the fireproof press in North Front-street. REBELLY, April 3.—A dwelling house in Posen caught fire during the night and before all the occupants could get out the staircases had burned away.

On the fourth story of the burning house were a woman and five children.

The only way for them to escape the awful death that threatened them was to jump from the windows.

The crowd on the street procured a blanket which was spread over the roof and the woman and children were then taken to jump.

She was instantly killed.

One of the children jumped and met the man jumping down, it seemed to the crowd that the child had jumped high enough to break the fall.

The other children also jumped, but each of them received injuries that will prove fatal.

New York, April 4.—There was an attempt made shortly after midnight to burn a tenement house at 560 West 54th-street, in which there were sleeping 50 men, women and children.

The police have no clue to the firebug.

Two attempts were made early this morning to burn a tenement house at 173 East 99th-street, which is occupied by colored people.
